

By Nanalee Nichols

In the past few weeks I've spent a lot of time at the ball park taking pictures of youngsters from ages of about 5 or 6 up to teenagers.

They are fun to work with, bright and cheerful and just as cute as can be.

And during that time I've come to realize just how special the folks that work with those youngsters are.

I know that most coaches are parents....but they are parents willing to spend an incredible amount of time working with kids.

It's hot out on those ball fields.
And before every game the field has to be worked on. Lime has to be spread and mark the baslines.

The bases have to be put down.
Behind the scenes there are schedules to be made out and games to be arranged.

There are uncountable phone calls to be made. There are funds to be raised and uniforms to be fitted and rounded up. One good rainstorm can create havoc with an entire schedule!

Then coaching has to begin.
Coaches aren't on hand just for the games, they come out to practice too.

Of course, there has to be some criticism during all this...coaches sometimes have to accept the flack for things that they did or did not do.

So, let's hear it for those spring-time heros...the coaches of kid's baseball and softball!

And, while handing out awards, it might be nice to hand out one or two to the parents who run the concession stands at those same ball games...and then there are those dedicated parents who take their children, and other people's kids, to the games and patiently sit in the blazing sun while their youngsters play ball.

Yes, it's dedication and love that these people display...a love of the game of baseball and a love of children.

They all deserve a round of applause!

being shared this week from the kitchen of Douglas (Andy) and Kathy Williams. Andy and Kathy have been married for 15 years and even though they have lived all over the world, they call Bogata their home. Kathy was raised in the Bogata area and graduated from high school there. Before she married, she never really traveled, but since then she has lived or visited in Malaysia, Singapore, Holland and many more places. She and her family are in the process of moving to Holland at this time and will spend about six months there.

Kathy and her family are members of the United Methodist Church in Bogata. She enjoys cooking, entertaining, oil painting and any craft you can use a hot glue gun.

Kathy likes to cook fancy foods. Although she cooks plain foods for her husband, she likes to experiment with fancy recipes. She does a lot of changing in a recipe also. She might take out some ingredients that her family doesn't like or add ingredients they do like.

Kathy also likes to work in the yard and grow plants. Her career for the past eight years as been Activity Director for nursing homes. For the past four years she has served at Red River Haven Nursing Home. May 29 will be her last day of work.

Andy and Kathy are the parents of Brandon, a seventh grader, age 13; and Kevin, a fourth grader, age 10. Another enjoying of Kathy's is

> The crabmeat recipe shared this week came from Eileen Wainman from British Columbia, Canada. Kathy got the recipe from her when she lived in Singapore. Upon my arrival at Kathy's house, she had the table set to sample this crabmeat dip. I've mentioned before how I hesitate to taste foods because of calories, but I did sample this unique dish. It is delicious and I will make it for the next event i attend. The hot potato salad recipe came from Aunt Berniece Hartman in 1983 when they visited them in Spokane, Washington.

The chicken pot pie is good to freeze. When she fixes it, she usually freezes half of it to have for visitors who pop in. This recipe came from a neighbor, Mary Joplin of Bogata.

The pea salad came from a lady she attended a nursing home meeting with. The lady was telling about it, Kathy wanted it, so she wrote it on a paper plate for her because she didn't have any paper. Kathy recalls how difficult it was to figure out the rec-

Rabies Vaccinations Could Be Crucial This Year, Bring Your Pet To The Dip And Vaccination Clinic

Is your dog vaccinated for rabies? Does it scratch from fleas and ticks? Now is the time to do something about it, as the Deport Community Service Club and Dr. Sam B. Kelsey hold their annual dog dip and rabies vaccination clinic.

This year's clinic will be held from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday, June 8 at Dr. Kelsey's Veterinary Clinic, located just west of Deport on Hwy.

This year might be a good time to give more thought to vaccinating a pet for rabies, as cases are being reported throughout the state. The cost of the dip is $3, and the vaccination is $5. Both cost $8, and are a bargain at that price.

The Community Service Club and Dr. Kelsey sponsor this dip and vaccination clinic as a service to anyone in the area who wants to protect their pet, and people.

Everyone is welcome, so come take advantage of this one day only opportunity. Protection against rabies, fleas and ticks is important, and it's entertainment at it's best to watch the men dipping those often-unwiling

Patriots End Season With Loss To Queen City

The #2 Queen City Bulldogs rained off and rolling and sent the Bulldog on Prairiland's parade as they defeated the Patriots 7-2 in last Tuesday's bi-district game at George Dobson Field in Texarkana.

The loss put an end to a spectacular turnaround of a season as the young Patriots turned the one-victory season of 1990 into a 17-5 mark this

"This has been one of my more rewarding years," said Patriot Coach Bill Scudder. "All these kids can play. They made up their minds that they would win. Last year they were just too young."

It seemed, only momentarily, that some of that winning would carry over against one of the state's most talented teams.

