Why me? Without children things like this aren't supposed to happen.

Naturally, they do. I mean, there's a turtle swimming in the patio fountain right now, per request of my nephew.

But hamster transport put a pretty severe test to the bonds of friendship!

You see, our friends with the nine year old son got him (after a lot of begging) a hamster. Said hamster was installed in a large cage with little plastic tubes running from room to room. Said hamster promptly escaped.

This was noticed after the child was a school. Mom asked if I would just pick up another hamster for her. She figured he'd never know the difference and that the escape wouldn't ever show up. I pointed out the possibility of the escapee showing up in the jaws of the cat, but she said to get the other one anyway.

So, I stopped by the pet store, demanded a golden hamster female (same gender as the first one) and they bunged the rat-like little critter up in a lightweight cardboard box with six air holes.

The box was the problem. I hadn't much more than hit the first stop light when the sound of sharp little teeth filled the car, and a head and set of shoulders appeared at the enlarged air hole, ready to escape.

I tried to keep my eyes on the road and thump the hamster back down into the box. Then, I waded up some loose paper and stuffed in the hole.

The hamster promptly set about enlarging the next air hole in line. I promptly stuffed it with a wad of paper.

Then the hamster proceeded to work on the third air hole...this time even more vigorously!

Problem was, I was out of anything to stuff into the hole.

All this while I'm trying to drive, keep an eye on traffic, not swerve, and not rear-end anyone while shaking the hamster container to keep the little monster at the bottom of the box.

I also called that animal a few names...none of which was sweet or darling.

Finally, after he had almost succeeded in escaping for the fourth or fifth time, I put the box on my lap, stuffed a finger in each of the remaining holes, and drove as if going to a fire. If a policeman had stopped me I would have simply handed him the box with that dratted hamster in it.

I slid to a stop at the friend's house, blew a blast on the horn and DEMANDED that she take the blanky blank critter off my hands, out of my life and never, ever ask me to transport one again!

The boy never knew the difference...after all, they look pretty much alike.

However, last week the phone rang and it was this same child. Guess what? He was calling to thank me for getting him the second hamster. It seems the first one showed up in the garbage can, where hunger had sent it searching for a meal!

He was delighted...me, I only thought about all that trouble I had been to for nothing! I didn't have any feelings about hamsters at all before transporting one. Now though, I can say honestly that I HATE the little beggars. No more hamster transporting for me!

TU Electric "Paints The Town"

Each year, a homes within the service district of the TU Electric plants, are selected by an appointed committee, and repainted by employees and their families of that particular plant.

This year, two lucky homeowners were selected, Mrs. Mary Kelly and Mrs. Lillie Hanks, both of Talco.

Mrs. Kelly's home was selected by the TU Electric-Rivercrest plant, for the project, and Mrs. Hanks' home was selected by the TUMCO plant in Mt. Pleasant.

TU furnishes all paint, and supplies, and everyone involved in the project volunteers for the work and donates their time and labor, as a community service. In addition, the group helps with cleaning yards and making needed repairs of all types.

This year, Charlie Hines, TU Production Supervisor at the Rivercrest plant, headed up the selection committee, that consisted of employees at TU Electric.

Last year, volunteers painted two homes in Bogata.

The cooperative effort of over 7,200 employees statewide is part of an annual "Paint The Town" project involving TU employees across Texas.

Locally, the project is in its third year and involves both Texas Utilities Mining Company and TU Electric employees.

Doug Blevins of the TUMCO group said "The volunteers were excited and also enjoyed the good feeling that comes from doing good for others."

Last year, the project completed painting about 150 houses statewide.

MRS. LILLIE HANKS home in Talco was selected by TUMCO in Mt. Pleasant for their project "Paint The Town" last week. A group of 20-25 employees of the TUMCO plant descended on her home last Saturday and made many outside repairs to the home. The paint for Mrs. Hanks home was donated by Sherwin-Williams in Mt. Pleasant. (Staff Photo by Nancy Brown)

TEXAS UTILITIES-Rivercrest, employees and family members helped "Paint The Town" in Talco last Saturday. Mary Kelley's home was chosen to be painted free by the business. Those participating were Charles Hines, Arol Kerley, Sammy Ellis, Woodie Duffee, Homer, Kathy and Keagan Goolsbee, David Davidson,

Dip And Vaccination Clinic To Conclude This Saturday

The Deport Community Club's dog dipping and vaccination clinic will be held again this Saturday, April 28 from 9 a.m. until noon, at Dr. Sam B. Kelsey's veterinarian clinic on Highway 271, just west of Deport.

