Haskell Ready For Varsity Singers

Final arrangements are being made this week in anticipation of the arrival of The Varsity Singers from the University of Texas at Austin. The group will arrive in Haskell by private car about 6:00 p. m. on Monday, April 1. They will be the special guests of the Haskell County Country Club at a covered dish dinner that evening. Tuesday morning a brunch is being given in their honor at the Haskell Steak House. A special assembly program will be given by the group at 12:45 on Tuesday, April 2, in the auditorium of Haskell High School for all students and teachers in high school and junior high.

Tuesday night, April 2, at 8 p. m. the lights will go up for this talented group of singers and dancers who are presenting a 1½ hour concert entitled "Good Ol' Rock and Roll" to benefit the Haskell Memorial Civic Center. Varsity Singers is an ensemble of 11 singers backed up by their own four-piece band. They are being brought to Haskell by their director, Mr. Stewart Clark, because it is the hometown of one of the group, Karen Pippin, Haskell's Miss Hey Day of 1971. Tickets for the benefit performance are now on sale at the Haskell Free Press office and the Chamber of Commerce, and will be on sale at the door, Tuesday night, at $1.00 for adults and $.50 for students.

A brief look at the group will see a large area of Texas represented, however, this will be their first experience in a "small city" and the group has been particularly impressed with the welcome reception news of their coming has been given.

Stewart Clark, director of Varsity Singers, is a doctoral candidate in conducting at the University of Texas. Under his direction, the Varsity Singers toured Europe last year for the U.S.O. Mr. Clark is also a teaching assistant in conduct-

Cancer Crusade Begins In County

The kick-off meeting of Haskell Cancer Crusade was held Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 p. m. in the Community Room of Haskell National Bank.

John Barnes of Abilene, district 16 field representative of the American Cancer Society, was on hand to inform workers of the importance of Haskell County reaching its $4,600.00 goal, and to show a film entitled, "A Sense of Security."

Billy Jack Ray, president of Haskell Cancer Society, conducted the meeting, and Ben McGee, chairman of the Crusade, passed out work kits to drive workers.

Barnes reported that of each dollar donated to cancer, 36 cents goes to research, 10 cents to professional education of doctors, 21 cents to the public education, 23 cents to cancer patient services, and only five cents to administration, and 9 cents to the Crusade. This adds up to $1.04, but the 4 cents comes to Texas from the American Cancer Society.

Workers will begin immediately on the drive, and hope to complete it as soon as possible. When a worker calls on you—remember that cancer is one of the big killers in America today.

Others attending the meeting included Evelyn Cobb, memorial chairman; Juanel Ray, secretary; Alice Lewis of Sargent, Mrs. Ned Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sanders of Weinert, and Clydene Comedy of Haskell Free Press.

AN EDITORIAL

Who IS the best man for your State Senator?

This question has been considered in recent weeks—and will be considered more in the next few weeks—by every eligible voter of Haskell County.

State Representative Charles Finnell seeks this senatorial seat in the upcoming election. He was elected to his first term in the House June 4, 1966, carrying every county in the district, which included Archer, Baylor, Clay, Jack, Montague, Throckmorton and Young Counties. He was re-elected in 1968 and in 1970 without opposition, and again re-elected in 1972, receiving the majority vote over three opponents without a runoff in District 53, which includes Archer, Clay, Wichita and Young Counties.

He is currently serving on the important Agriculture and Livestock committees and has been on both for the past eight years. Finnell is also vice-chairman of the Elections committee, and was recently elected vice chairman of the West Texas Delegation to the 63rd Legislature.

He is now serving on the Constitutional Convention as a delegate, and is a member of its Judiciary Committee. During his terms of office in the Legislature, he has never been absent on a day when a roll call vote was taken. Not only is he there to be counted, but his voting record is one that supports the desires of the voters in this area of Texas.

He has proven himself to be a man of integrity and a man the people he represents can depend upon, to voice and support their desires in Austin.

For these reasons, and because we believe we need to support a young man who brings honest political representation for us to Austin, The Haskell Free Press endorses Charles Finnell for State Senator of the 30th District of Texas.

