Then Don't Complain

I received a cartoon in the mail the other day, that showed a group of people sitting in a meeting and a woman saying "Who ME? Serve as a Volunteer? But that would seriously interfere with my COMPLAINING!". Ahhh, I thought, truer words were never spoken!

To me, volunteering is a way of life. I don't want to hear "I don't have time".....it often seems that those who work so many hours as volunteers are the ones with the least time to spare. I don't want to hear "Well, I just don't know what I can do". Trust me on this, it doesn't take long to find something to do!

And, I especially don't want to hear anyone who doesn't take part in the something griping about the way it is done!! If you aren't involved, don't complain!

Of course, for me, my first and foremost recommendation is to volunteer for your local volunteer fire department. If you aren't able to fight fire, perhaps you can do the medical training it takes to be a First Responder? After all, from 50% to 70% of most calls are medical now.

But if that is more than you want to bite off, how about helping with their fund raising? It's an expensive proposition to operate a fire department, especially with the medical units. Form an auxiliary to help them raise money.

If the fire departments are not your "cup of tea" show me a church which doesn't need more volunteer workers! If your church doesn't have active fund raisers or fellowship gatherings, help get it in gear!

Volunteer to read to school children, or help with a ball league. If you have small children, please, please be involved in their lives! What a wonderful thing that is.

Now, I'll stop here and digress for a moment. To me, volunteering isn't about dressing up and "being seen" at Hollywood type fund raisers. It always irritates me to see some huge New York or Hollywood event where "big wigs" have raised say, 1 million dollars for AIDS research or something similar. As they are going into the ball room the photographers are snapping away as announcers tell viewers that so and so's dress cost $12,000! IF they would simply give that amount of money to their charity to begin with, they'd have more money to work with. To me they are making a show, wanting to be seen and be seen with the "right" people.

No, volunteering means doing something like the service clubs and Salvation Army do at Christmas, standing outside of stores in the bitter cold, collecting money. Or fighting fire in the heat of summer, or coaching kids on a dusty ball field, or sitting on the floor with an elderly fall victim lending aid and comfort.

Now, back on track, I urge you, there IS something you can do. Get out and about and volunteer for SOMETHING. Trust me, it's a wonderful experience. You'll feel better, your community will be better and you'll actually be healthier! Try it, it's great.

SWORN IN-Red River County Judge Powell W. (P.J.) Peek was sworn in on March 5 by Red River County Clerk Lorie Moose. Peek was appointed to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Kathy Cheyne.

Peek appointed Red River County Judge by commissioners

Powell (P.J.) Peek, Jr. of Boxelder was appointed by Red River County commissioners to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Judge Kathy Cheyne.

Peek was sworn in on March 5th at the Courthouse Annex by Red River County Clerk Lorie Moose.

Cheyne had cited personal and family reasons for her resignation. She was appointed county judge while serving as county treasurer when L.D. Williamson resigned to become executive director of the Ark-Tex Council of Governments.

Peek was selected by the commissioners from five applicants who submitted resumes for the position.

The native of Red River County is 59 years old, graduated from Annona High School and Southern Methodist University, Magna Cum Laude, with a Bachelors Degree in business administration. He attended night school to earn his degree while working full time and helping his late wife, Annie Lou (Baker) raise a family.

He was an oil exploration executive and vice-president Marine Marketing at Digicourse, Inc.-Input/Output, Inc., before retiring.

Peek has been back in Boxelder since last year making improvements to Peek Farms, Inc. properties and rebuilding the family farmhouse which was built in 1900.

"I think I am qualified to serve as county judge", Peek stated, "but if I am not selected I'll gladly support the person who is appointed".

Peek stresses that county government takes the support of all the residents.

Peek was selected from five applications: his, Margaret Missildine, Michael Garretson, Mac Varley and Charlie Joe Jones.

Happy St. Patrick's Day! Can you believe it is already the middle of March? Here are some St. Patty recipes that you might enjoy, but first a few trivia facts about St. Patrick's Day!

