Rebels Take 47-0 Conference Win

The Rivercrest Rebels piled up the highest score in four years Friday night when they defeated the Ore City Rebels 47-0. It was the second win for the Rebels in District 20A conference play.

Not only did the Rebels pile up point after point, but they piled up yard after yard, totaling 503 yards gained rushing compared to 124 for the Ore City Rebels. Almost everyone had a touchdown or two, including Billy Scales, Jimmy Via, Kip Stansell and Steve Alford.

So unmatched were the two teams that the Rebel backup, with Dale Jean quarterbacking, played the entire last quarter, and scored the final touchdown for Rivercrest.

Scoring first for the Rebels was Billy Scales, who broke loose through the center for a 25 yard touchdown. Jimmy Via kicked the extra point.

After a 21 yard run by quarterback Kip Stansell, Via carried in from the one yard line. Via powered in again from the Ore City six yard line for the third score of the first quarter, and then Eddie Belcher ran for two points after.

Via scored again from the 11 yard line in the second quarter, then kicked the extra point.

It was during the second quarter that Ore City made two of their three first downs, and worked to the Rivercrest 26 yard line before giving the ball up on downs. A fumble by Eddie Belcher was recovered by Ore City, but the ball came back to the Rebels four plays later when Scales intercepted a pass thrown by Ore City quarterback Dave Pyland. Pyland was almost sacked by Edward Deaton and Steve Alford before he released the ball to Scales.

Rivercrest kicked off to Ore City after the half, and the OC Rebels managed a 22 yard kickoff return to the Rivercrest 37 yard line. The drive died on the Rivercrest 10 yard line, which gave Scales just enough room to break loose for a 90 yard run and another touchdown.

Again Ore City was unable to move the ball after the kickoff, and Rivercrest took possession after a punt on the 49 yard line. Three plays later Stansell sprinted for a 40 yard touchdown run. Via kicked the extra point.

From that point on it was time for the Rivercrest Rebels of 1979 to go to work, and they scored on their third play from scrimmage, with Alford sweeping the right end on a 35 yard touchdown run.

Rivercrest held Ore City

after the kickoff, then Jean moved the Rebels all the way to the Ore City 16 yard line before the ball went over on downs with 1:41 left in the game.

Rivercrest had three players with more than 100 yards and one with almost 200 yards rushing: Via with 113, Stansell with 102, and Scales with 193. Also putting yards in the statistics were Charles Davis with 17 yards, Alford with 40 yards, Jean with 23 and Eddie Belcher with 15.

Benefits Paid To Titus County

Social security benefits were being paid to residents of Titus County at the rate of $776,628 a month at the start of 1978, the social security manager in Paris said earlier this week.

Social security benefits can be paid to retired persons age 62 and over, to workers who become severely disabled before age 65, and to survivors of deceased workers.

Monthly social security checks are also paid to certain dependents of a worker who has retired, become disabled or died.

Of the 4,259 social security beneficiaries in Titus County, 2,170 are retired workers and 317 are disabled workers. Another 611 persons are receiving benefits as the wives or husbands of retired or disabled workers. Widows, widowers and dependent parents of deceased workers number 651.

In Titus County, 1,370 people under age 65 and 2,899 people age 65 and older are receiving monthly social security benefits. Of total beneficiaries, 1,612 are men, 2,137 are women and 510 are children.

Election Set

Lamar, Red River and Titus County voters will go to the polls Tuesday in the general election to vote on nine amendments and several state and national races.

Of equal importance to the voters is the contest between Bob Krueger, Democrat; and incumbent Republican John Tower for the U.S. Senate. Krueger campaigned this week in the area.

Texas attorney John Hill is being challenged by Republican Bill Clements for the governor's chair. Also in the race are Maria C. Combean with the Razda Unida party and Sarah Jean Jahes with the socialist party.

Locally, Brady Fisher, who won the democratic nomination for Lamar County Judge against Lester Crutchfield, is being challenged again by Crutchfield in the general election as a write-in candidate.

