BEN F. SMITH WAS IN CITY

SPECIAL INSPECTOR STATE FIRE
INSURANCE COMMISSION.

CONDITIONS FAIR HERE

With Exception of Few Minor Corrections, Haskell is Given a Clean Bill.

Mr. Ben F. Smith, Special Fire Inspector for the State Fire Insurance Commission, was in the city this week, for the purpose of locating and reporting to the Commission at Austin all conditions that can be corrected or removed, which experience has shown to be the most frequent causes of fire. In conversation with a Free Press representative, Mr. Smith stated that he found everything in fair shape here, with the exception of a few corrections, involving the handling of gasoline and the storage of some other inflammable chemicals and acids.

The State Fire Insurance Commission is now, and has been for some time engaged in making a rigid inspection of practically every city and town in the state, and after the inspection of the city or town is completed, is taking up with its city officials the question of eliminating or correcting the hazardous conditions found. Many dangerous fire hazards exist in almost every city or town of the State, and, in many instances, they are due to lack of a proper conception of the latent danger that lurks in such condition.

The Commission believes that, if it can have the enthusiastic support and co-operation of the various cities and towns, manifested by the adoption and enforcement of the proper fire prevention ordinances and the carrying out of the instructions of the Commission, which is making a close investigation of every suspicious fire brought to its attention, that the annual fire waste in the State can be very substantially reduced.

The Commission will be very much gratified if fire waste can be reduced and kept to a point where a general reduction in rates to the insuring public will be justified; however, the Commission must be governed by the scientific fact that whatever the fire waste is, so must be the rate. If the waste is high, the rate must be high; if the waste is low, then the rate can be low. The average loss ratio for all companies reporting to the Commission for the year 1914 was 81.6 per cent; when we add to this the expense of doing business, the agreed average of which is 85 per cent, we readily see that there was an average underwriting loss to the companies doing business in Texas in 1914 of more than 16 per cent. If this kind of showing is repeated for 1915, a raise in rates will be the inevitable result. Therefore, it is to make such a showing as will preclude such a contingency arising (that the Commission is now directing its energies, and to which end the support of all city officials, the insuring public and the citizenship in general is desired.

GRAPHIC ACCOUNT OF RECENT HURRICANE

Frank Baldwin Who Was at Town of La Porte, Writes Details to Father, J. L. Baldwin.

J. L. Baldwin is in receipt of a letter from his son, Frank T. Baldwin of Houston, wherein the latter gives a graphic and lucid account of the recent West Indian Hurricane that swept the Texas coast. Mr. Baldwin and wife had gone to La Porte, and have many harrowing experiences to relate that occurred during the duration of the storm, which lasted fully eighteen hours.

In the letter Mr. Baldwin states it as the general opinion that last week's storm was far more severe than was the 1900 storm, although not nearly so many lives were lost this time. But this time the wind reached a greater velocity and lasted for a longer period than was the case in 1900.

Mr. Baldwin states that all along the coast may be found the carcasses of all descriptions of animals that lost their lives in the hurricane. Also, huge piles of debris are scattered all along that portion of the State.

At Sylvan Beach, near where were Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, fifty-two summer cottages were swept away in one row, and many other buildings of various nature were destroyed in and around La Porte. The damage at Houston alone, states the young Mr. Baldwin, will probably in the aggregate run into the millions. It is his opinion, like all others, that the seawall in this instance was the means of saving Galveston.

Escaped from Epileptic Colony

City Marshal, Alex Edwards, returned Tuesday morning from Abilene, where he conveyed a young man who recently escaped from the epileptic colony at that place. The youth showed up in Haskell Monday and was taken in custody by Mr. Edwards. The young man left here with the understanding that Alex was an evangelist and that he was going to accompany in the capacity of a singer, as friends of Alex relate. This youth is from Kaufman and had been an inmate of the Abilene colony for some time prior to his escape the first of the week.

THE WRIGHT HOTEL PROPERTY IS SOLD

Deal Consummated Later Part of Past Week Wherein Temple Man Acquires Property.