Did you know that:

... St. Patrick, c.389-461, the patron saint of Ireland, was a bishop and missionary. He was born in Roman Britain and at the age of 16 was captured and sold into slavery in Ireland. During his captivity he turned to religion.

... The shamrock is the common name for several unrelated herbaceous plants with trifoliate leaves. St. Patrick used the shamrock leaf to symbolize the Trinity. A trifoliate leaf of this shamrock is worn by the Irish on March 17 to commemorate St. Patrick's Day.

... The Blarney Stone is supposed to endow those who kiss it with the gift of eloquence. It is built into the southern wall of Blarney Castle in County Cork, Ireland.

... Leprechaun in folklore a leprechaun is a preternatural creature that lives on the Earth and may be either helpful or harmful to human beings. They resemble humans, but are usually much smaller and possess powers of magic.

... The first St. Patrick's Day Parade took place in Chicago on March 17, 1843.

... The coloring of the Chicago River originally began by the city by placing dye into the river to trace discharges into the river. In 1962, a tradition began of adding 100 pounds of vegetable dye into the river for one week to keep it green. Now, 40 pounds of green food coloring keeps the river green for only a few hours.

We hope you have enjoyed this small tour of Ireland and these recipes and we will see you in the kitchen!

Clover Chip Cookies-these are green chocolate chip at its finest!

Lucky Chocolate Chewies-these are frosted, yummy, chewy, chocolate cookies that are great!

Cornerstone Fellowship welcomes people from around the world

By Nelta Musgrove
There is a scripture that reads "Remove not the ancient landmark which they fathers have set." Proverbs 22-28.

In the early years of 1900 a Pentecostal Church was established by our forefathers in Cunningham, Texas. The landmark was set. From this place many left and established more churches of the same, but their roots are still in Cunningham. Missionaries also went from the church to foreign countries and hundreds can call this their first or "home" church. The church remained active until 1990 when it was supposedly closed forever. The building fell into decay and looked like it would be almost impossible to restore.

A year ago, in March of 2000, the church was purchased and restoration began. First a new foundation was taken care of, then all kinds of work was done.

In September of 2000 the work was completed and on October 21, 2000, the church was dedicated with a large crowd of 153 attending. The new name? Cornerstone Fellowship.

Last week, on March 2, 3 and 4, a convention was held in this building. It was probably the largest crowd ever attending the little structure. There were people from 32 states and four foreign countries. 325 people came from around the world to this tiny little spot on the globe.

This next week, March 16, 17, & 18 Lynn Hiles from Berkeley Springs, West Virginia will be ministering and another crowd is expected.

Everyone is welcome to come. The ancient landmark has been set and the cornerstone has been laid!

DON'T IGNORE YOUR FEET

Foot problems often manifest themselves as pesky, persistent aches and pains that you may not take seriously. Any discomfort in the foot area, however, should not be ignored, as it could signal an illness, infection, or chronic disease. Seek medical attention for any of the following foot troubles: The ball of your foot or your heel hurts. A heel that hurts after a period of laying down should be examined by a podiatrist. Toenails are thick and discolored, or an ingrown toenail is red, painful and swollen. Toes overlap and bend or are shaped irregularly. Toe joints become stiff and enlarged, causing pain. Growths develop on the foot or toes, or you feel numbness or burning in the foot.

Of considerable significance in caring for feet of either gender is choosing the right shoes. Bearing in mind how much our feet do for us, the least we can do is provide them with a comfortable environment, preventive care before problems occur, and professional attention when they do. Whether it means a change in foot wear or a more medical approach, there's help for your aching feet, and lots you can do to make sure your feet stand up to years of wear and tear. We welcome your call for an appointment for comprehensive footcare for the family. Call DOCTORS FOOT CLINIC 784-5585. OFFICE LOCATED AT 3605 N.E. LOOP 286 STE 1800 PARIS, TEXAS P.S. Protect your rights!
"Render" your taxable property by April 16th.

A "rendition" is a report to the appraisal district that lists all the taxable property you owned or controlled on January 1st of this year. The rendition form is available at your local appraisal district office... or you may draft a similar form.

