Garvin, Jr., Briscoe County Appraisal Board Chairman.

Cogdill Named FFA Star Chapter Farmer

Rank Cogdell, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cogdell, was recently named Star Chapter Farmer of the Silverton chapter of Future Farmers of America, and placed second in the Plainview District competition.

Cogdell was born and reared on a top-notch beef cattle and quarter horse ranch north of Silverton along the breaks of the caprock. His supervised farming program consists of breeding beef cattle, breeding quarter horses, and raising and training top cutting horses in the nation.

Gearing-up for a career in the production of top quality beef, Cogdell was this year named winner of the Silverton chapter's Beef Production Proficiency Award. Cogdell placed second in district competition.

For Cogdell, winning these awards is the result of two years of work in the vocational agricultural program and at home with his various enterprises.

All FFA members who have supervised agricultural occupational experience programs in the area of beef production are eligible to apply for the Beef Production Proficiency Award. Requirements at the chapter level include maintenance of a complete set of records including income and expenses, an inventory of beef and related equipment owned by the student, a financial statement and a good knowledge of successful beef production techniques.

Cogdell has been the Silverton FFA Star Greenhand and winner of the local Horse Proficiency Award. His work with beef cattle and quarter horses has won him many top honors locally and statewide. His registered quarter horses along with his training for cutting and working cattle have placed him in the top rank among other national breeders.

Computers Give New Dimension to Farming, Ranching

Computers are no longer strangers to the agricultural industry. They offer a new dimension in farming and ranching that can help producers obtain more accurate information on which to base management decisions.

To give producers, agricultural leaders and others a better understanding of the role of computers and their actual application, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, will be conducting a special computer workshop September 23-24 at the Civic Center in Lubbock.

The workshop on "Computers in Farm and Ranch Management" is designed to provide an introduction to several different computer systems available today, points out Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist in management with the Extension Service.

"Participants will have an opportunity to get some 'actual' experience by operating several different computer programs," says Hayenga. "Everyone attending should have time to run a computer using his own farm or ranch data. This will be a true 'hands-on' workshop."

First day of the workshop will feature discussions on various computer systems, their role in agriculture, how to select one, available programs, and farmer experiences with computers.

Four "work" sessions will round out the workshop the next morning. These will deal with micro farm accounting systems, livestock management decision aids, crop management decision aids, and financial projections and pricing aids.

Speakers and resource personnel during the two-day workshop include Extension economists and several farmers and ranchers who will talk about how they use computers in their operations.

Area I Officers Elected In Amarillo

Area I Young Farmers elected officers for the 1981-82 year at the recent convention held at the Amarillo Civic Center in Amarillo.

Commercial exhibits will also be on hand.

As an indication of the interest in computers in agriculture, Hayenga notes that an earlier workshop in Corpus Christi attracted some 140 individuals from six states.

Registration information is available from many County Extension Agent or from Marvin Sartin, Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, Route 3, Box 213AA, Lubbock, Texas 79401.

Education Is A Lifelong Process

Education is a lifelong process. Rapid technological advancements in this age have made this so.

Possibly no one realizes this more than members of the Young Farmers of Texas organization. Today there are over 150 Young Farmer chapters operating in Texas. The Young Farmers plan and carry out educational activities designed to increase their efficiency and skill in the business of agriculture—production, management and marketing. Though organized primarily for educational purposes, chapters participate also in many civic and community service activities. Rural leadership development and recreation are also important parts of each chapter's program. The vocational agriculture teacher in the public school serves as advisor to local chapters. In its many-phase program, planned annually on a 12-month basis, the Young Farmer chapter becomes an instrument for strengthening family ties and for making the rural area a better place in which to live.

The Young Farmer program had its origin in clubs formed by FFA alumni. These clubs met in 1954 and formed the State Association of Young Farmers of Texas. Membership was opened up to anyone, ages 18-35, in farming, ranching, or other phases of agriculture. There has been a gradual increase in the numbers of chapters and members since 1954. Today there are over 3,500 paid members in the 150 chapters making up the State Association of Young Farmers of Texas. The Silverton Young Farmer chapter is proud to be one of the 150 chapters.

The newly-elected officers are Ronald Groves, Hale Center, president; Bill Reid, Silverton, reporter; and serving as state officer for the next two years, Teddy Smithson, Dimmitt.

Area I advisor is Jay Eudy, Plainview. Mr. Eudy is with the Texas Education Agency, sponsor of the Young Farmers of Texas.

MRS. JAMES ALAN PATTON

Davidson-Patton Vows Exchanged In Double-Ring Ceremony

Miss Ruegena Davidson became the bride of James Alan Patton in a formal double-ring ceremony at 7:00 p.m. September 5, at the First Baptist Church in Silverton. Earl Cantwell, minister of the Rock Creek Church of Christ, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rue Davidson of Borger and Jim Davidson of Silverton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patton, jr., of Silverton.

