Worth

People are still asking me "Does all this stuff really happen to you?" Yes, it really does...and, in fact, it is still going on! If you don't believe me, then come on out to my house and see the duckling, Willie in the upstairs bath tub, just as happy as can be.

Then, of course, there is the tale of my best friend and Gladys/Grace the cat.

The cat was another orphan. Last fall Thomas brought her home and a skinner, more starved feline you couldn't find.

My friend fell in love with her, and simply had to have her. We called her Gladys, they called her Grace. After the kitten was in good shape she went to Paris to live.

About six weeks ago my friend asked if I would take Gladys/Grace back again...she had developed the unfortunate habit of using her husband and son's dirty clothing for a litter box. This, naturally, created a serious problem.

I reluctantly said yes, asking if the cat had been neutered yet. "Oh no" she cried cheerily, "but she hasn't ever been near a tomat." I eyed the suspiciously round little tabby doubtfully, but, being a trusting soul, took Gladys/Grace on home.

Within two weeks this cat who had never been near a tom presented us with five (count em, FIVE) lovely little kittens. They were born on the fourth of July. I called my friend and told her about the kittens. She had the nerve to laugh at me...after apologizing, of course. If that isn't stretching the bounds of friendship I don't know what is!

Of course, in the meantime I picked up Hester, the ugliest cat in the universe. At the end of a long day of creating kitty cats I think the Good Lord must have had a lot of black and a little of all the other cat-colors left, and he poured it all together and made one more!

Well, little Hester may be ugly, but she has a sweet personality. Where I go she goes, including "helping" me pull weeds in the flower beds. A few evenings ago I was pulling weeds and hit a nest of wasps. They stung me twice, and poor Hester once. I thought I was allergic to wasps...but Hester was worse.

This poor cat's little face swelled up until it looked like she had a ping pong ball on her jaw! She could only eat soft food for several days.

After icing down my stings and the cat's, things settled down.

Then, the five little kittens became ill. Have you ever tried to doctor five active kittens? To make matters worse their mother can't feed them anymore so I'm having to teach them to lap milk from a bowl.

Now, do you see what I mean about the way things are going in my life?

Also, I now have a nice little brown tabby cat, neutered, to give to a good home...also five kittens, three silver tabbies, one dark, one brindled with white socks...also, the ugliest cat in the universe...well, no, I don't think I could part with poor little Hester! HELP!

Funeral Home Changes Name

Bogata-Grant Funeral homes are pleased to announce the changing of both businesses' names to Wood Funeral Homes.

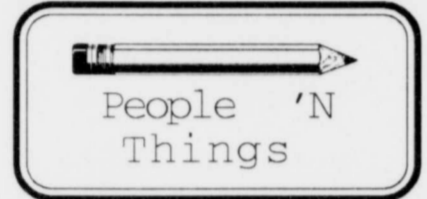

"Since our purchase of the businesses last year we have tried to emphasize the "James Wood Family" as the root of our service", said James Wood, owner of the two businesses. "We wanted the people in both towns to understand that both funeral homes were owned by the same people, and were not in competition with each other. The two businesses were purchased a year ago when James Wood's partner, James Grant, decided to retire. At about the same time Tim Wood, James' son, graduated from mortuary school and moved back to work in the family business.

"The support that we have received in this area has been overwhelming," Tim Wood says. "We have many goals that we hope to achieve. For instance, we have just started a grief library that is housed in our Deport location. We have over 40 books and we hope to move that number into the hundreds by the end of the year. We also hope to speak within the schools and the community organizations about grief education. We really believe that educating people on how to deal with their losses is a vital part of our job."

"On behalf of the James Wood Family, I can't begin to express our appreciation for your support and friendship over the past 23 years. I hope that we can always be there for you whenever you need us. Our family is always just a phone call away from yours" James G. Wood says.

Rivercrest High School Students watch the mail for your schedules. You should receive them by Saturday, August 7.

There will be a come and go shower honoring newlyweds B.J. Thompson and Robert Smith on Sunday, August 8 from 2 to 3:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Calvary Baptist Church in Talco. All friends and relatives are invited.

Area Receives Various Amounts Of Rain

From an inch and a half of rain accompanied by high winds and lightning to a slow drizzle that amounts little more than 17 one hundredths of an inch, the area did receive rain.

Every drop that fell was welcome, as pastures, lawns, crops and trees greedily absorbed the much needed moisture. Cloud cover for part of several days dropped the temperature into a much more comfortable level, also.

A chance of more precipitation remains until Saturday, when a new high pressure system will bring clear skies and one hundred degree plus temperatures.

CHECK-The Talco Kiwanis Club First Vice President Kyle Clemmons and Secretary Jo

Anschutz presented a check for $250 to the Talco Park inc. President Patty Kuhl and Vice President Dick Dickson. The money will be used to help finance this ongoing project.

