

Area Agriculture Hard Hit By "Crunch"

By Nanalee Nichols
Farmers are busy "dry cleaning" their fields, planting, fertilizing and getting ready for a new growing season.
In what is traditionally a season for hope, renewed faith in the soil and its bounty, a dark cloud hangs over their heads.
Farmers, all over America, are going broke.
Latest reports show that Texas farmers are slightly better off than their mid-western counterparts. To quote they are "not going broke quite as fast".

Even so, thousands of Texas farmers, including many in this area, are filing bankruptcy, quitting to take other jobs, or applying for a conveyance of land and equipment to their loan source.
Falling prices, extreme increases in the cost of equipment, chemicals and fertilizer have all contributed to the pattern of gradual loss of income in the farm and cattle business.
The most dramatic problem has been the sharp drop in the price of farm land or pasture land. Where farmers did have a great deal of equity because prime land was selling for $600 to $1000 per acre, many cannot sell land for $350 per acre.

This land devaluation has hurt their borrowing ability. Two droughts and several moderate crop years contributed to the piling up of back debts.
Last year, in this area, crops were good, but prices were so poor that a break even situation was "good". There was no way to reduce debt size by any real margin.

Farm economist predictions are gloomy. They forecast more foreclosures and bankruptcies, and little hope for a rapid improvement in the situation.
Lamar and Red River Counties depend heavily on agriculture for revenue. Prairiland CISD's main source of tax money is from land owners and home owners, it has no heavy industry to contribute.
As if to further the problem, the disaster in the oil market has further contributed to a poor economic outlook for the future year.

Unemployment is up in Lamar County.
Agriculture related businesses, equipment and parts dealers, feed and fertilizer suppliers, chemical companies, mills, all feel the farm crunch. Their employees spend less, as well as the farmer.
What will correct the situation is uncertain. Whether the family farm will become a thing of the past, except in isolated cases, is yet to be seen.

Many predict corporate farms will be the solution. Many hope that it won't come to that, that prices will have to go up sharply as fewer and fewer acres of land are in production.

Whatever the answer, this spring, farmers don't have the same contented, satisfied look of a job well done at the end of a planted field. Instead they look.....worried.

By: Nanalee Nichols
It's known as a hug. It is one of the most reliable forms of communication known...and on occasion seems to be coming a lost art.
A small group of teachers and myself, were discussing the state of the world the other day. In passing, I admired a gift hung upon the wall, a pain-staking, carefully created gift requiring hours of work.
One of the teachers described the struggles and problems that a student (with a learning disability) went through, and said "one day I hugged her. In a few days she brought this to me". She continued that she tried to get the girl to keep it, that too much effort had gone into the project, but nothing else would do than her acceptance of the gift.
It illustrated a point, and we continued with the stories as we could tell of how a moment of hugging, laying a hand on the arm, a pat on the back, had inspired gratitude and confidence in the recipient.
Why has our society reduced touching in sympathy, understanding and affection to close family or friends? The sterile handshake tells us nothing.
There certainly is nothing indecent in the gestures I am referring to. There is, definitely, a desire to help, to comfort, to relate to our fellow humankind.
On a trip last spring there was an elderly woman who found herself frightened, alone and homesick on a long trip into a strange, strange world. She was found in tears on the boat's deck, trembling all over. Never having seen her before, a hug and invitation to have an ice tea and talk it over reduced her to more tears...of relief and happiness. For the next two days our little group patted, hugged, talked and made sure she was included in activities. When we left her, a happier person couldn't be found!
It seems a very little thing to do.
Notice when someone is telling something difficult for them. The person who takes a moment to lay a hand on their arm is usually the recipient of a thankful, heartfelt look. Yet, for some reason, many of us are reticent to do it.
Let's all loosen up just a bit. Let's get involved in other's unhappiness or distress just a little. Let's bring back the hug!

Area Gas Files For Increase
Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company, a division of Arkla, Inc., filed an adjustment to its retail rates for customers in the following towns within the company's East Texas natural gas service area: Atlanta, Avinger, Bloomburg, Daingerfield, DeKalb, Douglassville, Gilmer, Hooks, Hughes Springs, Jefferson, Leary, Linden, Lone Star, Maud, Miller's Cove, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Vernon, Naples, New Boston, Omaha, Ore City, Pittsburg, Queen City, Talco, Uncertain, Winfield and Winnshoro.
B.G. Nichols, Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company vice-president said the company had not filed for a rate adjustment in these towns for four

In addition to a reduction in purchased gas costs of approximately $.50 per Mcf over the past 15 months, the company has been on an operating cost reduction program.
"Through vigorous efforts, the company has reduced the total employment force through an early retirement program, reduced the number of company owned vehicles and other operating expenses, including bad debts, without sacrificing quality of service," he pointed out.

"The company intends to compete in the acquisition and sales of long range supplies of gas at lower and more stable prices for all its customers."

Talco Calvary Baptist Plan "Good News" Revival

Calvary Baptist Church will be participating in a nationwide simultaneous revival emphasis when they begin their "Good News, America, God Loves You," revival this Sunday, April 6.

The Good News revival emphasis is a Southern Baptist plan to evangelize all areas of Southern Baptist work in America. Each Southern Baptist church in America is being encouraged to conduct their spring revival at this time to coincide with revival efforts with other churches in the area.

