Australia Says Japs In Stalemate, Defies Nipponese To Attack

Chinese Suffer More Reverses; But Allies Gaining In Pacific

Find Wrecked Jap Subs In Sydney Harbor, Look For Jap Mother Ship

By The Associated Press
Australia's Prime Minister John Curtin bluntly challenged Japan to attempt an invasion of the down- under continent Tuesday and declared that since the arrival of American reinforcements "the enemy has found his most southerly adventure beyond his capacity to execute."

On the critical China war front, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese armies were reported to have recaptured Szechuen, north of the Japanese-held Chongking Province capital of Kihwa, and killed 400 Japanese troops in a surprise attack.

A Chinese army spokesman acknowledged, however, that Japanese troops had driven 35 miles southwest from Kihwa in the east coast fighting and advanced within 10 miles of Chushien, one of the main targets of Japanese raids against suspected Allied air base sites.

Confused fighting spread through several of China's eastern provinces, with the invaders operating on a big scale in an apparent all-out attempt to crush Gen. Chang's armies and end the long and exhausting war on that front.

In Australia, Prime Minister Curtin launched the commonwealth's second liberty loan drive with the declaration that "Japan's program at last has suffered a stalemate," and he added:

"I defy the enemy to land large forces in Australia."

Coincidentally, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced that the wrecks of three Japanese midget submarines destroyed in an unsuccessful attempt to attack Sydney harbor on Sunday had been located. Smashed by depth charges and artillery fire, two of the sunken hulks had already been recovered.

Allied forces pressed the hunt for a mother ship which was believed to have launched the short-range submarines on their suicide mission within 300 miles or less from Australia's major city.

United Nations fliers continued blasting at Japanese "invasion" bases north of Australia, carrying out three night raids without loss of a plane and destroying or damaging nine of 30 Japanese planes which raided Port Moresby, New Guinea.

On the night raids, Allied airmen bombed and machine-gunned the enemy at Lae and Salamaua, in New Guinea, and at Rabaul, New Britain.

Stevenson Has Five Opponents

By The Associated Press
Late entry of candidates in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor—one of them Hal H. Collins of Mineral Wells—brought to five the number opposing Governor Coke Stevenson as the field squared away toward the July 25 primary.

There were a number of filings also with the Texas Democratic Executive Committee for other offices before the Monday midnight deadline passed.

Alex M. Ferguson, seed breeder of Howe Grayson County, a brother of former Governor Jim Ferguson, sent his application by mail for a place on the ticket for governor.

Hope Wheeler, Arlington publisher, brought in a petition making him a candidate. The application of Gene S. Porter, 35, Belton insurance man, also was received. C. L. Somerville, 48, of Dallas, filed formally after announcing Sunday.

Stevenson, in Lubbock to address the June graduating class of Texas technological College, made no mention Monday night on the filing of Porter and Collins. The governor left for Junction and will go from there to Kerrville Wednesday to address a sheep and goat raisers convention.

Magnolia Spuds In Martin Deep Test North Of Stanton

By Frank Gardner
Oil Editor

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Earl B. Powell, Southeastern Martin County wildcat and the closest active operation to Midland, spudded early Tuesday and is drilling below 20 feet in calcite.

No. 1 Powell, scheduled to drill to 7,700 feet unless production is found at a lesser depth, is destined to be one of the most intensively watched tests yet drilled in the Midland Basin. It is located 660 feet out of the southwest corner of section 18, block 35, township 1 north, T. & P. survey, seven and one-half miles north of Stanton. Magnolia has a block of approximately 15,000 acres in the area surrounding its deep project.

Argo Oil Corporation No. 1 J. F. Nunn, Northwestern Reagan County wildcat test, is drilling in red rock past 875 feet. George P. Livermore, Inc., is contractor.

In the Barnhart pool of Southeastern Reagan, M. H. Reed et al. (Corden & Hawn) No. 2-A University responded to a 10,000-gallon acid treatment of the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, pay by flowing 378 barrels of oil in seven hours through a one-half inch choke.