A large real estate transaction was put through last week by T. C. Cahill, when the Wright Hotel property was sold. H. L. Sherrill of Temple, was the purchaser and the consideration was $17,000, we are told. The deal involved both of the houses formerly owned by Mrs. Wright, one block north from the square, and which had for a long time been used as a hotel. The Wright Hotel is a famed hostelry, especially among traveling men, and is known far and near.

In the transfer of this property Mrs. Wright acquires 575 acres of land twelve miles northeast from town, and the difference was paid in cash. We understand that Mrs. Wright and family will continue to make their home in this city, which will be pleasing information to their large host of friends.

C. R. Peters has leased the property from Mr. Sherrill and the hostelry will be continued, as in the past, under the name of the Wright Hotel.

Mr. Cahill states that this is just one of many other realty deals recently made and pending through his office. There is a general activity becoming apparent in Haskell realty circles now, and as we have before predicted, we look for many deals before the first of the coming year.

Copious Rains Visit Haskell

There were light showers to fall in Haskell and vicinity Monday afternoon, and during the night of that day heavy rains fell. The rains came at a time when pretty badly needed and much good will result for the country generally, is the opinion of all.

Sheriff and Marshal Busy Saturday Night

Last Saturday night was a busy time for Sheriff W. C. Allen and City Marshal Edwards. After they had completed their night's labor's however, the jail was not nearly so empty as had been the case for several weeks prior.

The facts in the case are substantially as follows: Within a few miles of town a large crowd had congregated at a place for the purpose of a night of revelry and gambling, and was succeeding right well preceding the arrival of the above named officers. In the raid that ensued the officers captured something like a baker's dozen, and a number escaped. The officers were not strong enough in numbers to hold the entire crowd. However they secured a pretty fair line on some of the escaped ones and have since made several additional arrests.

It is said that the crowd of revelers raided Saturday night was composed of several nationalities, with the black man predominating.

City Council Meeting Last Thursday Night

On last Thursday night the Haskell City Council met in regular monthly session. Mayor T. C. Cahill presided and all the aldermen were present. The regular routine of business was transacted and the meeting proved to be quite an interesting one.

The plan which the city has under contemplation for the extension of the city water mains was taken up and discussed at this session. It is believed the work of extension will soon be started.

Another matter before the council was that of again having the street lights turned on. A committee was appointed from the council to confer with officials of the light plant in regard to the matter. It is hoped by many that the lights will soon be turned on again. Street lights are a great asset to a town, and Haskell has long been without them.

CITY MARSHAL ALEX EDWARDS CAPTURED BOOTLEGGERS SATURDAY

Last Friday night City Marshal Alex Edwards arrested a colored woman in a ripe state of intoxication. The woman was placed in the city bastle. The story does not end there, however. While under arrest the woman imparted some information—you might say tip—that proved of interest to Alex. Acting upon the information of the woman, the marshal Saturday arrested a negro man on the charge of bootlegging. It is alleged that he sold the woman the liquor upon which she accumulated the jag. The man was lodged in the county jail, and will likely be in safe keeping for some time to come.

HUPP SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Each Owner Is Entitled to 50 Hours Free Labor As Insurance Against Expense

Motorists generally displayed unusual interest in the latest announcement just made in the newspapers by the Hupp Motor Car Company of its new nationwide service policy. The interest created among the owners demonstrated that the makers of the Hupmobile had touched the popular chord in announcing this new plan which is considered as an insurance against owners expense bills. At the Mitchell Automobile Company salesroom, local distributor for the Hupmobile, many requests were received for details of the new Hupmobile service system.

The Hupp Motor Car Company is the first manufacturing concern to devise the national service-to-owner plan. This plan is so simple and so complete that its basic principles are almost certain to be insisted upon by all car owners as a standard of what motor car service should be.

"The distinctive feature is a book of 100 coupons which every buyer receives with a 1916 Hupmobile, entitling the owner to 50 hours of free labor sufficient under ordinary circumstances to keep the car in perfect running order," says a statement from the Mitchell Auto Company, local Hupmobile distributor. "These coupons are good for service at any of the Hupmobile service stations in the United States and Canada. This plan provides for regular care, inspection and adjustment of every Hupmobile.

