It has been twenty-four years since Weinert ISD closed its doors and consolidated with Haskell. While Weinert High School still holds a very dear place in the hearts of all who attended, the reality is our numbers are getting smaller each year. The time will come, when there will not be enough left to carry on homecoming. So don't miss this opportunity to reunite with friends and classmates for visiting, fellowship and fun.

The evening meal, catered by Texas Best Meats for $11 a plate, will be served at 6 p.m. Following the meal, a "Gospel Music Sing" will be held. Anyone wishing or willing to be a part of the program may contact Judy Hicks at (325)668-0489 or (903)849-3960.

We will gather on Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m., at the Weinert Baptist Church for a community church service. A short dedication of the new church fellowship hall will also take place, followed by a pot luck lunch in the new building.

Storefront program accepts applications

The Development Corporation of Haskell (DCOH) and Haskell Downtown Revitalization Committee (DRC) now are accepting applications for the 2014-2015 Store Front Development Program (SFDP).

The SFDP, which is in its second year, is open to all of Haskell's commercial building owners within the Haskell city limits. Approved recipients are eligible to receive up to $2,500 in grant funds for agreed to façade improvements on their building. Items approved for SFDP funding grants include paint, signage, lighting, windows, doors, awnings and contract labor.

"The ten projects that already have been completed through last year's Store Front Development Program have changed the appearance of Haskell's downtown square. The DCOH board of directors sees tremendous value with continuing this program for a second year and hopes building owners will take advantage of the $25,000 in grant funds that will be available for these types of improvements," said Mary Drury, Executive Director of the DCOH.

To participate in the SFDP, building owners must first submit an application detailing the improvements they intend for their building's façade. Each application will be reviewed by the Haskell DRC and must be within the scope of the approved color palate and best practices outlined by the committee. The committee will meet twice to review applications and make final decisions on which projects will be funded through the program.

The members of the DRC are Martha Jarred, Henderson Book; Tom Long, Boggs & Johnson Furniture Store; Martha Randolph, Tidbits & Treasures, Mary Rike, Rike Real Estate; Conrad Roewe, Sport-About; and Glenda Gayle Rutkowski, Personality Slipper Shoppe.

To find out more about the 2014-2015 SFDP or to pick up an application, please contact the DCOH office at 940-864-3424. Applications to participate in the program are due by Oct. 31, 2014.

Farm Bill meeting set

by Jason Westbrook
CEA-Ag, Haskell Co.

The Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service will host an area-wide farm bill training program meant to help producers in their decision-making process, Oct. 6, at the Stamford High School Auditorium, 507 S. Orient, St., from 9 a.m. to noon. Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m.

The meeting will recap both the programs available to producers, including Price Loss Coverage, or PLC, and Agricultural Risk Coverage, or ARC. It will also cover any base and yield update options available that can illustrate the data needed to complete the decision-making process.

Though the new farm bill addressing cotton won't be in place until 2015, almost all farms will still need to enroll acreage into one of these two coverage areas. We will also have a short discussion of the disaster and conservation programs available.

An online decision aid available to producers will be discussed. The decision aid has been developed by the Agricultural and Food Policy Center of the agricultural economics department at Texas A&M University, College Station. It simplifies the analysis needed to choose between the PLC and ARC coverages.

A significant emphasis was placed on crop insurance by Congress, so this decision aid will help producers identify optimal and viable insurance coverage levels to provide as much of a crop loss safety net as possible.

The event will be free of charge to any producer interested in attending.

OPINION

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

State Capital

HIGHLIGHTS

By Ed Sterling

Top candidates debate this week with election on horizon

AUSTIN—A debate scheduled Sept. 29 pits Leticia Van de Putte, D-San Antonio, and Dan Patrick, R-Houston, two state senators who are vying to succeed David Dewhurst as lieutenant governor in 2015. Van de Putte, a pharmacist in private life, has served in the Senate since 1999. Patrick, a radio talk show host, was first elected to the Senate in 2009. Whoever wins will preside over the Senate.