Plans Made In C of C Meeting

The monthly night meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held at the Haskell Steak House on Tuesday night, March 21st, with president Bob Philpot, presiding for the business session. The meeting was also open for members and guests and a total of 27 men and women were present to discuss problems and projects facing Haskell Businessmen and women on the whole. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Barney Frazier after which manager Rex Felker read the minutes of the previous board meeting held at 7:00 a. m. on the first Tuesday of the month.

A discussion was held by those present concerning the request of the Brazos West Economic Development Corporation that Haskell run a labor survey for a company interested in the four county area for the location of a plant which would eventually employ some 400 persons. Was decided that we ask Mr. Clement Richard, president of the four county corporation, to meet with the Chamber and Industrial Foundation members within the next few days to see if further information could be had.

President Philpot told the group of his discussions with residents of Munday, relative to a low rent housing project which that city has and another similar project which they are currently working on to ease the housing shortage. It was agreed by all present that Haskell is faced with such a problem and that if the town is to continue to grow and prosper, adequate housing would have to be obtained.

Those in attendance had a round table discussion relative to the need for some type of civic house or auditorium in Haskell for the many civic functions. Mr. R. C. Couch, president of the Haskell Memorial Civic House Association, told of what had been done in regards to it and some of the problems encountered in financing such a structure.

He stated that the plans drawn up some time ago which would call for an outlay of money in the neighborhood of $250,000.00, would be even higher now due to the rising cost of labor and material. It was generally agreed that if such a structure were to be obtained for Haskell or Haskell county, that it would probably have to be in the form of memorial donations from interested people. He advised the group that renewed efforts would soon be made relative to such a project for Haskell.

Mrs. Jack Pippin gave a short and timely presentation concerning the Varsity Singers of Texas University who would make their arrival in Haskell Monday, April 1, and will remain here for a concert to be held at the Texas Theatre at 8 p. m. Tuesday, April 2. Her daughter, Karen, a former Miss Hey Day who is a talented singer, is one of the featured soloists in the group of sixteen young men and women. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50¢ for students, and the proceeds will be for the Memorial Auditorium Assn. They may be purchased in advance at the Chamber of Commerce and the Haskell Free Press. Everyone is urged to see and hear this fine group of performers who are on a hometown tour in which Haskell is the only small town on the agenda. Present for the Thursday night meeting were: Bob Philpot, Royce Williams, Bill Comedy, Judge B. O. Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Anderson, Belton Duncan, Mayor, Charles Thornhill, Howard Perry, S. E. Bledsoe, E. C. Collins, commissioners, Darold Roberson, Jerry Hadaway, Mr. and Mrs. R.

STATE REP. CHARLES FINNELL OF HOLLIDAY was on hand to assist in presenting the awards during the District III 4-H Food Show held in Haskell Saturday. With him are, left to right: Nola Hightower of Childress County, who won a red ribbon in the Junior Snacks and Beverages Division; Karen Collins, Childress County, with her blue ribbon for Senior Main Dish Division; and Dale Roth of Wbarger County, with her blue ribbon in Junior Side Dishes. A Message to the High School and College Age Students of Haskell . . . (and those who love them) From the President of West Texas State University

You are standing on the threshold . . . perhaps the threshold of greatness, but at least on the threshold of what can be a rewarding career. West Texas State University is also on the threshold . . . we think it is the threshold of greatness.

There is a new excitement on our campus. Everyone associated with the University tells me they feel it, students, faculty, alumni and our many boosters throughout the Panhandle.

The excitement started ten years ago when we achieved University status. We began getting many new facilities including a new library, science building, research center, classroom and administration buildings and a new Student Activities Center which is second to none in the United States. We have new programs of a dozen different kinds . . . even one for horsemanship.

Much of the money for these programs and facilities has come from individual citizens, companies and foundations. These benefactors say, in effect, that our area should be the site of a significant university . . . a university with facilities and programs which attract outstanding faculty and students from all over the nation, even the world.

WTSU is growing but it is not so big but that our teachers can take a personal interest in each student and relate to him as the individual he is. Though we have a higher percentage of Ph.D.'s on our faculty than most universities, (over 50%) our classes average fewer students than most, (under 20).

Our students are very much a part of making things happen at WTSU. They are interested, involved and excited. Their learning experience is bigger than the classroom . . . it is as big as life itself.

