You really need a fluffy tail to be popular! Say What? Well, think about it, if you belong to the animal world, you need a nice, fluffy tail to be considered adorable.

This little consideration occurred to me while watching the squirrels feed on some corn the other day.

They would flick those bushy little tails as quickly as lightning, chattering and fussing back and forth. (I've always suspected squirrels have an enormous vocabulary of naughty words).

They were so CUTE! Few people can resist the attraction of squirrels.

Then there are rabbits, they don't have long tails, but they are so enchanting with those flickering powder puffs of snowy white. The same goes for antelope, who flash danger signals with their white tail and rump hair.

Puppies with fluffy tails are twice as cute as pups with long, short haired tails.

Long hair kittens are "top of the line" while a "rat tailed" cat usually gets dumped by the side of the road or at the least relegated to the barn.

Raccoons, bobcats and wolves have "fluffy" appendages that endear them to us even if they are predators or pests.

But then we come to the opinions most of us hold about opossums, rats and the like.

We simply don't care for them! Opossums (better known as possums in these parts) are considered little better than a giant rat with their raggedly fur and hairless tails trailing behind them.

Rats and mice are nothing in the world but direct, close cousins to guinea pigs and hamsters...but that thick, luxuriant stuff all over the hamster makes them lovable while only the rarest of humans finds the mouse attractive in a pet store window.

All we have to do is watch a rat or mouse flick its tail and shudders vibrate through our bodies!

Squirrels are rodents just like rats, and one of the furry little fellows in an attic does as much damage as the biggest rat, but somehow it doesn't provoke the anger and rage that a rat does. (I'm no different than the rest, I HATE a rat). Yecchhh!

Something there is that doesn't love a naked tail on animals...don't know what, I only know that that's the way it is.

Almost nothing in the reptile family is considered attractive...could that be because of the absence of a furry covering?

Who ever heard of a classic story book about rodents...only cartoons have mice for heroes...and cartoon rodents bear little resemblance to the real thing!

It's just one of those facts of life...if you want to be popular with humans...you better have a fluffy, well haired tail! Otherwise, consider yourself on the undesirable list!

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Begins In Talco

That great American tradition, the Girl Scout Cookie sale, will kick off Friday, January 13 in this area. Girl Scouts will be taking orders through January 27, and customers can expect delivery between February 21 and March 7.

At $2.25 a box, seven varieties will be available. A new chocolate creme sandwich is being introduced this year, in addition to the old favorites: shortbread, thin mints, caramel delights, peanut butter sandwich, lemon pastry cremes and peanut butter patties.

According to Betsy Mills of Paris, coordinator of the sales for Red River Valley Council, Girl Scouts have been selling cookies as a fundraiser for nearly 70 years, although it hasn't always been as well organized, she said. "The exact origin of the cookie sale has not been determined, but we do know that as early as 1920, just eight years after the founding of the movement in the United States, Girl Scouts began baking cookies and selling them to raise funds," said Mrs. Mills. Today, each council selects one of the three bakeries licensed by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. to produce the cookies they sell. IN 1987, over 144 million packages of cookies were sold nationwide.

Mrs. Mills said that proceeds from the Girl Scout cookies sold in this area stay in this area. Girl Scout troops keep a portion of the proceeds and decide themselves how they will use their profits. In recent years, the money has been spent on service projects, field trips, campouts and other troop activities.

The sale is also a major fundraiser for the council, which uses the proceeds to purchase equipment and materials, train leaders, maintain and operate Camp Gambill, and provide scholarships for summer camp and for national or international events attended by local members. The council will also be implementing a new drug education project this year, "Fight Drugs" through special events and materials for individual troop activities.

Girls can also earn individual awards according to the number of boxes they sell. Each girl who participates in the sale will receive a theme patch. Other awards include a carmousel horse charm, camping mug, ornament, stuffed animal, canvas tote bag, T-shirt, sweatshirt and a music gift certificate. The top salesgirl in each neighborhood will receive a photo album, and the top seller in the council's 13-county jurisdiction will be awarded a jam box. Girls can also earn up to $125.00 credit towards resident camp at Camp Gambill.

If you are not contacted by a Girl Scout for your order, call the local cookie sale chairman, Pat Forsyth at 379-4481.

Talco Junior High Plays Ball

By Nancy Brown

The Talco Junior High Rebelettes met the Chapel Hill Red Devils on January 5 at Talco in a head-on collision.

At the beginning of the third quarter, Rebelettes Ginger Hood, Crystal Horton, Laquita Norman, Susie Moles and Chasity Hall led the Red Devils 38-22, but the third quarter brought fouls and Red Devil fast-breaks.

Well into the fourth quarter, Norman, the Rebelettes leading scorer with 18 points, fouled out. Hood's 16 points helped hold the Red Devils, but with 22 seconds left on the clock, the Rebelettes were trailing 45-42. With 10 seconds left, Horton fouled, the ball was rebounded by the Rebel-ettes, but time left them one point short. The final score was 45-44.