Two spiral brass candelabra entwined with silk English ivy and mauve pink flowers flanked an arched candelabra entwined with silk English ivy and accented with a pink lace bow which formed the background for the nuptial area. The white memory candle accented with pink silk flowers was placed on a brass pedestal under the center archway.

Family pews were marked with pink ribbons and brass hurricane lamps.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white silk organza fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline. The bodice was covered with Chantilly lace and seed pearls. The full bishop sleeves were of matching Chantilly lace and the empire waistline was enhanced with a bow in back. A full skirt featured three flounces, edged with Chantilly lace, which extended into a chapel-length train.

Her veil was a waltz length mantilla edged with matching lace and seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of pink baby's breath and tiny burgundy mums surrounding mauve pink silk orchids showered with pink lace and ribbon.

To carry out bridal tradition, she carried an old lace handkerchief which belonged to her great-great-grandmother and a new bible given to her by her mother. She borrowed her mother's diamond pendant and added a blue garter.

Miss Debbie Storie served her friend as maid of honor. She wore a Gunne Sax gown of mauve pink georgette with ruffles at top and bottom. Her bodice with spaghetti straps and skirt were gathered to the waistband.

Bridesmaids were Terri Gallo-way of Canyon, college roommate of the bride, Jenifer Lowery of Perryton and Donna Rowell of Silverton. Their dresses were the same as that worn by the maid of honor. They carried white lace fans to which were attached pink silk flowers and pink and lace ribbon made by the bridegroom's mother.

Little Miss Page House of Tullia, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a dress designed like those of the other attendants except that her dress had puffed sleeves.

Candles were lighted by Alesha Patton, sister of the groom, and Shane Reagan, cousin of the groom. Miss Patton's dress was like that of the other attendants, and she wore a wristlet of pink silk flowers.

Eric Tupin of Amarillo was ring bearer.

Groomsmen were Eric Patton of Silverton, brother of the groom, Bryce McGregor of Canyon and Chief Davidson of Amarillo, brother of the bride. They also seated the guests.

Best man was Mark Patton, brother of the groom.

Mrs. LaRue Garvin played nuptial selections, and also accompanied Christi Baird of Palmer, Texas, who sang "The Rose," "Evergreen" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother chose an aqua starburst pleated dress with spaghetti straps and sheer jacket for her daughter's wedding. She added a corsage of pink and burgundy silk flowers.

The groom's mother wore a rose pink starburst pleated dress with jacket and also added a corsage of pink and burgundy flowers.

A reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall following the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered with a mauve pink cloth with lace overlay that belonged to the groom's great-grandmother, Mrs. Jewel Francis. An arrangement of pink and burgundy flowers in a burgundy vase was used as the centerpiece.

The three-tier wedding cake was arranged atop four cakes and was iced in white and decorated with pink and burgundy roses. Refreshments were served at the bride's table by Connie Rowell and Debbie Storie.

Connie Rowell also was in charge of securing the guests' names for the wedding book. Others assisting with the reception were Mmes. Mary Brown, Carolyn Reagan, Roy Reed, Peggy Fleming, Elzora Gallington, Vaughnell Brannon, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Fitzgerald.

The groom's table was covered with a burgundy cloth on which the centerpiece was a live green ivy in a basket. A silver coffee service and chocolate double ring cake were also placed on the table. Serving was by Donna Rowell and Christi Baird.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, Louisiana, the couple is at home at 203 Braidfoot in Silverton.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Silverton High School. She is a junior at West Texas State University.

State's Sales Tax Law Changed Some

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said persons and businesses who buy and sell items subject to the state's sales and use tax should be aware of changes in the law that are now in effect.

He said persons who have issued a resale certificate or an exemption certificate to acquire an item can now donate the item to a non-profit charity, religious or educational organization and not be liable for the sales tax on the item.

"This means a merchant can take items from inventory and give them to any organization that's exempt from the sales tax and the merchant doesn't have to report the gifts as taxable purchases when they file their sales tax return," Bullock said.

Bullock pointed out that the Legislature expanded the categories of organizations that qualify for an exemption from sales tax if they are exempted from federal taxes by the Internal Revenue Service.

Provided the organization has a letter from the IRS saying that it is exempt from federal taxes, Bullock said the categories now exempt from the state's sales tax include:

—Organizations such as Rotary, Optimists, Junior Chambers of Commerce, Lions and Garden Clubs and some property owner associations that are exempt from federal taxes under Section 501 (c) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

—Fraternal societies such as Masons, Elks, Moose, Knights of Columbus, DeMolay and the Eastern Star that are exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) or Section 501 (c) (10) of the IRC.

—Organizations formed to benefit veterans such as the Air Force Association, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans that are exempt under Section 501 (c) (19) of the IRC.

