

Local Newspapers Conduct Solid "Wollop"

Newspapers pack a solid wallop for Texas business and residential communities alike...far outdistancing all other forms of communication.

Results of Texas Consumer Survey 84, the largest and most comprehensive study ever conducted on readership, listening, viewing and shopping habits, heavily documents Texas newspaper superiority.

+86.3 percent of Texans read a newspaper every week, with 80 percent reading their local community newspaper;

+70.6 percent of Texas newspaper readers usually read local merchant ads and

+87.6 percent of the readers say that the ads in their local newspaper are important to them personally.

These are just three of the dozens of highlights revealed by the statewide study which was conducted by Consumer Data Service of Oklahoma City.

The massive survey was under the supervision of Dr. Ernest Larkin, director of the Journalism Research Center, University of Oklahoma.

The study also provides in depth detail of the vast audience appeal of Texas newspapers. This portion of the data emphasized: 69.6 percent read at least five issues of their local daily, and 84.3 percent read every issue of their local weekly newspaper; 72.6 percent of local newspaper readers who responded to the survey are married; over 50 percent of the families subscribing to local newspapers comprise three or more people;

Lyndell Williams, Executive Vice-

President of the Texas Press Association in Austin, after receiving the huge study report said this week:

"This survey not only confirms what major advertising retailers already know, but also provides undeniable proof of newspaper strength in all other areas as well."

He cited the high readership interest in local news as an example of "newspaper wallop for a better informed community and state." Williams pointed out the following additional facts that were revealed by the survey data:

+82.8 percent of Texans read all local news in their newspapers;

+70.3 percent read the special sections;

+58.4 percent read the editorials, and

+54.3 percent read the state news.

Williams also cited local merchant ads as the most thoroughly read advertising matter. Those figures read: 89 percent of Texas newspaper readers usually or at least sometimes read all local merchant advertising; 85.4 percent usually or sometimes read all grocery ads; 85.8 percent usually or sometimes read all the inserts in newspapers, and 85.59 percent usually or sometimes read department store advertising.

The survey also outlined the strengths and weaknesses of direct mail along with radio and television.

Direct mail advertising in Texas, much of it conducted by out of state firms, is usually read by 43.7 percent of the addresses, with only 31 percent of that number reading all of a single mailing.

Radio and television while being listened to by as much as 73 percent of Texas consumers and seen by at least that many people, nevertheless, must divide those numbers by dozens of stations and channels. And the most watched cable television channels of all don't even accept advertising.

John Taylor, Director of the Texas Newspaper Advertising Bureau explained that an analysis of the massive survey easily reveals numerous additional newspaper assets that may be overlooked at first glance.

Taylor explained: "Every Texas newspaper is a dues payer to its community and state, as well as a major contributor to a better society. Texas newspapers, their publishers and staffs have spent lifetimes creating communities that justify the investment of millions of dollars by major retailers.

"Our newspapers represent major local payrolls and substantial taxpayers to the local, county and state governments. And in all cases, one newspaper and not more than two thoroughly dominates the markets which they serve.

"Texas newspapers represent quite a choice from the major direct mailers who often don't even pay state taxes, and the electronic media which must share its hour by hour audience with about 50 competitors."

In pursuit of the elusive memories...that's what we intend to do.

Folks who can remember some little tidbit about the past residents in our communities, please call, write or drop by.

While talking the other day, someone recalled Kate Larrimore, a dear little lady who painted...not just pictures...but just about everything. Her "42" score cards would have tiny little bluebonnet scenes hand-painted on them, her programs for club meetings, indeed just about everything imaginable was delicately decorated.

That brought on other conversations, such as Willy Gus Garren and his total devotion to the Bogata rodeo...how he was involved in it until his health became too bad, and then stood almost as if at attention in his yard as the rodeo parade went by.

There are lots and lots of people with memories that could be shared, bringing back for just a moment the past, or the present!

Dan Boren of Blossom is a fixture at the vegetable and fruit shed there...Pleas Turner at the Dry Goods Store in Bogata, the Jones' at the Talco State Bank...and the list goes on and on.

So, if you have a favorite memory, share it with us...we'd love to have enough to run one every week.

I'll start off...as a child there was an elderly man who did the mowing all over the creek bank in Deport. The way he kept the banks mowed was with a small herd of cows. He spent the long summer days slowly herding the cattle up and down the creek from early morning until it became really hot, when he drove them home. His name...I don't know...the peaceful, pastoral scene he created...I'll never forget.

