

COUNTY EXCEEDS RED CROSS QUOTA

The Red Cross drive by more than 60 per cent—and one-third of the time devoted for the drive still remains for the workers over the county to bring the final reports. So far as we have been able to learn there is not a community in the county that has failed or will not double their quota which was allotted to them and in many cases they will exceed their amount by three and four hundred per cent.

Haskell County's quota was fixed by the Red Cross officials at $2000.00, but a report of Jones county, our neighbor on the south, complaining at the district meeting at Abilene a few weeks ago that their quota was $1,900 too high. Hon. W. H. Murchison, chairman of the drive in Haskell county, informed the district chairman that Haskell county would relieve her neighbor of this amount, making the quota for the county $3,900.00, and it is believed that this increased amount will be doubled before the close of the drive.

B. UNDERWOOD OF MITCHELL DIES SUNDAY

Our community was saddened by the death of T. B. Underwood of the Mitchell community Sunday night at 10 o'clock after a brief illness. Mr. Underwood worked at his farm work until Thursday when he came in and reported to his wife to be feeling very ill. He and his family attended to the funeral Friday, but Saturday he was not able to be out of his bed and he grew worse until he became unconscious and never regained consciousness. He suffered from a ruptured blood vessel of the brain which a skilled physician could not relieve. All was done for him that human hands could do but to no avail. His remains were to rest in the O'Brien cemetery Sunday. Rev. Stanfield of Rochester conducted the funeral services. His bereaved family had the sympathy of the entire community.

Methodist Auxiliary

Sunday's lesson concluded the sixth year of the Mission Study, "Sons of God." Inasmuch as God has said: "The stranger among you," we should profit by these lessons of the Italian immigrants in our country. And how best we may learn and so become exponents of the teachings of Him who said, "I was poor and ye gave me not bread; I was sick and ye visited me not; I was a stranger, ye took me not in. Depart from me, I never knew you."

Patriotic Program Rendered by Vontress School Children

Vontress school children rendered a patriotic program at the Methodist church in this city Monday night. The program was directed by Miss Effie Roberts of Abilene. She has taught this school for 35 years and these children have given her more success than any other teacher in the city. The children performed with confidence that timidity or nervousness could not overcome. The program was absolutely perfect and each child as their names were called took their place in front of the audience and spoke in loud, clear voices that reached those farthest away in the large church. Miss Roberts came to Haskell by the solicitation of others, with these children in mind, and she is to be commended for her better understanding what can be done for the training of our children by the pastor and the same teacher who knows how to bring the best in each child. The literary program of this school has come up to the high standard of the entire city and has never been neglected. Time for any other training of these children has been so small they have almost attained to a whole in singing the patriotic songs that we have not overheard a note that they may be given the opportunity to sing in the name of the...

Annual Sacred Harp Singing Held Sunday

A large congregation gathered from all parts of the county and adjoining counties at Red Top church, five miles west of Rule Sunday and witnessed the old folk's singing from the Sacred Harp. Dinner was prepared and the whole day was spent in singing the old hymns. This old book has the largest collection of hymns and tunes of any book published, and has no doubt been more extensively used than any song book in the South. It contains above 500 pages and often it has two or more songs on the same page. The principal composers live in the South and most of them in the states of Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas, and Texas. The book is still used in many of these states as a foundation book. County and State conventions are held in honor of the old book in the above states. The people who took part in the old harp singing at Red Top are from the above named states, and learned to sing the old hymns years ago.

The house was called to order at 10:30 a. m., with an opening song by the president, U. V. Thomas, and prayer by Rev. J. W. Read, after which a business session was called and U. V. Thomas was again chosen president for another year. A committee on arrangement was appointed, viz: G. W. Hutto, S. M. McCain, W. L. Ray and W. M. Free, secretary. The committee met promptly and the following leaders were placed on the program: U. V. Thomas, O'Brien; C. S. Kennedy, Jayton; W. M. Free, Haskell; S. M. McCain, Gilliam; W. L. Ray, Jud, and Mrs. C. S. Kennedy of Jayton, who responded promptly and each leader sang his allotted 15 minutes, after which the ladies of Red Top served a good dinner to all.

