By Diana Eudy
The Rivercrest Rebels defeated the Maud Cardinals in last week's district play 72-52. The Rebs led by one at the end of the first period 18-17. Anthony Brown hit for 8, Kelly Jeffery for 6 and Scott Branch for 4. Rivercrest let go with 21 markers in the second stanza and defensively allowed only 7. The spread widened with a halftime score of 39-24. Scott Branch popped the net with 8 points, James Anderson with 6, Kelly Jeffery with 4, Anthony Brown with 2, and Randy Galloway with 1. The Cardinals never got close again as they scored 14 in the third quarter to the Rebs' 12. Branch hit for 4 and Anderson, Jeffery, Galloway and Brown for 2 each. Rivercrest pulled out another 21 points in the final period to Maud's 14 for a victory 72-52. Branch connected for 7, Jeffery for 6, Brown for 4 and Anderson and Jasso for 2 each.

Scoring totals for the Rebels were Branch with 23, Jeffery with 18, Brown with 16, Anderson with 10, Galloway with 3, and Jasso with 2. Rivercrest came very close to a hundred point game last Friday night as they soundly defeated Como-Pickton 97-30.

The Rebels sported six players with double digit totals. Kelly Jeffery led the group with 17 followed by Bobby Thomas with 15, Anthony Brown with 14, James Anderson with 13, Scott Branch with 11, and Randy Galloway with 10. Outstanding play from all members of the squad gave Rivercrest the victory. The Rebs scored 25 points in the first period to the Eagles 8. This set the pace for the entire contest. Rivercrest racked up 29 more for a halftime tally of 54-14. The Reb defense allowed the Eagles only 6. The outclassed Como-Pickton team managed six more in the third period. Rivercrest answered with 18 - their lowest quarter score of the game. The Rebels added another 25 points to their runaway lead in the final period for the victory 97-30. The Eagles scored 10. Others scoring for the Rebels were Kyle Hatley with 8, Tony Jasso with 5, and Bobby Wisinger with 4.

By Nanalee Nichols
Not too long ago there was something on the television about hospitalization insurance for pets. I watched it...and laughed. fore fool me!
The night after I limped home from the hospital after knee surgery, my nine year old house cat decided to "better" me. She was attacked and mauled by three dogs.
Now, that cat is pretty tough, she can handle any dog on a one-on-one basis...but not three large ones at the same time.
So, she went into the hospital with a fractured tail, a mangled leg, dislocated hip and some very serious lacerations.
She went into the hospital at 3:30 in the morning...and there is an extra charge for veterinary emergency service. She came home three days later...with more medicine than I had!
Compared to her arrage of powders, bottles and pills, my two little prescriptions looked extremely puny. So did my knee incisions compared to her.
She had special food, and I spent a lot of time sitting and talking to her, since neither one of us could walk. But within three days she worsened.

Thus the second trip to the hospital. A change of medicine, lancing of an abscess, drains in the leg, etc. No ICU human patient ever looked much worse.
So, again she came home. And she did well, for about four days, when the sneezing began. Back she went, for an IV, but at least we didn't have to leave her that time!
But there was talk then of something new. If she didn't get the ability to move her tail back soon, it would have to be amputated.
At present the cat is up, about, eating us out of house and home and lying comfortably in front of the fireplace.
However, I look at the stack of receipts for the trips and hospitalization and medication and wonder...what company do you reckon HAS that pet hospitalization!

Rebelettes Breeze Through Last Two Games

By Diana Eudy
The Rivercrest Rebelettes defeated the Maud Cardinals in last week's action 50-40. The Reb fems played their best quarter of the year during the first quarter. This time period was the key to their victory. Becky Brooks and Jackie Via made some key outside shots to open up the game. They made the scores when they were needed.
Kim Reeder led the squad with six steals. Reeder made two offensive and two defensive rebounds.
Mary Savage was top pointer with 14 and had two steals to her credit. Savage made five offensive and eight defensive rebounds.
Stacy Griffin also played a good defensive game with one steal and four offensive and three defensive rebounds.
The Rebelettes scored 20 points in the first quarter. Their defense allowed only nine for the Cardinals. Rivercrest had the lead-all they had to do was hold on to it. They scored an additional 10 points for a halftime lead 30-19. The Cardinals scored 12 points in the third period to come within five 36-31. Rivercrest connected for 14 in the final period to Maud's 9 for the 50-40 victory.

