SILVERTON REBATES UP 21%

Sales Tax Rebates Down From Last Year Across The State

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said city sales tax rebates for April totaled $24.1 million, about $10 million less than Texas cities received in April last year.

He said 1980 rebate payments of the optional one-percent city sales tax from the first of the year now total $162.8 million, compared to rebates of $135.2 million over the same period in 1979.

Because year-to-date payments are up over last year, it's too early to say whether the decreased monthly payments reflect a downward trend in taxable sales or simply seasonal adjustments, Bullock said.

"The next couple months bear special attention and may give us a clear x-ray about what's happening and what to expect from the Texas economy," he said.

Silverton received no payment for this period, having received $831.30 for the same period last year. Silverton's 1980 payments to date total $5,164.75, somewhat ahead of the 1979 payments to date of $4,260.52.

Quitaque also received no payment for this period. The payment for this period last year was $953.49. The 1980 payments to date are $3,337.87, up from the 1979 payments to date which totaled $3,186.64.

Neither did Turkey receive a payment for this period. That city received $720.72 for the same period last year. The 1980 payments to date total $3,210.76, slightly lower than the $3,282.12 received to date in 1979.

Houston will receive $6.7 million in rebates for April, bringing that city's 1980 payments to date to $34.1 million, a 22% increase over 1979 payments to date.

Dallas will get a check for $2.6 million, compared with $4.9 million the city received in April of last year. The city's 1980 payments for the first four months total $19 million, a 17% increase over the same period in 1979.

The city sales tax is collected by merchants and other sales tax permit holders along with the

USDA Seeks Comments on Proposed Changes In Cotton Loan Regulations

Cotton marketing agents would be able to receive and repay "form A" loans for their clients at a central county office, rather than having to apply at individual county offices under a proposal made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. "Form A" loans are those generally taken out by individual farmers, while "form G" loans are those taken out by farmer cooperatives.

USDA's Commodity Credit Corporation would designate ASCS county offices to serve several cotton-producing counties. These central offices would make it simpler for agents to market cotton because the agents would be able to contact fewer offices. When getting a loan in the past, a marketing agent had to go to the client's ASCS county office.

The proposal would allow cotton marketing agents to help producers sell their cotton for the best price available and at the same time use the CCC loan program to facilitate orderly marketing.

Individual cotton farmers would still have the option to receive and repay "form A" loans at their local county ASCS office. The proposed change covers 1980 and subsequent cotton crops. Written comments must be received by June 6 and should

Fat Cattle Production Down Slightly In Area

Sam Thomas, manager of agricultural development for Southwestern Public Service Company in Amarillo, has announced that 4,891,492 fat cattle were produced in 1979 in the 45,000 square mile area served by SPS. This is a decrease of 1.67% over the previous year but is still the third largest number ever produced in a 12 months period.

These facts were shown in a survey conducted by SPS each year since 1963. The survey is be addressed to: Director, Price Support and Loan Division, ASCS-USDA, P. O. Box 2415, Washington, D. C. 20013.

quoted throughout the United States as the most authoritative source as to the production of fat cattle in the Southern Great Plains area.

"During the 1979 period, the feedlot capacity came to 2,718,549 which reflects a reduction of 9851 head over 1978," Thomas said. "The total impact of the feedyard industry on the business community exceeded 13.8-billion dollars and the farm sale value exceeded 5,595-million dollars."

The total feedlots surveyed remained the same as last year. Lots with a 1000 head capacity and above decreased by 4% and lots with 5000 head capacity and above increased by 2.56%. Total feed lot capacity decreased by .03%.

Thomas said, "Over production of pork and poultry have caused prices on these products to drop and also caused the price of beef to drop. Beef prices are difficult to maintain at more than 1 1/4 that of pork. If this glut of pork and poultry continues, fat cattle prices could drop to 45c.

The feed yards used 195,659,680 bushels of feed grain and 1,222,873 tons of silage. At 50c per pound cost of gain and 400 pound gain per animal, the feedlot bill is estimated at $978,298,400. At 52c per pound cost of gain, the feedlot bill is increased to $1,017,430,336, and at 54c to $1,056,562,272.

Thomas said the interest cost at 16% for the time the animals were in the feed lot would amount to $241,248,385, or $49.32 per animal, about 5c per pound live weight or 8c on dressed weight.

