I figure this column will fall on deaf ears...but here goes anyway. I like kids. I usually make more excuses for high spirits, mischief and pranks than most folks will. I have a long memory, and can recall doing things kid I shouldn't have.

This Halloween most kids had a lot of fun. They threw raw biscuits, soured things down with shaving cream, tossed some water balloons and eggs, even doused each other with syrup. (Yuck!) and used up a lot of toilet paper.

But, as always, there were a few youngsters who took the whole thing too far.

Filling a bank's night depository with eggs probably seemed amusing at the time. The culprits probably thought of adults having to clean the mess up. What they didn't consider was that checks are susceptible to moisture, and payroll checks can be difficult to replace.

Fortunately, the deposits the eggs were in bags...otherwise some poor soul could be trying to get a corporation somewhere to replace his ruined payroll check...and most people find it difficult to miss a check for a few weeks!

Gold spray paint isn't really very funny either...destruction of city property simply costs someone's parents tax dollars...what is broken must be fixed! Taxes fix it. It's never too early to learn that simple fact of life!

Fleeing from the police is also inadvisable, as a number of youngsters found out last Saturday night.

Rocks in biscuits are very, very unamusing. They break things, they injure people, they result in arrests.

The solution to the whole thing is simple...I'm not advocating quitting the pranks...just suggesting to kids that they give just the tiniest bit of thought to what they are doing.

Shaving cream...go ahead. Shoe polish on windshields...let yourself go! Water balloons, horray...biscuits, toilet paper...whatever makes you happy...but please, don't do things that will create lasting damage. It simply isn't necessary in having a good time...and may even keep you from having a very bad one, at the police station!

Pari-Mutuel Betting, Super-Collider Project Top Election Victories

After a predicted low voter turnout Tuesday, election officials were startled to see Texans voting in record numbers.

For the first time in 50 years, Texas will have legalized parimutuel betting as the result of the election.

Also winning was a plan to sell $500 million in bonds to try and get the federal government Superconducting Super Collider project.

The measure which would have kept the Texas Board of Education as an appointed panel instead of an elected one failed, however.

The parimutuel measure will allow up to four large tracks, in metropolitan areas. Smaller tracks would be allowed in any county that approves gambling in a local-option vote.

Dog races would be restricted to Gulf Coast areas.

Voters approved most of the "Build Texas" plan on the ballot, which would make it possible for $1 billion in bonds to be issued to build prisons, mental health and retardation facilities and water projects.

A constitutional amendment to issue $400 million in bonds to help finance public works projects was apparently defeated.

A profile of the entire election seems to indicate that Texas voters were willing to vote for anything that they believed would help the state's economy, creating more jobs and attracting industry to the state.

Burglars Hit, Suspects Apprehended

By Mollie Williams

Three residences in the Johtown community were burglarized Monday, Nov. 2, and a fire, reported minutes after discoveries of the burglaries, is believed by residents to have been set by the burglars as a diversion.

Dorothy Wilson returned to her home located on Highway 271 around 3 p.m. Monday afternoon to find that burglars had broken in through the back door and ransacked her house. Cabinet drawers were left open and papers were scattered on the floor. Clothes had been pulled from the closets and left lying on the floor. A sack of pecans had been taken from her refrigerator and poured out onto the floor. Upon further investigation, Mrs. Wilson discovered several food items missing, along with a large flashlight, and a gold chain. She immediately called the County Sheriff's Office.

Mary Lynn Horn, another resident of Johtown, was away from her home approximately 30 or 40 minutes, returning around 6 p.m. As she entered the front door with her two small children, she noticed a bedroom door partially shut and remembered she had left the door open. Opening the door a little more, Mrs. Horn could see that the bedroom had been burglarized. "Dresser drawers were open and clothes strewn everywhere as if someone had been searching for something," she said. Alarmed at the sight, Mrs. Horn left the house for help. When she returned with help, Mrs. Horn reported that it appeared that the burglars were probably in the house when she first arrived home. Mrs. Horn reported two rings and a knife missing.

Shortly after Mrs. Horn returned to her house with help, a fire was reported at a cabin belonging to Wendell Hervey just back of the Horn house. By the time the Bogata Volunteer Fire Department could get to the scene, the cabin was in full blaze.

Kathy Hervey, owner of the Johtown Grocery Store arrived at her home around 7 p.m. As she entered through the back door, she saw that the screen had been taken from the kitchen window and the window was open. The Hervey house had also been burglarized. Mrs. Hervey reported that clothes were strewn all over the house from bedroom furniture and closets. She reported several guns missing, bullets and about $25 in change. There were indications that a gun had been shot in the bedroom and blood was found on the dresser and on clothes pulled from the drawers.

Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 3 around 2 p.m. two juveniles were spotted by Kathy Hervey and Mary Lynn Horn. One went into Ward's Cash and Carry Grocery in Talco, and was detained inside the store until Red River County and Titus County deputies arrived. The other juvenile was waiting outside the store, apparently for his companion to return.

After deputies arrived, the male juvenile showed deputies rifles and clothing that had apparently been taken from burglarized residences the night before.

Rifles were hidden under the Sulphur River Bridge and the clothing was stashed along the fence line by Highway 271 north of Talco.

The juveniles will remain in custody of Red River County Sheriff's Department pending further investigation of the case. No further details were available at press time.

RED RIVER County Deputies recovered two rifles, part of a number of items apparently stolen in a series of burglaries at Johtown on Monday evening. The rifles were stashed near the Sulphur River Bridge, and a suspect in the burglaries led Titus

CLOTHING CACHE-Clothes and other items were stolen in several burglaries in Johtown on Monday night. The crimes may have been solved, however, with the arrest of two juveniles on Tuesday afternoon in Talco. One of the juveniles showed deputies where this cache of clothing was on Highway 271 north of Talco. (Staff Photo by Thomas Nichols)

Talco Man Dies In Accident

A 46-year old Talco man was killed Friday afternoon, the victim of a vehicle-pedestrian accident on U.S. Highway 271 about one mile north of Talco.

According to reports filed by the Texas Department of Public Safety Troopers, Carl Andrew Duffey, 46, of Talco was killed when he was struck by a 1973 Buick driven by Robert J. Washington of Clarksville while attempting to change a tire on his disabled vehicle.

Duffey, authorities said, had pulled his vehicle to the side of the highway and was in the process of changing the tire when he was struck by the southbound Buick at about 6 p.m. Friday. Duffey was pronounced dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Kay McNutt.

Graveside services for Mr. Duffey were at 4 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 1 in the Cuthand Cemetery with the Rev. A.B. Kellam officiating. He was born April 22, 1940 in Red River County, the son of Wesley and Frankie Harvill Duffey. He married the former Exie Jolly on October 6, 1984 in Clarksville. He was a farmer and a member of the Baptist Church.

Carnival Big Success

The annual Talco Carnival was held at the school on Saturday, October 31. The games and booths opened at 3 p.m. The cafeteria opened at 4 p.m. with chicken stew and chili being served. Also on the menu was hot dogs, chili, pie, beans and desserts.

The entertainment began around 6:30 p.m. with Gary Neil of KXAL Radio being the Master of Ceremonies. The program started with the spook parade. Chase Sloan and Marcus Deming won in the preschool through first graders division. Chase, who was dressed as a black cat, won the most original prize and Marcus dressed as a werewolf won the scariest prize. In the second graders and up division, Natasha Goolsbee, dressed as a cat, won most original and Amy Matthews, dressed as a mummy, won scariest.

The winners of the drawings were announced next. Terry Deaton of Talco won the turkey, Jim Breland of Mt. Pleasant won the ham, Pamela Black of Paris won the quilt that was made by and purchased from Sue Hall of Talco and Wanda Vickers won the door prize.

Mrs. Neva Oates, music teacher for Talco and Bogata schools, planned and put on the music part of the program with the help of some of the students. The theme this year was "A Halloween Hoe Down". The stage setting looked like a country barn with bales of hay and wagon wheel strewn around. There were several quilts hanging as back drops. The participants in the program dressed in western attire.

After a lengthy program, the coronation began with the princesses and their escorts lining up on stage. Joanie Swarts, 1986 Elementary Queen, crowned Misty Deming the new 1987 Talco Elementary Queen. Ginger Hood was crowned 1987 Talco Junior High Queen by 1986 Junior High Queen Kristie Eudy.

The Talco PTO issues a special thanks to all the workers who helped in any shape, form or fashion with the carnival. A big thanks goes to the businesses that donated prizes. Proceeds from the carnival will be used to benefit the kids at the Talco school.

Processing Error

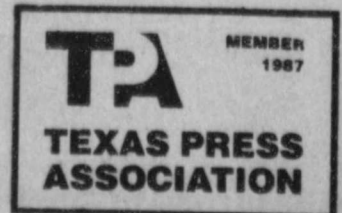

Results In Ruined Film

If you are looking for Talco Halloween Carnival pictures...don't. And don't blame Jehu Binion, the Talco Correspondent, either.

