Local Names On Unclaimed Money List

The Texas Treasury has about $80 million in unclaimed money, safe deposit boxes, oil royalties and stocks and bonds that it wants to return to about 100,000 Texans.

"On Sunday, March 8, we will publish this annual list of names," Treasurer Ann Richards said, "and we hope to return a sizable portion of that money to its rightful owners.'

Persons who find their name on the list may reclaim their property by calling the State Treasury, toll free at 1-800-321-2274 or by writing to the State Treasury at P.O. Box 12608, Capitol Station, Austin, TX 78711.

The Unclaimed Money Fund list was first published when Treasurer Richards took office in 1983. Since that time, the State Treasury has returned 73 percent of all the money ever returned since the law took effect 26 years ago.

Under her administration, the State Treasury has also substantially increased efforts to collect dormant accounts. Collectins have increased from $6.2 million in 1982 to $69 million The list is being published statewide in 16 newspapers. The list is also available at public libraries and county offices. In addition, many newspapers publish local names as a public service to their readers. She said that last year, the State

Mr. Bond is now 87 years old, yet he still makes his way around town quite well. He remembers with clarity his former days working in the various schools teacher, Leonard Bond.

Mr. Bond began his teaching career in the Mt. Livingston school district. He taught there five years. He then spent two years teaching at Mauldin, followed by one year at Mosley, back to Mt. Livingston for two more years, then to Cuthand for four years, Maple for seven years, Bogata for one year, Hagansport for five years and Annona for two years. Even after retiring, he taught in Clarksville and Blossom for one year each. In all the schools except Clarksville and Bogata and Blossom, Mr. Bond was coach and principal part of the time. Talking with Mr. Bond, it doesn't take you long to see how much he enjoyed his job as basketball coach. He also coached Little League for 23 years. When asked if he thought the games had changed any, he replied, 'Oh, shoot yeah, they've changed a lot. I keep up with it though. I go to all the games, even the Little Dribblers.'

Coach Bond boasts of some pretty good teams during his time of coaching. He spoke of the boys team at Hagansport and recalled that Zack

Under state law, checking and savings accounts, mineral royalties, insurance payments, safe deposit boxes, utility deposits and the like are turned over to the state if accounts are inactive for at least three years. The state may use the funds for general state services and for education, but the owners or their heirs may file a claim at any time in the future for the money held by the state.

Talco Council Routine Meeting

The regular slated meeting of the City of Talco was held March 10 at City Hall. The minutes were read and approved. Several bills were presented for payment and were approved. There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned.

Here's a tip ... a tax tip.

Be careful when selecting a tax preparer. -stay away from someone who claims to have an "in" with the IRS, don't accept promises of a refund

-Get the preparer to sign the return, -NEVER agree to sign a blank return.

Frazier was his best goal shooter. "He was good," says Bond, "and Bobbie Roach from Bogata was my best goal shooter on the girls team. All my players were good, but those two were extra good at making the goals."

When asked if he missed working in the schools, he replied, "No, I don't miss it. I really enjoyed it all those years, but I'm glad I'm out. I do what want to now. I mow a lawn now and then and go to all the basketball and baseball games. Mr. Bond has lived in Bogata for approximately 32 years and has two children, a son, Albert Bond, Jr., who lives in Grand Prairie and is retired form the Navy and near retirement with the Civil Service Commission in Ft. Worth, and a daughter, Neva Dell Burns, who works at the First National Bank in Bogata.

Bogata Locals

and Chrystine Baker were visitors over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. K.C. Yale, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Yale, Mrs. Kennith Pitts of Ft. Worth, Renee Yale of Arlington and Nina Pybus of Grand Prairie. They attended the F.G. and Roxie Ann Mauldin Latimer family reunion on Sunday in Crowley. The Latimers were old time Red River County settlers. There was lots of visiting, food and recalling the good old days. The Red River Recollections was on display and thanks to Nell Leatherwood Tucker had some of the early history of the family in the book.

Visitors last week of Mrs. Josie Fennell were two cousins, Ruby Roberts and Willie Wilson of Paris, and her grandson, Stan Dickerson of Bedford and J.H. Dickerson of Talco.

Weekend visitors of Rev. and Mrs. Allgood were Bill and Kathie Van Hosse, Emily and Danny of Garland.

Mrs. Sybil Robinson visited Thursday through Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Oma Gatlin at Red River Haven. She took Mrs. Gatlin for lunch at Bogie's Cafe on Friday. She also visited her sister, Georgia Black in Deport.

