LINEMAN KILLED AT ROBY LAST THURSDAY

Claude Curtis Dooly, a lineman in the construction department of the West Texas Utilities Company was killed Thursday afternoon. At 4:30 o'clock August 13, about 2 miles north of Roby, while working on a 1000 volt line to Rotan.

It appears that rubber gloves and other protective devices were in proper use at the time, but in reaching out away from the pole his elbow accidentally came in contact with a conductor clamp protruding from the wire at an angle. This immediately worked the protective equipment at the substation and cut off the current. He was lowered to the ground and artificial resuscitation was maintained for a period of more than four hours. Doctors were in attendance but with no avail.

The body was shipped for burial to his home in Hughes Springs, Cass County, Texas. He is survived by a wife and four children—Anson Newsa.

It will be remembered that this unfortunate young man suffered injury in a similar accident while working for the West Texas Utilities Company here in Haskell and was seriously burned about the body but he soon recovered and resumed his place with the crew.

ADAMS OIL SHOWING CREATES EXCITEMENT

A rumor that created considerable excitement here the first of the week, was circulated throughout this section to the effect that the Adams well on the Proctor ranch in the southeast part of the county was flowing at the rate of about 40 or 50 barrels per hour. We understand that the excitement was probably caused by the fact that the company struck salt water in the well below 2000 feet and in raising the casing in order to underseam the hole to cut off the water, the oil and gas that had accumulated between the 6 and 8 inch casing from the sand at 1002 feet was forced out of the top by the salt water, assisted by the gas. About 25 or 30 barrels of oil going into the slush pit.

WEB WORMS REPORTED DOING SOME DAMAGE

Mr. L. Sell on the J. P. Pinkerton farm west of the city reports the leaf worm doing serious damage to his cotton crop the past few days. He reports noticing some sign of the worm in his cotton in small numbers a few days ago but thought they had hatched up and gone, until he examined his cotton Wednesday morning to find that the worms were numerous and serious damage to the crop had already been done. County Agent Trice has been very busy with the farmers this week in helping to put out poison for the fields which are infested. It is to be hoped that the ravages of the worms will be checked before they get such a headway that they cannot be checked.

U. S. REPORT SHOWS TEXAS COTTON BETTER

The condition of cotton in Texas is placed at 46 per cent and production of 3,769,000 bales was forecast by the Department of Agriculture Monday. An increase of 421,000 bales in this year's prospective cotton crop was announced in the semi-monthly report, which forecasts production at 13,990,000 equivalent 500-pound bales for the entire South. The condition of the crop improved in the half month in all States except South Carolina, Alabama and Arkansas. The condition of the crop Aug. 16 was estimated at 62.0 per cent of a normal, indicating an acre yield of 144.1 pounds, compared with 65.6 per cent and 139.3 pounds on Aug. 1, this year, and 64.9 per cent on Aug. 16, last year, when the final yield was 157.4 pounds. Cotton of this year's growth ginned prior to Aug. 16 totaled 577,281 running bales, the Census Bureau announced in the joint report. Last year 125,901 bales were ginned prior to Aug. 16. The ginners by states to Aug. 16 were: Alabama, 36,934; Florida, 3,544; Georgia, 80,808; Louisiana, 65,199; Mississippi, 23,374; Texas, 363,988, and all other states, 5,049. There were four wrecks reported but fortunately no one was killed, although serious injury is reported in some of the accidents. One wreck was reported near Sagerton where a car was run into by another which was thought to have been driven by an intoxicated man, but the identity of the driver is not known. Light Showers and Drop in Temperature Over This Section

A light sprinkle of rain fell in Haskell Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning followed by a drop in the temperature. Up to Thursday morning the weather was still cloudy and threatening but no more rain has fallen. Jud reports a rain Monday afternoon which was the most rain that had fallen in that section since the 7 of June although the rain was just a shower yet it was appreciated very much. Sagerton reports a light shower and they have had excellent seasons all the year in that section and their crops of feed and cotton are fine. During the week disastrous storms have struck down in other parts of Texas and a number of houses blown away and crops beat into the ground by hail and wind but our rain fall has been very short in most parts of the country.

