North Runnels County Hospital officials welcomed new and what they said was a much needed piece of equipment this month – a computed tomography scan or CT scan machine as it is more widely known. Hospital Administrator Judy Espitia wants to get the word out that the machine up and running. Because now Winters patients do not have to travel to Abilene, San Angelo or Ballinger to get a CT scan.

NHR gets CT scan machine New equipment available 24/7

"We want to make sure patients are coming here," Espitia said.

The new CT machine is manufactured by Philips and sits outside the hospital in a specially built and insulated mobile trailer unit. Espitia said it will eventually be moved inside, but modifications need to be done to the hospital building before it can go inside, according to requirements handed down by the Texas Department of State Health Services.

The three technicians who work with the machine are registered radiographers and all of them and they say it is very beneficial to all patients, but particularly those who may have had a stroke or have a head injury. "We can rule out strokes," said Radiography Tech Amy Garza. "Or any kind of trauma, anywhere."

Last week a flurry of work was underway in Winters as youth groups from Granbury and Weatherford descended on the community for the second year in a row for their annual mission trip.

All told, about 80 volunteers - 60 youth and 20 adults - worked hard painting houses, and doing special projects like building a handicap ramp, painting, roofing and cleaning.

"First United Methodist Church of Winters was blessed to have Gran-United Methodist Bethesda United Methodist Church send a mission team for the second year in a row," said FUMC Pastor Bob Murchison. The two churches have been combining their youth mission trips for the past four years, said Josh Leblo, youth minister from FUMC in Granbury "The town has been so responsive to us," Leblo said. "A lot of prep work (from the community) went in to this. Leblo and his counterpart Spencer Row, the youth pastor at Bethesda Methodist Church, thanked the community for all the help. The high school gym was made available for showers, the city pool opened in the evening for the groups and they stayed at First United Methodist in Winters. Plus, meals and supplies were also donated.

The groups worked hard on several different projects this time. On Friday, crews were busy putting up a wheel chair ramp at the home of Perry Ochoa at 504 West Parsonage St.

It's all about giving back, said Charlie Mize, an adult volunteer. He and his son Tanner Mize, 18, and Buster Lee, 16, all of Bethesda Methodist Church in Weatherford, worked on the ramp together.

Charlie Mize, took time off his job as a firefighter at Lockheed-Martin in Fort Worth, to accompany the group to Winters. He was with the group last year too and said the warm ption in Winters drew the groups back.

free to the public.

Filing deadline looming

Filing for two seats on the Winters ISD Board of Trustees begins July 25 with the deadline set on Aug. 24. Candidates may file from 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Winters ISD Administration office at 603 North Heights St.

The last drop

The National Weather Service in San Angelo said residents in Runnels County can expect a hot and dry weather pattern for coming weeks with temperatures inching hovering between 97-99, forecasters say.

No rainfall was reported from July 21-30.

So far this year, Ballinger has received 22.92 inches of rain while 24.68 inches has been reported in Wingate. The NWS reports 18.96 inches of rain has fallen in San Angelo, which is 7.81 inches over the normal annual amount of 10.85 inches.

"It's been really good coming to a town that appreciated us," Row said.

"We like returning somewhere where they appreciate what we do," Charlie Mize said. "We get the benefit of working with the youth and that's always fun - and the clients are wonderful."

On Friday, crews were busy putting up a wheel chair ramp at the home of Perry Ochoa.

"I am so thankful," Ochoa said, explaining that her husband Raul who suffered a stroke in May, will be coming home soon and he is wheelchair bound. "I couldn't have done it without them."

Tanner Mize said the reason for the mission is simple.

"We are here to spread God's name by helping someone who needs help," he said.

Lee said he relishes seeing the grateful looks of all the people we've helped."

Concho Valley Small Grains Workshop set for Aug. 19 in Lowake

TEXAS A & M AGRILIFE EXTENSION SERVICE

LOWAKE - The Concho Valley Small Grain Workshop conducted by the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service is set for Aug. 19 at the Lowake Community Center in Lowake.

