

By Nanalee Nichols Memories do differ Memories differ. I've always suspected that, but this week I had it confirmed.

A friend of mine was talking with me, and she recalled a recent visit to her parents up in Iowa.

"My brother and dad and I got to recalling a trip we took" she smiled, "and what my brother and I remembered is definitely not the same story my dad recalls!"

She went on to say that her father is notorious in the family for taking those shortcuts that are never short he is one of those folks who always ends up lost, or the shortcut road is too bad to save time on.

The kids in the family remember going through a wheat field, climbing a mountain, and finally discovering the road was blocked and there was nothing to do but turn around and go back down the way they had come, then taking the road that they should have taken to begin with.

Their dad only remembers taking a shortcut through the wheat, he doesn't recall anything more!

In talking about my mother and dad with my brothers I have been struck that with the large age differences between us, we have entirely different sets of memories. We remember things we were all there for pretty much the same, but we were all raised at different times in our parents' lives.

My brother Marshal has many memories of living in Houston while my brother Hugh has only a few. I wasn't even born then, so of course don't recall that segment of life at all.

Again, my oldest brother remembers a lot about living in things," Keener says sadly "we are diligently trying to eradicate milkweed, the Monarch's host plant, and in Mexico, where they migrate, they are cutting down the fir trees the butterflies roost in"

Monarchs only lay their eggs on milkweed. The female deposits the eggs on the underside of milkweed and when they hatch the worm eats the plant. This contains a mild poison which keeps predators such as birds from eating them. Later they enter their chrysalis stage, which hatches into the glorious orange and black butterfly that is currently migrating through our area.

Interestingly enough, Keener, a "It isn't unusual for them to travel Pattonville native who lives in 800 miles in 24 hours" Keener ex-Longview and keeps a weekend place plains. The butterflies ride the wind at Pattonville, was told when he first currents, and tagged ones are frecalled Texas Parks and Wildlife that quently found hundreds of miles from where they were originally tagged he was not in a flyway zone at Longview. According to them, the only a few hours. before butterflies came through east of him The insects don't live for very long, on the coastal flyway, and west of and they reproduce all up and down him on the central flyway. him and catches the insects, carefully folding the wings shut, placing his tag and writing down all information such as date and location

Chasing the bright elusive butterfly for love

Love of nature prompts man to help in study of Monarchs

Texas Parks and Wildlife and the University of Kansas are conducting this joint study. It costs $10 for a "starter kit" to tag butterflies with, and $15 for two hundred tags after that. Individuals must pay for these supplies. Keener first became aware of the program after watching a National Geographic presentation. He called the toll free number.

'There's also a program to record information about hummingbirds' Keener says, "their numbers are down, too, and information from people with gardens and feeders is useful in helping to locate the problem"

A long-time nature lover, Keener enjoys hunting, and observing nature

He has been to Mexico to see the Monarch roosts, where huge fir trees are covered with solid masses of brilliant butterflies.

"It's unbelievable" he recalls.

He says that so many of the butterfly roost trees were being cut for firewood that Texas will now furnish the poverty-stricken villagers with propane and propane bottles to make it unnecessary for them to cut the trees.

The Monarch butterfly travels each fall from Canada down to Mexico.

Keener keeps a butterfly net with that Monarchs kept in the dark until noon and then let into the light flew west instead of south! This indicates that when the first light of day hits the butterfly's eye it guides the insect in the proper direction. Messing with that misguides them!

50¢

Keener's knowledge doesn't extend only to the Monarch. He is knowledgeable about Tiger Swallowtails, Swallowtails, Sulphurs and the myriad other varieties of butterflies that abound.

Why take the time and effort to capture, tag and record information on butterflies?

The people I work with at Texas Utilities think I'm crazy" he grins, "but I like doing this, and studying and learning more about nature.

One thing he has observed is that it was believed that all Monarchs lay their eggs on the undersides of milkweed leaves. But this past year, on a trip to Maui, Hawaii, Keener noted that there the eggs were laid on the top of the leaves instead! He has yet to find an entomologist that can explain that phenomenon.

Keener has one sad note to offer concerning the decline of both the Monarchs and the hummingbirds.