NEW HEADLIGHT LAW IS NOT A DIMMING LAW

There seems to be some confusion among motorists as to the requirements of the new Texas highway headlight law, some believing it to be a dimming law, while others are under the impression that the law does not apply to a car equipped with special lenses which diffuse the light. As a matter of fact the law requires that every automobile operating in Texas shall have the headlights tested and focused at an authorized testing station. When the test is made a certificate will be given the owner of the car, and this certificate should be carried in the car at all times, as a proof that the lights have been tested. This certificate is also necessary before an automobile license will be issued after the law becomes operative.

COTTON LEAF WORMS APPEAR IN COUNTY

The past few days of damp cool weather have been favorable for the cotton leaf worm to rapidly multiply, therefore a close watch should be kept on the cotton fields for the appearance of the pest and poisoning should be resorted to as soon as the worms appear in any great numbers. The worms are in many fields in the county, especially those where the cotton is late and the cotton has received good rains to make the plants grow rapidly. These worms with hot dry weather will possibly cause no damage, yet with several days of continued damp weather may be expected to cause considerable damage, so should be poisoned with Calcium Arsenate when found in any numbers in the field. Many farmers have been poisoning the worms during the past few days with the Calcium Arsenate and are killing practically all the worms in the field at the time of application.

ABILENE BOOSTERS WERE HERE MONDAY

The special train carrying 137 Trade Trippers from Abilene arrived here about 1:30 p. m. Monday. They alighted from the train and marched on foot to the court house lawn where the famous Simmons University Cow Boy Band played several selections after which Mayor Hard-Grimson welcomed the Abilene boosters and extended an invitation to Abilene people to attend the Haskell County Fair October 1, 2, 3. Haskell this year intends to have the biggest county fair in Texas, he said.

Light Showers and Drop in Temperature Over This Section

Dr. E. H. Atwood, formerly president of Washland College, Plainview, and now a member of the Simmons University faculty spoke for Abilene. He extended to Haskell Abilene's good will as a co-worker in the building of a great christian empire in West Texas and expressed Abilene's felicitations to her for the progress that she is making. He described the recent defeat of a good road bond issue in Haskell county as only a temporary setback and expressed the belief that the county would soon have paved highways running north and south through the entire county, upon which the traffic will rival that on the Bankhead highway. A quartette composed of Cook, Kuhn, Sears and Carter of the Cowboy Band, brought a big hand with two parodies which extolled Abilene's virtues. Dr. J. D. Sandifer was with the trippers and spent the short while here in conversation with a number of his friends.

A TRIP THROUGH WESTERN TEXAS

(By Mrs. F. T. Sanders)

