First Of December Brings Anticipation

By Nanalee Nichols

The first few days of December. It's always an adjustment...the major holiday of the year is coming up fast. Shopping, decorating, baking, party going, it's all to be done, and the realization that time to make all these arrangements and do all these things is running out, is usually a shock. But for children, the beginning of December is something much, much like is sometimes difficult as the years go by ... but give it a try!

The beginning of the month still seemed never-ending. Christmas was close enough to get really excited about...but still a long, long time

It was a time for perusing the pages of every sale paper and catalog that came in...of memorizing prices and giving broad hints and trying ever so hard to be good.

School became harder than ever to concentrate on, and the programs, plays and parties were the highlight of the month.

Anticipation of the time off from classes brightens everyone's days, at school, including (perhaps most of all) the teachers whose job it is to try more. Recalling what childhood was details for use in Santa letters...for and keep the simmering excitement at a managable level.

Children lie in bed at night with visions of toys, Christmas trees, and Santa Claus flashing before them.

The mysteries of Santa, his ability to travel so far so fast, his generosity, flying reindeer, entry into locked houses, were for all of us a source of unending fascination, as it is for youngsters today.

Christmas is a time for family gettogethers, and for friendships. The pleasures of Christmas card greetings, the brightly colored cards.

Whether it is cold or warm outside, the air is crisper, the sounds of Salvation Army bells, clearer, the desire to enjoy the season stronger than'at any

The beginning of December is a special time, a time for planning, for busy activity, and a time for children. It is, in it's own way, as special as Christmas itself.

Most people lead quiet lives. Sometimes it's easy to forget that "they" exist. "The masses", "the salt th", all those people who go daily business of living without making ripples in the world.

It has been said that they lead lives of "quiet desperation" but truly, most lead lives of quiet contentment.

Think about the number of people that flow in and out of our lives without making a major impression, but rather being a counterjpoint to the rhythm of our own existence.

They aren't in the papers, they aren't on committees, they aren't on councils, boards or advisories. They are model citizens, paying their taxes and dues, often holding valued positions as church treasurers or other low profile jobs, seldom being in the limelight at all.

So many can be called to mind without much problem. They have, frequently, been a part of the pattern of life in a small community. In small communities they are easier to spot, but they exist in equal or greater numbers in larger areas.

They have no astounding talent, but frequently possess the talent of friendship, caring and dependability in massive quantities.

They work at their jobs, keep their yards and modest homes neat and attractive, help with neighbors and friends, and generally don't do anything attention getting.

They enjoy simply pleasures, movies, an occasional new car, grandchildren or their own children, for these quiet people range in ages from teens to the elderly.

High schoolers are full of them....those youngsters who make good grades, but not award winning, who aren't heroes in sports or organizations, and who graduate to become the people who make up the bulk of the world's citizenry. They don't cause trouble, break laws or get into fights, which is as attention getting as being outstanding. They go, for the most part, unnoticed. Perhaps it wouldn't hurt to notice them once in a while. To think about these people that are the backbone of the nation, and of the world.

They ask for little, they give more than we realize. They deserve a round of applause.

By Stan Anderson

The Rivercrest basketball teams split victories with the 4A North Lamar Panthers last Tuesday night. The Rebelettes had to travel to Paris for their contest, only to have the Pantherettes take a 27-22 win. The Rebelettes suffered through a dismal shooting performance as they connected on only 8 of 48 attempts from the field. Cindy Thompson and Barbi Rackliff led the Rebelette scoring with six points each. Lori Alford followed with four points while Rachael Smith, Rhonda Collins and Lucinda Craig each had two points.

third quarter. But a 21 point effort by the Rebels in the fourth put Rivercrest ahead as they bounced the Panthers 60-55. The Rebels shot a blistering 74% from the free throw line. Forward Chris Anderson hit 11 of 12 free throws as he led all scorers with 25 points. Russell Rozell followed with 12 points, Marvin Anderson had eight, Brad Anderson had six, Craig Savage had five and Brad Wood and Wade White each had two

Friday night, Rivercrest hosted the Maud Cardinals. The Rebelettes opened the varsity action against the previously unbeaten Lady Cardinals. The Rebelettes paid little attention to their opponent's record as they blasted Maud 43-21. A hustling defense shut down the Cardinal offense and opened up the Rebelette offense allowing 8 of 9 Rebelettes in the scoring column. Rhonda Collins led the scoring with 12 points, most of them on fast break lay-ups. Barbi Rackliff had 10 points, Lori Alford had seven, Cindy Thompson hd six, Rachael Smith had four, Julie Stewart had two and Kim Clark and Lucinda Craig each had one point.

The Rebels capped off the evening with a thriller over the Maud Cardinals. The Rebels had a tall order to fill, though, as they faced a 6'9" post man. But a super defensive effort by the Rebels slowed down the taller Cardinals. Maud jumped out to an early lead in the first half and led by as much as 10 points once. Rivercrest pulled within four points at the end of the half and pulled ahead in the third quarter.

