Locating Engineer J. T. Erwin of the Santa Fe Railway Company arrived in Haskell Friday with a crew of assistants and opened their camp in the north part of town for the purpose of surveying a proposed railway route east and west out of Haskell. It is understood that the Santa Fe contemplates building a line from the north Plains direct to Fort Worth. The new road is planned to leave the main line of the Santa Fe at Post, just above the cap rock of the plains, and as direct east as possible to Fort Worth and Dallas.

SENT OUT FOR COTTON PICKERS

The Board of City Development and Commerce is calling on Central Texas for 3,000 cotton pickers. Wires were sent out Wednesday evening asking for cotton pickers to request for reply if they can be sent. Cotton farmers wishing pickers should leave their name and address with the Board of City Development, Pierson Building, rear of Dr. Miller's office, so that distribution can be made with dispatch. The Board of City Development was ready some time ago, according to Mayor F. N. Clifford, but there had to be enough pickers in sight, according to those who were approaching the subject, so pickers were not sent earlier. A number of towns calling for pickers so the farmer on the list first will be served.

COMMUNITY SINGING LAST NIGHT OF FAIR

A number of the rural communities returned the application blanks for their entry into the singing contest at the Fair Park Saturday night last, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. They have not returned their blanks yet, but it is hoped that each community center and have their entry blanks in the hands of the committee before the end of the last day Saturday night, September 26th. This will be a great feat and one of the greatest successes of the Fair. The entertainers will be divided into three sections, the folk songs will be sung by the entire audience; next the contest will be between the communities, and the last of the program will be given to the famous Stamp Quartet who will sing a few numbers which will close the entertainment for the Fair.

ANNUAL HERE THREE DAYS AHEAD OF FAIR

Pool & Schneck Shows, "Just Texas boys trying to get along," their advertising reads, will open their night on the big midway of Haskell County Fair and hold three days, entertaining the citizenship with their many shows and devices, concessions and fun machines of many and various sizes and manufacture general. Schneck and his first aide, Mr. Pool, will be on hand early and Mr. Pool will be about the also, as Schneck tells it, and children, yes the old and young, are going to have the time of their lives these three days flit speedily and the Haskell County Fair, September 1, 2 and 3, takes hold and the organization stages what is now to be, in preparation, one of the biggest and all round successful events of its kind in this section—All West Texas.