Who must file a rendition?

You must file a rendition if you own tangible personal property that is used to produce income—such as the inventory and equipment used by a business.

Are there any advantages to you?

The advantages of filing a rendition are:

- You give your opinion of your property's value. If the appraisal district believes the value is higher, it must notify you in writing of the higher value and explain how you can protest that value to the appraisal review board.
- You record your correct mailing address so your tax bills will go to the right address. If your bill is mailed to the wrong address, the law still holds you responsible for paying your taxes on time or paying extra charges for late payments.
- You can also file a "report of decreased value" to notify the appraisal district of significant depreciation of the value of your property in 2000. The district will look at your property before assigning a value in 2001.

What's the deadline?

The last day for filing 2001 renditions is April 16. Call your appraisal district for the last date the rendition may be post-marked, if mailing. You can get an extra 15 days if you ask for it in writing by the April 16 deadline.

Where do you file?

File renditions with your local appraisal district at:

Council hears superintendent reports

The Bogata City Council met in regular session Monday, March 12 with Mayor Crane presiding. Four councilmembers were present as well as five employees and approximately eight visitors.

Council heard from W.F. (Babe) Higgins of Clarksville, who spoke about Economic Development and asked the council to consider a resolution giving full endorsement and cooperation to the Texas Rural Development Council Resource Team who will come to Red River County in May, to work with the communities in assessing the strengths, problems and goals of the towns.

Council heard from Mark Hare and voted to enter into an interlocal agreement with the Rivercrest ISD to mow the baseball field at the school's request. After hearing from James Blanton, District Operations Manager of TXU Electric & Gas, council voted to approve a "Favor Nations" letter, which confirms agreement with TXU's proposed rate changes, and pass an ordinance providing the proposed rates which will not be implemented until after July 5, 2001. Customers in the city will not be surcharged for any rate case expenses should an appeal to the Railroad Commission of Texas be filed by another city.

Minutes, bills and final water bill accounts were approved. Council heard from Police Chief Clegg who reported 1,426 actions in year 2000. He reported that Jim Gresham is the new non-paid officer and that he has acquired a narcotics canine.

Water Superintendent Wendell Davis reported eighty-five work orders which included six leaks, two cutoffs repaired, six sewer stops, bids were opened for construction on new grant and he has ordered a new chlorinator, cost $1295.00.

Fire Marshal Randy Lemme reported eight medical calls in February and an assist on a structure fire. A fundraiser will be held on May 5 to replace some operating money which was used in the recent ice storm emergency.

Council voted to adopt an ordinance to establish a hot check policy and to raise the returned check fee from $20.00 to $25.00. The drug policy was tabled until more information is received.

They voted to cancel the Municipal Judge's pager service, since the Municipal Judge said he really didn't need it. They voted to hire a new employee for water/street work continuing upon passing a drug test.

Meeting adjourned at 9:15 p.m.

Letters To Editor

Dear Editor:

Two weeks ago on Tuesday, February 20, our hearts were broken. I arrived home from work at about 5:00 in the afternoon to discover that my dog, B.D., was not at home. This was not totally unusual, but it was rather late for her to still be out exploring as she did everyday with her friend, the black dog, who had adopted her and us as his family, too. I called for her several times, but she didn't come home. When my husband got home at 6:30 (after dark), he drove around the area looking for her, but to no avail. He called his brother to see if he had seen B.D., he hadn't seen her at all that afternoon. By this time, we are realizing that something bad has had to have happened to her. All along we knew we should have chained or penned her up, but she was such a free spirit. We had asked people if B.D. bothered them or their animals and the answer was always no. At about 10:00, the phone rang and it was my husband's brother calling to say B.D. was at his house, but she appeared to be seriously hurt. We jumped in our car and drove the quarter of a mile as quickly as we could. When we arrived, B.D. was sitting in the front yard soaking wet and unable to move her back legs. We picked her up and placed her in the back seat, where I held her head and dried her off. She was shivering from the cold and from fear. My husband immediately called Dr. Stewardson and he said he could meet us at his office in Clarksville. By the time we arrived at the vet's office, B.D. had calmed down some. The vet checked her over and said she had probably been hit by a car, but didn't know whether she would be able to walk again. He gave her a shot and started an IV to help with the swelling. We left her at midnight at the vets. The next day we were to call to see how B.D. was doing. My husband called at noon, hoping that B.D. was able to walk, but the vet told him he really had some bad news. The x-ray showed self to the closest home of someone she knew would help her. She was not just a dog, she was full of life, very intelligent and special.

