In the last pre-district game before an open date this week and the district opener next week, Knox City defeated Baird by the score of 61-36. Other Greyhounds in the photo are T.J. Richardson (68) and Quentin Spells (22), at the right rear. Knox City will host the Albany Lions here at Greyhound Stadium on Friday, October 8 to start district play. ## Greyhounds enjoy week off following 61-36 win over Baird

The Knox City Greyhounds are using the open date on their schedule this week to relax and prepare for the opening week of district play next Friday night when the Albany Lions will travel to Greyhound Stadium. The open date this Friday night follows Knox City's defeat of the Bears at Baird last Friday night, 61-36.

Moving up and down the field at will, Riley Spells led the rushing game for Knox City, adding a whopping 186 yards in 11 carries with 3 touchdowns to his season record. Quentin Spells picked up 92 yards in 8 carries with 2 touchdowns, Cody Wainscott added 60 yards in just 4 carries with 1 touchdown, Ben Simmons had 52 yards on 5 carries, Rico McCrary had 12 yards on 3 carries, Amos Lerma had 6 yards on 3 carries, Andy Shaver picked up 4 yards on 2 carries, and Adan Silva had -4 yards on 2 carries. The 'Hound rushing game picked up a total of 402 yards on 38 carries.

The Greyhound offense also picked up another 54 yards through the air as quarterback Andy Shaver completed 3 of 7 passes for 47 yards and Quentin Spells added 7 yards with 1 completed pass. Adan Silva and Rico McCrary also passed the ball 1 time each.

Offense stats show that Knox City picked up 13 first downs compared to only 7 by Baird, picked up 402 yards rushing to Baird's 82, had 3 penalties for 20 yards compared to Baird's 45 yards with 5 yellow flags. Knox City picked up 456 yards of total offense, Baird had 280.

Knox City's backup varsity and junior varsity players gained valuable game experience as Coach Hutchinson started subbing them into the game as early as the second quarter.

On defense, Eric Lewis leads the season stats with 58 tackles, followed by Kylin DelValle with 43, and Cody Wainscott with 39. Other tackle totals are 37 for Ben Simmons, 31 for Chris Norton and Tomas Myers, 29 for T.J. Richardson and Riley Spells, 28 for C.J. Bruce and Quentin Spells, 16 for Derrick Magana, 12 for Ryan Harrington, 10 for L.B. Thompson and Brandon Grimsley, 5 for Ricky Dale Smith and Jeremy Saxton, 3 for Ty Chisum and Adan Silva, 2 for Jeff Garcia, Drew Barnard, Travis Hawkins, Rico McCrary and Amos Lerma, while Sandro Garcia and Tim Sanders have 1 tackle each.

Riley Spells leads the team in sacks with 4, followed by Tomas Myers with 3, Ben Simmons with 2, T.J. Richardson with 1.5, and Kylin Delvalle with 1. Kylin DelValle has 2 fumble recoveries, while C.J. Bruce, Chris Norton and L.B. Thompson have 1 each. Quinton Spells, Derrick Magana, Quentin Spells and Eric Lewis are each credited an interception.

District action will begin on Friday night, October 8, at 7:30 p.m. when Albany's Lions travel to Knox City.

Abilene will be the location of next Texas State Veterans Cemetery

AUSTIN -- Jerry Patterson, Chairman of the Texas Veterans Land Board, and Leo Barraza, Chairman of the Texas Veterans Commission, today announced a site proposed by the city of Abilene will be the location of the next Texas State Veterans Cemetery.

"The proposed Abilene site will make a superb final resting place for our Texas veterans," Patterson said. "This location meets all federal criteria for a state veterans cemetery, and will serve more than 30,000 veterans living within a 75-mile radius."

The Veterans Land Board will submit Abilene's proposal to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, which provides all funding to build state veterans cemeteries. The VLB should know by October 2005 whether the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs has approved funding for the site. Once funding is approved, the design phase will begin and should be completed by spring 2006. Construction is expected to begin in summer 2006 and the cemetery should open in early 2008.

"This cemetery will be a lasting memorial to the men and women who serve our nation," Patterson said. "We pledge to keep it immaculate, as befits a place of honor."

The Abilene site was chosen by the Texas State Veterans Cemeteries Committee, which met after the public meeting today of the Texas Veterans Land Board in Austin.

