Titus County Polls Largest Vote Saturday

Titus county rolled up the biggest vote in its entire history Saturday in the primary election, which was featured by close and interesting contests. Over five thousand ballots were cast, practically the full strength of the county.

Two races will have to be decided in the second primary on Saturday, August 24. They are county judge and sheriff. Ed Dickson and Jack Cross will be in the runoff for county judge and Earl Albright and Aubrey Redfern for sheriff.

L. M. Borden and Morris White will contest for commissioner of Precinct 2 and E. E. Neugent and Morris Blalock go into the second race for commissioner Precinct 3. The other two commissioners were decided Saturday, with Lester Garrett and C. N. Goodwin having majorities for Precinct 1 and Precinct 4.

John A. Brooks and Urban S. Smith are in the runoff for constable Precinct 1.

In the district races, Congressman Wright Patman easily defeated both his opponents by about a two-to-one majority, with only a week's campaigning in the eleven counties. E. Harold Beck of Bowie county was re-elected over Judge C. T. Neugent of Titus county for state senator. George Lunsford and P. D. Thornton Jr. go into the second primary for representative of the 35th district, consisting of Titus and Morris counties. Sam Williams had a big lead over Claude Hutchings for district judge.

For railroad commissioner, the runoff will be between Pierce Brooks and Olin Culberson, sixteen others having been eliminated Saturday.

Three Rigs Drilling in Talco Field

Talco field went through this week with three drilling rigs in operation and activity on both sides of Talco.

On the west side Texas Co. is making hole around 2500 feet on the Barker No. 15. This is one of the best located tracts to pay off in the field. Every well brought in by the company has been above the average.

On the east side, Humble has reached pay at 4300 feet and is coring on the Sally Blalock No. 3.

Also in that area Byrd-Frost was drilling at 3571 feet on Thursday morning. This is the Williams tract No. 17 in the A. Watson survey. From there they will go to location on No. 19 and then No. 20.

Talco field also received a gift of 31 days of pumping for the month of August, two days increase over July.

PIPE ARRIVES FOR WILDCAT NEAR BOGATA

With J. F. Morrissey of Ft. Worth named as drilling contractor, a wildcat well to test the Trinity formation is scheduled to start in the Rosalie section about August 10, according to Tom Cole of Paris, who was a leader in assembling the 9,000 acre block. A load of surface pipe was delivered on the lease Tuesday, indicating that a rig will follow and the oft predicted test will actually get under way.

The area has been thoroughly geologized and Mr. Cole has been quoted as saying Gulf and Magnolia have extensive holdings north and south of the lease block.

The Bogata Chamber of Commerce and several Bogata business men worked along with Mr. Cole to assemble the block which has been under lease for several months. Various complications have delayed drilling operations.

Twin Babies Found in Outdoor Toilet

A 21-year-old Paris woman was placed in Lamar county jail this week, after reportedly admitting abandoning the bodies of two infants in an outdoor toilet on South Main street. The woman was found ironing clothes Saturday a few hours after the twins were born. She was in an automobile accident last Thursday and told officers the babies were born dead.

Last Days of July Hottest of the Year

The last day of July left this section sweltering in the hottest weather of the year, though relief from the heat was promised in predicted showers. Thermometers have registered close to 100 degrees every day this week.

Farmers are practically up with field work in this area and many of them are busy working in the hay harvest, which is reported to be unusually good in most sections. Prairie hay is said to be selling at about $7 per ton.

Cotton continues to hold up and fruit, but farmers say the past few days have been too hot even for cotton, though the heat may prevent a feared invasion of leaf worms. Most farmers indicate their cotton will produce a good yield this fall and some of them think there will be some cotton picked this month.

A good corn crop is already made in most communities.

SCHOOL BELLS TO RING ON SEPTEMBER 9TH

In a called meeting of the Talco school board on Monday night the opening date for this year's term was set for Monday, Sept. 9. According to Superintendent B. E. Dunagan each year the school receives a greater number of transfers, and indications are for a greater enrollment this year.

A number of new teachers will be employed in the school this year. All of the replacements have not been filled at this time. Mr. Dunagan says he hopes to have all filled within the next two weeks, when The Times will print the names of all the teachers and the subjects they will teach.

Your attention is directed to the firm's advertisement in this issue.

The former Ft. Worth flour salesman, radio prophet and political novice held a majority of approximately 53.6 per cent with only a scattered few thousand votes to be tabulated.

For Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Hal Lattimore had tallied 324,066 to James P. Alexander's 292,129, but both will contest in the run-off.

