The pen is mightier than the sword...word power...the power of the press. These are all examples of just how powerful the written word is. And if there seems to be a lot less of the written word around these days, what with TV and computerization, just remember...someone, somewhere wrote the words that actors and news reporters say!

As an illustration on my point: The autumn leaves danced merrily in the glancing golden light.

The golden coins of fallen leaves skittered elusively across the fabric of fall.

The autumn leaves ran fearfully before the desperate last gasp of the fading light.

The dank autumn leaves scurried hatefully before the bitter breath of winter.

See? With a few descriptive adjectives the entire mood can be altered!

Look at how many sunsets can be created this way.

The glorious sun sank under the tender blue horizon of the earth.

The bloody sun filled the sky with crimson as if some giant battle had taken place.

The brilliant sunset filled the clear crystal sky with rainbow colors, golden and cream, pink and red as if in celebration of God's creation.

The sullen sun sank beneath the threatening clouds, vanquished by the storms on the horizon.

Words can be used to alter moods and create ideas within the reader's, or hearer's mind.

She frowned in violent anger. She frowned in puzzlement. She frowned in concentration. She frowned in consideration.

He walked happily down the street, whistling merrily.

He stomped heavily down the street, whistling in nervous anxiety.

He strode hurriedly down the street, whistling to keep fear at bay.

He strolled leisurely down the street, whistling in relaxed inattention.

The examples of word power are nearly endless. With the simple addition of a few descriptive words, the entire scene can be altered.

Words are powerful, words are precise, and sometimes it's nice just to consider what wonderful tools they really are.

People & Things

The Bogata Lions Club will meet Thursday, November 2 at the Community Center at 7 p.m.

The Children's Community Choir, under the direction of Penny Graham, will begin practice November 5 and November 12 at the Assembly of God Church at 5:15 p.m. The choir will sing at the annual Community Thanksgiving service. All area church children, grades 1-8, are invited to participate.

The city officials in Bogata have noticed that people are beginning to burn trash and leaves again, after the little shower. They ask people please not to burn, since the fire is extremely dry and grass fires are a real danger.

October Rebate Figures Released

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that October's sales tax rebates to cities and counties continue to tell the story of an economy that's steadily growing.

Bullock said that October's city rebates statewide are up almost 11% from October 1988, and year to date payments to cities are up an average of 9.5%.

"Consumers have more money to spend and they're doing just that," Bullock said. "That means another month of increased sales tax rebates for local areas."

October also marks the first month the Metropolitan Transit Authorities will start receiving their rebates quarterly rather than monthly. The change is the result of legislation passed during the last session, Bullock said.

The six MTAs in Texas will receive their next payment in December.

Houston received the largest payment in the state at $11.7 million and Dallas' check of $8.2 million was the second largest.

Locally, Blossom received $751.59 for a 20.24% increase over 1988 payments to date. Deport received $606.64 for a 14.64% increase over the 1988 payments.

Paris received $156,701.05 for a

5.77% increase.

Bogata received $1,499.73 for a 10.93% increase over the 1988 payment for the same period while Clarksville received $13,774.35 for a 2.88% decrease.

Detroit received no payment for this period.

Mt. Pleasant received $88,890.98 for a 11.28% increase.

Talco received $1,112.99 for a 9.46% decrease.

October's checks represent taxes collected by businesses in August and reported to the Comptroller's office in September.

Commodities Volunteers Work Hard

By Mollie Williams
Erma Bombeck recently wrote a humorous, yet thought-provoking article about a dream in which she dreamt that all the volunteers in America were deported to another country. The emptiness caused by their departure was quite alarming. As I read this article, I felt a pang of guilt for the lack of appreciation I sometimes show for those who so willingly give of their time and efforts toward worthy causes.

One of those very worthy causes in our community is the commodity distribution each month. Many of our elderly and needy citizens depend greatly on these commodities. These commodities go into 249 homes and help 431 people each month, yet there are no paid personnel to handle the distribution. How does it all come about? Who goes to Clarksville to pick up the commodities and then who sacks them? The answer is, volunteers.

Those good people who care enough to give of their time to help others. Those that help in this operation are too many to list by name, but the group includes men and women, young and old.

There are several men who leave early on commodity days, pick up the commodities in Clarksville, haul them to Bogata, and then unload the heavy sacks. Then they take those commodities that go to residents in the Housing Authority, sack them, and deliver them to those recipients, then there is a swarm of industrious ladies at the distribution headquarters who sack the commodities, check cards, and sign up recipients. There are others who help by sending home-baked treats for the workers to snack on during the day.

All these volunteers work together to provide a much needed service for our community. They are to be highly commended for their generosity in serving others.