But the Cardinals kept the contest close and with less than one minute on the game clock, trailed by only one point, 33-32. Critical errors by the Maud team sent the Rebels to the free throw line and put Rivercrest on top for good as Marvin Anderson sank the final basket, giving the Rebs a 38-32

Renew Newspaper Now, Win Cash!

The Deport Times, Bogata News, Talco Times and Blossom Times will hold their annual month-long subscription sale all during December, and this year there will be an added opportunity...the chance to win cash prizes!

The paper will be on sale for $2.00 off the usual yearly rate. That means that a whole year of the paper will cost only $8.00 in Lamar, Red River and Titus Counties, $10.50 in Texas but not in the above-mentioned counties, and $13.00 a year for out of state subscriptions. In spite of severe increases in postage rates, the papers have not had a price hike in two years, and hope to continue to be able to bring savings to their customers. Plus, anyone renewing their subscription or a subscription for someone else will automatically be entered in a drawing for $50.00, $30.00 and $20.00 in cash

Now, in addition to a year of local news, school news, public information, great savings and entertainment, plus a television guide and photographs of local people, readers have the opportunity to collect some cash...always much needed after those Christmas shopping sprees!

If one does not wish to renew, all they have to do is clip the coupon from the paper and mail it back with the appropriate box checked in order to enter the drawing. No purchase is necessary and one does not have to be present to win.

The cash will be presented the first week in January

Come on, December's the month for savings and the chance to win

Because of the huge numbers of renewals during December, post card notices will NOT be sent...so renew before the sale goes off!

The Deer That Got Away Mollie Williams

With deer season well into its fou. ... week, "deer tales" seem to crop up in every conversation of any size group. It seems like a lot of hunters can boast of venison in the freezer this year, however, there are still a lot of "deer tales" about the big ones that got away. These tales of disappearing deer are a lot like the big fish that always seem to get away. Sometimes these tales are a little hard to believe. You just have to consider the source of the tale and base your belief on the credibility of that source. Of course, sometimes it is hard to do because the disappearing prey sometimes is bigger in the eyes of the hunter than in actuality and a usually credible person becomes less credible as a game fisherman.

One of the deer tales I heard recently came from my husband's brotherin-law, I'll not mention his name and let you figure him out. The tale goes like this:

He was on his way from Mt. Pleasant to Bogata, following behind a truck, when a deer, attempting to cross the highway was struck by the truck and thrown to the side of the road. Seeing the deer fall, the brotherin-law pulled over and ran to it. Deciding that it was dead, he opened his knife and was just about to do the customary cutting, when he heard a car approaching from behind. Since deer season had not yet started and thinking the car might be driven by the game warden, he replaced the knife and loaded the deer into the back of his pickup.

After a few miles, he happened to glance in the rear view mirror and saw the deer standing on all fours. About that time, the deer jumped from the pickup, which was traveling between 55-60 miles per hour, bumped the car behind, and again was thrown to the side of the road. Determined to get his prey, the brother-in-law pulled his vehicle to the side, but just as he got to the deer, it jumped up and ran off into the woods nearby.

Disgustedly, he surveyed the bloody mess left by the injured deer in the bed of his truck, climbed aboard, and drove into Bogata to tell his tale of woe It's too bad he cleaned out his pickup before using it as proof to everyone. It might have made the tale more convincing, however, I suppose I believe him anyway. Since most of you who will read this know us and all our kin, I'll let you make your own decisions, but just remember, I said he's our brother-in-law on my husband's side of the family.

The Mayor said that the issue had been discussed several times at council meetings, but no solution had been found. He said the only thing that he knew of that could be done at present, is if someone is dog bitten, then the victim can file charges against the owner of the Talco City Secretary, Jone Clemmons, said the situation was the same in Talco. They have no ordinance and their children to the front door of the to implement the means to handle the situation would be very costly to the

Your skin is no match for winter. Cold temperatures contract surface blood vessels and slow down the natural production of oils. For skin protection keep the head covered and wear warm gloves or mittens. Don't bathe right before going outdoors or right after coming in from the cold; it upsets the skin's moisture balance. Never rush indoors and bend over a hot fireplace or wash your face in hot water; let the skin adjust.

The Nose Knows.

If you're outdoors and smell gas, you should call your local Lone Star Gas office.

If you're indoors and detect faint whiffs, check to see if a pilot light has gone out or a burner valve has been left partially open. These are corrective steps you can take

If your equipment is working properly and you still smell gas, please follow these precautions:

1. Don't switch anything electrical on or off. Don't strike a match or do anything that could cause a spark.

2. Have everyone leave immediately, leaving door open to help ventilate. 3. Go to a nearby phone and call Lone Star.

Another precaution: Before you do any digging, call your local Lone Star Gas office so we can inform you on pipe locations.

Help us keep natural gas one of the safest energies available. Use your nose. Then use your head... and follow the proper precautions.
