HASKELL COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1922. WHOLE NUMBER 1856

SECOND SCHOOL LYCEUM NUMBER

The people of Haskell were delighted at the first Public School Lyceum number, which was given the last of last month. The Lyceum program for this month will be given this Friday at the High School at 8 p. m. We believe this program will be even better than the last one. Among the numbers will be music by the High School orchestra, the Fairy Drill and another drill by Miss Castle's pupils. There will be other drills, piano and music and readings.

A crowd of the house and thus your appreciation and backing of schools, your children and your parents. Let us show that we appreciate these high class, clean entertainments provided by our children, other talent, and our teachers, incidentally we will say that the schools need money. The Board has not a cent which to buy necessary equipment supplies. Surely we do not want schools to suffer when we provide the necessary equipment to run our schools with. Surely we do not think of our business and our fine stock we do of our children.

Let us again, these entertainments so much to make our schools better schools and our town a better town. Time has come in modern development that those towns that do not give schools proper support will die. It is not an exaggeration but a self-evident fact that any thinking person recognizes.

Let us show whether we are for schools and a better town by supporting the schools solidly in every legitimate and just call made by them.

CONVERT KENNEDY'S GARAGE INTO EXHIBIT BUILDING

F. Kennedy, one of Haskell's most capable business men, has tendered the Parent-Teachers Association the big storage room in his garage which will be converted into an exhibit room during the Haskell County Fair and Rodeo.

Very interesting exhibits are being used by the local merchants that are very attractive as well as lucrative. They will include everything from the very latest and most desirable wearing apparel by the dry goods people to demonstrations and exhibits by grocery, oil supply firms and others.

The Parent-Teachers Association is doing nothing undone to make the fair a success and a good time is being had all who attend.

NOT PENALIZE TOWNS FOR BAD FIRE RECORD

The State Fire Insurance Commission without authority to assess a penalty for bad fire records against any city or town in Texas. It was ruled by the Attorney General's department last Saturday.

The towns of Sweetwater, Cisco, Pecos and Venus, have been penalized by the commission this year for bad fire records. Under this ruling the assessments will be cancelled.

PEOPLE OF OUR TOWN

A Street Loafer who Parks on a Public Corner and Makes Remarks about the Girls as they Pass should be Called to the Attention of the Street Cleaning Department who will Confer a Great Favor by Removing Him to the City Dump.

SEVERAL RURAL SCHOOLS OPENED

A number of rural schools began their fall terms last Monday, and the reports received at the County Superintendent's office has been very flattering indeed for a successful school year throughout the county. The following schools have begun their fall terms:

Brushy, a three-teacher school, opened with B. B. Chamberlain, Charlie Chamberlain and Miss Lillian Neal in charge.

Sayles began Monday with Jason C. Williamson as principal, assisted by Miss Stella Broughton.

Rockdale opened with Miss Fay Meyers and Miss McClennan in charge.

Foster, another three-teacher school, opened with Miss Ora Halsell, Miss Lorena Tennyson and Miss Andra Mathison as teachers.

Powell school opened with Miss Una DeBard as teacher.

Meyers is in charge of Miss Maxwell and Miss Ermine Daugherty.

Vontress is in charge of Miss Lela Sutherland this year.

New Mid is being taught by Miss Opal Middleton and Miss Grace Hackleman.

A number of other schools are preparing to begin their work next Monday, and in a few more weeks practically all the schools in the county will be opened.

HASKELL BOY BEGINS WORK AS EDITOR U. OF T. PAPER

The first number of the Longhorn Magazine, official student magazine of the University of Texas, edited by Willis Posey of this city, a student in the University, reached the Free Press office this week. The magazine is indeed a good one. It consists of short stories, satires, humorous essays, verse and tales of adventure. The Longhorn has been published as a monthly magazine at the University for thirty-seven years. The students elect an editor each spring for the coming year. Willis was elected last June by a large majority because of his qualifications. He has made an excellent record as a journalistic student. During his three years in the University he has been assistant editor, managing editor, and business manager of the Longhorn and also done work on the Daily Texan. We know that the people of Haskell will be glad to learn of the excellent start he has made on this year's work.

MIDWAY SCHOOL CARNIVAL A SUCCESS

The School Carnival which was held at the school house in the Midway community last Saturday night was a decided success. It has been estimated that from 1000 to 1500 people were present, to enjoy the festivities.

The carnival was given for the purpose of raising funds to pay for some necessary equipment for the school and netted the neat sum of $175.68. A cake was given away to the prettiest girl, which was won by Miss Ruby Adkins, after a spirited contest. The cake was donated by the Merchants Cafe and Bakery of Haskell and brought about $77.00.

Another feature of the program was a "fish pond" the merchandise being donated by the following Haskell business firms: Oates Drug Store, Parish Grocery, Sutherland & Mauldin, J. E. Grissom & Company, J. W. Gholson, W. M. Mask, Grissom's Store, W. W. Fields & Son, R. V. Robertson Co., Jones-Cox & Co., F. G. Alexander & Sons and Fouts & Mitchell.

The Haskell Booster Band furnished music for the occasion which was highly enjoyed by those present.

The Midway School is one of the best rural schools in the county, employing four teachers. The fall term will begin Monday of next week. Prof. C. O. Fields will be principal the coming year, assisted by Mrs. C. O. Fields, Miss Lois Earnest and Miss Anderson.

LOCAL PEOPLE ARE HEARD OVER RADIO FROM FT. WORTH

Mrs. Hardy Grissom, Miss Marylee Pinkerton of this city and William Parker of Fort Worth, assisted in giving the evening program from the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram broadcasting station last Friday evening, which was plainly heard over the radio receiving set that has been installed by the Haskell Ice & Light Company in their office.

OLD BARNYARD BOOSTER CAN'T TRAVEL BY MAIL

The old barnyard rooster cannot travel by United States mail, but day old chicks, according to a postoffice department announcement, may still be shipped from place to place provided their journey may be completed within 72 hours. Moreover, these chicks may be insured against loss, but not against death. Harmless live animals, rated as inoffensive, including live alligators up to 20 inches in length may be sent.

Miss June Smith returned from Chillicothe Wednesday where she has been for the past week visiting relatives.