Come on folks, just a line or two, let us recall some of the things that make our communities the treasure of scenes and memories they are.

Rivercrest Loses To Mt. Vernon

By Diana Eudy

Faithful fans sat in the stands last Friday night in Rivercrest Rebel Stadium. The game was hampered by downpour after downpour but the people stayed. The Rebels dropped the game 32-6 to the Mt. Vernon Tigers.

The Tigers took the first score with 2:35 remaining in the first quarter. Carl Fountain, 190 lb. running back, ran it in from the five. The conversion was good for an 8-0 lead for Mt. Vernon.

Early in second period the Rebs were forced to punt. Mt. Vernon fumbled the ball and an alert Jerry Simpson promptly fell on it. This set up a two-play series by Kyle Roland resulting in a 21 yard run into the endzone. The two point run by Charlie Roberts was unsuccessful and with 11:18 remaining in the half, the board read 6-8, Mt. Vernon.

Rebel halfback Kyle Roland was injured with a blow to the throat and was treated on the sidelines by Dr. E.E. Brooks and Red River Ambulance attendants. He was reported doing well and hopefully will return Friday night against Karnack.

The Rebel defense kept up steady pressure on the Tiger offense causing fumble after fumble but Mt. Vernon's luck held and they managed to make the recoveries. Shane Wright, 163 lb. junior was responsible for most of the Rebel stops. Other tackles were made by Paul Yeatman, Chris Alford, Charles Lewis, Jerry Belcher, James Anderson, Bobby Williamson, Greg Russell, David Mauldin, J.D. Wright and Jerry Simpson.

Late in the second quarter Mt. Vernon's Carl Fountain ran it in again for the score. The kick was no good, bringing the score to 14-6 in favor of the Tigers. They took this lead into the locker room at the half.

The bands representing both teams declined to march during the break. It proved to be a wise decision as yet another deluge fell.

The third quarter was controlled by the AAA Mt. Vernon Tigers. Carl Fountain carried most of the time and when he gets the ball that often, eventually he's going to get the score. With 3:47 left, Fountain marched in from the one for six points. The kick was no good for a score of Mt. Vernon 26 - Rivercrest 6.

Despite the valiant efforts of the Rebel defense the Tigers would score one more time with 5:15 left in the game. Their conversion failed for a final tally of 32-6.

The Rivercrest defense put up a good fight against the 3A Tigers. The Rebs showed they have a lot of heart, they never let up until the final buzzer.

Coach Terry Giddens commented, "Our boys never quit. They held them as long as they could but Mt. Vernon broke loose. The rain hurt our passing game but the really positive thing was that the boys didn't quit even when they were down."

The Rebels had 59 yards rushing and completed two of ten attempts for 28 yards passing. They recovered two of three fumbles and made eleven first downs. The Rebs punted five times for 176 yards and were penalized for twenty yards.

The Tigers rushed for 347 yards and attempted no passes. They fumbled six times and recovered seven. The Tigers made 29 first downs. They punted one time for 43 yards and were penalized 36 yards.

Rivercrest will host Karnack Friday night. Karnack is located southeast of Jefferson, close to the Louisiana line. Kickoff time will be 7:30 p.m. this week.

There will not be a Rebel JV game Thursday night. The eighth grade Rebel team will play at 6 p.m. in Karnack.

Wheels For Life Sponsors Sought

Riders for the Saturday, October 13 St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Wheels for Life Bike-A-Thon are asking Bogata citizens to pledge a contribution for each mile of the ride.

"Every mile our bikers go, earns money bringing us closer to a cure for cancer. The life-saving study of childhood cancer at St. Jude has become critical to children all over the world," said Mrs. Neil Rozell, chairman.

The ride starts at the asphalt plant lot behind the Bogata Gin at 9:30 and goes a two mile course on the Prairie road. If you haven't been asked to sponsor a rider, but are interested, please call 632-5752 and a rider will contact you.

Each rider gets a lap card at registration. Every time riders pass the check points, we initial the card. At the end of the ride, we check and sign it to show that the rider earned what the sponsor pledged. Riders return to sponsors to collect the pledge.

Riders can still get sponsor registration forms at Dean Ward's Grocery, Joe Ford Grocery and Huddleston Grocery in Bogata.

"Love Your Minister" Month Being Observed

The Assemblies of God Churches have picked the month of September to observe "Love Your Minister Month". It was changed two years ago from Pastor Appreciation Month, so that all ministers whether pastors, evangelists, missionaries or retired ministers will be included.