On Sept. 30, a second debate between state Sen. Wendy Davis, D-Fort Worth, and Republican Greg Abbott, Texas attorney general, gives voters another look at the two competing to succeed Rick Perry as Texas' next governor.

"Now is also a good time to check your registration to make sure you are prepared for Election Day on Nov. 4," Secretary of State Nandita Berry said Sept. 23. Unregistered voters have until Oct. 6 to get registered, she added, and some 13.6 million Texans already are registered to vote. Early voting begins Oct. 20 and ends Oct. 31.

Perry helps break ground

Gov. Rick Perry on Sept. 22 participated in a groundbreaking ceremony for the SpaceX Commercial Launch Facility near Boca Chica Beach, adjacent to Brownsville, which will launch commercial satellites into Earth orbit.

Perry said the groundbreaking "is the result of years of cooperation between Texas and SpaceX" and his office's Texas Enterprise Fund "was instrumental in bringing SpaceX to Texas, with a $2.3 million grant in August that will bring 300 jobs and create $85 million in capital investment in South Texas." The State of Texas also is offering $13 million from its Spaceport Trust Fund to the Cameron County Spaceport Development Corp., Perry said.

Elon Musk, SpaceX chief executive and chief designer, said, "With today's groundbreaking at Boca Chica, we will begin an investment in South Texas that will create hundreds of jobs and over time contribute hundreds of millions of dollars into the local economy."

Governor will not appear

Visiting state district Judge Bert Richardson on Sept. 26 granted Gov. Perry's request to be excused from a pretrial hearing scheduled for Oct. 13.

Perry was indicted last month by a Travis County grand jury on felony charges of official oppression and abuse of office. The charges stem from the governor's threat to veto legislation funding the state's public integrity unit in 2013 unless Travis County District Attorney Rosemary Lehmborg resigned, following her arrest for driving while intoxicated. Lehmborg, who heads the unit, refused to resign and Perry vetoed the unit's funding.

Energy report is released

State Comptroller Susan Combs on Sept. 23 released a report that she said urges policymakers and elected officials "to discontinue costly subsidies and tax breaks driving development of new electricity generation and allow a more market-driven approach to providing reliable power to millions of Texas consumers when they need it most."

In the report titled "Texas Power Challenge: Getting the Most From Your Energy Dollars," Combs also said she "challenges the wind energy industry to ensure taxpayers and ratepayers are not double-burdened with infrastructure costs and tax subsidies for power sources that are intermittent."

"It's time for wind to stand on its own two feet," Combs said. "Billions of dollars of tax credits and property tax limitations on new generation helped grow the industry, but today they give it an unfair market advantage over other power sources."

Searchers work in Brooks

The Texas Department of Public Safety and the Texas State Guard announced Sept. 19 they have special search teams to assist the Brooks County Sheriff's Office with locating and recovering human remains in remote areas north of the Texas-Mexico border.

According to the announcement, the majority of the remains are suspected to be those of illegal immigrants who died attempting to avoid detection while entering the United States. The first of these search missions began this week and will continue through the weekend.

'No Child' waiver extended

Texas Education Commissioner Michael Williams on Sept. 22 announced the U.S. Department of Education granted his request to extend the state's conditional waiver from specific provisions of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (commonly known as the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001).

The extension will run through the 2014-2015 school year pending approval of the agency's proposal for new teacher and principal evaluation and support systems in Texas. The systems are a specific component of the federal waiver and are scheduled to be piloted in school districts and charters during the 2014-2015 school year.

