"Okay guys, watch out. I'm fixing to go ahead and address this column to women only! Naturally, what I'm talking about is men...and how they can't find anything...not a single solitary thing!

I know, I know, you think I'm being unfair...but think about all the jokes you guys make about women drivers, women being stupid, women being hysterical.

But ladies, have you ever known a man who can find his socks if you don't match 'em up in the drawer?

How many times has this happened: he goes to the refrigerator to look for...let's say...the mustard. He opens the door, gives a quick glance inside and announces "honey, we're out of mustard!"

"No we're not" you reply. He opens the door again, takes another peek, and again says there is no mustard.

Finally you get up and come into the kitchen, open the door, move one little item and there is this big jar of mustard.

I don't know why this is...personally I think they are born this way...some sort of genetic flaw.

And, over the years, almost all men begin to expect that you will know exactly where their belts, socks, shoes, boots, shirts, pens, glue, and virtually everything else is. It sometimes seems to be the female's primary skill in life!

The same man who can walk to a cluttered corner in his shop and find the smallest allen head wrench can't locate his shirt when it's hanging on a hanger in the closet.

Even worse is when a female attempts to give a male directions to something!

Sitting on the couch with lap full of crochet, craft, book, shelled peas or whatever the female never learns. When her mate says "Where's the can opener", instead of simply putting up her stuff and going to get it she invariably tries telling him where to look.

It's in the drawer to the right of the stove, behind the butcher knives.

He will rummage in said drawer...then announce "nope, it's not here".

"Look over to theright" she answers.

"Nope, it's just not here" he replies in frustration.

THEN she gets up, walks in and finds the can opener in the exact, precise location she had said it was.

This causes ill feeling on both sides!

It's an amazing phenomenon...and one that informal polling reveals most couples have had to learn to live with.

Fortunately, it's only good for a few rueful smiles...if life's problems were ALL that simple wouldn't it be grand!

My Past Christmas

By Linda Eilers'

Children this time of year are so excited, it won't be long until Christmas Day, everyone is busy making their Christmas list or telling Mother's and Daddy's what they want for Christmas, and of course, some of the lists will take a page and a half of paper for their wants.

I would like to share one of my past Christmases with you. Please forgive me, for an author, I am not.

A long time ago when I was a young girl, times were very hard for my parents. My Daddy worked for lower the minimum wage and my mother ironed clothes for other people and cleaned their homes for extra money.

When Christmas came, we never had a Christmas list, we got what our parents could afford and during those times it wasn't very much, due to the economy it couldn't be helped.

I remember one Christmas very well because my oldest brother was married and we went to his house for Christmas that year, he lived in Dallas. Boy, we were excited about our getting to go to Dallas, because traveling a long distance was a luxury (rich people did that). I remember we arrived at my brother's house, they had it decorated so pretty for Christmas. We ate, sat around, talked and then it was time to go to bed, we were all tired.

The next morning we all got up and of course, Santa Claus had come during the night. I remember he left me a beautiful pair of shoes, they were black suede with bows across the top. I put those shoes on and wore them, boy did they hurt my feet! But do you think I told my parents? Of course I didn't, because it was the only gift I received that year. You would have thought I had gotten a million dollars. Those shoes made sores on the tops of my feet where the bows were connected, but I never complained because I was so thankful for that pair of shoes.

Today, the economy is lots better, needless to say, I have probably gotten more than one pair of shoes that hurt my feet, but I often look back on that Christmas and am still thankful my mother and daddy made sure I got a gift, even though it wasn't a lot.

I also stop to think my mama and daddy were not rich then, and still are not rich today. But you know, they really are rich, maybe not with money, but with love for me and my brothers.

So, remember children, when you make out your Christmas list. Your parents may not be financially able to fulfill your every desire, but there is one thing you will probably not have on your list and that is your parents' love. That is a very precious gift that will last a lifetime, but gifts do not!

Rebels/Rebelettes Split Games With Prairiland

On almost any night, save Wednesday or Sunday, the basketball enthusiast can find hardwood action. Varsity, Junior Varsity and "B" teams are each playing a full slate of contests in both girls and boys hoops. Following is a synopsis of early season games.

The Rivercrest Rebelettes currently stand at 2-2 as they get ready to begin district play against Como-Pickton next Tuesday, December 5. After droppin the season premiero to a tough Paris High School team, the Rebelettes rebounded to defeat Class 3-A Winnsboro. The Rebelettes split a duet of games with Prairiland last week, losing on the road and winning in their home opener.

The Rebelettes lost their shooting touch in a 45-33 loss to the Lady Patriots. The game was decided in the fourth quarter as Rebelette shooters hit no field goals and scored a total of three points in the eight minute stanza.

The Rebelettes also shot poorly from the free throw line, sinking only 11 of 30 attempts. Although no Rebelette had double figures, senior Tonya Hawkins led with eight points, while Krista Weatherall was close with seven and Kristie Stansell added six more. Star Ruckman led the Lady Patriots with 16 points, closely followed by Jan Scudder's 14. These girls were deadly from the outside.

