As you know, I usually try to make readers laugh a little. Every now and then I get up on my high horse and editorialize. I've never written an epitaph before. I'm not really trying to do so now.....but it may sound like it for a little while.

Last Friday I lost one of my closest friends. I lether out at her front door after she had helped put up Christmas decorations in the downtown park. She waved goodbye, and thirty minutes later she was gone from this world.

Helen Nance was 78 years old, over thirty-five years older than I am. Yet there was no generation gap. At the age of 76 she and her husband went overseas with us. It was her first time overseas, in a land which spoke a different language and she outwalked and out-enjoyed us all.

She was a prodigious reader, more informed about the world and it's events than most people a third her age.

Over the years she and her husband moved from state to state in the course of his work. Consequently, they had close friends all over the nation.

These friends ranged in age from contemporaries to children. Everyone who knew her was aware of her generous, giving nature.

What point am I trying to reach here other than expressing my shock and sorrow at so sudden a death? It's simple, but often overlooked.

We all have our "Helens". Sometimes they are family, sometimes they are friends. Some are men, some are women and their ages span generations.

They have "done" for other people all of their lives. They have never achieved "great things", but left that type of glory to others.

Their contributions make up the strong cords that hold the everyday weave of our lives together.

They demand nothing of us...and yet we may owe them so much.

Be sure to appreciate your "Helens", no matter who they are, where they are, what their names may be, whether they are family or friends. And take the time to tell them you appreciate them. I'm lucky...my last words to my friend were words of appreciation. If they hadn't been I would be so full of regrets.

I repeat, show them your appreciation, for tomorrow may be too late.

Lanes To Changed on Hwy. 271 Between Deport and Bogata

To those who drive Hwy. 271 between Bogata and Deport...it's just about time for a change!

The last part of this week or early part of next week traffic will be switched from it's current lanes to the new road surface.

Everyone is advised to HEED WARNING SIGNS, drive carefully and THINK what they are doing in order that this transition may be achieved smoothly.

Surfacing will begin on the lanes that are currently holding traffic immediately after the switch is made.

Christmas Parade Is December 8 In Talco

The Talco Christmas Parade is Tuesday, December 8 at 4 p.m. Entry forms may be picked up in the Talco School office or at Nolen's Exxon in Talco.

Rules for this year are as follows:
1) Entries may not throw candy to the crowd.

2) All floats and vehicles must be appropriately decorated in a creative way to fit the Christmas season.

3) There will be two divisions: Vehicle and Float

4) Prizes will be awarded in each division for first, second and third.

5) Please identify you entry with a sign, poster, etc. Remember, this can be excellent advertising.

6) Participants are asked to line up between 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. in front of the Talco School. Parade committee members will be on hand to help you as you arrive.

7) Judging will be done between 3:30 and 4:00 p.m.

8) Winners will be announced and marked before the parade.

9) Extra forms are available in the Talco School Office.

10) All entry forms should be turned in to the Talco School Office no later than Friday, December 4.

All entries will line up on the north end of Fourth Street in front of the school.

Due to conflicting events, the December 7 Talco PTO meeting will be cancelled.

The Maple Springs Church will hold their covered dish Christmas dinner December 12 beginning at 5 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend.

Don't forget to attend the Talco Park Project variety show on December 12 at the Talco School. Come enjoy music, girls, a shotgun wedding and more.

Christmastime is here by Golly! Deck the halls with hunks of holly, fill the cup and don't say when. Cook the turkeys, ducks and chickens; mix the punch and drag out Dickens..... So goes a little song I heard one time and these few lines stuck in my memory. I share them with you.

The leaves have turned and gone their way, Thanksgiving turkey remains have finally been dealt with and it is now time to look ahead to Christmas. Some people have been doing that since August or before but I never seem to get much "spirit" until about December 23rd. Then I hang my stockings.

I have a box with some mighty fancy Christmas stockings in it. Each year I hang them on the mantle and there they are until after Christmas when I take them down. (The horses, the dogs and the cat have all them too). There they hang looking bright and festive and empty. Christmas morning they're still empty because they're designed for looks and not for "stuffing". When I was little we hung my grandmother's stockings, yes, the ones she wore. They would stretch to Spain and hold all sorts of things. It was the first place I went when we were finally allowed to be officially "up" on Christmas morning. (Un-officially we'd never been down)

My cousin Susan and I were put on pallets on the floor and told to go to sleep. Can you imagine such a request? I didn't sleep on Christmas eve until last year (I had a broken leg and the pain medicine didn't give me an option, I slept all winter.) We were as wide awake as a tree full of baby owls. We would crawl to the door and listen to the grown-ups and peek inside if we got a chance. Those nights seemed to last forever. Periodically, we would be scolded and told that Santa didn't visit until children went to sleep. That being the case it is a miracle that we ever got anything, because I know for a fact that we never did.