The singers gathered back into the house at 1:30 and the president opened the afternoon service with a song, J. C. Murray of Jud was first called to the floor and sang some splendid old songs, after which the former leaders were called upon from time to time throughout the entire afternoon. The song service seemed better, if possible, in the afternoon than in the earlier hours of the day. The day was spent very pleasantly by singers and visitors, many expressing their enjoyment at the close of the day. The song of "Parting Hand" was sung by the president, and Brother J. W. Read, pastor of the Red Top Baptist church dismissed the congregation. The body will meet again at Red Top the Third Sunday in May, 1919, and spend another day in singing the old songs.

E. L. Ridding of Weimert was in the city Monday and reports the good news that Weimert had gone over the top in the Second Red Cross Drive Saturday and Saturday night the drive began on Monday. Weimert is another little city that does not wait to be drafted in any patriotic work, but gets ready when the news is first broken. They were also first over the top in the Liberty Loan Drive.

Marian Shook, who was spending a 50 day furlough at home with relatives and friends was called back to Camp Bowie by wire and left Monday night for camp.

Col. J. Wilson Nolen and daughter Miss Lucille of Alexander City, Ala., and Miss Rava Nolen of Bessemer, Ala., are visiting Mrs. Alice T. Nolen and other relatives and friends of this city.

"The Rest is Up to You"

The following poem has been handed to us by H. L. Flowers, one of our farmers living northwest of town, which was written by his son Oscar, who is in the service. Mr. Flowers has two sons in the service, both of whom are probably in France by this time as he has not heard from them for several weeks.

We have heard our country calling, and we shouldered each our arms. When the bugles rang out wildly, from the hillside to the farms. We are fighting to a finish, we are going to see it through. We will give our lives in battle, but the rest is up to you. We have donned the khaki breeches, we have picked up belt and gun. In the cause of right and freedom, we will not the tyrant shun. We must leave you for a season, while we teach the Hun "Who's who" Leave our homes, friends, and loved ones, that's why it's up to you. There'll be hearts all torn and broken with anguish and with pain, For the loved ones lost forever, for the boys in battle slain. For we Sammies will be fighting, far across the ocean blue. We'll need food, arms, munitions, that's the part that's up to you. Watch the slackers, watch the traitors, who would stab us in the back For our hands are surely busy, setting William off the track. We've a great big job before us, that is everybody's view. Stand behind us in the struggle, is the thing we ask of you. So put strikes and stripes from you; join with heart and hand. Till again the gentle peace dove, shall wing forth from every land. Let your efforts be unceasing, for the cause is grand and true. Then we'll not be disappointed in the jobs we left for you. —Oscar Flowers. Fort Crockett, Galveston, Texas.

ADVERTISE RED CROSS COUNCIL PASSES GO TO WORK LAW

Manager A. J. Combs of the Haskell Telephone Company put over a novel advertising scheme for the Red Cross Monday at noon when he had the fire whistle to give the alarm—which excited the entire population of the city, all anxious to know the location of the fire. Then when anyone rang central and asked for the information the excited person was greeted with a sweet voice with the following: "The Red Cross Drive is on. Subscribe Today!" No connections were made during the time, which lasted for about 30 minutes.

New Bulletin Board for Letters and Pictures of our Boys Now Complete

The Bulletin Board for displaying letters and pictures of our soldier boys who are in army service which has been provided by the patriotic citizens of Haskell is now complete and placed at the front of Paeces' Drug Store in this city. Everybody is urged to bring any letters or pictures they have and leave them with J. J. Calhoun of the above named drug store, who will display and return to the owners. Get to work and help fill up the board.

Died

The little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Oats died at their home in the Foster community, Thursday, May 16th, at 7 p. m., and was laid to rest in the Pinkerton cemetery Friday afternoon, Rev. C. O. Huff of Rochester conducting the funeral services. The Free Press extends deepest sympathy to the bereaved.