Scoring totals for the Rebelettes were Savage with 14; Ward, Brooks and Griffin each with 8; adn Reeder, Foxworthy and Via each with 4.
The Rebelettes captured last Friday night's game against the Como-Pickton Eagles 74-23.

Coach Frank Stubblefield said, "This was probably our best defensive effort for the entire team. It would be difficult to single out any girl in particular. It was a team effort."
The Reb fems made 25 team steals and 30 offensive and defensive rebounds.
Some of the JV girls were brought up as substitutes on the varsity. Delores Simpson has been out due to a sprained ankle.
Rivercrest scored 23 points in the first period. The Eagles only made 2. From here it was a runaway.
The Rebelettes added 16 to their lead for a halftime tally of 39-12. They scored 16 and 19 respectively in the third and final quarters for the 74-23 victory. Scoring totals were Mary Savage with 22, Pam Ward with 13, Becky Brooks with 10, Kelly Anschutz with 6, Stacy Griffin and Jackie Via each with 5, Kristi Fox-worthy and Donna Sessums each with 4, Kim Reeder with 3, and Amber Hood with 2.

Footprints From The Past

By John W. Hood
While trying to keep warm during all the cold weather, we had the last of December made me think about how we kept warm when I was growing up. We would build a big fire in the fireplace and then all the family would gather around and that way we could stay warm if we did not have to go to another room or outside for some reason and when that happened you would put on all the clothes that you had and make a run for it and you never did tarry very long either.

It kept you warm a little bringing in wood for the fireplace. I do believe that those old fireplaces could burn a rick of wood a day and still not keep you warm.
Sometimes after supper and when we had gotten the dishes washed and our lessons for the next day, Mom would make some taffy candy and then we would all help pull it. I did not know why you had to pull the candy to get it ready to eat but you did. I still don't, and if any of you know, I wish you would tell me the next time you see me.
After we had the candy ready to eat and were sitting around waiting for it to cool, Dad would start to tell of some of the experiences that he had when he was a young man and then that would get Mom started telling of her experiences when she was a girl. As I look back on those times they seem to stand out as all the family was gathered around the kitchen table talking and eating some good candy made by my Mom with the help of all the family.

The summers were another thing altogether, as there was no way to stay cool as there was no electricity in the country and not very many families who lived in town had electric fans. The only way to stay cool was to use an old Garrett snuff fan that was such a job that you got hot trying to stay cool.
I think I liked the winters best for there were a lot of chores we had to do in the summer that we did not have in the winter. I can still remember when my sister was dating, we lived at a place where we had no grass on the lawn and sis would have my brother and I sweeping the yard and raking the chicken feathers out from under the house every Saturday morning as she didn't want her boyfriend to see the yard with the chicken feathers.
When Saturday evening came, me and my brother wanted to see and talk to her boyfriend as we thought that he had come to see us also, now that I am grown. I can see why she did not want us hanging around.
We didn't have the ice boxes then as we know them now but as we grew older and things did progress, we did have the old ice boxes where you had to put the ice in them. In fact, when I was in high school, I had a job delivering ice and I had a pair of the smartest mules that I ever did see, as they knew the ice route better than I did. They would pass up the houses where we had no delivery and only stop at the ones who got ice and while I was delivering to one house, the mules would go on up to the next house and wait for me to come and get the ice and then they would go on to the next house.

That was a lot of hard work but it was interesting as I got to see what everyone was having for their meals and also the ones who keep beer and wine in their ice boxes, but I never did tell as that would have gotten me fired and jobs were too hard to come by.

History Of The Early Days Of Bogata

Although it has been a while, because of too much "regular" copy, the response to the "History of Bogata" has been gratifying. So, here we go with yet another installment.

Prior to 1845 there were some educational activities in the Maple Springs community. The smaller children were taught in the homes by paid teachers; that is, paid by private families. The older children were sent away to school. One of the Humphries children was sent to Daingerfield, Texas, which had an uncommonly good school at that time. The tuition was paid in butter, as many as fifty pounds of butter being sent at a time to care for the tuition. Also, there was MacKenzie College, a few miles from Clarksville, which was considered one of the best schools of its time and was patronized by several states. Many of the older citizens had finished their education here, and it was indeed a privilege and distinction to have gone to school there.