Lonesome Bill Votes Here Saturday

True to his announcement last week, Lonesome Bill did cast his vote here Saturday, and he voted exactly as he said he would vote.

Election officials found one ballot on which the name of W. Lee O'Daniel was marked on both sides and are certain the ballot was voted by Lonesome Bill, who said last week he intended scratching O'Daniel "in front and behind."

Talco People Held Election Party Saturday

Talco streets were crowded like boom days Saturday night, while anxious voters awaited returns from votes cast in the primary Saturday. A large blackboard was erected over the awning of Kelley's hardware store, and a public address system was used in calling off returns as they came in.

Votes from all over the state were reviewed by radio and read over the address system. J. B. Lee did the announcing, with Tommie Perle tabulating votes on the blackboard.

Between returns, Talco's string band consisting of Cecil Johnson, Fry, Melvin Fruijay and Eleck Hillenton, rendered several numbers. Othor Bullard entertained with several song selections and J. B. Osborn rendered his famous reading about the blacksmith. To top the occasion there was free watermelon for all, paid for by the merchants.

The whole affair was a contribution of business men of Talco, who appreciated Talco's citizens waiting in Talco for the returns.

Talco's votes were not completely counted until about 7:00 Sunday morning. Accurate returns from Maple Springs and Argo did not come in until Sunday. Mt. Pleasant gave its full report by telephone about 12:00 o'clock Saturday night.

Dr. Smith says that he delivered the grandfather, the child's father and the child, completing the third generation. He also adds that this is his first third generation case, but hopes to have many more. This is Dr. Smith's 48th year of medical practice in Talco.

Camp County Well Increases in Oil Flow

Operators and lease holders were rewarded Saturday morning for their long waiting on the Harry Moss Venters No. 1 wildcat, in Camp county near Pittsburg. After being shut down for almost five months, it took almost three days swabbing before the well came to life.

The first oil showing was early Saturday morning when the well blew in and flowed 12 barrels per hour through a 2½-inch tubing. Swabbing was continued on Tuesday, increasing the initial flow to 30 barrels per hour, with casing pressure at 275 pounds.

The well is bottomed at 8,000-42 feet with casing perforated at that depth. Production is coming from the basal Glenrose.

Tanks and separators are being erected at the well to take care of the increasing flow of oil. Operators such as Gulf, Shell and Magnolia, are listed among the major lease holders.

An offset to the well is planned and several drilling permits have been issued in that area.

Mt. Pleasant Daily Times issued a "Sample Copy" edition of that publication on Sunday morning, carrying election returns to all subscribers. It was a service that was appreciated. The lengthy ballot made counting slow this year.

There are a lot of defeated, disappointed candidates, but not all could be elected. How a candidate takes his defeat shows pretty conclusively his make-up. It should also be remembered that there are a lot of disappointed voters, and many regretful ones who could not vote for all their friends.

Our attention was attracted this week to a letter in The Lancaster Herald, written by F. M. Hammond, Lancaster merchant, to the editor of that newspaper complimenting him on a recent edition of The Herald. The Hammond store runs a regular weekly advertisement in the Herald, spending two per cent of its gross sales for newspaper advertising. Lancaster is a small town on a broad highway, but instead of killing itself worrying about this fact and the nearness of Dallas, its merchants are looking out for themselves and letting Dallas do the worrying. F. M. Hammond is a successful and prominent merchant in Lancaster, and he attributes more than fifty years of successful merchandising to well-written advertising and good merchandise sold at a fair price.

We are not a member of any propaganda party that would upset the peaceful pattern of American life by tilting the terror-kettle in their midst, but we do believe that changed world conditions necessitate and demand a few changes in the American way of life, not alone in attitude toward international affairs but in our acceptance of the changed conditions and our challenge to protect our civil liberties. We are not going so far as to say that America doesn't know the first principles of protection, but we do say that it knows very little about those principles. The National Emergency Committee says that if the full mechanized forces of this country were stationed at St. Louis, they could hardly slow down a single German panzer moving up the Mississippi Valley. It adds that even if our deficiency in mechanized fighting equipment were remedied tomorrow, the army wouldn't have the technicians to man the new units. This being true, it appears that our present greatest need is trained men, men who

Apology to Pappy.
(Hope it makes him happy.)