FOUR OIL TESTS NOW DRILLING IN COUNTY

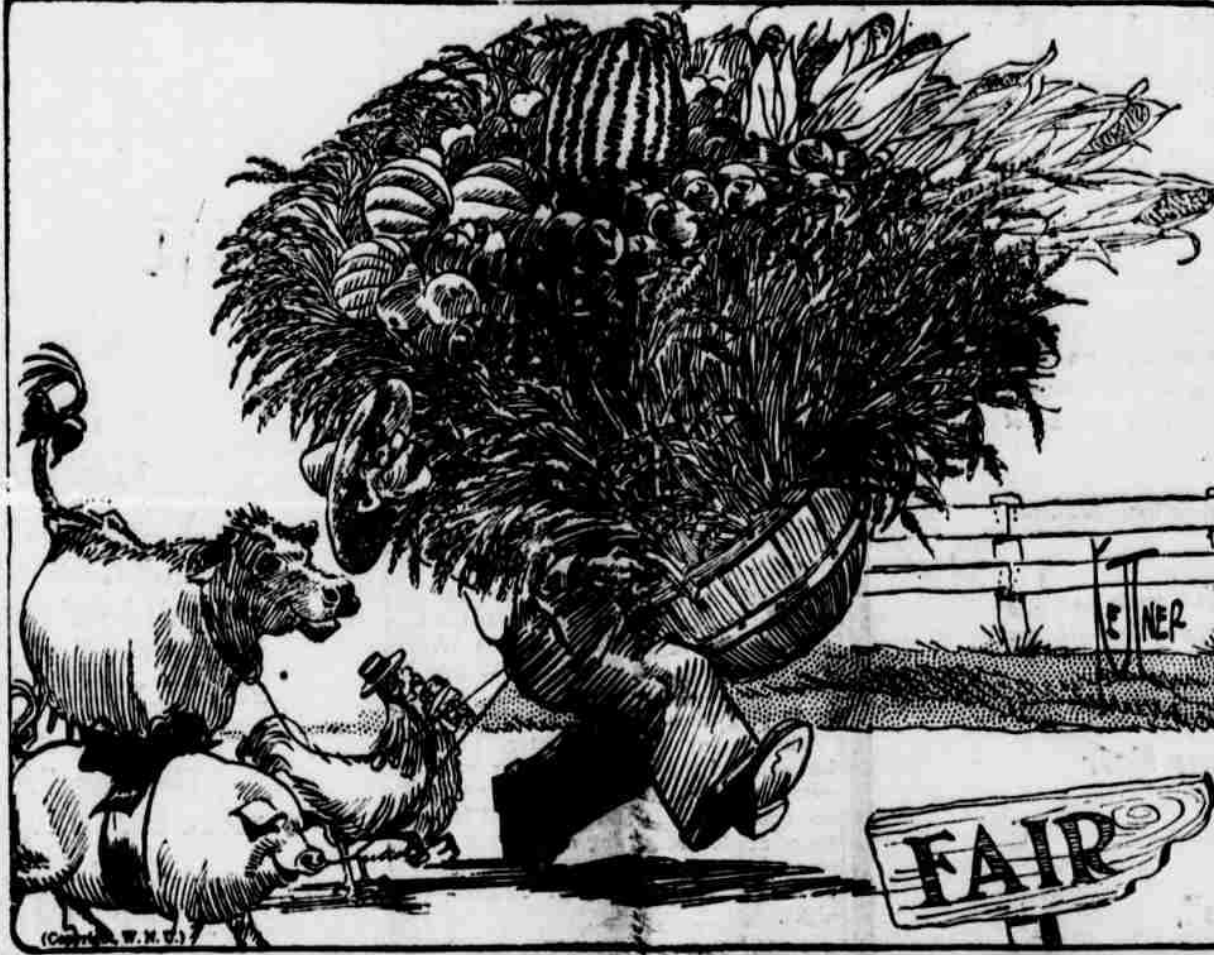

With four rigs running in different sections of Haskell County, prospects are very favorable for the development of an oil field during the next few months. The Terrill-Meyer well on the Stoker ranch 3 miles northeast of Haskell is drilling at 1552 feet in a soft shale formation, with indications looking favorable. Kouri No. 2 on the Ballard ranch, 12 miles east of Haskell is under reaming at 1335 feet after being shut down several days on account of repairs on the derrick, which was damaged in raising the casing to under ream. The Herbert Oil Company, McGregor No. 1, in the northwest part of the county is drilling at 1515 feet in a blue shale formation. They report being well satisfied with this formation and the progress they are making. The Adams, Proctor No. 1, in the southeast part of the county is down 2700 feet and have plugged the well to shut off the salt water. They are waiting for the cement to set with the view of testing the sand above. Proctor No. 2, is down 1200 feet. A new rig has been placed over the hole and work is expected to start at an early date. It is rumored that several other locations will be made in the near future, if the blocks of acres can be secured for the purpose. One or two locations have been abandoned in the country on account of not being able to secure the acreage in a solid body which is demanded by the oil people in order to protect themselves from speculators in leases when they begin operations on the well.

Crawford Allen, former sheriff of Haskell county who is now living in Alpine is a Haskell visitor this week. He is looking well and his many friends here are glad to see him again.

Miss Cordie Porter, a cousin of J. A. Gilstrap, is visiting Mr. Gilstrap and family this week and will also visit her sister, Mrs. C. C. Anderson of Rochester before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Baldwin of San Antonio were visitors with Mr. Baldwin's sister, Mrs. J. U. Fields and other relatives of the city the past week. Mr. Baldwin drove from San Antonio to Rotan in thirteen hours in his automobile, which is almost record-breaking time.

OLD SETTLERS TO HAVE CHUCK WAGON FEAST

Chairman J. B. Draper of the Old Settlers Division of the Big Street Parade advises Director J. Bailey Post of the Parade Division that he hopes to have a good representation of Old Timers in line and if plans work out he is going to arrange a Chuck Wagon Dinner for these old timers, believing they will thoroughly enjoy the treat and it will bring back olden times to them and be the source of thought of recall many funny stories and jolly reminiscences these Old Timers can recall as experienced in the days when the chuck wagon and cattle trails composed their daily life work and missing a meal or going dry a while was considered just an event in their young lives.

SUCCESS OF HASKELL COUNTY FAIR IS THE RESULT OF FAITH AND LABOR

"Everything comes to those who wait" adding "Who hustle while they wait" is fully demonstrated in the Haskell County Fair Association's faithful labors in working to that end, from which the Second Annual Haskell County Fair is a sample, as will be presented the patrons from near and far October 1, 2 and 3, 1925, when the big show throws open the gates to receive many more than took advantage of this invitation in 1924 when the First Annual Haskell County Fair was presented. Stepping out with only an idea, a number of Haskell business men saw the possibilities of a County Fair. The first step as usual was, raise the funds. Instead of subscriptions that were never to be returned, he solicited, stock was sold and the Haskell County Fair Association, chartered under the laws of the State of Texas, resulted. Location and a Manager, come next. How parcels and acreage of land was secured is already well known to the majority and to those who took even the slightest interest in the project. Then came Turner E. Campe, experienced in fair work, management, race track construction and all the details meaning from A to Z the Haskell County Fair to be staged in 1924 was in safe hands.

