Sterner stuff, sterner stuff

A few weeks ago I was talking to Mike Sparks of Pattonville and we were discussing the fact that our mothers were made of some pretty sterner stuff.

His mom, Eloise, became ill some time back and he had to call the ambulance for her. She protested, not wanting to go to the hospital because her hair wasn't fixed.

This led me to remember that my mother fell and broke her leg years ago. She landed in the mud, and instead of letting anyone take care of her she managed to get to the car, go home, and bathe before going to the hospital!

Think about all the ladies you know who have that much determination. I'll lay bets that you know a number of them.

There were generations of women who paid strict attention to details...the details of hair and face, clothing and appearance. I don't mean that they spent a lot of money on these things, or that they were vain. I mean that standards were set and standards were upheld.

One had to be clean, neatly pressed and dressed and hair fixed. It was simply a matter of pride.

Me, I'm a flat out slob and coward. If I fell and broke my leg you'd find me mud smeared and whimpering in the emergency room. I frankly just don't have what it takes to get cleaned up first!

Worry about my hair? I don't do that on good days, much less on days when I'm ill.

I think it stems back to my "generation"....face it, there were no standards back in the late sixties and early seventies!

Weddings were held outdoors with flowers in people's hair and bare feet. Ragged jeans, unstyled hair was the norm. I won't tell any of you about some of the outfits I had!

So, what happens, as my generation ages? We don't change. We are basically a bunch of pretty slovenly folks!

"Foundation garments" for us?...forget it. Heels and hose at all times? No way!

But I do admire those women who preceded us for those high standards of personal appearance. Unfortunately, my admiration doesn't mean I try to emulate it.

They are made of sterner stuff, my friends, much sterner stuff.

Think Child Safety Fair is well attended in Bogata

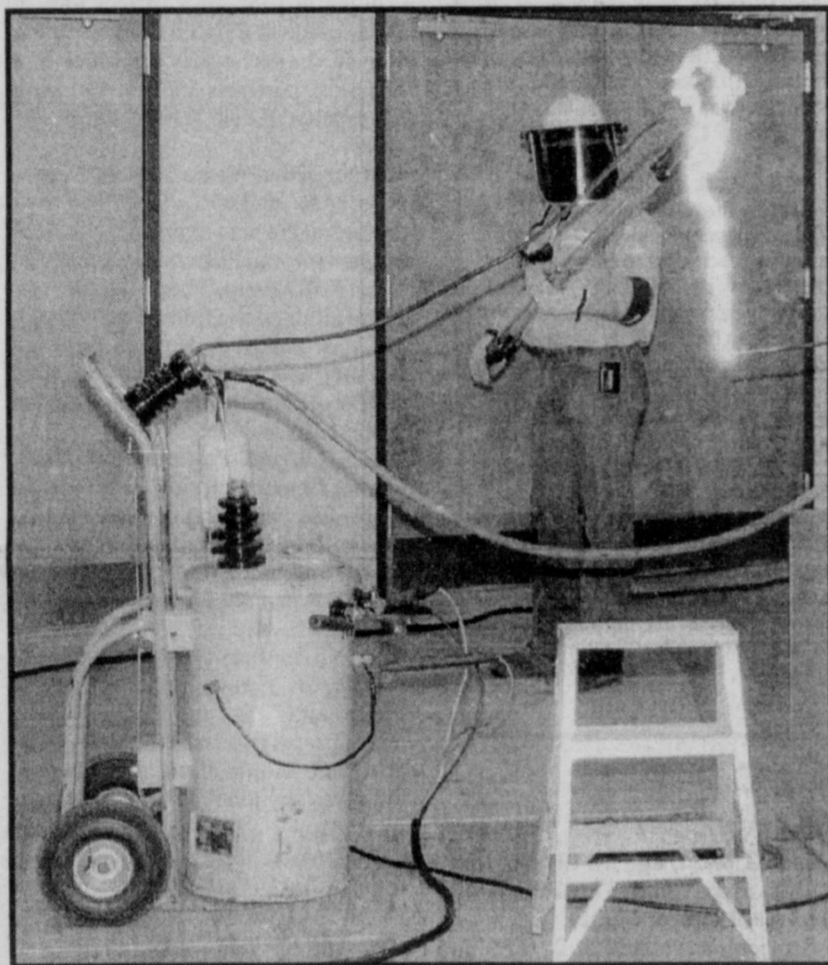

Opening ceremonies of the Think Child Safety Fair held Saturday, April 5, included the presentation of a Think Child Safety sign and a plaque designating the sign in memory of Eddie Thomas. Eddie was the son of Eleanor and Ken Maddox of Paris and the late James Thomas. He was the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Vaughan of Johntown and spent much of his childhood in Johntown and Bogata. He also attended eighth grade in Bogata.