In traveling over that vast domain one is overwhelmed by the bigness and beauty of what is known as West Texas, which is an empire in itself. We started from here Tuesday morning and went via Knox City, Benjamin, and over about Crowell. Around the latter city the crops are late but there has been so much rain it looks like early spring. Then through the Wichita brakes where the scenery is almost equal to Colorado. The first night we spent in Childress and we said camping out would be perfect except having no bathing facilities but when we got to the Tourist camp there was a shower bath. On our way north we passed through the little city of Wellington and there they have the prettiest rural homes in the West. Around every home there is a grove of trees with an avenue of trees leading up to the house, large pear, peach and apple orchards. These homes are set like gems in vast fields of cotton and remind one of the mental pictures of rural communities in England. Along the roads too, are set large cottonwood trees, making an inviting place to rest if anyone ever took time to rest. From there we went north to Ochiltree county, a border county between Texas and Oklahoma, then south to Amarillo. Everything in that country is beautiful. The feed looks like young trees. The second night we camped near a farm house and with true west Texas hospitality the people invited us to an ice cream supper which we gladly accepted. The people live so far away from town they only get ice about once every two weeks and make ice cream and invite all the neighbors in to help eat it. One thing that should interest the young men is that the usual wedding gift from a girl's father out there is a section of land and sometimes with a nice home on it. We started from Amarillo just after lunch and wanted to make it to Plainview that night but a cloud gathered and we were going right into what looked like a storm. The driver gave the old car all the gas she would take and we were going at a tremendous rate of speed, but the tornado was going faster and it hit us with all its force just four miles out of Plainview and the car reeled like a foundered ship but the driver managed to get it to a farm house right beside the road. The storm did some damage around Plainview and demolished two houses in the city and killed one 9-year-old boy. There was hail in it, too, and it partially destroyed some crops. While we were in Plainview, who should appear on the scene but Rev. L. N. Lipscomb, who started his ministry here on the Rose circuit. He is pastor there and has a membership of 1200 and has just lifted a heavy debt from their splendid church. He took us for a drive and to his church and while we were sitting in the dim recesses of this beautiful structure he told us of his struggle from a circuit rider with a salary of $250 dollars per year to when he had a standing offer of a position at $150 per month. But he says he is glad he had these struggles. In eleven years he has climbed from the circuit to this church which pays him a salary of $4,000 per year and one of the best loved men in the conference and very popular with all denominations in Plainview. He preached the Commencement Sermon to the graduating class this spring, but he says the good station and good pay are of small importance to him, but that his one aim in life is the winning of souls to Jesus Christ. He held a meeting out in the country near Plainview last week, and the night the meeting closed a man 50 years of age walked two miles to town and waked him up at three o'clock in the morning to tell him that he had accepted Jesus and was happily converted. Bro. Lipscomb says such things as that is what makes the ministry so wonderful. Mrs. Lipscomb stood by and encouraged him in his early struggles. When they were in Bomarton she got out and helped him pick cotton to make ends meet. He complimented Mr. R. C. Montgomery of this city for lending him $50 when he so sorely needed it. We were in their home at Plainview. They have a son 10 years old and a daughter who has just finished high school. They have a very comfortable home and several pear trees in the yard loaded with fruit, and such gorgeous dahlias in the yard. We left Plainview and went via Lubbock to Lamesa where the crops are very poor and it is very dry from there southeast as far as Roby. But from this side of Roby here the crops are good.

The Ten Commandments of Motoring.

First: Drive to the right side of the road; it's just as good as the left.

Second: Slow down when approaching a cross road; it is nearly as dangerous as a railroad crossing.

Third: Look out for children. You never can tell what they will do, and you are always in the wrong if you hit a child.

Fourth: Try to help instead of hinder the traffic officer; he is there for your good and he's got a tough job.

Fifth: Be sure your "dimmers" really dim; it's no joke driving into a blinding glare, as you probably know.

Sixth: Read and obey the warning signs; they are not put up as ornaments.

Seventh: If you feel you've got to speed—do it where it won't kill anybody but yourself.

Eighth: When making minor repairs, stop where your car may be seen from both directions; otherwise you may stop longer than you anticipated.

Ninth: Speeding around corners is a straight route to the hospital. Don't race past a stopped street car. Some day the jury will call it manslaughter.

Tenth: Use discretion. The fact that you had the right of way won't bring anybody back to life, least of all yourself.—The Nation's Highways.

The fact that we have vulgar magazines isn't the thing to worry about. We ought to be worrying to think that we have enough vulgar people to support them.

Denouncing a man is scarcely less offensive than praising his rival.

"Diversification"
"Diversification" is a much misused term. It does not mean merely a variety of crops, or market gardening; it does not mean a particular schedule of operations for all localities, soils and circumstances. It means the best and most varied utilization of time and resources practicable in a given situation. There is not a cotton farm or a tenant holding where it is not easily practicable to provide three cheap but profitable supplements to the cotton income.

The first is a home garden.
The second is a flock of poultry.
The third is a milk cow.
A single brood sow will furnish a year's bacon and more.
But the poultry, the sow, and the cow require daily attention. They cannot be neglected. A lazy man may lose his investment in poultry through ignorance of the simplest rules of breeding. The fact remains that industry and intelligence will succeed.—Federal International News.

The Mark of Quality

25 Years of Firestone Service

to Highway Transportation

25 years of anticipating the requirements of motorists—making manufacturing processes more certain—producing a higher standard of quality—25 years of unswerving adherence to the Firestone pledge, "Most Miles per Dollar"—summarizes Firestone's record of service to car owners.