When we were finally allowed into the mystery room I made a dash for the stockings. There they were hanging from the mantle hanging from the mantle and filled with nuts, apples, oranges, little puzzles, jacks and a ball all kinds of things. Once I got a dog collar and lead. For some reason I thought the dog would be enthusiastic as I was so, I tied her to a yard chair. She didn't have the proper spirit of co-operation, chewed through the lead and departed wearing what was left of her new "outfit". The adults spent the remainder of the day trying to console me. It was not possible. That ungrateful dog hurt my feelings and I've never forgiven her.

This year I have new halters for the horses and new collars for the dogs. Armed with this information if on Christmas morning you see two horses and four dogs packed and departing; dressed in new halters and collars maybeyou would call and console me.

Happy Holidays!

Business Manager Receives Certification

In a letter from the Texas Association of School Business Officials, Superintendent of Talco-Bogata CISD, Freddie Wade, was notified that school employee, Janice Franks, had received certification as a TASBO Business Specialist. TASBO certification is earned through the completion of coursework and other required qualifications.

Janice and her husband, Tommy, live in Talco. They have two sons, Ricky and Guy. She has worked in this school system for fifteen years starting as an aide.

Superintendent Wade is pleased to have such a capable person on his staff.

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

I went to Blossom this week and visited in the home of Charlene and Troyal Barker. The last of their Thanksgiving visitors had left and she was still bubbling over with excitement from the visit they had. The Barker's daughter, Amanda and her husband, Britt Barnard had been there, along with their sons, Seth and Ethan. Their son Vern and his wife, Kathy and son Cole, had also been there. There had been family members from out of town and Charlene's mom, Rachel Spruell from next door.

In preparing the Thanksgiving meal, they had used fresh sage from Charlene's herb garden. She brought in a basket of leaves and greenery and showed me the sage, thyme, parsley and various other fragrant seasonings she is industrious enough to grow.

I also enjoyed looking at the antique glassware and dishes she collects and uses for serving their holiday dinner. She remembers where they all came from and who they belonged to. I had always heard of Depression glass, but had no idea what it was. Now I do. Charlene has a set of it. She also has a collection of wonderful old cookbooks. Some of them she inherited and the others come from estate sales she attends.

Charlene works in the office for Blossom Manufacturing Co., and Troyal works for T&K Industries in Paris. They attend the First Methodist Church where they both sing in the choir and Charlene is in the UMW. She is also active in the Red River County Genealogical Society, the DRT and the UDC. I was impressed with her knowledge of this part of the country as well as the work she has done on tracing her's and Troyal's family trees. She said she always tries to attend the meetings unless she babysits. I believe the thought of grandchildren reduced her demeanor to soft and mushy. This is not unusual.

Charlene tries to cook balanced meals. They are very cholesterol and fat conscious. Troyal cooks when they have fish and on Sundays when the family gets together, everyone pitches in.

Charlene got her Mexican cornbread and stuffed eggplant recipes from the Ft. Worth Star Telegram about 1965. The Southwestern corncake came from an old Farm Journal. The Fudge Cookies are Troyal's favorites and the Butter-scotch Oatmeal cookies are the ones Vern enjoys the most. They came from a Cooking with Stored Foods book.

Before I left, I admired a T-shirt covered with butterflies that Charlene had designed and a sweatshirt her mother had made for her. They were both quite unique and different from the ones I'm used to seeing.

Charlene is a very interesting person and is quite enthusiastic about everything she does. This makes for a very not dull visit. Thanks, Charlene.