Tell us which of these areas of study interests you and we will tell you more about that program at WTSU. Clip this coupon and mail it to me personally. I'll see that you get the whole exciting story without obligating you in any way.

County Judges
Don't Need Law
Degree - Finnell

AUSTIN—State Rep. Charles Finnell of Holliday, candidate for State Senator, said this week that County Judges should not be required to be lawyers in order to hold this very important office.

"Many able men of various backgrounds serve admirably as our County Judges without law licenses. The position of County Judge calls for a business-like common sense approach," Finnell said. The present constitution states that a County Judge "shall be well informed of the law."

Finnell serves on the Judiciary Committee of the Constitutional Convention in Austin. The committee is working on Section 6 of the Judicial Article which deals with the office of the County Judge. Following that, the next order of business will be Section 9 which treats the question of election or appointment of judges.

Finnell said, "We are finally getting down to the nitty-gritty in this committee. In a recent poll of my constituents, more than four out of five citizens felt that all state judges should be elected rather than appointed."

"Appointive judges smacks of the federal court system, and I don't think Texans want any part of that," Finnell said. During his eight years in the House of Representatives, Finnell has worked closely with the West Texas Association of County Judges and Commissioners and the Texas Association of Counties.

In his race for Senator of the 30th District, Finnell plans to visit Memphis, Big Spring and Archer City this week as his legislative duties permit.

Area Work Report

Mr. Clement Richards of Stamford, president of the Brazos West Economic Development Corporation with headquarters in Sagerton, was the guest speaker for the weekly meeting of the Haskell Rotary Club on Thursday of last week.

Mr. Richards was introduced by Rotarian Abe Turner and in his short presentation he told of the origin of the Brazos West Corporation and some of the goals the members had in mind for the four county area association which includes Jones, Knox, Haskell, and Stonewall counties. Mr. Richards explained that the thinking was that industry would come nearer taking a look at a four county area than they would at only one that was interested in locating industry in their particular county. He further explained the request that the towns and communities of the Brazos West Corporation run a labor survey for an industry looking at several areas of Texas toward the location of a plant which would eventually employ approximately 400 persons. He stated that he realized that all of the towns and communities in the four county area had accomplished many things individually but that with a concentrated effort on the part of all concerned, the possibilities were even greater.

President Charles Thornhill presided for the luncheon meeting which was opened with a prayer led by Rev. H. O. Abbott. H. V. Woodard led the group in a song session with Rene Abbott playing accompaniment. The pledge of Allegiance was led by Eldon Anderson.

Guests were introduced by Bill Comedy. They were: student guests Connie Turnbow and DeeAnn Ballard and visitors Sam Sharp and Marion Conover, guests of Sam Rosser and Desmond Dulaney.

The grass clippings of last year and the leaves of last fall that you have been urged in the past to put in the compost can now be brought out and applied to the garden.

These mulches will help keep your garden moist and cool; reduce erosion; add organic matter to the soil; retard weed growth; and furnish food for earthworms that loosen and aerate the soil.

The reducing of food bills is still a necessity of many of us, and a good home garden can help. But without following sound conservation principles the garden plot becomes depleted of plant food and organic matter the same as the farmers' fields do when continually cropped without rotation and proper management.

Most of us are pretty sick of being told that we are living in a pre-packaged, quick-frozen world, even if it is true. So the home garden can help to relieve this situation. But if the garden plot has become depleted in organic matter and plant food, one cannot expect to produce much and we are right back to the pre-packaged, quick frozen stage.

As you are putting in your garden, don't forget the need for soil and water conservation. Bring out the compost and mulch the soil now. Reduce the cost of commercial fertilizers, the amount of weeding, and the amount of water needed. Enjoy that superb flavor of your own wilted-lettuce salad, corn-on-the-cob, and home-grown tomatoes.

For an institution approaching its 75th anniversary, West Texas State University looks mighty new these days.

The new masonry and spirit invigorating the campus at Canyon belie the age of the oldest state-assisted institution of higher learning in the West Texas region.

Just this spring, WTSU opened a $3 million library, capable of housing a million volumes, and a three-story University Science Center, constructed at the same cost.

