Pat McDowell Announces For Wheeler County Judge

Pat McDowell announces his intent to run for Wheeler County Judge in the March 2022 Republican Primary.

In Texas, the County Judge is essentially the Business Manager for the county. My business experience at our ranch coupled with my volunteer leadership positions has taught me to ‘count the pennies’ and ‘plan for the future’.

I have accounting and tax experience from our operation, plus my various board of directors positions in state and national organizations have given me experience in dealing with multi-million dollar budgets, lawsuits, cybersecurity, human resources, economic development, and business strategy.

The biggest asset I bring to the County Judge position is that I listen. I want to know what Wheeler County citizens want from their county leadership. My phone number is 663-6666. Call me during the campaign and after the election. I am not coming into this campaign with all the answers. Previous long-time Judges Hefley and Morgan left the county in good financial shape. I plan to do the same.

Taxes and property valuations are high. There has to be a balance of taxes, county services, and long-term financial strength. I will listen to what you think and strive to make the best decisions possible.

County Judge is a full-time job. My brothers and I are scaling back our ag operation some and turning part of it over to the next generation. My terms on volunteer boards are winding down so I am able to commit to the job.

Currently, I am a State Director of Texas Farm Bureau and TFB Insurance Companies. Also, I am the Vice-Chair of the Texas Beef Council.

I served on the Wheeler County Appraisal District Board from 2005 through

THANK YOU: George Kilcrease and Nathan Lancaster were recognized for all their hard work.

Phillip Glen Gaines Announces For Commissioner, Precinct 2

My name is Phillip Glen Gaines, and I am announcing my candidacy for the position of Precinct 2-Wheeler County Commissioner.

I am a Wheeler resident that was born and raised right here in Wheeler County and never left. After graduation I worked for 13 years in the oilfield for JD Henderson. When the oilfield quit in the 80's I went to work for Buckingham Farms in Kelton as a farm and ranch hand from 1991 until 1999 at which time I started work for Wheeler County Pct 2 as a heavy equipment operator.

I take pride in the fact that

Phillip Gaines

I have a good working relationship with all the Wheeler County Volunteer Fire Departments and the other commissioners of the county. I have worked closely with the County Extension Agent Tommy Meek to help with the upkeep of the County show barn and for the Livestock Shows

Dear Friends, Hesston Marshall had an awesome first game at WTAMU! Good job Hesston #32!

Last Friday the Mustangs lost a hard fought game against River Road. The band marched at halftime. That was fun. My mom worked in the concession stand, but I know she came out for a minute to see the band.

After the game, my dad drove us to OKC, while mom and I slept. On Saturday we went to my sister, Melinda's pharmacy to get our flu shots, because she is the best ever

It sometimes seems that words are going the way of the dinosaur, at least in terms of their being used in the manner for which they were developed. Have you noticed how much more prevalent symbols have become? Instead of writing words on a sign in order to convey a message or idea, more and more those sign makers have resorted to symbols and drawings in favor of text. Maybe the artists' guilds have been lobbying for more pictographs, and have prevailed. That might be believable if I didn't think that the pictures and symbols that appear on these signs were not computer generated.

Not too long ago I was trying to put something together – I can't recall what it was – and I consulted the papers that accompanied whatever it was that I was working on. There was a set of instructions that contained numbers indicating the sequence to follow, but the instructions were not written. All I was left with was some poorly-drawn pictures I had to try to decipher. I determined I could do just as well with my own eyes, looking at the actual pieces, rather than a poorly-drawn illustration of the pieces, with no words. I expressed my frustration to the person who was working with me – that we humans, who have spent thousands of years developing languages, along with the ability to write them down and read what is written, are discarding all of that progress and reverting back to the stone age, etching pictures on rocks. I think it is a disgrace. To all the English and Grammar instructors, it seems to me that your jobs and your efforts are being subverted by the people in high places pulling levers that cause pictures to prevail over words.