During the test, casing pressure dropped from 250 to 90 pounds, while tubing pressure went from 900 to 800. Gauging continued at the well, which is bottomed at 9,172 feet in lime. It had gauged natural flow of eight barrels per hour.

Advanced drilling depths were reported from Amerada Petroleum Corporation's two active tests in the Barnhart pool. Its No. 1-RT University had reached 8,388 feet and No. 1-RG University 5,107 feet. Both are in lime and shale.

Phillips & Cores Show Oil
Cores showing scattered all saturation and porosity have been recovered from 4,375 to 4,443 feet in Phillips Petroleum Corporation No. 3 University Andrews, Southern Andrews County test seeking to validate short-term lease by development of Permian production. The well is coring ahead past 4,444 feet in dolomite. It is in the West Andrews shallow area but eventually will be carried to the Ellenburger pay found by Phillips No. 2 University-Andrews, flush discovery producer several miles to the southeast.

Other Phillips operations in the area were at the following stage: No. 3 University-Andrews is drilling at 3,900 feet in anhydrite and dolomite. No. 4 has reached 3,874 in the same formation. No. 5 stopped drilling at 4,166 feet and is preparing to core. No. 6 is drilling at 4,100 in dolomite and anhydrite, and No. 7 is drilling dolomite at 4,275 feet.

And, Thanks To You, Mr. Marks Bombardiers Will Win War, Esquire Writer Says; Here To Write Of Boys

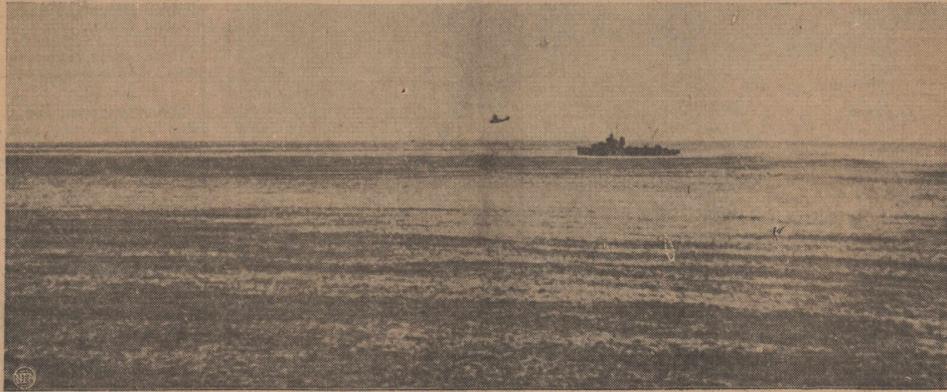

Midland is the eagle's nest of future battle heroes, and one day ere long, when the great air battles are recorded, Midland people will read in the headlines the names of many of the fine young Bombardiers who now are training at the Midland Army Flying School.

That is the belief of Robert W. Marks, feature writer for Esquire, one of our great magazines, who is in Midland to see, to photograph and to write about the Bombardiers.

Right To Be Proud
"I know that you Texans, especially right here in Midland, will be proud of these young Bombardiers for when the United States gets into action as the British are today, you will know that these men trained right here in Midland are leading those devastating bomber attacks. Texas climate is perfect for their training, and Texans may well be proud that they are contributing so much to the national defense. It is an amazing feeling to know that the state has done and will do so much for the success of the war," said Marks.

"It is significant that so much of the armed forces are training in Texas, and it is amazing to see

Mr. and Mrs. Allison went to Dallas Tuesday following receipt of news of the death.

Red Attacking Nazi Two Fronts

MOSCOW (AP)—The Red Army jabbed strongly at German lines at two points northwest of Moscow in conformity with the Soviet tactics of keeping the enemy back on his heels and preventing him from undertaking his own offensive, front line reports said.

The dispatches said the Russians attacked both in the Kalinin sector and in another northwest area, improving their positions and drawing the Germans into counter-attacks.

No essential change in positions was reported, however.