The survey has made a major contribution to the development and growth of the industry and has been especially valuable in the vertical integration that has occurred in the SPS service area. "Copies of the survey will be available at Southwestern Public Service Company offices in about 60 days," Thomas said.

KIKER'S KORNER

PEOPLE SPREAD PLANT DISEASE ORGANISMS

Most folks don't realize it, but they often spread plant disease organisms.

Topsoil is one of the major sources of disease organisms, such as root knot nematodes. Once they are brought into a lawn or garden area, they will be there as long as susceptible plants are grown.

If you are planning to bring in topsoil for a garden or yard, be aware of the risks of contamination. In addition to disease organisms, a host of weed species may be introduced.

Trading plants is another common means of transporting plant disease organisms. Infected plants moved from one location to another can successfully transport the organism and may be a threat to other existing plants. So, make sure that only healthy plants are traded.

While most plants offered for sale in commercial channels are disease-free, it's still a "buyer's beware" market. Buyers are advised to observe carefully all plant parts before placing the plant into the landscape. If roots are knotted or galled or other abnormalities are present, return the plant to the seller for a refund.

Some plant disease organisms are moved about on equipment. Such is the case with St. Augustine decline, a virus disease. Lawn mowers used to cut a diseased lawn and then moved to a healthy one can transmit the virus. This is more likely to happen when one is cut following the other and before plant juices have a chance to dry.

Since disease organisms are microscopic in size, they can be transported unconsciously. It is suggested that gardeners be familiar with the nature of plant disease development and avoid procedures that might bring a problem to their landscape.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bob Watson, Keri and Lori of Coleman spent a long weekend with his parents, the Obra Watsons. All were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Richards.

Convenience Foods--Luxury Or Economy?

CONVENIENCE FOOD PRODUCTS

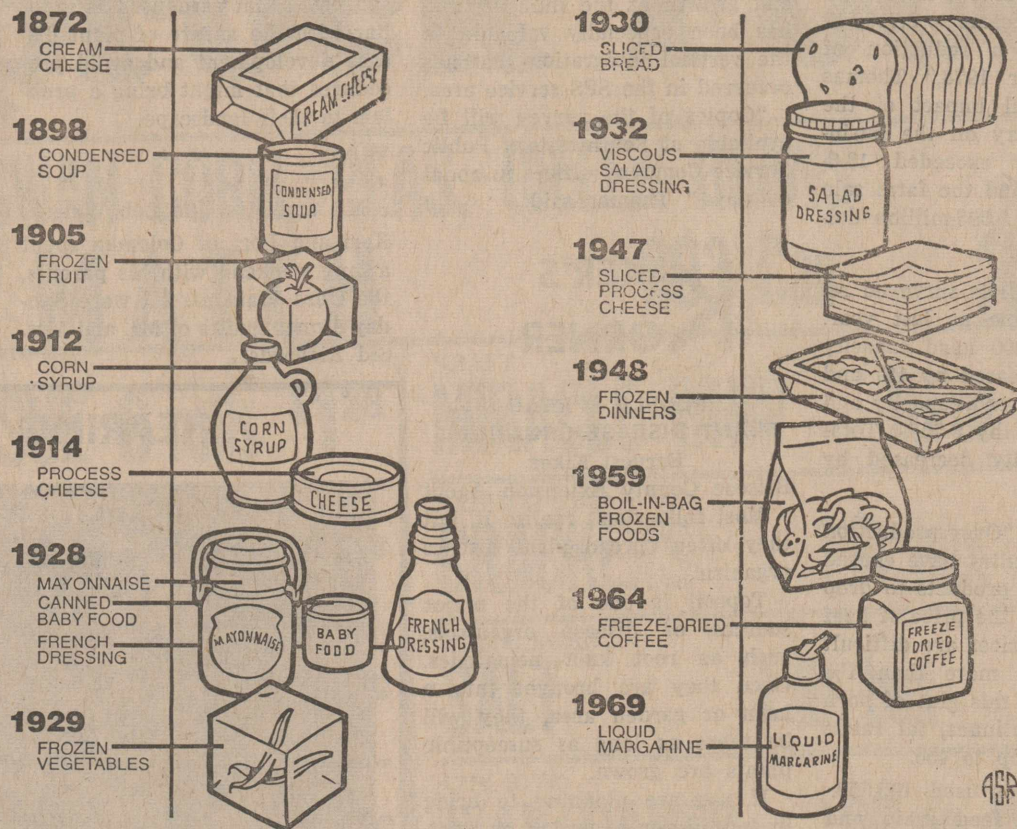

Convenience foods account for nearly 50% of all foods sold nationally in chain retail grocery stores, according to a study released by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) in 1979. The USDA study defined a convenience food as any partially or completely prepared food that could be prepared in the home. The percentage would have been much greater if every food that provides some convenience would have been considered.