Firestone factories have grown from a small building approximately 75 x 150 feet to mammoth plants having floor area of over 60 acres—from a capital of $50,000 to over $50,000,000—from an annual sales volume of $100,000 to over $100,000,000—all in the short period of 25 years.

This Firestone record could only have been made through furnishing the public with outstanding values and is, consequently, your assurance of quality and lowest prices.

If you would like to know more of this wonderful record, ask your Firestone dealer to send you an illustrated folder.

With today's high cost of crude rubber and other raw materials, Firestone's opportunity to serve the public was never better, due to its great volume and special advantages in buying, manufacturing and distribution.

AN ORDINANCE

An Ordinance to Regulate and Fix the Place of Giving Performances for Carnivals, Theatres, Tent Shows, Vaudeville, Skating Rinks, Merry-Go-Rounds, Wrestling and Boxing Matches and the Like and Providing a Penalty for a Violation Thereof.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF HASKELL, TEXAS.

1. That it shall be unlawful to erect any tent, building or play set within 600 feet of a private residence, school, church or hotel in said city...

2. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, or any employee of any person, firm or corporation to construct or erect or to assist in constructing or erecting any tent, building or platform within 600 feet of a private residence, school, church or hotel in said city...

4. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and every day shall constitute a separate offense.

The fact that there are no regulations in the city governing such amusements and the fact that such amusements have become numerous in nearly every city, town and village and the fact that public streets and sidewalks are blocked and will be so blocked create an emergency and imperative public necessity that the ordinance for amusements to be read at three several meetings be suspended and that this ordinance take effect from and after its passage, and it is so ordained.

Buggy Courting vs Auto Courting

The other night while coming into Lone Oak the editor of the News passed a Ford car on Gladys street that contained a pair of jellybeans and around their necks were strung a pair of bagpipes. The boy in the front seat was doing the driving in this case, the girl was doing the loving. It was the same way in the back seat - the girl had her arms around his neck, her knees up and neither seemed to be conscious of the others presence. And then a few minutes later she raised another bag with only one jellybean in it - and the girl was doing the loving while the boy was doing the driving. It makes one begin to think of the good times the boys and girls are having. When we next bring our something we did not have to be bothered with an old Ford. All we had to do was to get "Old Gray" in the back in the lines at the end and there they were over the (backboard) and hands were perfect. DEATHS

Baby Dies
Sad beyond expression was the passing away of the little 2-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. E. E. McGregor at their home in this city Monday August 24, at 11:30 a. m. The end came after a two week's illness from whooping cough and diphtheria. It tears out heartstrings to see one so young and lovingly taken away and deep sorrow reigns over the hearts of many who were made sad by the passing of this beautiful child and the bereaved parents have the deepest sympathy of their many friends.
Funeral services were conducted by Rev. I. N. Alvis at Howard Cemetery Tuesday after which all that was mortal of this precious child was given burial. May He who alone can pour balm into wounded hearts comfort the bereaved loved ones in this dark hour of sorrow.

When the Last Word Counts.
The following has been sent us as an excerpt from the will of a Wall Street man which has been recently probated in the New York courts:
"To my wife the knowledge that I was not the fool she thought I was.
"To my son, I leave the pleasure of earning a living. For thirty-five years he has thought that the pleasure was all mine: he was mistaken.
"To my daughter, I leave $100,000. She will need it. The only good piece of business her husband ever did was to marry her.
"To my valet, I leave the clothes that he has been stealing from me regularly for the last ten years; also my fur coat that he wore last winter when I was at Palm Beach.
"To my chauffeur, I leave my car. He almost ruined them and I want him to have the satisfaction of finishing the job.
"To my partner, I leave the suggestion that he take some other clever man in with him at once if he expects to do any business."—Oil Weekly.

