Ramblin Round

By BERT WEST

How do you start a newspaper columm when you're a newcomer to a community?

We haven't the slightest idea, other than to simply say: "Hello, we're here, we want to become a responsible part of your community, and we invite each of you to help us and all the other folks associated with the News and Times newspapers in continuing to build this newspaper into a valued and trusted friend."

A major purpose of a good community newspaper is to provide as much news about that community and its people as possible, blending all of that into an effort to help maintain that community as a nice and proud place-one that you, me, our families and anyone else, can enjoy.

That is our aim here and we do intend to produce the best possible community newspaper.

But, we can't go it alone. We have no magic solutions to problems, no soap box shouting, no black heart for slanted reporting or scandals. So, we do invite your suggestions, ideas, news tips and, yes, we will listen to

And, of course, we do want your news, whether it's about a church circle, club, school group, a new business, anniversary, new job or maybe Aunt Minnie from Topeka has arrived for a visit.

We also welcome pictures. In fact, when we have a picture of a couple celebrating their 50th or more wedding anniversary, we believe the picture- if it's of good reproduction form, belongs on Page One. If a man and wife can stick together for a halfcentury, they deserve a Page One

Although things may be a bit hectic for a while in getting organized, taking care of the housing problem, then moving the family from the Panhandle later this month, we hope to make as many rounds and meet as many of you in person that we can as soon as we can.

In the meanwhile, we'll be reachable, most times, at either the Bogata News or Deport Times office. If we're not there at the time, please leave your message and or phone number and we'll get in touch with Finally, home is where the heart is, and so it is wonderful to be back in northeast Texas.

And, it is terrific to be away from the nothingless of the High Plains on the Texas Panhandle. We're not knocking the people who live in the Panhandle, although there must be more people "from" the Panhandle than who "remain" there.

Of all places we have hung our hat over the years, the Panhandle is at the bottom of our list of favorites, without a contest.

Rebels In Track Regionals

THESE NINE Rivercrest Rebels will compete in seven individual and two relay events at the Class Double-A regional track meet in Kilgore this Friday and Saturday, giving Coach Milford Groves' track squad a powerful entry in the meet from where the top two finishers in each event will qualify for the state track championships. The Rebels and the events they will participate in are, from left, Randy Galloway, 400 relay; James Noey, 400 relay; Craig Clemmons, high jump; Randy

Randolph, mile; Bradley Moore, 400 relay and both hurdle events; Billy Joe Stewart, 440 and mile relay; Richie Winkler, high jump and mile relay; Lonnie Sheffield, 880 and mile relay; and Larry Davis, 400 relay, 440 and mile relay. (Staff Photo)

Runoff Elections At Talco

Talco voters will return to the voting booth on June 5 to decide the November finalists in at least four Titus County races, including three for local precinct level represen-

Voters were unable to give a clear majority to candidates for county judge, Pct. 3 county commission, justice of the peace and constable in the first Democratic primary last

The countywide race for county judge, there will be a June 5 runoff between James R. (Jimmy) Shields and Bill Harper, who emerged as the top two runners in the five-man race for that post.

On the Talco level, 348 of the 612 registered voters in the Talco precinct went to the polls.

In the Pct. 3 county commissioner's race, it will be Ronnie Logan and Roy Price in the June 5 runoff. Logan led the Saturday vote, precinct wide with 39 percent of the vote to 25 percent for Price. At Talco, Logan was the winner with 196 votes while Eugene Mankins was second with 57 votes while Price tallied 52; Horace Milner, Jr., 27; and Earl Anderson, 12.

Johnny Mac Brown will face Hubert Martin in the justice of the peace runoff. Brown topped the Saturday vote with 41 percent and Martin had 24 percent, However, in the Talco voting, Colean Dixon carried Talco with 146 votes to 77 for Brown. Others were George Bond, 71; and Martin, 42.

In the constable's race for the area, there will be a runoff between Jack G. Daniel and Steve Stephens. Daniel carried the first round with 47 percent while Stephens finished second in the three-man race with 30 percent. Daniel and Stephens finished 1-2 among Talco voters, with Daniel receiving 126 votes and Stephens, 118, while the third man, Robert R. Kennedy, polled 65 votes.

Whiteman Beats Judge Sullivan

William S. "Scotty" Whiteman, a retired duputy U.S. marshal making his initial bid for an elective office, scored a somewhat surprisingly easy victory over incumbent Red River County Judge Connie Sullivan in the county's Democratic primary Whiteman, 55, posted a better than 2-1 win over Judge Sullivan who was seeking her second full year term as the county's chief administrative office. The unofficial returns gave Whiteman, a resident of Clarksville Route 6, a total of 2,782 votes to only 1,426 for Sullivan.

