HOUSE EAST OF TOWN

BURNS SATURDAY NIGHT

The home of Alex Grusendorf, 15 miles east of town on the Throckmorton road was completely destroyed by fire with all of its contents Saturday night about 12 o'clock.

When the family awoke the house was in flames and they only had time to escape with a few clothes. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Jno. W. Pace left Thursday for College Station, to visit with his son, Jno. W. Jr., for a short time.

BILL SAM'S DICTIONARY

It is reported that Mrs. Bee Little gave her another thrashing a few days ago. She says that he is cure that Mrs. Little's cruelty toward him and other animals about the place would get him a divorce; but with Mrs. Little's reputation as a fighter, no judge or jury would dare give him a divorce without giving her a big allony, which would compel him to go to work.

HOWARD SCHOOL OPENS WITH GOOD PROGRAM

The Howard consolidated school opened Monday November 13th with a get-acquainted meeting. A large number of patrons of the school were present, also quite a few visitors, among whom were, Mrs. Ed Robertson, Sr. and Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Claibourne Payne, and Supt. M. H. Brasher of Haskell.

The program of the day was opened with songs by the school, after which Mr. J. N. Weaver, the principal, made a welcome address. Mrs. Ed Robertson, our county superintendent, made a talk commending the patrons on their interest in the educational welfare of their children, and the advancement of the community. The splendid new building and their presence on opening day being concrete evidence of this interest. Mr. Claibourne Payne, of Payne Drug Co., who are furnishing the school in book covers and also offering a medal for the best declaimer, made a short talk.

Supt. Brasher of Haskell made a very interesting talk on the need and value of education, to country boys and girls. The part of the program which was given the closest attention was the splendid dinner served by the people of the community. The deliciousness of this dinner will be approved by Mr. Payne, as he was the winner of a race between Supt. Brasher, J. N. Weaver and himself, to see who had the greater capacity.

In the afternoon the teachers enrolled and classified pupils and issued books to them.

There were 57 enrolled the opening day.

This community also put on a box supper Friday night which netted the neat sum of $149.00, which will go for the benefit of the school.

COTTONWOOD SCHOOL CARNIVAL SUCCESS

A large crowd gathered at Cottonwood school house Saturday evening, November 18, to enjoy the school carnival.

There were seven booths, all overflowing with fun. The Great Western Hold-Up, fortune teller and fishing pond drew the largest crowds.

Hot chocolate, cake, popcorn and chewing gum were sold; and a cake was given the prettiest girl, Lela Mae Marlon receiving it.

There was fine music furnished by local musicians. The people were interested in each attraction and spent freely for our benefit. Weaver and Chapman sold us chewing gum and cakes, Fouts & Mitchell, paper for decoration and articles for the fish pond; Midget Cafe a large ornamental cake, all at a discount, making our profit greater. We wish to thank each of these, and also the people who patronized our carnival, for the way in which they co-operated for our benefit.

KILLS FIVE COYOTES THURSDAY MORNING

P. T. Huff, who lives 12 miles northwest of Haskell probably is the champion wolf hunter of all West Texas. Thursday morning being his lucky day he loaded his greyhounds in his Ford and made for the big Swenson pasture about 20 miles east of town. He returned to Haskell early in the afternoon with five coyotes, which had been caught and filled by his hounds in just a few hours. He only had five dogs in his pack. The wolves were jumped one at a time and his dogs caught five out of seven that were sighted.

Some of Mr. Huff's friends say that they have "cut loose" from him forever, as this chase was altogether too much sport for any one man to have all by himself.

Harold Fosay returned Friday morning from Stamford where has been in the sanitarium there under the care of a physician. His many friends are glad to see him back in our city and to know that he stood his operation wonderfully well and is now improving rapidly.

Miss Thomas Newman and Miss Hazel Robertson of Walnut were in Haskell Friday evening attending the football game and visiting friends. Miss Newman attended school here last year and is attending at Baylor this year.

John Myers bumped into Henry Pipp quite unexpectedly Tuesday.

I'M SORRY PHIL, BUT I SOLD THE LAST EMPTY BARREL I HAD LAST MONDAY.

Judging from the big demand for barrels there must be considerable fermentation going on around these parts, opines Gus, the grocer.

THE FREE PRESS ANNOUNCES A MIGHTY DRIVE FOR CIRCULATION

Large Prizes Will Be Given to Secure More Rural Circulation in Haskell County. Ford Coupe and Roadster to be Given For Two Highest Prizes to Workers For Subscriptions

"The Free Press in every home in Haskell County."

Presenting a dazzling array of valuable awards, the Free Press elsewhere in this issue announces the inauguration of the most stupendous automobile-and-cash campaign ever conducted in this part of the state. And the purpose of the whole gigantic Gift Distribution is the placing of the Free Press in every home in Haskell County.

