By Nanalee Nichols

I have a friend who says "Be careful what you wish for...you might get it". And it won't hurt any of us to ponder on the fact that the statement is true, so true.

As an example: for the last few months there has been no me...absolutely no time. When eoffice wasn't demanding something some other organization, or obligation was. For months on in I thought longlingly of how nice it would be to sleep late just one morning...how glorious it would be to have the chance to read a book straight through instead of in bits and snatchs..how nice to have the chance to watch a movie some

Then this surgery came up and all I have is time. It's absolutely awful! I wake up at the same time anyway...I've read every book within my grasp, watched movies til I'm bored with them. All I want to do is go to work...full time, now, not in a few weeks!

See.."be careful what you wish ...you might get it".

Overweight people always want to be thin...myself included. But consider that there are many ways of being thin...and a lot of them aren't so good. Wasting diseases, famine, poverty...these are not good methods for weight loss!

Wishing for more time to spend with family and friends can be fulfilled in a variety of ways. Some of those ways include unemployment, ill health or bankruptcy!

Money, perhaps the one thing almost everyone wishes for more of, isn't always the blessing it seems. For all the jokes about "Money may everything. but it's way ahead of whatever's in second place", acquiring money through life insurance is not usually to anyone's taste. Inheriting money at the loss of a loved one just isn't the way to make money! Insurance payments because a business or house burns down, or from theft, simply isn't appealing.

I suppose the whole point is that we tend to "wish" for things indiscriminantly, without considering just how those things may be achieved.

Of course, it going to seem a nttle silly to wish for "a really trim figure without having to diet, and without being sick, or poor or lost in the wilderness or anything bad".

But it doesn't really matter, because wishing is just that, about outside of science fiction stories, wishes just don't usually come true!

Blanche Vickers Still Active At 90 Years

By Mollie Williams

Ninety years young is certainly a phrase befitting Blanche Vickers. Most people at this age are unable to continue the same lifestyle they have maintained for the past 30 years, but Mrs. Vickers is a special case. She still lives alone and does all her own housecleaning, including vacuum cleaning, she also does a great amount of her yard work, but does get some help from her son, Jerrel Vickers. Not only does she maintain her home, she handles her own finances and banking. She faithfully attends church at the United Methodist Church in Bogata where she is a member and spends much of her time sewing and enjoying her grandchildren and greatgrandchildren.

Mrs. Vickers was born Friday, December 2, 1898 in Delta County to Pleas and Fannie Terry Robison. She attended schools in Minter, Lone Oak and Deport. She maried Jim Vickers in Minter on October 17, 1916. She recalls that her wedding day was blessed with a downpour of rain. She and Mr. Vickers rode to the church in a covered wagon. A friend, Felix Stalls, had decorated the church for the occasion, but not wanting to get the plume on her hat wet, they had the preacher and the witnesses gather beside the wagon and she became Mrs. Vickers in front of the church in the covered wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Vickers moved to Red River County in 1918 where they raised seven boys and one girl, including a set of twins. The children's names were James Monroe, now deceased, Ray, deceased, Faye Bell Conine of Rosalie, Jerrell of Bogata, Arthur, deceased, Billy Joe of Talco, Jimmy of Oklahoma City, OK and Harold of El Paso. Mr. Vickers died in 1970.

Although there were many hard and lean times during those years raising eight children, Mrs. Vickers say sthat she and Mr. Vickers always managed to feed their children well and provide the shelter and care they needed. According to the children, their parents accomplished this by a lot of hard work and self-sacrificing.

Mrs. Vickers has known the anguish and worry of a mother having five sons serve in the armed forces, three of them fighting in World War II. She learned the true meaning of faith and the worth of prayer during

Not only did Mrs. Vickers manage to be a good mother, wife and homemaker, she helped her family financially by working in the Bogata School Cafeteria for 11 years.

Mrs. Vickers' 90th birthday was celebrated Saturday, December 3 with a surprise party given by her children and grandchildren at the Community Center in Bogata. She says she realizes she has much to be thankful for. Her children, relatives, friends and neighbors all say they have much to be thankful for, also, because their lives have been greatly blessed from the influence of such a wonderful person as Mrs. Blanche Vickers.

The Rivercrest Invitational Tournament highlighted last week's action. The boys division was an olympic style format, with four teams playing; Rivercrest, James Bowie, Detroit and Mt. Vernon. Rivercrest defeated all three opponents to claim the championship tropy Against James Bowie in the tourney opener, the Rebels jumped to a 17-4 first period lead, then coasted to a comfortable 71-55 win. Balanced scoring from the Rebels saw Jason Pogue with 16, Jimmy Lewis 14, Bradley Woods 15 and Jeremy Abshire with 11.

The Friday night encounter pitted the Rebels against Detroit. It was no contest as the Rebels defeated the Eagles 66-31. Woods led the way with 23 points, the only Rebel in doublt figures.

The championship duel matched Is Rivercrest and the Mt. Vernon Purple Tigers. The REbels played well as a unit, and shot a deadly 75% from the field to earn a 81-58 victory. All five Rebel starters scored in double digits: Woods led wtih 22 points, while Brown had 15, Pogue 13 and Lewis and Abshire 10 each. Galen Logan came off the bench to hit three three-point shots. The Rebels were bombing the net from the outside, hitting nine triple pointers for the game, six of these came in the

their opponents 24-11 to pull away from a 35-32 halftime advantage to a 16-point bulge as the final period

All tournament team selections were Darren Roberts of Detroit, Doyle Preston of the Purple Tigers and the Rivercrest Seniors of Lewis, Brown and Woods.

The Rebelettes started the tourney with an easy victory over the Mt. Vernon Junior Varsity unit, 70-21. Rosie Norman had 24 points, including 20 in the first quarter, but teammate Amy Gladden finished with 25 points in the slaughter.

It was a far different story on Friday, as the Rebelettes blew a third quarter lead, 35-33 against Detroit's Lady Eagles and found themselves on the short end of a 57-43 final count. Detroit outscored the distaff Rebels 24-8 in the last eight minutes. Gladden had only 14 points, but Kristie Stansell added 12. Twana Carey had 27 points to pace the Eagles. Detroit lost the championship game in overtime to the Lady Tigers from Mt. Vernon, when Shannon Bolin hit both ends of a one and one with 30 seconds left in regulation play, to tie the game, then scored four more in overtimeto give the Tigers a 48-46

The Rebelettes secured third place in the tournament wiht a 61-50 win thid period, as the Rebs outscored over Class 3A Clarksville. Gladden

Friday night the young Rebels faced Sulphur Springs and in a rough and tumble contest, earned a 56-54 win. Shane Beers paced his team with 23 points, while Jim Purviance, coming off an ankle injury added eight more.