The community center is the red brick school building at 23860 Farm-to-Market Road 381. Registration starts at 8:30 a.m. followed by the program from 9 a.m.-2 p.m.

"Wheat is second only to cotton in the Concho Valley with an aver-age annual value of about $23.3 million in cash receipts," said Josh Blanek, AgriLife Extension agent in Tom Green County.

"Knowing the importance of the crop, the Tom Green County Field Crops Committee identified the need for an educational program for area small grain producers."

Blanek said with changes in the Farm Bill and weaker cotton prices, it's likely more acres of small grain will be planted in the next couple of years. "Knowing that, the committee came up with the topics most needed and put the program together around those, so it should be very topical for our producers.'

Blanek said the AgriLife Extension offices in Tom Green, Coke and Runnels counties will conduct the meeting.

Registration and lunch is free for those who RSVP by Aug. 14 and $25 for those registering at the door. To RSVP or for more information, contact the AgriLife Extension offices in Tom Green County at 325-659-6523, Coke County at 325-453-2461 or Runnels County at 325-365-5042.

Three Texas Department of Agriculture continuing education units, one integrated pest management and two general, will be offered.

FUNERALS AND OBITUARIES

Margaret Williams Carter

1927-2015

Margaret Carter passed away after a brief illness on July 20, 2015 at the Wisteria Place skilled nursing facility in Abilene.

Margaret was born May 2, 1927 in the Dale Community near Winters, being the youngest child of Birdie (Watkins) and Howard Williams, Sr. who were pioneer residents of Runnels County. After graduating from high school in 1944, Margaret did clerical work for various. companies, including construction of the Fort Hood airport, the Abilene Reporter-News, and The Superior Oil Company before becoming a homemaker.

Margaret professed her faith in Christ at the First Baptist Church, Abilene, as a young woman, where she met Forrest Carter, and they were married on May 22, 1954. To this union were born two sons, Mark Carter (wife Jo) of North Richland Hills and Greg (wife Tammy) of Longview.

She is survived by Forrest, her husband of 61 years, and her two sons, five grandchildren, Meggie Holland (husband Ryan) of Shreveport, Louisiana, Camille Drenner (husband Cooper) of Austin, Caleb Carter of Dallas, William Carter of Austin, and Austin Carter of Longview, and three great-grandchildren, Charlotte, Elizabeth, and Margaret Holland, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Margaret and Forrest were long-time members of First Baptist. They served for many years after his retirement from West Texas Utilities at the FBC Family Life Center and later at FBC's City Light ministry to the homeless. They also enjoyed travelling during their retirement years, researching family genealogy, as well as visiting family.

Visitation with the family will be at 10:45 AM on Saturday, July 25, at the Winters Funeral Home, followed by a graveside service at the Northview Cemetery in Winters with Rev. David Leyerle officiating. Grandsons and grandsons-in-law will be pallbearers. Contributions may be made in Margaret's memory to the American Cancer Society. The family is especially appreciative of the loving staff at Wisteria Place that cared for Margaret over the last month of her life.

AUSTIN - (July 27, 2015) For the week ending July 25, 2015, Texas auctions quoted feeder cattle prices mostly steady, with instances of sales ranging from $1 to $12 lower per hundredweight (cwt). Texas weekly direct feeder cattle sales were steady to $2 higher, with instances of up to $4 higher early in the week. However, weakness was noted later in the week as bids began to drop again. Wholesale beef values were lower, with Choice Grade losing $2.60 to close at $230.70 per cwt and Select Grade losing $1.16 to close at $228.23 per cwt. Net export sales totaling 10,100 metric tons (MT) for July 10 -16 were down 12 percent from the previous week. Export shipments of 12,800 MT were up nine percent from the previous week. Shipments primarily went to Japan, South Korea and Mexico.

Cotton cash prices were 0.25 cents higher than the previous week and closed at 61.38 cents per pound. October futures prices settled at 65.84 cents per pound, 0.03 cents lower up 17 percentage points from the previous week but down 10 percentage points from last year. Net export cotton sales were up 79 percent from the previous week's sales. Shipments were up 27 percent from the previous week but down nine percent from the average.