The buildings, which provide much needed enlargements of the university's science and library facilities, also symbolize the progressive attitude that WTSU supporters feel has emerged more strongly than ever in the past year.

Two important events in 1973 ushered in the new spirit at WTSU. The school marked its 10th year with university status, and Dr. Lloyd Watkins arrived to take over the reins as university president.

Almost as soon as he arrived on campus, the new president began stirring up a new excitement among all segments of the University and its supporters.

Watkins has been associated with a number of fine Universities in the Midwest, so everyone respected him as something of an authority in such matters. His enthusiasm for this part of the country, its people and especially WTSU was contagious. Soon everybody concerned began thinking about the future and seeing WTSU, not as a

HD Council Makes General Plans

Haskell County Home Demonstration Council met March 20 with president Mrs. J. P. Perrin presiding. 17 members and two guests were present, to represent the six clubs involved.

Mrs. Buck Bland gave the devotional on 'An Everyday Creed'. The yearbook committee reported the books for next year were almost ready for printing; Education committee reported on plans for Achievement Day on March 24; plans were made for the salad luncheon March 23 in conjunction for the 4-H Food Show and the tour for visiting mothers.

Plans also were made to attend the Dist. THDA meeting in Anson April 11, and presentations were given for women nominated by their club for Club Woman of the Year. The Tri-County Rally Day was in Seymour March 26 and a leader-training meet was in Abilene March 27. During April, May and June, Channel 12 will have a program on Home Care and Maintenance at 11:30 a. m. each Friday.

A Nominating committee of Mrs. Floyd McGuire, Mrs. Georgia Wade and Mrs. Tom Yates were named, and a program at Locket April 2 was announced.

good University for this area as it has been for many years, which means that no WTSU student ever becomes just a numbered seat in an auditorium.

West Texas State's six schools—the School of Agriculture, the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business, the College of Education, the School of Fine Arts and the Graduate School—offer a total of 18 different bachelor's and master's degrees with over a hundred majors and areas of emphasis. Expansions of curriculum in recent years have taken diverse forms. Five new degree programs and courses in social work and criminal justice administration have appeared, Latin has reappeared, and

The new enthusiasm has already begun to show itself in a number of areas such as the concept that the University is operating to serve students. That concept is manifested in a broad range of practical applications, from simplified registration procedures that have shortened those traditional lines at the start of each semester to horsemanship is now offered for those hours not spent in classes.

The hub of the cultural and social scene at WTSU is the Activities Center, a complex of bowling alleys, pool tables, handball and paddleball courts, a weight training room, four basketball courts, an Olympic-size swimming pool, and rooms for reading, music and films.

Students arriving at WTSU now can take advantage of a remarkable growth program of the past five years, which added eight new buildings and a 2,400 acre ranch to the university's facilities.

The unique spirit of WTSU is also captured in its efforts to help students with the financial aspects of attending college. In addition to the conventional loan, scholarship and student employment programs, WTSU has the special Opportunity Plan, Inc., a non-profit organization which offers individualized financial assistance and counseling along with part-time job opportunities.

WTSU is in a land of contrasts. Because it is in the Amarillo metropolitan area, students have easy access to the cultural activities in Texas' 7th largest city, yet it still has a good bit of the romance of the old West. Spectacular, rugged Palo Duro Canyon state park is West Texas State University's backyard.

Ground-soaking rain which fell during most of the day on Tuesday brought additional moisture to provide the best crop season in years to farm-lands and fields in this section already planted in small grain, and to likewise benefit grass-lands and ranges.

Chief Petty Officer Leo Duncan, former Haskell gin-ner, who enlisted in the U. S. Navy early in November of last year and who holds the rating of Chief Ship Fitter, spent several days here this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Duncan and other relatives and friends. He was accompa-nied by his wife and their chil-dren who are making their home in Breckenridge. Chief Petty Officer Duncan is sta-tioned at Camp Peary, Va.

Chas. M. Conner of this city made a business trip to Tyler the first of the week.

Mrs. K. D. Fought has re-turned home after a two weeks visit with her parents in Cor-pus Christi. On her return trip, Mrs. Fought stopped in San An-tonio for a visit in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neill.