"It appears to me that man is killing himself, and the other natural things are dying first" he says sadly.

Thanks to people like Mickey Keener, though, there is hope ... hope that studies can help pinpoint problems, and perhaps these problems can be corrected.

To help participate in these studies call 800-468-9719 Schools classes and children's groups can also obtain educational material and even a chrysalises to watch hatch by calling the same number.

Tulsa for two years, and my brother Hugh has many memories of there I have memories too, but they just aren't the same, they are the recollections of a four and five year old, not a school age child.

Another friend says she and her sister see the world through entirely different eyes. Her sister tended to terrorize her with spooky stories. Her sister recalls these as silly stories, but to my friend they were deadly serious, nightmare inducing episodes!

Go to a class reunion sometime, I think you will discover that incidents one person treasures as dear memories are completely forgotten by others!

I suppose our memories are affected by our ages, our interests and our personalities.

Probably our personalities are the most important part of it all. What may have been a real thrill for one child may not have impressed another at all. What frightened one kid may have been nothing at all to another.

But, one thing I do know is that each of our memories is personal, real and important. The truth, I suppose, lies somewhere in between.

Our featured cook, or cook's this week is Mary Yoder and her daughter Shasta. They live in the community of Milton, south of Deport. Shasta is in the eleventh grade at Prairiland and helps her mom out in the kitchen all the time. They enjoy trying out new recipes, but also rely on the old favorites. They enjoy the Tator Tot Casserole and they are all on the go a lot and stick with the quick and easy meals.

Mary is married to Eran and he is elf-employed in the construction business building metal buildings. They also have a son Nathan and he is in the 5th grade at Deport. Mary cleans houses, so that she can set her own hours to be with the kids and their activites.

They are very family-oriented and enjoys doing things together. Shasta plays volleyball and they try to go to all of her games. Nathan plays Little Dribblers and that keeps them busy with practice and games. They are all active members of the Abundant Life Church in Minter

She admits to being a "crafty" person. Shasta said that she is very talented. Mary's home is decorated with a lot of neat crafts and I'm sure she was too modest to admit which ones she had done.

Shasta admits to having a passion for writing. She is also a published poet. She has one of her poems in a Taco Soup- This recipe would be great on one of these fall cool days we are having.

Mexican Casserole-A favorite using soups and tomatoes along with a little zest with taco and enchilada sauces'.

Potato Casserole-This recipe is a mixture of hash browns and soups and Mary says this is good with fried potatoes, cornbread and ice tea, A complete meal and delicious.

Quick and Easy Goulash -This recipe is one of the family favorites and Mary made it up her self by trial and error!

Tator Tot Casserole-This is the family favorite, hands down! Young Nathan said it was great!

Lemonade Pie-A pie lover's favorite. This quick and easy pie uses lemonade as the base along with Cool Whip and instant pudding.

EDITOR'S NOTE: We are coming up on the hoiday season. Does anyone know of a cook holiday cook. Maybe some candy recipes. I love to make holiday candies and weets!

COOK OF THE WEEK this week is Mary Yoder and her daughter Shasta. They are pictured in front of one of the handmade quilts made by Mary's mother-in-law Delores Yoder of Paris. Mary and her daughter keep active with school and church activities.

Card of Thanks

To Bill's many friends and family, you have been there at every turn for the past two years during a very difficult time for our family.

Bill fought with every part of his inner strength and love for his family to survive and he won the battle. He is now "Our Angel Among Us"

Some of you called, brought food, sent a card of flowers, visited or just spoke a word of encouragement or a prayer to carry us through to another day. As his family, we Thank You.

A special thanks to our Fellowship Baptist Church family, Blossom School Faculty and Campbell Soup Distribution friends for everything you have done.

A very special thanks to Bill's fishing and telephone buddy, Ken Pitcock, who never failed to call every day.

Thanks to Bro. Neil Higginbotham, Dickie Basinger, Gayle Stevens, Richard McElyea, Breanna Smith and Fry-Gibbs Funeral Home for a beautiful service in word and song.

Thanks to Drs. Bucher, Cochran, Kerby, Harbaugh and their staffs and St. Joseph's 4th and 5th floors for their care and love you showed Bill and his family.

