

CATTLEMEN'S ROUND-UP FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN NOW UNDERWAY IN AREA

As the 19th annual Cattlemen's Round-up for Crippled Children approaches the September 25 sale date, the West Texas Rehabilitation Center's holding pens are ready . . . but empty.

The more than 160 area chairmen scattered throughout Texas have all been contacted and are presently contacting their friends and neighbors asking for their donation of livestock or cash to this unique fund-raising event. Pledges are already coming into the Center via the area chairmen, and prospects look good for another record Round-Up sale.

Shelley V. Smith, executive director of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, said, "This year's Round-Up just has to be the best ever, as the Center is currently faced with a deficit of $225,000 in operational monies. Smith added: "The success of the sale, as always, is in the hands of the people at this point, and I can think of no other hands that I would rather entrust the future of the Center to than the people of the southwest. In the 19-year history of the Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children, our friends have never let us down, in good times or bad."

The West Texas Rehabilitation Center, which celebrated its 25th anniversary this year, is facing the inflation problem as are all members of the business community, coupled with phenomenal growth in the number of patients served. Last year the Center provided services to 6,098 handicapped individuals, and this year the patient load is running about 12.5% ahead of last year's—which was a record. The Center operates three campuses, one each in Abilene, San Angelo and Snyder. Patients are admitted to this private, non-profit treatment and diagnostic facility without regard to race, creed, color, place of residence, or ability to pay.

Since the fall of 1960, the Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children has been a major source of funding during the last quarter of the year. Last year's sale of 314 head of donated cattle raised $127,530, with the additional sales of horses and other livestock and cash bringing the overall total to 153,299.

The Center during 1978 must raise $1.8 million for its operational expenses. Anyone wishing to donate either livestock or cash should contact his area chairman (in this area, the chairman is Johnnie Burson) or the West Texas Rehabilitation Center at any of the three campuses. Arrangements will be made to pick up and transport livestock into Abilene for the sale.

The cattle sale is set for 1:00 p.m. Monday, September 25, at the Abilene Livestock Auction, and will be followed by a special sale at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, October 4, at the Coleman Livestock Auction and the horse sale at Abilene Livestock Auction at 1:00 p.m.

SOCIAL SECURITY FACTS

by Janice Burns
Social Security Representative
Question: My wife and I are going to retire soon. Our daughter, who is now 28, has cerebral palsy. We are her sole source of support. Can she get any social security benefits when we retire?

Answer: A child who was severely disabled before 22 and who continues to be disabled may get benefits when either parent retires, becomes disabled, or dies after having worked long enough under social security. When you apply for retirement benefits, you can also apply for payments for your daughter. The people at any social security office can tell you what medical evidence you will need for your daughter's application. Depending on her circumstances, she may also be eligible for supplemental security income payments. You should ask about these right away at any social security office.

For further information regarding Social Security benefits please contact the Social Security office, 1401-B West 5th Street, Plainview, telephone 293-4371.

The American farmer builds two things better than anyone else in the world. He builds the next generation, passing along a special kind of wisdom... respect for the soil, honesty, independence, and faith in the future. And he builds his land, leaving it better than he found it. That kind of building usually requires borrowed long-term capital. That's where we have helped for 60 years.

ATTENDS CHRISTIAN SYNOD IN LUBBOCK RECENTLY

V. D. Tiffin, Presiding Elder from the Quitaque congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses returned home recently from Lubbock where he had attended a Christian Synod.

Tiffin stated, "We come back to our respective community with renewed zeal to face each test of loyalty to our God." The assembly theme, "Rendering Sacred Service with Loyalty," assisted the 16 delegates to appreciate that "being loyal implied that we lovingly attach ourselves to our Lord doing what he wills at any given time until his purpose is accomplished."

The highlight of the convention was presented by W. S. Brandozzi, a traveling lecturer for Jehovah's Witnesses. Brandozzi's lecture was entitled, "Meeting the Test of Christian Loyalty," and presented these thoughts: "Every day Christians face tests in loyalty, but usually they are small issues in dealing with our families, dealing with others and in the zeal in talking to others about God's purposes." In quoting from the World Almanac of 1977, Mr. Brandozzi stated that in 1976 of the 987,000 marriages in the United States there was recorded in the same period, 538,000 divorces. In our dealing with others, Brandozzi asked the delegates from the 35 Texas and New Mexico communities, "Are you willing to bypass your rights to assume your duty to do good to 'men of all sorts'?" He also stated in conclusion that "the greatest work we have to do yet, in our test of loyalty, is to make known to others the 'Good News' of God's Word."