Tom Moore of Stamford was in Haskell Saturday visiting friends.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE ARE EXPECTED TO ATTEND BIG FAIR AND RODEO HERE

Plans are being perfected to make the Haskell County Fair and Rodeo one of the biggest events of the kind ever held in Haskell. Thousands of people from Haskell and adjoining counties are expected to attend and the committee in charge are making preparations to show everybody a good time.

The Rodeo program will be in charge of H. A. Johnson, who is familiarly known as "Hackberry Slim" throughout the southwest and he promises some very entertaining features on the program. He guarantees to give you a thrill and something that will entertain you during each performance. There will be two programs daily in the afternoon and night. Three hundred dollars in cash prizes will be given away in the different events. "Hackberry" says that he will have a bunch of the best bucking horses, and the wildest longhorn steers ever seen in any arena, but the cowboys and cowgirls who have signed up to participate in the different events are equal to the occasion. Several local boys will take part on the program.

The Rodeo will be held at the Bail Park, giving two complete programs daily. "Hackberry" further stated that the boys and girls promise to ride any horse that is brought to town—the wilder they are, the better—and he offers a cash prize of $10.00 for the best bucking horse, brought in by anyone.

The many different forms of entertainment will be a surprise to many people who do not know just what is being planned for the crowd that is expected.

There will be shows, concessions, merry-go-rounds and other attractions for the children. Prepare to come both days—Friday and Saturday, August 27 and 28th.

MRS. W. S. DOUGLAS WILL LECTURE ON ART EXHIBIT

Mrs. W. S. Douglas of Hamlin, who has studied art abroad will lecture on the Elson Art Exhibit at the Library and her many friends will be glad to have her with us again. All ladies are building next Friday evening October 27, at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Douglas is a very entertaining speaker and is well known in this city cordially invited to be present.

RULES FOR CONTESTANTS IN LIVE STOCK SHOW

Below are given the rules for contestants in the Live Stock Show at the Haskell County Fair.

1. All animals must be in the required place by 10 a. m., Saturday Oct. 28th.
2. There will be classes of same kind of breeds if there are enough of each kind of breed.
3. Bring halter and rope for each animal.
4. A small fee of 50 cents will be charged for each entry.
5. There will be no ribbon offered for poultry unless the men who have poultry wish to enter will get together and select a man to judge the poultry. Nevertheless, we want all those who want to show their poultry to have it on the grounds by 10 a. m., Saturday.

Below is given a list of the different classes:

- 1st. Class of Sweepstake Bulls.
- 2nd. Classes of Sweepstake Dairy Cows. (1) 4 years old and over, (2) 3 years old and under four, (3) 2 years old and under three, (4) Heifers under 2 years old.
- 3rd. Sweepstake class of Beef Cattle. (Breeding.)
- 4th. Sweepstake class of Draft Horses.
- 5th. Sweepstake class of Fat Hogs.
- 6th. Sweepstake class of Brood Sows.
- 7th. Sweepstake Class of Jacks.

For further information ask or write Jno. L. McCollum, Haskell, Texas. It will be appreciated if those who desire to enter any animal will drop a card to Mr. McCollum stating what kind and in which class you desire to enter the animals. In next week's issue of the Free Press there will be announcements as to where the stock show will be held. If no other announcement should appear the stock will be shown in Smith & English's Barn—one block from southeast corner of square.

This Stock Show is being put on by the Vocational Agriculture Boys of the Haskell High School. The boys are not doing this to make money but simply to help show what kind of stock is

FIRST NUMBER ON LYCEUM PROGRAM

You will miss a treat if you do not hear Mr. and Mrs. Gale Monday night at the High School.

Mr. Gale has made a study of over thirty Indian tribes, recording their songs and legends and collecting specimens of their handicraft. He has gone to some of the most remote tribes and secured melodies never before heard by a white man. The Gales have devoted more than twenty-five years of study to the Indian. They have traveled from coast to coast, from Alaska to the Gulf, gathering material for this lecture.

Both the grown folks and the children will be delighted with this program. It will be different from anything you have ever heard before. They have given this program many times in New York City and in many cities and towns all over the United States.

The Gales will be assisted in this program by Miss Clara Marie Miller.

Be sure you buy your season tickets for the six numbers before Monday night. Adults $2.50, children $1.25. See some member of the Senior Class, Mr. R. V. Robertson or M. H. Brasher for tickets.

MRS. S. B. LOWERY DIES AT HOME IN SEYMOUR

Mrs. S. B. Lowery, mother of W. J. Lowery of this city died at her home in Seymour last Friday night at 8 o'clock following an illness of several months. The deceased was 75 years of age and moved to Seymour with her husband and children in 1890. She was a member of the Christian Church.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church in Seymour Saturday afternoon at 2:30 by Rev. C. W. Yates. Interment in the Seymour cemetery. The deceased was survived by three sons—L. D. and H. A. Lowery of Seymour and W. J. Lowery of this city.

PRESIDENT SANDEFER WILL PREACH AT BAPTIST CHURCH

President J. D. Sandefor of Simmons College will fill the pulpit at the Baptist Church Sunday October 22, at both the morning and evening services. At one of the services he will deliver a lecture on his trip through Europe since the world war. Be sure and be present at both services.

raised in Haskell County. The boys will have several stock judging teams and they want the practice because they expect to go to the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show in January.

The Agriculture class wants everybody that can bring in any stock to do so so there will be enough of each kind to have classes of separate breeds. Any co-operation from any one in the county that knows anything about stock will be appreciated very much by the class.

CURTAIN CLUB VS. BEARCATS ON THE GRIDIRON TODAY

The Haskell High School Football team will not go to Eastland Friday as stated in this paper. A telegram received from them Thursday stated that they could not make arrangements to play the Haskell team as the schedule stated. But instead of the boys going to Eastland they will have a game on the home grounds. The Bear Cats several weeks ago challenged the Curtains to a fast and furious football game. The Curtains jumped at the chance to show their athletic ability by accepting the challenge whenever it was suitable for the Bear Cats to play. The faculty decided that the game would be put off until after the schedule was over but since the message was received from Eastland it was decided the game be played today (Friday).