After graduating Paris High School and spending six years in the U.S. Navy, Eddie became a paramedic employed by the Ground Emergency Medical Service of Mother Francis Hospital in Tyler. On May 30, 1988, the GEMS were called to the scene of an automobile accident in which a high voltage power line was down.

One person had already come in contact with the power line, and Eddie attempted to cross the line to render aid to the injured party. He accidentally touched the wire and was electrocuted immediately.

The Paris Emergency Medical Service dedicates these signs to their co-workers who have died in the course of their duties, consolidating the dedications with Think Child Safety. Stewart Dodson, creator of the Think Child Safety Program, made the presentation and indicated the sign would be erected at Thomas Park on Monday, April 7.

The fair was well attended by citizens of Bogata as well as many members of the Vaughan family who attended the opening ceremonies in memory of Eddie.

The book contains: history of Bogata, history of Bogata School, history of businesses in Bogata and histories of schools and communities that neighbor Bogata. The class of 1925-26 compiled a list of all graduates from the beginning of Bogata School until 1925 and we have added all graduates from that time to the last graduating class in Bogata in 1965. There are other articles we think you will enjoy.

The gym will open at 6:00 p.m. so that those of you who eat early can go on over and visit there. The large pictures of graduating classes will be displayed and maybe you can find yourself (remember the younger days). The history books will be on sale there. ## Letters

To The Editor:

As a former resident of Bogata I was actively involved in many phases of the community. There were countless Saturdays that my deceased husband, Jerrel Vickers, and myself cooked fish, stew and chili with the Lions Club. We traveled the communities giving to the needy with eyeglasses and food. We spent endless hours at the rodeo with the concession stand and at the Frontier's Day Racing Turtles. Jerrel and I took great pride in Bogata and most especially the Park that he and I helped build. Jerrel was the Lions Club president during key phases of the park construction. He spent hundreds of hours with other co-ordinating the building of Thomas Park. The softball field carries his name. One of Jerrel's last wishes was to see the park completed.

Recently, it has become obvious that there has been a certain amount of vandalism and neglect at our cherished park. In all societies there will be vandals; however, these vandals must be brought to justice. Members of the community have tried to find out who these vandals are, but they have been met with "It's none of your business-we'll handle it."

When creating the park, it was my understanding, and Jerrel's also, that a park board was established to see after its perpetual care. The board consisted of community members, who would put the park before their personal interests and see after it as if it were their own. It is my understanding that the city council Never passed a resolution creating such a park board. The initial park board, that never really existed, made all the decisions and developed the park into what you see today. Now the city holds the purse strings of monies left over from initial construction, and makes all decisions relating to the park. I toured the park recently and was appalled to find the deteriorating condition of the pavilion roof and playground equipment. These maintenance items should have been dispatched months ago. Someone should answer for the inept handling of these important maintenance items.

It is my feeling that a park board should be established by the city council to see after its much needed upkeep. This board should be able to act independently of anyone, spending park monies set aside by the Lions Club, the initial park grant and donations. The board would also be proactive in seeking out benefactors for future upkeep and improvements.

After Jerrel's death I relocated in Corpus and have since retired in Paris to be close to friends and medical facilities in my mature years. I still maintain my Lions membership in Bogata and enjoy coming there often. I encourage you and your readers to visit our park and to ask your council men and women: "Who is ultimately accountable for its current condition?"

I am sincerely,
Mrs. Claudia Vickers

Dear Ms. Nichols,

Last week we had an aggravated sexual assault of a child case tried in Red River County in which the jury sentenced the individual to ninety-nine years in prison. Earlier the mother of the child pled to forty-two years for her part in the assault. I personally was able to watch this case from its inception and throughout the trial.

It was a difficult case to work due to the type of crime and the parties involved. At this point I would like to commend Child Protective Specialist Patsy Dial, Sheriff's Investigator Larry Spangler and Texas Ranger Roger Lough for their great job in putting all the pieces of this case together. The trial itself went well due to the professionalism of the Trial Judge Jim Dick Lovett and District Attorney Jack Herrington, but the heroes in all of this were the jury. I'm sure it was very difficult to sentence someone to ninety-nine years in prison, but, I personally think they made the correct choice, and I want to thank them publicly for their tough decision in this matter.