"During last week, May 24 to 29," a communique said, "we destroyed 432 German planes. Our losses were 134."

Russian fliers were credited with destroying or damaging 33 tanks, two armored cars, 160 trucks, 145 munitions cars, ten field guns, two railway trains, an oil tank and a dump on various sectors of the land front Sunday.

"Texas has the drive of the East, the wealth of the East, plus a metropolitan point of view. There is no provincialism here; you catch a clear view of world-wide significance of things, and at the same time you have the dynamics and daring of frontier people."

Marks, here from New York, but a native of South Carolina, is making his first visit to Texas. He was astounded by the great distances; and delighted at his reception in Midland. He came here, though, because he wanted to write about the Bombardiers.

Bombardier Booster
"Oh, I know what good pilots mean; but we have been hearing a lot about good pilots. I'm telling the world that it is the Bombardier who has the weight of victory on his shoulders. . . . and there are no better shoulders! Keep your eyes on these Midland Bombardiers. . . . their names will make the headlines among the Allies. . . . and be the terror of the Axis."

Bulgaria, Hungary, Rumania, Allies Of Hitler, Added To List Of Enemies; All Have Declared War On United States, Plan Extension Of War

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON.—President Roosevelt asked Congress Tuesday to declare war on Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania.

The Chief Executive, in a terse message to the House of Representatives, said that these three countries had declared war on the United States "the instruments of Hitler."

They "are now engaged in military activities directed against the United Nations and are planning an extension of these activities," he added.

The message did not go to the Senate, since it was not in session.

The text follows:
"The governments of Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania have declared war against the United States. I realize that the three governments took this action not upon their own initiative or in response to the wishes of their own peoples but as the instruments of Hitler. These three governments are now engaged in military activities directed against the United Nations and are planning an extension of these activities."

"Therefore, I recommend that the Congress recognize a state of war between the United States and Bulgaria, between the United States and Hungary, and between the United States and Rumania."

The declarations of war against these three minor Axis partners was expected to be more or less for a formality, adding them officially to the list of countries with which the United States now is at war, this government has declared war on Japan, Germany and Italy.

Captain Orson Is Reported Missing In Pacific Zone

Captain O. W. Orson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orson, and brother of Mrs. Carl Covington and Bill Orson, all of Midland, has been reported missing in action by the War Department. He was on duty in the Philippines at the time of the capture of Bataan and Corregidor.

Captain Orson, who has lived in Midland many years, was in Manila the day of the first attack by the Japanese, but left there that day for duty in Cebu Island. Later the family had word from him that he was on duty in Mindanao Island.

He returned to active duty with the Army about 3 years ago, and had been in the Philippines for almost a year and a half. Previous to that time he had been a reserve officer, since his graduation from the Texas A&M College in 1932. Since his return to active duty he has been a Captain, though in his latest letter, carried out by a bombing plane, he had spoken of a promotion but did not say what it was.

WAR BULLETINS

LONDON.—(AP)—The British government is discussing post war problems and exchanging view with the Dominions, the United States, Soviet Russia and other United Nations, Lord Cranborne, Colonial Secretary, announced in the House of Lords.

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—(AP)—The "Houston Volunteers," in a rousing band of more than one thousand Texans, arrived here Tuesday to go into active training in the Navy and prepare to carry out a sworn pledge—to avenge the loss of the United States Cruiser Houston.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Australia.—(AP)—Allied airmen executed three nocturnal raids on Japanese bases without loss of a plane and destroyed or damaged nine of thirty aircraft which raided Port Moresby Monday, a communique said.

FOLKSTONE, England.—(AP)—Great forces of RAF planes roared across the channel Tuesday in forays which southeast coast observers called one of the biggest daylight operations of the war.

1,036 Warplanes Drop Thousands Of Tons Of Bombs On German City

British Losses Described As Light For Air Offensive Of Great Magnitude—Only 35 Bombers Fail To Return, Churchill Says

By The Associated Press
LONDON.—The RAF turned the lethal, devastating night of 1,036 RAF planes loose on Germany Monday night, almost all of them on the region of the Nazi arsenal city of Essen, Prime Minister Churchill announced Tuesday.