"Mrs. Clatterback, formerly Miss Elizabeth Humphries, and the mother of Mrs. Neil Howison, attended a school in 1845, which was three and one-half miles southeast of Bogata, but this one was the nearest one to the community. This school was taught by Felty Cheek of Johntown community, grandfather of Miss Maggie McGill.

"The first school of Bogata was established in 1862 during the Civil War.

This school, of twenty pupils, was taught in the home of George Howison, Miss Sallie Howison's father, by Miss Carrie Simms, a former pupil of MacKenzie College, near Clarksville.

"In the year 1863 the school term was taught by Miss Leona Young in the Howison home. The Civil War closed during this term and one day the children were frightened very badly when a company of Yankees passed through town, passing by the school building and camped near the Humphries Triangle. It is no matter of small speculation what the red-haired school marm told the hated Yankees when they passed her heretofore peaceful charges. The next term was taught by Miss Lizzie Doss in a private home near the place where Mrs. Heck Patterson now lives.

"In 1865 the first building was erected north of where the present school building now stands. It was a small, one room box house. The pupils were very proud of it however, for it contained a glass window. The seats were long planks, only a few of which had backs. There was a writing desk near the wall where the pupils could sit and practice writing when they had finished their studies. "Uncle Jimmie Thomas", grandfather of Dan Thomas and Mrs. Maggie Lee Pope, taught this school which was very successful.

"The terms of the next three years, 1867, 68 and 69, were taught by Misses Leona Young and Lizzie Saunders who taught two terms. At this time the school term consisted of five months.

"Miss Saunders was followed by Dan Patterson who taught two very successful terms. Mr. Patterson was a learned man and had received his education at the Alabama University. Miss Lizzie Armstrong taught the next term.

"In 1872 the first free school was taught by Dan Patterson. This term was very short and was not successful because northern books and rules were used, to which, of course, the southerners objected very much at that time.

"Mr. Worley taught in the spring of 1873. He later became a well known lawyer in Clarksville. A matter, though not relating in any way to school history, happened to Mr. Worley when he was a teacher here. He was returning home from school one afternoon and a large "coach whip snake" fell from a tree and wrapped itself about the body of Mr. Worley. By some forceful contriving he secured his pocket knife and had soon cut the snake loose from his body.

"Dr. Lee Howison taught the term of 1873 in an old log house west of the cemetery.

"Local option was voted in Bogata in 1875. This left vacant the saloon, and the next term of school was taught in that building near where Mr. Perkins now lives. Mr. J.E. Horner, Fred Horner's father taught the next two terms there. Several concerts were given and were enjoyed by the entire town.

"About this time, the people felt the need of a church, and built a nice box building, forty feet by sixty feet, where the Park now is. The building was used for church on Sunday and for a school during the week. Mr. Horner was a teacher and taught two terms.

"Mr. Horner was followed by Captain Rice who taught two terms. Many of our older citizens were taught by him: Dr. W.H. Grayson, Judge Morrison and Congressman Garner were pupils of this term. Mr. St. Cyr taught the next two terms. Mr. Eugene Scales, better known as "Sog" Scales followed him. Mr. Scales later became a millionaire.

"As there was a difference among the people at this time, 1887, Miss Agnes Work taught in the old school building, and Mr. Ladell built the Charley Rodgers' home at his own expense and taught here, afterwards he used this as his residence. He was assisted by Miss Sallie Howison in the spring and Mrs. Fannie Howison in the fall. He taught here two years.

"Another building was erected in 1889 where the Dave Everhart home now stands. Mr. Hudspeth taught the first term here. The second was taught by Miss Minnie Ragland.

BANK CENTS

By Neil Rozell

In order to carry on routine operations and be able at all times to redeem deposits on demand, all commercial banks must have on hand or subject to call an adequate amount of currency relative to the volume of their deposit liabilities. There must be vault cash to meet day to day demands and additional funds on hand or on deposit with other banks to meet a sudden increase in demand for cash payments. The proportion to cash deposit may vary from time to time, primarily depending on the type of economy and the size of the bank.

Family TAX TIPS

Family Tax Tips
by W.G. Johnson, CPA

A taxpayer whose taxable income substantially increases in the current year may benefit from income averaging. If the taxpayer is eligible for averaging, a portion of his current year income may be taxed at a reduced rate. Eligibility exists if an individual was a U.S. citizen for the current year and the preceding four (4) years, provided his own support for the same period, and has current averageable income in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00). In general, averageable income is the amount by which current taxable income exceeds thirty percent (30%) of total taxable income for the preceding four (4) years.