With the Board of Directors well behind him, co-operating in every manner possible, following in the main his suggestions, as it was known he knew his work well, within what might be termed the shortest time any Fair was ever begun as far down the line as the Haskell County Fair, Mr. Campe threw his every night and main into action and the 1924 Fair was the result, the comely, pigmentary finish of a green product, demonstrating what team work can do when the proper spirit is shown and gotten into action. Closing the 1924 show it was found the step had paid well. "However, not in a profit as to the entire investment, neither all of this profit in dollars and dimes, but, that many thousands of people, Haskell's patrons through other channels, visitors from adjoining counties, and afar, were seen and heard and entertained in a manner suggesting Haskell's folks were old experienced heads at such a job, and in the general profit, the financial results and the investment proved beyond a doubt the step taken was well founded and with a little more faith, careful investments and capable judgement from seasoned business men the Haskell County Fair Association would come out of the experiment an established fact, to-day the facts stand out boldly, the fair is no longer an experiment, a gamble, as it were, but an asset worthy of every citizen's co-operation and patronage, not alone in Haskell city limits but every point, section and town in the County make-up.

1925 finds conditions ideal, experience of exhibitors, Division heads, officers and board of directors of the Haskell County Fair Association, better equipped, better voiced and prepared to handle a bigger and better entertainment than ever before attempted in this section, yes, the biggest and best County Fair in West Texas, with a slogan, which, though considered such, is but the facts, framed to apply, "State Fairs Only, are Bigger-None Better." Increased acreage on the midway, ad-

24 FAST RACERS HAVE ENTERED RACE EVENTS

Mr. Hardy Grissom, President, and Henry Alexander, Supt. Races, of Haskell County Fair Association went to the Abilene Races Wednesday and signed up more racers for October 2nd and 3rd. In all there are now 24 bona fide entries and several telegrams have been received from drivers who were not at Abilene asking that blanks be forwarded so that they could enter in time. Seven or more fast drivers from Oklahoma and Kansas have entered the Haskell races this year who did not race at Abilene. It would seem that the Haskell track is attracting considerable attention and that the drivers are well satisfied with the purses offered. Among the fast racers at Abilene were Red Schaffer, Dick Calhoun and Lockhart. Lockhart was the easy winner at Abilene. Schaffer was unable to get his machine in working order and failed to qualify, while Dick Calhoun had hard luck all the way round. His machine was working badly and in two races he failed to get either first or second place and in the 30-mile race he lost a tire on the twentieth lap and after making five laps on the rim stopped and changed tires and then finished fourth. Calhoun was easily the favorite at Abilene, as he was here last year, and is coming here with the determination to make another track record for Haskell. The recent rains have been fine for our track, packing it still harder and when it is dragged, rolled and oiled it will be perfect. The people who witness our races next week are promised a treat in automobile racing, the best drivers in the country, a real contest and a beautiful track. It is expected that fully 30 drivers will enter the time trials in order to qualify for the different races.

3 Inches of Rain Falls Over West Texas Wednesday

Haskell county was visited by 2.91 inches of rain beginning Wednesday night about 6 o'clock and continuing until after midnight. This rain brings the total rainfall for the month of September up to about 9 inches which is the heaviest according to the past reports for the month of September since 1900 when a little more than 11 inches fell during the month. All work on the farms of Haskell county is delayed and it is thought that no cotton will be picked with fair weather before next Monday. According to reports the rain was general all over the county. Mrs. Henry W. Smith who has been real sick is improving nicely.

HASKELL COUNTY WINS FIRST PLACE AT WEST TEXAS FAIR FOR SECOND TIME

Arrangements Being Made for 3-County Teachers Institute

Tuesday September 15th County Superintendents A. A. Heathington of Haskell, J. B. Jones of Knox, and E. M. Trammell of Stonewall county met at Rule to arrange the program for the three-county Institute which will be held at Haskell beginning the 14th of December and continuing until the afternoon of the 18th. The place of meeting will be in the High School auditorium in the north part of the city. According to Mr. Heathington the Institute will be divided into the three sections, Primary, Intermediate and High School departments, with a competent supervisor at the head of each department. The directors for this work have not been made known, but it is believed that Dr. Fling, head of the Educational Department of the East Texas Normal of Commerce, Texas, will have charge of the high school department.

Haskell county for the second time carried off honors in the agricultural exhibit at the West Texas Fair with an artistic display of choice products arranged and exhibited by County Agent W. P. Trice. Runnels county won second place; Callahan, third; and Dallam, fourth.

"Exhibits here are equal to anything seen this year and from the standpoint of artistic display they are in the front ranks," was the statement of judges who made the awards, according to the Abilene Reporter. There were 104 exhibits of maize heads by boys and girls of agricultural clubs.

Out of a possible thousand points for each exhibit the following is the standing of the various counties and communities: Haskell County, 891; Runnels, 865; Callahan, 856; Dallam, 851; Elmdale community, 841; Tuscola, 834; Deaf Smith county 825; Wylie 804; Midland, 794; Merkel, 789; Colony Hill, 747; Bradshaw, 735; Lawn 691.

Judging of the agricultural exhibits was done by T. B. Wood, E. A. Miller and Mr. Egan of A. & M. College, with Miss Helen Swift, of the same college, judging the canned fruits.