Please help us to find out who shot B.D. before a senseless act like this happens again. She was a black and white, 30 lb. and wore an orange collar. If you have any information, please call 632-5847. He was black and white, 30 lbs. and wore an orange collar.

B.D. had not been hit by a car, but had been shot with a .22, which had severed her spinal cord two inches above her tail. She would never walk again.

I was anxious to hear from B.D., but I wouldn't call, my husband was to call me as soon as he knew something. He called and as he told me the news, my heart broke for I knew what we would have to do. I could not stand the thought of not seeing her again, and I could not let her die without her family being there. We drove to Dr. Stewardson's at 5:00 on Wednesday, February 21 to be with B.D. for one last time. The doctor and his assistants had to place her on the exam table, a table that just the day before she could have easily jumped on all by herself. We talked to her, stroked her, and cried for her in the last few minutes of her life. Her eyes seemed to be saying why? Why can't I walk? Why are you crying? She had been an ever present joy in our lives for the past 2 1/2 years ever since she jumped in my car at my friend's and would not get out. She apparently had been dumped on the side of the road and adopted us as her family. We buried her Thursday, February 22. It is not the same at my house or in Rosalie since B.D. is gone.

B.D. didn't understand what had happened to her and we don't understand why. The person who shot B.D. left her to suffer and die. It took her five hours to drag her-

NEW TESTAMENT CHRISTIANITY
Nineteen centuries ago, Christ and His apostles began a system of spiritual power that encompassed the earth and blessed the world. Daniel 2:44 affirmed the perpetual status of the Kingdom and Matthew 16:18 promised its glorious establishment. In spite of persecution by Rome, jealous of the Jews, economic poverty and a startling message, the gospel of Jesus swept the ancient world by storm.
The ardent zeal of devoted servants of the Lord emblazoned a noble page in the volume of ancient history. The spiritual army of the Lord made many valiant conquests for the Captain of their salvation (Hebrews 2:10). Shining as lights in the midst of a perverse generation (Philippians 2:15) early Christians took seriously the task of "living soberly, righteously and Godly" (Titus 2:12). The simple organization of the Lord's church made clear its autonomous government. Adhering strictly to divine principles of self governing procedures set forth in Acts 14:23, Titus 1:5-6, Acts 20:28, 30 and 1 Peter 5:1-4 there was no need for earthly headquarters, bureaucracy or Hierarchy.
In Philippians 1:1 we read simply of elders, deacons and all the saints. Worship in the first century church of our Lord was to be conducted in "spirit and in truth" as John 4:24 clearly stated. Reverently, as the Scriptures directed, the body of Christ "continued steadfastly" in the homage the apostles taught (Acts 2:42). The first day of the week was especially set aside for the Lord's Supper and the contribution (Acts 20:7, 1 Corinthians 16:1-2). Nineteen centuries ago the church Christ established, by His shed blood, was strong in its exposure of error (2 Timothy 4:2-4), as well as its proclamation of truth (1 Timothy 3:15) and especially in ardent evangelism.
Acts 5:42, 8:4 and 12:24 tells us of the daily teaching that caused "the Word of God to grow and multiply." Christians of that era prayed boldly and fervently (Hebrews 4:16, James 5:16) even as they joyously sang praises unto God (Acts 16:25; Colossians 3:15-17). Christianity was not a church house religion to them. It was not "a way of life," it was life! Paul said: "For me to live is Christ" (Phil. 1:21).