The second of the crushing raids which the RAF has made against the sources of Adolf Hitler's military strength in three days struck at the home of the huge Krupp munitions work and Churchill promised that more of even greater severity would follow "when we are joined, as we soon shall be, by the Air Force of the United States."

The Essen raid came after a pause of but one night, when bad weather held the RAF's great bomb-carrying air armada grounded, after the mammoth attack by considerably more than 1,000 British bombers on Cologne.

Again, British losses were relatively slight for an air offensive of such magnitude. Churchill said 35 bombers failed to return.

He told the House of Commons the raiders had sown numerous and widespread fires last night and that the two raids introduced "a new phase in the British air offensive against Germany" which will put the enemy to "an ordeal the like of which never has been experienced in any country in continuity, severity or magnitude."

Will Vary Attack Methods
He cautioned the British, however not to expect all future raids to be "above the four-figure scale" in number of planes adding that "methods of attack will be continually varied according to circumstances."

Monday night's plane losses were nine fewer than the 44 of Saturday night—still far below the 10 per cent losses which military authorities generally agree can be afforded by a successful air smash.

On a basis of comparison with the Cologne attack, Essen probably was deluged under about 6,000,000 pounds of incendiary and explosive bombs poured down from planes manned by 6,000 fliers.

While the thousands of bombers were hauling their deadly freight to the Ruhr, one of the largest "intruder" forces of the war—composed of American-made Boston and Hurricane fighter bombers—went hunting over intervening territory as they did on the night of the operations against Cologne.

Other Attacks
Drawing to themselves the attention of the German anti-aircraft gunners, these forces bombed several airfields to blank out the night fighter defense, and attacked shipping and railroads in Holland, Belgium and France.

One Dornier bomber was reported shot down over Holland and several other German planes damaged.

Hardly before the last of the night bombers had rolled down on their home bases, the day shift of Britain's stepped-up offensive was in the clear air Tuesday, streaking for the French coast.

Just as the Germans sought to repay for the desolation of Cologne with a retaliatory attack Sunday night, an ancient cathedral city of Canterbury, they announced that another old-world—English town, Ipswich, had been the target of their night air blows.

"HERE I AM, 'Use Me!'"
AUSTIN (AP)—Nearly 1,300 members of the University of Texas first graduating class of World War II Tuesday had before them this motto:

"HERE I AM, USE ME!"
The suggestion came from President Homer P. Rainey in a commencement address Monday night for the University's largest graduating class in history.

"Many of you," he declared, "will lay aside your books and your campus habits for the manual of arms and camp routine. Others will go into war industry or profession in which you can do your share of throttling aggression and preserving the American way of life."

Not all the war's jobs will be done by men in uniform, however, Rainey declared.

"Some of our greatest heroes," he said, "will be those who are required to give up the gallantry and adventure of combat service for a place at a desk, or in industry, or school, or business, or profession or on a farm."

Soldiers? Hell!

The Canadian director of aircraft production, Ralph Bell, did a good job of debunking the fallacy that war production workers are soldiers in the front line.

The slogan that "the front line runs through the factory" is true, to the extent that the soldiers' ability to fight depends upon the civilians' ability and willingness to produce weapons. But as for relative sacrifice:

"Soldiers of production in the front line of defense—like hell," says Bell; "42 to 85 cents an hour with time and a half and double time adds up to a lot more than $39 a month and bullets."

Germans Start Mass Migration From Rhineland

NEW YORK (AP)—The record RAF raid on Cologne killed "in the neighborhood of 20,000" persons, wounded 54,000, twenty per cent of them critically, and put in motion a mass migration from the Rhineland, the New York Times said in a report credited to "private advices from competent neutral observers in Berlin."

Three-fifths of the inhabitants of Cologne—total population roughly 800,000—are being officially evacuated, mostly to the area of Munich, where they will be housed in emergency barracks erected in the last 24 hours, the newspaper said.