The Junior Rebels faced an all-out war. The first quarter saw them behind 12-7, but by halftime they had closed the gap to 18-16. The Rebels and Red Devils ran neck-and-neck, with Tony Sanders leading the Rebs with 17 points supported by Shawn Barker, Shannon Richeson, Jeremy Belyeu, Eddie Williams and Colby Goolsbee.

The Rebs held in the battle but with Sanders fouling out in the fourth quarter, it took some steam from the Rebels.

The final score was 41-34.

If you smell gas, here's what to do.

You can't smell gas in its natural state, so Arkla adds a distinctive odor to make leaks easier to detect. Natural gas is clean, safe and efficient, but, if you smell gas in your home, there are certain things you should do.

If the odor of gas is light, the source of the leak is probably one of your gas appliances. Occasionally pilot lights will blow out, so first check each of these. While you're doing that, make sure each of the burners of your range and oven are turned completely off. In most cases, these two checks will solve the problem.

If the odor grows stronger and you can't locate the source, here's what to do:

- ventilate your home by opening all windows and doors. Doing this will prevent a concentrated build-up of gas in your home.
- extinguish all open flames. Don't use matches. Don't turn on light switches or use electrical or battery-powered equipment that might create a spark.
- get out of your house and call Arkla from an outside phone. Wait there until our service representative arrives.
- If you know where your meter is located, turn off the gas to your home by using the shut-off valve at the meter.

Tear this out and keep it in a safe place for future reference. Natural gas has an excellent safety record, and by following these suggestions, you can help keep it that way.

Wing Rodeo Company Takes Top Honors In Regional Rodeo

The Wing Ranch Rodeo Company of Bogata, TX was honored recently at the Cowboys Regional Rodeo Association awards banquet held in Tulsa, OK, receiving the Stock Contractor of the Year award following balloting of the CRRRA membership in 1988.

The Wing Rodeo Company, owned and operated by Jerald and Joan Smith, was presented the award by C.B. Whitlock of Siloam Springs, AR.

The Stock Contractor of the Year award is the highest honor given to a rodeo company, and is awarded for excellence in rodeo livestock and rodeo production.

In addition to this honor, the Wing Rodeo Company was also presented the Saddle Bronc of the Year and the Finals awards, going to #40, Strawberry Hill, Bareback Horse of the Year, going to #11, Last Snort and Bucking Bull of the Year, going to #557, Levi's Lollipop.

Rodeos produced by the Wing Rodeo Company were also honored as being the outstanding rodeos in their respective categories. Voted Best Produced Rodeo of the Year in 1988 was Bonham, TX; Most Improved Rodeo of the Year was Gainesville, TX and the Rookie Rodeo of the Year award went to Howe, TX. Bonham, TX was also voted as the Southern Region Rodeo of the Year.

The Cowboys Regional Rodeo Association recognizes rodeos throughout its seven state area, which are chosen by the total membership for their excellence. The association is divided into three regions and the Wing Rodeo Company produces rodeos in the southern region.

Another Bogata resident, Damon Holmes, was the winner at the 1988 CRRRA Finals held in Tulsa, OK in the bull riding event. Holmes, who has been runner-up to the championship in the bull riding three times, placed in three of the four go-rounds of competition at the Finals and totaled 245 points on three head of stock to be crowned the average winner. Holmes drew #99 of the Bailey Rodeo Company, Tahlequah, OK in the first round to mark 83 points; #54 of the McGinnis Rodeo Company, Rantoul, KS in the second go-round to mark 84 points; #557 of the Wing Rodeo Company in the third go-round; and #13 of the JC Rodeo Company, Gypsum, KS in the fourth go-round to mark 78 points. Holmes did not qualify in the third go-round.

STOCK CONTRACTOR of the Year honors for 1988 went to Jerald Smith, right, and his Wing Rodeo Company of Bogata, TX. Smith accepted the award from C.B. Whitlock, left, of Siloam Springs, AR, officer of the Cowboys Regional Rodeo Association at the awards banquet held in Tulsa, OK in October.

Did you get the news?

We hope so, because if you're a qualified* Contel customer, our news is good news.

Look for the good news in your January phone bill. Inside, you'll find information on a new Lifeline program that's designed to make phone service more affordable.

And if you don't currently have telephone service, we hope this new program will encourage you to become a customer at reduced cost.

Qualified* families will receive a telephone bill credit of $3.20 per month—the current rate of the FCC mandated Subscriber Line Charge.

To qualify* for this program, you must be a head of household customer with an income at or below the federally mandated poverty level or you must be a recipient of benefits from specific public service programs.

To obtain more information on this credit and how you might qualify, please contact your local business office. A toll-free number is listed in your phone directory.