Sincerely,
Robert L. Edrington, Sheriff

Have A Nice Weekend

From Your
Red River County Attorney

Jack Herrington

In a 2-day trial this past Thursday and Friday, Eaphern Smith of Bagwell was tried for the aggravated assault of a child. County Attorney Jack Herrington reported that after about an hour of deliberation, the jury returned a verdict of guilty. During the second phase of the trial, the 12 member jury returned a verdict on punishment of 99 years in prison and a $10,000 fine. Sentencing is set for Wednesday, April 9 before District Judge Jim D. Lovett.
Herrington hopes this verdict will send a message to others that this kind of conduct will not be tolerated in Red River County. "We have a huge increase in the number of sexual assault of children cases this past year. We are giving these cases priority settings on our docket."
Smith will have to spend a mandatory 30 years in prison, day for day, with no good time credit, before he will even be considered for parole.

Spring Vet Tips

By Sam B. Kelsey, D.V.M.

Spring is a time of year that plants, animals, insects and all other creatures seem to emerge above and below the surface of the earth. Above and below reminds me of a fact I learned after reading a scientific study—results of years of documentation there is proof that pound for pound there is more life below the ground than above. Surprisingly should all life below earth's surface be destroyed Life as we know it could not survive!

This should give each of us a great desire to work hard to cultivate and propagate the food supply and maintain the health of our plant, animal, fish, bird and friendly insect life.

A few things that can be done: Cattle—should have ample feed, water and shelter available. Disease control should include control & prevention of external and internal insect infestation.

Maintain a program to insure a good calving program.

Immunize adult animals and young for bacterial & viral diseases.

If a herd disease problem exists—possible lab tests would be indicated.

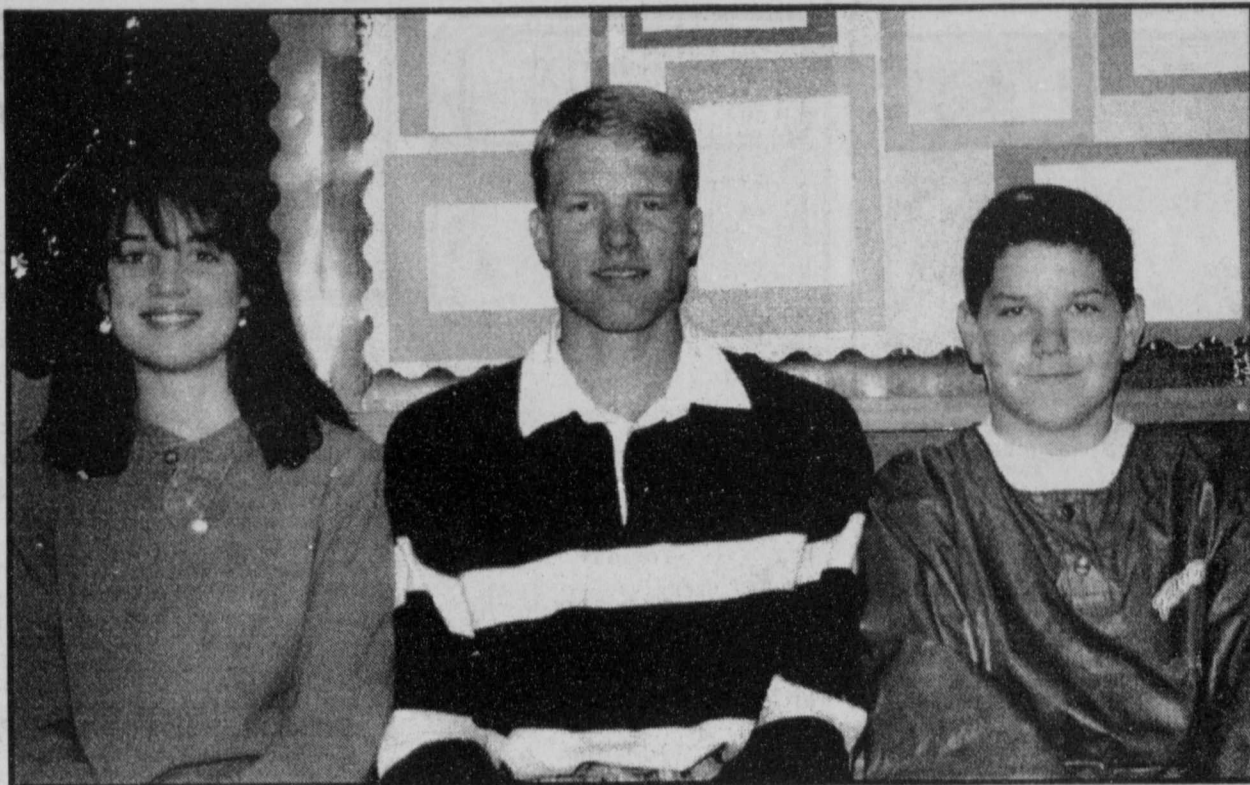

Always keep in mind overall herd improvement.