Krueger Makes Campaign Tour In Helicopter

Democrat Bob Krueger, frontrunner in the U.S. Senate race according to the latest poll, reemphasized today his support for a constitutional amendment requiring the federal government to balance its budget. Krueger also thanked the National Associated Businessmen for naming him a "Watchdog of the Treasury." He visited East Texas today by helicopter, stopping in Mount Vernon, Paris and Clarksville.

Krueger said the nation faces "financial chaos" if federal spending is not brought under control and cited his cosponsorship of House Joint Resolution 130, calling for a mandatory balanced budget, as the most feasible way to attain economic stability. Krueger, whose candidacy has been endorsed by 51 Texas State legislators among others, has also earned the praise of many businessmen and economists throughout Texas. His recent Watchdog commendation from the NAB cited his leadership in helping to cut government spending.

"I think it is interesting that almost half of the 26 Texas congressmen qualified as Watchdogs of the Treasury by voting to cut government waste at least 66 percent of the time, and John Tower, who is spending millions telling the people of our state that he is for cutting the size of government, is not among those Texans," Krueger said.

According to NAB, Krueger voted to cut spending 85.7 percent of the time, while John Tower voted to cut spending only 60 percent of the time.

Krueger, whose candidacy has surged from 30 points behind John Tower at the beginning of the campaign to a convincing four-point lead over the incumbent Republican senator, according to an independent poll conducted by Texas Monthly magazine, also restated his support of Texas' Right to Work laws.

"I have always supported Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act because of the positive impact it has had on our state," Krueger said. "And I will continue to support it—Right to Work must stand."

The New Braunfels congressman also took his opponent John Tower, to task for his voting record because of his votes to aid New York City, his vote for price controls on beef products, his opposition to farm price supports, and his opposition to a bill intended to make the Social Security System solvent.

"John Tower has by no means represented all the people of this state, only a select few," Krueger said. "He does not represent the people of Texas when he votes to give our money to bail out New York City; he does not represent our elderly when he opposes the solvency of the financial system on which nearly 50 percent of them depend; and he does not represent our farmers when he votes to impose price controls on their beef products while opposing price supports for their farm products.

Krueger noted his support for a strong national defense and pointed out that while John Tower has been ranking minority member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, 11 military bases have closed in Texas alone.

Halloween Carnival Is Successful

Goblins were out on Saturday night at Talco Elementary School to bring success to the annual Halloween Carnival Fund Drive and a record breaking gross income totaling $3,974.70. The proceeds, less expenses, will provide a copy machine for the school.

The festivities began with a bodacious barbecue supper with other foods prepared by the PTO ladies.

In the coronation ceremony, Kirsti Stansell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Stansell and Coy Godfrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Godfrey were crowned Queen and King of the Elementary classes. Junior high King and Queen were Kelly Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Holmes and Kevin Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn.

In the Spook Walk, best dressed girl spook was Mandy Stansell and the best dressed boy spook was Jeff Horton. Darlene Brooks was the winner of the ham.

In appreciation for the cooperation of these ladies who worked so hard in the cafeteria, a special recognition should be given. They were Shirley Walker, Cecelia Smith, Sue Wilkins, Barbara Brown, Myrna Horton and serving the drinks were Kim Smith and Sherry Baker. Also, a thank you is expressed to the principal and teachers who helped and to the PTO members who came dressed in costumes making the carnival more interesting than ever.

Consumers And Cattlemen Will Suffer

Both consumers and cattlemen will suffer if President Carter does not sign into law the recently passed amendments to the Meat Import Act, the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association said earlier this week.

John B. Armstrong,

TRICK OR Treaters were out in full force Halloween night, and found a strange ghost or two in town also. The lady with the odd clothes is unidentified, but her friends are Jeanna Borders, in the hat, Christy Jeffus, and Damion Driggers with his puppy, who also went Trick or Treating. (Staff Photo) president of the 14,000 member beef producer group, has urged the President to sign the legislation. Armstrong said that failure to do so would thwart the will of Congress and stifle the cattle industry's rebuilding of the basic herd, after four years of liquidation as a result of adverse economics.

