Rivercrest Rebels Swarm James Bowie Pirates 71-6

The Rivercrest Rebels, whose overconfidence allowed an early first quarter score by the James Bowie Pirates, recovered to swarm their hapless foes 71-6 Friday night at Pirate Stadium in Simms. The Rebels racked up 30 of their 71 points in the first quarter alone, but even with the high score were unable to build more than 500 yards rushing against the Pirates this week as they did against the Ore City Rebels last week. James Bowie could mount neither a running or a passing game against the Rebels, and completed only one of 12 pass attempts. Three of those attempts were picked off by Rebels and set up touchdowns.

One surprise the Pirates had for the Rebels was when they recovered a punt in the end zone for a touchdown after the ball had been touched by a Rivercrest player. The other surprise came late in the game when the Rebels kicked off following their final score. Rather than return the kickoff, Pirate Ivan Pickering punted the ball back to the Rebel 45 yard line, where the ball was recovered by a bewildered Billy Scales.

As was the case last week, there were touchdowns for everyone, with Kip Stansell scoring one, Jimmy Via, twice; Scales, three times; Eddie Belcher, twice; Steve Alford, once; and Dale Jean, once. Via also ran in once for extra points and kicked five others. Stansell scored four points on runs after the touchdown.

Billy Scales led the Rebels on yards rushing again this week, coming close to the 200 yard mark with 180 yards. Eddie Belcher topped 100 yards for the first time in varsity play with 105 yards, Stansell made 71 and Via made 63.

Shocked Rebel fans were silent when the Pirates made their score early in the game, but found their voices when the Rebels scored on their first possession, with Via crashing across the middle from the one yard line.

Belcher scored next on a 24 yard scamper, and Via tacked on two points after. Dale Jean intercepted a Pirate pass on the Rivercrest 40 yard line, then Billy Scales got loose for a 57 yard touchdown run. Stansell made the two points after.

Via intercepted the next Pirate pass at the Rivercrest 45 and returned the ball to the James Bowie 31, then Stansell finished up with a 31 yard touchdown, plus two extra points.

In the second quarter, Via caught a Pirate punt on the Rivercrest 25 yard line and returned 75 yards for another touchdown, then kicked the extra point.

Not long after that Scales slipped through the Pirate defense again and walked over for another touchdown. Via booted the extra point. At halftime, the Rebels were ahead 51 to 6 and the Rebel band had played "Dixie" seven times.

Scoring slowed somewhat during the third quarter, with the first Rebel score being set up by an interception at the James Bowie 11 yard line by Brian Harville. Belcher ran the 11 yards for the TD, and Via again kicked the extra point.

With everything else going wrong for the Pirates, they were unfortunate enough to get an interference call when Via called for a fair catch on a punt and a Pirate rushed up to defend and the ball hit him on the helmet. That mistake put the ball in play on the James Bowie 35 yard line, and five plays later Steve Alford powered across from the one for a Rebel score. The attempt for extra points failed.

The Pirates fumbled their next possession away to the Rebels on their own 20 yard line, and this time Dale Jean carried in from the five yard line. Via's extra point kick was good.

The Rebels will host the Maud Cardinals at Rebel Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 10.

Council To Sponsor Walk-A-Thon

The Rivercrest Student Council will sponsor a Walk-A-Thon for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation on Saturday, Nov. 18.

Cystic Fibrosis is an inherited, incurable disease. It affects the lungs and digestive system and is the number one killer of children. The money the Walk-A-Thon raises will go to support the programs of research, care and education.

The public is asked to give generously when a Rivercrest student asks you to sponsor him in this worthwhile project. Your donation is tax deductible.

Rodeo Association To Have Barbecue

County Goes Democratic, State Goes Republican

Although the state wide totals were still incomplete a day morning, Red River County voters were on the record as supporters of Democrat Bob Krueger for U.S. Senate and John Hill for governor.

County wide, 1618 votes were cast for Krueger and 1008 for Tommas. Hill received 1652 votes and Clements received 1086.

State wide, Republican John Tower was leading Krueger for the Senate seat and Republican Bill Clements was leading Hill for the governor's chair.

With no local politicians facing any opposition whatsoever, the election interest was centered around the two state wide offices, and an amendment calling for tax relief.