"Every selling season in the automobile industry has had its popular feature and it is freely predicted that the newly announced nationwide Hupmobile service plan will carry off the honors for 1915. Veterans of the industry admit that the new Hupmobile plan is one of the best plans introduced in years. "Hupmobile service stations, designated by white and blue signs, are being established in every town and city in the United States and Canada where automobiles are used. In larger cities special stations have been appointed by the local distributor in the suburbs in order that owners may get attention without the trouble of going to the dealer's own store.

"By this new coupon paying system for service, the Hupp Company has eliminated many of the troubles of the past. For instance, a change in dealers, a change of residence of the owner, an owner on a tour and an over enthusiastic salesman, have all been stumbling blocks in the way of an owner getting service. Under this new Hupmobile plan, however, the service can be rendered at any Hupmobile station and in each case the purchaser of the car knows exactly the amount of service he is entitled to, eliminating argument between owner and dealers.

"This coupon book is guaranteed by a fund created by the Hupp factory and the dealers, each of whom has contributed a certain amount per car to finance the systematic care of every Hupmobile machine." — Star-Telegram.

The efficient officers of Haskell and especially Sheriff Allen and City Marshal Edwards, are to be commended upon their successful efforts to keep down lawlessness. That they are succeeding well is attested by the large number of arrests recently made. It might be added that most of the arrests have been of transient colored people, and most of the offenses have been of a minor nature.

MANY FALL-LIKE PREPARATIONS

APPARENT AT THE GRISSOM STORE

Preparations for the Fall seems to be the watchword at the store of Grissoms. Here a force is busy unpacking and arranging the mammoth stocks purchased during the recent visit of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Grissom, Mrs. McNeill and Mrs. Penix to the markets of Chicago and St. Louis.

Mr. Earnest Grissom informed this writer that they had made very heavy and choice selections of fall merchandise, and will be thoroughly prepared to attend to their patrons' every want this fall.

Upstairs at this store everything is being renovated and arranged for the fall opening of the millinery and ladies' ready-to-wear departments. Mrs. Penix arrived this week, and will, as last year, be in charge of the millinery department at Grissoms.

Here from Fannin County

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Humphries have been here from Ladonia, Fannin County. In company with his brother-in-law, R. N. Fox, Mr. Humphries Saturday paid this office an appreciative call. Mr. Humphries while here did some prospecting, and informed us that in the event he closed a deal for some land which he is negotiating for in Haskell County, that he will likely in the near future become a resident of this section. He reports all crops, excepting cotton, as being fairly good down in his country.

HASKELL, TEXAS, August 28, 1915.

Buy it in Haskell.

In the meantime, what has become of Haskell County's Fair?

Very few cranks remain in Haskell; nearly all autos here are now equipped with self-starters.

The Octoberishness of August weather lately only lends enchantment to West Texas' ever-delightful climate.

Never fear to purchase from the merchants who advertises his wares; the man who advertises always has the goods.

The demand for rent houses in this city is now in excess of the supply. We say, build more houses and bid the people come to Haskell.

The big war headlines for the past week were superseded by storm headlines in big dailies.
Both bad. But the storm appals upon us the more, being nearer several thousand miles.

We would like to here suggest that it is time to begin preparation for the arrangement of an exhibit from Haskell County for the great State Fair at Dallas, and for the Central West Texas Fair at Abilene.

Later storm reports indicate that the extent of damage was, as is the usual case at such times, greatly exaggerated. However,
the storm was very, very serious, and many millions of dollars' worth of property was destroyed. It appears that the first reports to the effect that the mammoth grain elevators at Galveston were destroyed were groundless rumors.
For which all should be thankful, as much grain awaiting shipment was stored in these elevators.

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

F. C. Weinert
On The Warehouse Law

The Warehouse system of Texas which the Farmers' Union has been advocating for years is managed by a board of supervisors composed of the Governor, the Commissioner of Agriculture and the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking. Mr. F. C. Weinert and Mr. Peter Redford have charge of the management. Mr. Weinert is discussing the law said in part:

"The law is the greatest piece of constructive legislation that has been placed upon the statute books of Texas for more than a generation for the reason that it will affect materially and beneficially, when in full operation, every citizen of the State.