"Cattlemen have been supporters of efforts to curb inflation," Armstrong said. "We are urging the President to sign this bill, which actually is anti-inflationary."

In support of his position, Armstrong referred to Library of Congress studies which show the import legislation would provide stability benefiting both the public and the cattle industry. The amendments would help assure more dependable supplies of quality beef at reasonable prices for U.S. consumers.

The new legislation includes a counter-cyclical import quota formula, under which imports will increase when domestic beef output declines cyclically, and will decrease when U.S. beef production becomes excessive. The legislation also defines more precisely the circumstances under which the President may increase meat imports beyond quota levels.

"We are already dependent on other countries for our oil supplies," Armstrong said. "The last thing we want to do is become dependent on foreign meat as well. Failure to make this new bill law eventually can have that effect."

The bill was passed by substantial majorities in both houses of Congress in mid-October. Cattlemen are concerned that critics are making last-ditch efforts to head off the legislation by putting pressure on the President to exercise his veto.

The critics claim the legislation will reduce imports and raise prices to consumers. But cattlemen, backed up by independent studies, say the exact opposite is true.

"Over the 10-year cattle cycle, total imports would not be reduced," Armstrong said. "In fact, during the next few years, when domestic beef output will be decreasing cyclically, imports will increase—helping to moderate prices to consumers."

"Later, as part of the cycle in an agricultural business like ours, U.S. beef production will likely become burdensome again. At that time, imports will be decreased. The supply and price stability which will result from HR 11545 will benefit consumers as well as cattlemen."

Armstrong pointed out that the elected representatives of the people in Congress have shown they want to put a stop to excessive foreign dependence. "Now it's up to the President to show his support for the cattlemen and consumers of the nation by signing this important legislation into law," Armstrong said. "We are asking our Texas senators and congressmen to personally contact the President and urge him to take this action immediately."

By Margie Rice

"The Apple Man is here!" sent us scurrying to a neighbor's last week with baskets for the freshly picked apples that a family friend brings each year from Colorado. If you've noticed, an apple man has also delivered beautiful, new apples to our local grocers.

Apples are at their peak in flavor, texture, and vitamin content right now. Prices are probably as attractive as they are going to be this season. Watch for sales. Choose varieties that suit your needs. Firm, bright, blemish-free apples will store successfully in the refrigerator for several weeks. I wash the apples, wipe dry with a soft cloth, seal in perforated food quality plastic bags and store in the refrigerator.

Poached Apple Slices

Peel apples, quarter them, remove cores and slice ¼" thick. Barely cover in saucepan with water. Add a teaspoon or so of sugar and 3 or 4 gratings of nutmeg, or ¼ tsp. cinnamon, to each 2 apples. Poach or simmer just until the slices are tender. Serve warm in pudding dishes.

A real "Oh Boy" dessert that is worth a little more time and effort at least once at this time of the year is Fresh Apple Pie with Lattice Top.

Fresh Apple Pie with Lattice Top

For 9" pie:
6 to 7 cups sliced apples
¾ cup sugar
1 tsp. nutmeg or cinnamon
2 Tbsp. butter
Pastry:
3 cups sifted flour
1 cup shortening, chilled
1 ½ tsp. salt
Approx. 6 Tbsp. cold water
Make pastry. Mix flour and salt. Cut 1 cup shortening in with pastry blender. Sprinkle with cold water. Mix with fork or rubber spatula until all the flour is moistened and the dough can be pressed lightly into two balls. Roll out one-third of the pastry and line 9" pie pan leaving 1" overhang.

Roll out remaining pastry and cut into ¾" strips. Heat oven to 425 degrees. Peel apples, quarter, remove cores, and slice into ¼" slices. Sprinkle with water if the apples are dry. Mix sugar, cinnamon or nutmeg, and cornstarch. Mix lightly with the apples. Heap the apply mixture into pastry lined pan. Dot with butter.

