

Low Turnout Marks City, School Elections

In Red River County, a tax proposal which would reduce Red River County's obligation for indigent health care by decreasing the general tax levy passed with 1,094 for the measure, 350 against.

Passage now allows the county to make road and bridge, lateral road and flood control one tax item and use the balance for the general tax levy.

Gavin Watson, Jr., was elected Mayor of Clarksville 542-219.

In the Bogata City Council elections, William Harbison, who had been serving as mayor after John Worth Hood's resignation, was unopposed in his bid. Harbison received 161 votes.

Dr. Jack Troutt was re-elected for a two year term, and Jettie Bond was elected to the second post.

Mary Joplin and Tommie Williams were the losers in the race. Troutt received 126 votes and Bond 79. Williams received 72 votes and Joplin received 61.

The Talco-Bogata School Board saw a total of 442 voting to select trustees.

Tommie Corbell and Rev. Billy Daniels received places, as did incumbents Gene Smith and Eddie Denny.

Corbell garnered 308 votes winning a three year at-large seat from Bogata. Smith captured a three year Talco term with 250 votes.

Rev. Daniels received 256 votes, a close race for the one-year term, which edged Brown's total of 237. Eddie Denny was unopposed in his bid for the two year term and received 267 votes.

Voter turnout throughout was less than 50%, with a general lack of interest in the election seeming to be the most remarkable thing about it.

The night is quiet...a typical country night, dark, punctuated by an occasional bullfrog. Sleep is coming along the path, almost there.

Suddenly, into the silence, pours the liquid, startling song of a mockingbird. He is imitating cardinals mostly, tonight, his slightly modified "pretty, pretty" call echoing through the darkness.

The battle is joined once again. It happens each spring when "my" mockingbird returns home, to sit on the wire outside and sing his joys.

I love him. His song is delightful to me. My husband hates him. It's a problem.

I cannot sleep with televisions, stereos or radios playing anywhere in the entire house.

He sleeps well that way. He cannot sleep with that "blankety blank bird" singing outside the windows. Likewise for frog choruses, crickets or owls.

The mockingbird, predictably, enjoys irritating Thomas. The other night Thomas yelled "Well churrup, churrup, to you, too, buddy". The bird happily mocked his "chirrup" right back at him. Thomas threatened to take the twelve gauge out to him then!

When he threatens dire things toward the bird, I remind him that it's illegal to kill the state bird. I talk about the ecology, threatened habitat, all the other stuff. He still threatens the bird's life. I know, of course, that he won't actually DO anything about it.... just fuss.

But almost every night, the mild argument begins.

I like the bird, he doesn't. Last night the mockingbird didn't sing. I guess he's been staying up all night too much lately.

Instead, two bullfrogs got into a croaking duel. Guess what? Thomas doesn't like to hear them either!

Talco VFD Benefit Successful

The food was good and the entertainment was excellent at the benefit for the Talco Volunteer Fire Department at the Wilkinson Community Center Saturday night.

Everyone was in a festive spirit and Justice of the Peace Johnny Mack Brown was in good voice as he sang out "10, who will give me 20" during the cake, pie and can goods auction. Grace Hearron was winner of the quilt and Pat O'Keefe won the pig.

The musical program started off with the congregational singing and ended with "When The Saints Go Marching In". A no-name band which included Jay Roberts on the lead guitar, Brad Vanderver, lead and rhythm guitar, Johnny Swarts, bass guitar, Mona Pitts, keyboard and piano, Pam Posey, piano and keyboard and Terry Posey, drums.

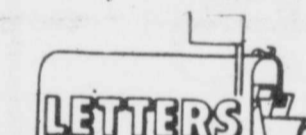

The Porterfield Quartet, Connie, Melissa, Niki and Bonnie, brought some gospel music and belted out some songs the Judd's made popular. Johnny Swarts was at his best when he sang the ever popular Calija.

The evening was made perfect when Mrs. Frankie Brown announced that the two communities had raised $1,706.05 for the Talco Fire Department.