DENNIS CHAPEL GOES "OVER THE TOP" IN A. R. C. SATURDAY

The school taught by S. L. Coggins and Miss Frances Tennyson at Dennis Chapel closed Friday with a picnic. The morning hours were spent in an address by Mr. Coggins to the school and patrons, which was sound in logic and to the point on school work. After which all partook of the dinner the ladies spread at the noon hour, and everyone present enjoyed the occasion. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly by the patrons and visitors seeing the little folks put on their primary exercises, which was indeed a splendid showing, bringing out the fact that they had been given the best of instruction. This school, as a whole, has been a success, and the teachers and the pupils deserve much credit for their good work. Dennis Chapel is one of our best communities and was one among the first in the county to become a Red Cross unit.

On Saturday night a meeting was called and Prof. Coggins made a talk on Red Cross and in 20 minutes after with friends in Haskell county. Tom closed his address, they had gone over the top in the Second Red Cross Drive. The quota was $100.00 and the total receipts reached the $250.00 mark.

FOSTER GOES "OVER THE TOP" IN A. R. C. DRIVE

The good people of Foster gathered at the schoolhouse Sunday night in a Red Cross meeting conducted by Rev. Ben F. Roberts of Rochester, who made a short patriotic talk before the hour of preaching service. The patriotic spirit was aroused and within 30 minutes the people had raised $105.00 for the Red Cross Fund, their quota only being $100.00. The Foster community is one of our most patriotic communities and they do not do things by halves. There was a small crowd present but the slogan was to "raise the amount now," and it was soon raised, and the people went home rejoicing at having done their whole duty. B. M. Ford placed the amount in the bank Monday morning to Foster's credit.

FREE PRESS FORCE "ON THE BLINK" THIS WEEK

Owing to the fact that part of the Free Press force is detained at home this week the mumps, which has been the guest of society circles in Haskell for the past few weeks, the paper does not come up to our usual standard. We were forced to leave out a number of interesting news items, including our community news and several ads which we did not have time to set up in type. We make this explanation for the size of the paper this week and hope to be straightened out again by another week.

A. F. Woods, who has been detained at home for the past two weeks with the mumps, is able to be up town again and will be glad to meet his friends and customers at his place of business.

LOCAL BOARD READY FOR REGISTRATION

The Board received its official notice from Washington for holding this registration on June 5th, the first of the week.

75 Haskell county boys will leave here on Wednesday, May 29th, for Camp Cody, Deming, New Mexico. Just who will be in this contingent is not known as the Local Board has not completed the list.

UNION A. R. C. RALLY HELD AT SHOOK RANCH

The three school communities of Idella, Hutto, and Rhoda held a union A. R. C. Rally Saturday night at the Shook Ranch, in which each community was well represented. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shook who are living on the ranch, opened wide their doors and extended a cordial welcome to all, which in turn was appreciated by a splendid gathering from a wide scope of the county. The program began with enthusiasm and interest. Hon. C. B. Long introduced Judge W. H. Murchison, who made a patriotic address for the Second A. R. C. Drive which began Monday morning after the rally. The best of attention was given the speaker and rousing cheers were given throughout the able discourse.

The Gypsy Fortune Teller, better known as Herbert Arbuckle, made a short talk telling of his travels in foreign lands, and his success as a fortune teller was greeted with much applause.

Judge Murchison offered for sale the Red Cross Honor Pins, which brought the handsome sum of $66.00, and were purchased by Chas. McGregor and will be worn by himself and Mrs. McGregor in token of the Red Cross.

A quilt donated by Mrs. J. R. Graham was sold for $31.00 and was also bought by Chas. McGregor. A Rhode Island Red Hen given by Jim Suggs was bought by Jno. L. Clemmer of Rochester for $3.50. A hen donated by Mrs. Tom Casey was sold to Mrs. Roy Shook for $1.50. A cake donated by Mrs. Louis Bevera was bought by John Oats of Haskell for $3.50. Home canned fruit donated by Mrs. W. A. Webb was sold to Mat Edge for $3.00. Many others donated their services, and milk and eggs for the creamery.