Instead, blame the darkroom processor!

Five rolls of film were misdeveloped this week, including two rolls that included the Talco bank employees, all dressed up for Halloween, the Talco Halloween queens and kings, and the carnival itself.

Apologies are extended for this error on the part of "headquarters".

Rebels Lose To Cooper In Tough Game

By Stan Anderson

The Rivercrest Rebels traveled to Cooper last Friday night for a shot at a play-off berth for the Reb team. Rivercrest entered the contest a 22 point underdog to the Bulldogs, but proved a more worthy opponent than most expected.

The Rebs took the opening kick-off and set up on their own 25-yard line. Rebel quarterback Bradley Woods directed the offense as three Rebel backs combined their running talents to cover 75 yards in a drive that consumed nearly seven minutes of the first quarter and took 14 plays before the Rebels scored the first touchdown of the contest. The PAT kick gave Rivercrest a 7-0 lead.

The first Cooper possession only netted the Bulldogs seven yards and a punt on fourth down. The Reb offense fared little better on its next set of downs and also had to punt the ball away.

Cooper attempted to unleash fullback Bam Morris on the Reb defense, only to have Rebels Bradley Woods and Todd Denny combined to throw him for a one yard loss. Two plays later Reb defensive back Jimmy Lewis stepped in front of a Bulldog pass and returned it to the Reb 37-yard line.

But the Reb offense sputtered again and was forced to punt the ball back to the Bulldogs.

Bulldog Bam Morris carried the ball three consecutive plays for 21 yards on the Dogs next possession. A second down pass from Cooper quarterback Chris Partain to Stacy Miller put the Bulldogs on the scoreboard and knotted the score at seven each.

Rivercrest took the ensuing kick off and pushed the ball to their own 33. The Rebs managed one first down before the Bulldogs forced another punt.

The Bulldogs set up on their own 42-yard line, following a Reb punt. Morris ran the ball four times for 50 yards of the 58 needed to score as the Bulldogs scored to go ahead 14-7.

The Bulldogs provided the only scoring threat in the latter part of the first half. But a Bam Morris fumble in the endzone stifled the Dogs chance to go further ahead of the Rebels. The half ended with the Bulldogs holding a 14-7 lead.

Cooper opened the third quarter on their own 45, but a Brad Lancaster fumble gave the Rebels the ball on the Cooper 47.

The Reb offense only squeaked out one yard before punting. The Dogs managed two first downs before the Reb defense forced a Bulldog punt.

Rebel Marvin Anderson returned the punt nearly 60 yards for what appeared to be a Rebel TD, but a Reb penalty brought the TD back and pushed the ball back to the Rebel 24-yard line.

Undaunted by the bad luck, Rebels began a drive that included two key passes on third downs. The first, a 20-yard gainer from Woods to Anderson, and a 25-yarder to tight end Dennis Ewing. The next play saw Reb back Scooter Brown turn the corner around the right end and race 29-yards for a Rebel touchdown. The Reb coaches opted to try the two point attempt and scored easily giving the Rebs a 15-14 lead with 2:00 minutes left in the third quarter.

An onside kick by the Rebs proved successful and the Rebels found themselves with the ball near mid-field. But the Bulldog defense only allowed the Reb offense four yards before punting.

Cooper wasted little time scoring in eight plays from 83 yards out as the Bulldogs went up 22-15 over Rivercrest.

Rivercrest answered the Cooper score with a drive the Rebs started a drive of their own that would end in a two yard scoring plunge by Geary Savage. The score left the Rebels trailing 22-21. In the event of a tie, the Rebs were behind in penetrations beyond the opponents' 20-yard line. So a PAT kick would tie the game but award the game to the Bulldogs, who led by one penetration. So the Rebs opted for the two point conversion. But a pass attempt fell incomplete in the endzone and the Bulldogs held on to a 22-21 lead.

The Bulldogs returned the kick off to the 50, and followed the strong running of Morris and Lancaster to score the final TD of the contest, sealing a 29-21 victory for the Bulldogs.

This week the Rebels host the Wolfe City Wolves at Rebel Stadium. This will be the final game of the season for the Rebels and the final game for the seniors of the Rebel team. Game time is set for 7:30 in Johnstown.