Mexican Cornbread
 By Charlene Barker

1 cup corn meal
 1 cup milk
 1/2 tsp. garlic salt
 1/2 tsp. salt
 2 tsp. baking powder
 1 lb. ground meat, browned
 1/2 lb. Cheddar cheese, grated
 1 can cream style corn
 3-4 jalapeno peppers
 1 egg
 1 medium onion, chopped
 Brown ground meat. Use garlic salt. Mix cornmeal, milk, egg, baking powder, salt and cream style corn. In hot iron skillet, pour half of cornbread mixture. Cover with ground meat, chopped onions and chopped peppers. Cover with grated cheese. Cover with remaining cornbread mixture. Bake at 375 for 30 minutes.
Stuffed Eggplant

1 medium eggplant
 1 cup rice
 1 lb. ground meat, browned
 1/2 can Ro-Tel tomatoes
 salt and pepper to taste bread crumbs or grated cheese
 Cut eggplant in halves, lengthwise. Gently remove inside and dice. Put shells aside. Brown ground meat and season to taste. Add rice and diced eggplant and Ro-Tel. Cook slowly until done. Spoon into shells and sprinkle with bread crumbs or cheese. Put in oven until crumbs brown or cheese melts.

Southwestern Corn Cake
 2 16-17 oz. cans cream style corn
 2 eggs, beaten
 3/4 cup yellow cornmeal
 1 tsp. garlic salt
 6 Tbsp. salad oil
 1 4 oz. can green chili peppers, finely cut
 2 cups grated Cheddar cheese
 Mix together all ingredients, except chili peppers and cheese. Divide mixture into halves. Place 1/2 in a greased 8" square baking dish. Mix together chili peppers and cheese; lay on top of corn mixture in dish. Cover with remaining corn mixture. Bake in moderate oven for 35 minutes. Makes 8 servings.

Fudge Cookies
 1 12 oz. pkg. semisweet chocolate pieces
 1 14 oz. can sweetened condensed milk
 1/4 cup butter or margarine
 1 1/4 cups all purpose flour
 1/2 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
 Butter baking sheets. Combine chocolate pieces, condensed milk and butter or margarine in a medium saucepan. Stir over very low heat or in a double boiler over simmering water until chocolate pieces are melted. Remove from heat. Preheat oven to 350. Stir flour and walnuts or pecans into chocolate mixture. Drop batter from a teaspoon onto prepared baking sheets. Bake 7 minutes or until firm. Remove cookies from baking sheets. Cool on wire racks before storing in airtight containers. Makes 60-75 cookies.

How to Brighten Your Holidays. . .

Safely

The welcoming glow of holiday lights in and around your home helps set the mood this season. To keep that mood from being spoiled by an accident, Texas-New Mexico Power Company offers this safety advice.

- Don't use 120-volt lighting on a metal tree.
- Never place electric lights on a dry, brittle tree.
- When hanging outdoor lights and decorations, use care with ladders or anything else that can come into contact with a power line.

For more information about electrical safety throughout the year, call or visit your local office and ask for the free brochure, "Straight Talk About Electrical Safety."

The Assembly of God Church in Talco enjoyed their combination Thanksgiving Christmas dinner on November 22.

Win Escapes Rebel JV

The Rebel JV played Pleasant Grove Tuesday night at Rivercrest. Although the team played hard, the win escaped them. Kyle Kennedy was high scorer for the team, followed by Jack Brown.

On Saturday the boys returned to meet Hughes Springs. Before the game, most of the Hughes Springs players reached up and touched the rim of the goal in pre-game warm up. The Rebels chances did not look good.

The Rebs' first half was not extra strong, but was enough to keep them within reach. Steven Thomas did a good job of forcing turnovers for the Rebels. Kyle Kennedy went to the free shot line again and again for the Rebs, forcing the Hughes Springs team to back off a little each time.

With less than one second on the clock and the Rebels behind 51-48, Thomas made the 3-pointer as the buzzer sounded, tying the game 51-51.

The Rebel team and fans were loud with their excitement. Coach Gary Schultz held the team together to prepare for the three minute overtime. On the Rebels' first control of the ball, Jack Brown popped a 3-pointer that was answered by Hughes Springs with a three pointer. Again the Hughes Springs team fouled the wrong player. Kyle Kennedy went to the free shot line to make three points for the young Rebels. Final score was 57-56, Rebels.

Kennedy was high scorer, followed by Steven Thomas, Jack Brown, Andy Speir, Jeremy Weatherall and Jeremy Loggins. Coach Schultz, "I'm very proud of the team and he'd like everyone to think the tying 3-pointer was planned."

Help!

A highly sophisticated 9-1-1 Emergency Service is now available to GTE customers in Red River and Titus Counties.