Wheat cash and futures prices both lost $0.40 to settle at $4.52 per bushel and $5.07 per bushel, respectively. The USDA NASS Texas field office reported that 97 percent of the Texas wheat crop has been harvested, with 47 percent of wheat acreage in good to excellent condition. Net export sales for wheat were 502,800 MT, with increases reported for Chile, China and the Philippines.

Texas corn prices were lower, with cash prices down to $4.18 per bushel and futures prices down to $3.93 per bushel. The USDA NASS Texas field office reported 75 percent of the Texas corn crop is in the silking stage, with 63 percent of corn acreage in good to excellent condition. Corn export sales were down 33 percent from the previous week and 54 percent from the prior four-week average. Export shipments were two percent higher than the previous week and nine percent higher than the average.

This week's U.S. Drought Monitor for Texas showed a slight worsening of drought conditions for the state, with 4.18 percent of Texas still in some stage of drought intensity. Additionally, none of the state remains in moderate, severe, extreme or exceptional drought. On the national level, drought conditions worsened slightly, with nearly 36 percent of the U.S. experiencing abnormal dryness or some degree of drought, up slightly from last week.

Property, antiques recovered in Runnels County

Property valued at over $8,700 and stolen from an unoccupied Runnels County home, was recovered following an investigation by the Runnels County Sheriff's Office and the Winters Police Department.

Runnels County Deputy David Sellers said the property was stolen from a home located off County Road 385, south of winters.

Sellers said the home was unoccupied because the owner had moved and that authorities do not know when the initial burglary occurred. The items were located July 9 following an investigation, Sellers said adding that the investigation is on-going.

"We have located and recovered $8,700 worth of property," Sellers said.

Sellers said two suspects have been identified and warrants have been issued for theft from an elderly person, a third degree felony, but so far, no arrests have been made.

Upon arrest and conviction, the suspects could face from 2-10 years in prison and up to a $10,000 fine.

Q: What is a landspout?

A: A landspout is a tornado that has formed from clouds that are not associated with a strong thunderstorm, explains Brent McRoberts of Texas A&M University. "Because most tornadoes are formed from the rotating clouds in a supercell thunderstorm, they tend to be stronger than most landspouts," he says. "A landspout is generally a short-lived and weak tornado characterized by a smooth tubular-shaped appearance, but some past landspouts have caused extensive damage."

The highlight of the week is Bible study for H.M. and Maureen Duncan. Jim Wall does a really good job of bringing the lessons on Joseph. Surprising how they fit our lives today. H.M. reminded us this week that the Co-op meeting was next week and they decided to postpone Bible study for next week and also the week after as there are some more absences to deal with.

The church at Voss will be having dinner on the grounds next Sunday with the cooks bringing a pot luck dish.

They went to lunch in Santa Anna with J.D. Steward after church. It was good to have a visit with him.

H.M. has been busy mowing. It's almost impossible to keep the yard mowed.

It has been a quiet week out here. I didn't hear the carpenters up on my roof putting on new shingles. They promised to be out Monday morning, said the trailer had a problem. We will see.

Judy left Wednesday to go to Oklahoma to celebrate three birthdays. I would have just sent a card. She is supposed to be back Sunday. The "baby" is two. Grandson Justin is 15 and grandson Zac is 21, this is all of her grand and great grand kids but one who will be 21 on August 18.

I got busy and did a considerable amount of mowing. The recent rain gave a real growth spurt to the weeds. The larger part out toward the train tracks is a real challenge.

Okay, so I left the lights on Judy's car on overnight. That is just an accidental twist of the turn signal to do that. The battery was dead as a doornail. I tried to charge it up but it just wouldn't charge up. Okay, I tried to just take it out and go get a new one. This battery is in a very tight space. I thought, "well, you just have to work it up and around and pull it out." That sharp metal frame nearly cut my arms off. Bruised and bleeding from elbow to wrist on both arms I give up and look in the service manual. Not any help. "Went on line and there is a video of how to take that back panel of the fender off and the triangle frame to get to the battery. I didn't have the right size tools or a place to work. Got Judy's big time charger, put it on 50 amps and it cranked up. Drove while the driving was good into Toliver's.