Two new players will be seen on the line-up, one Curtain and one Bear Cat. Coach Anthony, a famous Simmons College player, will be on the Bear Cat line-up, and Mr. Lebo of A. & M. will be on the Curtain line-up. Although Mr. Lebo stated in assembly that he could not carry a football if it had two handles on it we expect to see Mr. Lebo star in the game. One of the main purposes of this game is to get the Haskell Football team out of debt. A small admission of 25 cents will be charged for this purpose. The game will be played at the ball park at 4 p. m. Friday and we wish that every one who is interested in football or either one of the clubs will be present and see what we have in the two clubs beside literary talent. This game will be more than most people will anticipate as there are men in the clubs who are not playing on the first team that have some good stuff in them. Everyone be there and see a good game besides a barrel of fun.—Reporter.

REGULAR ADMISSION.

From the great number that failed in the schools there is a great deal that the homes can do in the matter of supervising the home work of the children.

In the grades, out of an enrollment of 300 pupils we had 95 pupils to fail in one or more subjects, which is about 24 per cent. This is twice as many as should have failed in a good system with a high standard. The reason that so many of these children failed is that they are not by any means studying as much as they should study at home. The fifth, sixth and seventh grade children should do real genuine studying at least two hours each school night. This work should be done in a quiet room under the supervision of the parents. This does not mean that the parents should do the work but it means that they should see that this work is done in a quiet, studious manner. These children should be taught self-reliance in their school work. Many of these children that failed in these grades will pass in their year's work if they will study at least two hours each school night.

In the third and fourth grade the children should study from one to one and a half hours each school night.

In the High School the pupils made even a more unsatisfactory record. There were 75 failures out of an enrollment of 172 high school pupils, which is about 41 per cent of the high school pupils—that failed in one or more subjects.

This is more than twice as many pupils that should have failed. The reason that so many of these pupils failed is that they are not studying at home. If these pupils had studied from two and one-half to three hours at home each school night a large majority of them would have passed in all their subjects. We hold the homes largely responsible for these boys and girls failing. It is absolutely necessary that we have the cooperation of the homes if the schools are to achieve any measure of success.

We should be sufficiently interested in the success and happiness of our children to visit the teachers of our children and learn from them what our children and the home should do in order that they may succeed in their school work.

If your child fails in school he goes out into the world a failure. On account of the great problems they will meet our children need much better preparation in school than we had if they are to succeed and to be of service to society and to our nation.

We ask you to visit the teachers of your children at once if their work is unsatisfactory and see what they and you should do for them to do satisfactory work.

If you will give us your complete cooperation, help and sympathy, if your child is a normal child mentally, he will succeed with his school work. Don't you think that this is worth while

Do not criticize the teacher for then you are dead sure to lay the foundation for the complete failure of your child for he will then blame the teacher for his failure rather than himself. It is to the interest of every teacher that her children pass in her work, but an honest teacher will not accept unsatisfactory work. If your child fails, he fails himself.

The teachers of your children are honest and conscientious and they will do everything they can to assist your children with their difficulties. They work from early morning until late in the day with your children. They then go home and work up into the night preparing next day's work or correcting papers. The life of an honest, conscientious teacher is no easy life. There is no work that is more nerve-trying and responsible. So please stay by the teachers of your children and render them every help and encouragement you can.

The Haskell High School orchestra is taking rapid strides under the efficient conducting of Mr. Nordyke. In the near future we expect to have one of the best High School orchestras in this part of the state and from material that we already have it will not be a hard task to accomplish. The orchestra already has numbers. The Literary Societies and School Lyceum courses and we expect before long to be giving concerts on the court house lawn.

The Glee Club is also making rapid strides along the lines of music. There are now about 30 members of the Glee Club and we expect to have some fine singing for the rest of the year. They are also on for the two literary societies and school lyceum courses.

Next Friday the local football team journeys to Eastland where they have one of the fastest teams in West Texas to face. Although none of the high school rooters will be able to go we feel confident that the boys will do their best to win and will fight hard during the whole game. Here's hoping that the boys will "walk over that Eastland bunch."

The seniors are making rapid progress with their play that they expect to put on in the near future. Since last week's edition of the paper they have practiced several times and are going to try to make this the best play that any senior class has ever put on in the history of the Haskell High Schools. Miss Castles and Miss Collins deserve lots of credit for trying to direct this play as it is no easy job "try and soak anything in that bunch of Seniors' heads."

SCHOOL NOTES

Lyceum Course

The first number of the White-Meyers Lyceum, Lecture and Entertainment Course will be given Monday, October 23, at 8 p. m., at the High School building. This number will be the Gale Company in "Songs and Stories of the Red Man."

This is going to be a very entertaining and instructive program. There will be blankets from different tribes, woven mats and baskets, specimens of old bead work, drums, etc.

Over half a million people have heard "The Songs and Stories of the Red Man" and thousands who come believing that "the only good Indian is a dead Indian" have gone away cherishing for the American Indian a keener interest, a warmer admiration and a deeper sympathy. To hear the strange legends and listen to the singing and playing of the weird melodies, takes you back to the times of the real Indian—the time when the red-skin was a friend to every man.

The Gates thoroughly understand Indian life for they have spent much time among the Indians. This entertainment is going to be a treat for both young and old. Do not miss it.

Buy your Season Lyceum ticket now and save $1.15. You will have to pay from 60c to 75c for single admissions.

White-Meyers Lyceum Tickets

Please buy your season Lyceum tickets from those that may see you. You will get to see six high class entertainments for the small sum of $2.50. This course is at least worth five dollars. We all should at least be sufficiently interested in encouraging a taste and desire in our town for the best in music and entertainments. If we do not the morale of our town will decline and in a few years if you do not back your schools and these social enterprises, most of your best people will move away where their children can be raised in a better environment, and you will have a dead town. Your property will not be worth anything and your business will be dead. We can not live into ourselves and gain in the long run. Let us boost our town, our schools and our churches if we want to make Haskell a town where the best people will want to live and raise their children.

We hope the people of Haskell will back the six numbers of the White-Meyers Lyceum Course by buying season tickets. The first number will be "Indian Songs and Stories" Monday night by the Gales.

The Parent-Teachers Association has about consummated their arrangements for the County Fair. These fine and progressive women are certainly going to make a great success of this enterprise, with the splendid co-operation they are receiving from the business men of Haskell.

Haskell Loses to Cisco

In one of the fastest football games played on the local gridiron this year the fast Cisco team defeated Haskell Friday by a score of ten to two. Both sides resorted to aerial attacks and line plunges which was done on both sides with much success. Haskell's best chance for a touchdown was lost when Kemp did not get the signals right. Both sides played hard and straight football the whole game.