The law gives a broad and consummate opportunity for farmers in every community to co-operate in the sale of their products and to aid each other in financing their crops and receiving the real market price in the primary markets, eliminating the large discount that is now suffered by producers in the primary markets, because they have neither a standard of grade nor a chance to market their products except on a peddling basis. There is but one remedy for the producer and that is co-operation in the marketing of his own products.

All gins are charged with a public use and every ginner is required under bond to take from each bale of cotton as it is ginned, three fair, true and correct samples. Each bale must be wrapped so as to completely cover it, leaving none of the cotton exposed, the bagging to be of such fibre and texture that all the markings thereon will, under ordinary conditions, remain intact and visible. Each bale must be given its consecutive number which number must be placed on one side thereof, and immediately under this number must be the B. C., or bonded license number.

Warehouses must, under bond, grade or classify each bale of cotton offered for storage, giving a receipt showing, among other things, the elevation above sea level of the warehouse and that the warehouse company guarantees the weight, class and grade within approximate limits at the time of the issuance of such receipt, and at the elevation of the place where the particular warehouse is located. The receipt must also contain a description of the bale, the rate of storage, and that cotton will be delivered to the bearer, a specified person, or to a specified person or his order, as the party storing may desire.

In addition to the foregoing each receipt must have a blank form on the back thereof to be filled in and signed by the owner showing whether the cotton is free from encumbrances or liens of any kind. If there is a lien of any kind at the time of storage the amount must be clearly set out, and it is made the duty of the warehouseman issuing the receipt to have this blank filled in and signed by the owner before a negotiable receipt can be issued."

Judging by enormous fall stocks recently purchased by Haskell merchants and which are now daily arriving, the business men of the city are not taking much stock in the hard-times plaints to be heard in some quarters. On the other hand, they have demonstrated their faith in their town and county by preparing for one of the busiest fall seasons probably in this section's history.

We acknowledge with pleasure the receipt of an invitation, accompanied by a season pass for two, to the Central West Texas Fair at Abilene, October 12-16. Abilene is doing much toward putting Central West Texas on the map, by reason of the exposition and fair that has become an annual feature at the ever-hustling Taylor County metropolis. Here's hoping this year's fair will be the best and most successful ever.

One thousand dollars returns in business from a half-page ad in the Free Press. Sounds large, doesn't it? Nevertheless, that is just what one of our advertisers recently told us and when a merchant says he gets returns like this, there is no further argument necessary for the efficacy of printer's ink. We yet have on hand a large supply of both ink and white space.

Haskell's city schools open September 11th, for what gives promise of a highly successful term. Haskell's school system is recognized as one of the best in the West, and the coming session bids fair to exceed previous records for efficiency.

After going through your mail-order catalogue and securing a list of what you desire to purchase, let us suggest that you take the order to your local merchant to figure on. Nine chances to one, in that event, the order will never leave Haskell, and you will have rendered your town and county a service by thus keeping the money at home.

Mrs. Perry Writes of Storm

Mrs. Oscar Martin is in receipt of a letter from her sister, Mrs. C. G. Perry, of Galveston. Mrs. Perry stated in the letter that all of her family escaped injury from the storm, but that their home was partially wrecked by the ravages of wind and water. The Perry home at Galveston is situated on Church Street, not far distant from the bay, and has been through several storms. However, the latest storm became so severe that the family went to a up-town hotel for safety. After the storm had subsided Mrs. Perry returned home to find that her house had been unroofed and much water standing on the lower floor. Trees in the yard were uprooted and much other minor damage resulted.

Exchange Chat

It's almost indecent to admit it. We may be lynched for doing it. It's such a raw thing to put in print, anyhow. Durn it, we won't do it.—Corpus Christi Caller.

Come, on; out with it, J. W., and relieve your mind. We admit that our curiosity is somewhat aroused.

Plainview has raised a fund to maintain a chamber of commerce. Organization has been perfected and Plainview plumps squarely on the map of publicity and progress. What helps Plainview helps Texas. Next.—Fort Worth Star Telegram.