The Texas State Veterans Cemeteries Committee is composed of Texas Land Board Chairman Patterson and fellow Veterans Land Board members Col. Ladd Pattillo, USAR (Ret.), and Mr. Mike Ussery. Also on the committee are Texas Veterans Commission Chairman Leo Barraza;

the immediate Past-Chair of the TVC, Mr. James Duncan; and Mr. Glen M. Gardner Jr., Chairman of the Texas Coalition of Veterans Organizations and Department Adjutant of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Texas.

In March 2004, a request for proposals was sent to mayors, city managers, county judges and veterans groups in nine communities located in 11 counties: Abilene, Amarillo, Corpus Christi, Longview, Lubbock, Midland-Odessa, San Angelo, Texarkana and Tyler.

Four proposals were received in time to be considered for funding in 2006. The proposed sites were submitted by the city of Abilene, Nueces County, the American Housing Authority on behalf of the Llano Cemetery Association in Amarillo, and a joint proposal from Smith and Gregg counties.

Jessy Schur is Houndette of week, teams fall to Benjamin

Selected as this week's Houndette 'Player of the Week' is KCHS freshman Jessy Schur.

Coach Jaree Elliott selected Jessy for this honor for her ability of being able to handle the pressure well moving up to varsity as a freshman playing for an injured player. Coach Elliott says Jessy plays 'very mature' for a freshman.

In last week's games with Benjamin, the junior high lost in two, 25-10, 25-10; record is 2-2. JV lost in two, 25-20, 25-12; record is 7-2. Varsity lost in three, 25-11, 25-23, 25-23; overall record 12-7, district record 0-2.

Knox City PIP participants begin weekly practice, readying for high school halftime performances

By Isabel Rodriguez

For those of you who do not know, PIP stands for Players in Progress. PIP is a nonprofit youth organization working through the community. It is a basketball performance group of boys and girls in kindergarten through sixth grade. The PIP motto is "Everyone leaves the PIP floor a winner." PIP goals are to help each child become the best they can be by instilling responsibility, discipline, confidence and the willingness to help others in its participants. PIPs learn that they can work hard and still have fun!

I have seen different performances given by other schools, and I decided this would be something that would benefit our kids. Of course non of this would be possible without help. I would like to thank Kelly Hutchinson, Kim McLemore, Kristi Frausto and Brandi Manning for becoming certified to help with our group this year.

On September 11, 2004, our PIP group attended a camp in Seymour. It was bright and early, but the kids were ready. Camp started at 8:45 a.m. and it ended at 2:00 p.m. During camp, the kids learned different ball handling techniques. The kids ended camp with a performance for the parents. Our PIP group worked for 5 hours. Thank you, kids for such hard work.

Knox City-O'Brien PIP group will be practicing every Monday for an hour and a half until basketball season rolls around. At this time, practices will be for an hour and thirty minutes. Upon the arrival of basketball season, there will be a schedule of when our group performs. We will be performing during the half time at the high school games. We would also like for you to come out and watch our group perform during basketball season.

Dear Knox County Voter,

My name is Travis Floyd and I am graciously asking for your vote as County Judge in the General Election on November 2nd.

I was born in Knox City and grew up farming side by side with my father in and around Munday. I graduated from Munday High School in 1965 and almost immediately went to work for AT&T. I married my school sweetheart, Brenda Johnson, in December of 1965. We have two married daughters and four grandchildren. I am an active member of the First Baptist Church in Munday. I enjoy sports, gardening, camping, reading, and visiting with family.

I believe Knox County is in a time where we need the best, most qualified people working in County Government. The judge will need to possess certain qualifications in order to lead the county. After reviewing these qualifications, I believe I am the best candidate for this position. I have received extensive technical, management, and leadership training throughout my 30 plus years with AT&T. After retiring from AT&T in 1996, I returned to my roots in Knox County where I became District Supervisor for the Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation. I resigned from that position after being offered consulting work in the telecommunications field, which took me overseas. Some of the consulting work included: Senior Engineer/Program Manager for PT Telkom in Indonesia; Centrum Radiocommunications and Telecommunications in Poland; Saudi Telecommunications Company in Saudi Arabia; Lucent Technologies in Hilversum, Holland; Winstar Communications in Herndon, Va.; Pensat international in Omaha, Nebraska; and National Account Manager for NTSG, Inc. at Cisco Systems in Plano, Texas.