Lay half of pastry strips across pie ½" apart. Cross these strips with remaining strips. Or, weave the cross strips under and over the first strips, keeping ½" apart. Folding every other of the first strips back initially makes the weaving easier.

Dampen the top side of the bottom crust over pastry strips. Press firmly around the edge to seal. Flute the edge.

Place in middle of hot, 450 degree oven. Bake 50 to 60 minutes. A pizza pan or cookie sheet placed on rack underneath the pie can ease clean-up in the event that the pie juices bubble over.

Pine Seedlings Are Sold Out

All southern pine seedlings for the 1978-79 planting season have been sold, according to the Indian Mound Nursery superintendent in Alto.

Hot and dry conditions this summer reduced production by about 10 percent at the Texas Forest Service nursery. By mid-October, small, non-industrial landowners have purchased more than 9 million seedlings for planting this winter. The balance of 17 million trees have been purchased by large planters, city and county governments, chambers of commerce, and other forestry-interest groups.

Most windbreak trees also have been sold. A limited quantity of catalpa, mulberry, green ash, and

A salesman sauntered into a hotel with a woman of questionable morals — as were his — and stepped up to the desk to sign in. "Do you need some help with your baggage?" asked the desk clerk.

"Not really," replied the man, "I think she can make it on her own."

Microwave Radio

It helps us give you a better bottom line on your phone bill.

Microwave radio systems are costly for a telephone company to buy and install. In certain areas, however, they help Continental do a better job for less money. And these savings are reflected in the rates you pay for telephone service.

These systems can transmit hundreds of phone conversations at the same time, relaying them instantly from one telephone exchange to another.

Special equipment scrambles your words into radio signals for the transmission, then re-scrambles the signals into words at the receiving exchange.

Conversations between the exchanges and your telephone set are carried by conventional lines, of course, and have the clarity of conversations carried all the way by wire.

By using microwave systems, we can provide good phone service to customers in remote rural areas where it would be much too expensive to install many miles of lines and poles.

Service rates throughout our system are based on our costs of doing business throughout our system. Microwave radio is one of the ways we're doing our best to do more for you.

Taxes On Mixed Drinks Earn $16.7 Million

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Monday said gross receipts taxes on mixed drinks earned the state $16.7 million in revenue during the third quarter of the year.

Bullock said the July-September tax take equals the $16.7 million collected in the second quarter.

His office is mailing checks totaling $4.8 million to 345 Texas cities and 205 counties as their share of the tax.

The balance, Bullock said, $11.8 million has been deposited in the State General Revenue Fund.

The tax, which is collected by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission, represents 10 percent of all gross receipts from the sale of mixed drinks.

The tax is rebated quarterly to the cities and counties by the Comptroller's Office.

Texas counties and cities get 15 percent of the mixed drink tax collected within their boundaries and the balance goes into the state General Fund.

In Lamar County, Paris' total city tax revenue totaled $8,110.77, with the 15 percent remittance being $1,216.62, while Reno's remittance was $193.22.

GOING STRONG

Chemist Has Good Formula For Successful Retirement

For 84 year old F. Grant Schlecker of Green Valley, Arizona, retirement means staying active in a variety of rewarding, often demanding ways.

Schlecker has a long list of interests, most of them stemming from his career as a chemical engineer.

Since his retirement in 1965, Schlecker has been very active in organizations such as the American Institute of Chemists and the New York Society of Paint Technicians, of which he is president.

"I started working at the W. D. Wilson Printing Ink Company in 1919 as plant superintendent," Schlecker told a writer from the National Council on the Aging. "In 1941, I was made president of the company."

Schlecker's desire to be a chemist may have been inspired by his father and grandfather who were both chemists.

"My father had only one job in his life," Schlecker said. "That job was chemist and superintendent at W. D.

Wilson Printing Ink Company. In 1948 my grandfather was the only listed chemist in the east."

During his career, Schlecker was honored many times. In 1950 he was listed in Who's Who in Science; in 1952, he received the Keimle Science Award and the PaVac Award.