There is a saying, “A picture is worth a thousand words.” If that is true, then why do rags such as Time Magazine still employ writers? (I think one could seriously question why anyone is paid for the garbage that the magazine's writers tend to crank out, but that is a different angle on the same question.) Why are recipes simply not photos or drawings of the ingredients and procedures? It seems that words are like the common man – no matter how much people would like to discard them, the reality is we rely on them too much to cast them fully aside – they perform an irreplaceable role. What to do about all of this? I am not sure, other than to continue to use the language, and use it as best we can. Words can convey specific messages with nuance and detail that illustrations can never match. And should I ever compile an instruction book, it will be written, not drawn.

Top O' Texas Style Show Sept. 11

that take place there. I also served as a 4-H parent leader while our kids were growing up and even after for several years.

My wife and I have raised our family in this county and consider it to be the best around. My wife Carrie of 38 years works for the Wheeler County Sheriff's Office and has for the last 32 years. We have raised two children that graduated from Wheeler High School and now make their homes with their families in Wheeler. Kandra has worked for the Sheriff's office for the last 8 years. Kandra is married to Matt Warren. Trenton has worked in the oilfield for 13 years and is married to Kimmy. They have 3 children that attend school in Fort Elliott.

I can and do operate every piece of heavy equipment we have and plan on being a working commissioner working in the field beside all other county employees to make the county roads as serviceable and safe as possible for all Wheeler County Residents. I do not handle the budget personally but have been responsible for needed equipment repairs and supplies and finding ways to stretch these items to make it until the new fiscal year is nothing new. I will have an open-door policy and will always be willing to listen to your complaints and comments.

I believe I am the best candidate for Wheeler County Commissioner Pct. 2 and would appreciate your support in the coming months.

PUBLIC NOTICE Explanatory Statements for the November 2, 2021 Constitutional Amendment Election

Proposition Number 1 (HJR 143)

HJR 143 proposes a constitutional amendment expanding the circumstances in which a professional sports team charitable foundation may conduct raffles to raise money for the foundation's charitable purposes. The proposed amendment would allow professional sports team charitable foundations of organizations sanctioned by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association or the Women's Professional Rodeo Association to hold charitable raffles at rodeo events.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the professional sports team charitable foundations of organizations sanctioned by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association or the Women's Professional Rodeo Association to conduct charitable raffles at rodeo venues."

Proposition Number 2 (HJR 99)

HJR 99 proposes a constitutional amendment allowing the legislature to authorize a county to issue bonds or notes to finance the development or redevelopment of an unproductive, underdeveloped, or blighted area within the county and to pledge for repayment of those bonds or notes increases in property tax revenues imposed on property in the area by the county. The Texas Constitution gives the legislature the power to authorize an incorporated city or town to issue such bonds or notes but does not expressly give the legislature the power to grant that same authority to counties. The proposed amendment also provides that a county that issues bonds or notes for transportation improvements may not pledge for the repayment of those bonds or notes more than 65 percent of the increases in ad valorem tax revenues each year, and a county may not use proceeds from the bonds or notes to finance the construction, operation, maintenance, or acquisition of rights-of-way of a toll road.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing a county to finance the development or redevelopment of transportation or infrastructure in unproductive, underdeveloped, or blighted areas in the county."

Proposition Number 3 (SJR 27)

SJR 27 proposes a constitutional amendment barring the State of Texas or a political subdivision from enacting, adopting, or issuing a statute, order, proclamation, decision, or rule that prohibits or limits religious services. The proposed amendment would apply to religious services, including those conducted in churches, congregations, and places of worship, in the state by a religious organization established to support and serve the propagation of a sincerely held religious belief.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to prohibit this state or a political subdivision of this state from prohibiting or limiting religious services of religious organizations."

Proposition Number 4 (SJR 47)

SJR 47 proposes a constitutional amendment changing certain eligibility requirements for a justice of the Supreme Court, a judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, a justice of a court of appeals, and a district judge. The proposed amendment provides that a person is eligible to serve on the Supreme Court if the person, among other qualifications, is licensed to practice law in Texas; is a resident of Texas at the time of election; has been either a practicing lawyer licensed in Texas for at least ten years or a practicing lawyer licensed in Texas and a judge of a state court or county court established by the legislature for a combined total of at least ten years; and during that time has not had the person's license to practice law revoked, suspended, or subject to a probated suspension. The same eligibility requirements would apply to a judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals and to a justice of a court of appeals. The proposed amendment further provides that to be eligible for appointment or election as a district judge, a person must be a resident of Texas; be licensed to practice law in Texas; and have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court in Texas, or both combined, for eight years preceding the person's election, during which time the person's license to practice law has not been revoked, suspended, or subject to a probated suspension.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment changing the eligibility requirements for a justice of the supreme court, a judge of the court of criminal appeals, a justice of a court of appeals, and a district judge."