A very poor crowd witnessed this last game to be played on our field and we think the Athletic Association went "in the hole" but nevertheless everyone that witnessed the game was well pleased, which goes to show that the score is not the only thing that counts in a football game. Next Friday the local bunch journeys to Eastland and we hope that a bunch of the business men will be able to accompany the team and help them win the game.

—Reporter.

By this time the parents of all the school children have seen their report cards and should be familiar with the message borne by these report cards. This message will indicate either that your children are doing satisfactory or unsatisfactory work. We have so many children under our supervision that the teacher can not come to see you about your children but you can call on the teacher if you are not satisfied with the work of your children and see what you can do to help the teacher in the work with your children. You have just as great a duty to perform in the school work of your children as the teachers have. If you fail to perform your duty it will prove to be very disastrous to the work of your children.

Parent-Teachers Association Entertains Teachers

The Parent-Teachers Association gave a most delightfully planned and unique party Friday evening at the library honoring the school teachers.

Mesdames Kalgler, Alvy Couch and Miss Ruby Fitzgerald planned the entertainment, which filled every minute with fun. Mr. Marvin Post welcomed the new teachers to our town and Miss Lois Earnest gave a toast to the unmarried teachers. The young men of the town were asked to meet the young women teachers, who were lined up and the boys were passed down the line and introduced and asked to choose a partner for the guessing contest, which was the name of every trustee and teacher represented by pictures pinned on the wall. Some of the pictures were very clever and caused a great deal of amusement.

The next was lines of different songs given to every one and those whose lines were from the same song sang a chorus. The best chorus was awarded a prize by the judges.

The following were served refreshments by Misses Galen and Ruth Robertson: Misses Castles, Fitzgerald, Mauldin, Selbach and Selbach, Cleo King, King, Crider, Graham, Payne, Austin, Chambers, Laura Lee Langford, J. S. Earnest, Juanita Kirkpatrick, Ellis, Carrie Sherrill, Messrs. Emory Menefee, Wallare Cox, Whit Smith, Joe A. Whaley, Fred Mauldin, Leo Southern, David Perrin, Tom Davis, John V. Magazine Club Keeps Open House

The Magazine Club kept open house Friday afternoon to all the clubs in town and the P. T. A.

The library was appropriately decorated with pottery vases and bowls of wild flowers.

The guests were met at the door by the president, Mrs. Earnest Grissom, who introduced them to the following women who were in the receiving line: Mesdames, C. L. Lewis, Hill Oates, Wiley Reid, J. M. Gose, R. J. Reynolds, Montgomery, F. T. Sanders and Miss Helen Shook.

Mrs. Pauline Pickens of Stamford rendered a beautiful vocal solo. Miss Taylor also sang and Mrs. Virgil Meadors gave a highly appreciated violin solo and Mrs. O. E. Patterson a piano solo.

Mesdames J. U. Fields, C. M. Conner and W. E. Lavender presided at the tea table which was very inviting-looking with its flowers, colored cakes, and candies.

After a word of welcome from Mrs. Earnest Grissom to the other clubs the following were served refreshments: Mesdames Sam A. Roberts, Sleeper, H. M. Smith, W. A. Kimbrough, Bowman, Virgil Meadors, Cummins, Tyson, S. R. Rike, Waldrop, G. T. Scales, A. J. Smith, H. H. Langford, Kirkpatrick, Pickens of Stamford, Peek, C. D. Long, J. P. Payne, Sherrill, Carlton Couch, T. A. Pinkerton, O. E. Patterson, J. A. Bailey, R. F. Smith, Misses Lois Earnest, Alberta Smith, Laura Lee Langford, Exa Cahill, Nettie McCollum, Taylor, Mauldin, Austin, King, Graham, Crider, Payne, Juanita Kirkpatrick, Selbach.

Methodist Missionary Society

The program on Monday afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Gose and showed much thought and preparation.

The topic for the day, as outlined in The Missionary Voice, was Birmingham with its twenty Methodist churches and their various centers of Missionary activities. Mrs. Sowell described so well the Co-operation Home for working girls we wondered why every denomination in every city did not maintain one of these Homes for their girls who need the protection and comforts of a home.

The Community Houses are a means of reaching another class of people whose souls are precious to the Master. And the Bethlehem House is to the negro what the Wesley House is to the foreigner in our cities—both of inestimable value to the good of humanity.

Miss Taylor sang a beautiful solo, appropriate to the occasion, which was enjoyed very much.

For next Monday the ladies have planned an all day quilting in the Sunday School room and every Methodist woman that can quilt is invited to bring two things for lunch and come help us—if in doubt what to bring phone Mrs. Fred Sanders and she can tell you. We need you and you will be doing a good service.

Also every Methodist is urged to collect their cast-off clothing (things outgrown or faded but wearable) and send to the church Monday that we might pack them with the quilts and send to one of our Wesley Houses. The Deaconesses write they are in need of such things besides, we have sent no box this year and we do so want a good box worthy of our church to be sent. Reporter.

Surprise Party Honoring T. J. Arbuckle

On last Friday October 13, Mrs. T. J. Arbuckle entertained a few friends at her home in honor of her husband's birthday. Those invited were requested to get together and come in a body. Mrs. Arbuckle had not made mention to her husband of it being his birthday. He was later than usual in getting home that night and when the guests arrived and knocked for admittance Mr. Arbuckle was eating supper. He answered the knocking at the door and when the door was opened the guests began ringing cow bells and filed into the room, while Travis stood looking on in wonderment. When all were in he asked: "What does this mean? I thought the Ku Klux were after me!" When told it was honoring his birthday, he exclaimed: "This isn't my birthday—tomorrow is my birthday, the 13th." He said every ticket he had made at the store that day had been dated the 12th, which made the surprise complete.

A few moments were spent in conversation, then Mrs. Arbuckle threw open the doors to various rooms which were beautifully decorated with roses, ferns, and tube-roses. Score cards were passed and partners selected for progressive "84." A number of games were played, during which the spirit of mirth was at its height. The guests were then served to a course consisting of chicken salad, potato chips, butter sandwiches, pickles, olives and iced tea.