Being active in a number of professional and technical societies has led to numerous leadership roles for Grant Schlecker. But Schlecker's interests go beyond those related to his professional work. He gives a great deal of his time and energy to community and civic affairs.

"I enjoy being with people and lending a hand where it's needed," Schlecker said. "My life would be rather meaningless if I wasn't able to help others."

This need to help others has involved Schlecker in the Rotary, Chamber of Commerce, Boy Scouts, Masons and Shriners. For over 60 years, he and several other alumni have given consistent support to their old elementary school in the form of services, money and constructive ideas.

With a hint of satisfaction in his voice, Schlecker said, "If this is what retirement is all about, I should have stopped working years before I actually did."

THE NEW YORK City Department for the Aging, the New York Telephone Company, and Manufacturers Hanover Trust are pooling resources in a special outreach effort to deliver information and counseling to elderly residents of the Bronx.

Using the telephone company's mobile unit, the Department for the Aging is reaching seniors who might not ordinarily seek out or have ready access to services.

During September, efforts were concentrated in the Bronx, where 10 target sites were selected. The Department plans to do the same in other boroughs with the cooperation of the Telephone Company.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN--Texas voters will be faced with many important decisions November 7. Not only will voters elect a new governor and other state and local officials, but they will have to decide whether or not to amend the 102 year old Texas Constitution. Several proposed constitutional amendments will appear on the November ballot.

One of the amendments, Amendment No. 7, seeks to abolish the State Building Commission and the State Building Fund. The Building Commission and the State Building Fund were created in 1954 as a result of a need for more state office space. The Building Commission is composed of the governor, the attorney general and the chairman of the State Board of Control.

Until recent years the Building Commission had both constitutional and statutory powers and duties. A statute passed by the 65th Legislature in 1977 transferred the Building Commission's statutory powers and duties to the State Board of Control on September 1, 1977.

The Building Commission's constitutional powers and duties related to the construction of specific building and monuments described in the 1954 constitutional provision that created the commission. Construction of those buildings and monuments has been completed, thereby fulfilling the commission's constitutional duties.

If the amendment is adopted, the same statute that transferred the Commission's constitutional powers and duties to the Board of Control will transfer the assets of the State Building Fund to the state treasury.

After the transfer, the assets may be used as directed by the legislature to purchase real property in the capitol complex area or to plan, construct, or furnish buildings in the capitol complex area.

Those who favor the amendment feel that the responsibility for remodeling or constructing state buildings should be established by statute, not by the constitution for it is easier to amend a statute to conform with changing circumstances. It is also felt that since the Board of Control performs the functions previously performed by the Building Commission and spends the money appropriated by the legislature from the State Building Fund, the Building Commission serves no useful function and should be abolished.

THOUGHT FOR FOOD

By GOULD CROCK

Energy Saving
This is for users of charcoal grills and microwave ovens, and there are many of us today. You might welcome a few simple energy-saving ideas to put to use the next time you fire up the grill — then later put your microwave oven to good use.

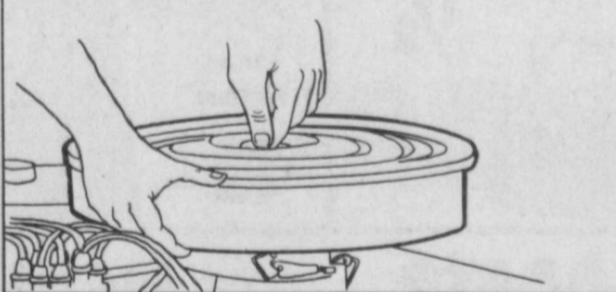

Cook everything you can, once you've built a fire in the grill. Grill as many hamburgers as you have room for; cool the leftovers, stack them between pieces of wax paper and freeze in a plastic bag. Later take out as many as you want and reheat in microwave oven, which gives you instant grilled hamburgers complete with flavor. This can be done in your regular oven as well — just wrap in foil and heat slowly.