More than $1,500.00 in gifts, including two of the very latest model automobiles, all purchased from a local dealer, hundreds of dollars in money—in fact, just as many gifts as there are active participants—will be distributed among the women and girls of this community within the next few weeks by the Free Press. It is predicted that this great Gift Distribution—the liberality of which surpasses by far any previous attempt in this section—will be the most successful in the annals of newspaperdom in this vicinity.

There is to be no red tape connected with the campaign. The gifts of money and the automobiles, are to be distributed absolutely free. Any woman or girl, married or single, residing in this vicinity, is eligible to enter the contest and to secure one of the gifts. It is not even necessary that the candidate or participant be a subscriber to the Free Press. And every participant is absolutely guaranteed either a CASH gift or one of the two automobiles, according to the rules of the distribution.

Nor does it cost a candidate one cent, either now or later, to participate and secure any of the gifts.

The only stipulation that the Free Press makes in connection with entrants is that no employee in the office of the Free Press or members of their immediate families can enter. Children under 16 will be allowed to enter only upon written consent of their parents.

The liberality of this offer; the fact that everybody wins something; and the ease with which even the biggest of the gifts may be won—just a little earnest application and effort in vote getting during spare moments will do it—it is expected to create considerable interest among our people, and there should be several entrants. The character and class of the automobiles, and the very fact that EVERY ONE who actively participates, wins a prize, is expected to attract candidates from every section of the territory of which Haskell is the hub.

Anybody would be proud to own either one of the automobiles which the Free Press is giving YOU the opportunity to obtain free. And anybody can certainly use any of the sums in CASH which the Free Press will distribute to those who do not win the two cars.

To become a candidate in the Gift Distribution is an easy matter. To win even the biggest of the cars is just as easy, if you but apply yourself during spare moments.

Elsewhere in this issue, there appears an entry or "Nomination Blank" which, properly filled out and mailed or brought to the Campaign Department of the Free Press will start you in the campaign with 2000 votes. Votes are issued in large numbers for each subscription payment, whether it be from a new subscriber or from an old one, according to the length of the subscription.

It makes no difference where a candidate resides, so far as his or her chances of winning the biggest gifts are concerned. The distribution of the automobiles and all the CASH prizes have been so arranged that each candidate will have an equal opportunity.

The campaign is a very short one and under no circumstances will it be extended beyond the date advertised. At the end, a committee of judges, whose names appear in the double page announcement, will count and tabulate the vote totals, and those who poll the greatest number of votes will whisk away to their homes in their own automobiles. All others will receive sums in CASH in proportion to their vote totals, as explained in the announcement.

Persons who have never taken part in a voting campaign of this magnitude are unable to realize how rapidly their vote totals accumulate. Once the start is made, they pile up like magic. Subscriptions and coupons will secure thousands of votes in the Free Press campaign. And it is not expected that the candidates will depend wholly upon their own efforts—friends will help them to gather votes—and what a merry pastime it will be—with bountiful reward at the end.

There are plenty of prizes to go around among the hustlers—indeed there is a prize, either CASH or a car for every participant. The plan is a competitive one, and will be conducted on a business basis. The bigger your effort, the bigger your prize.

Turn now to pages 4 and 5 and read the big announcement. See for your-

O'BRIEN GIN BURNED FRIDAY

Friday evening November the 17th, about seven o'clock the J. F. Harcrow Gin was discovered to be on fire. A general alarm was given but by the time sufficient men had gathered the fire had gained such headway that nothing could be done to save the building and seed house which were a total loss. On account of a serious breakdown about two weeks ago, the gin was not in operation, and it is not known how the fire originated. A new Ford truck belonging to J. B. Wharton was under a shed of the building and was also burned. The heat was so great that the few who reached the fire could not remove it.

Since closing for the season, Mr. Harcrow was away from the town and it could not be learned whether or not his loss is covered by insurance.

GRIMES BROS. FINE HORSE DIES FRIDAY

Absalom, the enormous black Perchon horse owned by Grimes Bros. of Sager-ton, died last Friday morning. Visitors to the Haskell County Fair will recall the animal, as he was on exhibition during the Fair. This was probably the largest and best specimen of horse flesh in this part of West Texas. Bred in Illinois, he was shown at the various stock shows there, where he was a consistent winner. He was later shipped to Colorado and won first prize in the three year old class and then re-shipped to Texas where he came into the hands of the Grimes Bros. At the time of his death he was eighteen hands high and weighed twenty-three hundred pounds, and was valued at two thousand, five hundred dollars. Besides the financial loss to the owners, it was a loss to the stock raising interests of this entire section.