Methodist Bazaar To Be Held

The United Methodist Church of Bogata will hold its annual Bazaar on Saturday, November 11 from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m.

There will be a turkey lunch with all the trimmings served beginning at 11 a.m. Adult meals are $4.00 and children are $2.50.

Voters Should Check To See If Water Board Election Is On Or Off! Details As To Whether It Will Or Will Not Be Held Unavailable At Presstime

Monday, October 30, a Gilmer judge signed a temporary injunction order halting the Red River County Water District election planned for Nov. 7, 1989. However, reports indicated that a last minute meeting on Wednesday morning, November 1, was trying to get the injunction overturned so that the election could go ahead and be held.

Since the outcome of this meeting was unknown at press time voters are urged to listen to radio or other sources to find out whether they should go to the polls on this issue or not.

Cemetery Visit Results In Facelift For Grounds

When Octavis and Velma Westbrook went to McKenzie Chapel Cemetery to clean up the Varner family plot, they discovered that the cemetery was badly in need of cleaning and clearing.

So they went to work, mowing the entire grounds.

As always, when an example is set, others pitch in, so that now they are putting in the culvert and Precinct 4 Commissioner is going to help them install it. They are grading the driveway, and Mac Bell in Bogata is donating a load of sand.

Anyone wishing to donate money to help get the cemetery into shape is urged to make their donation at Peoples National Bank in Bogata.

Card of Thanks

I would like to thank everyone that has prayed for me and to thank the Red River Sheriff's Department, my probation officer and judges, too.

I was pretty wild about drinking and driving cars and motorcycles at high speeds. Someone took a moment to pray for me and God heard and answered those prayers. I turned my life over to God, to live the rest of it for him.

When I leave this world, I can go to Heaven to live and enjoy what He has prepared for His children for eternity. I just wanted to take time to let you know that I thank from the bottom of my heart.

Thanks,
Jimmy Jenkins

Card of Thanks

There is no way we can begin to thank the people of this community for all that they have done for us. Through your love and prayers, we were all able to face this tragedy and there is great comfort in knowing he touched so many other lives besides our own.

James Grant and Jim Wood, you were there every step of the way. Brothers Don, Bill and Chief, you were such a comfort. Lisa, Gail, Molly Ann, Aunt Loree and Christy, the music was beautiful. Mark, Billy, Donnie Mac, Gary, John and Danny, you hold a very special place in our hearts. We want to thank all the ladies who came and served. We deeply appreciate all the prayers, food, flowers, cards, memorial donations and calls. We also appreciate all the beautiful kids of this town for giving us their strength.

Please remember there are two families in this town who still need your prayers.

I would like to take this time and give a special thanks to the people who have helped in the football concessions. I realize it hasn't been under the best of circumstances at times. With the building only partly finished, it was hectic, but it all turned out for the best.

Basketball season is coming up with the first home game being November 16. So when someone calls and asks you to work, say yes.

Remember Band Boosters are not only band parents, but teachers, other students and the community itself. We need the support of every one of you to help make this a good year for the band. They have made us proud by their past performances, now let's make them proud by showing our support.

The band doesn't just make noise for the football team, they make music and are trying to hold onto the 17AA District Honor Band title just as the football team is trying to go to bi-District.

Young Homemakers Meet

The Young Homemakers met Tuesday, October 24 in the home-making room at Rivercrest High School. The meeting was called to order by president, Sherry Hollis. The minutes of the preceding meeting were ready by secretary-treasurer, Angie Burgess. Secret pals were drawn and several different fundraisers were discussed.

Beverly Taylor won the door prize, given by Cody Deaton. After the meeting was adjourned, members enjoyed eating different kinds of pumpkin desserts.

The next meeting is scheduled for November 28 in the homemaking room at Rivercrest High School. There will be a Christmas craft program. The guest speaker will be Denise Reigert. All members and non-members are invited to attend.

FACULTY, administration and Student Council of Rivercrest High School are pleased to announce their 1989-90 D.A.R. Good Citizen nominee, Janet Harper. Janet is the daughter of Helen Harper and the late Howard Harper. She is a member of the National Honor Society, serves on the Student Council as senior class president and is an active member of Bogata First Assembly of God Church. Janet was selected for this honor as the senior who best exemplifies outstanding qualities of leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism in her school, home and community. The National Association of Secondary School Principals has approved this program and placed it on the National Advisory List of Contests and Activities for 1989-90. As an area nominee in the statewide contest, Janet must answer a questionnaire and write an essay. ## Rebels Use Big Play To Beat Eagles

By Gary House

At the beginning of the '89 football campaign, Rebel head coach Terry Giddens promised an exciting and explosive offense, capable of scoring quickly. Against the Como-Pickton Eagles last week, the prophecy came to fruition, as the Rebels scored three times in the first half on plays of 65, 59 and 53 yards.

