4,000 EGG HATCHERY ESTABLISHED AT MUNDAY

W. C. Bevers of Munday was in the city last week and called around to see us while here. He is now in the hatchery business in Munday and his present plant is of 4,000 egg capacity. He says that he has been over-run with patronage all the while and he expects to increase his capacity to or near the 20,000 egg mark next year, and believes then that he will not be able to handle all the business he will get with reasonable advertising. Mr. Bevers is a Haskell county boy and has lived on his farm in Haskell county for many years until last year, when he moved to Munday for better school facilities for his children.

T. J. Reid Writes From California

The Free Press has received a letter from T. J. Reid, formerly of Weffert, who is now traveling with his wife in California. The letter was written from Redlands, and bears the date of April 29th. He states that he is having the time of his life sojourning through the beautiful green valleys, looking at the snow-capped mountains which are only fifteen miles away, and watching the snow clouds drift through the skies, depositing the white flakes on the mountain tops, which he says is a most beautiful and strange sight to behold. He says there are lots of good things to eat growing in those beautiful valleys. He also speaks of a little earthquake the night before he wrote the letter, but no damage was reported, and no one hurt—just a little shake-up. He says orange-picking is still in full swing.

Mr. Reid also states that he is glad to get the Free Press, and read the news from home. He says it is a scramble between him and Mrs. Reid to be the first to get it. They will go from Redlands to Portland, Oregon on the 15th of May. We are glad to hear from Mr. Reid and publish this that his many friends might have the opportunity of reading of his trip.

TIMELY DISHES

WHEN the chicken left from dinner is not enough to serve again, a few suggestions for such leftovers are helpful.

Chicken Custard.

Cut off every scrap of meat from the bones and put them through the meat grinder. Mix the meat with an equal measure of cooked rice, season with salt, pepper and press in a round form in the center of a baking dish. Make a custard, using two eggs, two tablespoonfuls of flour stirred into a little milk and a pint of milk. If any cooked green peas are at hand add them. Pour around the loaf and bake until the custard is set. Serve hot.

Chicken Scrappe.

Into a quart of chicken stock, boiling hot, stir a pint of cornmeal. Season to taste and cook slowly for a half hour, then add any bits of cooked chicken and pour into a mold. When cold cut in neat slices and fry.

Fish Croquettes.

Take two cupfuls of cold boiled fish, two cupfuls of mashed potatoes, one tablespoonful of butter, one-half cupful of hot milk, salt, pepper and parsley and a teaspoonful of minced onion. Form into balls, dip in beaten egg, roll in crumbs and fry in hot fat. Drain on brown paper.

A VISIT TO THE TOWNS OF ROCHESTER AND O'BRIEN

Saturday morning we took the opportunity of getting out of town for a spell and went over to the city of Rochester, going over on the Star Mail Line from Haskell to Rochester, which is carried every day except Sunday by our good friend, W. F. Burt. He has been on this run for several years and is known as one of the most faithful carriers and courteous gentlemen among the star route carriers of Texas. We arrived in Rochester about noon and found a very busy city, especially the merchants and business men, who were getting ready for the afternoon rush, which is a common occurrence on Saturdays in that city.

There has been an improvement campaign and building boom in the city of Rochester for the past year and the visible results of this effort is outstanding in the new buildings and the profitable business establishments that are thriving in the city today. The residence section has also made many permanent improvements in the erection of many beautiful homes, which is fast bringing Rochester to the front among the progressive cities of West Texas. This progressive city is now giving attention to street improvements and the grader is going over the streets putting them in first class condition. Quite a number of the streets have already been put up and are now in first class shape. The new High School building which was recently erected is pointed to with pride by every citizen. The education of their children seems to be the uppermost ambition of the citizens of Rochester and they have made the necessary preparation in the new High School building.

After viewing the city for the day we went out to the home of D. R. Brown and spent the night. Next morning, Sunday, Mr. Brown took us in his Dodge Automobile to O'Brien, where an all day singing had been previously announced and when we arrived a large congregation had already preceded us and were on hand. It was a great day for music lovers. The singing began after Sunday School and lasted throughout the day. At noon a dinner was served by the ladies of O'Brien and the adjoining communities that was fit for the kings. And there was enough left after all had feasted to have fed another large congregation. O'Brien has never failed to feed the congregations that come to her entertainments.

Many visitors from different sections of the country were present and a splendid program was put on. Jim Walsworth is president of the O'Brien singing class and it was he who conducted the affairs of the day. H. M. Cooner was chairman of the committee on arrangements and C. G. Barnett chairman of the committee to look after the preparation of the lunch at the noon hour. Each of these gentlemen did their whole duty and nothing was left undone to royally entertain all.

We were given passage in the car of M. E. Cox, the agent for the Seymour Laundry of Munday, from O'Brien by way of Knox City to Munday in time to catch the Wichita Valley train for Haskell, which arrived here at 7:10 p. m. R. E. Williams of this city made the entire trip with us. He is in the photograph business with headquarters here. He is a good musician and is appreciated for his piano accompaniments at all the conventions and singing he attends.

We attended the singing class at Midway Sunday night and enjoyed the occasion very much. They have a splendid class and have an efficient organization and moving along nicely. There are no shirkers of duty in this class. When anyone is called on to lead a song he offers no excuses but answers the call with the necessary "pep" to make a success with their singing. The class meets every Sunday night. We were glad to be with them. The pianist being absent, Mr. Williams played the instrument for them. We are going back to Midway at our next opportunity.

Many people seem to think that living within their means is a tame sort of existence.

They say the reason there was no card playing on the Ark was that Noah sat on the deck.

Successful Farmer Is Shipping Cream

L. K. Cook, a farmer living one mile west of the city is shipping cream to market. He reports that his sales exceed more than one dollar a day for his cream alone and he is feeding the skimmed milk to hogs and chickens. He has about 100 Buff Orpington hens that are also paying their way and a dividend. Mr. Cook is not depending on a one-crop investment, but is diversifying in a reasonable way which is known to be the safest plan for the farmer.

HOW OLD IS AUNT?

Aunt was explaining to little Harold the story about Columbus discovering America and ended it with: "And all this happened over four hundred years ago."

Harold, his eyes wide open with wonder, said after a moment's thought, "Gosh aunty what a memory you have."

Severe Indigestion

"I had very severe attacks of indigestion," writes Mr. M. H. Wade, a farmer, of R. F. D. 1, Weir, Miss. "I would suffer for months at a time. All I dared eat was a little bread and butter... consequently I suffered from weakness. I would try to eat, then the terrible suffering in my stomach! I took medicines, but did not get any better. The druggist recommended and I decided to try it, for, as I say, I had tried others for two or more years without any improvement in my health. I soon found the Black-Draught was acting on my liver and easing the terrible pain.

"In two or three weeks, I found I could go back to eating. I only weighed 123. Now I weigh 147—eat anything I want to, and by taking Black-Draught I do not suffer."
Have you tried Thedford's Black-Draught? If not, do so today.