Now, by simply dialing 9-1-1 the location and/or telephone number of the calling party (except party lines) will appear on the dispatcher's screen. That means, even if a person cannot speak after dialing 9-1-1, help can often be sent to the proper location. The emergency 9-1-1 number will connect the caller with Police, Sheriff, Fire Department or Medical Service.

Dial 9-1-1 in an emergency and it might just save your property and your life.

THE POWER IS ON

Rebels Thrash Hughes Springs

The Rivercrest Rebels soundly thrashed the Hughes Springs Mustangs Saturday night by a large margin, 81-35. The Rebels were paced by six men in double figures as the even their season record to 2 and 2.

Dean Tiffie paced the Rebels with 17 points, 5 steals and 4 assists. Shawn Barker, showing good floor speed had 16 points for the Rebels. His first start as a Rebel and was very impressive on the Rebels pounding fast break. Eddie Williams led the Rebels defense as he blocked 6 shots, had 9 rebounds, and scored 12 points. Reggie Alford, the Rebels big 6'6 post man scored 10 points and got the Rebels off to a good start as he hit his first two ten-foot baseline jumpers. Alford also came through with 8 rebounds and 1 blocked shot. Other players scoring in double figures for the Rebs were Clay Pirtle with 12 points and Jerry Francis with 10. The Rebels jumped out to a 25-8 first quarter lead and were never threatened. The score at half time was 52-15, Rivercrest. The Rebels cooled somewhat the second half and Hughes Springs went a more ball control offense to slow the Rebs. The adjustment helped Hughes Springs as the Rebels only outscored the Mustangs 29-20 the second half.

Coach Woods comments, "We were just a more aggressive team tonight on defense. We changed our defense for this game and we didn't give up the cheap baskets off our press as we did against Pleasant Grove. Shawn Barker really gave our running game a boost as he had 10 fast break points the first quarter. We had a good team effort overall. We still must work very hard on our defense. We are not blocking out tough enough. We are not getting on the offensive board aggressively! We must improve daily in these areas if we are going to win district 17-AA again. We have a very tough road game coming up Tuesday night at Mt. Pleasant. I really would like for us to make a strong showing at Mt. Pleasant."

The Rebels will be in the Mt. Vernon Tournament this weekend. The pairings are found elsewhere in this issue. The Rebels first action is Thursday against Sulphur Springs. Game time is 8 p.m.. Friday the Rebels will play Union Hill at 4:30 p.m.. Saturday the Rebels will play Mt. Vernon at 5:15. The tournament will play Olympic style.

The Rebels, who are defending champions of the Mt. Vernon tournament, are expecting a big following at these games. See you there.

Pleasant Grove Defeats Rebels

The Rivercrest Rebels lost to Pleasant Grove Tuesday night. The score was 60-53. The Rebel's record now stands at 1-2 while Pleasant Grove went to 3-0.

Pleasant Grove jumped out to an early lead, outscoring the Rebels 18-16 the first quarter. The Rebels were down by four at halftime 33-29. Through out the game the score remained within 4 to 6 points. The main factor in the contest was the ability of Pleasant Grove to defeat the Rebel press. The Rebels did force several turnovers down the stretch in the fourth quarter, but could not overcome the hot shooting team from Texarkana Pleasant Grove shot over 65% from the field.

The Rebels did not get balanced scoring as is usually the case. Eddie Williams had a hot hand as he finished the game high point man with 24 points. Williams was also a force on defense as he blocked four shots. Dean Tiffie was the only other Rebel in double figures with 11 points. The tight man to man defense held each of the other Rebels under ten points.

The Rebels were again good from the free throw line as they made 11 of 14 attempts. The Rebs had their lowest field goal percent of the year being held to 35%.

Next action of the Rebels was Saturday night against Hughes Springs. (Story elsewhere in this paper.)

Lady Rebels Rolls Over Pewitt 70-36

The Lady Rebels faced Paul Pewitt Monday at Rivercrest, turning the tables following the JV loss to the Pewitt team.

The first quarter ended in a landslide 23-6 score in favor of the Lady Rebels.

The Brahmins couldn't stop Lady Reb Laquita Norman as she made four 3-pointers out of the 20 points she posted for the team.

Rebel Coach Stone saw fit to hold Norman out during the last half of the game, but the rest of the ladies simply picked up where she left off, stealing the ball and scoring.

