STORM REPORT

As Reported by . . .
Stormie Meriwether,
Sixth Grade Student

Dear Friends, It was just like a vacation! We went to the museum in Oklahoma City. It was the Oklahoma History Center. Outside they have old oil well things. They are huge. Then they have a beautiful statue of two Indians. I like the statue. Inside I saw many things about the Indians. The biggest one was a very big tepee. A long time ago there was an old chief that made a beautiful bow. He gave it to his grandson. It had an arrow

Traffic Stop Yields Glass Drug Pipe

Thursday afternoon, Wheeler County Deputies Walden and Spinhirne stopped a vehicle near Wheeler High School for a traffic violation.

After speaking with the driver, a consensual search was conducted on the vehicle. While searching the vehicle a glass pipe used to smoke methamphetamine was located.

Colten Moore Has A Book Published

Locally related and well known Coltan Moore has a book available on Amazon.com.

The following information is written on Amazon about the book:

A transcendent story about risk and the pursuit of happiness, family, and the bond between brothers.

Dust and prairie were abundant on the Texas Panhandle, the land that gave birth to generations of Moores. But instead of working the land or the cattle that fed upon it, the Moore brothers, Colten and Caleb, heeded another call.

Their dreams, paired with hard work and family sacrifice, eventually became reality. The Moore brothers, with their boundary-exploding athleticism, innovation and appetite for risk, became stars on the burgeoning freestyle ATV and snowmobile circuits. If it had wheels, they could flip it—often higher and better than anyone else—leading a band of pioneers intent on breaking new ground and in a new sport before multitudes of fans at the X Games and beyond.

In this vivid, page-turning narrative, Colten Moore offers a profound and deeply moving perspective on his life and that of his brother. Catching the Sky is a clear-eyed look at extreme sports, what drives people to take wild chances, and how one man, Colten, couldn't stop even after the worst possible outcome. His story reminds us that we can dream—and sometimes achieve the impossible, that we can follow our own path, that we can lose something, lose everything, only to find it again—often in the most unlikely place

Sheriff Crites continues to promote pro active police work in Wheeler County!

TEXAS A&M AGRI LIFE EXTENSION

Wendy Hazzard,
Co. Agricultural Extension Agent
Game Plan for Super Bowl 50: Are You Drinking or Are You Driving?

This is NOT the time for an option play

The Super Bowl is America's most watched national sporting event. On Super Bowl 50 Sunday, Feb. 7, 2016, there will be lots of game day socializing that may include drinking. That's why the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service Watch UR BAC program is urging football fans to call the play now: Drinking OR driving. If you plan on drinking on Super Bowl Sunday, designate a sober driver to get you home safely.

"Drunk driving is completely preventable," said Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service agent

Wendy Hazzard. "All it takes is a little planning. We want fans to remember that it's a choice — drink or drive, but never do both. Law enforcement agencies will be out in large numbers to stop anyone who makes the dangerous decision to drive impaired."

According to the Texas Department of Transportation, 1,041 people were killed in drunk-driving crashes in 2014, accounting for 29 percent of the total motor vehicle traffic fatalities in Texas. Super Bowl Sunday is a risky day for drunk-driving crashes.

The Watch UR BAC program advises that if you're attending a Super Bowl party or watching the game at a sports bar or restaurant:

- Designate your sober driver, or plan another way to get home safely before the party begins.

- If you don't have a designated driver, then ask a sober friend for a ride home; or call a cab, friend or relative to come and get you. If you are at a friend's house, stay the night.

- Never let friends drive if they have had too much to drink.

- If you're hosting a Super Bowl party:

- Make sure all your guests have a non-drinking driver to take them home, or arrange for alternate transportation to see that they get home safely.

- Serve plenty of food and non-alcoholic drinks at the party.

- Host your party just like they do at the stadium. Stop serving alcohol at the end of the third quarter of the game, and begin serving coffee and dessert.

- Take the keys away from anyone who has had too much to drink.

- Remember, you can be held liable and prosecuted if someone you served ends up in a drunk-driving crash.