Red River County voters favored the tax relief amendment 2089 to 279, and also passed eight other amendments on the ballot.

A total of 136 ballots were cast in the South Bogata box and 84 were cast in the North Bogata box. In Rugby 16 ballots were cast and 38 were cast at Rosalie. Twenty-seven voted in Johntown.

1978 Veteran's Day Marks 60th Anniversary Of Armistice

Veterans Day 1978 marks the 60th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice which ended World War I. It was the eleventh hour, of the eleventh day, of the eleventh month, of 1918 that the "silence was heard in no man's land."

This year's observance also marks the return of the national holiday to the November 11th date from the fourth Monday in October observed for a few years as part of the "3-day weekend holiday law."

It is indeed significant that this day should be observed on the anniversary of the World War I Armistice.

On November 11, 1918, a more innocent generation than our own hailed the victorious conclusion of "the war to end all wars."

For two decades afterward, the observance of what was then known as Armistice Day was an occasion for commemorating the great outpouring of relief, of patriotism, of prayerful thanksgiving, and unrestrained joy which marked the end of the first World War. The fact that war was not banished from the world, that democracy is as seriously threatened today as it was then, takes nothing from the achievements of the men and women who answered the nation's call to arms in that era.

Our national consciousness today has been tempered a realization that no one lump sum of effort or sacrifice will assure an honorable world peace.

However, a giant step toward that attainment of that lofty goal begins with the recognition of our veterans-men and women-who throughout this century have set aside their civilian pursuits to serve our nation's cause-the defense of freedom against the challenge of armed aggression.

ACCIDENT—Willie Clark, driving Leonard Kisner's pickup north on Main Street in Bogata, collided with Roy Jones at the intersection of Main Street and FM 909. Jones was going east on 909. The accident occurred at 12 noon Monday, and there were no injuries. (Staff Photo)

People are continually looking for a quick-weight-loss scheme to lose pounds overnight. Although many of these schemes are available on the market today, they are extremely dangerous.

After these fads fail, they are soon forgotten and the chronic overeater returns to gorging at the table.

People who eat small, frequent meals are more apt to lose weight than those who eat only one meal a day makes dieters tired, irritable and unable to stay with the diet. Small meals give extra energy, let dieters feel satisfied, and they stimulate muscle formation while they depress fat formation.

The weight control class will teach the individuals good eating habits and behavioral modifications. This class is open to all persons regardless of age, socio-economic level, race, color, creed, religion, sex and national origin. There is no charge for these sessions.

Reorganization Planned For VFD

Several Talco citizens who were interested in making the Talco Voluntary Fire Department a more efficient and better organization, met recently to reorganize and to elect officers. Randy Carroll was elected Chief; Nicky Dover, Assistant Chief and Mark Hale, secretary.

During the two meetings they have had, they learned some important rules and facts about operating the fire truck. They have set some high goals that can only be reached by the support of the community. Already seventeen men have volunteered to give their services to the fire department and they are asking for more. They only want your services if you are willing to work.

The next meeting will be Monday, Nov. 13 at 7:00 p.m. in the Talco City Hall. They ask that you attend and make Talco a safer place to live.

Large Crowd Attends Reunion

The Terry farm at Hagensport was the scene of a "family-relative-friend-of-a friend" reunion on Saturday, Oct. 7, with a picnic dinner served at noon. There were over four hundred and twenty-five people present.

Since there were two newly-wed couples present, it really turned out to be an old-fashioned "infare" which was the name given to the dinner, with everybody invited, following the wedding ceremony of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Terry.

Relatives and friends were from several states. Arkansas was represented by guests from Benton; California by Fresno and Visalia; Kansas by Wichita, Coffeyville and Pittsburg; Oklahoma by Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Lawton, Hugo, Durant, Valliant; Texas by Dallas, Houston, Ft. Worth, Austin, McKinney, Garland, Sulphur Springs, Pittsburg, Talco, Bogata, Paris, Mt. There were several three generation families present, and at least one four generation family, signing the guests register, Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Reed of Talco, their son, Lyndon Reed and his wife, Melba, his son, Lyon Ray, and wife, Rita Beth, and their daughters, Christi and Jackie, all of Talco.