Pvt. John Sparkman of Stin-son Field, San Antonio, has been spending a furlough here and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sparkman of Wein-ert, and in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Barton of this city. Pvt. Sparkman is attach-ed to a military police unit at Stinson Field.

JENNY BRAZELL INTRODUCES YOU TO THE DUTIES OF YOUR COUNTY CLERK

Certain rules, laws and regulations must be fol-lowed in the operation of the County Clerk's office. I have tried to attend the meetings and workshops in Austin and other places to keep up with changing laws in order to perform the duties required of me. Here are some of the services we are responsible for:

All legal instruments are filed and recorded in my office. This includes all deeds, affidavits, releases, me-chanic liens, Powers of Attorney, endowments, trans-fers, assignments, agreements, oil and gas leases, ex-tensions, bill of sale and others. Each instrument gets a number and file mark when we receive them. They are recorded by Xerox Copier and indexed in direct and reverse for the convenience to the public. Each instrument then becomes a permanent record of which copies may be obtained.

Another service is filing and recording all State and Federal Tax liens, and also abstract of judgments.

We register cattle brands, and also assumed nam-es for businesses. Copies of Nurses, Morticians, Op-ometrists and Dentists licenses are registered in my office.

Financing Statements is another part of my job. A financial statement is filed when a person purchases appliances or farm equipment on time. When the note is paid, a termination is filed and the record is clear again.

Discharge records are recorded in my office. There is no charge for recording or making copies of these records for our veterans.

With the experience of almost three years in the Clerk's Office, I am seeking election on the ability to perform the above duties effectively.

McBrayer Runs Different Race

A different type political campaign is being launched by Texas Republican gubernatorial candidate, Odell McBrayer.

"I want folks to pray for me and my political race," said the 43-year-old Fort Worth attorney. "Prayer is the main-stay of my campaign, and more importantly, my life."

Besides his dedication to prayer, McBrayer carries an impressive list of credentials. He earned his law degree from the University of Texas in 1958 and heads his own established law firm in Fort Worth. He was an able leader in the Re-publican races of 1972, and now serves on the Tarrant County Republican Executive Committee.

When asked why he chose to run for governor, the success-ful lawyer said, "I feel I'm fulfilling God's plan for me. This may sound strange to anyone who hasn't had a deep personal spiritual experience, but, to someone who knows God as the most powerful force in the Universe—well, they understand."

Any bystander can see the father of two, Scott 14, and Stacy 11, is certainly on his way to something. McBrayer served as president of the Fort Worth Chapter of the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship In-ternational in 1962. That's when he began to realize God had a plan for him and his life.

"That's an interdenominational group of successful business-men who realize the best busi-ness principle is the Golden Rule," continued the perceptive family counselor. "You know, that's a mighty good rule for anyone in anything, especially politics."

When asked to list his cam-paign needs, the Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education lecturer said, "I need everything—money, workers, even stamps. But all of these needs take a backseat to prayer. We ask for prayer. In prayer, Texans will be told what to do."

The Republican Precinct Chairman offers a rare com-bination of rural-urban back-ground. He was raised on his father's farm near Clarendon, attended Clarendon Junior Col-lege and served as an Airman First Class in the Air Force. After receiving his law degree, he entered law practice in Dal-hart.