Bro. J.B. Wascom, Missions Coordinator for the East Texas region will be the evangelist for the revival. Bro. Wascom was the interim pastor at Calvary, Talco, from October 1985 to April, 1986. He also was the pastor of First Baptist Church, Ore City, before moving to his present position.

Bro. Michael Howard, minister of Music and Youth, Emmanuel Baptist Church, Pittsburg, will direct the music. The church is making special plans for emphases for each service of the revival. The special events are as follows:

Sunday, April 6: Kick Off Sunday for Revival, 9:45 a.m., Bible Study for everyone; 11 a.m., opening service of revival; 12 noon, covered dish fellowship luncheon for everyone; 5:30 p.m., revival choir practice; 6:30 p.m., Sunday School night.

All week night services will be at 7 p.m.

Monday, April 7-God and Country night.

Tuesday, April 8-Children's Night, hog dog supper for all children, grade 6 and younger will be at 5:30 p.m.

Wednesday, April 9-Family Night, church-wide fellowship will follow the services.

Thursday, April 10-Youth Night, pizza party for all youth following services.

Friday, April 11-Special Music night, the service will include a mini-concert of special music led by Bro. Howard.

Sunday, April 13-conclude the Good News emphasis with goal of 120 in Sunday School.

Bro. Ted White, pastor of the church, and the members of Calvary Baptist Church extend a special invitation to everyone to come and worship the Lord with them during these days of revival. There is Good News today because Jesus is alive.

IT WAS AN EXCITING time for the 38 people who traveled to Wolf Creek Pass for a ski outing last week. Several members of the Jolntown Missionary Baptist Church and their guests left Sunday March 23 and arrived in South Fork, Colorado on Monday. They skied three days at Wolf Creek Ski Area. There was plenty of snow and plenty of sunshine to make their trip enjoyable. Each evening the group met in one of the cabins and enjoyed a time of fellowship and devotion led by Bro. Billy Daniels. This is the sixth year the group has made the trip, and the first year to have a broken bone. Mrs. Lee Hood, who does not ski, was standing outside watching, when someone ran into her and knocked her down, breaking her collar bone. Plans are already being made for the trip next year which will be during Spring Break, March 16-21.

Changing Jobs or Retiring?

Protect any lump sum distribution with a tax-deferred IRA!

If you're about to change jobs or retire from a company with either a pension or a profit-sharing plan, you could also be about to lose a lot of money to taxes!

That's why you should move your money into our rollover IRA. Because if you receive a lump sum distribution, it becomes taxable income if not "rolled over" into an IRA within 60 days.

Our IRA specialists know the ins and outs of lump sum distributions and will give you the facts on protecting pension or profit-sharing money through tax-deferred investment in an IRA.

For more information about our rollover IRA and related investment portfolios, call or come in and meet our tax shelter experts.

To the Voters of Red River County, Precinct 1:

Listed below are some of the issues that will be coming before the Commissioner's Court in the very near future which will have an effect on all of us in Precinct 1:

1. Preparation of the annual budget for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1986, and ending September 30, 1987. The current budget is in excess of $2.6 million.
2. The administration of the Indigent Health Care Act passed by the State Legislature last year that becomes effective September 1, 1986.
3. Handling the problem of overcrowding in the Red River County Jail. Mr. Robert Dearing with the Jail Commission advised the Commissioner's Court on August 20, 1985, that the court must start planning to solve this problem.
4. Discussion of the Red River County Courthouse issue.
5. The maintenance of the roads and bridges in Precinct 1.

I would like to comment on Item 4 above and clarify my position on the Red River County Courthouse issue. My recommendation to the Commissioner's Court will be that this issue be presented to all the voters in Red River County and let the people decide what should be done to the Red River County Courthouse. After a vote of all the people, I will support one hundred percent the decision of the majority of the people.

The above issues are very important, and I know you want the best qualified person to represent you on the Commissioner's Court. My educational background with a BBA degree in accounting and broad management experience as a business executive qualify me to serve you as County Commissioner. If you have any question, please feel free to call me.

Your vote and support will be sincerely appreciated.

Very truly yours,

H. Drue Pirtle

(Pol. Ad. paid by the H. Drue Pirtle election committee, Billy Daniels, Treasurer, Rt. 1, Box 216, Bogata, Texas.)

Ad Rates To Increase Slightly

Effective this issue, April 3, 1986, the advertising rates for the Deport Times, Bogata News, Talco Times and Blossom Times will undergo a slight increase of ten cents per column inch.

The papers have endeavored to keep their rates down, but a sixty percent increase in mailing rates, plus substantial increases in chemicals, supplies and printing costs have made an increase necessary.

The papers have not had a rate increase since July, 1984.

Subscriptions will remain the same, as will the 15 cents per word classified ads and mini-ads. Display classifieds will undergo the same ten cent increase as regular lineage.

One Hundred Year Old Cold Cure

This came from a clipping that came from a 100-year old paper. The subject is the cure for the common cold:

One teaspoon each sugar, mineral oil, sulphur and ginger, plus juice of one lemon. Two ounces of 100 proof whiskey, topped off with boiling water to make an eight ounce drink. Go to bed immediately. Patient will sweat profusely, rubber sheet on bed would be good. Double the mineral oil and patient would be afraid to cough.

We printed it...don't know about trying it!!