Nine ministers attended the reunion. From Dallas were Rev. Albert and Kitty Tucker, Dr. Sidney and Ann Carnes, Dr. Ken and Naomi Hay, Dr. Dudley and Sally

East Texas Eating

Cranberries add zip and color to our fall meals. The bright jewel-like berries are a traditional must for Thanksgiving dinner. Don't wait that long, though, for their tangy taste. Start now and explore some new ways with the traditional cranberry.

If you've liked molded cranberry salads, but found the chopping, tiring, try this one that is fresh and fast from start to finish—in your blender!

Cranberry Relish Mold
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
½ cup boiling water
1 ¼ cups sugar
1 orange, cut and seeded
3 cups cranberries
½ cup celery, cut into pieces
½ cup pecans
Sprinkle gelatin over cold water in blender container; allow to stand while assembling other ingredients. Add boiling water; cover and process at low speed until gelatin dissolves. Add sugar and orange pieces; process at high speed until orange is finely chopped. Stop blender and add cranberries, celery pieces, and pecans. Cover and process until cranberries, celery, and pecans are finely chopped. Turn into 5 cup mold or individual molds. Chill until firm. Yields 8 to 10 servings.

Or, try serving this Jellied Cranberry Sauce in a ring mold.

4 cups cranberries
2 cups water
2 cups sugar
Wash cranberries, add water and cook until skins burst. Remove from heat and force the pulp through a coarse sieve. Add the sugar and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Heat gently until mixture sheets from a tablespoon, approximately 5 to 7 minutes. Pour into 4 cup mold and chill.

Warm the spirits of your arriving Thanksgiving guests with a cup of Hot Cranberry Lemonade:
4 cups bottled cranberry juice
6 ½ cups water
9 whole cloves
2 cinnamon sticks
½ cup sugar
2 6 oz. cans frozen lemonade concentrate.

Tie spices in a small piece of cheesecloth. Heat cranberry juice, water and spices to rolling boil. Cover, remove from heat, and let stand about 3 minutes. Discard spices. Add sugar and stir until dissolved. Add lemonade concentrate. Mix well. Serve hot. Yields about 3 quarts, or 24 four-ounce servings.

Spices can be dropped untied, into the cranberry juice and strained out to discard. Hot Cranberry Lemonade will keep in the refrigerator for several days, though it will lose Vitamin C. It can also be frozen in container sizes to meet your needs, thawed and heated to provide a warm fruity drink on cool days.

Cranberry quality this year seems good! Berries are firm, tangy, and colorful. Buy while quality remains high. Fresh cranberries will keep for several weeks in the refrigerator. The bright red berries can be frozen in the package you buy them in. Later, use the frozen berries as you do fresh. Remember to rinse, drain, and chop while still frozen.

Hospital List
Watergate is still fresh in many people's minds. For example, at a Southern California hospital now refer to constipated patients as the "Enema List."

Tax Liens Filed Against 9,000 Corporations

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said tax liens are being filed against some 9,000 corporations in an effort to collect at least $500,000 in overdue franchise taxes.

"We are moving against the dawdlers and lollygaggers who failed to make the regular franchise tax report and payments that were due on June 15," Bullock said.

All businesses have been notified they are delinquent and that their right to do business in Texas has been forfeited, Bullock said. The Comptroller's Business Tax Division, which administers the tax, says the amount due the state may be more than the estimated half-million dollars.

All the corporations owe at least the minimum tax, which is $55 per year. Some firms may be subject to higher taxes based on a formula which levies $4.25 per $1,000 of the corporation's stated capital, surplus and undivided profits allocated to Texas, or $4.25 per $1,000 of the total county assessed value, whichever is greater.

Harris County leads the list of delinquent franchise taxpayers, where 2,734 liens are being filed. There are 1,802 liens being filed in Dallas County and 637 liens being filed in Tarrant County.

Liens are being placed against 485 businesses in Bexar County and some 400 businesses in Travis County. Liens in Nueces County total more than 130.

The liens are filed in counties where the Comptroller's office has identified a business operation or where the corporation owns property.

There are over 188,000 corporations doing business in Texas.