The first dipping and vaccination was held last Saturday, with more than 30 dogs being brought in by their owners for the community service.

According to club officials, anyone who brought in their dog last Saturday and paid for a dipping, may bring the animal back this week for a free dip! Those who did not bring their animals in last week, however, will have to pay the prescribed cost for the dip and vaccination.

Any pet owner can bring their pet to the clinic. The price is $3.00 for the dip to kill fleas and ticks and $5.00 for the rabies vaccination, per dog.

This annual event is sponsored by the club as a service to the area and to help rid pets of ticks and fleas, protect pets (and people) from rabies and to help the club raise funds which can be used on other community projects.

All area pet owners are urged to take advantage of this service, which provides comfort for their pets, prevents the spread of a dangerous disease and provides money for local charities.

Statement of Intent to Change Rates

In accordance with the regulations of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, Texas-New Mexico Power Company announces the Company's intent to change rates for its entire Texas operations. The effective date of such change is May 18, 1990. All classes of customers will be affected by said proposed changes. The proposed rates will produce an increase in gross revenues to the Company over test year revenues adjusted for test year customer growth and annualization of test year rate increases of $54,879,334, or 17.00%. TNP is proposing an alternative rate base treatment for Unit 1 of TNP One, the first unit of the Company's generating facility located in Robertson County, Texas. Texas-New Mexico Power Company provides electrical service to more than 163,083 customers located within the state of Texas.

A complete copy of the requested rate filing package is on file with the Public Utility Commission of Texas in Austin, Texas, and with all cities served by Texas-New Mexico Power Company which have retained original jurisdiction. -non-surgical removal of kidney stones

AN ALTERNATIVE TO SURGERY FOR KIDNEY STONE DISEASE

More than ever before, Extracorporeal Shock Wave Lithotripsy (ESWL) is being used as an alternative to surgery for kidney stone sufferers. Thousands of patients worldwide have enjoyed the benefits of this non-invasive procedure with far less pain and recuperation time than normally associated with kidney stone surgery.

The word extracorporeal means "outside the body" and lithotripsy means "to crush stones". In essence, the Extracorporeal Shock Wave Lithotripsy uses shock waves created outside the body to crush stones inside the body into sand-like fragments which are then naturally passed out of the body.

The benefits of lithotripsy include:

- Considerably less pain than with surgery
- Minimal complications
- Reduced recovery time

For more information on lithotripsy, consult your doctor or call McCuiston Regional Medical Center at 737-1111

Weather Is Bad News For Farming

By Paul D. Payne
CEA-AG
Lamar County

The continuous monsoon season has made a shambles of all spring farming operations in the Red River Valley. Farming plans have changed daily as wet soil has delayed the planting of most of the corn. This may not all be bad, as it is highly probably that most of that already planted could have a skimpy stand.

April 15 has passed and very few soybean seed are in the soil. This is of concern as yields of Group III and IV varieties are reduced when planting is delayed past the middle of April. However, we are not suggesting that you change soybean varieties at this time.

Wheat has been the most adversely affected by the rainy weather. It will be difficult to determine if wet weather or disease problems reduced wheat yields the most. We can anticipate reduced yields from those fields with poor internal drainage and where water has stood.

There is a good possibility that a late outbreak of rust and septoria will further reduce yields. We continue to receive discouraging reports from wheat producers who did not apply a fungicide prior to the head emerging and now find an alarming amount of one or both of these diseases in their crop. I cannot suggest that one apply a fungicide after head emergence as it is not recommended on the label.

We are pleased that thousands of acres of area wheat were treated with a fungicide at the proper time. Only time will tell if that was a wise decision, but sometimes we must make those tough decisions and not look back. It is easy to look back 10 days ago and say it was a wise decision to spray when very little disease was present at that time. Hopefully, 1990 will be another learning experience and not a costly one.

In addition to the exhibits, Texas-New Mexico Power Company will dramatically illustrate the need for safety around electricity when it presents an electric arcing demonstration at 10 a.m., 12 noon and 2 p.m.

One of the day's highlights will be the announcement of the Grand Champion of a safety poster contest being conducted for grades one through five in area elementary schools. Winners will be named at the five area elementary schools on May 1. The winning posters will be on display at the fair. The Grand Champion will be named and will receive a bicycle.

The following door prizes have been donated in support of the fair's safety message: Red River County Jaycees, $20; Community National Bank of Detroit, $50 savings bond; The Red River Bank at Clarksville, $50 savings bond; Peoples National Bank in Bogata, $50 savings bond;

Detroit Supply, $20 gift certificate; Contel, a telephone; Kountry Kitchen at Blossom, two "Friday Nite" fish dinners; Anderson Candy Company at Blossom, peanut patties; Deport Drug Store, gift item; and Texas-New Mexico Power Company, a security light.