I believe after having successfully managed diverse groups of people in the U.S. as well as other countries, I am equipped to meet the challenges ahead as County Judge. The skills I possess that qualify me for the position of County Judge are: leadership, organizational, planning, implementation, and problem solving. I have strong interpersonal skills and I communicate well with people on a professional and mutually respectable level. Much of my work with AT&T and in the consulting arena has used these skills to bring people together to solve problems.

Political advertisement paid for by Travis Floyd

If elected, I will approach the County Judge position as a full-time responsibility. I have long been interested in the inner workings of county government and would appreciate the opportunity to serve the people of Knox County. I will perform all the duties of the office in an open, honest, and professional manner. Some of my goals include working together with the Economic Development Teams to attract businesses and jobs to Knox County, expanding the existing businesses, and developing and presenting a no-frills budget for Knox County. At AT&T, I developed budgets to present to the Executive Officers and had to operate within that budget, so I realize the importance of maintaining the budget proposed. I will work hard to bring the citizens of Knox County together to solve any problems we may encounter.

Sincerely, /s/ Travis Floyd

Benjamin news

By Gladene Green, Benjamin Correspondent

Fall is definitely in the air today (Sunday). Sure is pleasant and as I watch the TV this afternoon and see what's going on in Florida, I'm very thankful to be here on the much drier Knox Prairie. So sorry for those poor folks that are suffering such losses.

Good to report that Jane Gideon was at church today and feeling better. She still has lots of room for improvement but is very thankful for each day that she is stronger. Still has other procedures to be done before doctors release her. She goes back on Tuesday to see her doctor.

Penny Eaton is still making frequent trips (twice weekly, I believe) to Abilene for treatment on her leg. She says maybe it's getting a little better from time to time.

No word today on Debbie Hudson Ebraheim. Last report she was still in Lubbock and doctors were still not sure of the cause of her problem.

In sports last week, Tuesday was a pretty good day for the Lady Stangs. All teams, Junior High, JV and V defeated the visiting Knox City Houndettes. And all the games were good ones. The first varsity game was pretty one sided but the next two were closer and that made it far more interesting to the spectators. Don't know how Coach Underwood felt but the fans were excited!!

Junior High Colts hosted Jayton Thursday night and won which was a boost to them. Those young men give it their all and when they win they are doubly determined for the next game. When high school met Patton Springs here at home Friday the game was not so pretty. The score was 50 plus to 20 plus. Of course with Seth Kuehler out, changes had to be made in the lineup and that made a difference. Seth is out of the hospital and maybe it won't be long til he'll be back in uniform and on the field.

Shower honors bride-to-be - A pre-nuptial brunch honored Rachel Duke, bride-elect of Ryan Thomas, on Saturday morning in the home of Debbie Clower. Calling hour was from 10:30 until 11:30. The serving table as covered with every kind of brunch food you can think of. Also peach slush tea and hot coffee was served. The young couple, who will be married November 13, received many very useful gifts that will certainly come in handy as they begin their new life together. Hostesses were Debbie Clower, Janet Reed, Mary Jane Young, Sue Sheedy, Laura McCanlies, Belle Grill, Susan Cartwright, Carol Dickson, Janice Tolson, Charlotte Welch, Jonnie Williams, Mary Bohannon, Stacia Propps, Judy Barnett and Gladene Green.

Here 'N There - Jim and Barbara Harris of Sugarland visited her sister, Clodell Duke, a few days last week.

Saw David Milson on Friday. He's always the same friendly young man he was in high school. He lives at Cedar Hill and was here to visit his mom, Bo Milson.

Jimmie Kay Liles of Kilgore was here for the weekend to visit her girls, Stacia Propps and Shannon Propps and their families.

Zeke and Amanda Duke and Daniel of Amarillo, and Phil and Rebekah Boone and family of Abilene visited their parents, Pam and Dennis Duke, and the "girls" attended the brunch for Rachel Saturday morning.

Lucy Mings spent a night in the hospital this past week. She's back home now and doing much better.

Visited with Kristin Simmons (of Gilliland and now of Iowa Park) on Saturday. She is doing her student teaching at Iowa Park and will get her degree in December.

