Monday is First Day Of School In Silverton

Monday, August 29, is the first day of school in Silverton. High school students should go into the auditorium at 8:30 a.m. K-8 should report to their home rooms.

School hours will be from 8:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m., the same as last year. Grades K, 1 and 2 will be in class until 2:45 p.m. this

New students should bring immunization records and copies of permanent records from the school they attended last.

The faculty and administrators of the Silverton Independent School District are looking forward to seeing each student and to a good school year.

August 31 Is Last Day To Apply For Crop Insurance

August 31 is the last day to apply for crop insurance for barley and wheat in Briscoe County, Texas, according to Jackie Harris, Director for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC).

Crop Insurance covers unavoidable loss of production from damage caused by adverse weather conditions, insects, plant disease, wildlife, earthquake or fire. Insurance begins when the crop is planted.

Producers may choose from three coverage levels: 50-, 65-, or 75-percent of the established farm yield for insurance protection. "Three optional price elections for valuing production lost or damaged also are available," Harris says.

"Producers of wheat, barley and oats who can qualify for a new Individual Yield Coverage (IYC) plan are offered higher yield guarantees at no additional cost," Harris said. For information about eligibility under the IYC plan, producers should contact an authorized crop insurance agent well in advance of the August 31 deadline.

To select an agent, producers should check the list of agents available at their county ASCS office.

AREA I YOUNG FARMERS

CONVENTION IS SATURDAY NIGHT

The Area I Young Farmers will host their 23rd annual convention and awards banquet in Plainview on Saturday, August 27.

Silverton Young Farmers have entered in competition with other Area I chapters in Outstanding Chapter, Outstanding Associate Member, Outstanding Publicity and Outstanding Young Farmer categories.

Six-Man Football Making Debut Here

Six-man football is making its debut in Silverton High School this fall. All indications are that it will be well-received by the players, coaches and fans.

Head Coach Marvin Self said he was very pleased with the performance of his team in its first scrimmage here last week. The boys will scrimmage Higgins at Miami at 5:00 p.m. Friday.

"We could see the switch from 11-man to six-man coming," explained Coach Marvin Self. "Our numbers were dwindling every year. We started thinking seriously about it last November."

The Owls played with a roster that varied from 17 to 19 players in 1982 when they posted a 3-7 record. Nine seniors graduated from that team, and only two replacements came out.

Self and his coaching staff realized that it would be asking too much of a 14-man squad to try to play 11-man football. Since they didn't want to drop the sport altogether, they proposed to the School Board that six-man football be adopted.

Self immediately began rounding up a schedule as soon as the board approved the change. Silverton won't be a part of any district this fall, but the boys will be playing football against schools in the same category as far as numbers go.

"The attitude of the kids is better than ever," noted Self. "It's been an uphill struggle against the bigger schools we have played. Now the kids are excited about competing in a more equitable situation."

Seniors Jim Forbes and Warren Jarrett will anchor the Owl lineup. Both were starters last year. Forbes will be carrying the ball, while Jarrett plays end.

Self is pleased with the other seniors on the club as well. Monroe Hill has looked good working as a center, and newcomers Max Davis and Cary Fleming show no signs of rust after not playing for a couple of years.

Davis will see action as an end, but Fleming will fill a utility role for Silverton. Fleming has shown Self that he can perform effectively at quarterback, running back and end.

"The boys have really worked hard this summer," praised Self. "The big thing we have concentrated on is conditioning. We feel that extra conditioning is a must to play six-man football. We'll find out if we've done enough in our scrimmages."

Self wishes to thank all the six-man football coaches who have helped him get the program going this year. They have provided him with some sage advice on how to adjust to the new game.

"It takes a different type of thinking," Self admitted. "I think six-man has more pure blocking and tackling. There don't seem to be as many adjustments to be made, and there isn't as much finesse as with 11-man."

Only one junior, end David Schott, will be on the team. Rounding out the squad are sophomores Cal Brannon, Scotty Harris, Todd Reagan, Russell Simpson, Joe Ted Edwards, Barry Eddleman and freshmen Corey Robertson and Sloan Grabbe.

"I just couldn't see asking some of our sophomores and freshmen to compete against seniors and juniors from bigger schools any more," Self said. "It really wasn't fair to them to have to be in that kind of situation. We think the six-man game will be better for everyone at Silverton."

Rick Agee is the assistant coach for the Owl six-man football team this year.

School Lunchroom Information Given For Patrons

The Silverton Public School serves nutritious meals every school day. Students may buy lunch for 75c and breakfast for 35c.

Children from families whose income falls within the level shown are eligible for either free or reduced-price meals priced at 40c for lunch and 30c for breakfast.