After wishing Mr. Arbuckle many more happy birthdays and that each might enjoy just such another pleasant evening each time, the guests departed. Those enjoying this happy occasion were Messrs. Jno. A. Couch, H. R. Jones, Owen Fouts, T. J. Lemmons, Elmer Irwin, G. W. Waldrop, Jno. B. Mauldin, Mesdames Couch, Jones, Parsons, Waldrop, Fouts, Lemmons Irwin, Mauldin.

Thursday Bridge Club

Mrs. John Oates was hostess to members of the club Thursday afternoon.

Her home was very attractively decorated with snap dragons. A very delightful afternoon was spent at bridge. A delicious salad course and parfait was served to Mesdames W. H. Murchison, W. E. Lavender, Hill Oates, Rogers, J. P. Payne, Marvin Post, Lynn Pace, and Miss Docia Winn.

Harmony Club

The Harmony Club met at the Library Wednesday afternoon for the regular chorus practice. The following members responded to roll call: Mesdames C. L. Lewis, J. A. Bailey, Will Whitman, W. H. Murchison, Hill Oates O. E. Patterson, R. J. Reynolds, Sleeper F. L. Taylor, H. S. Wilson, Scales, G. W. Waldrop, T. A. Pinkerton, Misses Exa Cahill, Ellen Clifton, Anita Scott, Judith Taylor, Eunice Huckabee.

Stephens-Lusk

M. L. Stephens and Miss Lillie Lusk were married at the Courthouse last Saturday October 14th, Justice of the Peace R. P. Simmons officiating. Both of the contracting parties live in Knox County.

Do not forget the School Lyceum Friday night at 8 p. m. A fine program will be rendered.

READY FOR WINTER

Now is the time to think about the possible effects of cold, stormy weather upon your family, and to lay in a supply of simple household remedies so you will be prepared at the first sign of trouble.

ATTEND THE HASKELL COUNTY FAIR, OCT 27-28.

Frank Kimbrough, who is attending Simmons College this year was in Haskell the first part of the week visiting his parents. He had been to Wichita Falls where Simmons had played T. C. U. Frank is showing up fine on the Simmons team as a first team man and all of his Haskell friends that have played football with him wish him all the success in the world and only wish that he were playing with the Haskell High School team instead of Simmons.

Card of Thanks

We take this opportunity of thanking Haskell's good people for their kindness and sympathy as well as their donations to us in the loss of our home. 1p Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rogers.

Delbert Hudson left Wednesday night for Chicago where he has accepted a government position with one of the packing plants of that city. His many Haskell friends wish him good luck in the new position which he is to fill.

IN USE SINCE 1914

away with dirty coal and wood. Makes any stove a gas stove. Easy to install, no damage to stove. Lasts a life-time. "Just turn a valve to cook or boil. New kind of heat. 95 Per Cent Air and 5 Per Cent Oil. Kerosene (coal oil) as used with the Oliver is the safest fuel on earth. Kerosene itself will not burn unless it is put on something that acts as a wick—it cannot explode unless poured on live coals. If you want to see how safe kerosene is, drop a burning match into a dish or bucket of it. The match goes out the same as a wick.

WHY K. C. M. & O. PLAYED MIDDLE AGAINST BOTH ENDS

Difficulties of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad, culminating in the recent threat of complete suspension of operation, constitute an interesting bit of railroad history, which the Wall Street Journal narrates as follows:

The Orient, one of the last important pieces of railroad construction in the United States, was never completed, and herein lies its weakness. The territory it serves has considerable possibilities of development, but the project, conceived and started by Arthur E. Stillwell, free from Wall Street's aid, has resulted in virtually complete loss to those who invested therein.

Stillwell, a big westerner, built the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf, proprietor of the present Kansas City Southern. This road Stillwell and his friends obtained was stolen away from him by Wall Street chicanery. He thereupon conceived the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient to be financed. It was proclaimed without the aid of bankers and through direct appeal to investors.

The plan was to build from Kansas City to the port of Topolobampo, Mexico, near the entrance to the Gulf of California, a distance of about 1659 miles. There was also to be a cut-off from San Angelo, Texas, to Del Rio, Texas, where connection was to be made as well as at Chihuahua with the Mexican National Railways.

Construction began in 1901. In Kansas and Oklahoma the road traversed agricultural and grazing territory. In Mexico, where construction was carried along at the same time, the territory was rough and mountainous. Topolobampo boasted an excellent harbor and agreement was made with the Hamburg-American Line to inaugurate service between there and the Orient. The distance to the Pacific coast from Chicago via the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient would have been about 260 miles shorter than by any other route.

Construction was stopped early in 1912 on account of financial troubles and in March of that year the property went into the hands of receivers. The line had been constructed from Wichita, Kansas, to what is now Girvin, Texas, a distance of 642 miles. To connect with the Southern Pacific at Alpine, Texas, an additional 96 miles was built by the receivers. There were thus 737 miles actually built in the United States.

The Mexican portions of the tracks aggregated 237 miles out of the 634 planned in that country, about $5,000,000 having been expended there.

The original Kansas City, Mexico & Orient had issued $24,338,000 first mortgage 4 per cent 50-year bonds, due in 1951, $12,500,000 preferred stock and $12,500,000 common stock, the stock being given as a bonus with the bonds.

A new company, the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad, was organized in 1914 under Kansas laws, and a bid for foreclosure sale for $3,010,000 property of the railroad in the United States. The sale was effected pending preparation of a plan of reorganization. Investors of the preferred and common stockholders caused the foreclosure.

To provide funds and pay receivers' certificates and other charges there were authorized $6,000,000 two-year 6 per cent notes, due April 30, 1916, of which $5,640,200 were issued. The reorganization plan levied an assessment of $900 on a $1000 of the old first mortgage 4s for which the holders were to receive $900 in new first mortgage 5s, $1000 in 5 per cent preferred cash to be raised was a little over $15,000,000, of which $5,640,200 was to pay off the notes and $3,900,000 for completion of an essential link from Wichita to junction with the Outer Belt Railroad around Kansas City. This plan, proposed late in 1915, fell through owing to the war and the fact that so many of the bondholders lived in England.

From then on the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient situation has gone from bad to worse. Those in close touch with it believe that the road cannot earn its salt unless the 240 miles from Wichita to Kansas City are built, or until the Mexican mileage is completed. It is estimated that to pay off the outstanding notes, complete essential portions of the line and rehabilitate the property might require $30,000,000.

