Bowman arena draws cutters to Knox City

The Bowman Arena in Knox City was the site of the first annual 'Cutting Unspectacular'.

Cutters, ranging from novice, amateurs to professional trainers, enjoyed the western event sport October 26 - 29.

Event planner Judy Hunter acknowledged the city for the warm welcome extended to the visiting group.

"We all had such a good time and everyone was so friendly. We hope to make this an annual event," Dr. Hunter said.

Amateurs and nonprofessionals participating were Mickey Rogers of Collinsville, Bonnie Ertel of Denison, Anne Myrick of Cedar Hill, Dr. Hunter of Cedar Hill, Mary Jane McDonald of Spring Branch and Angie

Campbell of Bullard.

Professional trainers helping the group were Mark Alexander of Mineola and Jonny Corbett of Pottsboro.

The group was especially grateful to Tony Hunter for providing the cattle and Weldon and Susan Bowman for the excellent preparation and use of both the arena and the adjacent facilities.

BRANDON LEWIS BENEFIT AT ABILENE DRAG STRIP - A benefit race held in Abilene on October 23 netted $1927.00 and all proceeds went to Brandon Lewis to help defray some of his expenses since his motorcycle accident the latter part of June. Those responsible for the benefit were Harry Goebel, Tom DuPree, and Buddy Cypert. Among local supporters were Dwayne, Lorie, and Dustin Johnson, Danny, Amber, and Grant Lewis, as well as Clint Lewis and Buddy Cypert. Winning first place was Mark Belitz, who won a four and a half foot trophy on his motorcycle. Stu West was second in his Chevrolet Malibu, winning a two foot trophy. Both Mark and Stu gave their trophies to Brandon with his name engraved on them. The News office appreciates the courtesy photo taken by Bobbie Johnson and brought in by Dwayne Johnson as well as the information provided by Danny Lewis.

After defeating Rotan last week, 'Hounds face Haskell this week for a playoff spot

Point system in place, Knox City needs to beat Haskell by at least 11 points to advance

Defeating Rotan 29-22 last Friday night at Greyhound Stadium with a pass from Andy Shaver to Quentin Spells in the last drive of the game, the Knox City High School Greyhounds now turn their attention to the Haskell Indians and this week's battle for a playoff berth.

Knox City has to defeat Haskell by at least 11 points in order for the Greyhounds to advance into the playoffs. In the event of a Haskell win or a win by Knox City with less than the required number of points, the Greyhounds will end their season on Friday night, despite only having lost one game all year long.

In Friday night's win over Rotan, the greyhounds had 397 yards to the Yellowhammers 184. Knox City's ground game picked up 257 yards and 9 of 15 passes picked up another 140.

All Knox City fans are encouraged to travel the short distance to Haskell on Friday to support the team. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m.

Veterans Day program plans taking shape for November 11

At memorial site in Benjamin

Thursday, November 11, the 2004 Knox County Veterans Day program will be held at the Veterans Memorial in Benjamin.

A Veterans Day exhibit will be from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Knox County Courthouse. Photographs and news clippings about veterans of any time period are being sought for the display. A German flag from World War II is needed to show along with a Japanese and an American flag. A Purple Heart medal display is planned and names of any Purple Heart Veterans with a Knox County connection are sought along with wartime or overseas service items.

The exhibits will be set up Wednesday afternoon, November 10, after 1:00 p.m. If anyone wants to help or bring items for display, call Clara Brown at 940-474-3288 or the KCHC office at the Benjamin Courthouse 940-459-2229. Posters and essays of the top six entries from area elementary students in the Veterans Day contest will be part of the display.

At 10:30 a.m. on November 11, members of the Munday band will entertain the gathering program audience with a half hour of appropriate musical selections.

At 11:00 a.m. the program will begin with Charles Baker as emcee. Following an invocation and a presentation of the colors, the County Judge will welcome the audience. Next will be the Pledge of Allegiance and the two young speakers reading their Veterans Day essays.

The family of R. Otis Burnett, the Gold Star family, will be recognized and will place a memorial wreath at the arch which is engraved with the names of Knox County veterans who died in battle. Following the playing of "Taps", the program will end with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Immediately after the program, a beans and grilled hamburger meal will be served at the Benjamin Ex-Students Memorial Center.

All profits from the meal will go into the Veterans Fund of the Knox County Historical Commission. Tickets will be $6.00 a plate.

The Veterans Fund is used to help pay for upkeep of the Knox County Veterans Memorial, addition of names, support other veteran related projects, and the growing collection of albums about Knox County Veterans.

35th Harvest Day Festival set for Sunday, Nov. 14; salad lunch starts at 12:30, program begins at 1:15

The 35th annual women's Harvest Day Festival will be held Sunday, November 14, at the Foursquare Church. A salad lunch will begin at 12:30 p.m. and the program will start at 1:15.