To apply for free or reduced-price meals, please fill out an application as soon as possible, sign it, and return it to the school. Please answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain the total household income, the names of all household members, social security numbers of all household members 21 years or older or a statement that the household member does not have one, and the signature of an adult household member cannot be processed by the school.

The information on the application may be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must tell the school when your household increases by more than $50 per month ($600 per year) or when your household size decreases.

You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now, but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

If you have foster children living with you, they may be eligible for these benefits. If you wish to apply for these benefits for them, please contact the school and they will help you complete the application.

Children who receive free or reduced-price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or handicap. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250.

If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing the following official: O. C. Rampley, Box 597, Silverton, Texas 79257, 806-823-2476.

The information you provide will be treated confidentially and will be used only for eligibility determinations and verification of data.

If you have any questions or need help in filling out the application form, please contact Leonard Morgan at 806-823-2476. You will be notified when the application is approved or denied.

Each school district may determine the price charged for reduced-price meals, but in no case may the charge for a reduced-price lunch exceed 40c or a reduced-price breakfast exceed 30c.

Income Eligibility Guidelines for free and reduced-price meals must be provided to the media for the public release.

No person will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age, or handicap.

Miss Self Completes Tour Of Middle America

Zobie Self has just completed a driving tour of points of interest in middle America. The first stop was Dodge City, Kansas, where she visited the Boot Hill Museum which was a "dud" as was the replica of Old Dodge City front street. The Eisenhower Complex in Abilene, Kansas was another matter. Twenty-two acres housed the museum library, private home and meditation chapel where the former president is buried. Independence, Missouri contains the Truman Library and Memorial. Inside the building is an oval room that depicts what the White House oval office looked like during the Truman administration. Springfield, Illinois was the home of Abraham Lincoln, and his home and tomb was examined in detail.

The most interesting part of the trip was a visit to Dearborn, Michigan—a suburb of Detroit. There is Greenfield Village which contains reproductions of the important buildings located in Philadelphia during the colonial and/or revolutionary period. The people working in the Village dress in period costumes and perform crafts that were done in the 1770's and 1780's. The only thing missing was Sylvester Stalone running up the "make-believe" steps of Independence Hall with the theme from "Rocky" playing in the background.

Mrs. Breedlove Is Honoree

Mrs. Craig Breedlove, nee Debbie Duboise, was honored with a bridal shower recently in the home of Wanda Alexander, 209 Dakota Trail, Tulia. Mrs. Alexander greeted the guests and presented them to the bride, her mother, Mrs. Donnie Duboise, and to the groom's mother, Mrs. Norvell Breedlove. Special guests were Mrs. Wayland Fitzgerald and Mrs. Annie Breedlove, both of Silverton, grandmothers of the groom.

In the same area is the Henry Ford Museum which is not exclusively a museum of cars. Its theme is growth of America and its organization and finesse make many of the Smithsonian museums in Washington, D. C. pale by comparison. For example, the 1860-1870 period (Civil War) has the chair Lincoln was sitting in when assassinated. The blood stains are definitely visible on the unchanged upholstery.

A visit to Indianapolis, Indiana revealed the site of the famous "500." Zobie decided not to try to qualify although she felt she could after her experience in driving "the loop" and skyway in Chicago.

St. Louis, Missouri, the gateway to the West, is commemorated with the now famous arch. The museum beneath gives a history lesson of the "jump off" of the western settlement and Zobie decided to forego listening to something she has taught for many years.

Ann Arbor, Michigan and the University of Michigan houses the papers of ex-President Gerald Ford. Zobie found very little here—except a reproduction of the infamous pardon—but upon reflection of Ford's administration, there was not much that could be available.

The Ozark Mountains (hills) contained caves of all descriptions and each claimed the distinction of being the "hide-out" of Jesse James and his gang. Zobie wondered when he ever had time to rob anything if he spent his time in all these caves. By the way, the Big Texan Steak House has a large billboard advertising its restaurant. This would not be unusual except it is located east of Joplin, Missouri.

Zobie had only one nervous moment when she thought she was really lost. (Speed reading courses should be required of persons traveling alone in strange areas.) Just south of Toledo, Ohio she looked to the side of the road and to her wondering eyes did appear the Taj Mahal—the tomb built in the country of India for the ruler's wife. It was only a reproduction. Some company was using the design as an office building.

Tulsa and Oklahoma City "rounded out" the trip with the final scenic tour being Highway 256 out of Clarendon and toward Silverton.

The refreshment table was covered with white lace over pink and was centered with an ivy arrangement in a straw basket. The burgundy punch and pink and burgundy angel roll was served by Marci Latham and Kenee Littlefield. Johanna Webb registered the guests.