Born Dead-Beats.
Every person who has conducted a business in which the extending of credit is practiced must be impressed with the large percentage of people in the world who appear to be born dead-beats.
There are those in every community who make pretensions to business and social standing yet never were known to pay a bill when it was due and seldom pay one at all excepting as a result of hounding or legal action.
Morally there is no difference between one who fails to pay an honest debt when he can pay it and one who robs a till or cracks a safe. In fact, if there be any decency in either it appears to be on the side of the common criminal, who at least does not abuse confidence and friendship.
Credit bureaus are gradually making the path of the dead beat a little more thorny, but he still flourishes to an extent that is a serious handicap to honest citizens.—Cooper Review.

EVEN big-city folks must have their "neighborhood stores"! Most of them would no more think of going down town to fight their way through the crowds in search of a roast for dinner than they would of walking to the factory to get a pair of shoes.
City women know that their neighborhood stores can supply them just what they want — and that, in most cases, the service is more alert and friendly.
The same thing is true of this "neighborhood". Our merchants—the men whose ads you read in this paper — are in position to furnish your home with the best and most popular brands of goods. Not only can they save you money, but they gladly relieve you of a lot of worry and loss of time.

BUILD HASKELL

WHAT ARE YOU WORTH TO YOUR HOME TOWN?

Ask yourself again, Haskell. Ask yourself, think for a moment. "What am I worth to my town? Well, how much do you give to it?"

What have you done for your town? Have you given one tenth, or one mill, to build Haskell, in return for what Haskell has done for you?

REFRIGERATION ESTABLISHED IN HASKELL

The whole universe has been watching the development and progress of that unknown something called electricity every since Thomas A. Edison built the first generating plant in New York City some fifty odd years ago for use of this electric energy in motors of the commercial world.

At that time the principal use for electric energy was to turn the night into day. And then came the time when the electric wizards reached another achievement in the development of the industry when they harnessed this electric energy in motors capable of turning the largest wheels of industry.

Perhaps there is nothing so essential to the progress of the modern world as this electric energy. Without it, the wheels of progress would be at a standstill, to say nothing of the thousand and one little inconveniences to be suffered by the general public.

But this has nothing to do with our story. For years we have been turning night into day, cooking with electricity, heating with electricity, washing with electricity and using it as our servant in numerous and sundry ways. But now comes the age of electric refrigeration.

The West Texas Utilities Company has just completed one of the largest installations of its kind in this section of the state. The installation was made in the W. M. Mask Grocery and Market and it is the last word in modern refrigeration methods.

To the casual observer, there is nothing to be seen with the exception of two tiny one-half horse power compressors caged in at the rear of the giant like refrigerator. And possibly you would not see them either.

But to the observer who is familiar with the tick-tick noise audible only to the ears a few yards away. However a glance at the thermometer will indicate that the temperature on the inside is around 47 degrees, or plenty cold.

The Mask refrigerator was originally a 2400 pound capacity vault before the Frigidaire installation. It stands 6 feet wide, 10 feet long and 10 feet high. Allow for the walls, it has approximately 500 cubic feet on the inside.

Around the sides is sufficient room to hang several choice baby beefs and as many hogs, to say nothing of the storage room left for a week's supply of other perishable produce. And they are there in this huge refrigerator, remaining at the same temperature 24 hours a day. In addition to refrigerating the vault, the two compressors also serve to keep an eight foot cooling counter at a low temperature.

W. J. BRYAN ESTATE VALUED AT $100,000

"In the name of God farewell." Thus begins the last will and testament of the late William Jennings Bryan a copy of which was received here today.

The will distributes an estate valued at $100,000 among relatives, friends and institutions. His estate, Marymount, at Cocanut Grove, Fla. goes to his wife, together with one-third of the rest of his estate.

His three children receive approximately $100,000 each, according to his own estimate. Approximately $100,000 goes to educational and religious institutions. It is understood that Mrs. Bryan will be appointed administratrix of the estate, as Mr. Bryan overlooked the necessity of providing for an executor of the will.

The will, in part, is as follows: "In the name of God, farewell. Trusting for my salvation to the blood of Jesus Christ, my Lord and my Redeemer, and relying on His promises for my hope of resurrection, I consign my body to the dust and recommend my spirit to the God who gave it."