Small Animals—dogs, puppies should be immunized with (puppy shot) which contains distemper, hepatitis, lept. parvo & bordetella.

A worming program is important while young and continued at regular intervals in older animals. Most of all annual Rabies Vaccination should be done. Heart worms are a problem, but can be well controlled by proper medication given monthly.

Tick, Fleas, mosquitoes and lice can & should be controlled. There are several good methods. These insects are necessary to control as they are common vectors and transmitters of certain diseases. This is true in most animals & even people.

Let's make this season a time that our Livestock & Companion animals will be fed and healthy. So that we may say with pride that we enjoyed with love & pride our creatures both great & small, bright & beautiful, wise and wonderful and most important; God made them all.

American Cancer Society to raise money in Bogata Area

"If you have cancer, we can help. If not, you can help." In the next month or so you will be called upon to give to this worthwhile cause. Please help in any way you can.

Each year, the American Cancer Society funds over $8 million in cancer research in Texas alone. As the largest private source of cancer research funds in the United States, its national grant program has invested more than $1.5 billion in research and provided support to 28 Nobel Prize winners.

The American Cancer Society supports hundreds of cancer research projects across the country. Findings improve quality of treatment and care and will one day lead to a cure and even help identify people who are at risk of developing the disease.

Volunteers help keep fund raising costs for the American Cancer Society at only 15%. The American Institute on Philanthropy recently rated the American Cancer Society as the best charity raising money for cancer control.

When you support the American Cancer Society through a current gift or by including them in your will or estate plan, you are making a wise investment. Before making a contribution make sure you know about them. For more information call the Consumer Protection Division of the Texas Attorney General's Office at 1-800-621-0508.

The American Cancer Society is here as a source of hope for cancer patients and their families, providing services to help them deal with the diagnosis, treatment and survival of cancer. These include transportation, home equipment, support groups, information and guidance.

Memories of My First grade

By Carol English

As I sit and read of all the memories of school teachers at Bogata Schools in the past, it brings back wonderful memories to me. I would like to share a memory of mine.

I was a scared little 7 year old girl whose family had moved from Odessa back to the Maple Community. As I got on Mr. Jay Siddens' bus to go to school in Bogata, I would have been horrified had I not had Bobby, Joyce, Annette and Mack beside me. I wanted to be back at Cameron Elementary with Miss Cameron. She was nice and friendly and taught me to sing my favorite song, Niki-Niki-Do. As the bus pulled into Bogata School, I was even more scared, but my brother, Bobby, stood brave beside me and I knew if he could be that brave so could I.

Bobby registered me and took me to my class where it seemed like a thousand eyes were on me. At the front of the class was a dark headed woman with beautiful hair like Mama's. Then she smiled at me and came toward me, welcoming me to her class as she introduced herself, Mrs. Rena Bryson. She had the prettiest clothes and a ring on every finger.

Finally the last class of the day came which was music, my favorite class. When Mrs. Rena asked who would like to sing I knew this was my chance. I was no longer scared and I would show all these eyes that had stared at me all day just what I could do. There were several hands raised so I immediately raised mine. The delight I saw in Mrs. Rena's eyes I shall never forget and when she said, "Okay children let's let the little new girl sing. - Carol what are you going to sing?" I proudly told her Niki-Niki-Do.

I went to the front of the class, remembering Miss Cameron had told me I sang like a bird. I opened my mouth and sang to the first grade class of Bogata Elementary. When I finished Mrs. Rena was so proud of me that she took me to every class up to the 6th grade introducing me to all the teachers and I sang my song, Niki-Niki-Do. The only trouble I bumped into was when she took me to Mrs. May Dan Bell's class, there was Annette sitting there, so shy. She actually acted ashamed of me and gave me daring looks so I just sang louder. Mack didn't act this way so why should Annette, I couldn't believe she was turning green in color. When I finished my Debut I didn't care. Mrs. Rena picked me up and told me I was an Angel and could do anything in life I wanted to do with a voice like mine.

When we got home, Annette was still letting me have it and told Mama how I had embarrassed her. I thought I might be in trouble but Mama just smiled and told Annette, "You just let that baby sing, I can't sing my way out of a paper bag but I'm proud we have one that can."