BOX SUPPER WILL BE GIVEN AT POWELL SCHOOL

A box supper will be given at the Powell school house next Thursday night (Thanksgiving). The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the school. Miss Una DeBard, teacher at Powell, states that they are planning a big time for all who will attend. Everybody is invited to come and bring a well-filled box.

SCHOOL NOTES FROM OVER THE COUNTY

All the Haskell County schools have opened with fine attendance, and prospects are bright for successful schools this term.

A box supper was given at the Myers schoolhouse Friday night, which was well attended. The neat sum of $104.00 was realized from the entertainment.

A box supper which was a very successful affair was held in the Foster community Friday night, and a handsome sum realized from the sale of the boxes.

The schools have all opened unusually early this session in order to get in several months before Christmas.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Parent-Teachers Association has made wonderful improvement in the appearance of the high school grounds by having them graded and leveled.

The approach to the High School building, since this improvement has been made, is beautiful and attractive. This work will add much to the civic influence in our community. It will unconsciously cause our boys and girls to have more pride in their High School and in their town.

In the early spring trees will be set out. It is planned later on to build side-walks and perhaps to put out flower beds and in this way make the High School campus still more attractive.

Since the High School grounds are on a greatly traveled highway these improved school grounds, with our beautiful High School building, will be a great advertisement for Haskell—none better could be secured.

The Parent-Teachers Association should receive much praise and appreciation for this fine work done by them for our schools and our town.

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Haskell Schools is a live organization, and it is doing much constructive work for our schools. Every mother in Haskell should belong to this organization because of the great service it is rendering our school children.

Red and Blue Shirt Brigade

The red and blue shirt brigade made their first public appearance Wednesday evening at the Bear Cat Literary Society program. They were formally introduced and entertained the high school with a most beautiful song entitled “Give Us a Hand-Out.” This brigade, or better, society, was formed several days ago by a group of the high school boys with the motto, “Cheap and Better Shirts.” These boys, composed of about fifteen high school boys, appeared for the first time with some beautiful calico shirts. A whole bolt was bought from one of the local merchants and issued out to each member of the society. These shirts are to be worn until they are worn out, when another bolt of material will be purchased. Raymond Carter was elected president and Maurice Smith, secretary and wash-woman. Mr. Smith was elected to the wash-woman's stand for his past record at said job and we hope that he will fill the position as the other members of the society wish him to.

Hymn

For Summer's bloom and Autumn's blight,
For bending wheat and blasted maize,
For health and sickness, Lord of light,
And Lord of darkness, hear our praise!

We trace to Thee our joys and woes—
To Thee, of causes still the cause—
We thank Thee that Thy hand bestows;
We bless Thee that Thy love withdraws.

We bring no sorrows to Thy throne;
We come to Thee with no complaint;
In Providence Thy will is done,
And that is sacred to the saint.

Here, on this best Thanksgiving Night,
We raise to Thee our grateful voice;

For what Thou dost, Lord, is right;
And, thus believing, we rejoice.
—From "Bitter-Sweet," by J. G. Holland.

The Spirit of Thanksgiving

As we read of old time Thanksgiving customs, we realize that the world has been traveling fast since then—away from the simple and the spiritual.

One of the customs, particularly, was quaint.

After the Thanksgiving dinner, while the family was still seated around the table, each member was asked to tell for what, in the past year, he was particularly thankful.

These recitals were always revelations of character. The small children of the family mentioned some material thing, a sled or a doll, for which they were grateful.

The older children, those in their teens, were more abstract. They were thankful for the advantages of education, of family prestige, or their social position—a bit self-centered, perhaps, as is wont with youth in its teens.

But mother and father, in their maturity of years, knew that the greatest blessings of life were health and happiness, and their recitals of thankfulness always included a word of thanksgiving that the family had been spared illness and poverty. No thought for themselves, but thankful of son's success in school, and daughter's improvement in controlling her temper.

The spirit of the day calls for just such a touch of spiritual introspection. It keeps alive that family spirit, the joy of an assembled family, the particular source of Thanksgiving to each member, along with the joy of the old-fashioned dinner.

Old-Time Thanksgiving.
A quaint account of a Thanksgiving dinner back in 1779, is given in a letter of one Juliana Smith, written to her dear "Dear Cousin Betsey," found in an old diary:

"This year it was Uncle Simeon's turn to have the dinner at his house, but of course we all helped them as they help us when it is our turn, and there is always enough for us all to do. All the baking of pies and cakes was done at our house, and we had the big oven heated and filled twice each day for three days before it was all done, and everything was good, though we did have to do without some things that ought to be used. Neither Love nor Money could buy Raisins, but our good red cherries dried without the pitse, did almost as well, and happily Uncle Simeon still had some spices in store. The tables were set in the Dining Hall, and even that big room had no space to spare when we were all seated. The Servants had enough ado to get around the Tables and serve us all without oversetting things. There were our two Grandmothers, side by side. They are always handsome old ladies, but now, many thought, they were handsomer than ever, and happy they were to look upon so many of their descendants.