Haskell county's exhibit, assembled and arranged by W. P. Trice, county agent, which won first place for the second successive year, was attractively arranged. In the center of the golden background was a large sign of the swastika, traditionally considered to be a sign of good luck or benediction, worked in vari-colored maize seeds and reading, "Haskell, A Little Better than the Rest; Production Value 1924 Over $9,000,000." Twenty-two of a possible 25 points were won by this exhibit on canned fruits. Red and white grain sorghums, sheafs of wheat, oats and barley were also featured.

Haskell county won $200; Runnels county won $150; and Callahan won $100 in the agriculture exhibits. The other prizes were fourth, $75; fifth, $50; sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth, $25 each.

Between 30 and 40 individual prizes will be awarded to Mr. Trice for a number of farmers of Haskell county. Haskell county has made a sweeping victory on all the exhibits shown by Mr. Trice.

Outside of the above-named arrangements the institute will be conducted along the usual lines.

For the benefit of teachers who have asked for transfers from the institute held here to attend institutes held in the counties where they live, according to Mr. Heathington: "The laws governing the institute are that each teacher must attend the institute in the county in which they will teach", and very few transfers will be granted unless from sickness or imperative necessity.

All the schools of the county, according to Superintendent Heathington, have employed teachers and most of the contracts have been signed and the teachers employed are thought to be the very best possible to select and the standard of Haskell schools which is very high, is hoped to be raised the ensuing term.

Five school districts have voted bonds in order to take care of the material increase in the number of scholastics. The last census gave an increase of 400 over last year in the county and this will be increased by the great number of people who are moving to Haskell county to make their future home during the fall.

FORD CAR SMASHES PLATE GLASS WINDOW

Early Thursday morning a Ford Car driven by a small Negro boy crashed into the large plate glass show window of the Sherrill building on the west side which is occupied by McCollum Ellis & Couch Hardware Company, breaking the large plate glass into small fragments and tearing out the lower frame work on which the glass was mounted, slightly damaging a few articles of the stock of the company which was near the window.

The negro boy according to those who witnessed the affair had driven up near the curb and the car was stopped a few feet away and in an effort to park the car against the curb the boy started the car and was unable to stop it and the car mounted the curb and went slowly into the window with the boy pulling back on the steering wheel shouting "whoa" with all his might. The car was stopped by striking the left wheel against the column of the building which prevented further damage to the Hardware stock.

As soon as his hand was dressed he was back on the job looking after the affairs of the gin but it will be several weeks before he will have the use of his hand.

Haskell High Wins First Game

Last Friday afternoon the High School eleven defeated Aspermont by a score of 19 to 0. The game was a thriller from the first kickoff to the last whistle. Though some of the boys were playing for the first time they played like old veterans at the game. One of the first works of man was
A MONUMENT

"Mark Every Grave"

Primitive man, when he wanted to commemorate a battle or show respect for a loved one who had gone on, erected a memorial in the form of a pile of stones or a Totem pole. The cairns of Scotland and the barrows of England are examples of this early striving of mankind for a fitting monument to great events or much-loved persons.

This yearning to set up a memorial to loved ones is one of the most beautiful sentiments to which humanity has ever given expression.

Today this sentiment finds expression in beautiful granite and marble work, and it is our sole business to produce monuments of a quality in keeping with the noble sentiment which calls them into being.

We wish you three enjoyable days at our Fair

SOCIETY and Club

Haskell County
Oct. 1, 2, 3.

Every composite part of the political, religious, educational and commercial whole that in the aggregate make up Haskell is at present busy preparing its self for the 1925 Haskell County Fair. And that accounts for the lavishly in the social functions this week. Of course we will all be on hand for the big parade and opening program and witness the crowning of the Queen and see all the Duchesses from the other towns in Haskell county.

but let us be sure that we do not forget to continue on to the Fair Park and see the foot-ball game between Haskell and Stamford High. We base the fact of having the best team and coach in this section of the county on their past record. Last year out of nine games the Haskell team won five, with a score of 0 for the opposing team and a tie with one out of 9 games. They have played only one game this season and that was last Friday on the local grid when Haskell scored 19 to 0 with the Aspermont team.

The W. M. U. of the Baptist Church of Haskell gathered at the home of Mrs. S. A. Roberts last Thursday afternoon as a fare-well tribute to Mrs. W. M. Lawrence who is the retiring president of the society and who with her family, is leaving Haskell. A most delightfully informal time was enjoyed, enhanced by piano music by Mrs. Will Whitman and Miss Mary Couch and a vocal number by Miss Marjorie Whiteker. Then large and bulky packages were unwrapped and found to contain useful but small articles such as pins hair pins, needles handkerchiefs and so forth, and with each was a verse of advise how and what to use them for, which occasioned a great deal of fun. Besides these the honoree was presented with a set of silver iced tea spoons by the society. Sherbert and sandwiches were served to Mesdames: B. M. Whiteker, Jess Josslett, Duncan, Bruce Cliff, R. C. Last Monday, September 21st, while all of the children were at school, Mrs. J. E. Walling called up the mothers of quite a number of little girls and asked that these same little girls come to her house at four o'clock on that afternoon to help Miss Saralee Walling celebrate her eighth birthday. At the appointed hour all were present and game after game was played until the shadows began to lengthen and the cars began to arrive to take the little guests home. They had each brought some remembrance to Saralee and all had a joy in viewing these gifts. The birthday cake was found to contain the usual articles and fell to the following little girls, the ring to Florine Morgan, the tumbler to Annie Lee Pitman, the butter to Lillie Fay Stoker, and the dime to Frances Kaigler. Ice cream and cake was served to those mentioned and Ruth Morgan, Dorothy May Morgan, Hazel Foot, Virginia Pitman and Mary Joe and Rossella Morrison.

