are full! We had a little excitement After they played, Hunter last week. Bill's (Blanchard) car was stolen from where he works! He called my mom and his boss. Mom called the sheriff in Collingsworth County. He put out the stolen report. The next day they called Bill. They found the car in Bryan, Texas, in an alley. Did you know that it costs a lot of money to get your own car back if it is stolen? The thief took the key. Bill has to pay for a new one. He has to pay for towing and storage. Now we will take him to get his car. That doesn't seem right. Oh, well, he needs his car. That's it! Listen To . . . KPDR-FM, 90.3 WHEELER, TEXAS

Nicknames (from

Who was Puddin' Porter and her brother Dunky Remember Froggie Barr? Her name was Margie And what's her name Jolly? We called her Tootsie

We always had our Shortys, Mr. Gordon and Mr. Loter One lived out east and the other on the western border The third Shorty ran the pool hall and games. Now he's the only one who lived up to his name

For some who were lucky, their name didn't last Jim Porter's really glad that Tadpole is in the past Harold Crossland was a Goober and we all like Joe Pete Buster Callan lived on main, on the corner of the street

Then there were the Fat boys, Fat Moore was not that tall Fat Jones was so skinny, left no shadow on the wall Mr. Reid was known as Halfup, and Adrian only Cobby Puny Griffin wasn't puny 'cause eating was his hobby

Hoot Gibson had a cafe, there was parking for your truck

And was his real name Jo-Jo, we called him Joe much later Pooch Guthrie had a way of putting on a show Only cost fourteen cents when Tillie used to go

Some of our distant past may be a real alarmer Don't ask about Whiskey Cox or Glen Sauce Farmer Of all the names that I recall plus all the names I've said The one that is strangest is Cathead

Now that the word's out the names keep rolling in Stretch, Barto, Snout and Dog, will it ever end? Goofball, Butch and Sukey. Sparkplug, Sot and Posey If I add one more name, think it'll drive me crazy

There was Boog and Bear, Tootie and Dub, Monk and the Bull

Bus Dorman was the sheriff, Mr. Brown was at the school I remember when I was young and all of Wheeler cried T'was a sad summer when Teedie Johnson died

We're getting up in years now, someday there'll be the call They'll dress us up best they can and place us in a stall Now if you're from Wheeler, make your tombstone small So there won't be room for your nickname there at all.

We extend sympathy to the Mendiola Family in their loss. The Mendiolas were our neighbors for a number of years and we were always invited over when storms were approaching. They are both greatly missed.

Louis, Barbara, Ronal Wayne, Cathi and Jennifer.

After the graveside, Lesli (Arnold) and Her husband, Donnie Clements, hosted family and friends for a BBQ dinner at the Hinton United Methodist Church Family Life Center.

It was a busy weekend with the Wheeler Ex-Students Reunion. Hunter and I greeted guests at the book signing at the museum. I met several of my mom's former students.

Fun, food and games were at Baba and Pop's. Hunter learned to play Hand and Foot.

We tried to work on our yard in OKC, but it was too wet to move dirt. Everything

Remember Larry Jones we all called him Buck

Smiley Gaines seemed happy just smilin' all the time Cheezy Pendleton is a name that's really hard to rhyme

Francis Pride was Sonny, Punky Martin and Happy too With names like that you wonder, did Snow White lose her crew?

Remember Cotton Farmer and Nig Clark who lived out west And the man we called Tooter was always giving tests

Sometimes the theme was food, remember Spud and Tater of the greatest joys that came from her work was meeting the love of her life, Dr Louie Luciano Mendiola, in the OR.

They wed in Manila, Philippines and went on to have two boys, Vincent and Rocky. They created a wonderful life in what became their beloved hometown of Wheeler, TX.

When Vincent came, Virginia decided to dedicate her life to motherhood. She created a life full of adventure, love, kindness, and full tummies. She loved to cook and loved to share. She excelled at propping up others and supporting them through the many passions and difficulties in their lives. And she did this with grace, respect, and prayer. We will miss our mother, Virginia Mendiola, greatly.

Virginia was predeceased by her husband, Dr Louie Luciano Mendiola, and her sister Barbara Baldemor.

Virginia is survived by her first son, Vincent, and his wife, Melissa. They reside in Hurst, TX. Together they have 3 children, Hunter, age 24, Ashley, age 21, and Chloe, age 17.

Virginia is also survived by her second son, Rocky, and his wife, Rosemary, of St Petersburg, FL. Together they have 2 children, Magnolia, age 14, and Josephine, age 12.

She is also survived by many nieces & nephews whom she treated and loved as her own.