The Crown of the Feast.
"There was no Plum Pudding, but a bottled Suet Pudding, stirred thick with dried Plums and Cherries, was called by the old Name and answered the purpose. All the other spice had been used in the Mince Pie, so for this Pudding we used a jar of West India preserved Ginger, which chanced to be left of the last shipment which Uncle Simeon had from there. We chopped the Ginger small and stirred it through with the Plums and Cherries. It was extraordinary good. The day was bitter cold and when we got home from Meeting, which father did not keep over long by reason of the cold, we were glad of the fire in Uncle's Dining Hall, but by the time the dinner was one-half over, those of us who were on the fire side of one table was forced to get up and carry our plates around to the far side of the other table, while those who had sat there were glad to bring their plates around to the fire side to get warm. All but the Old Ladies, who had a screen put behind their chairs."

UNUSUAL AND AMERICAN

Here is something unusual in coats, quite new and thoroughly American in style. It is a snappy spring coat with a sportish flavor, made of a novelty mixture and distinguished by leather patch pockets and a leather belt. The pockets have long slashed fringe, decorated with steel beads, and they bring to mind cowboy and Indian trappings. The collar is convertible—the sleeves a new type.

A Sage's Limitations.

"Did you ever study the Darwinian theory?"
"No," replied Senator Sorghum; "I can't see how it would help me in my business. He offers no suggestions that would assist me in flattering the self-esteem of my auditors. Darwin was a smart man, but no politician."

Chef Tells Secret For New Bran Gems

Rene Anjard

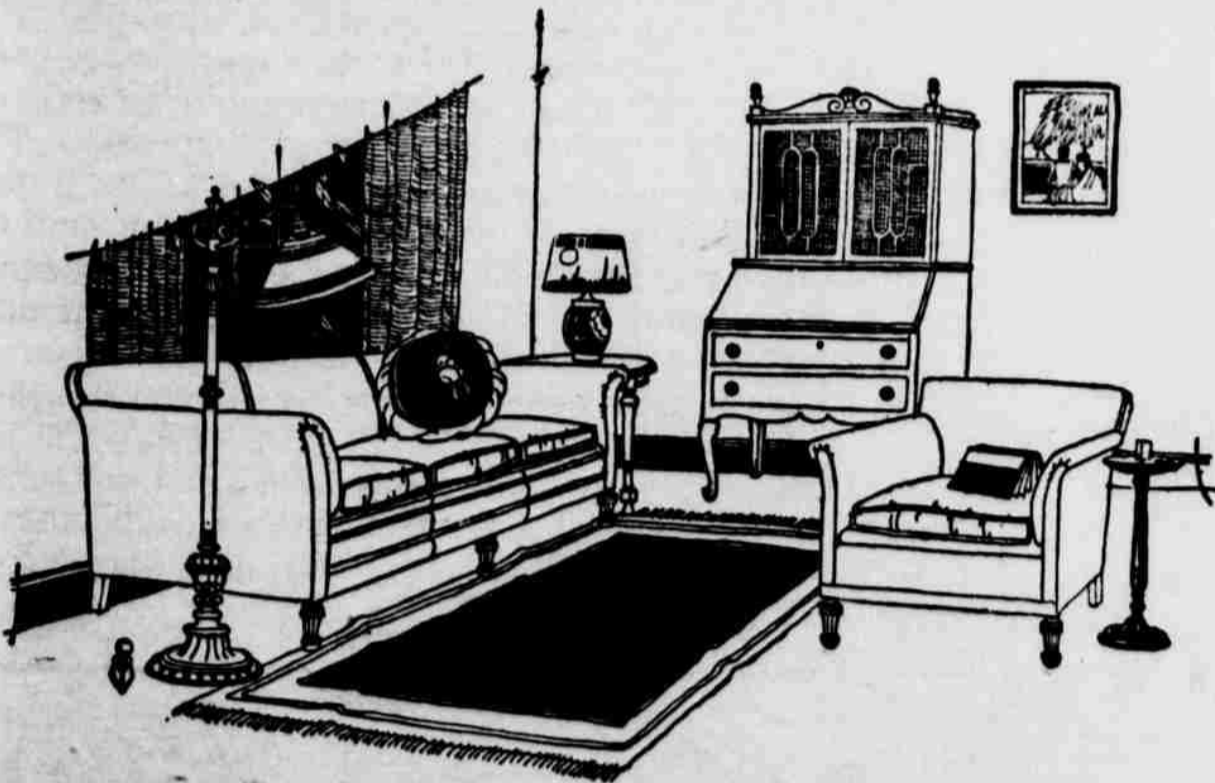

THERE are ways of making bran gems. Rene Anjard, chef of the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, has a recipe all of his own, which occupies a prominent place in the hotel's diet lists.