Plainview has acted most wisely. Commercial organizations are the making and main-stay of any town or city. We would be pleased to see Haskell follow suit, and be next.

If those Mexicans along the border could be made acquainted with a little of Texas' early history we doubt if they would attempt any more depredations on Texas soil, and we believe that if Gen. Funston will give the boys just a little rope, every bandit in that territory will run when he hears "Alamo" or "Goliad."—West Texas Reporter, Graham.

We say, recruit the ranger force up a few more dozen men, equip them with good guns, and there will be no need for Gen. Funston to issue more rope to the "boys." When it comes to a border Mexican situation, Texas' Ranger laddies are thoroughly capable of coping with the situation, as has in the past been proven.

A few days ago an appeal was made by Mayor Diller that the weeds be cut or otherwise destroyed. This is necessary for the preservation of the public health and the beautification of the town. Some of the weeds and grass are now doing so that they can be burned, a much easier way of disposing of them than cutting.

This has already been done in some cases. With a little work in moments otherwise idled away by some of the masculine members of the family, this worthy task could be accomplished.—Albany News.

How about a public subscription and then hiring a man with a good team and an idle mower? The weed problem as to public streets could soon be solved. We might add that the same plan might be worked out in Haskell to great advantage.

LIV-VER-LAX is a harmless vegetable compound, desinged solely for the treatment of liver complaints. The immediate favor it has met with in thousands of homes is proof positive of its real value.

If You Go to Church You'll Be Rewarded In This World

GO TO CHURCH because it will help you with your employer; it will help you in your business; it will help you in your profession.

The man who GOES TO CHURCH doesn't have to wait for his reward in the next world. He gets it right here. If you are an employee you may rest assured that you will not lose any caste with your employer when he learns that you are a regular attendant at church. If you are engaged in business people will trade with you more readily if you GO TO CHURCH. They rightly figure that a merchant who GOES TO CHURCH regularly is honest. They feel that unless he is a great hypocrite the merchant who GOES TO CHURCH will deal fairly.

The doctor who is a regular attendant at church can be trusted. His patients know that, in addition to his skill as a physician, he is sober, dependable and God fearing. It is plain that a physician who is a regular churchgoer soon earns the confidence of the community. The same rule applies to the lawyer. It applies to all professional men.

IT MUST BE PERFECTLY CLEAR THEN THAT, NO MATTER WHAT YOUR STATION IN LIFE MAY BE, YOU WILL BE A READY WINNER IF YOU GO TO CHURCH. THE MATERIAL BENEFITS OF GOING TO CHURCH MUST BE APPARENT TO EVERY ONE. WHO WILL DENY THE SPIRITUAL BENEFITS? EVERYBODY CAN LAY UP LASTING TREASURES. GET THE GO TO CHURCH HABIT. IT IS THE VERY BEST HABIT THAT YOU CAN ACQUIRE.

GO TO CHURCH yourself!

Induce your friends to GO TO CHURCH!

Passenger Train Derailed

On Monday the Wichita Valley passenger train which is due here at 9 o'clock sharp in the morning, did not arrive until 5:30 that afternoon. The cause for the lateness of the train was that the train, at least a part of it, ran off the track about a mile south of Anson. The track was torn up for a considerable distance, and it was some time before the track could be fixed and the train again started on his way. The evening train on this day, however, came in practically on time, as a train was made up at Wichita Falls and started south on regular schedule time.

Many New Books At the Library

The Haskell Public Library has added to its reading list the following recent books:

"Michael O'Halloran"—By Gene Stratton Porter. The creator of "Freckles" has given us in this book the story of another Irish lad.

"Queed"—By Henry Sydnor Harrison. In every way "Queed" is an unusual novel.

"V's Eves"—By Henry Sydnor Harrison. How the girl, fascinating and clever, a social favorite, yet, above all, worldly, is brought to the realization of life and her truer self by the appealing influence of one of the quaintest of characters, V. Vivian, "slum doctor."

"Sins of the Father"—Thomas Dixon, Jr. By far the most powerful and virile novel Mr. Dixon has written.