Regular meeting schedules at the Kingdom Hall resumed last week.

FEARS

Our fears seem as big and as terrible as this alligator sometimes, don't they? Fear about this thing and that can paralyze us and prevent us from doing our daily work.

Many of our fears are real. A great many of our fears, however, are unfounded — a result of thinking and worrying about ourselves. Sir John Denham phrased it this way:

"My fears are causeless and ungrounded, Fantastic dreams and melancholy fumes."

There is only one thing that will dispel fear of this type. We must do something to get out of ourselves. That means loving and helping others.

The Bible puts it so well in I John 4:18. "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

The Church is God's Agency designed to help you. We invite you to attend this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

New Area Soil Chemist Named

A new area soil chemist for the Texas High Plains has been named by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Lubbock. He is Dr. Dale Pennington, formerly of Weslaco, who has succeeded James H. Valentine as supervisor of the Extension Soil Testing Laboratory at Lubbock and as soil chemist for 80 area counties. Valentine, who in 1960 established the laboratory at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock, retired August 31. Pennington is a graduate of Texas A&M, with doctoral and masters degrees in soil chemistry and a baccalaureate degree in agricultural education.

He has a wide range of experience in farming, research, agronomy and the Extension Service. He is a native of Haskell County, where his family still farms cotton and wheat south of Haskell. Prior to returning to graduate school on a Texas Plant Food Society scholarship, Pennington served as assistant county Extension agent in Jackson County, in the rice, cotton and sorghum producing region along the Gulf Coast. While pursuing graduate studies, he was an assistant in soil chemistry for the Extension soil testing laboratory at College Station. Before becoming area soil chemist for Extension Districts 1, 2 and parts of 3, 6 and 7 on September 1, he served as area agronomist for Extension Districts 12 and 14. He was stationed at the TAMU Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Weslaco. As area agronomist, he was responsible for the Extension educational and crop demonstration program for cotton, sorghum, corn, flax, wheat and sugarcane for 22 counties in South Texas. As assistant in soil chemistry, Pennington identified or helped identify several production problems throughout Texas. In Lee, Atascosa and Mason counties, the first reported copper deficiency in peanuts and wheat were identified by tissue and soil testing. During the development phase of tissue analysis at College Station laboratory, the first South Texas zinc deficiencies in sorghum in Matagorda County and corn in Victoria County were identified. Also, the first reported boron deficiencies in vegetables grown near Houston were made by soil extraction.

His research included studies conducted in Bailey County which indicated that zinc was needed in sorghum for this area prior to 1969. Pennington has also evaluated methods for predicting nutrient requirements for crops through petiole analysis.

While serving as area agronomist in South Texas, Pennington utilized infrared photographs to determine extent and intensity of iron deficiency in South Texas sorghum. These efforts increased the use of iron sulfate by 200 percent by skeptical producers. Demonstration data indicated efforts boosted yields by 10 to 30 percent where the practice was adopted.

In the Rio Grande Valley, Pennington was able to demonstrate that cotton could be grown with far fewer costs by outlays than had been previously thought. "Our philosophy was to develop a cotton crop with less than three insecticide applications, to get the maximum efficiency from our herbicides and to give pest management a chance to operate," he said. The result was dryland yields of 998 pounds per acre in 1977 and 858 pounds per acre in 1978. Cost per pound for the Minimum Input Cotton Demonstration programs were 23.5 and 28 cents, respectively.

His honors include outstanding senior in Agricultural Education, 1962 and membership in Gamma Sigma Phi. He is married to the former Carmen Cornelius of Llano and they have one son, Shannon.

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY

by Janice Burns
Social Security Representative

Question: When my ex-husband died in 1976, I applied for social security benefits on his work record. I was told I couldn't get payments because our marriage hadn't lasted for 20 years or more. Has that requirement been changed?

Answer: Yes, but the change doesn't become effective until January 1979. Starting in 1979, the length of time a divorced woman must have been married to a worker in order to get benefits will be reduced from 20 years to 10 years. If you and your ex-husband were married for at least 10 years, you should re-apply for benefits in 1979.

For further information regarding Social Security benefits please contact the Social Security office, 1401-B West 5th Street, Plainview, telephone 293-4371.

The Protecting LIGHT

This lighted tower is a light shining in the darkness to guide sailors and ships through the night. Our Lord is our light who guides us faithfully through life, even though it be as a stormy sea — He knows the way. His word, as proclaimed in His church, will light your way and bring peace, joy and comfort. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Psalm 119:105.

THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish.