The Johntown precinct apparently was the lone voting box in the county to give Judge Sullivan an edge and that was by a single vote, 28-27.

The duel was close in Bogata, but Whiteman was the winner, 153-148. In other area precincts, Fulbright favored Whiteman, 44-17; Rosalie gave Whiteman a 38-17 margin and Cuthand favored a change in the judgeship by a 30-20 vote.

Bogata election judge Roy Marris reported 305 votes were cast in the local precinct.

Incumbent County Treasurer Donna Townes defeated challenger Bobby Lillard by some 1,200 votes countywide. She won easily in Bogata, 229-52; at Fulbright, 47-10; at Rosalie, 45-17: at Johntown, 43-7: and at Cuthand, 33-14.

In the close race for county Democratic chairman, Mary M Sturdivant won at Bogata, 126-117; at Johntown, 26-17; and at Cuthand, 24-20; but Pace won at Fulbright, 30-25; and at Rosalie, 32-24.

Bogata voters joined their fellow county citizens in favoring Buddy Temple for the governor's chair Temple easily carried the county with 2,016 votes to 884 for Mark White and 824 for Bob Armstrong. Bogata voters cast 153 ballots for Temple, 58 for White and 54 for Armstrong. John Hannah was favored by

Bogata voters to become the next Texas attorney general, with 111 votes to 83 for Jim Mattox. The two also ran 1-2 in the county wide count. Jim Hightower nudged Reagan

Brown in the commissioner of agriculture race among Bogata voters. 131-122.

Although Bogata area voters were not involved in the voting, Jackie Kay Barton and Bobby Yarbrough led a field of seven candidates in the race for County Commissioner of Precinct 2 and are apparently headed for a runoff race on June 5. Barton led the Saturday race with an unofficial total of 222 votes to 196 for Barton.

Bogata voters gave incumbent State Senator Ed Howard a 250-34 edge over his challenger, "Peppy" Blount; and also favored incumbent Congressman Sam Hall by sweeping 261-22 margin over his rival, Jim Zorn.

The closest statewide race for Bogata voters was for the Place 3 post of the Texas Supreme Court, where Woodrow Wilson Bean was fovored by 109 Bogata voters and 107 others voted for Charles W. Barrow.

News, Times Newspapers Sold To West

Sale of the Bogata News and Talco Times, along with the Times newspapers in Deport and Blossom, to veteran Texas newspaperman Bert C. West and his wife, Betty, effective April 29, is announced today by Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Wright.

West, who has been a daily, weekly and semi-weekly newspaperman in Texas since 1954, is no stranger to the area. Until Nov. 1, 1979, he was ownerpublisher of the semi-weekly Steel Country News-Ledger at Daingerfield and had joined a son, Nick, in' establishing the weekly Ore City News-Ledger.

After selling the News-Ledger papers, West was general manager of the Johnson City Record-Courier for a while and for the past 15 months was managing editor of the Moore County News-Press at Dumas in the Texas

"My wife and I have been anxious to return to northeast Texas ever since we left. We love this area of the state and its people, and we welcome the opportunity to return," West says.

A native of Indiana, where he began his newspaper career 35 years ago, West moved his family to Texas in 1954 and became managing editor of the Stephenville Daily Empire-Tribune. This was followed with editorships on such newspapers as the El Campo News, Port Lavaca Wave-Times, Bay City Tribune, San Benito News and Pasadena News-Citizen.

At Pasadena, West converted five weekly newspapers owned by the News-Citizen and located between Webster and Galveston into the daily Spaceland Star. He also covered the Houston Astros for the Pasadena

He later became manager of the Houston Chronicle's news bureau at the Manned Spacecraft Center (now Johnson Space Center) where he reported on U.S. spaceflights through the first three manned landings on the moon.

Along with his Chronicle duties, West was the space center news correspondent for news agencies in France, Turkey and Japan, along with Newsday and the U.S. Information Agency

West left the Chronicle to become managing editor of the St. Charles, Mo., Journal, which he converted from a weekly into a three times a week publication before returning to Texas and assuming ownership of the News-Ledger that served the Daingerfield, Lone Star and Hughes Springs areas.

In addition to his newspaper chores, West has been active in various community activities. He is a past president of Jaycee and Optimist Club organizations, a city-county library board and the Calhoun County Fair at Port Lavaca; along with being both an officer and director of three chambers of commerce; a city court judge and national chairman of the public relations committee for the trustee division of the American Library

The Wests are parents of three sons and four daughters. Among the sons, Nick is managing editor of the Palacios Beacon on the Gulf Coast; Pat lives at Jenkins and works for Lone Star Steel; and Larry is a senior at Dumas High School where he has lettered in football and baseball.