Proposition Number 5 (HJR 165)

HJR 165 proposes a constitutional amendment allowing the State Commission on Judicial Conduct (SCJC) to accept complaints or reports, conduct investigations, and take any other authorized action with respect to a candidate for a state judicial office. Currently, the Texas Constitution only permits the SCJC to take such actions as to persons holding a judicial office.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment providing additional powers to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct with respect to candidates for judicial office."

Proposition Number 6 (SJR 19)

SJR 19 proposes a constitutional amendment establishing that residents of certain facilities have the right to designate an essential caregiver with whom the facility may not prohibit in-person visitation. The proposed amendment would apply to a nursing facility, assisted living facility, intermediate care facility for individuals with an intellectual disability, residence providing home and community-based services, or state supported living center. The proposed amendment also would authorize the legislature to provide guidelines for these facilities to follow in establishing essential caregiver visitation policies and procedures.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment establishing a right for residents of certain facilities to designate an essential caregiver for in-person visitation."

Proposition Number 7 (HJR 125)

HJR 125 proposes a constitutional amendment permitting a person who is 55 years of age or older at the time of death of their spouse who is receiving a limitation on school district property taxes on their residence homestead on the basis of a disability to continue receiving the limitation while the property remains the surviving spouse's residence homestead.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to allow the surviving spouse of a person who is disabled to receive a limitation on the school district ad valorem taxes on the spouse's residence homestead if the spouse is 55 years of age or older at the time of the person's death."

Proposition Number 8 (SJR 35)

SJR 35 proposes a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation all or part of the market value of the residence homestead of the surviving spouse of a member of the United States armed services who is killed or fatally injured in the line of duty. The Texas Constitution provides a property tax exemption to the surviving spouse of a member of the armed services who is killed in action, but the current exemption does not include members of the military who die during their service due to injuries sustained that are not combat-related.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for an exemption from ad valorem taxation of all or part of the market value of the residence homestead of the surviving spouse of a member of the armed services of the United States who is killed or fatally injured in the line of duty."

WANT ADS/ LEGAL NOTICES
Sell it through a Classified in THE WHEELER TIMES! $6 for the first 20 words; 35c for each additional word. Legal Notices: 35c per word.

FOR SALE!
There are properties in Wheeler & Shamrock for sale! Wheeler County Tax Office in conjunction with the Texas Communities Group, LLC will begin placing FOR SALE signs on available Trust Property within the City of Wheeler & Shamrock in the coming days. This project is a part of the clean-up effort.

WHAT ARE TRUST PROPERTIES?

Trust properties are lots and tracts of land which have been foreclosed upon to collect a tax lien due the local governmental entities, City of Wheeler & City of Shamrock, Wheeler County, Wheeler County Hospital District and Wheeler County Water District. These properties were put up for auction and went unsold at the tax sale. The properties are then "struck-off" to the entities.

The placement of the signs on available property will identify the properties available for purchase. There will also be catalogs disbursed within the community.

WHO CAN BID?

Anyone over 18 years old can submit a bid for a property. However, a successful bidder CANNOT owe delinquent taxes on other property in the county, owe an unpaid fine or fee to the city and/or county, and/or own other property in the city/county that is subject to existing penalties for codes enforcement.

HOW DO I BID?

You may place a bid online at www.texascg.com to submit a bid, which is the price you would consider paying for the property you wish to buy. Should you meet the requirements listed above and your bid is sufficient and accepted by all entities, the property will be deeded to you upon receipt of the payment of your bid amount and fees to cover the cost of the deed and recording fees, which are minimal.