The Waldorf-Astoria, by the way, has a whole series of menus on scientific diet lists, and these bran gems can be found in almost every one of them. This is the way Monsieur Anjard makes his bran gems:

One and one-half cups of bran, one teaspoonful of baking soda, one tablespoonful of butter, three-fourths cup of sour cream or buttermilk, one-fourth cup of sugar.

Mix together and bake in a hot oven for twenty minutes. This makes six gems.

The plan is simple and concise. The prizes will be awarded to those who secure the greatest vote totals. There is just one way to secure votes, prepaid subscriptions to The FREE PRESS. Votes are given in large numbers with each subscription payment, the number depends upon the amount paid. (See vote value of subscription payments elsewhere.) The nomination blanks which, if you so desire, you may fill out for yourself, start you off with 2000 votes. The McCord Lecture

The people of Haskell missed a great treat last Thursday night when they did not hear the great lecture "Dr. Jeckel and Mr. Hyde" delivered by Mr. McCord at the High School. This was the second number of the White-Myers Lyceum course.

Every man, woman and high school pupil should have heard Mr. McCord's lecture. It was worth going miles to hear. Mr. McCord told us that our civilization and nation are in danger because our people have ceased to think. We think more of money and ease than we do of service and work. We do not want to work and we shield our children from those experiences that have made us worth while. Many of our high schools are places where our boys and girls go to dress and have a good time rather than a place to work and to learn how to think straight. Most of our homes have ceased to exercise any discipline over our Mr. McCord said we were have to change all this or doomed.

The next number on the lyceum course is a musical one, orchestra. This orchestra is wide for its most excellent music. orchestra has performed in all cities of the United States, cannot afford to miss this price of the tickets for the numbers will be $1.00 for a 71c for children.

The committee lacks about having enough money to pay course. They would greatly if it would buy your ticket is not a donation but an investment the very best kind.

What an awful wallop "normally" got at the polls!

Too often a meeting of headlights results in a head-on.

It's all right to say it with flowers, but don't ever tell it to a hayfeverite with goldenrod.

Someone has described peace as a "state of mind." Mind your own business, it might be added.

The high tide which swept Harding and other Republicans into office two years ago seems to be decidedly on theebb.

Bedtime stories, it is said, are going out of vogue. The probable reason is that mother cannot wait until the youngsters get in off the streets.

Germany bewails losing the war, but those Germans never know when they see well off. They ought to remember that in losing the war they lost their Kaiser also.

FACT AND FICTION

It's hard to decide this fall between a winter's supply of coal and a winter in Florida.
'Tis said that the election returns had a bad influence upon the President's golf.
Prohibition was not intended to include the price of everything a person eats or wears.
Don't ever undertake to tell a joke to a woman for you'll have to follow it up with an explanation.

One way to make England pay would be to threaten to send some lecturers across unless she "comes across."
Scientists declare that the North Pole has slipped fifty feet, but what do they propose to do about it?
The pen may be mightier than the sword, but there are few editors drawing the salary of a major general.

Some young men like to think of themselves as being "hard-boiled" when in reality they are only "half-baked."
In his memoirs William Hohenzollern proves that he is as much a fizzle as a fictionist as he was a ruler.

The great trouble with a representative government is that it too often represents the few instead of the many.
Some young men make their college football team and others are content to spend their spare time shooting craps.

With the Republican majority in Congress whittled down to almost nothing in the November elections, President Harding is planning to jam his pet ship subsidy bill down the country's throat before those pesky Democrats get their seats and spoil his plans.

PROFITING

If a merchant, a banker or a farmer becomes involved in a row with his employees and has to close down his business for weeks or months, he accepts his loss like a man.
The coal operators, however, are not of this class. They are saddling their loss in the recent strike onto the public prices of coal, and are profiteering in a shape of enormously increased conscienceless and outrageous manner.
And since the government seems to be unable to do anything about it, the public becomes the goat and pays its pound of flesh.

The United Charities
Winter is here and the United Charities is without funds. Most of us have to see destitution, rags, starvation, and sickness before we are prepared to give. We do not think of, or prepare for the unfortunate in our community.
There is a cause for all poverty and suffering. The task of the United Charities is to find the cause if possible, and then eliminate it, or prevent its occurrence. My experience leads me to believe that few are ungrateful, and often a splendid spirit of independence survives in people even without food, clothing, or shelter.
The work of the United Charities is divided into three definite parts: First, relief; second, constructive service; third, the rehabilitated family. The local organization has been able to give immediate relief only—because of lack of funds. I hope on Thanksgiving Day there will be a union service of the churches of the town and a generous offering for this purpose will be received. Let's cooperate, and make this a great year for Charities.