So that's the good news! For qualified* families, it's just one way Contel hopes to make your New Year a little brighter.

*Specific qualifications apply. For the exact criteria, contact your local business office and request the Lifeline Information package.

Roundball Roundup

By Gary House

Activity on the hardwood has intensified greatly in recent days, especially on the varsity level, as the Rebels and Rebelettes pursue the District prize. The week began however, with a non-conference tiff with the Clarksville Tigers. The Rebelettes built a 26-14 halftime lead over the Lady Tigers then withstood a late Tiger rally to muster a 48-38 conquest. Good ball movement and inside play was the key to the win. Rosie Norman connected for 15 tallies, while twin towers Amy Gladden and Kristie Stansell garnered 10 and 9 points respectively.

The Rebelettes extended their winning ways on Friday night with a conference win over the gals from Leonard, 32-28, in a game which the first half was patient passing, and little scoring. Over half of the Lady Bengal points came from three point range. Stansell an Gladden flipped their point totals from the previous game, while Norman shot for seven points, and sophomore guard Jerilyn Russell hit six. The win gave the Rebelettes a loop mark of 2-1, and their steady improvement is a positive factor in their quest for first place.

The Varsity boys sport a 9-10 record after splitting two games in the first week of the new year.

Against the giants from Clarksville, the Rebels couldn't get started, as they went over six minutes into the hunt without scoring a single point. Trailing 33-12 at halftime, the Rebels regained respectability in the third quarter, cutting the deficit to only seven points, 41-34, as Galen Logan banked a three point rainbow at the buzzer. But the Tigers prevailed at the buzzer 56-42. Bradley Woods scored slightly under his season's average of 19.7 per game, as he hit 15; meanwhile, Scooter Brown and Jeremy Abshire hit 10 each. The Rebels missed Jimmy Lewis, with his nearly 14 point average per game, since he was out with the flu.

But the senior forward made his presence felt against the Leonard Tigers on Friday night, as he scored the first seven points of the contest, enroute to a game high 17 points. Leading by only one at the half, the Rebels used the three-pointer in the fourth quarter to build a 12-point lead with 1:55 to play. First, Abshire hit from the top of the circle, then Scooter Brown bombed two consecutive hoops from the corner. Brown had 11 on the night, while Bradley Woods, who was double and triple-teamed constantly, managed nine points in the 53-48 Rebel success. The win was important for this was the first boys district contest.

the young ladies from Rivercrest as they narrowly defeated the Leonard JV 37-35, when she scored 15 points. Lana Pirtle added significantly to the cause with eight points.

Boys action saw Clarksville defeat both the freshmen and the Junior varsity units, the JV boys were whipped 48-18 on a cold shooting night; however, several sophomores on this unit have been suiting up with the varsity since the holiday tournament.

James Freelan scored 16 points and Corey Gable scored eight in the 46-32 loss by the ninth grade team to Clarksville.

Assembly of God Has BGMC Banquet

The Assembly of God Church of Bogata had a boys and girls Missionary Crusade Banquet Saturday night, January 7 at Western Sizzlin' in Mt. Pleasant.

Rev. Larry Allgood presented certificates to the boys and girls who have participated in the missions program for the past year. Receiving the trophies for giving the most money to the program were Alecia Allgood and Shawn Kilmer.

Larry Thomas of Waxahachie, Assemblies of God Christian Education Director for the North Texas District, was guest speaker. A special puppet presentation was given by Chris and Alecia Allgood and Mandy and Marla Williams directed by Barbara Allgood.

These sub-varsity contests are essential to the development of skills necessary to compete on varsity level. They are basically laboratories and while note is made of the final score, more emphasis should be given to the intangibles such as improvement made from week to week.

Are you involved in the Rebel/Rebelette Athletic Booster Club? The next meeting will be Monday, January 16 at 7 p.m. in the Home Economics Room at Rivercrest and you are invited. Incidentally, the Booster Club is selling colorful Rebel stadium cushions for only $5.00. A limited number of Rebel booster caps are also available. Both of these items are on sale at the entrance to each game.

Remember to support the Rebels and Rebelettes. Win, lose or draw.

Players Visit With Pirtle Family

Dallas Cowboy defensive cornerback Everson Walls and Kansas City Chief defensive cornerback Albert Lewis visited in the home of the H. Drue Pirtles at Johntown last Thursday night.

While eating a bowl of home-cooked stew and cornbread, Billie asked Al Lewis if he could intercept passes as good as Everson Walls and Al jokingly said to her, "I like to think of myself as being a little better than Everson."

Al is leaving January 21 to go to Honolulu to play in the Pro Bowl game. He has played for the Kansas City Chiefs for the past four years.

Lana, Clay and Chaney Walker enjoyed meeting the football players and having their pictures made with them.