I couldn't wait for the next day of school because Mrs. Rena had told us she had a surprise and we would go to her house to see Hootie, her pet. That evening the whole class marched to Mrs. Rena's home (Aunt Gracie Bankston lives there now). There was Hootie, a big owl with large yellow eyes, looking back at us. Mrs. Rena loved Hootie and called him her baby. When she would tell him to talk to the children, he would move his head and say, "Who."

The last day of school came and Mrs. Rena hugged me close, told me I was a pretty little girl and to never stop singing.

I wonder if Mrs. Rena would be proud of me today. No, I don't sing in public except in church, but not alone. However, I do line my eight grandchildren up and we sing when they visit. I hope Mrs. Rena is looking down upon us and smiling that beautiful smile.

Bogata School memories

By Lawrence M. Vaughan

I started to school in Bogata at the beginning of the third grade after having gone to Johtown the first two years. My teacher was Miss Vera Lamb and she was an excellent teacher. I have a picture of the third grade class of that year, 1934-35. I spent the entire summer prior to this spreading the change to a new school. Fortunately, I never had to make another change through high school. The third grade was in the old red brick building on the ground floor on the northwest corner of the building.

My fourth grade teacher was Miss Mary Harden and I also liked her. I remember her being a strict disciplinarian, and in those days there were no restrictions on swinging the paddle. The fourth grade room was also on the ground floor on the northeast corner of the building.

The fifth grade was upstairs on the northeast corner. My teacher was Miss Gladys O'Brian who later married Rex Craddock. She also transferred to high school later during the war and taught me again in freshman English- Another excellent teacher. While in the fifth grade, the New London School explosion occurred. Bob Later was in my class and his father was working in the oil field in the New London area. Each night Bob's father would call home and tell all the horrible events that were involved with this terrible tragedy. The next day, Miss O'Brian would allow Bob to stand before the class and relate them to us.

During that year, 1936-37, Bogata built the water tower. We could see the progress from our schoolroom and hear the riveting going on. I think that the gymnasium was also built about that time.

The hot lunch program began around that time. If you had carried your lunch every day until then you would realize how much such a program meant. The cost was five cents per day per student. In the beginning, each student had to bring, from home, one plate, (not cracker), a glass, a knife, fork and spoon, none of which could have wooden handles. I thought the food was excellent. We could have all the grapefruit juice that we could drink. At first, I didn't like it but soon developed a taste for it.

Indoor plumbing soon followed and we thought we were really up-town. Before this, outdoor toilets were used.

The following year, the sixth grade was the largest ever. Miss Merle Nance was the teacher at the beginning, but soon after school started, Mr. Roy Leftwich was hired and the class divided. I drew Mr. Leftwich and enjoyed him very much. The two sixth grades were in classrooms that had been a part of the old auditorium. When the new gym was built we began using it for all assemblies. Miss Nance's sixth grade was upstairs on the northwest corner and Mr. Leftwich's sixth grade was upstairs on the southwest corner.

In the seventh grade my teacher was Mr. Eugene Garrett. He made math easy for me. He also had us memorize the Preamble to the Constitution. All who could not recite it by the prescribed time had to remain after school until they could.

My high school years, 1939-43 seemed to pass all too quickly. World War II began in 1941 and had an immediate effect. Teachers became scarce, many athletic programs discontinued due to gasoline shortage, and many young men went into military service. High School teachers that I was exposed to were Mr. Floyd McCrury, Mr. Earl Witcher, Mr. J. A. Bradley, Mr. F.L. Branson, Mr. W.S. Cody, Miss Roberta Yant, Miss Vivian Davis, Miss Ethylene Williams, Miss Margaret Miller and again, Miss Gladys O'Brian.

After graduation in 1943, I served in the Navy being discharged in 1946. I then took advantage of the GI Bill and got a degree from Texas A&M.

In all the other schools and training programs that I attended I found that I had a firm foundation. This I attribute to the Bogata School system. They did an excellent job with what they had, and I appreciate this very much. I have only good memories of the Bogata School System.

Depression

Feeling "depressed" may be a fleeting mood of a few moments to several days--what is usually referred to as "feeling blue" or "being down." This is not diagnosed as depression, medically speaking, and, in most cases, can be self-treated. Each of us knows what diversions will lift our spirits, and we usually seek that sort of distraction to dispel the temporary depressed feeling. In addition, it is natural for people who have had a recent loss, for instance, to feel grief, sadness and other symptoms of "depression" for even a longer period of time. This kind of grief reaction is also not considered a medical problem unless it persists.

Depression becomes a medical problem when it immobilizes a person, leaving him or her unable to carry on normal activities or to derive pleasure from any source.