Church retreat

is well attended

The semi-annual church retreat was held at the home of Johnnie and Nelta Musgrove on October 15-18. It was a large success.

Friends and family helped Nelta prepare her home for the event. The four car carport and patio were converted into a dining and meeting area. All evening meals were catered.

During the four day period, approximately 250-300 attended from North Carolina, Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas and Canada. Special speakers were Gladys Allen, Peggy White, Diana Boone, Dewayne and Libby Stewart and Scott Stimson.

Special music was provided by locals. Plans are being made for the next retreat. The main speaker will be from Baltimore, MD.

In the past it has been a ladies retreat, but this time several husbands attended.

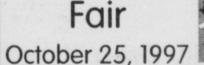

Virgie Wood, David Pardee, Loretta and Faith Edwards, Helen Hively, Laurie Marshall, Weldon and Christy Love, Ryan and Asby, Derek Armstrong, Faye Horner, all of Powderly, Brenda and Brandon Currin, Shawn Thomison, Cory Phillips, all of Bonham, Eddy, Bonnie and Kady McLaughlin of Bogata, Linda, Blake Campbell of Roxton, Bob and Dorothy Newberry of Novice, Jim and Sonya Graymon of Commerce, Doyle and Stacy Hively of Palestine, Raymond and Francis Hoover of Pattonville, Peggy and Lanette Marshall of Espanola, NM, Jeff Campbell of Blossom and Larry Hoover of Mt. Ppleasant.

There were five generations in the family. Virgie Hoover is the greatgreat-grandmother, Juanita Russell is great-grandmother, Thomas Russell, grandfather, Todd Russell, father of Kaylee Russell, age 3.

Lady Patriots clench District championship

The Lady Patriots came out in fine form amid a packed Patriot side of fans to earn a district championship for 11-AA. The 15-3, 15-9 victory over Chisum gives a ninth consecutive playoff appearance for the Lady Patriots who will now meet Ore City in bi-district play on November 6-7 or 8. Game one was fast-paced in that the Lady Pats quickly dispensed the Lady Mustangs behind five kills from Felicia Taylor and nine service points from Cari Irwin and overall flawless play from the entire team. Game twos was not quite as flawless with the ladies having six service errors. However, the game was finally put away behind Taylor's eight kills, Katha Crawford's five kills and Meagan Hatfield's 11 assists.

In JV action, the Lady Patriots won 15-5, 15-8. Candace Yaross gave out 11 assists an had eight service points. Leslie Spangler put away nine kills while Shasta Riley also had eight service points. The freshmen were also victorious with 15-0, 15-8 win. Crystal Davis had four kills, and Melissa Steinkamp had 10 service points.

PATRIOT KALEB CRAIG receives the ball during Friday football action. The Honey Grove Warriors came to town and went home with the win 23-27. The Patriots are persevering this season and standing with all the area teams.

Patriots downed by Warriors

The Patriots hosted Honey Grove Friday night.

The Pats kicked to Honey Grove and it didn't take the Warriors long to score with an extra point. Before the quarter was over, the Patriots were back in the ball game as David Ford carried the ball in for the TD and Joel Hudson kicked the extra point for the Pats turning the game at 7. David again scores as he blocked a pass to make the interception, then carried the ball in for the TD. The extra point was blocked and the score stood 13-7 at the end of the first quarter with the Pats in the lead.

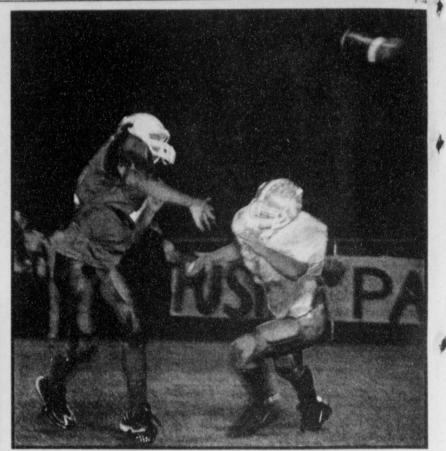

The Warriors came back with a score of their own in the first of the Cooper Friday, Oct. 24. Come out second half. The extra point was good and Honey Grove took a 14-13 lead.