The averaging computation must be made on schedule G of form 1040 and attached to the federal tax return.

If you have a tax question, write to W.G. Johnson, CPA, P.O. Box 639, Frankfort, Ky. 40602.

First Baptist Hosts District Meeting

The First Baptist Church of Talco hosted the district meeting for the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary to the Fellowship Association last Thursday.

Mrs. Catherine Campbell, president, called the meeting to order with Bro. Terry Barnett leading the congregational singing with Mrs. Janice Jones at the piano.

Mrs. Janet Shoffner of Mt. Pleasant brought the devotional on Missions. Her scripture was Mark 16:15.

Prayer was voiced by the program chairman, Mrs. Willie Jo Mills before she introduced the program on missions with emphasis on Japan. She asked two ladies, Mrs. Billie Jean White of Pittsburg and Mrs. Janet Shoffner to imagine that their husband had been called to Japan or some foreign country as missionaries then give their reactions. After Mrs. White and Mrs. Shoffner spoke, there was audience participation on the subject.

During the business session, reports from the WMA and minutes were read and approved. Mrs. Campbell reported that over half of the goal set for this year's project had already been reached.

Bro. Glen Carroll said the closing prayer.

The Bethel Baptist Church in Pittsburg will host their next meeting on April 1, 1984.

Weekly Agricultural Briefs

By Herb Brevard

Heavier hay feeding during the extremely cold weather in December depleted some hay supplies much more than is normally expected. Possible hay shortages later in the winter are causing some producers to wonder about planting ryegrass now. Dr. Sim A. Reeves, Jr., agronomist, says that it is very questionable that enough production will be realized from ryegrass planted in sod now to justify the expense and the competition with warm season grasses later in the spring. However, planting ryegrass on a prepared seedbed where smallgrain was killed could be profitable. The ryegrass can utilize the fertilizer previously applied for the smallgrain and will face less competition from warm season grasses. If planted now, ryegrass will not be ready to graze before March 1 and good production will not be realized until spring grasses began to grow.

Several chores need to be done concerning insects this time of year. According to Dr. James Robinson, entomologist, this is a good time to get pantry pests, household insects and stored product insects under control. Sanitation and the proper insecticide is the key to controlling these pests. Lice on cattle should also be controlled to help keep the animals in good condition.

Estimate Tax Now To Avoid Penalty

When lawmakers set up the tax law, they made it a pay as you go system. If you have a job where taxes are withheld from each paycheck, based on the number of allowances you claim, there is likely to be no problem. But if you have other income of $500 or more, from self-employment, interest, dividends, capital gains, or rents for example, where there is no withholding, there may be a problem, the Internal Revenue says.

Generally, you may be required to pay estimated tax if you expect to owe $400 or more in tax for 1984, and you either expect to have $500 in income not subject to withholding or expect your gross income to be more than: $20,000 if you are single, a head of household, or a qualifying widow or widower, or $20,000 if you are married, entitled to make joint estimated tax payments and your spouse has not received wages for 1984, or $10,000 if you are married, entitled to make joint estimated tax payments, and both of you have received wages for 1984, or $5,000 if you are married and not entitled to make joint estimated tax payments.

Generally, when all is said and done, if you owe $400 or more in taxes for 1984 you might be in for a surprise, a penalty for not making estimated tax payments or for not paying enough estimated tax. The penalty for not making estimated tax payments, or for not paying in enough estimated tax is 16 percent a year from January 1 to June 30, 1983, and 11 percent a year from July 1, 1983 to June 30, 1984, and the penalty cannot be abated. However, you will not have penalty if:

You had no tax liability last year, were a U.S. citizen or resident for the entire year, and your taxable year was a taxable year of 12 months.

The amount of your income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1984 is equal to or more than your total tax for 1983, or,

The amount of your income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1984 is more than would have been due on your 1983 income using 1983 rates and personal exemptions, or,

The amount of your income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1984 is equal to or more than 90 percent of the tax on your actual taxable income for 1984 for the periods from January 1, 1984 to March 31, May 31 or August 31, 1984.

If you believe you should be making estimated tax payments and you also have wages from which income tax is withheld, you may be able to fill out a new Form W-4, "Employee's Withholding Certificate," and have more withheld each pay period instead of making estimated tax payments.

For more information contact the IRS for the free Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax."