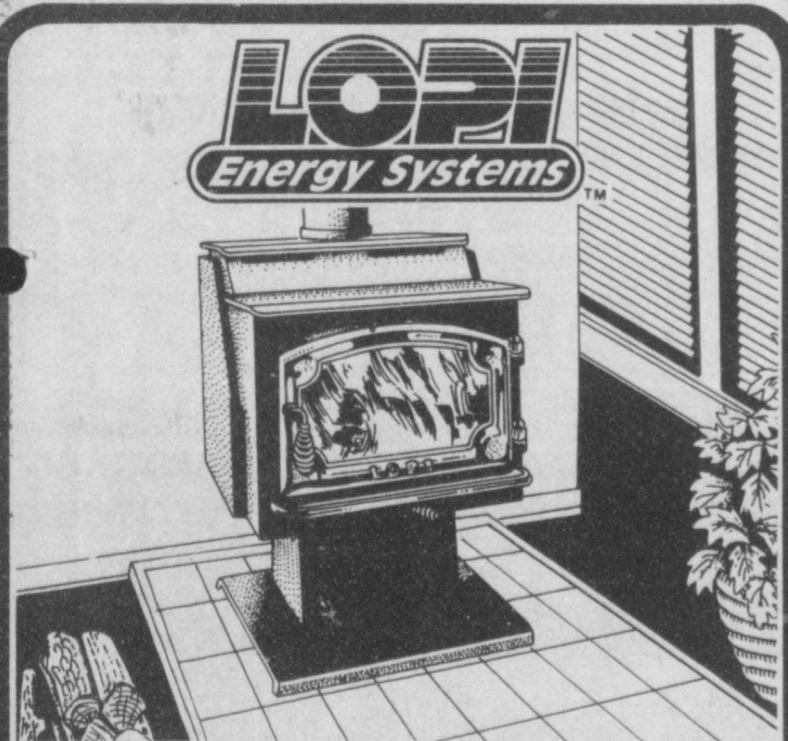

REBEL FOOTBALL-Clint Tidwell avoided a Cooper Bulldog rush for yardage against the Dogs Friday night at Cooper. The Rebels entered the contest with a 22 point handicap, but were defeated by only eight points. (Staff Photo by Stan Anderson)

RULES OF THE GAME

CLIP OUT THIS PAGE AND MARK YOUR CHOICE OF WINNERS OF THE GAME THAT APPEARS IN EACH OF THE ADS ON THIS PAGE.

Do not guess the score, just the winner. If you predict a tie, so indicate with the word "Tie" written across the ad.

GUESS BOTH THE WINNER AND THE SCORE FOR THE GAME MARKED "TIE-BREAKER", THAT APPEARS ON THIS PAGE.

Tie-breaker game winner will be counted with other games but tie-breaker game score will be used only to break ties among contestants, with the game winner first, margin of victory second, total game points third and total points by winner fourth. If still tied, the prize money will be divided equally.

Fill in your name, address and phone number (if any) and either mail or bring this page, or a reasonable facsimile of the list of games, to either The Deport Times or The Bogata News.

Entries brought to either of the newspaper offices, must be in that office no later than 5 p.m. Friday of this week. If mailed, entries must be mailed to either The Deport Times, P.O. It is requested that only one entry per person be submitted. In event of more than one entry from a contestant, that person will be eligible for only one prize in that contest week.

Everyone eligible except employees of The News-Times newspapers and their families. Decision of judges will be final.

Bogata Girl Scouts Start Sale

The Girl Scouts will begin a new Troop Opportunity Product Sale this fall in the Red River Valley Girl Scout Council. Girl Scouts in this area will participate in the sale October 30 through November 9.

According to product sale chairman Terry Watkins, girls will be taking orders for Girl Scout calendars and a variety of products for gift-giving and personal use.

Profits from the sale will enable the local troops to participate in community service projects and to help defray camping and other troop activity expenses. The funds will also help support and improve the local council's services for Girl Scouts.

"We want this year to be the most interesting, exciting year ever for the girls" said Mrs. Watkins. "We hope everyone will support their neighborhood Girl Scout."

Girl Scouting offers a wide variety of opportunities for girls between the ages of 5 and 17. This year marks the 75th anniversary of the Girl Scout Movement.

For more information, contact Terry Watkins at 632-4136.

The BEST Heater You Can Buy is a Heat Pump

"The best" is a strong phrase to use, but it's a fitting description of the heat pump. The heat pump is the most efficient heater made. Better yet, it is an air conditioner and heater all in one. No other heating and air conditioning system — using any other energy source — can make your home comfortable as energy efficiently as the heat pump.

How does the heat pump work? In winter, the heat pump draws heat from the outside air and pumps it inside. In summer, it pumps the heat out of your house.

When it comes time to replace your old heating and cooling system, consider the most energy efficient system made — the heat pump. For more free information, contact the neighborly professionals at Texas-New Mexico Power Company.