Ingredient foods such as mayonnaise, margarine, and flour provide considerable convenience, but were not included in the study since they generally are not prepared in the home. These products are taken for granted as "staples" or "ingredients" today, but were considered convenience foods to shoppers years ago. If today's consumer prepared basic ingredients in the home, however, the true convenience of these products would be appreciated.

Convenience foods are not always more expensive than equivalent home-prepared foods, as many believe. The USDA study reported: "When the costs for food, fuel, and preparation time (at the minimum wage) were combined for 41 convenience products, nearly half were less expensive than their home version. About 60% of the convenience products were less expensive when the cost of preparation time was based on a cook's wage.

The choice between convenience or home-prepared is a value judgment that must be made by each individual depending on the time and money available. Clearly, the time factor is very important to the increasing number of women employed outside the home who do not have time for lengthy meal preparation on workdays.

When purchasing convenience foods, careful shoppers ask the following questions. Are the ingredients of the same high quality I would use myself? What is the nutrition content? Is this the kind of food we enjoy? How many ingredients would I have to purchase to prepare a similar food?

Convenience foods are not popular only with working women. According to the USDA, young men living alone spend the highest proportion of their at-home budget on prepared products. A 1979 Seventeen magazine food survey estimates that 65% of teenage girls buy and prepare food for family meals, and 80% of these inexperienced cooks use convenience foods in meal preparation. Another industry survey estimates that 33% of the meals in multi-person households are eaten alone, and are often convenience foods.

Convenience foods can reduce time and effort in the kitchen, eliminate such chores as planning and preparation, reduce cleanup, and eliminate waste. Also, time required for buying and storing convenience food is often reduced because each package contains most or all of the required ingredients.

Experienced shoppers who occasionally enjoy the convenience of partially or fully prepared foods create "convenience foods" of their own. They take advantage of weekly supermarket specials, prepare favorite recipes in quantity, then package and freeze small servings for later use. They also personalize purchased convenience foods by adding one or more additional ingredients such as chicken or tuna to macaroni and cheese dinner.

Consumers must individually evaluate the merits of convenience foods based on their nutrition needs, convenience, cost, time, and individual preferences. Few consumers want to return to a life without convenience foods; most simply want to make wise selections among the many types available. To become a better informed consumer, write for a single free copy of "Outsmarting the Cash Register" from Kraft, Inc. Send a postcard with your name and address to "Outsmarting" (M6), Box 802, Dept. MR, South Holland, IL 60473.

MRS. STRANGE IS SHOWER HONOREE

Mrs. Ronnie Strange, the former Karla Waldo, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon in the Pioneer Room at First State Bank in Silverton.

Guests were received by Mrs. Some 270 Extension Homemaker Club members and Extension Agents from the 20-county district attended the spring business meeting and participated in the educational workshops.

Mrs. Jarrett will be installed at the State TEHA Convention in San Antonio in October and will represent this district at other state meetings and preside at the district meetings during her two-year term of office.

Extension Homemakers —once called Home Demonstration Clubs —is the largest women's organization in the nation. These clubs meet monthly in their counties for informal learning activities to improve their knowledge and skills related to their homes and families.

Programs are planned by members through a yearbook committee. There are no dues for Extension Homemaker Clubs.

At present there is only one club in the county. Anyone who would like to join this club—Southwestern Extension Homemakers Club—or would like to start another club, may call the County Extension Office, 823-2343. Clubs are open to persons of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, or national origin. A few clubs even have men as members.

APPRECIATION EXPRESSED TO AREA BLOOD DONORS

On April 8, 1980, Silverton hosted the most successful blood drive ever held. On that day, 89 blood donors came to City Hall to give the precious "Gift of Life." This effort capped a solid string of successful blood drives in Silverton dating back to 1974. During those years more than 700 pints of blood have been donated at the semi-annual drives. That represents hundreds of hospital patients who have been helped by the unselfish blood donors of the Silverton area.