Speaker will be Kathy Jo Rogers, who lost her husband the night of September 15, 1999, when a disturbed gunman walked into Wedgwood Baptist Church in Fort Worth. Seven minutes later, seven people were wounded and eight people were killed, including the gunman. Since that time, for Kathy Jo Rogers, it has been a time to grieve, and a time to heal. God has redeemed the tragedy in many ways and has brought beauty from ashes.

All women of the community are invited to come and hear her speak about how God has brought her through the loss of her husband, Shawn that night in 1999, and how He continues to give her a new song to sing.

From this angle

This is a beautiful Monday morning and we are told we'd better enjoy today as tomorrow, cooler weather is on the way. We have had great weather but know that the cotton farmers are really hoping for open weather for awhile to dry out this beautiful cotton crop after all the rain we have had this past week.

Knox City was the loser Saturday when longtime residents Norma Lea and Vic Lowry moved. They decided to sell their home here and move to Mesa Springs Retirement Village, 4149 Forrest Hill Road, Unit 600, Abilene, TX 79606. Norma Lea also gave us their telephone number, 325-692-0609, and said they would love to hear from any of us when we are in Abilene. We'll miss you good people!

Visiting Evelyn Balis last week and helping her celebrate her birthday were Ingrid and John Bradford of Shawano, Wisconsin, and Margaret and Odis Claxton of Houston.

Sue and James Downes and Angela Bradford of Vernon visited Evelyn Balis Sunday.

We also are sorry to be losing another dear couple, Mary and Troy Powell, who have sold the Little League Ranch and are in the process of buying and moving to a ranch Troy formerly owned south of Iowa Park. Certainly our best to these good people!

Barbara Barnard was in Cleburne over the weekend to check on her dad, John Wallace, who is recuperating at home following a fall.

We were pleasantly surprised Monday afternoon when former resident Betty Monet and her husband Herb of Bradenton, FL stopped in the News office for a brief visit. They were spending some time with her parents in Munday before their return home Wednesday morning.

KC Circle Club to meet Nov. 9

The Knox City Circle Club will meet next Tuesday, Nov. 9, at 6:30 p.m. in the home of Eleanor McCarty at 702 S. Central.

This month's program will be on "Identity Theft" and anyone interested is invited to attend and take part.

Also, anyone interested in joining the club may contact a member and attend a meeting. A spokesperson said that they have interesting programs and sometimes make crafts for themselves or for fun. They have one club project each year and this year are making lap blankets for the Children's Home in Dallas.

The club also encourages the youth to attend 4-H as they have interesting and fun programs.

O'Brien happenings

By Audie Johnston, O'Brien Correspondent

Here and There - Janoma Stephens, Bernice Rowan, Orval and Helen Manning, John and Jo Lippard, Marilyn Talbot, Bill Groves, Billie Ruth Walker, Charlene Brothers and I were all in Rule last Wednesday night at Bro. Bill Trice's church for a good meal and good music entertainment. We all enjoyed it all. Mrs. Trice will need all of our prayers this week for her doctor's appointments in Abilene. Prayer sure changes things.

David Ellis of Alpine visited his mother Beatrice Ellis for a couple of days last week.

Dan and Marilyn Talbot and Joan and David were at Possum Kingdom Lake over the weekend for a fishing trip. However, the weather kinds messed things up.

Billie Walker was blessed by having her son, Joe Banner of Hawley, visit her.

Adelle Herring was blessed by having her grandson, Kevin Urbanczyk of Goree, visit her.

A surprise birthday party and family reunion was held October 23, 2004, for Irene Bernal at the Meinzer Community Center in Knox City. Attending were Elias Bernal Jr. and Maria from Abilene; their children, Elias Bernal III and Patricia Alonzo from San Diego, Texas, and Virginia (Vickie) Bernal and E.J. and Aliasia Michelle and Levi Bernal from Corpus Christi and Tina Marie and Royce from Kingsville, Edward John Bernal from Abilene and his children China, Destiny and Edward John III Bernal from Calera, Oklahoma; Robert and Belinda Bernal from Abilene and their children, Aaleyah and Serra Bernal, Edward Bernal from Lockhart and his son Daniel, Diane and Ethien Bernal from Austin, Jesse Bernal of Florida and his son Christopher and Lorrie Bernal and children from Abilene, George, Amalia and David Bernal, George and Danise and daughter Anjelica Bernal from Killeen, Keven and Virginia Hoover and daughter, Myah of Killeen, Gabriel and Erica from El Paso and son Tyleene Bernal from Knox City, Sandra and Kamry Pontias from Milan, Kansas. Irene has 10 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-granddaughter. Her friend Virginia Cardosa from Knox City, Nora Moya San Juan from Truscott, also attended.

Obituaries

Glenda Joan Davis Drinnon

Funeral services for Glenda Joan Davis Drinnon of Haskell, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, friend and teacher, were held Tuesday, October 26, 2004, at First Baptist Church in Haskell with Dr. Gibbie McMillan and Dr. Troy Culpepper officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery under the direction of Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

Mrs. Drinnon, 64, died Sunday, October 24, 2004, at Haskell Memorial Hospital.