Pewitt drew a technical foul allowing Kathy Hinsley to add two more points to her scores, which also included a 3-pointer. Four of the Lady Rebs were lost to foul trouble, Michelle Giles, after scoring five points, LaTrisha Belcher after scoring 7 points, Konya Nickerson after scoring six points and Kathy Hinsley who scored 9 points. Ashley Ross followed Norman in scoring with 10 points. Also adding to the total were Karen Williams, Shaunda Jones and Chasity Hall. Final score was Rivercrest 70, Paul Pewitt 36.

Rivercrest JV Girls

The Rivercrest JV Lady Rebels took the court Monday at Rivercrest against Paul Pewitt. The girls struggled through the first half ending it with the score 17-11, Pewitt. The team committed 24 team fouls and could not score in the third quarter. Norma Jasso led in scoring with 8; Keitha Gillis 3 and Heather Holland, Crystal Bell and Jaime Swarts, two each. Final score was 33-19, Pewitt.

The JV girls met Mt. Pleasant Monday. The Lady Tigers held a small lead throughout the game. Halftime score was 26-20, Mt. Pleasant.

Norma Jasso did an outstanding job of drawing the fouls for the ladies, making 10 free shots of 19. The team made a strong comeback in the fourth quarter, although they lost Brandi Easterling and Amanda Savage to foul trouble. With a few minutes left on the clock, the ladies closed the score to 43-40.

Final score was 47-40, Mt. Pleasant.

Norma Jasso was high scorer for the team, followed by Susie Moles. Also adding points were Jaime Swarts, Crystal Bell, Mandy Williams and Elizabeth Scott.

Frosh Rebs Beat Hughes Springs, Fall To Mt. Pleasant

The Rivercrest freshmen boys met the Hughes Springs freshman team Saturday at Rivercrest. A.J. Lee served as captain for the young team. On the first jump at center, Hughes Springs gained control of the ball and scored but the Rebs took full control of the game shortly following the first jump. Rebel Eric Waller was high scorer for the team, racking up 19 points, followed by Jay Hancock and John Davidson. Also adding points for the team were A.J. Lee, Carey Gable. The Rebs stole the ball repeatedly, Carey Gable, A.J. Lee and Eric Waller's quick hands took turnover after turnover.

John Davidson and Jay Hancock did a good job pulling down rebounds for the team. Final score was 51-16, Rivercrest. On Monday, the ninth graders met Mt. Pleasant for a much harder game. The first quarter saw the two teams tied at 14. The half showed the Rebs behind 26-22. The third quarter the Rebels came out cold and struggled throughout the remainder of the game. The ball simply would not drop in.

Final 52-34, Mt. Pleasant. Jay Hancock was high scorer for the Rebs, followed by Eric Waller.

Adding points were Carey Gable, Juan Torres and John Davidson.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Contel of Texas, Inc. has filed an amendment to its application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas for approval of its Universal Emergency Number Service 9-1-1 tariff. The proposed tariff establishes rules, regulations and rates including the provisioning the B9-1-1, C9-1-1, and E9-1-1 services; optional services, such as Selective Routing and Data Base Administration; additional services, such as Forced Disconnect, Called Party Hold, Emergency Ringback; Switched Access System; and Public Safety Answering Point Equipment.

Customers affected are either 9-1-1 districts or councils of government with 9-1-1 responsibilities. The application does not propose changes to emergency fees charged to end-user customers.

Twenty-three customers would be affected by the Universal Emergency Number 9-1-1 tariff, which would increase annual revenues by $10,107.12, a 2.92% increase in the revenues generated by the contract rates of the current customers. Customers will have the option, however, of continuing the rates under their contract for up to one 12-month renewal term.

The deadline to intervene in this proceeding is December 24, 1992. Correspondence or any other communication regarding this matter should reference Docket No. 10929.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in this proceeding should notify the Commission. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information, should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Information Division of the Public Utility Commission at (512) 458-0246 or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf.

You be the Judge.

When the time comes for you to buy a new water heater, your decision will make a big difference in your budget for years to come.

Your water heater is the second largest energy user in your home, so, before you buy, check it out. Here's how: the U.S. Department of Energy requires Energy Guide labels on every new water heater — gas or electric. The yellow Energy Guide label tells you the expected yearly energy cost.

The decision is easy: the natural gas water heater. You won't just get money-saving, low energy cost — you'll get plenty of hot water any time you need it.

So the choice, the savings and the dependability are yours.