The local string band furnished some good music and a good time was had eating cream, listening to the fortune teller, Mary Magdalena, predicting the future of the boys and girls. The total receipts for the night was $211.00. There has been above $600.00 raised by these small communities, including Jud, where they have not had a general rain in two years, and in fact they have had but very little rainfall at any time within the two years above mentioned. Does this not bespeak the patriotism of these communities in strong terms? The occasion is one long to be remembered by all who attended, and nothing was left undone by Mr. and Mrs. Shook to make the evening pleasant to all. With this mention each of them extends their thanks to one and all who so willingly assisted in making the rally a success.

S. A. Huskey and Jim Whatley made an overland trip to Ballinger and other points in southwest Texas this week.

MESSAGE OF NEW PRESIDENT TO MEMBERS OF MAGAZINE CLUB

My Dear Co-Workers of the Magazine Club: I feel as if this is one of the greatest and most important moments of my life as a member of the Magazine Club; I deem it a great privilege, and an honor, as well as the most responsible place I have ever tried to fill to serve you as president. I am looking back over the past and thinking of the many efficient and good presidents the Club has had, it gives me an inspiration and a burning desire to try my utmost to be and give my very best in serving you. There was never a time in our Nation's history more trying and difficult but out of our difficulties is born our strength. If we wait for all of our difficulties to be removed, the opportunity for service is lost. The immortal One, Robert H. Lee said that duty is the greatest word in the English language after God. What a word it is!—to do one's duty is to meet his obligations in every sphere of life. Nobody living today ever saw a time when the imperial word, "Duty" carried more weight with it. Progress one of you is called to it. The loud, insistent call of duty now is for everyone to serve where they can. Duty will not let us be satisfied until we can say, "I did my duty."

make all kinds of sacrifices, so must we. We must work with the same patriotism with which men fight. The call comes to each of us as individuals and as a Club. Let us keep our thinking to this great word, "duty" and settle in our own minds that whatever we ought to do, we will do. Let us notice some of our duties we owe as individuals and as a club. First, conservation of foods. Our country is in need of housekeepers who will study carefully and intelligently the matter of harmless and wholesome substitutes for foodstuffs. Let us cooperate with our County Food Substitute Chairman, and be ready and willing to serve her in any way. Second, inform ourselves concerning all great questions as these inseparable ones, The Liberty Loan, War Certificates, and every method as well as every demand of our leaders in the Government. The war is helping women to find themselves. Our study course consists in endeavoring to secure a study course that will help us to enlighten ourselves on the different war questions. Third, cheerfulness. Perhaps the most valuable and dangerous order in the United States, according to the wild (Continued on Page Four)

Miss Audra Gayle Roberts arrived Monday evening at the home of Editor and Mrs. Sam A. Roberts. The little lady made her appearance on the first day of the Red Cross drive and we are sure that she intends to be a Red Cross nurse—at least she is very patriotic, her first investment was made in a war savings stamp and she has been singing a tune most of the time, which Mr. Roberts says is the "Star Spangled Banner." Her mother and mother are both getting along nicely.

W. D. MITCHELL, ONE OF PROUD-
EST MEN IN TEXAS, HE SAYS

"I'm Certainly Grateful for the Happiness Tanlac Has Brought to My Home."

"I'm one of the proudest men in Texas today and I just want to tell the people it's all because of what this Tanlac has done for my wife," said W. D. Mitchell of 1808 Warren Street, Dallas, Texas, a few days ago.

"She had suffered so much during the past year," he continued, "with stomach trouble that she had almost given up hope. Her appetite left her entirely and what she did eat would just stay in her stomach and make gas and misery for her. Her nerves went all to pieces and she got so weak and run-down she would have to lie down and rest during the day while trying to do her work. She was so nervous and restless she could hardly sleep, lost weight and felt dependent and down-hearted all the time."