Country Cooking
By Judy Screws

Well, it finally happened. The ladies from the Woodland Caring and Sharing Club got their recipes in to the news office. I told you all that they would come through. As you read their recipes, you might want to try to remember how their pictures looked in the previous papers so you can picture how they looked preparing their recipes.

While it is probably not exactly germane to the situation, I'll share a couple of things with you that I have learned this past week. The first is that you can add a dab of the fat free cream cheese (the kind in the spread tub) to your fat free pimento cheese and give it an altogether different taste. A spoon of fat free mayonnaise and a spoon of fat free Miracle Whip gives it a better taste than just the mayonnaise. We also made a wonderful mustard dip for things like corny dogs and chicken breast strips by just mixing mustard with brown sugar and adding your favorite spices, anything from garlic powder to cayenne pepper (anything that suits your taste), and heating in the microwave for about 2 minutes, or longer depending on how much you made. You want it to get good and hot first or the sugar will be a little grainy. I also tried corny dogs with the batter made with eggbeaters and skim milk, and a cornbread mix, or from scratch. Just put a spoon of batter in a sprayed corn stick pan, lay a chicken or turkey frank on top of it and put another spoon of batter on top. Bake just as you would cornbread, but not too brown. If it's too brown, it's hard to eat and the flavor is not as good.

I have also relearned this week about taking care of little boys. I haven't had any little boys in many years, and I've not kept our grandsons much, especially the little one, with out their mother around. Our daughter, Chris, has been at Children's Medical Center, in Dallas, with her daughter, Yolanda, so we have had Christopher and Jerred. Christopher can pretty well take care of himself, but Jerred is less than two years old, so his conversation skills are limited. My main problem is his favorite foods. He doesn't have any. Or at least not any that I have found. Christopher eats anything you put in front of him, if it's not beans or tomatoes, or if it doesn't move. I have finally figured out that Jerred will tell you whether he likes it or not. Last night, out of desperation, I opened a can of fruit cocktail and a carton of Blue Bell Ice Cream and put some in a bowl, and just on the chance that he might eat it, I fed it to him in small bites. Every time he got a bite of that good tasting stuff, he would screw up his little face, and look at me with those big brown eyes, and say, "Good." Now I remember the formula: Little bitty kids need little bitty bites. Little boys also have lots of good sugar for old grannies.

Have a good week.

Squash Dressing
By Jane Davis

2 cups squash, cooked and mashed
1/2 lb. sausage, crumbled
1 pkg. cornbread mix
2 eggs
2 heaping tablespoons minced onion salt and pepper to taste

Mix all ingredients and pour into casserole dish and bake in 350 oven for about 45 minutes or until brown and done to the touch.

Raisin Cream Pie

1 1/2 cups milk
2 eggs, separated
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons flour, heaped
2 tablespoons butter
1/3 cup raisins, soaked in small amount of water

Whip egg yolks in milk and heat to scalding stage. Do not boil. Add sugar, flour, melted butter. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. When it begins to thicken, stir in raisins. When thick, add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla and pour into baked pie crust, top with meringue made from beaten egg yolks and brown.

Squash Relish

8 cups sliced yellow squash
2 cups chopped onions
2 cups chopped green pepper

1 large jar chopped pimento
Soak squash in 3 cups water and 2/3 cup salt for at least one hour. Pour off brine. Make syrup of 3 cups sugar, 2 cups vinegar, 2 T. mustard seed, 2 T. celery seed. A few whole cloves if desired. Bring to a boil. Drop in vegetables. Bring to a boil again, but do not let cook. Put into hot jars at once and seal. This is very good with beans or peas.

Cornbread Salad

1 pkg. cornbread mix, cooked
1 small onion or fresh onions, chopped
1 bell pepper, chopped
1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
1 tomato, chopped
2 tablespoons mustard
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 t. pepper
1 t. sugar, do not use if you use Jiffy mix

Combine crumbled cornbread with remaining ingredients. Chill. This is even better the second day.

Broccoli Cornbread

2 pkgs. cornbread mix
1 pkg. frozen broccoli, chopped
1 cup small curd cottage cheese
4 large eggs
1 stick melted oleo

Mix all ingredients together and bake about 35 minutes or until golden and done to the touch.

Cuthand Reunion Brings Back Memories

On Saturday, July 24, 107 residents, former residents, and friends of residents and former residents of Cuthand, registered and were video taped as they signed up for a good time at the Cuthand Reunion. There were many more than 107 people in attendance, but they somehow failed to register.

A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at noon. Some of the folks attending had not seen each other for fifty years, so needless to say, there was a lot of catching up, and reminiscing to do. Hunter's Education Course To Be Taught

A Course in hunter education is scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights, August 30, 31, and September 1, from 6 - 10 p.m. in the vocational Agriculture building at Mt. Vernon High School. Bruce Hunnicutt, a local Vocational Agriculture teacher will be the instructor for the hunter education class.