OLD TIMES NOT FORGOTTEN

By Roland Miles

BBC TV SHOWS

Several years ago, Shirley and I got into the weekly habit of watching some British comedy shows. Nearly every Friday night, we would go out to eat supper with some friends, then go home and watch a particular BBC show. It was about several old retired guys in a small town. Since they didn't have anything much to do, they spent most of their time just getting into mischief. You'd think they'd want to do something worthwhile after retiring, like maybe raising cows. There's very few exercises I can think of, that stimulates the muscles and revs up your heart, like a new momma cow, chasing you around a post in the barn. Even an old guy like me, can climb a fence faster than I'd ever thought. Another show was about a British woman who really did want people to believe she was high-classed. She went to a lot of extreme measures, to give the appearance of that. Her husband couldn't have cared less. She was embarrassed that her sister didn't act cultured, and the brother-in-law was a genuine slob. The woman was constantly talking about having "candlelight suppers," and using her "fine china." Shirley has been considering having a "candlelight supper" or two, this summer. Thought she might invite a few "social elite." We're a little short on "fine china," and we used up most of our candles here awhile back, when our electricity was out. After supper, we could go sit in the backyard and talk about the "good old days." We should have adequate seating accommodations, if we get out the rusty, homemade, cultivator-seat lawn chairs. They haven't been used much the past twenty years. Then again, there may not be many people who like to do that sort of thing anymore. It may take a while for it to catch on.

'Almost Maine' Will Open February 12

Red Carpet Theatre
Valentine's Day is just around the corner and the cast of Almost, Maine has been working hard getting ready for the two night production on February 12th and 13th.

"Almost, Maine is a funny romantic comedy that couples of all ages will enjoy. The cast has been putting a lot of time and energy into the production. It will be a wonderful show!" stated Bri'elle Cocheran, the show's Stage Manager.

Lauren Jury, local High School Spanish teacher, said, "This show presents a special set of challenges when each actor has to play four or five different characters. I'm lucky to work with such dedicated, not to mention, hilarious people."

The five person cast; Jim Kos, Tomara Armstrong, Lauren Jury, Dan Gambill and Lauren Raney will present the story of Almost, Maine: One cold, clear Friday night in the middle of winter, while the northern lights hover in the sky above, Almost's residents find themselves falling in and out of love in the strangest

Sometimes there are things or people that make your day when they walk in the door. I have a little patron whose Grand Ma has encouraged him to enjoy the library from early on. He is extremely shy and soft voiced unless you talk about his favorite book or his families cattle or fish in the stock tanks. This last week I was busy at my desk and I heard the bell ring on the front door and I looked up and saw his Grand Ma but not him so I came around the desk and there he was all grins and excited to surprise me! He was dressed to the hilt in spurs and cowboy hat ready to find the perfect book. He will go sit with his Grand Ma on those little bitty chairs and she will read to him and he just lets the giggle roll! Whoever said you have to be perfectly quiet in the library? His reading varies from I LOVE YOU THIS MUCH TO HORSES or THE LADY WHO SWALLOWED A SPIDER. The object of this story is that he has someone who makes sure he gets to visit the library and read a variety of books. When he visits his Grand Ma he always asks to visit us and that makes US very Happy!

Several interesting books have arrived and more will be showing up but you might want to check out THE GIRL IN THE SPIDER'S WEB by David Lagercrantz and 10 CHEEKY MONKEYS by Kat Michaels for the little monkeys in your home. We have been finishing up series of titles that were missing books to make them complete and that is always exciting. We also have a new book by Larry Correia called SON OF THE BLACK SWORD and AFTER SHE'S GONE by Lisa Jackson and author that every one loves. Our Christian authors have been a big success and that part of the library is really growing fast!

So now that I have enticed you to come in and grab a book (before the next snow storm) we will be seeing you soon!

with it. That was a good gift. My dad and I looked at all the museum things. Mom stayed in the library the whole time and looked for things for our museum.

The museum had an old car, motorcycle and an airplane. The airplane belonged to Wylie Post. He was a pilot that had one eye. They had the patch that he wore on his blind eye. That was a little strange.

When it was almost time to close the museum I showed my mom the space things and the Indian things. Then I went to the gift shop and bought a fossil for my dad. Now we are going to Houston for my dad's doctor appointment. I hope he is ok. That's it!

Embarrassing Medical Exams

... from the internet

At the beginning of my shift I placed a stethoscope on an elderly and slightly deaf female patient's anterior chest wall. 'Big breaths,' I instructed. 'Yes, they used to be,' Replied the patient.

One day I had to be the bearer of bad news when I told a wife that her husband had died of a massive myocardial infarct.

Not more than five minutes later, I heard her reporting to the rest of the family that he had died of a 'massive internal fart.'