Visiting Horace and Opal Benham Sunday were their son, Jerry and his wife, Lanna and greatgranddaughter, Kayli Sugg, all of Paris and Russell Benham of Bogata.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wood had as visitors over the weekend, Mrs. Earl Clipper and William of Hooks. They visited Mattie Chesshir in Red River Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roberts of Ft. Worth visited recently with their daughter, Mrs. Harold White and family.

Jettie Minshew, Zelma Mauldin father and brother, Paul Wims.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Swaim of Tyler and her mother, Mrs. Gertrude McKee of Tlaucherville, LA spent last Friday with Mrs. Gus Swaim.

Julie Randolph, junior student at Rivercrest High School, spent last weekend with her mother, Ann Randolph, of Tyler.

Several women from the First United Methodist Church attended the World Day of Prayer Program held at McKenzie Memorial Methodist Church in Clarksville. More than 100 from Detroit, Annona, Avery, Bogata, Clarksville and Bagwell attended. From Bogata were Mildred Eudy, Gertie Choate, Iva Hooker, Eleanor McCluer, Bess Ruthardt, Judy Marshall and Betty Puckett.

Robert White, student at College of Dentistry, Baylor University, spent the weekend with his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Glen White and Becky and grandmother, Emmie Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman of Celina, Ohio spent Monday night with Mrs. Vera Craddock. The Zimmermans are on their way to Arizona.

CONGRATULATIONS GIRLSCOUTS

BANKING — A People Business!

The right place to bank isn't necessarily the bank that boasts the most!

The right place is with people who understand what banking is all about. People who listen. People with people-caring understanding.

At BOGATA FIRST NATIONAL our banking staffers recognize the need to develop a good working relationship with the people who are our customers. They're people who understand that what comes first in banking is people.

At Bogata First National, what comes first is you!

THE GIFT OF ESTEEM

By Vanessa Hay Ruby Lee Moore, as insignificant to the universe as a particle of dust is to an individual, was the sun which her family revolved around. Her love was like the warm spring sunshine. It was free to those who would venture under its glow. Her giving nature was like the spring rains which nourish the land. She gave of herself unselfishly thereby quenching the needs of many. Her care was like the spring breeze, a breath of fresh clean air that revitalises the land after a long winter. She cared for those around her and thereby encouraged them to hope for better tomorrows.

Ruby Lee Moore was my grandmother She was a loving, giving and caring person. These qualities of her's, I have always known and felt, but the impact the combination these qualities bring the was beyond my grasp until her. When you combine the qualities of unselfish love for others, unselfish giving of yourself to others, and unselfish care for others, you can give the recipient of these qualities perhaps the greatest gift of all, that of self-esteem. Grandmother Moore has touched the hearts and enhanced the self-esteem of all her grandchildren. She has made each and every one of her twenty grandchildren, feel very special and unique. Through paired-bonding, we learn to give and receive love. I felt I had a very special and unique that the special hond with my grandmether. You paired-bond with my grandmother. You know, I was her favorite grandchild. She shared so many of life's pleasures and displeasures with me. She helped my mother burn my bottles. She taught me to drive, even though she didn't drive herself. She made my wedding garter. Those are only a few instances in which we shared with each other. I felt her loss greatly as any of you who have ever lost a grandparent may know.

As I drifted through the funeral I talked with many of the other children. In my conversation with each one I kept hearing the same statement. This statement or remark always evoked a voice in my mind, ignited a warm glow in my heart, brought a smile to my face, for them this remark I realized our grandmother had been of superior stock. The remark made by each of the other grandchidiren was: "You know, I was her favorite granddaughter;" or "You know, I was her favorite grandson;" and even "You know, I was her favorite granddaughter-in-law;" or "You know, I was her favorite grandson-in-law."

Ruby Lee Moore, poor in the possession of money, poor in the possession of jewels, poor in the possession of gold was a very rich person who shared her richness with her grandchildren.
Our grandmother's memory will be immortal because of her ability to enhance our lives by teaching us how to love. Our grandmother's memory will be celebrated each time one of us gives unselfishly to someone else. Our grandmother's memory will heighten the quali-ty of our own lives because she has taught us to look toward tomorrow for hope. Our grandmother's memory, hence, justifies the gift of self-esteem she gave each of us Mrs. Moore was the mother of Bell Borders, Helen Barnett and Jean