Bullock said another change in the state law affects the amount of tax due when a person has issued either a resale or an exemption certificate to purchase an item and then uses the item for personal benefit for some period of time.

The groom attended WTSU for two years and now is engaged in farming.

REHEARSAL PARTY

A rehearsal party was held at the El Camino Restaurant in Tullia the night before the wedding. The dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patton, jr.

Abandoned Wells Are Death Traps

Abandoned water wells or cisterns that are left uncovered are death traps, especially for small children who might stumble into them, a local conservation official warned this week.

"Already this year, at least two children have died after falling into old open water wells," John Crowell, district conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service in Silverton said. "A six-year-old child died in Italy after falling into a 16-inch abandoned well hole and a 22-month-old child in Louisiana died after falling into a 10-inch well."

Crowell said local land owners and operators are being urged to look for any abandoned open holes on their land so they can be capped or covered.

"State law requires landowners to properly cover any well, cistern, or hole more than ten inches and less than six feet in diameter," Crowell continued. "The covering must be permanent and must be able to withstand a 400 pound weight."

The law also requires that any abandoned well or hole ten or more feet deep be completely filled or capped at a depth of ten feet with a permanent plug, then filled with the plug to the surface.

SCS personnel stationed at Silverton help farmers plan and install irrigation water management systems on cropland and pastureland in the Caprock Soil and Water Conservation District.

Partly because pumping costs have increased in recent years, some irrigation farmers are switching to dryland farming. By installing parallel terraces and other conservation measures, they catch and hold more rainfall on their land. They also leave more crop residues on the soil surface to shade the land and reduce evaporation. In some cases, this turns out to be more profitable than irrigation farming because of reduced energy costs. When farmers switch to dryland farming, they should be careful to cap old wells.

What's your excuse for not making a will?

Think you don't own much so why bother? You probably own more than you think—equity in a home, personal possessions, car, etc.

You say, "It costs too much." It generally costs more money to die without a will than with one. A will makes it possible to cut out many of the legal steps that would be required if no will was left.

Do you think that making a will and planning for the disposition of your property means admitting you may die? Well, that's a fact of life. Wouldn't you rather decide what is to happen to your property than to let the state of Texas divide your property according to the law?

A "no-will" situation leaves your heirs vulnerable to the full impact of estate and inheritance taxes. Making and revising an estate plan can lessen the amount of estate taxes your heirs will have to pay. Tax laws for estates and trusts allow you to select some alternatives to high estate taxes if you will seek help in planning for these.

New laws for wills and estate taxes will go into effect October 1, so you may need to revise an existing will.

You spend considerable time accumulating your assets, so it's only logical that you must spend some time and effort in planning for the distribution of those assets to minimize the anxieties of your survivors.

I urge you to attend the Estate Planning program Monday, September 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the First State Bank in Silverton to learn the latest in estate tax laws, the importance of wills, and keeping family records. The program is free to the public and sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Briscoe County Family Living Committee.

Gas heating saves $226 per year!

Compared to the heat pump, gas heating can save you $226 per year on your utility bills. So if you hear that a heat pump is "more economical", remember, that is comparing it to other electric heating... not to gas! No other heating system even comes close to gas for economy. At Energas, we are committed to help you get the most for your heating dollar. Gas heating, combined with good conservation practices, saves energy, too.

BENEATH THE SKIN

A man's hands may be like sandpaper and his abdomen skin soft and white. The loose elbow skin is like the neck of a cat. Microscopic examination of the skin of scalp, lip, heel, ear, finger almost make it appear that different species are being examined.

Your skin weighs about nine pounds. It flexes, folds, crinkles and regenerates itself when damaged. Certain emotions bring blushing, in which 50 times more blood than usual rushes to the skin. Skin radiates our emotions, cools us, protects us, beautifies us, insulates us and serves as receptor for stimuli. Indeed, we Certainly, then, the skin is a vital part of our "tabernacle" (2 Cor. 5:1; 2 Pet. 1:13-14) or "earthly tent."

But the "inner man" (2 Cor. 4:16) is in that tent!

This inner man can be gloriously "renewed" and adorned beautifully with a "meek and quiet spirit" (1 Pet. 3). This is vastly more important than creamed skin.

The body ("earthly tent") a-

Beneath your marvelous skin is something immeasurably and eternally valuable. "... be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind..."

FOUNDATION

Our nation is witnessing a building boom, such as has never before been seen. Every day new foundations are being dug and laid. Any builder will tell you that it takes a firm foundation to support today's skyscraper.

Our Lord, in His sermon on the mount, compared those that heed His word, to the wise man that built his house upon a rock, and those that did not heed His word to the foolish man that built his house upon sand and it was washed away.

Build your house upon a rock... Attend church regularly.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