Often your coals are still good after a single cooking, why not toss on a couple fryers and cook until done — then freeze and reheat in the same manner. It's a convenient way to have barbecued chicken in a hurry. You'll be able to enjoy outdoor cooking and save yourself a lot of work too.

Easy Measuring
Butter, margarine and lard in quarter pound sticks are easy to measure. One stick-one-quarter pound — equals one-half cup or eight tablespoons.

Auto Service Tips

Some car owners always believe the carburetor is at fault any time there is indication of poor engine performance. Surveys indicate 80 per cent of the time the fault lies with other problems — a plugged PCV system, leaky manifold or bad valve. Check all problem sources before dismantling carburetor.

Today's Youth

BY PATRICK DUDGEON

Be Careful

Many young Americans ingest legitimate drugs like tranquilizers after seeing a doctor. However, some popular drugs don't mix well with certain foods. Beginning next year, drug manufacturers will be required to list any known adverse reactions drugs and food may produce.

Individual differences — sex, age, for example — often mean a great deal in determining if a dangerous drug-food combination is on the horizon.

Here's one thing you should never do: wash down a tetracycline capsule with a glass of milk. Why not? The calcium in milk, cheese and yogurt impairs the absorption of that antibiotic.

One thing women should do: if you're taking birth control pills, eat leafy, green vegetables to ensure you are maintaining a well-balanced diet.

Don't take drugs with acid fruit or soda pop or vegetable juices. Those drinks can cause excess acidity that could dissolve the drugs too fast.

Alcoholic beverages are "bad-mixers" with many drugs — especially anticoagulants, antibiotics, anti-diabetic drugs, antihistamines, high blood pressure drugs and sedatives.

Attend the Church of your choice this Sunday.

Q: I bought a washing machine which stopped working within a week. The appliance company won't give me a refund, and the monthly payments are being collected by a finance company, which bought the installment credit contract from the appliance store, says it still expects me to pay. If I stop paying the finance company, can they sue me?

A: Your defense against a suit of this type depends on the date of purchase. If the sale was made after May 14, 1976 a new federal regulation allows the consumer to present a legal defense if suit for non-payment is brought by a finance company to collect on an installment credit contract purchased from a retail store. The consumer can defend against the suit by showing the product was defective. Purchases made prior to May 14th are not covered by this regulation.

Q: If I am involved in an auto accident, can I drive my car to the curb to move out of the traffic?

A: Yes, state law allows you to move a vehicle involved in an accident if moving the vehicle will relieve traffic congestion and reduce the possibility of another accident. The law also requires you to remain at the scene of the accident, if there were no injuries, until a law enforcement officer arrives. If the accident resulted in injuries, the law allows the injured person to seek medical attention... anyone involved in the accident and not injured

Q: Do I have to use my turn signal when changing lanes? If so, how far in advance must I give the signal?

A: Texas law requires a driver to signal each time directions are changed. The signal must be given at least one hundred feet prior to the turn or lane change. Even though you give a signal, you are still required to make the turn or maneuver safely without interference to other traffic. In rural areas or on expressways, the signal should be given for a longer period of time to give adequate warning to other drivers.

Q: Six years ago I was arrested on a misdemeanor charge of shoplifting. I paid a court fine and I was sentenced to a six month probation. Is there any way I can be bonded?

A: Yes, it is the policy of most bonding companies to bond someone who has been convicted of a misdemeanor. However, they will not bond one convicted of a felony.

Q: Also, I was advised that when applying for a job I should say that the case was dismissed. Would this be proper?

A: No, it would not. When applying for a job, all information you give to the employer should be correct. Any statements you make that are false are automatic grounds for dismissal.

Mount Vernon Girl Raped And Stabbed

Neva Gay Long, 18, a Mt. Vernon High School Senior, was jerked from the door of her home at about 6:25 p.m. Tuesday, forced into a car and taken to a lonely county road where she was raped and stabbed, according to Franklin County Sheriff Don Qualls.

Ken Guthrie, a friend, who had a date with Neva, went to her home about 7:30 p.m. and discovered she was not there and notified officers. Neva had left her job at Mt. Vernon Service Parts at about 6:10 p.m.