During a steady mist in the top of the fifth inning, the Patriots scored two runs to take a 2-1 lead on the Bulldogs. Three consecutive hits off of the Bulldog starter put the Patriots pitcher from the game.

Dexter Baker singled to right field, Michael Madewell popped a bunt that fell just out of reach of a diving Bulldog for a hit and Greg Vickers delivered a flare into right to score

Vickers' base hit forced the Bulldogs to move future Texas A&M shortstop Paul Barber to the mound. He got Chad Whitley to fist a lazy liner to the first baseman who turned and tagged Vickers for the double

The Patriots worked on a double steal play to perfection as the Bulldog catcher fired to second in an attempt to catch a bluffing Smith and Madewell scored easily from third to give the Patriots the lead.

"That worked just like we drew it up," said Coach Scudder.

The Patriots' laughter was short lived as the rain let up and the Bulldog bats heated up.

Queen City collected four runs in the bottom of the fifth to take a commanding 5-2 advantage. The first four batters reached base against Baker and the Patriots.

"In the fifth they didn't really hit Dexter all that hard," said Scudder. "I don't think the hit would have gotten through if we hadn't had our infield

Queen City added two more in the sixth as Barber roped a two-run single to center.

Prairiland scratched out five hits, whil the Bulldogs had 10 off Baker, who walked two and struck out three. Mark Farris relieved Baker for the

'The kids feel disappointed," said Scudder. "They don't feel good about losing to the #2 team in the state." "I'm proud of them," he added.

"They've done all I've asked them to do ail year.'

A Veteran Is Remembered

Almost 50 years ago, 13-year old clared dead on April 5, 1944, making unofficial memorial day on the 27th day since her brother, Vernon Wayne Guest, had been declared missing in life-even before he joined the servaction after going down on the shop ice," Mrs. Anderson said. "I remem-USS Atik somewhere in the North Atlantic during World War II.

Today, Mrs. Anderson and her sister, 81-year old Nannie Lou McAlister, sit with an oil portrait of Guest between them in Mrs. Anderson's home in Paris. As she shuffles through a basket filled with yellowed, dog-eared newspaper clippings, Mrs. Anderson's hand rests on another small black and white photograph of the 24-year old serviceman before she carefully pulls out something wrapped in quickly-fading purple velvet.

But the medal tucked inside is just as brilliant gold as it was on the day the Guest family of Deport received Vernon's Purple Heart, nearly two years after he was declared missing in action. Guest, navy electrician's mate third class, was officially de-

Jayne Anderson experienced an him teh first WWII casualty from Lamar County.

'My brother was my hero all my ber the last time I saw him, he was walking across my schoolyard. He waved at me and threw me a kiss."

That's the day he went to enlist in the United States Navy.'

Guest was the fifth of six children born to the sharecropping family. Actually, Mrs. Anderson said, Guest was born just over the line in Red River County, but moved with the family to Deport when he was about 12 years old. His name is also listed as the first WWII casualty in Red River County, she said.

Entering training in July 1940 at Great Lakes, Illinois, Guest was then stationed at Pearl Harbor in Hawaii. Mrs. Anderson said he had just transferred to the USS Pruitt when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor, Guest also worked on the USS Hornet. which was later sank by German warcraft. But he escaped death once again, Mrs. Anderson said, by his transfer to the Atik.

Guest was listed as missing in action on May 8, 1942 and two years later the family was informed that he was listed as officially dead since April 5, 1942. The family wasn't told what the fate of his ship was, Mrs. Anderson said, until 20 years later, when she wrote to U.S. Rep. Wright Pattman while in her thirties. It was then she learned that Guest's boat had been sunk March 27, 1942 by the German submarine U-123. There were no survivors, she added.

Shuffling through the basket once again, Mrs. Anderson reveals a newspaper clipping that said the Guest family received its last letter from the serviceman on March 21, 1942. She said that the family never saw Guest in his uniform.

However, she noted, "some triumph did rise from tragedy;" she was listed as the second beneficiary from her brother's insurance, on the stipulation that she get her college degree. She did, and taught school for 32 years before retiring.

Though many years have passed since her brother gave his life for his country, Mrs. Anderson said she can still recall his memorial service in Deport like it was yesterday. And today, Memorial Day is a time of sadness and remembrance for her,

"I can still vividly remember the memorial service, and my front row folding chair, and them playing taps--especially taps," Mrs. Anderson said. "Memorial Day leaves me with mixed feelings emotionally adn stirs up some innermost feelings, especially when taps is blown.

We're just one of many who gave a sacrifice for our American freedom, and we know how to appreciate

The American Legion Post #30, Paris, carries the name Brown-Guest American Legion Post #30, in honor of Guest and Winfred Brown, a casualty of World War I.

Like Vernon Wayne Guest's name on the grave marker in Bethel Cemetery, the memory of Jayne Anderson's brother is forever.