The entire population of Aachen, Duesseldorf, Wuppertal, Main and other cities have started a mass migration from the Rhineland in fear of further bombardment, it added.

Of the damage in Cologne, the Times said:

"Although details are lacking, it is understood from Berlin neutral quarters that roughly five-sevenths of Cologne's chemical and fine machine-tool industries have been completely wrecked."

English Mopping Up African Nazi

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—German armored forces, the cream of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's Africa Corps, which have trapped east of the Ain El Gazala-Bir Hachem line are "being ceaselessly harried and destroyed" by British troops and planes and are being "mopped up," the British commander announced Tuesday.

"Latest reports show the enemy may have withdrawn some of his tanks through the gaps" in the line, a communique by General Sir Claude Auchinleck said, but "a large number of his tanks and many transport vehicles, however, remain on the wrong side of this barrier."

"It is still difficult to give a firm estimate of the number of vehicles and tanks knocked out or disabled," the communique said, but it was said the Axis losses had been very great.

In a summary of the seven-day campaign, Auchinleck said the enemy failed to spring a surprise when he attacked with two German armored, and one light, divisions and two Italian armored and motorized divisions, with the objective of taking Tobruk.

Military Men Seek Pay Bill Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP)—The War Department, seeking to break a congressional deadlock over the military pay adjustment bill, Tuesday was reported to be urging a compromise under which lowest ranking personnel in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps would receive $40 cash monthly and $10 in non-negotiable government bonds.

Authoritative sources said this proposal was advanced as an alternative to the $50 a month pay scale demanded by the House and the $32 voted by the Senate. A joint conference committee has been unable to reconcile the two figures.

The War Department has reported strenuously opposed to $50 on the ground that it not only would boost Army maintenance costs substantially but would give soldiers and sailors too much spending money.

Proposed Law Will Aid Packing Firm

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation to provide federal inspection at packing plants engaged in business solely within a single state, thus enabling them to sell meats to the Army and Navy and to the government for lend-lease shipment, was passed late Monday by the Senate and returned to the House.

The Senate adopted an amendment offered by Senator Gillette (D-Ia) which would make it unnecessary that the inspectors be employed by the government and have civil service classification.

Passage of the law would enable the A. & M. Packing Company at Midland to sell meats to Army flying schools and camps in West Texas. The company has filed application for federal inspection and is working on plans to enlarge its plant to provide meats for the Armed Forces stationed in this area.

House Quits Talk On Florida Line

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the face of unexpected opposition, the House leadership Tuesday had virtually abandoned legislation for construction of an oil pipeline and a barge canal across Florida as a means of transporting oil and gasoline to the Eastern Seaboard.

Majority Leader McCormack (D-Mass) and Chairman Mansfield (D-Tex) of the Rivers and Harbors Committee said they had no present intention of pressing for further consideration of the bill, which the House rejected Monday by 121 to 85.

McCormack conceded later that President Roosevelt already has authority to order construction of the pipeline a war measure, there were reports on Capitol Hill that such a presidential order would be forthcoming shortly.

On How to Get the Most Out of Your Electric Appliances!

1. Wipe lamp bulbs and glass diffusing bowls with a damp cloth, and dust shades to get full amount of light from lamps.
2. Keep plugs of irons, roasters, percolators and other appliances tightly connected. Loose plugs make contact points corrode.
3. Your electric cleaner will clean faster and better if you'll empty the dust bag after each use, as dust hinders air flow.
4. Motor driven appliances, such as fans, cleaners, mixers and others will operate better and last longer if oiled regularly.
5. Use only a damp cloth to wipe electric appliances, such as percolators, waffle irons, toasters. Water may cause them to burn out.
6. Your electric refrigerator will operate more efficiently if you defrost the freezing unit every week, or when 1/4 inch frost collects.

Your electric appliances represent a valuable investment that may be difficult to replace. Timely repairs by a qualified electrician will protect your appliances and save you money.

