Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

'Tis the season for sinus suffering. Some of us suffer more than others. Some of us, however suffer more from our remedies than the affliction!

"What", you ask "is she babbling about?"

The other night I had a major, hum-dinger sinus headache. I took aspirin and went to bed, and actually drifted off to sleep.

About two in the morning I woke up with a worse headache and stumbled into the bathroom with the idea of putting a hot towel over my face to ease that pounding.

Now at 2:00 a.m. my brain cells aren't real sharp, and digging a washcloth out of the linen cabinet was just too much trouble.

I snatched up the washcloth I had used on my face earlier. It was spread out on the edge of the tub to dry. I soaked it down in tap water and then wandered sleepily into the kitchen to microwave it.

Microwaving wet towels is an old trick I picked up after knee surgery. It really gets them good and warm through and through.

With eyes half open I collapsed back on the bed and drifted happily back to sleep.

Sleep lasted maybe five minutes. Then I began to re-awaken.

Something wasn't right. There was a horrible, nasty, disgusting, sickening odor pervading my nostrils. Words cannot describe how awful that odor was!

I slung the offending washcloth off on the floor, sat bolt upright and tried to figure out exactly what was going on. I believe it would be appropriate to issue a warning at this point. "Those with weak stomachs or a finicky disposition please read no further".

I have a fourteen year old cat. She is cranky, and irritates easily. All her life she has taken revenge on people when they made her angry.

I had pitched her off the bed that evening, because she insisted on trying to sleep by my face instead of on the foot of the bed.

In a fit of pique she had stomped off into the bathroom to sulk. And while there, she had also ....well ...WET on my washcloth! That, of course, was the washcloth I had microwaved and slapped upon my face!

When the realization of what had happened hit me I stormed into the bath and began scrubbing my face...over, and over, and over.

Sinus headaches were forgotten and I washed and dried, then repeated the process. All the time I was mumbling and muttering about killing the cat....about torturing the cat....about drowning the cat!

Finally I settled down enough to crawl back to bed and sleep what was left of the night away.

Next morning, naturally, I didn't do one thing to the cat.

I can attest to the fact that I don't think that particular type of facial will ever catch on. I don't leave washcloths lying out to dry anymore, and I haven't quite forgiven the cat yet!

The Class Of 1939

By Frank Habern

The world has turned around exactly fifty times, Since we graduated from Bogata High School in 1939. Our hearts were young and full of hope, In those depression years when it was difficult to cope. Yet 50 years have passed like a flash, When we were so young in that '39 class. We each have gone our separate way, To our place in destiny after that Graduation Day. When we said, "Tonight we launch, Where shall we anchor", We had thoughts of law or medicine, or maybe a banker. Our colors of blue and gold and the Deport clashes, And Coach Hatcher's happiness when we gave them a thrashing. We were 34 proud seniors as high as the moon, When we graduated from BHS that second day of June. Where has the time gone and what can we say.

THE 20/20 NUMBERS GAME

The term 20/20 refers to the size letters which the average eye can read twenty feet away. In most standard vision testing, you read the family Snellen eye chart at a distance of 20 feet. The upper number of the fraction expresses this distance. The lower number identifies the size letters you were able to read at 20 feet the line which a normal eye can read at 70 feet.

Often, this test is given by having you look into a machine which creates the same conditions optically. The results are roughly similar to those of the Snellen chart.

However, parents should not be lulled into the impression that their child has perfect vision because scores a 20/20 on this vision test. All it measures is how well he or she sees at that distance. And that's all. Problems with near vision, eye coordination and focusing ability are among the many problems NOT discovered in this test. Only a professional eye examination will protect the priceless miracle of sight.

In the interest of better vision

Rivercrest Sports

By Gary House

The Rivercrest High School Rebel baseball schedule moves into district play on Thursday of this week as the young Rebels play host to Leonard in a 3 p.m. contest at Johntown.

As a tune-up for that game, the boys of summer played three contests last week. On Tuesday, the Rebels were beneficiaries of an outstanding two-hit pitching performance of senior Justin Roach, as they notched an 11-1 victory over the Cooper JV squad.

On Saturday, Coach Eddie Barker's team faced the Class 4A North Lamar JV squad in a twin bill. The Rebels, despite losing both contests, demonstrated their steady improvements in the fundamental skills. Barker was pleased with the team's outing. "We've come a long way," he commented. "Indeed, we have made significant improvement since our first practice, more than I expected was possible in the first year of competition."

