We painted the office last week. It needed it. The leaky roof that was fixed last wear had provided the walls rown streaks, the ceiling with lo tiles looked like they had served for a tobacco spitting contest (water stains, again) and the places whee we had moved things hanging on the walls revealed pale patches of clean (by comparison) paint.

The painting was uneventful. The, resultant cleaning is probably typical. The new paint necessitated some furniture moving, which meant cleaning out some stuff crammed into the back recesses of drawers and shelves. I swear, we found an American flag so old it only had thirteen stars!

Well, if you don't believe that one, right alongside of it was a Texas flag so old that it served at the battle of San Jacinto.

But, seriously, the stuff we threw out was old, unused and dirty. Still, we hated to part with it, and didn't with all of it.

After the walls and ceilings looked so good, the furniture looked awfully dirty. So, we enameled all the wooden bookcases, cabinets and copydrawers.

Those ancient pieces of wooden furniture were actually made from old shoe crates....one shelf unit even has a wild peacock decorated panel of

Other officers of the fire department and their offices ae: Wayne Binion, Assistant Fire Chief; Ray Parsons, First Captain; Randy Pitts, Reporter; Ennis Brown, Administrator; Morris Brown, Training Officer.

The Talco Volunteer Fire Department has been kept very busy during the months of December and January. Already in January the department has answered approximately 25 calls in both the county and in the city of Talco. The department would like to thank the people who are careful when they start a fire. These careful people are those who start the fire and watch it, not leave to find something else to do. The weather conditions are favorable for fires. The grass is extremely dry, and the wind has a tendency to blow very high.

All it takes to start a fire is a small spark, the wind will help it spread out of control. Remember, if you start a fire, stay with it, and if it gets out of hand, call the fire department at 379-3331.

Of course, when the wooden furniture looked bright and nice, the metal desks and tables looked dirty. So, we dug out the cleaner and started scrubbing THEM!

It seemed like a never ending snowball situation. Finally, things put back in place, desks scrubbed, furniture painted, walls and ceilings all nice and neat, we looked at the whole thing with something closely akin to relief!

Only thing is, now that concrete floor looks really grubby. That means, you guessed it, we're going to have to paint the FLOOR!

We have a Speaker's Bureau established to help groups just like yours. We have a number of topics available through our Speaker's Bureau for you to choose. For instance, if you're as concerned about your safety as we are, we can speak to your group about that topic. Ask for the Speaker's Bureau presentation called "How to Prevent the Shock of Your Life."

This speech cautions you to avoid all contact with power lines and warns you not to use electrical appliances around water. For more information about electrical safety, or other TNP Speaker's Bureau talks, contact your local TNP office. Speakers are available for your organization