The victim was taken to a spot along the county line road, between Highway 67 and Interstate 30, west of Mt. Vernon where he took her out of the car behind a barn, removed her clothes and raped her and then stabbed her in the chest and back, according to Qualls.

Qualls said the victim told him that she was able to drag herself to the side of the county road where she was found by Monty Godfrey who was driving a vehicle on a hayride for small children. Godfrey said he saw her legs sticking out from the side of the road and stopped to investigate, thinking it was some kind of Halloween trick. After he discovered it was a body, he transferred all of the children to the pickup and he and his wife loaded the body onto the hay on the trailer. His wife remained with the victim while he drove to Franklin County Hospital. At about 11:00 p.m. she was transferred to Titus County Hospital, where her condition was described as stable but critical Wednesday morning.

Qualls and Highway Patrolman Steve Blake were called to Franklin County Hospital about 8:30 p.m. where they were able to interview her later. She was able to give the officers most of the information they have.

Neva was alone at the home of her deceased grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adams, on Highway 67 west, when she was abducted.

The victim told officers her abductor was a black man and he drove a 1974 or 1975 blue Grand Prix.

Qualls says he feels the suspect is a resident of Franklin County and well acquainted with the area. One suspect was picked up and questioned Wednesday morning, but was released after furnishing a good alibi regarding where he was at the time.

Qualls said Neva's mother, Mary Jo Long, had reported receiving three obscene phone calls at the Adam's home, to his office on October 5. This matter was under investigation at the time of the most recent incident.

Mt. Vernon High School Principal Mike Harper told the Optic-Herald that Neva is a solid student, well-liked by the student body and very active in the Future Homemakers of America organization. He said the student body seemed to be in shock and the feelings expressed indicated they wanted the suspect caught and prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Qualls requested assistance from the Texas Rangers in the investigation on Wednesday morning. He said all local law enforcement officers including the D.P.S. are cooperating in their efforts to apprehend the person responsible.

A JOHNTOWN MAN, James Franklin Smith, 35, has been transferred to the Parkland Burn Center in Dallas with third degree burns on his hands, arms and head and lacerations of the head, following an accident Tuesday night, Oct. 31, in which the gasoline transport truck ne was driving on Interstate 30 south of Mount Vernon overturned and exploded. According to reports, a right front trailer tire caught fire and the truck left the highway and overturned. There were no other vehicles or other persons reported to be involved in the accident. (Staff Photo)

New Permit
Will Lighten
Paperwork

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday said a new Texas permit application form will lighten paperwork for many taxpayers and should lead to even greater efficiency in the Comptroller's Office.

The re-designed tax permit application replaces three separate forms required of persons or firms before collecting and paying sales taxes, use taxes, or cigarette, cigar and tobacco taxes.

"The simplified form will provide agreeable relief to many taxpayers who are suffering from overdoses of governmental paperwork," Bullock said.

The form was authorized for departmental use this month and an estimated 52,000 persons seeking tax permits are expected to use it during the next 12 months.

Most newspapers pick Hill over Clements

"John Hill may be the best candidate for governor in decades. Judging from his record, he should win easily over his Republican opponent, whose chief qualification is money. Unlike his opponent, Hill is not given to outrageous promises, intemperate personal attack or underhanded tactics. He will work hard for the best interests of the state and its people."

— Austin American Statesman

"The more Mr. Clements has explained his blunt viewpoints — even those views we could agree with — the more he has raised doubt as to how effective a bulldozer could be in Texas government. Conversely, John Hill has grown in our evaluation as a man who not only is the best state attorney general in recent history, but also is a man with the intelligence, savvy and ability to serve Texas well as governor."

— Abilene Reporter-News

"We believe Hill will bring vitality and leadership to state government. Hill is not an advocate of big government. Nor is he a free spender. He has pledged that no new taxes will be levied if he is elected. His anti-inflation program is the kind of fiscal conservatism Texans can accept gleefully."