Mrs. Simmons had been in comparative ill health for the last three years but practically confined to her room for the past year. Died Mamie, the little six-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Welch of the Gilliam community died at 1 p. m. Friday at the Stamford Sanitarium from blood poison caused from the extraction of a tooth. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at Willow Cemetery by Rev. Ben Hardy, after which loving hands laid her little form to rest.

Truly it is sad to see one called from life so young, and deep sorrow reigns over the hearts of many who loved her dearly because she is no more. The parents and all the bereaved ones have the abiding sympathy of their many friends in their loneliness and sorrow.

Called to Funeral of Brother

C. A. Dulaney received a wire last Friday that his brother, W. F. Dulaney of Paris, Texas, had died at a sanitarium at Oklahoma City and would be buried at his home in Paris. He and Mrs. Dulaney and one of his sons and his wife at once made ready to go to Paris for the funeral which was held last Saturday. Owing to some car trouble and bad roads they arrived in Paris just one hour after the funeral. W. F. Dulaney had lived in Paris for more than thirty years and was connected with one of the largest mercantile establishments in the city and was well known over the state. Mr. and Mrs. Dulaney returned home Monday evening.

BUNKER HILL

(By Virgie McIntyre)
Sunday School and Singing were both well attended Sunday. Many strangers were at the singing, including Mr. Williams from east of Stamford, who directed two songs, and helped sing a duet, which was enjoyed by all. We were glad to have these folks, and cordially invite them and everybody else back.

We appreciate the fine weather we're having for gathering crops, as most everyone is engaged in that at the present.

Nobert Boedecker, and Author Knipping started in with the Stamford school again. We wish these boys a great success in their school work this term.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fourqurean and family, visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Morrison of near Haskell, Sunday.

The contract for enlarging the school building has been awarded to Frank Kiner of Sagerton. The work will begin soon.

Mr. Jesse and Misses Florance and Ola Childress of near Goree, visited friends in this community Sunday.

The singing class is doing fine, and if you look, you'll see us at Haskell October the third, with a song book.

Mr. James Wofford returned Friday night from Arizona, where he has been visiting his brother. He married while gone, and brought his wife Mrs. Ella Belle Caudle Wofford back to Texas. She is no stranger here and she has a circle of friends who join with the writer in wishing them a long and prosperous life.

Rev. W. B. Arnold, and daughters, Annie and Mrs. Ben Bristow of the Sweet Home community, attended the singing Sunday afternoon and dropped in to see their daughter and sister Mrs. Nevada Wofford.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beene and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Chatwell of the Levitt community, visited in the E. I. Chatwell home Sunday afternoon.

HASKELL REBEKAH LODGE INITIATES CLASS MONDAY

The Haskell Rebekah Lodge No. 27 received five new members by initiation Monday night. The Stamford degree team came over and put on the work. This is doubtless the best degree team of this order in the state and they have won the prize for years in this division and are planning to take the prize again in February at the District meet. Refreshments were served to the visitors after the closing of the lodge and a good time was enjoyed to gether in a social hour. Those from Stamford were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rector, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Meers, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Day, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Ida Lindsey, Mrs. Mamie Taylor, Mrs. J. N. Porter, Miss Bessie Simpson, Miss Connie Thomas, Miss Clara Lively, Miss Thelma Thorp, Miss Willie Lee Box, Mrs. Hattie Stephens, and Mrs. Hattie Todd. Messrs. D. Hasen, Leonard Carlson, and I. R. Williams. The officers of the Stamford degree team are as follows, Mrs. Meers, N. G.; Miss Simpson, V. G.; Mrs. Porter, P. G.; Mrs. Rector, Chaplin; Mrs. Dodson, musician. Characters: Ray Rector, H. A. Day, and C. T. Dodson. All ladies from Stamford took part in the drill. The occasion was one of much enjoyment.

ditional pens in the Live Stock section stalls and pig and sheep space, and more grandstand as well as more bleacher room, and with splendid interest being maintained from the rural sections, in keeping with which the Agricultural Division promises to surpass anything ever shown here, and with competition rather keen in all divisions of the big show, 1925 will again demonstrate what can be done when even a few actually try.

There is another side to the success of the Haskell County Fair, a side that compliments, decidedly, a few unselfish citizens of our little city and our county as well, and that of the Division heads, not alone the men but most assuredly the women. These are the division directors and their aids, superintendents.