All Silverton blood donors should feel justly proud of themselves for having helped provide the thousands of pints of blood required each year in the hospitals of the Texas Panhandle. The Coffee Memorial Blood Center of Amarillo wishes to express its gratitude to all the Silverton blood donors who come forward each time they're called upon to help their fellow man. The people

Dana Martin and presented to the honoree, her mother and sister, Mrs. Tom McDonald and Kelly of Aurora, Colorado, and to the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Fred Strange of Silverton. The bride wore a blue and white corsage of feathered carnations which carried out her chosen colors, and the mothers of the couple were presented white carnation corsages with blue accents.

Mrs. Gary Storie presided at the guest registry, while Misses Kathy and Missy Brown served pecan tassies, other pastries and punch from a table covered with a lace-edged white cloth. The centerpiece was a pepperomia plant in a basket tied with a blue bow.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Dana Martin, Mrs. Clifton Stodghill, Mrs. J. C. Fowler, Mrs. Gary Storie, Mrs. Marvin Self, Mrs. Willard Vardell, Mrs. Roy Younger, Mrs. Roy Montague, Mrs. Joe Montague, Mrs. Doyle Stephens, Mrs. Don Brown, Mrs. Quinn Montague, Mrs. Wayne Schrandt, Mrs. Robert McPherson, Mrs. Doug Bradford, Mrs. Letha Lanham, Mrs. Archie Martin, Mrs. Gary Whitfill, Mrs. Troy Jones and Miss Celia Martin.

Attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Tom McDonald and Kelly of Aurora, Colorado; Mrs. J. T. Poole and Mrs. Steve Brown, Floydada; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wood and Jessica and Mrs. Patsy Childs, Amarillo; Mrs. James Poole, Idalou; Mrs. Bill Hart, Shallowater; Mrs. Norman Strange, Dumas.

of Silverton have shown time and again that they are not willing just to "let somebody else do it."

Indeed, they have shown a willingness to literally give of themselves so that another person may be helped to a speedy recovery in some hospital. That willingness both deserves and receives a sincere THANK YOU from the Blood Center.

Mrs. Roy Younger, chairman of the Silverton blood drives, also expressed appreciation to the L. O. A. Junior Study Club, Silverton Young Farmers and the City of Silverton and its employees for co-sponsoring the blood drive.

As A Man Thinketh

Gerald Beasley
GOVERNMENT

"My duties as President of the United States have just begun. I want to justify the will of the people. And the people know that it is impossible to rightly govern without God and the Bible."

So spoke George Washington as he assumed office as the first President of our country.

Nebuchadnezzar, mighty Babylonian monarch, once was divinely abased. "... until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will" (Daniel 4:32).

"Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people" (Proverbs 14:34).

In regard to civil government God indicated the Christian is to pay, obey, and pray. (Perchance, the circumstances could arise when one "must obey God rather than men," Acts 5:29.) Consider Matthew 22:21 and Romans 13:1-7. This paying and obeying may at times seem grievous, but for the "true worshipper" (John 4:23) the praying ought to come easily: "I exhort therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; for kings and all that are in high places; that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life" (1 Timothy 2:1-2).

If God's people prayed often and earnestly for "all that are in high places" perhaps providential government - guidance would make the paying and obeying directed to civil authorities less painful.

Clean Up Television Campaign

Without question TV has the potential of communicating tremendous benefits to America. Currently the pearls must be fished from a slop bucket.

Following is a synopsis of TV's "One Life To Live," printed in the Dallas Times-Herald. "Paul learned that Brian's paranoia stemmed from the knowledge that Tony and Pat had become lovers. Paul left to get a quickie divorce. Karen pushed her luck with Dorian by making eyes at Peter. Becky was troubled by calls from someone in her past. Samantha told Vicki she's in love with a man, but didn't mention it's Tony. Brian caused further concern when he learned Pat and Tony planned to wed. Dorian insisted Melinda would rot without financial support unless she lived with Dorian."

Many other synopses are as lurid and disgusting.

Brazen, filthy, blasphemous language tarnishes otherwise decent TV productions. Not too many years ago TV was free of profanity, obscenities and bedroom scenes. Now even TV game shows have become suggestive and sex-oriented.