The Rebel defense then made equally important plays to prevent the Eagles from overtaking them, resulting in a 21-14 Rebel victory.

The win was the third of the year against five losses; but, more importantly, the Rebels now own a 2-1 District 17A mark, but face an uphill battle into the play-offs as they meet Leonard at home Friday night and then close against the fifth ranked Cooper Bulldogs a week later on their turf.

The sparkplug in Friday's exciting offensive explosion was senior tailback Jeremy Abshier, who continued the torrid pace begun against Honey Grove, by scoring all three of the Rebel markers. Abshier rushed for a season high of 213 yards on 16 carries, an average of 13.3 per carry. In the last two games, the single-minded Rebel has accounted for 1/2 of his season total of 592 rushing yards, and has scored the last five Rebel touchdowns. The sure-handed receiver also caught two passes for 75 yards to account for 288 of the Rebels total offensive production of 313 yards.

To be sure, it required a total team effort to secure the victory. The Rebel defense repeatedly made the big play to thwart the Eagle advance. For example, the Eagles took the opening kick-off and were moving downfield, when junior guard Jesse Woods pounced on an Eagle fumble. With 8:07 to go in the quarter, the Rebel offense came onto the field, and on the first play Jeremy Abshier ran off tackle, following the block of Joey Webb and Kevin Binion, and escaped from four tackles for a 65 yard run to glory. Joshua Abshier added the point after.

After the Eagles rebounded with a ball-controlling drive of 68 yards, culminating in a tying touchdown, both defenses forced punts. Near the midway point of the second stanza, Abshier again broke into a secondary and galloped to victory lane to make the score 14-7, Rebels. This run was created by the excellent blocking of the Rebel offensive line, led by seniors Chad Ingram and Binion and junior Russell Ward.

The final Rebel score of the game was set up by the Rebel defensive line, as senior Joey Webb sacked quarterback Chris Self for an eight yard loss, forcing a punt.

From the Eagle 47-yard line, Rebel signal caller Shane Beers found, guess who, on a 53-yard pass and run for the margin of victory. The Eagle offense threatened to score just before halftime, but Ward killed the threat as he sacked Self for another 10 yard loss as the halftime gun sounded.

The only second half scoring came on the opening drive of the third quarter as Self capped a 60-yard drive with a three yard run. The Eagles managed 281 total yards, evenly balanced with 136 yards rushing and 145 yards passing. A key defensive play was made later in the period by Beers, who recovered the third Eagle fumble of the contest at the Rebel 10-yard line.

The Rebel defense stood the test in the fourth quarter as they repeatedly made big plays to curtail the Eagle rally. Kevin Binion batted down a key third down pass, and cornerback David Davidson made a crucial pass interception.

Social Security Notes

By Ray Hudson, District Manager
 Paris Social Security Office

Social Security Services Are Free Of Charge.....As a Social Security manager, it bothers me to know that people pay for services they can receive free from Social Security. It happens every day. Companies send out letters offering to sell Social Security information or services--information and services that are available FREE by simply calling Social Security and asking for them.

Recent legislation puts some restrictions on these firms; for example, they must now make it clear they are not affiliated with the government. But many of them continue to be in business and continue to take advantage of a public unaware of their rights under Social Security.

Exactly what do these companies ask people to buy? One firm sells memberships for $7. In return for your $7, the firm sends you a plastic Social Security card, a form to request a statement of your Social Security earnings and a guide to Social Security.

The form that lets you check your Social Security earnings is available free from any Social Security office. It is called a "Request for Personal Earnings and Benefit Estimate Statement". It provides a listing of your yearly earnings and estimates of what your benefits will be when you retire or if you become disabled or die. You wouldn't need their guide to Social Security since you can get various free publications about Social Security at any Social Security office. And who needs a plastic Social Security card? The card issued by Social Security is the only official one. If it wears out or you lose it, Social Security will replace it, free of charge.

Other firms offer to assist people with filing for retirement benefits or filing for a Social Security number for their baby. And some firms offer newly married women help in getting their names changed in Social Security's records.

In many cases, the assistance provided is simply a blank form that must be completed and sent back to Social Security. Or sometimes the company takes the information and transfers it to a Social Security form.

Of course, there's no reason to pay anyone to do this. Social Security provides forms and assistance to anyone who needs them at no charge.

If you ever receive mail offering Social Security information or services for a fee, call Social Security first. The number is in the telephone directory. Chances are we can give you the same thing, free.