Unselfishly, without hope of reward, but to see the fair a success, many workers, well known, perhaps to Free Press readers, have worked day and night to see that their division coming up to the proper proportions, making in the proper showing, display, and such, lined up, heel and toe with the other fellow and the total be, successful Haskell County Fair.

Any citizen, man or woman having in mind an idea that there is but the pleasure of standing by and seeing or showing after the fair doors are open, and just strut your stuff, is the duty or what is expected of the Directors and Superintendents, well, they have two more things coming, one to get back to earth and one to get in line with proper thought worth thinking.

Before the fair closes and after its close, practically 8 days, these folks labor, honestly and faithfully. However, preceding this period there is the collecting of exhibits, encouraging and aiding and suggesting that many exhibitors need before their exhibit is assured. Then there is the preparation, the information needed to help properly prepare and enter the division such exhibit might be exhibited in.

The Agricultural Director goes into the fields, into the rural territory, seeing, aiding, helping, even in hours of hard work, to help those interested enough to exhibit. The Poultry Director goes to the poultry yards and helps, within his power. He is called upon to help decide what birds are best to select. He must be on hand in many places before the fair and during that time must be careful to see that the best care is taken of the exhibits.

The Live Stock, many stalls and pens of them, must be fed, watered and cared for, as the show goes on each day and before and after the entertainment is over. The Director of the Live Stock Division, as well as his aids, must have some knowledge as to the care of stock in their care and feeding and watering at periods housing and bedding, etc., placing rather a responsible position before them.

There are many other presentations that constitute a complete corps needed to handle the entertainment, the Haskell County Fair.

There are the many ticket salesmen and ticket takers, gatemen and laborers, assistants and aids, workers and watchmen, police and so on, and over in the big race track where big events will take place this season we find another director laboring faithfully, along with others in their respective places, to make a success within his territory.

Automobile Races Oct. 2-3

BEST AND FASTEST 5-8 MILE DIRT TRACK IN WEST TEXAS

The Fastest Cars and Drivers in the Entire South Competing in 12 Thrilling Events for the $2,500.00 In Cash Prizes Offered for These Two Days.

Races under direct supervision and sanction of the American Automobile Association.

RESULTS OF FAIR AND LABOR

Supervision. Tickets and boxes about the grandstand, bleachers and the standing room, the automobile folks with their tools and mechanics, the thousands of dollars to be contested for and the thousands of spectators who will witness the events, not unmindful however of the foot ball game to precede the races by a day, which is of interest to the ball fans, just as much so as the horse fans and the base ball fans are in their respective seasons.

The gasoline and the water, the drivers and the Judges, the Rules and Regulations, the Entry Blanks and the functions of the American Automobile Association, under whose supervision and sanction these races are held, all come in for time and attention and the business man who half tries to handle the division has but one thing to decide, need he and in an indirect way it will be the same results. "My business is the duty assigned me."

This listens rather queer to the layman, the man who has never had the opportunity to serve in a like capacity, whether a fair or what-not. However, in harness a reasonable length of time will soon convince the layman or uninitiated that the responsibility is greater than one would think, off hand.

The Managers, as the fair officer in charge of details, is termed, however, in a majority of instances, the term Secretary, but used here as Manager because of the officer of the corporation and small institutions would conflict, and his hands well occupied, and feet busy, and his mind as busy as both the previous mentioned sections of what compose mere man.

The big carnival with numerous concessions, the layout of the carnival, the establishing of the "Mid-way" the display of the concessions other than carnival rights, the general supervision of the entire show, fall his lot. Everything seems to be running smoothly, from the average point of view, until it is mostly ain't. One hundred and one hitches can arise in less time than it takes to tell it and only one of vital interest, however the little or big hitch causes just as much worry and action, very often, at the big mass, churning and seeing laughing and singing, happy and gay, ever sees or hears about.

While the crowd surges and treads, sweeps by gaily, all happy and content, and any of them ever stop to think, they so nice, prepared, lighted, program of delightful make-up, details follow one after the other and so on? For a moment.

Did you ever see the real honest to goodness happy smile on the face of Director, Superintendent, Officers or members of a fair look real honest to goodness happy? When? Why? The fair closed and the people gone and the gates were locked, neighbors took his hand or slapped him on the back, and said, just like they meant it, too. "The fair was a success, we are proud of you fellows that did the actual work." Have a try and how happy you might make some neighbor you know has worked real honest to goodness for 'he success of the Haskell County Fair.

Now, don't get the stockholder who might and then slipped back into his chair, his place of business, or farm or ranch and felt he had done that was necessary to be a good man for the fair. Oh! no, not those.

Watch who grabbed their hat and coat, or whatever car they were in, or session of, tied on a banner and they got out early to see that the fellow who promised to go was ready, and then, waved good bye to business interests for a full day and night. "I'm for the Fair, business can't break in one day and I have faith those I leave behind, me for the winter trip" and goes.

