Nichols
Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

There is a sack manufacturing plant on the highway through Bonham.

On our way to Sherman the other day, I noticed this building that read "Bag Test Building".

Driving on, I began to think about that.

A test building for paper bags! Can't you just see it? A whole line of women standing with bags, filled with a variety of groceries. There could be the "Hurry Test" in which a team of women equipped with different types of bags jogged towards parked cars.

There could be the "Time Lapse Test" where they stood and talked with one another until the bags became soggy and the bottoms fell out.

There could be the test where a phone is ringing and the bags go through being tucked under arms while keys are fumbled for, doors unlocked, and the whole bag dumped on the floor while the women reach for that phone. (For a touch of authenticity the phone will cease ringing just as these harried women pick it up).

During all this, of course, there will be monitoring, video taping, timing, stress tests, all the high tech results to be shuffled into some computer and the results going towards making a better bag!

I wonder if they have a test division for all those things we reuse paper bags for? Perhaps tests for how well they take coloring by school children, how well they hold pecans, or garage sale items, or any number of things that paper bags are so valuable for? Or is the company totally unconcerned about that?

Of course, it may not be that way at all. There may be a line of machines, each going through repetitious motions...pulling, punching, stressing those bags in mechanical mindlessness.

Most probably that's the way it really is. Or perhaps it's somewhere in between.

But everytime I conjure up that image of a line of folks with filled-up shopping bags, putting them through all the rigors of everyday life, I can't help but smile.

have a bountiful
Thanksgiving

Win Cash, Save Money During Paper Sale In December

The papers are on sale again...with a bigger chance to win cash prizes, too!

During the entire month of December, The Deport Times, Blossom Times, Talco Times and Bogata News is on sale for $2.00 off the regular price.

A whole year costs only $9.00 in Lamar, Red River and Titus Counties, $11.50 in the state of Texas, but outside those counties, and $14.00 for out of the state.

Anyone renewing their subscription or a subscription for someone, will automatically be entered in a drawing for $50.00, $30.00, $20.00 and $10.00 in cash.

The papers are always a popular Christmas gift that lasts throughout the whole year.

Local news, photos, public information, a television schedule and feature articles are available in the publications.

If no renewal is desired, but you want to enter the drawing, simply mail the coupon on the ad which will appear in the paper next week, and mark it, "I do not wish to renew", and you can be entered in the drawing with no purchase.

The cash prizes will be awarded during the first week in January.

Renewal notices for December are not being sent out, due to the volume (two-thirds of the subscriptions come due in December), so it's a good idea to check on your subscription.

Blossom subscribers, the majority of which are due in the month of January, are urged to subscribe in December to take advantage of the savings.

Give Thanks For What Isn't As Well As What Is!

Thanksgiving, like all holidays, it rolls around once a year regularly. And it gets hard to think of anything original to say about it.

The Pilgrims giving thanks for what they had, the hardships they endured, the sacrifices they made for a new way of life, all that is important, and it is the reason the holiday is observed, but it seems that such things have been repeated and repeated until it's difficult to pay much attention.

Instead, many people just take the day for granted, eat too much and watch a lot of football. Those that don't indulge in "Turkey Day" football indulge in complaints that all the others do is watch football!

But it isn't "Turkey Day" it's Thanksgiving Day a day to give thanks for what Americans have...and don't have.

Don't Have? Yes, for what this nation doesn't have is as much worth giving thanks over as the many, many things it does have.

In this country there isn't massive starvation, with children dying by the thousands.

There isn't a dictatorship, with military coups taking place on a regular basis, and executions occurring constantly.

People with extra rooms aren't forced to rent them out because the housing shortage is so acute there isn't room for everyone.

In this country plagues don't sweep the land wiping out thousands upon thousands in a few short weeks.

If illness does occur there are medical facilities to treat it, and even dying can be accomplished with dignity and comparative comfort.

The list can go on and on, the things American have to be thankful for because the Don't Have Them.

In this nation hunger exists, illness exists, flaws in government exist, there are wrongs that need correcting.

But Americans still have so many of the freedoms and privileges the Pilgrims came to find.

This Thanksgiving Day give a moment's time to pondering what Americans not only have...but what they don't have. For the things that are missing are often as important as the things exist.

Happy Thanksgiving Day.

The school board appointed a textbook committee that will be chaired by Taylor. Other members include Larry Salter, L.C. Stout, Gary Ballard, Nancy Breedlove, Rhonda Robbins, David Tyler, Mona Fults, Barbara Martin, Jerry Leverett, Maury Winnie, Bill Mosley, Jim Chambers, Pansy Morrow and Ina Sparks.

Deport Post Office

Brodie Bell Celebrates 91st Birthday

Miss Brodie Bell observed her 91st birthday on November 17. Her family helped celebrate the occasion with a birthday party.

Brodie started to work for the Post Office in Deport in the fall of 1917 and continued her work for the next 50 years. Her father, the late Sam Bell, was postmaster at the time she started to work. She continued serving through the corresponding terms of nine presidents, five Democrats and four Republicans. Her days at the Post Office coincided with four wars and a great depression. The office was moved to three different locations during her tenure.

As assistant postmaster, Brodie was on the job longer than any previous postmaster at the time of her retirement.

Pattonville Extension Club Meets

Pattonville Home Extension Club met November 9 with Juanita Russell. The meeting was brought to order by Glenna Harper, leading the TEHA prayer and Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. Flag.

Juanita Russell brought the devotional entitled "The Ten Commandments of a Friendly Church." She also gave the council report. The program was making a book for registry at council achievement luncheon.

For demonstration, Juanita showed something she was making for a Christmas gift. The Christmas dinner will be December 14 with Margaret Wadley.

There were four members present at the meeting.