SEE YOU AT THE POLE-75 Haskell High School and Haskell Junior High students gathered Wed., Sept. 24 at the annual "See You At The Pole." SYATP is an annual gathering of Christian students of all ages at a flagpole in front of their local school for prayer, scripture-reading and worship, during the early morning before school starts. The American SYATP events occur on Sept. 24 at 7 a.m. while gathering around students' school's flag pole. The events began in 1990, in the United States, where public schools cannot sponsor prayers and some Christians see public schools as hostile to Christian students. It has grown by word of mouth, announcements at youth rallies and churches, and the Internet and now occurs internationally. In 2005, over two million students in the U.S. participated, as well as students in Canada, Cote d'Ivoire, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Ecuador, Germany, Ghana, Guam, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Japan, Kenya, South Korea, Malaysia, Nigeria, Norway, Peru, Portugal, Scotland and South Africa.

Preventing sports injuries

Fall sports are back in gear. Everything from cheerleading to football requires young athletes and parents alike to take precautions during sporting activities in order to prevent serious or long-term injuries. Dr. Shane Miller, Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at UT Southwestern Medical Center, specializes in treating sports-related injuries in young athletes.

For young athletes, the key to avoiding injury can be as simple as following the rules of the sport. "Many rules are designed with the safety of athletes in mind, so following the rules of the game is important," said Dr. Miller, who also serves as a staff physician at the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children Sports Medicine Center. "Aggressive and unsportsmanlike play are risk factors for injury, and should be strongly discouraged by coaches, parents, and officials."

For parents, injury prevention measures include monitoring how much a child plays throughout the year.

"Overuse injuries are on the rise," Dr. Miller said. "Early sport specialization and playing one sport year-round are risk factors for overuse injuries. Unlike most acute injuries, overuse injuries are preventable with adequate rest periods and proper conditioning."

While injuries can occur in organized sports, it is important to be aware that they can also occur at home. To reduce this risk, he suggests wearing helmets for most outdoor activities.

"Always wear a helmet when riding a bike, skateboard, or ripstik," Dr. Miller said. "Although they may not prevent a concussion, helmets can prevent a more serious brain injury."

To help identify a concussion, parents should observe their child for signs of being confused, dazed, or dizzy; being sleepier than usual; answering questions slowly; or complaining of a headache or sensitivity to light. If you suspect a head injury of any kind, seek immediate medical attention.

This Week's Devotional Message:

The church can be a bridge as well as a building. Is there a generation gap between you and your house? Have the lines of communication and understanding between parent and child fallen into a deep chasm of selfishness, intolerance and mutual mistrust? Take your family to church and let them all listen to the word of God, who sent His only Son to preach the gospel of faith and love to young and old alike, so that both may better understand the meaning and purpose of life. When family needs replace individual desires, your faith will provide answers that will benefit all. Let your church span the gap of discord with a bridge of love.

Public Notices

TEXAS COMMISSION ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY NOTICE OF RECEIPT OF APPLICATION AND INTENT TO OBTAIN WATER QUALITY PERMIT RENEWAL PERMIT NO. WQ0010728001 APPLICATION. City of Haskell, P.O. Box 1003, Haskell, Texas 79521, has applied to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) to renew Texas Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (TPDES) Permit No. WQ0010728001 (EPA I.D. No. TX0026891) for the discharge of treated wastewater to a volume not to exceed a daily average flow of 700,000 gallons per day. The wastewater treatment facility is located approximately 1 mile south and .25 miles east of the intersection of U.S. Highway 277 and U.S. Highway 380, in Haskell County, Texas 79521. The discharge route is from the plant site to Rice Springs Branch; thence to Mule Creek; thence to Lake Stamford. TCEQ received this application on August 14, 2014. The permit application is available for viewing and copying at Haskell City Hall, 301 South 1st Street, Haskell, Texas. This link to an electronic map of the site or facility's general location is provided as a public courtesy and not part of the application or notice. For exact location, refer to application.