That man can well smile when the fair is a success, he is entitled to that credit. All the business men nor professional men can't be officers or directors nor managers, nor bosses or ticket grabbers, etc., but each man of the town and county can be just as valuable to his little mite, if that be fairly termed, if he jumps into the gap where the co-operation is needed, whether he boosts or shouts, pays or simply stands in the crowd and listens to the speeches and shouts with the audience, whether he enjoyed the talk or loved the man making it or the people of the town where the speech and visit is made, that man can shake hands with himself and smile with the officers and directors of the Haskell County Fair, or any fair, for that matter, and be happy that he did that much and did it correctly with a free heart and happy to be of service as well.

Back to the 1925 event. With the improvements, the undertaking, the hopes and the desires of our people, not alone the stock holders and the officers and those employed in their various capacities, but the population as a whole, there is the every item that means the success of the 1925 Fair and that is your undivided co-operation.

When the time comes to close the business, close and stand that way until the gong sounds to open. When the call comes to shout make it long and loud until the last man stops shouting. Be that last to stop, and also be among the first to start, don't shout once and that shout be just loud enough to be heard close by you, but open and clear, just behind the first shout and just ahead or just after the last shout, that's cooperation.

The Haskell County Fair is going to be just what you make it. The weather permitting, Haskell citizenship will be on parade. Haskell County's citizenship, if you will, will demonstrate the value of co-operation. In time the final statement will go out, Haskell's Fair was a success from every stand point. Your shout, your few hours from business and the aid of your force allowed to get away while the business was suspended, all means you and me, we did it.

On, all together, Haskellite, the job is ahead, are you with the community or not? Thanks.

Along the Oregon Trail

Robert Brown old and with the burden and sorrows of seventy years telling in his face and body, dropped into a Wichita, Kansas parlor the other day.

From the pocket of his three-piece jacket he pulled his watch chain, made of human hair, and held together with bands of gold, and handed it to the stranger.

Curiously he brushed a pair as he picked up the change. And then with reverence he told his story. Half a century ago he and his wife, then in the bloom of youth, started on the Oregon trail for the Northwest.

They joined up with another wagon train on the way, and then his wife disappeared. She went away with another member of the train. Years he searched over the west, always hoping to find her.

Finally in northern Wyoming, tired and hungry, he stumbled into a little shack near Laramie.

He knocked on the door. It opened. He fell into the arms of his wife.

But from the farther side of the room, a pistol flashed. It was fired by the other man. The aim was poor, and the woman stopped the bullet. She died in her husband's arms.

"The chain is made from her hair," the aged man finished his story. "I cut several locks before I buried them here in the desert."

SCHOOL NEWS

The Seniors held their third meeting of the year last Wednesday. The class colors selected are yellow and white; the daisy is the flower, and the motto is: "At the end of the road lies a pot of gold." The Seniors selected this because it best expresses the aims and ideals of each member of their class, all realizing that the road will not be easy, but that when the goal is reached the journey will have been worth while.

We are fortunate this year in having with us many students from surrounding towns, as well as from rural communities. We hope they will find their work both interesting and profitable. The following is a list of those in the High School who come from other schools: Jack Gaines, Chester Strickland, Goree; Lewis Sherman, Iowa Park; Hazel Flenniken, Veta Humphries and Virginia Lowery, Knox City; T. B. Bagwell, Rochester; Ruby Adkins, Rule; Harold Gregory and Erma Monke, Rule.

Those who have come to our High School from rural schools are: Helen Chastain, Ocie Dumas, Christine Griffin, Mervel Hallmark, Lorene Huff, Orea McDonald, Paul Newsom, Ernest Wright and Howard Wright.

The Junior Class, with their sponsor, Miss Fannie Jack Baldwin, met last Wednesday to elect the officers for the coming year. The following were elected: President, Elmore Smith; Vice-President, Frances Grissom; Reporter, Ernest Wright.

It is said that an examination of the classification reports of approximately 500 accredited schools in Texas revealed the fact that during the school year 1923-1924 the expenditure for laboratory equipment was 42 per cent in excess of that for library equipment. It was stated that schools that hope to retain or improve their standing should see that this be avoided or remedied.

The Haskell High School is sadly lacking in good books, and we are making an appeal to every citizen of the town to help us get our library on a higher plane before the State Inspector pays his annual visit. But we do not ask for the books merely for this reason, but it is for the sake of the two hundred or more students in High School who need to have access to good books. Voltaire has said, "The multitude of useless books is so immense that the life of a man would not suffice to make a catalogue of them." This is quite true and for that reason we are giving below a list of twelve books that we need immediately in our Library. We will add to this list each week. Should you happen to have one or more of these books in your home and want to do something really worth while, we will appreciate your bringing or sending them to the High School, Room 7.

Little Minister, Lorna Doone, Richard Carvel, David Copperfield, Oliver Twist, Three Musketeers, Man Without a Country, Les Miserables, Anne of Green Gables, Ben Hur, David Harum, Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm.

The Typewriting and Bookkeeping classes have now been fully organized, and both are being found very interesting, though rather difficult. There are forty-two enrolled in typewriting, and twelve in bookkeeping. It is too bad that more do not realize the importance of both these courses.