"I, William Jennings Bryan, a citizen of Dade County, Florida, being of sound mind and memory but conscious of the uncertainty of life and desiring to make a just disposition of the worldly goods with which an indulgent Heavenly Father has seen fit to bless me, do make public and declare this my last will and testament, hereby annulling all former wills made by me."

The last stipulation in the will is as follows: "I have saved for the last my bequest for religious education. While I have devoted a large part of my time to the study and discussion of political questions and have found an abundant reward in the reforms adopted with my humble aid, I feel more interested in religion than in politics, because religion is the only influence that controls the heart, out of which are the issues of life."

Next to religion, I am most interested in education, because education can and should increase one's capacity for service. "But education will not be a benefit to its possessor and a blessing to society unless wisely used."

"I had hoped to aid in the establishment of an academy that would embody my idea and serve as a model. Fearing that I shall not be able to carry out this plan during the years that remain, I am setting aside a fund equal to each child's share to be used for Christian education."

From this amount, however, Mr. Bryan deducts $50,000, the value of his Nebraska home, which he recently

SIMMONS COLLEGE HAS REMARKABLE GROWTH

The remarkable growth and development of West Texas during the past thirty-five years has no parallel in the development of Simmons University which passed this year from the college to the university class. This school had its beginning in 1891. At that time the entire west was a vast open country, undeveloped and sparsely settled. The men who were responsible for the launching of Simmons were rugged pioneers who foresaw the possibilities for the building of a great empire in the west, and it was their dream to build along with this empire a great denominational school.

Like the great west, for the first ten years Simmons College, then only an academy in reality, had many bitter struggles and setbacks. The annual enrollment was less than one hundred. In 1902 Dr. O. H. Cooper, one of the outstanding educators became president and during the six years of his administration the enrollment increased from 189 to 340, and the property and endowment increased fourfold.

In 1909 the present president, Dr. J. D. Sandefer assumed management of the institution. He had a vision of a great West and a great University, and he has spent these sixteen years in carrying out his ideals. That his faith in West Texas and a great university were not misplaced is indicated by the fact that this section of Texas has developed into the greatest section of the entire state. With this development Simmons has always kept pace.

The school goes into the university field of education with a plant valued at about one million dollars and an endowment of nearly a half million. On the beautiful forty acre campus there stands nine modern and modernly equipped buildings, including a large auditorium and administration building, one of the largest and best equipped science buildings in the state, a $100,000 fine arts building, two large girls' dormitories, a large gymnasium with swimming pool, basket ball court and other equipment for the physical development of students. The most recent addition to the campus is a $150,000 men's dormitory being completed this summer and a modern fire proof library building. Twelve hundred and sixty-eight students enrolled last year and the indications are now that this number will be exceeded during the coming year.

The thirty-fourth annual session of Simmons University begins Wednesday September 16. A faculty of forty-two trained christian men and women have been selected to help guide the destinies

Modern Poultry House Equipment To be Fair Exhibit

The music school taught by Earl Elliott and W. M. Free of Haskell at Lake Creek closed Monday night. A large congregation of visitors were present and some real singing was put on by the pupils of this successful school. Every pupil in the school directed a song and the almost perfect blend of voices shows the progress the pupils have made. There is some of the best musical talent in this school to be found anywhere and if they keep up their work some of these young folks will reach the top rung in the musical ladder of fame.

Mr. C. O. Davis, of Rule, well known over this section as a poultry breeder and fancier presents the plan and offers to superintend the construction as well as make the equipment himself and install it.

The main idea is to present poultry raisers and those who might feel inclined to enter the business, for pleasure, home consumption or commercial, to have an insight as to what constitutes a modern poultry house and equipment and demonstrate just how cheaply the house and equipment can be made.

Trap nests, automatic water fountain, feed hopper and roosts, ventilation, etc., can be erected and maintained by most any one at a reasonable expense, will be shown in the Poultry Department this year, if the suggestion as presented by Mr. Davis can be carried out at this time.