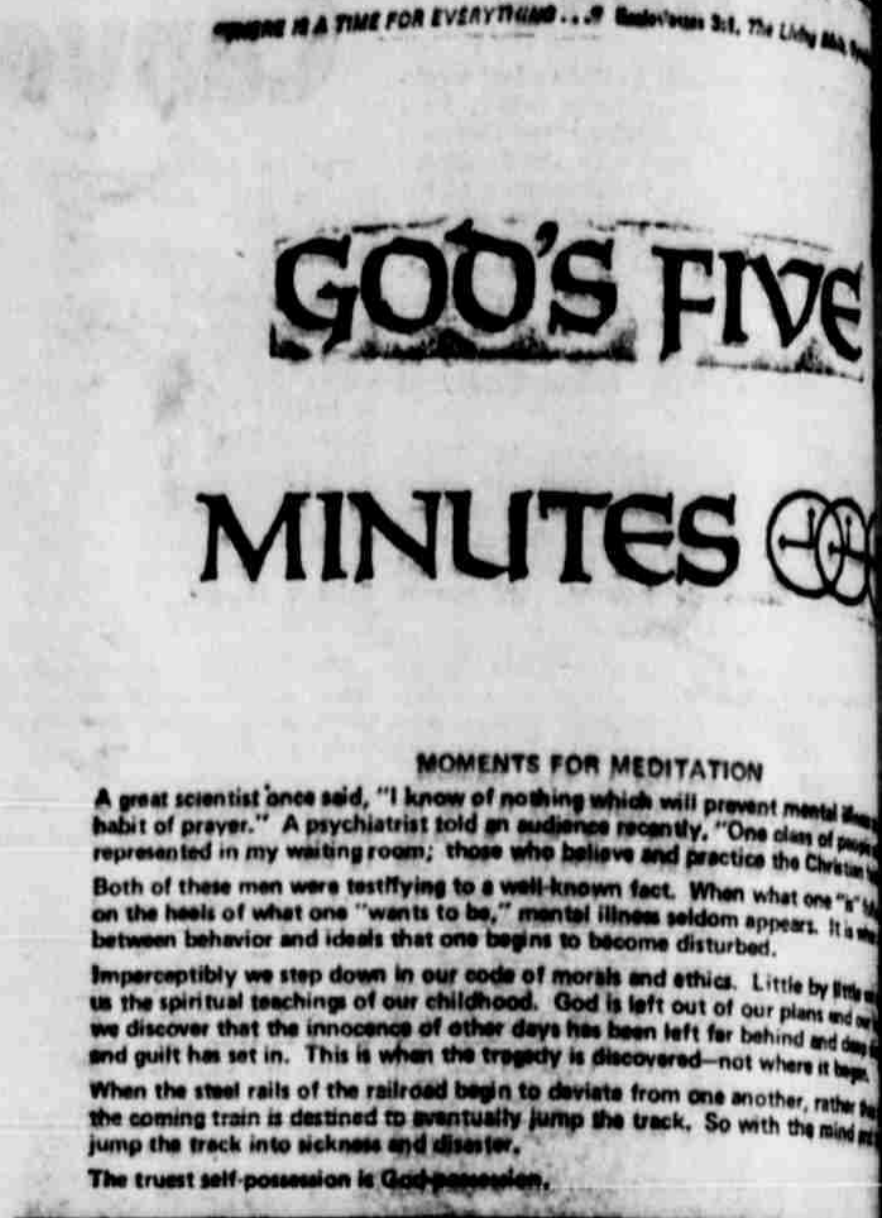

"God was directing me then," said the fishing enthusiast. "Gradually he led me to Fort Worth."

It was in Fort Worth he be-gan to see God's political plans for him. In several different prayer meetings strangers turned to McBrayer and re-peated God had told them to encourage the lawyer to run for governor.

"After the third instance, I began to understand how real God's plans along these lines were for me," said McBrayer.

This man is already drawing large crowds to his speeches and those who hear him know he is most sincere. God does seem to be working for him and his candidacy.

Mr. McBrayer, accompanied by his father and others of his party, was in Haskell and sur-rounding towns on Saturday, March 9. In Haskell he espe-cially enjoyed his visit at the cattle auction and in Weinert he reminisced with Miss Alexia Mayfield about their meeting in Abilene while awaiting the arrival of the Lawrence Walk party at the airport.

GOD'S FIVE MINUTES

ATTEND CHURCH THIS WEEK

A great scientist once said, "I know of nothing which will prevent mental habit of prayer." A psychiatrist told an audience recently, "One class of prayer represented in my waiting room; those who believe and practice the Christian faith. Both of these men were testifying to a well-known fact. When what one 'wants to be,' mental illness seldom appears. It is a gap between behavior and ideals that one begins to become disturbed.

Imperceptibly we step down in our code of morals and ethics. Little by little the spiritual teachings of our childhood. God is left out of our plans and we discover that the innocuous of other days has been left far behind and deep and guilt has set in. This is when the tragedy is discovered—not where it began.

When the steel rails of the railroad begin to deviate from one another, rather than the coming train is destined to eventually jump the track. So with the mind that jump the track into sickness and disaster.