"The Master's Violin"—Myrtle Reed. The story of an old German virtuoso's labor in trying to awaken a young man's soul to the real music in his violin and how the awakening finally comes through a beautiful girl.

"Red Pepper Burns"—Grace Richmond. There are few writers who can create so convincingly real, average human beings, and the surroundings and atmosphere of a small town, where many of the finest "old fashioned" qualities of American life still persist.

"Home"—Robert W. Chamberlain. A really great little book.

"Peg O' My Heart"—J. Hartley Manners. A romping, madcap, bewitching Irish girl, as Irish as St. Patrick's Day in the morning, is turned over to the care of some aristocratic English relatives.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

Quite a Disturbance In West Haskell

On last Friday night, rather you would call it Saturday morning, perhaps, as the hour was after 1 o'clock, the stillness of the night was broken by two hilarious young men, who succeeded in making the night hideous and breaking into the rest of denizens of that section of town. It appears that the young men in question, brothers we are informed, had spent the day in Haskell and during the course of their town visit had imbibed rather freely of the liquid that downs many a man at times. Starting out of town late in the night, they stopped on the west side and became engaged in a heated argument finally resulting in their getting together for a few blows. It is said they would fight and fuss for a time and then would make a start to continue their journey, when they would find it necessary to again stop and renew the argument. This program was repeated a few times, and wound up by both being lodged in the county jail by City Marshal Edwards and Sheriff Allen, who appeared on the scene during one of the arguments.

Saturday morning the young men were arraigned in Squire Post's Court, and upon entering pleas of guilty to charges preferred, paid fines and costs amounting to $13.80, after which they went on their way, but in a much quieter way.

Death of Little Lizzie Mae Bruce

After a long lingering illness of some five or six weeks, Little Lizzie Mae Bruce, age 11, passed to her heavenly home Aug. 24. Her remains were laid to rest in the Willow Cemetery in the presence of friends and relatives. Rev. Jones spoke appropriate words which gave comfort in the Lord.

Although her stay on earth was not long her sweet face and bright smiles had won a lasting place in the hearts of parents, brothers, sisters and friends. We mourn not as those who have no hope, but we expect to meet her by and by in a land where it is always day and where no sorrows come. For, we know she is with Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

May the sustaining grace of the Lord Jesus Christ sanctify this affliction to the good of the loved ones, and keep you in your hours of earthly sorrow.

The Peanut Assists Diversification

Recent experiments with the peanut have led to discoveries which tend to show that we have been overlooking one of the best opportunities in agriculture in Texas. According to the Extension Service Bulletin E. S. 3 issued by the A. & M. College of Texas, the peanut produces abundantly in many sections of the state and is cultivated easily and at very little expense. But about the only market so far developed is the peanut-stand man on the street corner, so our acreage has been low.

The School of Domestic Economy at the University of Texas has been experimenting with the peanut as an article of food. It has been found that by devious means of preparation many delightful and nutritive dishes for the table can be made from peanuts. Not only are these dishes pleasing to the taste, but they have a food value more than six times greater than milk.

A book of recipes ranging all the way from peanut biscuits to peanut candy has been prepared by the School of Domestic Economy, which are distributed upon request free of charge. It is hoped that this will result in a greater variety for the table, cheaper food and an increased demand for an agricultural product that will aid materially in carrying out the proposed diversification program.

Baptist Revival is Progressing Nicely

The meeting which began last Sunday in the tabernacle adjoining the Baptist Church, is reported as progressing satisfactorily. Rev. J. R. Nutt of Belton, who was to open the meeting, was delayed by reason of disarranged train schedules, and did not arrive until Monday evening. However, Rev. Wm. Groom saw to it that the meeting was begun on time.

In conversation with a Free Press representative Thursday, Rev. Groom said that the attendance is good, really better than anticipated, and interest fair and increasing with each service. He also stated that the orchestra is furnishing some splendid music for the meeting, as are the Quartette Singers.