Nursing A Way Of Life

The statement "a woman's work is never done," couldn't be truer in the case of 82 year old Mrs. Marye King of Sherman, Texas—a nurse who loves her work.

Never tiring of the many demands placed upon her in the course of a day, Mrs. King's love and concern for her patients is manifested in everything she does.

"I've spent about 50 years of my life as a nurse," Mrs. King told a writer from the National Council on the Aging. "I know these people and they need me. I can't refuse them when they call."

When Mrs. King and her husband moved to Sherman in 1923, she worked at several nursing homes before joining the staff of Community Hospital where she's been dispensing her special brand of nursing for the past 26 years.

"Nursing isn't something I have to do. I do it because I enjoy helping others. I love them and they love me and we have a beautiful understanding," Mrs. King said. "However, there are times when things are so hectic I get exhausted. But, I always get an extra burst of energy then that gets me through what has to be done."

When not at the hospital, Mrs. King runs errands for the patients and often takes their clothes home to wash and mend. "Some of the patients have no family and no one to care for them," she said. "I try to help by making things a little easier for them and they really appreciate it."

After Mrs. King's husband died in 1939, she retired from nursing to care for her ailing mother. In order to supplement her income, as well as pass the time, she made hats, bags and afghans and sold them to friends.

After her mother's death at the age of 92, she realized that retirement was "for the birds" so she returned to work.

Having tried to retire on four different occasions, it's obvious that Mrs. King prefers working to taking it easy.

"I'll be working for a while yet," said Mrs. King. "As long as they call me and I'm able to go, I will."

A DOCUMENT called "Proof of Age" is available from the U.S. Bureau of the Census for people who never received a birth certificate or have lost theirs.

The Census Bureau needs a written request to search the census record, along with your date and place of birth and parent's names. The bureau also asks for the addresses where a person was living during the first two censuses taken after his or her birth. The names of other persons who were living in the house at that time as well as the name of the head of household are also helpful in the search.

The document is accepted by state and Federal agencies and by virtually all of private industry as proof of age.

Persons needing this document can write to: Personal Census Service Branch, Bureau of the Census, Pittsburgh, Kansas 66762.

MANY AMERICANS must have their blood pressure monitored but cannot afford the cost of medical office visits. Here are two alternatives to consider: Most cities have health departments that will refer people to clinics or hospitals that offer free or low-cost programs. Ask specifically for clinics that give blood-pressure tests.

Consider buying a home kit that measures your blood pressure. Because it tends to be awkward to take your own blood pressure, find a friend who also needs the service. Monitor each other and split the expense of the machine.

The Good Word from the Bible

... a weekly inspirational message for today's life-styles...

For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? For who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?
Ecclesiastes 6: 12

If God would in some way give to us a preview of the beautiful "life after death", there wouldn't be room in the churches of the world to hold new members.

We love life because it is filled with familiar, good things. Death is unwelcome; it marks the end of life as we know it. With age — and experience — we intensify appreciation and awareness of this wonderful world. We see beauty and goodness that escaped the eyes of our youth. It becomes difficult to imagine a more perfect life beyond the grave.

There is, of course. We find it in the life of Jesus and, in the words spoken to Martha: I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. (St. John 11: 25)

Pumpkin Pie

There are so many different recipes for PUMPKIN PIE, and I've tried several of them. I must tell you, though, I always go back to the old favorite 'PUNKIN PIE' because it's the one all of us like best.

First, have ready a single uncooked pie crust, one that you especially like and make or the store bought — which aren't bad. Home-made is always better, of course. If you're making pie crust, might as well do the double crust amount and freeze half for another time.

The ingredients for this old favorite are:

- 2 beaten eggs
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- 1½ cups canned pumpkin
- ¼ tsp. ginger
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- ½ tsp. salt
- 1 cup milk
- ½ cup cream or ½ & ½

Mix the first six ingredients together and well. Add milk and cream and stir until blended. To be sure of a non-soggy crust — after you've put the pumpkin filling in — bake the first 10 minutes in a 400° oven — then turn it back to just under 350° for the remainder of the baking. It will need about another 40 minutes for the filling to be thick and set. Great with whipped cream or ice cream.

you and the LAW

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: I ordered Christmas cards and have not received them. I have asked the lady who sold them to refund my money, but she has not kept her promises to do so. How can I get my money back?