JOHNNY MACK Brown presented Fire Chief Randy Carroll with a check for $1,706.05 that the people of the Maple Springs and Wilkin-

To the Editor:

Last Saturday night a party was held at the pavilion in the cemetery. It was not enough that the trash was left, but they had to turn over the park benches and kick out one section of the pavilion wall. The cemetery operates on donations and memorial donations. We try to keep the place where some of our loved ones are laid to rest, looking as good as possible. Repair work and painting has recently been done to the pavilion, now has to be repeated. If we have to continue to pay for repair of vandalism, we cannot maintain the grounds as we would like.

Parents, do you know where your children were last Saturday night from 9 p.m. until 12 midnight? Bogata Cemetery Board of Directors

SAFETY

It's Your Responsibility

We at Texas-New Mexico Power Company are here to help with electrical safety information, but protecting yourself is something that you must do for yourself. Some safety measures you should remember include these recommendations:

- Avoid contact with overhead or underground power lines. Never touch a power line because serious shock could occur.

• Be careful when working around power lines. Never allow a pole, antenna or ladder to come in contact with a power line.

You can get more information about electrical safety from our office. We can talk to you individually, or, if you want to have safety discussed at your organization's meeting, we have speakers available through our Speaker's Bureau to discuss electrical safety.

For more information call or write today.

Rivercrest Does Well At SWCD Field Day

By Charles VanDeaver
Over 100 FFA members participated in the various contests at the annual field day on March 31. The field day is sponsored by the Red River County Soil and Water Conservation District. According to James Pearce, District Chairman, the number of contestants was down this year due to the "no pass no play rule".

Field day activities were held at the American Legion Park in Clarksville. The woodland clinic was held on the Billy Joe Mitchell farm north of Clarksville. Land judging and the grass and legume contests were conducted on the fairgrounds. The various contests were conducted by the Soil Conservation Service, assisted by Vo. Ag. teachers and other individuals.

Avery FFA team won first place in Land Judging. High scoring individual in the contest was Stacy Burkett. Thirty seven students representing all schools in the county participated in the contest.

Second place was awarded to Rivercrest FFA team consisting of Russell Tippitt, Kelley Screws and Carolyn Strawn. The team was trained by Pete Taylor, team advisor. Clarksville FFA was third.

First place team honors went to Rivercrest for Woodland Clinic. The team consists of Sammy Sparger, Keith Kelly, Lisa Buchanan and Tim Easley and their advisor is Pete Taylor. Sammy Sparger was awarded the high individual plaque.

Second place went to Avery FFA. Detroit FFA was awarded third.

Camp Gambill Folders Out

Camp folders for Camp Gambill Girl Scout resident camp were mailed recently to all registered girls in the Red River Valley Girl Scout Council.

The resident camp is scheduled for five weeks this summer from June 15 through July 19. It is open to all girls ages 5-17, and offers a complete program of outdoor living. "Girls will be part of a program progression that encourages learning about the out-of-doors, about new skills and about herself", according to camp director, Linda Woolston.

Sessions include a three day for $45.00, one-week sessions for $70.00, and two-week sessions for $115.00. A special program is being planned for older girls, a four week counselor in training program.

An open house will be held at Camp Gambill for all girls interested in attending resident Girl Scout camp and their families on Sunday, May 4 from 2 to 4 p.m.

You do not need to be a registered Girl Scout to attend Camp Gambill. If anyone is interested in more information, please contact the Girl Scout Office, 345 S. Church St., Paris, TX 75460, phone 784-0803, and a camp folder will be mailed.

Advisory Council Meets

Officers of the advisory council for vocational education for the 1985-86 school year are: chairman, Mary Lynn Horn; vice-chairman, Damon Ward. Other members are Barbara Branch, Leilani Ward and Greg Bagley.

The duties of the council are to: advise the district on current job needs and the relevance of programs and courses being offered by the district; solicit input from persons representing each vocational course offered in the district; consult with the district in developing its annual application for federal funds.

The council met in the home economics room on Monday night, March 17. The group discussed the current vocational program and possibilities for increasing participation. It was felt that students and their parents need to be made more aware of the scope of the total program and the value of the courses offered.

Vocational teachers are Anita Stubblefield, home economics, Craig Ingram and Pete Taylor, agriculture. The group will meet again on May 19.

Vacuum Leaks

Surge and hesitation can be caused by many faults, however the combination of the two is usually caused by a vacuum leak. Check all the vacuum hoses for hardened or cracked hoses and check the tightness of carburetor base nuts and intake manifold bolts.