The course is open to adults and to young people under the age of 18 and will include instructions in hunter responsibility; wildlife conservation and management; firearm, bow, muzzle loading, handgun safety; wildlife identification; game care; survival and first aid; water safety and hypothermia; and other special concerns in hunter safety.

Everyone above the age of 12 who passes the exam with a minimum score of 70 at the conclusion of the course will receive a lifetime hunter education certificate that is recognized by Texas and other states. Those below 12 years of age must take the course over again for proper certification.

With dove season coming up, and deer season and squirrel season set to begin October, this is a good opportunity for hunters to take the safety course before the fall hunting season gets into full swing Hunnicutt said, "I urge them to get certified now."

To pre-register, contact Bruce Hunnicutt at (903) 537-2266 or (903) 537-2651 at night before August 20, for more information, contact Hunnicutt or Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, law enforcement division, Mt. Pleasant at (903) 572-7966. Further information is also available at Texas Parks and Wildlife Hunter Education section in Austin at 1-800-792-1112 or (512) 389-4999.

Keeping Healthy

Age-Related Macular Degeneration

If you're over 50 and the telephone pole or door frame seem a little bent or crooked, you may have the earliest stage of macular degeneration.

The condition, a gradual destruction of a portion of the retina, affects about two percent of those 50 to 65 years old and about 11 percent of those 65 to 75.

People who have the problem do not become blind, but they may lose the ability to see fine details.

Because early diagnosis is the key to successful treatment, everyone over 50 should have regular eye examinations.

The use of vitamins or zinc to prevent progression of the disease is the subject of many investigations, but at present there is no scientific evidence to support their efficacy. There is also no conclusive evidence about whether blocking sunlight with tinted glasses can help prevent progression of the disease.

The best prevention is a regular eye examination, coupled with awareness of the condition. If you notice a change in your vision, let your ophthalmologist know about it promptly.

Safety Around Downed Power Lines Is No Mystery.

The key to keeping safe around a downed power line is simple common sense: keep your distance. Downed lines are not necessarily dead lines and can be extremely dangerous. If you see a line that has been downed by an accident or storm, please stay away from it and report it to your local utility or law enforcement office. For more information about power line safety, call or visit your local TNP office.

A Korean War Dedication

Americans remember people, not wars. And veterans remember sacrifices and dedications to the cause of freedom demonstrated by troops on the front lines.

America has waited since July 27, 1953 to appreciate the armistice, to end the Korean war, signed not only to stop the spread of communist aggression to the Pacific Rim countries then, but in fact led to the demise of communism later throughout Europe. A forgotten war, a forgotten victory can no longer be forgotten. And all veterans who served in Korea will stand tall with pride, knowing they served the cause of freedom.

The Department of Texas Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary encourages "A 40th Anniversary Remembrance", the end of the Korean War.

Shall we salute all veterans who served our country gallantly, as we convey a message of gratitude and respect for those who made the supreme sacrifice during the Korean War.

The state of Texas has set their goal of Unity Building a Better America as they continue to Volunteer For A Better World and they are constantly reminded they must be Forever Watchful.

The organization has scheduled a statewide ceremony to be hosted by District 12 VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary. The event will be supported by Post and Auxiliaries throughout the state.

The dedication ceremony will be sponsored by VFW Post 3990 and its Ladies Auxiliary and held in their Post Home of Paris, on Highway 82 East located in Reno.

Anyone interested may attend the program on August 29, 1993, at 1:00 P.M.

If you are a Korean War Veteran or know someone please help us to invite these great citizens to attend this "A 40th Anniversary Remembrance" ceremony.

Singers Being Auditioned For Sweet Adeline Chorus

A series of auditions for female singers who want to join the Mount Pleasant Chorus has begun and will continue weekly through August. The Mt. Pleasant Chorus is currently being formed. It will be part of the Sweet Adelines International organization, a nonprofit music education association for women whose goal is to perpetuate the art form of a cappella harmony, barbershop style. "If you like to sing in the shower or along with the radio, you can bring the joy of singing back into your life by joining with other women like you who have become dedicated barbershoppers," says Phyllis Blasingame, contact person for the chorus. The chorus rehearses weekly at the First Presbyterian Church, 401 N. Madison, in Mt. Pleasant. Rehearsals begin at 7 p.m. each Monday. Auditions for new chorus members will be held at the conclusion of each rehearsal. Sweet Adelines come from every walk of life and the ages range from teens to the 80s. One thing they have in common is their love of singing. Women of this area are encouraged to come to a rehearsal, see and hear what it's all about, and audition if they would like.