Texas-New Mexico Power Company is sponsoring the fair in Bogata because of the company's commitment to safety, according to TNP Bogata District Manager Tommie Burks. "The response to last year's fair was so positive that we felt it's a good way to get the "Safety Message" to our customers. We are also pleased with the door prize donations, and we hope more people will come by and see the exhibits," Burks said.

Deciding Red River County's Future

Until the opposition's mud-slinging and lies became public, I had not planned to do anything more than present my qualifications and ask my friends to vote for me. But I am not going to sit quietly by while Red River County's future is buried under those lies and dirt spread by a minority coalition of tax protestors, Clarksville haters, and anti-everything people.

Jim D. Lovett

LIE #1 Judge Garrison ruled to dissolve the Red River County Water District (Dimple Reservoir).

TRUTH The ruling just permitted the Dimple Reservoir Board to have a trial without automatically being ruled to be wrong. Depositions and other discovery will begin in the near future and the truth of what has been happening should finally become public information. Ed Miller has admitted that the election to dissolve the district was invalid!!

LIE #2 The elderly and others will be taxed at an unlimited tax rate.

TRUTH The Red River County Water District (Dimple Reservoir) has NO power to tax the elderly or any other person! Only property can be taxed and all the legal exemptions provided by law are available to the property owners. If you own no taxable property, you pay nothing!! At a rate of $.33 per hundred dollars of valuation, if you have $10,000. of taxable property you would pay $33 per year; if you have $100,000 of taxable property, it would be $330. per year and only $3,300 per year for $1,000,000 of property. What is unfair about that?? If you are a millionaire, you are certainly receiving more of the blessings from our bounty and should pay proportionately more.

LIE #3 The taxpayers of Red River County must pay the entire cost of the Dimple Reservoir.

TRUTH The bonding capacity of the property in Red River County will be used to secure the necessary credit to build the lake. The water will be paid for by the people who use it, whether for personal consumption or industrial use. The lakes in all our surrounding Counties are major contributors to their local tax bases and economies!! Clarksville will buy a significant portion of the water but the present Dimple Reservoir Board members refused to discuss the purchase in a serious, business-like way. Red River County Water Supply Corporation, Annona and Avery all need additional water supplies according to state records and Texarkana has been unwilling to commit before determining their own needs. Bogata is also trying to secure more water to meet its minimum needs and is planning to drill another well. Remembering the problems we had in finding water in that area when I represented the Fulbright Water Supply Corporation in the early 1960's, we can all just wish them the best. Dimple Reservoir would assure all the users a reliable future supply of water.

LIE #4 You will get no individual benefit from Dimple Reservoir.

TRUTH The Dimple Reservoir will decrease your tax burden because it will increase the taxable property values for the County, bring in additional sales taxes and tourists' dollars. In addition, the lake will be there for fishing, boating, picnicing, camping and relaxation for your personal use at any time.

LIE #5 We should wait until someone commits to use the water before we start planning the lake.

TRUTH If you wait that long, it is too late!! It takes about seven years or more to plan and build a lake and neither industry nor government can wait that long after their needs are apparent. In the meantime Red River County is likely to lose all its future water rights to the North Texas Water District or to a surrounding County, all of which realize the natural value of such rights. The bickering needs to stop now. Red River County must not lose its last chance to have a future!! Our future can disappear with our water rights. If we do not retain those rights, then in 20 years, 90% of our people will have to go to Dallas/Ft. Worth to get a drink of our own water!

LIE #6 Since the Board owes me about $11,000 that circumstance will influence my personal actions and considerations.

TRUTH Absolute Hogwash!! This debt was incurred by contract with the original board to fight lawsuits filed by the very people who now control the Board and are trying to kill the lake. This debt will be paid to me whether or not the lake is built and I am disappointed and surprised that such a good man as my opponent, Majle Jones, has allowed his name to be associated with such nonsense and mud-slinging. Indeed, as long as I am a member of the Board whatever future legal work I do for the Board will be free!

LIE #7 The Anti-Lake board members represent the views of Red River County.

TRUTH All nine members of the present Board take their marching orders from Don Cole. Apparently he has secured the financing for all this tax protest and his own campaign from the "Boys Down On The River" who, no doubt, issue the marching orders to him. Those nine members have refused to allow even one voice to speak out in opposition. They refused to seat me as a member of the Board as Clarksville's representative.