<http://www.tceq.texas.gov/assets/public/hb610/index.html?lat=33.145166&lng=-99.730545&zooom=13&type=r>

ADDITIONAL NOTICE. TCEQ's Executive Director has determined the application is administratively complete and will conduct a technical review of the application. After technical review of the application is complete, the Executive Director may prepare a draft permit and will issue a preliminary decision on the application. Notice of the Application and Preliminary Decision will be published and mailed to those who are on the countywide mailing list and to those who are on the mailing list for this application. That notice will contain the deadline for submitting public comments.

PUBLIC COMMENT/PUBLIC MEETING. You may submit public comments of request a public meeting on this application. The purpose of a public meeting is to provide the opportunity to submit comments or to ask questions about the application. TCEQ will hold a public meeting if the Executive Director determines that there is a significant degree of public interest in the application or if requested by a local legislator. A public meeting is not a contested case hearing.

OPPORTUNITY FOR A CONTESTED CASE HEARING. After the deadline for submitting public comments, the Executive Director will consider all timely comments and prepare a response to all relevant and material, or significant public comments. Unless the application is directly referred for a contested case hearing, the response to comments, and the Executive Director's decision on the application, will be mailed to everyone who submitted public comments and to those persons who are on the mailing list for this application. If comments are received, the mailing will also provide instructions for requesting reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision and for requesting a contested case hearing. A contested case hearing is a legal proceeding similar to a civil trial in state district court.

TO REQUEST A CONTESTED CASE HEARING, YOU MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING ITEMS IN YOUR REQUEST: your name, address, phone number; applicant's name and proposed permit number; the location and distance of your property/activities relative to the proposed facility; a specific description of how you would be adversely affected by the facility in a way not common to the general public; and, the statement "[I/we] request a contested case hearing." If the request for contested case hearing is filed on behalf of a group or association, the request must designate the group's representative for receiving future correspondence; identify an individual member of the group who would be adversely affected by the proposed facility or activity; provide the information discussed above regarding the affected member's location and distance from the facility or activity; explain how and why the member would be affected; and explain how the interests the group seeks to protect are relevant to the group's purpose.

Following the close of all applicable comment and request periods, the Executive Director will forward the application and any requests for reconsideration or for a contested case hearing to the TCEQ Commissioners for their consideration at a scheduled Commission meeting.

The Commission will only grant a contested case hearing on disputed issues of fact that are relevant and material to the Commission's decision on the application. Further, the Commission will only grant a hearing on issues that were raised in timely filed comments that were not subsequently withdrawn. TCEQ may act on an application to renew a permit for discharge of wastewater without providing an opportunity for a contested case hearing if certain criteria are met.

MAILING LIST. If you submit public comments, a request for a contested case hearing or a reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision, you will be added to the mailing list for this specific application to receive future public notices mailed by the Office of the Chief Clerk. In addition, you may request to be placed on: (1) the permanent mailing list for a specific applicant name and permit number; and/or (2) the mailing list for a specific county. If you wish to be placed on the permanent and/or the county mailing list, clearly specify which list(s) and send your request to TCEQ Office of the Chief Clerk at the address below.

AGENCY CONTACTS AND INFORMATION. All written public comments and requests must be submitted to the Office of the Chief Clerk, MC 105, TCEQ, P.O. We would like to express our thanks and deep gratitude to everyone for their support during Ricky's illness last summer. The outpouring of support was truly overwhelming and touched our hearts during a time when we needed it so much. The thoughts, prayers, kind words, and selfless acts made an unbearable situation much easier for us to endure. We appreciate so much: the area churches for placing Ricky's name on your prayer lists and lifting him up in prayer, the individuals who passed prayer requests along through Facebook, emails, texts, etc., those who were able to visit us in the hospital during our stay and make the days go by a little faster, those who took time to inquire of friends and relatives about our situation, for updates, etc., those who called and sent cards, brought food, sent plants, offered to help with things we couldn't take care of at home, and other actions too numerous to mention. We felt very uplifted, and a kind of peace that comes from being supported by those around us. We couldn't have made it without you and God's Grace. Thank you, thank you, a thousand times! Praise God from whom all blessings flow!