Some few of the farmers are still picking cotton.

INTERESTING NEWS FROM THE TOWN OF SAGERTON

J. S. Watson made a business trip to Stamford last week.
The Sagerton High School is making application for classification with the State Department of Education and as soon as the inspector has called and given it the proper classification, application will be made for at least ten units of affiliation with the State University. The following credits will be applied for: Two in English, Two in Mathematics; Three in History; Two in Science and Two in Modern Language. If this program is carried out this will give Sagerton one of the best three year high schools in this part of the West Texas.
Mrs. Ed Robertson, County Superintendent, paid the High School a pleasant visit last week.
The cotton crop in the Sagerton community is just about finished. While the crop was short the price has been good and the country is in a prosperous condition. The recent showers have started many of the farmers to planting wheat and if the winter rains come right there is no reason why there should not be a good crop.
Sagerton community has gained a new citizen. Mr. Sanderson of Bosque county. Mr. Sanderson leased his farm in that county and moved to Haskell county to farm the Patterson farm north of Sagerton, preferring to rent and fight the drought in Haskell county than to own land and fight the boll weevil in Bosque.
A real live boll weevil was captured on the streets the other day, evidently a transient moving to East Texas, and some of the native sons thought him a curiosity, but when he was identified by several former East Texans he was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Gulim, who promptly executed him, lest he be tempted to make Haskell county his home as many other wanderers have done.
E. R. Kirklén made a trip to Stamford Monday and returned with a load of merchandise for his general store.
Rev. McHenry Seal filled his regular appointment at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening, a large crowd attending both services. His morning sermon was a report of the Baptist Convention which has just adjourned at Waco and his evening subject was "Neglect", showing the bad effects of neglect of any sort: business, education, cultivation and salvation. His next appointment will be the first Sunday in December.
Mrs. J. W. Martin spent the week end visiting in Anson.
Misses Pauline and Emma Hertenberger of Old Glory visited Miss Clota Martin last week end.

SOCIETY and Club

Parent-Teachers Association
The Parent-Teachers spent a pleasant hour with the Domestic Science girls in the D. E. rooms of the High School, Tuesday afternoon. The occasion being a shower of cooking utensils, dishes and silverware given the girls by the ladies.
Mrs. Morris gave a talk thanking the ladies and telling of the girls work also some of the needs of the Domestic Arts department. Mrs. Grissom in the absence of our president, responded in her own pleasant manner.
Miss Castles gave a humorous reading that was very much enjoyed by those present.
The Domestic Science girls served delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, tea and bonbons.

Miss Anita Scott Hostess
Miss Anita Scott was hostess to the members of the Maids and Matrons club Saturday afternoon.
A pleasant afternoon was spent at Bridge and the hostess served a plate lunch. The favors were unique, being different kinds of little paper animals. Miss Judith Taylor rendered a vocal solo.
Those enjoying this hospitality were: Misses Alberta Smith, Eva Cahill, Lois Earnest, Laura Lee Langford, Sula Mae Ratliff, Mary Clifton, Helen and Florence Shook, Nettie McCollum, Mesdames Hill Oates, Sam Conner, J. P. Payne and J. A. Broadus.

Magazine Club
The president, Mrs. J. E. Grissom conducted the lesson on "Corot and the Barbizon Group" Friday afternoon. After the lesson she gave a splendid report of the Federation meeting which she attended in Houston. A few of the most interesting she told were that the National President, Mrs. Winter, was there and also Mrs. Pennybacker. Both spoke at the meeting, and each received a splendid ovation from the audience. Another interesting thing was that Haskell county ranks sixteenth from an educational standpoint. Then she said she was made to feel very proud of three West Texas women, Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, one of the cleverest speakers at the meeting, Mrs. Walter Robertson, president of the First District, who had one of the best reports given and our own Mrs. J. U. Fields, whom she had heard spoken of by three Districts other than the First District as a future State President.

One of the nicest social affairs was the Jubilee Dinner given to delegates from clubs twenty or more years old. This entitled our delegate to attend, as the Magazine Club has been a flourishing concern for more than twenty years.

The First Presbyterian Church
Our Motto: "To know Christ and to make Him known to others."
Our preaching service is every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. No preaching service at night. Please note the changes in the following hours: Sunday School 9:45; Christian Endeavor, 6:00 Sunday evening; Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.
At this season of the year every grateful heart instinctively turns to the Great Giver of all good things. Not to be grateful is to sink below even the brute creation. The dog wags his tail in appreciation of what you feed him; and even the hog looks up while he chews. Our services will help you develop the spirit and habit of thankfulness. A church where you will receive the glad hand of fellowship. Come.
Our church takes pleasure in the opportunity of uniting with the other churches of the city in a Thanksgiving Service at the Methodist Church Wednesday night before Thanksgiving Day.