The Rebelettes' resilience was shown three days later as they played the ungracious hostesses, trouncing the Lady Patriots, who were hobbled by injuries to a pair of starters, 59-29. The Rebelettes worked the inside game well, resulting in three post players having good scoring nights.

Senior Amy Gladden led all scorers with 19 points, while impressive sophomore Tiffany Parish added 13 more. Junior Katy Ross hit for seven points in limited play. The game became a runaway in the second half, as the Rebelettes scored the Lady Patriots 20-2 in the third period. Scudder and Ruckman had six points apiece for their team.

The Rebels are undefeated after three games. In an opening 68-56 win over Winnsboro, three Rebel seniors hit double figures: Jason Pogue led with 19 points, while fellow senior Jeremy Abshier had 18, and Donald Combs, returning to roundball after a year off, hit for 16 points. The Rebels proceeded to sweep a pair of games from the Prairiland Patriots the week of Thanksgiving. Abshier had 21 and Pogue had 16 in a 50-40 win.

Rivercrest built a 10-point lead midway in the final period, but saw the determined Patriots cut that margin to a single bucket with 3:00 minutes left to play. The Rebels turned it on to outscore the Patriots 12-4 in the final 2:37 to secure the victory.

Although the final score indicates otherwise, the second meeting between the two teams was closer.

Ahead by only three points at the end of three quarters, the Rebels used a 12-point fourth quarter outburst by Abshier to pull away to a 65-49 win.

Abshier ended with 25 points in the contest; Pogue had 15 points and junior Kevin House contributed nine more. These three starters are complimented by Combs and Galen Logan, while senior Jason Lankford has come from the bench to assist at forward and junior Ronald Simmons has spelled House and Pogue at post, although coach Wake Wood experimented by inserting all three during the game. Balanced scoring from Prairiland performers saw Brandon Oates and Randy Minter with 10 points, while Randy Barber was close with nine.

ANOTHER LESSON TO BE LEARNED...
...FROM DAD!
Teaching them about Savings
Learning the Savings habit early in life is important for your children, and one of your many responsibilities is getting them started as soon as possible toward a Savings goal.
Here at Peoples National Bank, we make it easier for you and for them, easier and more fun too, with interested and friendly folks who are members of our Community. Come on in and help them open their very own passbook Savings account and remember, it's not how much they save, but how regularly they save. Teaching your kids good habits like this is just another reason why they'll think you're the best Dad in town!

 Christmas Parade Prizes

The Bogata Lions Club met in regular session November 23 with 19
 members present.

A meal of ham, potato salad and pie was prepared and served by members Jack Crane and Mrs. Irene Blackwell.

David Rozell, president, called the meeting to order at 7:20 p.m. Lion Tommy Corbell was asked to give a report on the "graveyard project".

The Lions Club is attempting to document on a map, every grave in the Bogata Cemetery and then display the map with a legend of names
 so visitors can find former friends and family more easily.

President Rozell reported that Tail twister Franklin had collected some

$6.00 in fines from members failing to bring a canned good to the meeting. David stated that Lion Franklin is having a serious impact on those members who are becoming repeat offenders.

The December Christmas Parade
 was discussed and the prize awards, sponsored by the Lions Club, were set as follows: first, $60.00; second,
 $50.00; third, $40.00; fourth, $30.00

The Lions Christmas banquet was discussed and slated for December 7 at 7 p.m. Bogie's Cafe in Bogata will prepare and serve the meal.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:10

Important safety tips from Lone Star Gas
You can take comfort in Natural Gas.

Trusting gas for your home is a natural.
 After all, Lone Star Gas Company has been faithfully serving its customers for more than 75 years. Through the years, we have worked to earn your trust by providing safe, dependable natural gas.

Do you know why gas has a strong odor?
 Because we have added a harmless odorant to the gas that lets you know it's there. This is for your safety, so if you ever smell the strong odor of gas in your home,
 follow these rules:

Since gas lines run underground, you should also take precautions against disrupting these lines, particularly if you plan to:

- 1 Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Do not use your own telephone (telephones use small amounts of electricity). Do not strike a match, and do not do anything that might cause a spark.

- 1 Put in a new fence.

- 2 Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving doors open for ventilation.

- 2 Install an underground sprinkler system.

- 3 Go to the nearest telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the cause before returning to your home.

- 3 Perform any major landscape renovation.

Before you dig, call your local Lone Star Gas office. If you smell a gas odor while you're outside, immediately contact Lone Star Gas.

In our continuing effort to provide better, safer service, local Lone Star Gas offices are ready to answer any questions that contractors may have concerning the location of gas lines in their areas.

The safety record for natural gas is impressive, and peace of mind is an important part of what natural gas has to offer. By following these simple rules, you can take even greater comfort in natural gas.

During the Runaway Scrap, the term Texans applied to their flight from the invading Mexican army led by Santa Anna. Galveston became the capitol of the Republic of Texas. David G. Burnet, president of Texas and members of his cabinet, along with many other Texans, took refuge on the island in February of 1836. Their exile on the island continued until news came of the victory of the battle of San Jacinto on April 21, 1836.