In this connection Mr. Davis stated he would have incubation next year capable of caring for 17,000 eggs. He states he is running about 4,000 at this time. The house and equipment he plans to place on the Fair grounds this year, or soon, is the styled house he uses, however he uses stucco and the house to be erected for the Fair Association will probably be sheet iron.

The plan is of an educational nature and Mr. Davis will have nothing to sell nor display any agency goods, but offer his experience in demonstrating just what can be done to improve poultry culture and production as well as make it interesting.

PUBLICITY MAN FOR THE TEXAS-OKLAHOMA FAIR HERE

Mr. Wiley, publicity man for the Texas-Oklahoma Fair was in the city Monday in the interest of the Fair, which will be held in Wichita Falls October 2nd to 5th. The red advertising car in which he was touring this section attracted quite a bit of attention while here.

The Texas-Oklahoma Fair is one of the big fairs of the state though it is only three or four years old. It is probable that Haskell county will prepare an exhibit to be entered in the agricultural display, with the expectation of capturing one of the liberal prizes that are being offered by the fair management.

FARMER JONES VS. Road Bond Election

FARMER JONES DO YOU WANT TO VOTE ROAD BOND? In the recent election you said overwhelmingly "No." This should settle the question.

It is rumored that we are to have another Road Bond Election soon in some form. This is equivalent to saying that you do not know what you want and that you want to vote the Bonds.

There are some people who want Road Bonds. Who are they?

The bleated bondholders want them because they wish him a good and safe investment usually bearing 4 to 5 per cent interest and not taxable. This in many places is equivalent to 5 or 10 per cent where the tax rate is 3 to 5 per cent on the $100.

The automobile manufacturers favor road bond elections and the building of roads as a means of stimulating the disposition of his cars and then dispose of the deferred payment notes on sales of autos so as to pay the purchaser of the notes 15 to 20 per cent on his investment.

This explains why in some localities, the local banks have no money to loan the farmer on which to make crops or to the merchant on which to do business.

FARMER JONES, you are the foundation of the wealth of our country. Take your land and it all goes. You and all fall. This is a strictly farming country and every body is dependent on you.

Then why be made the scapegoat for wild speculation schemes of others and pay the bill?

The solution of the road bond question is for the Legislature. It should place a tax on the gasoline and give to each county its respective amount paid to be expended on its roads.

In this way the fellow who uses the roads pays for their construction and maintenance. Have no road tax on land or other personal property. In this way you get rid of the road bond and bond speculators and do not vote yourself and family into bondage for years to come.

Besides you let the lowly who uses the roads pay for them according to the amount of use he makes of them, and relieve yourself of the uneven burden under the present system you Farmer Jones pay most of the freight.

Do not be deceived by the cry for good roads. Every body is in favor of good roads. That is not the question. The question is how and by whom will they be paid? Under the present system you Farmer Jones pay most of the bill.

We insist that you are entitled to have everybody pay the bill according to the use he makes of the roads.

There is an old adage: "Bring a child up in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." We were born and reared on the farm and remained there until we were 25 years old. We were brought up to think for your interest. Our sympathy always goes out in favor of you on questions like this for we well know that Farmer Jones pays the freight.

We are informed that representatives or emissaries of bond companies have been very active in this county before and since the recent bond election. Also that some of our citizens have been in contact with them, and paying Farmer Jones upon the bait telling him that the proper thing to do was to vote the bonds. May we ask why?

We practice what we preach. We are for your interests. We are giving you better prices on gas and oil. Selling you 12c and oil for 60 cents per gallon. Our gas and oil are as good as that of other.

We have sold since opening, Tuxhoma, Magnolia, Tenn. Company, Pierce and Pro-handie gases at the same price and see practically no difference in them. All new motor gases are made according to the same specifications prescribed by the Government and of necessity must be of similar quality regardless of their name or what company makes them.

The same is true of motor oils when made upon the same specifications of grade, weight, brand, and name. They are all the same quality.

Do not buy a quart of oil from one person and a quart from another person. Buy your oil from one person and you will get the same service though they be given different names.

The best proof of the quality of our products is that our business increases each week.

Your Trade Appreciated.