Pappy, I've done you wrong.
I called your hand, Pappy.
And the people grabbed it.
I dragged your name in the mud
And it picked up more voters.
I threw bum eggs at your head
And they burst at your feet,
And new voters came out of them.
I said one of us, you or I,
Was looney as a bed bug.
And the people said it wasn't you . . .
I wonder how Lynn Landrum feels today.
I wonder if he'll join me in a
toast,
A toast (not roast) to your good health, Pappy—
I've had enough of roast to last
a while!
So here's a little doggerel to you
That may be brash enough to bark
But is too weak to bite:

Here's to O'Daniel,
The man of the hour,
His fine mountain music,
His Hill-Billy flour—
May his great big heart
All his promises hold
Till we meet in that land
Where we'll NEVER grow old!

I like mountain music,
(Though I didn't choose it),
Good old mountain music—
(Guess I've got to use it)—
Played by the Hilly Billy band.
Give me some o' that rhythm
(Hope it helps my rheumatism)
And I'll get right with 'em
(Yes, I'll get RIGHT with 'em);
I think the harmony is grand.

Here's to O'Daniel
And his sweet music bars—
When he dies, may his soul
Find a home in the stars.
May his golden harp blend
With his vocal reflexes
And his eternal song
Be "Beautiful Texas."

Readers who have kept track of activities in the Humble Camp for the past six months by scanning the Humble Camp News column published each week in this newspaper, will regret to learn that Miss Neva Slaid, reporter for that part of town, is moving with her family to Memphis. Miss Slaid has supplied The Times with a comprehensive coverage of news from the Humble Camp and her efforts have resulted in a better acquaintance and understanding between Humble Camp people and other Talco and Titus county residents. She is being succeeded this week by Miss Helen Johnson, and it is hoped Humble Camp residents will cooperate with their new reporter so that the Humble Camp News may continue to be one of the interesting pages in this newspaper.

know the art of self protection, the value of discipline and the technicalities of mechanized fighting equipment. We cannot learn those things on our farm, behind our desks or in our factories. They must be learned first-hand on the training field and present international conditions indicate that the sooner we learn them the better for us. If we are ever to be in position to stop a possible invasion, we must scrap our sentimental superstitions regarding military training and accept some sort of selective service as a permanent part of our training in good citizenship.

With bombs falling all over Europe and a large part of the rest of the world, the only country worth seeing now is America. All it needs is a little inside purging and planes and war ships, and we have started out on the job.

Every time one of those noise-making campaign buses drives past our office when we are trying to talk over the telephone we mark down another "Against" on our prospective ballot.

Super-highway across the United States costing twenty-one billions has been proposed. It is too late now to mention it, but why didn't we think of that seven years ago instead of spending our money foolishly along other lines?

The only fault the Republicans find against Willkie is that he was once a Democrat, and the objection the Democrats find is that he is now a Republican. Still, the momentous question, "What is the difference between a Democrat and a Republican?" goes unanswered.

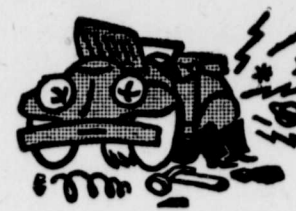

Even if the United States has slipped into a state of military unpreparedness, one hundred and thirty-two million people are a unit in an effort to stage a quick comeback, which will make all other ambitious nations think twice before they pull a trigger.

Mrs. Mack Barnard, who has been ill for some time, is improving.

Mrs. Mack Barnard, who has been ill for about two weeks, is reported improving.

If Germany wins the war it will cost the United States half a billion dollars in business, according to economists. After all, it is better to lose huge piles of business than to lose our heads and enter the war.

One of the features electric range owners prize most highly is cleanliness—the utter absence of soot, smoke, fumes and flame. Utensils stay bright and shiny after months of cooking. Walls and curtains remain clean and fresh. The range itself stays sparkling white. And that's only one of the many advantages that electric cooking has over old-fashioned, flame-type cooking. It's faster, cooler, safer, more convenient, more healthful, more accurate and a greater time-saver. Come in today, see the 1940 electric ranges and get the facts about the low cost of electric cooking.

To The Voters of Titus County

Although I did not have an opponent in the primary election, I want to take this method to thank the voters of Titus County in permitting me to make the race unopposed. I did not worry you with cards as I felt like it would be an unnecessary bother to you. I have tried to give good and courteous service and have applied myself to learn the work in the Tax Collectors office and feel that I have rendered you good service with as little cost to the county as possible.

Our record is open for inspection any time and we welcome any friendly advice or criticism. It is my desire to render you the best service that I can in the future. Thanking you for your kindness. I am

Yours respectfully,

Red River Voters Stick to O'Daniel

Red River county voters stormed the polls Saturday, casting 5,978 votes but running up a total of 226 votes less than the 6,304 cast two years ago. The county joined the rest of the state on the O'Daniel bandwagon, giving him 3,332 votes, slightly less than the 4,224 they turned to him in 1938. Thompson was second in the county with 1123 votes and Mrs. Ferguson third with 375. Sadler received 311, Hines 250, Davis 81 and Condron 6.