A: Any claim involving a dispute of $150 or less in money can be taken before a small claims court. You may contact your local justice of the peace for information on how to file such a suit. If a suit is properly filed, the court will issue a citation to be served on the defendant. A trial can be held before the justice of the peace of a jury if one is requested. A lawyer is not required to present your case in small claims court.

Q: I have been divorced for three years and have custody of our three-year-old daughter. What can I do to see that she is not given to my ex-husband in case of my death? Also, how hard would it be to have my new husband adopt my daughter?

A: At the death of a parent who has custody of a child from a divorced marriage, the other parent has a paramount right to the possession of the child. This right can be denied only by presentation of evidence showing it is not in the best interest of the child to be placed in the custody of the surviving parent. This right of the surviving parent cannot be taken away by a provision in a will. If your second husband wishes to adopt your daughter, a court must first terminate the parental rights of the child's father.

Q: I paid a security deposit when I moved into my apartment. I'm planning to move out next month when the lease expires. Can I deduct the amount of my security deposit from my last month's rent payment?

A: Your security deposit is not a part of your rent payments. If you deduct the amount of your security deposit from your final rent check, your landlord is entitled to bring suit against you for the unpaid rent. The law allows the landlord to sue for three times the amount of your security deposit and for the cost of attorneys' fees.

Q: I recently learned I may inherit some land and I'm wondering what would be involved in selling it. Would I have to pay inheritance tax and income tax if I sold land I inherited?

A: Federal and state death tax laws provide various exemptions and rates for persons who may be liable for taxes. If the estate is taxable, tax law provide that payment of the tax is secured by a lien on all property in the estate, including land. The sale of inherited property also is included in income tax laws, and the question of whether the sale resulted in a tax liability would depend on the total income tax status of the person filling out the tax return.

Buying A Car?

Many young Americans purchase new automobiles these days. Young adults should avoid unhappiness and frustration when making such an important decision.

Knowing what to look for before buying is one hedge against ending up with a "lemon." Some great tips on how not to get "stung" when buying a car are included in "Common Sense In Buying A New Car." This publication is very informative and was recently published by the U.S. Department of Transportation, Washington DC 20590.

Copies of the booklet are free and may be obtained by simply writing to the Office of Public and Consumer Affairs, U.S. Department of Transportation, Washington DC 20590.

ALBERT MILLER, along with his three sons, Mike, Paul and Wayne and Grady Hughes manage the properties owned by the Miller family in Winfield and Miller's Cove. Hughes has worked for the Miller family for 18 years. The three sons are now taking over many of the management problems which have been handled in the past by Albert and his wife, Wanda. The new Winfield Truck Terminal Cafe, which is now open, is in the background. (Staff Photo).

Winfield Truck Terminal Opens

Wayne, Mike and Paul Miller announced this week that the new Winfield Truck Terminal Cafe is now open 24-hours a day, seven days a week.

The Millers plan a grand opening of the cafe for Friday, Nov. 17. Feature of the grand opening will be Bill Mack who will broadcast his "Open Road" show live from the cafe from 12 midnight until 5:00 a.m. on the morning of Nov. 17. Everyone is invited to attend this event.

The old Winfield Restaurant was closed to everyone but truck drivers from 12 midnight until 5:00 a.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. The Millers plan to be open for service to everyone at all times but they say it is up to the general public whether they can continue this practice. They point out they will continue this practice if the public cooperates and acts right.

The new cafe is located north of Interstate 30 at the Spur 185-Winfield exit and is west and north of the truck terminal. The new cafe will seat 200 people.

The beautiful new brick building is located on a large, hard surfaced parking area. The Millers have acquired all of the land from Spur 185 to a street on the east and from the service road on the south to the first street to the north.

The new cafe will serve buffet style from 11:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. each day or customers may order from their menu anytime.

Liz Skinner will be manager of the new cafe. She is a resident of Winfield, has worked for the Millers for 11 years and is a graduate of Mt. Vernon High School. Ms. Skinner says the new cafe will feature the fine food that the Miller family is known for and they will continue to give prompt, courteous, efficient service that customers of the Miller family have come to expect. The new cafe will have a staff of approximately 35 people.