"She was under treatment several times and tried any number of different medicines but everything failed to help her until she began on Tanlac. She began picking up right off when she began taking Tanlac and her despondent feelings soon disappeared. She has such a big appetite now that she can hardly get enough to eat and her digestion is fine. She has already gained eight and a half pounds and says she never felt better. She sleeps good every night and does all her work with ease and is bright and cheerful all the time. I'm certainly grateful for the happiness Tanlac has brought to my home by restoring my wife's health. I honestly believe it will help anybody."

Tanlac is sold in Haskell by Reid's Drug Store; in Rube by Golden Rule Drug Store; in Rochester by H. G. Rasby, in Weimer by E. E. Cockerell, in Sagerton by W. W. Martin in Nabors by Mrs. L. A. Bouldin, and in Whitesfield by T. B. Higginbotham.

For Weak Women
In use for over 40 years! Thousands of voluntary letters from women, telling of the good Cardui has done them. This is the best proof of the value of Cardui. It proves that Cardui is a good medicine for women.
There are no harmful or habit-forming drugs in Cardui. It is composed only of mild, medicinal ingredients, with no had after-effects.
TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help.
"I was taken sick, seemed to be . . . writes Mrs. Mary E. Vesie, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk . . . just staggered around. . . . I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

Are Here Told the Best Remedy for Their Troubles.

Freemont, Conn.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition. So it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."
—Mrs. M. GORDON, 925 Napoleon St., Freemont, Ohio.

North Haven, Conn.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored my health after everything else had failed when passing through the change of life. There is nothing like it to overcome the trying symptoms."

Hancock & Company

"It Pays to Pay Cash"

is that victory can be won by our boys alone. A soldier in the front trenches says: "We shall need inspiration constantly." There should be as many home letters as possible and they should be filled with cheerfulness. A lieutenant in France says: "Our boys can win 40 per cent of the war. The remaining 60 per cent is up to the folks at home." Why couldn't the Magazine Club send some of our soldier boys a letter of cheer?

Fourth, the Red Cross. Never in the world's history has an organization faced a heavier task than does the Red Cross now. It has taken to itself the task of serving all that suffer in every allied land, and every day the need grows graver, and every day the number of our boys overseas grows larger. Not only must the work of the Red Cross go on. It must be extended. The meshes of that net of mercy must be made fine, we must give our money, our influence and our time. I feel as individuals we have done much and well, but I feel that as a Club we need to be a little more faithful and loyal to our Red Cross Auxiliary. Let each of us strive to meet each Thursday afternoon and work for the Red Cross. Lastly, our own canteen work. All of us have had the privilege of contributing. Those who attended the District meeting seem to have a vision of the great and glorious work. It has made many lonely soldiers happy. We want to stand by the Chairman of this war work, and assist her in any way we can.

Governor Chas. H. Brough of Arkansas in his welcome address to thousands of delegates to the General Federation, said: "We recognize that the Federation is one of the greatest agencies for good in our country, particularly so in this great hour of our Nation's greatest crisis. An organization with 2,000,000 members can do a mighty work in making the world safe for democracy, and democracy safe for the world."

Yet duty calls to us to do more than this, we must keep our "home fires burning" in our club, we must preach preparedness for peace as well as preparedness for war. We have our Library, but we must keep going. We have our building to pay for, we want to make our town a better and healthier place in which to live, our young people who are neglected in as many ways, we must care for them—and lend a helping hand to our rural clubs. How can we possibly meet all these obligations? Let me suggest. We must prepare, each of us, to do our part; we must co-operate. We must all be soldiers. Some must serve in France, most of us must serve here in America, but all must serve. A mother said, "I enlisted with my son." Let each of us enlist. I think I can say from the depths of my heart and with all earnestness of my soul, my greatest desire as your President, is perfect harmony in all our work, all pulling together until on one great purpose "service for others." Let us love each other more, blinded, as it were, to one another's faults, for we all have them. And ready at all times to see the good in others, that we may have a most happy and successful year we have ever had in the Magazine Club.

I shall give my very best in serving you. I want every member of this Club to feel perfectly free to make any suggestion, I will appreciate it. I will make mistakes and I appeal to you for your individual support, not because I am president, but for the good we may be able to accomplish.
 Mrs. Robert Reynolds.