In the opener, North Lamar, the Panthers, knocked the cover off the ball, as they coasted to a 13-2 victory in five innings. Strong gusty winds aided the Panther cause, as Shane Beers was saddled with the defeat. Kevin Binion scored both runs for the Rebels. Defensively, the Rebels were both hot and cold. A crisp double play was turned from Beers to catcher Craig Easley to first baseman Kevin House in the fourth inning to quench a Panther rally and prevent additional runs from scoring. Catcher Easley also threw out a runner attempting to steal third base.

The Rebels started off wrong in the finale as they jumped to a 2-0 advantage. With two outs, David Stansell coaxed a walk, Beers and Easley then combined for singles, which accounted for the two runs. With David Davidson pitching a very strong game, the Rebel lead held until North Lamar scored two runs in the bottom of the second inning. The three runs they produced in the fourth gave them a 7-2 lead.

However, the Rebels rallied in the fifth inning to cut the margin to 7-5. Panther pitching went awry, and the fielding became difficult. As a result, Davidson, Beers and Kevin Binion all crossed home plate. The same malady plagued the Rebel defense in the sixth inning as North Lamar put the game away, despite a double by Audie Early in the seventh, which led to the Rebels final tally. Final score was 11-7.

The defensive play of the day was an extraordinary double play turned by the Rebels. It came following a Panther single to centerfield, which was quickly returned to the infield by Jeremy Abshier. Davidson spotted the runner attempting to stretch his hit into a double, threw to shortstop Shane Beers who applied the tag. With the Panther runner on third breaking for home, Beers threw a strike to Easley, who blocked the plate and made the tag.

The Rebels record stands at two wins and four losses. But Coach Barker is not dismayed. "The kids have a good attitude, and enjoy playing; the weather and conditions of our field has not allowed much work."

Letter To The Editor

Letter To The Editor:
On January 25, my son was picked up for delivery of a controlled substance. Four other boys in Bogata were also picked up, but not until two days before arraignment.

My sons name was exploited on the front pages of the Clarksville, Paris, Bogata and Deport papers. I would like to know why the other boys names were not printed in these papers along with his. My questions were walked around and not by any means answered.

Is it because of whom their parents are? Because of their social standing in the community, that we are not ones whom attend church every time the doors are opened. I feel that my son has been discriminated against. If my sons name was to be there so should everyone of the others. They know exactly who I'm talking about. We are only country people and do not have the kind of money to keep our children out of trouble. Should money keep ones children from taking what is due them? What kind of fair treatment has my son to take compared to the rest of them? I can't buy my son out of it. COULD YOU? Think about what you would have to face if you were in my place. He is my son, and no matter what I still love him. Vincent McCoin's mother, Nancy Hammett

Editor's Note: Contrary to what Mrs. Hammet believes, there was no "cover up" involved here. The names of the offenders she refers to were not released with her son's name because the indictments were sealed. A sealed indictment is handed down when arrests are pending, and the courts do not wish a public announcement to be made which would alert an offender to impending arrest.

Arigo Riders Meet

Tryouts were held for the drill team Sunday afternoon at the Bogata Arena. ### Time To Treat Algea In Lakes And Ponds

By Paul D. Payne
Heavy growth of filamentous algea has already become big problem in many stock ponds in the county. Early chemical treatment is recommended before the algea growth becomes too severe and temperatures are not excessively high.

Many area pond owners wait too long each year before treating pond and the results obtained are less than desirable. Later treatments can cause oxygen depletion and loss of fish.

The following chemicals are cleared for use in controlling the filamentous algea: Hydrothol, Bluestone, Chelated copper compounds and Simazine. There are certain restrictions on their use. When using Hydrothol, wait three days before fishing and do not water livestock or use for domestic purposes for seven days after use of the chemical. Bluestone is commonly sold under the brand name of Kocide and there are no restrictions on its use except there could be some problems where used in soft water.

Chelated copper compound are available in a number of commercially prepared products, Algea-Rhap, Komeen, K-TEA, ine Plus and A&V70. The common brand name of Simazine is Aquazine. It is a restricted product and can only be purchased by individuals with private commercial applicator licenses. One should remember that there is a 12 month wait after application of Aquazine before one can use the water for livestock, irrigation or domestic use.

The above are the only approved chemicals that have been used in the past and not approved presently should not be used. One should always read the label and use the proper dosage. Some of the rates are per acre foot of water and some are for surface acre of water. An acre foot of water is one surface acre measuring one foot.

Saturday, April 29 is the day for the Horticulture Field Day at A&M in Overton. This will be the first time the event is held on Saturday. Registration begins at 8 a.m. and activities at 8:30. They day will be filled with tours, educational exhibits and commercial exhibits.