There are outstanding a $2,500,000 stock and $1000 in common stock. The receivers' note due the United States government December 1, 1923, secured by a like amount of receiver's 6 per cent certificates due the same date; $5,400,000 6 per cent notes which were due in 1916 and have never been paid and certificates representing the deposit of about $18,000,000 of original first mortgage 4 per cent bonds.

At auction sale in New York last winter $240,000 face value of the 6 1/2 per cent bonds of 1951 sold at $200 for the lot or a little over $2.08 a $1000 bond, to establish loss for income tax purposes.

Somebody may yet see in the Orient situation possibilities which will warrant the large additional investment required. Meanwhile, the Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered connecting lines to grant the Orient increases of 15 per cent to 30 per cent in its rate divisions, which may help to maintain service of a sort until something more constructive is formulated.

NOT WHAT MOTHER EXPECTED

Teacher's Message Sent by Little Clarence by No Means the Kind She Looked For.

Clarence recently made his debut as a Sunday school scholar. When he came home his father and mother waited to hear a report of his experiences, but Clarence evidently was too much dazed by them to begin.

"Well, dear," said his mother helpfully, "did you say the text?"

"Yes, mother."

"And did you remember the story of the lesson?"

"Yes, mother, I said it all off by heart."

"And did you put your penny in the basket?"

"Yes, mother."

Clarence's mother caught him up and hugged him ecstatically.

"Oh, you little precious!" she exclaimed. "Your teacher must have been so proud! I know she just loved you. She said something to you, didn't she?"

"Yes, mother."

"I knew it!" with a proud glance at Clarence's father over Clarence's head.

"Come, darling, tell mother what the teacher said to mother's little man."

"She said for me to bring two cents next Sunday."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Copper a Water Purifier.

The use of copper sulphate for the disinfection of reservoirs and the destruction of algae and noxious germs in water has led to much discussion of the old idea that copper is dangerous to health, comments the Washington Star. An official of the Department of Agriculture maintains that a change has come over scientific opinion on this subject. Strange as it may seem, he says, there is not an authentic case of copper poisoning on record, either in this country or abroad, and he adds that toxicologists and physiologists who have scientifically studied the subject agree that copper, in the amount used for purification of water, is harmless. On account of the many defects in the practical use of filtration plants he regards purification of water supplies by copper as a safe method, or at least, as a safe auxiliary.

MY EXPERIENCE AS A PAPER VENDOR

By W. M. FREE

I am not given to eave-dropping, and the private affairs of others have never concerned me very much. But below I will give you a little story that took place in hearing of my room in a hotel. I was busy making out my reports for the day in my room when my attention was called to a tenant house standing near the hotel in which a mother and son seemed to be in an altercation.

It seemed that the young hopeful had been sent to town by the mother to make a purchase. The mother had given him a dime to pay for the article, and when he returned with the article it was not at all satisfactory to the mother and she asked him if he gave the dime for the article in question. The boy replied in the affirmative. The mother told the boy that he had been robbed by the merchant, the articles sold anywhere in town two for a nickel. And then she began to call that merchant names with a few expletives that would not look well in print. After the outburst of rage had subsided she began in more sober terms and said that the merchant had been robbing her boy of his money on several other occasions and she had stood for it just as long as she was going to.

It had never occurred to her that the boy had misapplied the funds. She believed the story of the boy when he told her in an innocent way that the merchant gave him the article and took his dime. She began to throw new light on the case when she told the Young American that he must take the article back and get his money. He complained of being very tired and said "he had been on the pad all day long." But the mother was no longer to be trifled with. She had stood this robbery of her child by the thieving dirty merchants just as long as she could stand it and something had to be done.

She had known the truth that he had not divulged, and knew it was useless to go back to the merchant because he had spent the dime for things for himself and had told his mother the same old story of "that's all she gave me." Under these conditions he refused to go back for the money. The enraged mother began to apply the strap with such vigor that it soon had the desired effect. Honest confession is good for the soul, and under the pressure brought to bear by the application of the strap, the boy made a clean breast of the affair, stating that on other occasions he had practiced the same deception. He had spent all of the dime but two cents for candy and other things and the merchant had sold him one article for the remaining two cents when it was as the mother said, the articles sold anywhere two for a nickel.

There is a good moral in this story for those of us who are fathers and mothers. I pay to investigate when children come in with the story of "this is all he gave me." Just think for a moment; it would be a poor merchant who would take advantage of a child in a dime deal. In fact, I believe that kind of merchant went out of business long ago. Most merchants had rather give the child a dollar than take a penny from it.

SCHOOL OPENED MONDAY OF THIS WEEK
Haskell High School opened Monday with one hundred and thirty-three pupils enrolled, the largest in years. Under the direction of Sup. Allen A. Heathington, the school is rapidly becoming one of the best in the West. Arrangements have been made to have the school classified for ten credits as soon as the school is classified. A tax of one dollar per hundred dollar valuation for the year which will give the school the needed funds for a month's term and provide all necessary equipment to making it a first class school. Courses are being added in School department, Botany, and English. A. A. Heathington, and Principal T. J. Ratliff, are proving very popular with the student body. The primary department, consisting of two grades is in charge of Mrs. Martin of Sagerton. The department has two splendid teachers, Mrs. E. S. Lee of Sagerton and Geneva Gullm of Lockport. High School is in charge of Miss Heathington and A. A. Heathington. All of these hold first grade certificates and had experience ranging from five to ten years. Arrangements have been completed for the securing of a music and expression teacher. A crowd of the patrons were in the Auditorium Monday at the opening chapel service led by several songs led by Mr. Martin of Sagerton was enjoyed after which Miss Howard gave two interesting readings. Patrons promised their hearty cooperation in making this one of the most successful school terms ever held at Haskell school.

Bad, Mother, Ironized Yeast for Rheumatism

Do You Realize What Ironized Yeast-Vitamins Will Do for Rheumatism and Lumbago?