The hostess gift, a stainless mixer, was displayed on a table with a unique straw basket of ivy. Pink hearts with the names of the hostesses were attached to the lattice work on the basket.

HEALTHFUL QUALITIES OF ORDINARY FOODS OFTEN OVERLOOKED

Americans spend millions each year for "health foods" and "natural products," yet often overlook the healthful qualities in ordinary foods like eggs, says Dr. Dymple Cooksey, a foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Eggs are a "natural" food in part because there's so little interference in the production process. If a hen receives enough proper nutrients, she will form an egg, and all hens of the same species produce eggs of about the same composition.

"It's most important for consumers to realize that when it comes to nutrition, an egg is an egg," states Dr. Cooksey. All of the fat soluble vitamins A, D, E, and K in the diet of the hen transfer well to the egg. This makes eggs a good source of vitamins as well as an efficient and inexpensive source of protein.

Even though special eggs, like "organic fertile" and "araucana" eggs, may be sold as health food, there is no evidence to support the idea that they are any more nutritious than ordinary commercial eggs from the grocery store, adds the specialist.

The "good ole summertime" may bring discomfort and illness in the way of food poisoning if you fail to take precautions with food. There are four main types of bacteria which can cause food-borne illness—salmonella, clostridium perfringens, staphylococcus, and clostridium botulinum. Only one of these is usually fatal—botulism. The others generally cause discomfort for 24-28 hours.

Salmonella is one of the most common with over two million cases per year in the United States. It is usually found in raw meats, poultry, eggs, milk, fish and products made from these. These bacteria are destroyed by heat, so proper cooking and thorough heating of left-overs will help prevent this type of food poisoning.

Clostridium perfringens bacteria are more wide-spread everywhere than any other disease-causing micro-organism. To avoid this illness, again cook meats properly and keep hot (above 140 degrees) when serving or refrigerate (below 40 degrees). Thoroughly re-heat left-overs and bring gravy to a rolling boil before serving.

Staph organisms are also everywhere, even on your skin. They also multiply on meats, poultry, egg products, tuna, potato or macaroni salads, cream pastries, and sandwich fillings. If they multiply to high levels, they form a toxin which cannot be "boiled away." Though botulism is very rare, 700 people have died since 1925 from eating contaminated home-canned products. The primary means of prevention is to process home-canned low-acid foods (meat, poultry, vegetables) at the correct pressure for the recommended time in a pressure canner. A high temperature for a specified time is required to destroy this toxin.

Do not eat food from bent, leaking or bulging cans. Do not taste a food you are unsure of. When in doubt, throw it out.

Keep hot foods hot—above 140 degrees—and cold foods cold—below 40 degrees F. Bacteria multiply rapidly when food is left sitting at room temperature.

Remember also, that mayonnaise which has always been blamed for food poisoning in potato salads, etc., is no longer considered dangerous. In fact it is now believed to slow bacteria growth possibly due to its acid content.

Wash hands thoroughly in warm, soapy water after handling raw meat, and do not cut up fresh fruits and vegetables on the same cutting board used for raw meat to prevent bacterial contamination of fresh foods.

The Bud Couch family vacationed in Red River, New Mexico last week.

appreciation to all the people who helped make the rodeo a success.

A special thank you goes to the queen candidates, Jeannita Stephens, Suzann Settle, Angie Lowrey, Melissa Stone and Shavonne Lowrey. We are proud of all of you and the fine work you did.

Once again, thanks for making Briscoe County's 91st Birthday a success!

I would like to take this time to say thank-you to all the people who bought tickets from me this year. I would also like to thank the Young Farmers for picking me as their queen candidate. The roses were pretty and I will use the money the best way I can.

Thank you again, Jeannita Stephens

I would like to thank the Lions Club for sponsoring me as their queen in this year's Silverton Rodeo. I would also like to thank everyone who bought tickets from me. I want to commend the Young Farmers for putting on such a good and exciting rodeo this year. I especially want to thank my grandfather, Pascal Garrison, for letting me use his horse.

Thanks again to everyone! Angie Lowrey

I would like to thank the Progressive Homemakers for electing me as their queen candidate for the 1983 Silverton Rodeo. I would also like to thank the Silverton Young Farmers for having the rodeo, and all who supported me by buying rodeo tickets and saddle chances. I really enjoyed doing this. I appreciate Pascal Garrison for lending me his horse.

Thanks again, Shavonne

Thank you so much for the food, other gifts, and every expression of interest since my mother has been in the hospital. Her prognosis is greatly improved.

Then also I say "thank you" to Jerry and Vance and to all others who responded to my call for help in containing my trash fire in the alley Saturday.

Sincerely yours, James Clemmer