Perry-Densmore
Hoyt Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Perry of the Post community, and Miss Thelma Densmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Densmore of the Howard community, were married at the courthouse Monday.
Both of the contracting parties are members of prominent families in the Post and Howard communities and have many friends throughout the county who join the Free Press in extending congratulations and best wishes.
The happy young couple will make their home in the Post community.

Dendy-Evans
Hugh Dendy and Miss Sallie Evans of the Midway community were married in this city last Saturday, Rev. McHenry Seal performing the ceremony. Both of the young people are well and favorably known here and their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

Thursday Luncheon Club
Mrs. W. E. Kirpatrick was hostess to the Thursday Luncheon Club in an all day meeting on November 16th. At 12:00 an elaborate buffet luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Daugherty, Lebo and Roberts. Each dish which had been prepared by some club member, was a creation of art and the guests lingered long over the delicious viands.
The afternoon hours were given to fancy work and pleasant conversation which went steadily on despite the inclement weather on the outside. Those enjoying the day were: Mesdames W. M. Reed, F. L. Daugherty, Alfred Pierson, Elmer Irwin, M. B. Lebo, B. M. Whiteaker, G. W. Waldrop, H. S. Wilson, T. J. Arbockle, S. A. Roberts, J. M. Gilstrap, Dale Anderson, Leon Gilliam and the hostess.

Mrs. W. H. Murchison Hostess
Mrs. Murchison gave a most attractively planned Luncheon to the members of the Thursday Bridge Club Thursday. The rooms were tastefully decorated with snap dragons. The table center piece was a crystal bowl of fruits. The place cards were miniature turkeys and the favors were turkey bon bon boxes of salted nuts. These together with the crystal candlesticks with lighted candles lent a holiday air to the whole.
A four course luncheon was served, and in the afternoon bridge was the diversion and about time for the guests to depart Mr. Murchison surprised the hostess by sending a treat of two boxes of candy for her guests and herself.

Mrs. John Oates won high score.
Those enjoying this hospitality were: Mesdames John and Hill Oates, Jean Pierre and Claiborne Payne, J. A. Broadus and J. E. Bernard.

Miss Mattie Letha Pippin Entertains
Miss Pippin entertained a few of her friends with a party at her home Friday evening. After a delightful evening spent in playing games, refreshments were served.

Harmony Club Notes
The Harmony Club met Wednesday, November 15th, at 8 o'clock. Eighteen members responded to roll call. After the business hour an excellent program was rendered.

The subject for the lesson being American Negro Music, Mrs. Brasher as leader gave a very interesting and instructive introductory talk on Negro Music.

Mesdames Patterson, Brasher and Pace gave instrumental solos. Miss Taylor sang a negro lullaby.
The club sang two choruses led by Miss Taylor.
Mrs. Brasher gave two numbers on our new Victrola.
After a round table discussion on Negro Music the Club adjourned to meet November 22nd.

Purdon-Reid
T. J. Purdon and Miss Eva Reid of the Sagerton community were married last Sunday at the Baptist Church in Sagerton. Rev. McHenry Seal, pastor, performed the ceremony. Both of the contracting parties reside in the Sagerton community and have many friends who wish for them a long, happy, and prosperous life.

Grandmother Hale is Dead.
Mrs. Elizabeth Hale, one of the pioneer residents of Haskell, passed away on Monday morning November 20th.

Grandmother Hale, as she was lovingly called by her many friends, had lived here for thirty years, making her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Hudson. She was born in Warren county, Tennessee, but moved to Texas forty-five years ago. Grandmother Hale was 93 years old last June, and much of her time was spent in doing thoughtful and kind deeds for others. She leaves her daughter, Mrs. Hudson, a number of grand-children, two brothers, and scores of friends to mourn her loss. One brother, J. C. Tittle of Meridian, was present at the funeral services, and the other, B. H. Tittle, lives at Walnut Springs. Mrs. John Robertson of Mineral Wells, and Mrs. L. T. Cunningham of Houston, had been with their grandmother for some time before her death. A further tribute will be paid next week.

All Stars vs. High School

The game scheduled for today (Friday) with the Stamford American Legion team, one of the strongest teams in West Texas, was called off by the Stamford team, but to see a good game the All-Stars and the High School will lock horns at the ball park this afternoon. This game is for the sole purpose of awarding the High School football sweaters, or miniature footballs. Every one that witnesses this game is guaranteed a real game, and will not be disappointed, as such men will be on the All-Stars line-up that have played on the high school team when it was in its infancy.