The work in the North Ward, East Ward and in the High School has started off very encouragingly this year, and it is predicted that we are to have the best year in the history of the school. So long as there is co-operation shown by both teachers and students this prediction will be carried out. Therefore, we must all pull together for a year of fine work. The enrollment is now something over 621, and we are expecting many more students before Christmas.

Miss Lois Ware spent last week end in El Paso visiting some folks.

Will You Help Care for Fair Visitors by Furnishing Rooms?

Haskell is to be hostess to thousands during the Haskell County Fair, Oct. 1, 2 and 3. Rooms will be in demand for her guests. The housing committee, C. M. Conner, chairman would appreciate your advising him promptly, how many you can take care of, man or woman, how many beds, how many rooms, what rate, will you serve breakfast, and at what rate. This information ought to be furnished Mr. Conner promptly. Don't wait until the last minute while the rush is on. The visiting ladies who will be here in connection with the Crowning of the Queen, ladies and their friends from a long way to help in the opening day program, as well as many young men, families, etc., all must be cared for and with dispatch. Please lend a hand with the big task Haskell will have in hand all the week, not alone the three fair days, and accept the thanks of the entire organization in advance.

FAIR DETAILS READY IN PRACTICALLY EVERY DEPARTMENT

According to those in touch with the arrangements, practically every division and department of the Haskell County Fair is ready for the 1929 show season. The grandstand extension and the bleacher extension is promised this week, not later than Friday. This will leave the race track section with no unfinished preparations, director Henry Alexander feeling that his division is ready to go when the big gates swing open.

Director Roy Neal reports his exhibits assured and that he will have more and better exhibits than last year because of the experience of those showing and splendid crop results through this section.

Director Jackson of the Live Stock Division expects to be crowded again this year although more stalls and pens and sheds have been prepared for his division this season.

Director J. P. Payne of the Poultry and Pet Stock Division is ready to open his division on time and at this time feels that prospects for a bigger show and greater variety than ever before will be found in his department this year.

The various divisions presided over by the ladies: Mrs. H. M. Smith, Floral; and Mrs. C. L. Lewis, Art; Mrs. Leo Southern, Textile; and Mrs. T. A. Pinkerton, Home Demonstration and Cullinary Division, and their aids, all expect splendid cooperation. This means the big show for 1929 will be to please and that is the main feature of holding the events to be presented by the fair management.

The carnival is larger and will be well tuned up during the three days preceding the fair dates and everything in this section of the Big Midway is going to be in ship shape condition.

All that is needed to make the 1929 Fair a success is good weather, according to the management.

WHO IS THE QUEEN OF THE FAIR THIS YEAR?

Who said a woman could not keep a secret? There has been a Queen selected and about two or three ladies, perhaps, and director of parades, J. Bailey Post, are the only Haskell folks who are supposed to know and really do know. Anyway, a Queen of a Queen has been selected, have you any idea who she is? Listen, she will be crowned Friday evening at the Court House Square, at 8 o'clock. Wonder who she can possibly be. Yes, she lives, eats, sleeps, associates with Haskell folks, and is a Queen with out the title now given her at this time. Now do you know? We know somebody who thinks she is two queens. You know who we mean, too, but you'll never guess, honest, you never would guess right in 100 whole years and two full moons. Anyway, if you guess who the Queen of the Haskell County Fair for the 1929 season is, you will be some guesser, and that does not mean may-be. We stop to repeat, being a queen for the Fair is just taking her as she is, a real Queen, as you will admit when you see her crowned.

STAMFORD FRIDAY, OCT. 2

Firestone

Double the Mileage at Half the Cost

Only a few years ago a 32 x 4 cord tire listed over $50.00. Today, you can buy the highest quality 32 x 4 tire—a Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord—for about $26.00.

Last spring crude rubber cost tire makers around 40 cents a pound. Today, it is over 90 cents a pound.

It was not so long ago that 7,500 miles represented the average life of a cord tire, while today, 15,000 miles—and more—is only the usual performance for a Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord.

Due to large, concentrated production, specialized machinery and simplified factory methods, together with economical distribution, Firestone is able to keep tire prices low—no matter where the price of crude rubber goes.

And, because of special Firestone processes, chief among which is Gum-Dipping, motorists are today getting thousands of extra miles by using Gum-Dipped Cords.

Gum-Dipping is an exclusive method used by Firestone. It is an extra process, carried out in special Gum-Dipping plants, after which the cords are put through the usual calendering machines. Gum-Dipping insulates and impregnates every fiber of every cord with rubber, and practically eliminates internal friction and heat, and builds strength and endurance into the tire.

In the day-in and day-out service of taxicabs, buses and trucks—on the cars of hundreds of thousands of motorists everywhere—Gum-Dipped Cords are giving unheard-of mileage, dependability and satisfaction.

Get ready for the coming months of slippery pavements and bad roads. Assure yourself of greater safety, comfort and economy by equipping now with Firestone Full-Size Gum-Dipped Balloons.