Do you know that vitamins and iron are part of your very life? Do you know that the tissue-and-blood factory in your body needs these two materials, and needs them badly? Do you know that if your body furnishes them, you get enough of these, that queer poisons, joint poisons, muscle poisons, acid poisons are formed instead of the healthy flesh and the rich blood you used to have in days gone by? If you hobble in your gait, if pains distort your body, if bending over is an unspeakable agony, if dull pains make you breathe heavily and moan, do not grumble at the roughness of the way—smile sweetly, there is a rainbow ahead. Things are different now than they used to be, in the days of liniments, salves, complicated drugs, and all that—remember! The happy secret today is ironized yeast, one of the greatest body-and-blood builders of all time. Begin taking Ironized Yeast today. Beware of imitations and substitutes, because Ironized Yeast is not a mere combination of yeast and iron, but is yeast ironized, which is a substance all by itself. There is only one Ironized Yeast in all the world. Sold at all drug stores at $1.00 a package and containing 60 tablets, each tablet containing 1/2 cent of ironized yeast power. Get it now from Ironized Yeast Co., Atlanta, Ga. Say goodbye to rheumatism from now on!

They Die Today
Today 3800 American die. That is the average number that daily go to join the billions who have passed into eternity.
This year nearly 1,400,000 Americans will die.
If they all met death at the same instance, by earthquake or battle—the catastrophe would be talked about for centuries.
But they slip away gradually, one here and one there. So there is no general excitement about their departure.
Of the 3800 who die today, 27 are murdered and 41 commit suicide. Rather a bad record for each 24 hours.
The rest are nipped off the tree of life by disease, old age and accidents.
No matter how they happen to depart the last thought of most of them is: "It has been an interesting experience. Life on earth is a journey. I wonder where I came from and where I am going."
While 3800 die today, 6500 babies give their first cry and are born in America. That is, striking an average. As nearly as can be accurately figured, about 2,400,000 babies will be born this year in our country.
The births exceed deaths by about 1,000,000 a year.
Deaths are necessary to make room for the newcomers.
These figures seem big. But to get the total of deaths and births for the whole world, you have to multiply the American figures by at least 20.
A pretty big organization is humanity, 28,000,000 dying and 48,000,000 born each year.
One who can grasp such big figures is not apt to become conceited about his individual importance.
And in the long run after the desert sands have covered up civilizations as they decline and vanish one after the other, the whole of man's existence can be summed up in the gigantic statistics of human detail. All roads lead to it, no detour.
Misses Exa Cahill and Alberta Smith attended a party in Stamford Wednesday afternoon given by Miss Virginia McKinney.

No. 2866

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Haskell County—Greeting:

You are Hereby Commanded to summon Mrs. Fay Garrison and her husband Hugh Garrison, Mrs. Nettie Carr and her husband J. O. Carr, Mrs. Mary Turner and her husband Roy Turner and William Henry Parsons by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 39th Judicial District, but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 39th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Haskell County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Haskell, Texas, on the 2nd Monday in November A. D. 1922 the same being the 13th day of November A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 23rd day of September A. D. 1922 in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 2866, wherein Mary Rachel Parsons individually and as Guardian of the Estate of Otis Edwin Parsons, a minor, is Plaintiff, and R. E. Sherrill, Independent Executor of the last Will of W. H. Parsons deceased, Charles Parsons, Mrs. Flossie Brewer and her husband, J. W. Brewer, Mrs. Fay Garrison and her husband, Hugh Garrison, Sager Parsons, Mrs. Nettie Carr and husband, J. O. Carr, Mrs. Mary Turner and husband, Roy Turner and William Henry Parsons are Defendants and said petition alleging that plaintiff is the surviving wife of W. H.

Parsons, deceased, who died in Haskell County Texas, Oct. 29th, 1921, and duly qualified guardian of Otis Edwin Parsons, minor. That R. E. Sherrill is the independent executor of the estate of W. H. Parsons, deceased, and that the other defendants are the children of said W. H. Parsons, and his former wife, S. A. Parsons, deceased. That at the time of his death said Parsons owned as his own separate property 130 acres of land out of the Jos. McGee survey in Haskell County, Texas, valued at $5,000.00 and there also existed at the time of his death a community estate of himself and this plaintiff consisting of personal property of the value of $2625.00.

That R. E. Sherrill, acting as temporary administrator took possession of said land and personal property and that the plaintiff and her minor son are without home or means of support and that as the surviving wife of the said W. H. Parsons and the guardian of the minor son of said Parsons, Otis Edwin Parsons, she is entitled under the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas to have set aside for their use and occupancy as a homestead the 130 acres of land and that she is entitled to an allowance for herself and her minor son and that she is entitled to recover from R. E. Sherrill, independent executor, one-half of the value of all the community property of plaintiff and deceased husband. That the revenues of said homestead are being withheld from her possession by the said R. E. Sherrill, executor, for the year 1922 and she is entitled to a judgment against said executor for the amount of said revenues and that said executor be ordered to file in court an inventory of said revenues.

That the other defendants herein are claiming some right to the above described property, but their rights, if any, are inferior to those of the plaintiff.

Plaintiff prays that said land be set aside as the homestead of the surviving wife of said W. H. Parsons, and as guardian of said minor son. For possession of all property exempt under the laws from execution or $500 in lieu thereof. For an allowance of $1000 as surviving wife and guardian of said on as 1 year's support for herself and said minor. For judgment for sum of $1312.50 for her community estate during current year from said property, costs of suit, general relief, etc.

Herein Fail Not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, R. R. English, Clerk of the District Court of Haskell County. Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Haskell, Texas, this 27th day of September, A. D. 1922.

LOCAL MARINE ON BATTLESHIP DELAWARE

Washington, Oct. 16.—Starting on a period of sea duty with the prospect of visiting strange ports in distant lands, Raymond James Brock of Haskell, Tex., is now a member of the U. S. Marine guard on the U. S. S. Delaware, one of the largest battleships of the Atlantic Fleet. The official records at Marine Corps Headquarters here show he was recently assigned to duty on that vessel.

Young Brock, who is a son of Martin V. Brock of Haskell, joined the Marines at Fort Worth last February. After serving at several Marine Corps and stations, he took a course in Sea-Going School at Norfolk, selected Marines are especially for sea duty. At this school the duties, department and time required of Marines on board His transfer to the dreadnaught.

The U. S. S. Delaware was reported riding at anchor in son River at New York City expected the vessel will soon visit the West Indies, where it is for most of the Atlantic Fleet visit each winter for target. Upon his return the local doubtless have many interests to recount of his life afloat.

A Business Proposition

That Comes Home to Everyone

The stress of these times everyone is looking out for No. 1. The public is expecting a fair and square deal from their merchants this year, as never before. We think that they are entitled to it, and propose for our part to go the limit in our ability to thus serve them.