Also had a nice visit with Lori Bufkin who now lives in Crowell. She said her daughter Ashley who graduated in May from CHS is now at U of NT in Denton.

Debbie and Mike Moorhouse had grandkids Randi and Dillon of Childress for the weekend. They had an afternoon out Saturday afternoon. Went to Wichita Falls for a little shopping, supper out and a movie. Sounds like they had lots of fun. They visited me today (Sunday).

Jessica Moorhouse spent the weekend with Maggie Seidenberger in Lubbock and attended a Cross Canadian Ragweed (whatever that is!!) concert. Maggie is a freshman at Tech.

A former correspondent for the local paper, Alestine Flye, died Saturday after a long illness and graveside rites were held Monday. Alestine was one of a kind and we loved her.

Lezli and Jared Moore of Mansfield met her parents, Marla and Don Hawkins in Baird for the football game Friday night to watch Travis play. They came home with them for the weekend and Travis and Jared enjoyed hunting. On Saturday, Wayne and Carol Anne Hawkins of Goodwater, Alabama, joined the group and attended church services with them on Sunday. Wayne's father was the late Jay Hawkins' nephew.

Charlotte and Duane Seay of Snyder were here to visit her mother, Marion Perdue, over the weekend and to attend festivities at the Methodist Church.

Gwen Decker of Lubbock was here over the weekend to visit her mother and her sister and family and to attend the Methodist Church anniversary. Gwen was a member of the Chancel Choir that Dottie Lowrey organized. Five of the original eight members attended.

O'Brien happenings

By Audie Johnston, O'Brien Correspondent

"Moses was walking down the street when he bumped into George W. Bush. "Hello," Bush said. "Nice weather we're having, huh?"

Moses took one look at the President, turned and ran in the other direction. The next day Moses was walking down the same street and there was Bush. Again, he tried to initiate a conversation. Again Moses turned and ran away.

Bush was tired of this bizarre treatment, so the next time Moses ran away from him, Bush followed. When he caught up, he asked Moses what was wrong.

Moses said, "The last time I walked to a bush I spent 40 years in the desert."

Here and There - Charlene Brothers was in Lubbock over the weekend and attended Stefani Stephens' wedding and she visited Edith Broach.

Orval and Helen Manning were happy for their son Royce of Abilene visited them one day last week. He always thinks of ways to help them do different yard work.

We were blessed Sunday to have Bro. Kelly Pigott of Abilene to preach for us again Sunday and he was chosen to be our interim pastor while we were searching for a pastor.

We still have some friends in our area that need our prayers. Loretta Hewitt is still in the hospital at Haskell. Evelyn Trice is at home and needs our prayers. Vivian Hendrix still has some problems, Rose Marie Johnston still has doctor's appointments in Abilene real often and Adelle Herring still has some problems.

Cousins of Billie Walker, Steve and Debbie Peterson and daughters Sarah and Cynthia of Aspermont visited with Billie over the weekend. Billie Ruth Carter and sons Lane and Luke of Aspermont were also visitors. Lane and Luke got to stay with cousin Billie all day Saturday.

The Youth Group finished the book of Philippians and learned the "finger prayer". They put fingers together and repeated the ten words of Philippians 4:13, then made wall hangings of the prayer. Crystal Baldwin brought chips to add to the menu of hot dogs, grapes and cookies. In October, the Youth plans to watch and discuss portions of "The Passion of The Christ" each Sunday.

From this angle

Another great weekend. Good weather, good ball games, good fellowship, good church services.

It was the 100th anniversary celebration of the First United Methodist Church, and a good turnout was on hand. Several former pastors were there and a number of out-of-town guests who were former members also attended.

The First Baptist Church will observe its 100th anniversary on October 9-10. On Saturday at 6:00 p.m. sandwiches, drinks, and cookies will be served in the fellowship hall, and on Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock a continental breakfast will be served. Two worship services are scheduled, one at 9:45 and after a short break, the second one at 11:00. Former pastors who will be delivering the messages are John Gillespie and Emil Becker. Following the services, a noon meal will be provided.

Brandon Lewis, who is currently a patient at Hendrick Center for Rehabilitation in Abilene, is awaiting transfer back to Lubbock where extensive repair will be done on a pressure point. We need to keep Brandon on our