Services are being held twice daily, 10 o'clock in the forenoon and at 8 o'clock in the evening. The meeting will likely continue over next week.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advice from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

An Open Letter

Denton, Texas, May 16, 1915
Dear Dr. Crudgington:

Knowing how solicitous you always are about your patients, thought I would write you this evening and let you know how I am. My journey home worried me some, but I am now all right again; still follow all your directions; found father and mother comfortably and pleasantly fixed for house keeping in a real quiet home with a dear friend of our family. We are all so happy to be together once more. Ruby is delighted to be at home again; she worries me but little. All of my relatives and friends are delighted with the improvements in me. They, as well as myself, feel that you have been of untold benefit to me. When I left Denton for Denison, they, as well as myself never expected me to return, for we all realized that without a very, very great change very soon that I would live but a short while. Now I am happy to tell you that I feel that I have a long lease on life. Then I was living on raw eggs and sweet milk, and often felt after eating them I would die from pain. Now, I can eat anything I want and as much as I want; walk eight or nine blocks and spend the day with friends; eat a big dinner of everything; come home, eat all the supper of cabbage, corn bread and buttermilk, go to bed and sleep all night, wake up in the morning and stir around all day just as the rest do. I have eaten a big dinner—have not had a pain today. I feel that I would have been in my grave long ago if it had not been for you. I feel that it was the hand of God that directed you to me. There will never be anything that any of us can do for you but that we will gladly and willingly do it. Now doctor, allow me to express my thanks to you for what you have done to me. I feel that you have done all that could be done by anyone. I have been treated by many doctors, not one has ever done for me what you did. May your life be spared for years to relieve suffering humanity is my prayer, for I know how you have relieved me. Hope you will come to see us when you come to Denton.

Respectfully your friend,
Mrs. Stella Trent.

The Clerk Guaranteed It

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.

Haskell Man's Lucky Find

Will Interest Readers of the Free Press

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains, or any other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Haskell man.

A. S. Bristow, farmer, Haskell says: "Kidney trouble came on me six years ago. At first, I had a sharp catch in my right side and hip and then I began to suffer from an aching in the small of my back. It was hard for me to do any stooping or lifting and the secretions from my kidneys were filled with sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me of these spells and restored my kidneys to a normal condition. The trouble hasn't bothered me to amount to anything since."

Fire Wednesday Night

Fire on Wednesday night, about eleven o'clock, entirely consumed a four-room dwelling on Ballew street. The house was the property of Mr. R. W. Tyson and was occupied by Mr. Hooten. The house together with contents was a total loss. There was no insurance carried on the house. We did not learn whether or not Mr. Hooten had any insurance on his household goods, nor were we able to learn the origin of the blaze. The fire department responded to the alarm, but the house was so nearly gone that their chief efforts were devoted to saving adjacent property.

MUCH ACTIVITY AT HANCOCK'S PREPARATORY TO FALL OPENING

This writer paid a visit to the firm of Hancock & Company on Wednesday of this week. Here we found much activity preparatory to the fall opening. The heavy stocks purchased by M. H. Hancock during his recent visit to the Northern and Eastern markets was being opened up and arranged.

TELLS OF MEETINGS OF STATE-NATIONAL R. L. C. A.

Geo. D. Foster last Thursday returned after having attended the State meeting of the Rural Letter Carriers' Association, at Bryan. At Bryan Mr. Foster was elected president of the State organization by acclamation, the election being unanimous. At the State meeting there were 150 delegates in attendance. There were 150 delegates at the Bryan meeting, and the association met with the County Judges and Road Commissioners of the State. Two days and nights were spent at the Bryan convention by Mr. Foster.

Leaving Bryan, Mr. Foster then journeyed to Detroit, Mich., where he went as a delegate to the National Convention of the Rural Letter Carriers' Association. He has many interesting things to relate in connection with the Detroit trip.

Mr. Foster states that he stopped off at Chicago en route to Detroit, and he viewed the ill-fated pleasure boat, Eastland, which was overturned on its side when he saw it and many bodies yet remained in the hold of the craft.

At Detroit the association was in convention four days and nights, and Mr. Foster reports the proceedings as quite interesting. The delegates to the National Convention were welcomed by the mayor of the city of Detroit, and were addressed by many men of prominence, including Congressmen and Senators.