Among the daughters, Karen (Mrs. Jacky Hiles) is a dispatcher-jailer with the Morris County sheriff's department in Daingerfield; Deborah (Mrs. Keith Capps) graduated from East Texas State University last year and resides in Lone Star: Dodi (Mrs. Ron Aubuchon) lives in O'Fallon, Mo.; and Leidon (Mrs. Jerry Lange) lives in St. Louis where she and her husband work for the Journal Newspapers.

Another daughter, Tina, died in 1975.

"Despite a seemingly long and active career, we are not looking to the News and Times newspapers as a lazy, retirement-type job," West says.

"We will be an active and enthused publisher, reporter, ad salesman, photographer, janitor and everything else it takes to put out a good product.

"We will do our best to maintain the wonderful acceptance these papers have earned over the years and continue to build them into the best full-service community newspapers possible," he adds.

Hidden Name Game...

Find Your Name; Win $5 Prize!

Deport Times, Bogata News, Blossom Times or Talco Times, you may discover that your name is worth $5!

Beginning today, the News and Times will select a name from our subscription files, then will "hide" the name and address of the subscriber in one of the ads published in today's The name and address, such as

John Doe, Bogata, will be printed in the same style of type as the word as you are now reading. As said, it will be "hidden" in one of the ads published in this newspaper. However, the name and address may be printed on a straight line, upside down, or on a slant

If you find your name (there will be only one each week), we'll give you a $5 check if you give us a ring on the phone at 652-4205 before 12 noon this Saturday

The check will be made out to you and any business that advertises in either of the Times newspapers or the News. The $5 is yours and yours alone. All you have to do is take the check to the business or store that you name and cash it, then you can spend or save the $5 any way you want to.

If calling us at the 652-4205 number is long distance, then we'll accept a collect call, as long as you are the person whose name is hidden.

gasoline to come in and pick up the check. If it's your name that is hidden, all you have to do is call us, tell us about finding your Hidden Name and where it was hidden; then tell us what business or store you want the check made out to in a joint name with ours, and we'll mail the check to you.

Now, the real fun part of the Hidden Name Game comes when you don't spot your name but do find the name of someone else. It's okay to call that person and tell him or her that their name is hidden in the newspaper. Give them a ring, even if you don't know them--it's a $5 favor the other person is certain to appreciate. Besides, maybe they'll return the favor when your name is hidden. That's about it. Remember, the person whose name is hidden must call us at 652-4205 before noon this Saturday

Should the Hidden Name loot go unclaimed, then the $5 will be added to next week's prize money.

Only the names of persons who are paid up subscribers to either of the Times newspapers or the Bogata News are eligible for the Hidden Name Game. If you're not a subscriber, then we invite you to call us or come by one of our offices today.

Happy hunting. Maybe the name you find today is yours!

Renew yours, give one as a gift....

2 For 1 Subscription Offer For News, Times Readers

As an introduction to the new and exciting plans for the News and Times newspapers serving the Bogata, Deport, Talco and Blossom areas, a unique 2 for 1 subscription offer is extended to all new and present subscribers during the month of May. Readers may purchase a year's subscription to either of the four newspapers and at the same time give a free one-year gift subscription to either of the newspapers to a relative, friend or neighbor...all for the price of one subscription.

The total price for the two subscriptions is $7.50 if both go to addresses in Red River, Lamar or Titus counties. If either or both subscriptions go to someone outside the three-county area, the cost is $10.

The only "catch" in the 2 for 1 offer is that at least one of the subscriptions must go to someone who is not a present subscriber of that newspaper. Additional information and a coupon for use in the 2 for 1 offer appears on Page 2 of today's newspaper.

Present subscribers can add a oneyear extension to their present subscription and at the same time send a one-year gift to someone who does not now receive the paper, all for the one

For instance, if your subscription

Uncle Link Sez: "Men can be divided into three classes: the handsome, the intellectual, and the majority.'

does not expire until this coming December, you can add a year to your present subscription--which will extend it until December of 1983, then give a subscription to someone else all for the price of one.

New subscribers may either send a gift subscription to someone who is not receiving the paper, or they may add a year to the present subscription of a relative, friend or neighbor.

If your intended gift subscription recipient is a present subscriber or is given a gift by someone else, we will contact you for the name and address of another recipient

The 2 for 1 subscription offer will continue through May 31. Persons having questions about the unique offer are invited to call our circulation office at 352-4205 in Deport.

Longest Friendship

April 1982 marks the 200th anniversary of U.S. diplomatic relations with the Netherlands-the longest continuously peaceful ties the United States has maintained with any country. A group known as the Frisians, whose descendants still inhabit the Dutch province of Friesland, led the way to friendship with the colonies back in