Stopped in the drive and there was a short wait so turned off the motor. They had to jump it to get into the mechanics bay. They just happened to have right size needed for a 2008 Pontiac Solstice.

The mechanic, Bobby, started to take the fender off but stopped and looked up his latest shop manual pages on it...Took the right front tire off, unbolted the mud guard in the wheel well and slid the battery out. Who would ever guess? That is better than some models that you have to pull the motor to change the spark plugs, but not by much. One more requirement to find out about before you buy a new car.

So it goes in our quiet little corner of Coleman County.

Championship ring

I saw the winners of a previous Super bowl showing off their championship rings. There have been a lot of football players but only a few are wearing championship rings. They received that award after a lot of training, pain, heartaches, self-sacrifice and effort. Seeing those rings reminded me of what could be in store for many Christians (1 Peter 5:4. 2 Timithov4:8). Non-Christians will not get any rewards, just punishment (Matthew 25:41, John 5:29). God wants all Christians to live in a way (to be champions for Him) that honors Him and to do His will. In football you may play one way (on the field) and live differently off the field. It's not that way in the Christian life. On the field (going to church) and off the field (at work, home or play) is the same, no double standards. Jesus lived His whole life in perfect obedience to the Father and just before He was crucified He said He was about to finish His work on earth (John 17:4). No, Jesus won't be wearing a Super Bowl ring but He will be wearing a beautiful crown and His title will be King of Kings and Lord of Lords (Revelation 19:12&16). We ought to have the same goal as Jesus and maybe one day we will be in the champion's circle (1 Corinthians 9:24, 25, James1: 12). See you in Church next Sunday.

The team did projects around the city as well as leading Vacation Bible School titled "A Visit To Nazareth."

"Twenty-five children from Winters enjoyed learning about life in Nazareth during the time of Jesus Christ," Murchison said.

Overall, the volunteers said the mission was successful and fun. And they thanked those who helped make the trip a success including FUMC in Winters, the City of Winters, Winters Police Chief Randal Davis and Winters ISD and local businesses and individuals who helped.

And the feeling was reciprocated.

"Both our church and the city of Winters were blessed to have the mission team work in our community," Murchison said.

Wheat Variety Performance, and past month, there have been two patients diagnosed with strokes thanks to the machine.

Once the CT scan is taken the images are sent to the radiologist and they get results in 30 minutes.

Garza said the scanner is beneficial to the community because the "population is here.'

"We can see them right now, where they might have to wait to get an appointment elsewhere," Garza said. "We're available and we can do them fast.

The CT scanner has been leased from Radiology Associates of Abilene. Funding was provided through a grant from Medicaid. The process started three years ago, and is just now coming to fruition.

In order to receive funding for the machine, the hospital is required to do 100 scans annually. Since July 1, the hospital has conducted 18 scans. The hospital was approved for the grant in 2015 and had hoped to get the machine up by April, but there were delays due to specifications and modifications to the mobile unit.

"We love it," said Radiographer Eva Zarate. "It's good for the whole community."

America's military men and women sacrifice a great deal to maintain our freedom and way of life. Some of these warriors made the ultimate sacrifice while others came home from the battlefield wounded.

West Central Wireless greatly appreciates their sacrifice and continues to offer our 10% Military Discount to all current, former, and retired U.S. military personnel. West Central would like to further honor our wounded heroes by donating a portion of the processing fees for all internet and cellular activations and upgrades during July. The money will go to several local organizations in West Central Texas and the Hill Country that graciously provide special outdoor sporting and recreational weekends for these brave men and women. West Central and our customers will help sponsor dozens of our military heroes for a special weekend full of camaraderie, fellowship, and outdoor activities like hunting, fishing, and more at area ranches. Come in to any West Central location and help us support our veterans who have supported us.