— Corpus Christi Caller

Juniors And Seniors Take Separate Tests

Rivercrest seniors took part in a testing program on Wednesday, Oct. 18, provided by the Department of Defense called the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery. The tests were administered at the high school by representatives from the Armed Services with the help of Bonnie Huddleston, high school counselor and guidance director.

The Department of Defense has developed and offers this service to interested schools both as a means of sharing extensive service experience on aptitude testing and occupational information. It can also serve as a means of stimulating student interest in exploring their own aptitudes for occupations.

Experience indicates that the results of this testing can be a valuable tool which can be used in counseling both career-oriented and college-bound high school students. Students can be informed as to their qualifications and options available in the event they choose the military service as a career.

Nineteen juniors from Rivercrest were given the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude and National Merit System Tests on Tuesday, Oct. 24, at the high school by Mrs. Huddleston. This test was sponsored by the College Entrance Examination Board and National Merit Scholarship Corporation for the purpose of helping schools obtain information helpful to students in planning their education beyond high school and furnishing students the opportunity to enter scholarship competition. Those taking the test were: Britt Morgan, Brian Roberts, Mary Fortner, Jeannie Edge, Jimmy Via, Robyn Reeder, Marie Whitney, Staci Brooks, Caryn Wilson, Anita Holt, Vicki Parker, Keith House, Joe Vickers, Marjorie Thompson, Dale Jean, Sherry Baker, Carolyn Reigert, Vickie Lee, and Sharon Embrey.

Who Needs Friends? Two old acquaintances met each other at random on a downtown sidewalk. "Oh, Julie," cried Karen, "I haven't seen you in ten years! You really look great. What have you done to your hair? It almost looks like a wig."

"I'll be honest," said Julie. "It's a wig."

"Really," chortled Karen, "you certainly can't tell."

Texas Gets

Nutrition

Education

Texas has received nearly $1.5 million in nutrition education and training funds for fiscal year 1978, Department of Agriculture Regional Administrator W.F. Warren said today in Dallas. The department had $26.2 million available for states' use.

Warren said Texas' grant of $1.499 million was the third largest, after California and New York, of the 47 states participating in the program.

The states' grants include advance funds which were made available to enable them to begin operating the program this summer. Advance funds were used to hire state coordinators and to assess each state's nutrition education and training needs.

After making these assessments, states were required to provide the department with a plan describing how they would use the approval of the plans. The deadline for approval was Sept. 30.

The nutrition education and training program was enacted last November. Through it, children in the school meal programs and child care food programs will learn about the nutritional value of food

Talco Is Visited By Hobos

Last Friday evening you may have noticed some very strange looking people in town. Do not despair...it was just the Missionettes on their way to a hobo stew.

The Missionettes had lots of fun at the stew which included a menu of stew and hot chocolate. They also played several games. Afterwards, they had a slumber party at Kay White-Findeisen's apartment.

Tuesday night the Missionettes joined the young people of Talco Assembly of God and the Royal Rangers for a few spooks and boos at City Hall.

November's activities include making fabric flowers and macrame, practicing a Christmas program entitled "365 Days of Christmas", and preparing for the special Christmas party and bazaar, all of which will take place in December.

Everyone is invited to come to the Missionettes meetings every Tuesday evening from 7-8:30 p.m. at the Talco Assembly of God Church.

Cancer Society Plans Smokeout

Quit for a day! The American Cancer Society hopes millions of smokers will pledge to give up smoking for one day-Nov. 16-the day of the Great American Smokeout. The all-out effort to concentrate on just one day is based on the theory that it is easier to deal with will power a day at a time.

In Red River County, pledge cards will be passed out in schools, banks, offices, and shopping centers. The pledge card is important as a psychological commitment, to help the smoker. Any persons who would like to obtain pledge cards may do so by calling 632-5946 or picking some up at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Also, many lovely gifts were given to him, including a cash gift from his children, relatives and friends. He received two birthday cakes.

There were approximately 72 guests registered during the afternoon.