TV, America's baby-sitter, is unquestionably mesmerizing YOUR youngsters into a lack of consciousness of moral, ethical values.

Adults, too, need the Lord's "eyesalve" (Rev. 3:14-18) that they might SEE what's going on: "Awake, thou that sleepest!"

A THERMOMETER merely and simply registers its surroundings. But a THERMOSTAT registers, is sensitive, then acts to change the surroundings! Be a thermostat!

The Silverton CHURCH OF CHRIST is participating in a "CLEAN UP TV" Campaign. Throughout the country several hundred thousands have signed up to DO something.

Free self-explanatory "Clean Up TV" Campaign cards are available. If you want cards, see Gerald Beasley or any other member of the Silverton Church of Christ, or phone 823-2060. Examine card. If you choose, fill it out and turn it in. Thanks.

The American farmer builds two things better than anyone else in the world. He builds the next generation, passing along a special kind of wisdom... respect for the soil, honesty, independence, and faith in the future. And he builds his land, leaving it better than he found it. That kind of building usually requires borrowed long-term capital. That's where we have helped for 60 years.

DOUBLE ON WEDNESDAY

Women's Rally To Be Held In Washington Monday, April 28

Arrangements are being completed for the National Christian Women's Rally to be held Monday, April 28, at the D.A.R. Constitution Hall in Washington, D. C. This is one of the events which will precede the "Washington For Jesus" rally on April 29.

The doors of Constitution Hall will open for the women's rally at 1:30 p.m. and the meeting will be held from 2:30 until 4:30 p.m. Speakers will include Dale Evans Rogers, Vonette Bright, Nancy Thurmond, Dee Jepson, Ann Kiemel, Shirley Boone, Joyce Landorf, Marjorie Horton, Sarah Jordan Powell and Iverna Tompkins.

YOUTH RALLY

The Christian youth of America are planning to gather in Robert F. Kennedy Stadium on the eve of the "Washington For Jesus" rally to show the nation a dedicated, responsible group of Americans who will pray for the future of the country. April 28 will see over a million believers assemble on the National Mall, where thousands of young people will gather to pray, worship, and display a unified concern for America.

Groups scheduled to perform include The Imperials (recent Grammy winners), Roger Wiles, Keith Green, Scott Wesley Brown and Barry McGuire. The groups Lamb, 2nd Chapter of Acts, The Pat Terry Group, and Truth will be joined by singers Nancy Honeytree, Pat Boone, and others.

Speakers for the event will include Nicky Cruz, Josh McDowell, David Allbritton, Arthur Blessitt, Larry Tomczak, and others.

In the eyes of "Washington For Jesus" organizers, there has been a lop-sided view of American youth presented in the media. The Youth Rally will begin at 6:00 p.m. on April 28, and will continue until the early hours of the morning. Its purpose is to pray for the nation—and help change the distorted impression that American youth all are headed downhill.

CHURCHES SENDING DELEGATES

Both the First Baptist Church and First United Methodist Church in Silvertown have announced plans to send delegates to the "Washington For Jesus" rally. The rest of the church members are planning to set aside April 29 as a day of fasting and prayer here in Silvertown.

Walter Perkins received a broken leg while practicing for rodeo competition at the Jerry Baird home Sunday. He was transported by the Silvertown Volunteer Ambulance Service to Swisher Memorial Hospital for first aid and then to High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo, where he underwent surgery Monday morning. This was the same limb that he injured in an accident last summer, which resulted in a partial amputation of his foot.

TO THREAD A NEEDLE

Did you ever thread a needle?
 ... Most everyone has, it takes a good eye, for the opening is small. Did you ever try to thread one while someone else held the needle?
 ... This is almost impossible. All this brings us to the point that ... there are some things that we must do ourselves. We can not send someone else to church for us, we can not have someone else worship the Lord for us. These things are strictly on an individual basis.

After the bleakness of winter comes Spring. Fulfilling a promise of long ago, the seasons follow one another in divinely planned succession.

All around us we see evidence of evil, but the Church gives positive assurance that God is ever present. As Spring brings new life, so does the Church.

Consider the daffodil—its freshness and beauty speak of hope. Consider the Church—its steadfast faith strengthens mankind. God creates daffodils, but intelligent cultivation makes them even more beautiful. Likewise, He depends on us to spread the influence of the Church and to make a better world.

Accept this tremendous challenge and become a part of God's Church today.