Every other community and the Red River County Water Supply Corporation all are permitted to name their own representative, but the City with 1/3 of the County population that pays 1/3 of the County taxes was not allowed to do so. The present nine members are operating in secret and possibly illegal ways.

When I am elected, it will be done legally and publicly and I will refuse to take marching orders from Don Cole or anyone else. I will represent the will of the majority! I hope you will also vote for Charles VanDeaver for Place 7. He will also be an independent representative of the will of the majority, and will not be dictated to by anyone and will think for himself.

JAN BULLOCK, wife of Texas Comptroller Bob Bullock, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, made a campaign stop in Clarksville last Wednesday.

Jan Bullock Makes Campaign Stop In Clarksville

An unusual political campaign came to Red River County last Wednesday.
Jan Bullock, wife of Texas Comptroller Bob Bullock, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, was guest of honor at Red River County Chamber of Commerce offices in Clarksville. She was accompanied by Cassi Townsend, an Austin political expert who grew up in Paris and retains strong ties to northeast Texas. Local officials, active Democrats, and even a few Republicans turned out to have coffee with "The Bob Bullock Campaign."

A polished campaigner, Mrs. Bullock stressed her husband's record of public service, his knowledge of state government and his success in administering the Texas sales tax with maximum efficiency. She credited that efficiency with making it possible for Texas to avoid tax increases in recent years.
The "campaign coffee" was co-hosted by Renee Harvey, Bonnie Black, the Clarksville Times and the Detroit Weekly.

Texas-New Mexico Power Company
Files Application For Rate Increase

Texas-New Mexico Power Company filed a retail rate increase application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas and the Texas cities it serves on April 11, 1990.

Included in this application, TNP filed a proposed phase-in plan that would limit the increase to 13.34% or $43,074,934 during the first year of the plan. This plan calls for a three-step, 10-year phase-in of rates to lessen the overall cost impact to customers. Without the phase-in, the company's filing requests a 17% rate increase, or an increase of $54,879,334 over adjusted test year revenues.

Under the phase-in plan, a residential bill for 1,000 kilowatt hours would increase by $12 a month, compared to an increase of $14 a month if the increase is approved without the plan.

The rate increase is necessary partially to recover the costs of a 150-megawatt power plant unit being constructed for TNP in Robertson County, said Jack Chambers, company vice president of Contracts and Regulation. The unit is designed to burn lignite, western coal or natural gas and is 99% complete.

When the first unit is placed in service, the company will become less dependent on the purchased power rates of other utilities. This transition should ultimately give TNP greater control over its rates, Chambers said.

The PUC is expected to establish a schedule for the case within the next two to three weeks. The company anticipates the hearing on the merits of the case to begin in late July, 1990.

The proposed effective date of this increase is May 18, 1990. The cities served by TNP and the PUC have until that date to either act on the application or start the hearing process.

The company expects that the rates from this application will be in effect in October, 1990.

VOTE AGAINST DIMPLE LAKE

VOTE FOR LEONARD SPEARS MAJLE JONES

They are against Dimple Lake and unfair taxes.

Don't place a high tax burden on ourselves, our kids and grandkids. So go and vote against Dimple Lake on Saturday, May 5.

We have had an opportunity since 1975 to have lakes at two different times to be built by U.S. Corp of Engineers. But officials in Clarksville turned them down.

PLEASE GO VOTE---VOTE---VOTE

 If you don't mind buying a home that wastes energy, buying a home is easy. If your standards are higher than that, buying a home takes work — asking the right questions, finding the right answers.
 The reward for that work is a home you can truly enjoy ... a home that's as functional as it is livable.
 For more information on steps you should take before building or buying a home, call your local Texas-New Mexico Power Company office.

Rep. Russell Elected To Democratic Caucus

Slate Rep. Sam W. Russell (D-Mt. Pleasant) was recently elected Chairman of the Texas House Democratic Caucus. "I am delighted that my fellow Democratic legislators have elected me to this post and have confidence in me to lead this organization," Rep. Russell said.

Although the State Legislature is not organized and does not operate on a partisan basis, as do the U.S. Congress and other state legislatures, Russell's election carries with it the title of Majority Leader.

"With a majority of the House being composed of Democratic members from districts representing such diverse constituencies, to preside over this Caucus will be both interesting and challenging," Rep. Russell added.

Rep. Russell currently serves on the House Redistricting Committee, House Energy Committee and House Transportation Committee of which he is vice-chairman. He represents District 8, which includes Camp, Cass, Franklin, Marion, Morris and Titus Counties.