While in Detroit the letter carriers went in a body for an inspection of the Ford plant. This proved a feature of great interest to the delegate. Mr. Foster relates that he saw Ford cars turned out at the rate of one completed car every thirty-six seconds. At the Ford factory there are four thousand employees, and a hospital with a full corps of physicians, surgeons and nurses is maintained for the factory employees. At the factory also are maintained eight fire companies, composed of employees, and the various fire companies have over sixty miles of fire hose. Evidently, this would make a very formidable fire fighting aggregation.

The new Ford factory, six miles from the main factory, was also visited. Here Henry Ford proposes to build a tractor for general farm use, that will prepare the ground, plant the seed, cultivate the plant, harvest and market. These tractors, it is understood, will be sold on a guarantee, at $200. At this plant, Mr. Foster tells us, the labor will be chiefly performed by reformed dope fiends that have been cured by a specialist employed by Ford. Next was visited the site of the new palatial Ford home, to be located near the factory. This residence will cost, when completed upward of two and a half million dollars. Mr. Foster states that the delegates were accorded highly courteous treatment from all of the Ford employes.

After the visit to the Ford factories, the letter carriers participated in a highly enjoyable trip by steamboat across Lake Erie. Thence from Lake Erie to Buffalo, N. Y., and thence up the historic Erie Canal to Tonawanda, N. Y., and from there to Niagara Falls. Nine hours time was spent at the Falls, and the carriers made the loop trip of thirty one miles down the Niagra River, on the Canadian side, and back on the American side. A stop was made at the Whirlpool Rapids, and the chasm of the river gorge was followed, as near water level as was practicable. The return trip was made to Detroit aboard the steamer Detroit, with 3600 passengers aboard.

All of Sunday by the delegates was spent at Belle Isle, Detroit. This is a municipal affair, containing nearly 800 acres of the prettiest as well as most instructive park, in the United States. The park has an aquarium which contains almost every species of small aquatic animals, from the sea horse down to the common snail. There is also a horticultural building on the isle, containing almost every kind of plant known in the whole civilized and uncivilized world, from the extreme tropics through to the polar regions, all labeled for inspection. This building is constructed of all steel, stone and glass, the latter predominating in the construction, and the structure covers many acres of ground.

On the return trip, Mr. Foster spent one day at Chicago, At this time he visited the firm of Sears-Roebuck Company, it requiring some five hours to complete the tour of inspection, from main entrance to surrounding grounds. From this great establishment, Mr. Foster went to one of the two mammoth department stores of Marshall, Fields & Company. This building covers an entire block and is twenty stories high, being occupied solely by the firm. A block from this building this firm has another store building, covering a block, and fourteen stories in height, also used exclusively by the firm.

Mr. Foster also paid a visit to the Masonic Temple at Chicago, which is twenty stories high, with an observatory several stories higher. On the return trip a stop of several hours was made in St. Louis, and then home via Fort Worth and Abilene.

Mr. Foster says this was a highly interesting and enjoyable trip for him, but states that after being away so long that Haskell looked mighty good on his return.

Constipation Cured Overnight

A small dose of Po-Do-Lax tonight and you enjoy a full, free, easy bowel movement in the morning. No griping, for Po-Do-Lax is Podophyllin (May Apple) without the gripe. Po-Do-Lax corrects the cause of Constipation by arousing the Liver, increasing the flow of bile. Bile is Nature's antiseptic in the bowels. With proper amount of bile, digestion is perfect. No gas, no fermentation, no Constipation. Don't be sick, nervous, irritable. Get a bottle of Po-Do-Lax from your Druggist now and cure your Constipation overnight.

Ugh! Calomel Makes You Deathly Sick

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels. Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go right back and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate so let them eat anything afterwards.

Paint?

There are two good reasons for painting often-enough or even too-often. One, to look prosperous; two, to be so. Nothing does one more credit or gives one more credit than paint, supplemented of course by what goes with it; and paint costs nothing. True, the first cost is $5 or $6 a gallon put-on; but it saves more than that in the property; saves it from slow going down—not always slow—it drops with a jump when water gets in on wood and iron. Dry wood and iron cost nothing, kept dry by paint. Better paint when it needs it. Paint never goes down in the sense of being more profitable next year.