The Winfield Truck Terminal has been completely remodeled, new and expanded truck islands have been built and a new shop building has been constructed. The old restaurant building is to be converted into an office building. The Miller's plan to move the bunkhouse and office building that is located next to the truck terminal building. A Texaco Service Station is also operated by the Millers at the intersection of Spur 185 and the north service road.

They also operate a wholesale oil and gasoline business known as Winfield Oil Company.

Besides the businesses in Winfield, the Millers established the town of Miller's Cove, which is located on the south side of Interstate 30 and is due south of the Winfield operation.

The Hush Puppy Restaurant, Miller's Cove Grocery and Beer Store and a large mobile home park, with all facilities provided, are located in Miller's Cove. The Miller family also owns and operates these businesses. The Millers have around 85 employees who work in the area. A large number of the employees of the Miller family have worked with them for many years. One of the employees, Grady Hughes, has worked for the Millers at the truck terminal for the past 18

A wok's unique bow-shape gives it cooking versatility. Stir-frying is probably the most popular way to cook in a wok. years. Albert and Wanda Miller are the mom and pop of the organization. Besides the three boys, they have a daughter, Connie, who is married to Charlie Best, who is a salesman for Galaxy Carpet Mills. They reside in Longview.

A number of years ago, Albert and Wanda operated a Texaco Station and restaurant which was located on West Main Street at the location where Ben's is now located in Mt. Vernon. They later leased the Crossroads Truck Terminal and Restaurant on the Interstate in South Sulphur Springs.

It was during the time they were operating Crossroads that they built Winfield Truck Terminal and Restaurant. They operated in both locations for some time but the Millers later gave up the Crossroads lease and began devoting full-time to their Winfield operation.

Within the past few years, the Miller's Cove expansion has been carried out.

Melba V's Announces Grand Opening

Melba Vandeventer has announced that she will have the grand opening of her Melba V's Fashions from Monday through Saturday, November 13-18. The new fashion shop will be open each day from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Mrs. Vandeventer bought Bolger's Fashions from Mrs. David Bolger in August and has completely remodeled the store into one of the most modern fashion shops in this area.

The interior of the store has been completely remodeled with new fixtures, carpet throughout, new dressing rooms and central heat and air conditioning has been added. She has also added a completely new front. The store is so designed that shoppers may make their choices in comfort and luxury.

Gary Walker will give free facial makeup and skin analysis during the grand opening using Anesthesia cosmetics. Soybean Usage Sets Record

American soybean usage of over 1.7 billion bushels set a new record in the '77-78 market year, according to Tommy Burnside, a soybean grower and President of the Texas Soybean Association. The record usage of soybeans left an inventory of 159 million bushels.

Looking to the 78-79 market year Burnside is optimistic that this year's record harvest will again be almost totally used.

"Demand for American soybeans has a solid base of at least 1,765 million bushels," said Burnside. "That's about 50 million bushels more than the 1,712 million bushels that we've used during the '77-78 market year," he said noting that a large part of this increase will come because of last year's drought conditions in Brazil which greatly reduced that country's soybean crop. Burnside thinks that demand could be even greater depending on the outcome of oilseed crops in other countries.

In the 1977-78 crop year which just ended, 700 million bushels of soybeans were exported and 927 million bushels were crushed in the U.S. According to Burnside, indications for the coming year are that exports will reach 720 million bushels, 20 million above this year's record. The projected domestic crush of 955-975 million bushels would be about 40 million bushels above the current year's estimates.

"We expect American soybean exports during the first six months of the 1978-79 market year to run as much as 70 million bushels ahead of this year," said Burnside. "Exports during the second half of the year however, should slow down considerably and will depend on the size of next winter's Brazilian soybean harvest," he said.

Over the next three to five years Burnside sees strong demand for American soybeans.

"While we expect excellent domestic demand for soy oil and for soybean meal, the real future growth is in the export market," he said. "Traditional markets such as Western Europe, Japan and Taiwan should continue to grow, but we also expect several new markets to begin to mature. For example, in 1975 Korea imported more than ten million bushels this year and that they may well import as much as 25-30 million bushels of soybeans per year by 1985."

Burnside looks for other markets to show good growth too.

"Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China all have large needs for protein and to some extent edible oils," says Burnside. "But government priorities and the world political climate will determine whether or not American soybeans will play a major role in filling these needs."

Based on market studies by economists at the American Soybean Association, Burnside says Eastern Europe's demand for soybeans is expected to increase 55 percent in the next five years. "That's the equivalent of nearly 85 million bushels of soybeans," said Burnside. "With continued aggressive market development efforts, we feel the U.S. can gain a major share of this market. China is another country where Burnside sees great market potential. "In recent years," he said, "China has not been able to expand its domestic production of oilseeds to match its growing needs. As a result it must look to imports."

In order to simply maintain its present per capita consumption of edible oils, Burnside pointed out that China's population

NOTICE OF INTENTION OF THE TOWN OF BLOSSOM PRAIRIE, TEXAS TO ENTER INTO A COOPERATION AGREEMENT WITH THE HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE TOWN OF BLOSSOM PRAIRIE, TEXAS Pursuant to a Resolution, duly adopted on November 7, 1978, by the city council of the Town of Blossom Prairie, Texas, Notice is hereby given of the intention of the Town of Blossom Prairie, Texas, to enter into a Cooperation Agreement with the Housing Authority of the Town of Blossom Prairie, Texas, and further, Notice is hereby given that at the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date of first publication, the city council of the Town of Blossom Prairie, Texas, will consider the question of whether or not it will enter into a Cooperation Agreement with the Housing Authority of the Town of Blossom Prairie, Texas. growth alone requires the equivalent of an additional 85 million bushels of soybeans per year.

"It is interesting to note that an increase of just one pound per capita oil consumption in China would increase the demand for soybeans by 170 million bushels," he said. "If we get a more favorable political climate that will permit greater trade with China, American soybeans could play a vital role in meeting China's oilseed needs."

"I'm proud of the record of soybean production in this country and of the active role our American Soybean Association has played in developing new markets for our production," said Burnside. "This is a great American farm success story and one that needs to be told more widely."

Through continued grower-based programs of market development, research and government relations, I think we have proved how, by working together, we can increase soybean profits and help feed a hungry world."

Listening At The Library

By Bosley Bookworm

The Texas Fine Arts Association is presenting an exhibition at the library from October 16 through November 6. Those of you who haven't been in to see it will have a little more time to study these interesting paintings by artists from all over the United States.

There are pictures in nearly every art media such as acrylics, watercolors, pastels, lithograph, oil, mixed media and intaglio. Some of the pictures of Bosley really did like, such as the horse in his stall entitled "Equine", "Times Tide" depicting seashells and "Snowbound" which speaks for itself and a few others that really looked like what they were supposed to be.

Now on the other hand as I made my way slowly around the room, I found that poor ol' Bosley must not be keeping up with the times for I really couldn't make out what some of the paintings were all about. One of the pictures looked like one that Cousin Bartholomew did when he got into several different colors and wiggled across a white canvas. He thought it was great, but we just laughed and laughed. Anyway, isn't it nice we don't all have the same tastes? I just know if you go to view these pictures you will really enjoy them-and whatever your reaction may be I'll bet you find several you really like. Come on in, take a look, and cast your vote for your favorite.

Our thanks to go Ann Black for making all the arrangements for the exhibition as she has so kindly done for the last few years and to David Bowers

We feel so very fortunate that we have been able to bring this exhibition to Red River County so all of you come in and see it. It is really a treat.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Waldrum

Mrs. Ricky Waldrum, the former Kathy Brooks, was complimented with a bridal shower Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Wayman Alexander. The hostesses were Mmes. Nell Blackburn, R.G. Hood, Cliff Jones, E.L. Love, Jack Mills, Alice Ruth Tidwell and Vivian Westbrook.

Upon entering, the guests registered at a table covered in white lace, which held the bridal book, white plumed pen and a small album containing the couple's wedding picture.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth. A five branched candelabrum entwined with magnolia blossoms and greenery holding tall ivory tapers formed the center piece.

Punch, decorated cake squares, nuts and mints were served from crystal appointments by the hostesses. They also presented the honoree with a can opener. The many gifts were displayed in the bedroom.

Approximately 25 guests called during the appointed hours of 7 to 9.