The Warriors managed to score two more times in the second half making the score 13-27 at the half.

The second half started slow but Honey Grove was tackled in their own end zone by Leslie Mullins for a safety followed by a touchdown by David Ford. The Pats then faked the extra point and Stan Cox went in for the extra 2 making the final score of Patriots 23 and Warriors 27.

Junior High Pats defeat Honey Grove 34-0

On Oct. 16, the Prairiland Junior High Patriots faced off against the Honey Grove Braves. The game got off to a great start when Stoney Musgrove ran the ball 50 yards for a TD only to have it taken back on an illegal procedure call.

The Pats didn't let it get them down as Charlie Lawrence carried the ball 30 yards. There was no need for Musgrove to hustle as the entire offense did a superior job of blocking and Musgrove trotted the final 17 yards needed for the TD. Scotty Nichols tossed the pass in to Derrick Loveless for the extra points.

The Braves were unable to break through the Pat defenses even for a first down and the Pats took possession on the Braves 30. The Braves received their first break of the game when they recovered a Pat fumble. However, every attempt to shake the Pats was thwarted. One of the major upsets was a blocked pass by Lawrence and the Pats once again took possession.

The first play of the second quarter found Lawrence in the end zone, having run the ball 47 yards for the TD. The Braves put a stop to the extra points. Brad Gray was there to stop a renegade Brave after a 20 yard gain. The Pats smashed the Braves hopes with Colt Hatfield, Brad Hunt, Josh Dawson, Eric Berry, Shawn Steinkamp, Wade Moore, Philip Elder, Musgrove and Lawrence always there to stop any real progress. Dawson puts on a hard block in front of Musgrove, who dances over the tip of them for a first down. Nichols passes the ball to Hunt who runs 43 yards for the TD. Pass to Hunt is good for 2 points and the half ends Prairiland 22- Honey Grove 0.

The Braves hit the field with a war cry meant to intimidate the Pats and the battle was on. Hunt runs the ball 15 yards and Lawrence fought hard for another 3. Lawrence carries for a gain of 22, however, the Braves toughen up and stop any further progress. The Braves hopes were cut short as Steinkamp recovers a fumble and Musgrove run in 30 yards for the TD, side stepping Braves as he went. Dawson was the key player at stopping the Braves in their next few drives. Brad Hunt made an excellent catch snagging the ball from the air just as he was attacked by the Braves defense. Danny Robinson carries the ball for an 18 yard gain picking up the final 2. Robinson run the ball 35 vards for the TD. Nichols claims an interception with 21 seconds left in the game and the Pats win with a score of 34-0. Tackles in the second half were made by John Wright, Thomas Bishop, Mark Carter, Berry, Musgrove, Lawrence. Loveless and Dawson.

Former Deport resident sends in article on bear problem in N.C.

Bill Roberts, son of Buck and Ann Roberts of Deport, retried to Asheville, North Carolina recently. Bill recalled that about a year ago I wrote about how we had never seen a bear in the wild in spite of our efforts. He enclosed an article from the Asheville Citizen-Times by Tracy Davis.

It seems that the poor black bears in the region are being hit by cars in record numbers.

The article reports that a sow and two cubs were struck and killed at 3 a.m. on Sugar Hill Road in McDowell County, bringing the total to thirty one bears killed by vehicles this year.

It seems that much of the problem is the result of a poor acorn crop this year which has sent bears and squirrels traveling to look for food.

In the past few years good, hard "mast" crops (acorns and nuts) have resulted in the highest number of bears in decades. This year's poor crop means the bears must look further afield for their food.

they are coming closer and closer to civilization, and the article features a photo of a black bear standing on the hood of a parked car, peering over at a motorist in yet another car!

Bill Roberts says in his letter that the bears are getting so bad in populated areas that there ae advisorites not to leave dog food outside, or trash and birdfeeders (of all things). It seems that they love sunflower seeds and will go to extremes to get them out of birdfeeders!

Seems like an excellent time for us to make a trip to the Great Smoky-Mountains, how unfortunate that it doesn't look like we can make it!