Born February 27, 1940, in Haskell, to Woodley and Alta Faye Davis, she married Cleatus W. Drinnon on November 26, 1962, in Haskell. After retiring as an educational diagnostician for the Tri-County Education Coop, Glenda served as disability coordinator for Hardin-Simmons University. She taught in Haskell CISD after receiving her bachelor's degree from Hardin-Simmons. She received her master's degree from Abilene Christian University.

Glenda was an active volunteer and leader for the Girl Scouts, 4-H, and Cub Scouts. She was a former member of First Baptist Church where she taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School. She was a founding member of Cornerstone Baptist Fellowship Church and taught Sunday School there.

Glenda is survived by her husband, Cleatus of Haskell; two sons, Stephen and wife Charmaine of Dallas and David and wife Judy of Abilene; two daughters, Leesa Toliver and husband, Brian of Sweetwater and Sharla Carver and husband, David of Knox City; a brother, James A. Davis of Lubbock. She is also survived by the lights of her life, grandchildren - Damon Drinnon and wife Kasey, Mitchell Drinnon and friend Trish, Brent and Jonathan Toliver, Misty Scarbrough, Chase and David Cleatus Drinnon, and Casey, Caleb and Candace Carver and great-grandchildren, Hayven Drinnon and Andrew and Madison Gomez. Survivors also include numerous beloved nieces and nephews and countless former students whose lives she touched.

Glenda was preceded in death by her parents.

While family and friends will miss Glenda and her love and zest for life, they will celebrate them in their memories. The family requests that memorials be made to the Cornerstone Baptist Fellowship Church, First Baptist Church or Hardin-Simmons University.

Chamber 'gearing up' for holidays

Saturday, Nov. 27

The Knox City Chamber of Commerce is 'gearing up' for their annual Christmas in November to be held on Saturday, November 27.

This downtown celebration includes Santa Claus for the children, craft booths, refreshments, downtown lights and late evening shopping with Santa dollars.

This year's activities will be from 6:00 until 7:30 p.m. in downtown Knox City.

Drawings for Santa Dollars will be held at 7:30 p.m.

Daveine Clark, Chamber executive director, said that the Chamber would like to hold a parade this year before the downtown activities begin; however, she stressed that the Chamber would need to know if there are those interested in participating.

She asks that anyone interested should call the Chamber office at 658-3442 as soon as possible as input is needed before proceeding with parade plans.

Letters to the Editor

October 29, 2004
 Stacy and Dave Thompson
 Knox County News
 Knox City, Texas 79529

Thank you for the article in the October 21, 2004 newspaper. We enjoy every edition and look forward to the paper each week. You probably don't know or remember me but we grew up in Knox City and last year 2003 we celebrated our 50th high school reunion. This year we came to the Watermelon Festival and enjoyed it very much. We will never forget all of the great times of growing up in a small town and clearly remember the little store across the street from the old high school. But as you say things change - lives change - and time marches on.

We want you to know we wish you the very best and we will remember both of you in our prayers.

Sincerely,
 /s/ Gary and Merina White
 McKinney, Texas
 (Editor's Note: Gary, thank you for the kind words. As a collector of Americana items, I especially loved your card with the American flag and the statement "It's people like you who make our country great. Thanks for The Knox County News." It couldn't have come at a better time. Sincerely, Stacy)

Student council launches program for KC elementary

The Knox City High School Student Council recently launched a program called "I Take Pride in My School".

This program was designed for elementary school aged children. Knox City High School Student Council gave each student of Knox City Elementary an opportunity to learn the school song.

When the elementary student learned the song and passed the test, they were awarded a t-shirt. Knox City High School student council found this a very effective way to instill pride in the KC school. The council feels it is very important to start at a young age. They will remember the school song throughout their school career.

Eighty-five shirts were awarded to children in kindergarten through fourth grade. The participants performed at the pep rally prior to the Hamlin game.

The Student Council, their sponsor Shea Edmonds and their high school principal Mack Lowe consider this to be a very successful program.

Varsity and JV Houndettes are players of week as season ends

The Knox City Houndettes played Rotan Tuesday of last week ending their season for 2004.

The Junior High team won in two, 26-24, 25-29. Season record for this team was 5-3.

The JV Houndettes won in two, 25-12, 25-12. They ended their season 10-4.

Varsity Houndettes played five games, winning the first 25-14, winning the second 27-25, losing the third 18-25, losing the fourth 17-25, and losing the last 11-15.

Coach Jaree Elliott recognized both the JV and Varsity teams. Coach Elliott gave special recognition to seniors Sophie Gutierrez, Erica Nevarez and Lindsey Villa. She also thanked them for their hard work and dedication saying that each of them will be missed and she enjoyed coaching them this year.

She also noted that all three teams had a winning season, saying "anytime you have a winning record, it means a successful season. Our team has come a long way this year, we have some unfinished business to take care of next year. Special thanks to Mrs. Speck for keeping the books at both home and away games and also to the parents and booster club for all their support."