Probably this will be the last game played here, as the locals journey to Munday on Thanksgiving Day and that game will end the season, although it has been stated before the season would end with the Seymour game it still continues. Don't lose interest just because Haskell was unlucky this year, as a team cannot win always, and this year was the unlucky one. Be on hand at the Ball Park this afternoon to witness a real game and do your part to reward the boys who labored faithfully this year to hold our reputation; was against them and they let them promise a winning team next year.

What are you going to do WHEN SATURDAY NIGHT COMES?

Curtains 6, Bear Cats 0

Last Friday was a day that will be remembered by all Curtains for on that day the Bear Cats went down in defeat at the hands of those dreaded ones that were so feared in football history all over West Texas. The game will go down in the annals of the Curtains Club history as one of the long-awaited for and long-wished for ambitions—that of defeating the Bear Cats in athletics as well as debating, declamations, and all other things pertaining to the school.

Bear Cat fans looked with awe on the Curtains tribe line-up for battle. They saw the famous aggregation that had played the "bad" Bear Cats a scoreless tie. There was Reynolds Wilson, big as an elephant and just as strong, working in the backfield with Leon Pearsey and Calvin Middleton, fleet of foot and hard-hitting, and Maurice Smith, the star punter of the season. On the line were the two guards that kept the gate shut on defensive and open on offensive. The Bear Cats had a good line up but it was too heavy to penetrate the heavy line of the Curtains, causing them to resort to the aerial attack all together. Considerable gains were made in this manner at different times but with a few exceptions they did not make much gain on their passes. Their "merry-go-round" play netted them about five yards, which was needed terribly bad at that time. The work of Chapman, Smith and English started for the Bear Cats, while the fierce line plunging of Wilson and Smith's punting for the Curtains were life-savers for them. Middleton and Pearsey were called on in pinches to make gains through the weak line of the Bear Cats.

The game started with a heavy line for the Curtains and a light fast line for the Bear Cats. The Bear Cats had both Centers, both halfbacks, both ends and both quarters while the Curtains only had the two guards and two tackles of the first team but nevertheless, the teams were evenly divided and one of the best games of the season was played. Early in the game the Bear Cats decided that "Human heads could not pierce stone walls," so they decided on the aerial attack. In the first few minutes of play the Bear Cats rushed the ball up to the Curtains line but by a fumble lost it. The Curtains tried to kick out but the kick was blocked for two points for the Bear Cats. Five times they were close enough to make touch-downs, only to fumble the ball or to be pushed back by the strong defense of the Curtains.

Practically all of the Curtains' gain were made through the line by brilliant line plugging of the whole back-field. A fine spirit was kept up throughout the whole game among the players and on the sidelines as well. No one sustained injuries with the exception of "Sawdust" Glenn, who ran into one of the Curtains' "Brick Walls." He has not been able to find out whose head it was but he knows that it was rather hard.

Following is the line-up for both of the teams:

Curtains	Position	Bear Cats
R. Carter	L. E.	C. Smith
M. Crow	L.T.	E. McKeynolds
J. L. McCollum	L.G.	B. Bagwell
E. Sanders	C.	R. Pierson
G. Crow	R.G.	G. Glenn
J. W. Whiteker	R.T.	G. Cliff
J. Bibe	R.E.	C. Chapman
C. Middleton	R.H.	E. English
M. Smith	Q.	K. Oates
L. Pearsey	L. H.	L. Carrothers
R. Wilson	F.B.	J. Kirkpatrick

R. Watson substituted for J. L. McCollum in second half.

A good crowd was out for this game and the faculty was glad to see this as it helped the Athletic Association in getting out of debt. Basket ball season will begin immediately and we hope that the people of Haskell will back the basket ball team better than they did the football team the past year. Haskell is going to have one of the best basket ball teams it has had in several years and we hope that we can get the proper backing from the business men and women as well as the high school students.

Bran Muffin Recipe By Washington Chef

Anthony Giacofci

Housewives may now regale their guests with the same kind of bran muffins Marshal Poch and many other noted visitors at Washington have talked about. The opportunity is presented through Anthony Giacofci, chef of the New Willard Hotel, one of the big hotels of the National Capital. Here is the recipe which Chef Giacofci says will make one dozen muffins:

Four tablespoonfuls flour, four tablespoonfuls bran, one tablespoonful lard, one tablespoonful butter, one tablespoonful baking powder, one tablespoonful sugar, two eggs, one-fourth pint cold milk, a pinch of salt.
 Mix the above thoroughly, flour with baking powder, add lard and butter, mix and add bran, eggs and milk, bake in hot oven twenty minutes.