We Will Match Your Dollars

with 100 Percent Value In Dependable Merchandise

We know that we are in a far better position to give these extra big values than many of our competitors—especially those in towns surrounding Stamford. We spent more than three solid weeks at the wholesale markets of the East, selecting this wonderful stock. We personally selected it, piece by piece, and know that we own this great stock at the lowest prices made this year. As our rate of margin, or profit, is much lower than the average merchant marks his goods—this fact is evident by the statement made by the U. S. Revenue man last January, when he went over our books and records. This being a fact, it is conclusive evidence that our regular prices are lower on the same class of goods.

For more than 25 years, our buyer, Mr. J. T. Bryant, has been a continuous buyer in the wholesale markets and is thus qualified to select the very best and get all the concessions it is possible to get. This is another reason why you will find our prices lower. He knows that no man or firm can build a business worthwhile on cheap and shoddy goods, no matter how low the price, for when any man buys an article at any price, he expects 100 per cent value and if he does not get it—which he cannot in cheap and doubtful merchandise—he will be apt to go elsewhere the next time.

The fact that our trade has more than quadrupled in the last three years, is evidence that our trade is entirely satisfied with the goods and prices we give them.

Satisfied Customers

Are

Our Best Assets

Our trade know that if they buy an article from us and it is not entirely satisfactory that we will make it good without quibbling or grumbling.

They know that they are going to get full value or their money back. That they cannot lose when they trade at the house of J. T. Bryant & Son.

OUR STOCK IS NOW VERY COMPLETE

Even to the last detail. You will be highly pleased with the reasonable prices and the high class goods we have to offer you this fall. If you want something in the ready-to-wear department—coat, dress, or coat-suit, or children's goods, you will find the latest and best models—made from the most choice materials of the latest style and trimmed to please the most critical buyer.

If you want men or boy's suits, you will find here a most comprehensive stock of thoroughly reliable brands.

If you want shoes, we can fit you on any last from a AA to EE, and in the latest designs and styles, as well as the staple numbers. All priced at the most reasonable prices.

If you want piece goods you will find a wonderful stock to select from. Anything from gingham to the best satin crepes and best of all, they are priced in keeping with the times. In fact, whatever you may want in the dry goods line, you will find it at this store, or as near as is made for the fall trade of 1932.

We will thank our out-of-town patrons to write us for anything they may want, or better still, drive over and do your fall trading while the stock is at its best.

ELSON ART EXHIBIT
HERE NEXT WEEK

On next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, under the efficient supervision of Mrs. J. U. Fields, 200 fine pictures will be exhibited at the Magazine Club building for the benefit of the schools. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged and this money will be used to purchase pictures for the schools.

These pictures are from the original of the great artists. Every one should want to see these pictures. They arouse and cultivate a love and taste for the beautiful, pure and good, which this old world needs so badly. The world was never in such great need of the cultivation of these virtues. We are in great danger because we do not give attention to them. All the most of us desire these days is enervating entertainment, jazz and those things that appeal to our baser desires, which, unless checked, will destroy our nation and our civilization.

On Thursday the school children, at certain hours, will visit this exhibit; on Friday the people of Haskell are invited to see this beautiful exhibit, and on Saturday it is thrown open to all.

We hope it will be liberally patronized by all the people of Haskell. A dime does not amount to much, but a dime from all of us will purchase a number of fine pictures for our children.

TAX SLACKERS

The following is taken from the Lubbock Avalanche:

Governor Neff at the recent State Convention, scorned the fellows who did not pay their taxes last year, which is a shame for any man who claims to be an honest, upright citizen of the State. Of course we realize that some people get in a position at times when they cannot meet their tax obligations, but we are speaking of the fellow who does not pay, because of some other frivolous excuse. His action simply makes it harder on those who do pay. The schools of the state will suffer this year on account of about every fifth tax payer in the State failing to meet his obligation. The same is true of the independent school districts, city and county taxes. The delinquent tax list for 1931 shows a large amount of taxes delinquent, which affects the school tax so far as the amount of money coming from the State for that purpose. In the city the delinquent tax list is long, and the expense of publishing it will be heavy. By this delinquent amount, the fellow who pays his tax promptly is made to pay a higher rate in order to maintain the city, because this bunch of slackers have not come across with their part. There is nothing fair or just about it, but it is the only way the expenses of the city government can be met, and of course we who pay must submit to it, but we hope the city authorities will spare no effort to make every fellow come across with his taxes or lose his property. A man who is not willing to bear his part of the upkeep of the town in which he resides is not worthy of the respect of the citizenship of the community, and deserves no sympathy from the better elements.

The Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a result, there is more or less stomach disturbance. CHILDREN'S TASTELESS CHILL TUBERC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Worms will then "throw off or digest the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

A Wish

"I have taken Cardui for run-down, worn-out conditions, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak, too," says Mrs. Silvio Estes, of Jennings, Okla. "Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a nervous headache and back. She took three bottles of and her condition was much better. "We have lived here, near Jennings, for 25 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as the country wasn't built up, and it made it hard for us. "I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work."

CARDUI

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE POST COMMUNITY

The health of the community is very good with the exception of colds, which everyone has had recently.

Mrs. John Earls, who recently underwent an operation at the Stamford sanitarium, is doing nicely at this time. Her many friends will rejoice to learn that she is well on the road to recovery.

The sad news was received last week at the home of R. L. Livengood of the death of Mrs. Livengood's brother, L. C. Caton at Cisco, Saturday October 15th. He was 25 years old and unmarried.

Last Sunday in the absence of the pastor, W. H. Hughes, Rev. Sam Morris, a student from Simmons, filled his pulpit Sunday and Sunday night with a very fine sermon. Sam is just a beginner but is making good and we predict for him a bright future.

Cotton picking is nearing completion and a few more days will see the fields open for the stock to graze.

We are glad to report the arrival of a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Dillard, and we extend to them our congratulations and suggest that they call him Jim, Jr.

Mr. Editor, you had better happen around about the first cold weather, for we have some fine porkers that we don't intend to carry over; also a couple of red white-faced steers that would make fine grazing in the near future. We don't think that you subsist altogether on hot air!

Stock water is still scarce but we know it will rain again, for it never has failed us yet, at least for over thirty-five years to our certain knowledge.

W. T. West has been helping R. V. Colbert fill his big silo the last few days.