Coke Stevenson polled 4103 for lieutenant governor with Mead getting 794.

Terry, who received 1818 votes, will be eligible to oppose Guest in the second primary.

Red River Wildcat Abandoned as Dry

Rig was moved to Camp county this week after the White No. 1 Kurth in the Elizabeth Smith survey, 13 miles north of Clarksville, showed dry in the Glen Rose, Travis Peak and Paluxy sands. The well logged high on Georgetown and anhydrite, but sands were shallow and dry. A complete closure for the Paluxy sand was reported determined and there was speculation as to whether it would bring on further testing in the much drilled North Red River county area.

Masons from five adjoining counties were present, numbering about 300.

Those attending from Talco were Dave Berman, L. E. Tipton and J. A. Davis.

Homeless Kittens Adopted by Dog

When a big bow-wow adopts a couple of tiny meow-meows and plays mama and nursemaid to them the result may logically lead to a couple of kitty-dogs.

Forrest and Wayne Grogan of the Rugby community report that some time ago, while they were dragging a road near their home, they came across a couple of hungry, abandoned kittens. They took them home and, not having any mama cat on the place, turned them over to their big female collie, who took them in paw and is proceeding to rear them in the way of all good little dogs. The kittens nurse at the breast of the dog, the dog looks on fondly and all are living happily in the present.

To my friends, who so generously supported me in the July 27th primary, giving me a plurality vote, I am very grateful, and to you who voted for either of the candidates who will not be in the run-off, I earnestly solicit your vote and influence. Without your help, my loyal friends, by your vote it will not be possible for me to be elected county commissioner, precinct 3, on August 24. In exchange for this token of your confidence I promise you an efficient and economical administration. Sincerely,

Organization Soil District is Completed

Organization of the Sulphur-Cypress Soil Conservation District was completed Tuesday at a meeting held in Mt. Pleasant and plans for the development of a district program were made.

Land Use Planning Committees and farmer groups in each of the four counties will be asked to submit a list of the problems that exist in the district. From this information the supervisors will develop a program of work. It is the aim of the supervisors to base the program on information submitted by farmers and farmer groups.

The supervisors set August 9 as the date of the next meeting, at which time the problems and information submitted by the Land Use Planning Committees will be discussed and plans made for the further development of the district program of work.

John Hall, Dr. A. L. Coke and C. D. Solomon were officially sworn into office by Luke Ballard of the State Soil Conservation Board. These men will serve with Raymond Brown and J. E. Pate as supervisors in the Sulphur-Cypress Soil Conservation District which consists of Morris, Camp, Franklin and Titus counties.

To the People of Precinct 3:

I want to take this method of thanking the people of Precinct 3 for their loyal support in the primary and to solicit your vote and influence in the coming election on August 24. I will try to see every one of you before the election. In case I don't see you, I am taking this method of soliciting your vote and influence.

G. R. FRY

Candidate for Justice, Precinct 3

(Political Adv.)

My Dear Friends

For your support that you gave me on July 27th, I assure each and all of you that I am indeed grateful.

As our citizens have cast their ballots, there remains a second primary August 24th. At that time we will again make our decision as to whom we prefer to represent our two counties in the Legislature at Austin. My experience as a farmer, my official acts as Commissioner and my citizenship of Titus County all my life is the only guide I have to offer for your final decision. I believe we will all agree the many problems that will come before the Legislature for a decision by its members will be of such a nature and of such importance that it will require sound, sober and conscientious thinking if our State and its citizens are to secure the benefits and protection that we all know they are justly entitled to.

Again thanking you for your support and soliciting your vote and influence August 24th, I respectfully submit my candidacy for your careful consideration.

Respectfully,

G. C. LUNSFORD

Candidate for Representative

To The People of Titus County

In Saturday's Democratic Primary your confidence in me was sufficient to place me in the run-off for County Judge of Titus County, and I would like to take the opportunity of expressing my sincere appreciation for the excellent vote I received. With five good men in the race it was a real honor to be one of the two selected to enter the second phase of the campaign.

Between now and August 24th I shall make every attempt to see all of the voters again and to thank you personally for what you have done for me. I also wish to solicit your support and influence in the second primary, and I promise you if I am elected I shall do everything possible to make you a good County Judge.

Thank you again.