These tips may be an old story to many homemakers who already know how to use electric appliances properly and keep them in good condition, but pass along these ideas to others who may not be so experienced.

ussion turned to famous hands played in the Convention Hall. I remember well how the players talked far into the night about the hand shown today, in which an opponent with three aces doubled a six-contract, only to have it made against him.

West thought the diamond ace his safest lead, but it was trumped. The play by South made up for North's wild bidding. The trump ace was cashed, then the other small trump led to dummy. Leaving one small trump at large—his only chance, declarer cashed just four of dummy's diamonds, discarding his four spades. Then the deuce of clubs was led and the jack finessed. West won and was caught without safe exit. He tried a club return, but then South made two clubs on which to discard North's two spades.

SERIAL STORY

CARIBBEAN CRISIS

BY EATON K. GOLDTHWAITE

MYSTERIOUS MESSAGE

CHAPTER XVIII

AT dinner Talcott found himself seated at the chief engineer's table beside June Paterson. Two empty chairs were, he presumed, for MacDowell and Halsey. Professor Constantine, surrounded by books and pill bottles, was alone at a table by the stairs and apparently oblivious to his surroundings. Martha Swenson had made a new acquaintance and, it seemed, a conquest; the ship's physician was pouring his soul into her ear.

Talcott stowed away food and thought about his wireless message. From Lowell Byrd it was; three words only, "On the job," in response to his transcription of events. But it lifted a great burden from his mind and at the same time reminded him that he had work to do. How could he, isolated on this ship, accomplish anything within the four days allotted to him before he must face accusations in New York? Where could he begin?

By paying court to June Paterson? Hardly. She had become tantalizingly desirable; had changed completely since the stormy hours on Abas. He was not blind to her glances, the mounting color beneath her translucent skin, the lingering pressure of her hand on his arm. But what could he do? With prison and possibly death facing him, what could he offer her?

Halsey came down to dinner finally, and Talcott was immeasurably relieved. Halsey was pale and rather stiff, but his clear eyes and thoughtful manner told that whatever fight he had held with himself he must have won. He spoke quite civilly to Talcott, occupied the chair on June Paterson's left. Talcott, taking advantage of the break, excused himself to look after MacDowell. And as he left the dining salon he felt her disappointed eyes following him.

MacDowell was doing as well as could be expected. "This always happens to me," he groaned. "I'll be like this until we get to New York. I dunno why I let 'em talk me into it."

"You should get out in the air. This place is like a shoebox."

"You're tellin' me. Air. Well, maybe later I'll try it. Tell the skipper of this tub to decide which direction he wants to go—"

Some instinct, sharpened to an incredible fineness in the past troublesome hours, warned Talcott. An out-of-place squeak, an almost inaudible scrape; whirling, he yanked

White's Auto, Bankers Win Softball Games

White's Auto softballers took advantage of the big fifth inning in which they scored 7 runs to win over Piggly Wiggly, 12 to 4, in the first game of Monday night's softball play, while the First National Bank nudged Safeway 5 to 4 in the second tilt.

Haines hurled the win for White's team, and Smyers pitched for First National Bank.

Well, This Time It's A Horse On The Army

FORT GEORGE G. MEADE, Md. (P)—A horse is home on the range—Mort Meade's rifle range. Several times a day the animal comes in sight of the range officer and the order is dispatched, "horse, cease firing!" Then three military cowboys—two sergeants on horses and an officer in a jeep—rush onto the range in another, and so far unsuccessful, attempt to capture the horse. It is believed the animal strayed away from a nearby farm.

Another American Leaguer Path Of Glory Leads But To National League

Red Sox Sell Jimmie Fox To Chicago Cubs In Cash, Carry Deal

By Judson Bailey Associated Press Sports Writer

Another American Leaguer has found that the path of glory leads but to the National League.

Since the Boston Braves provided a temporary haven for Babe Ruth in 1935 many waning stars in the junior circuit have found refuge in the National League — among them Al Simmons, Schoolboy Rowe, Johnny Allen, Fred (Dixie) Walker, Gerald Walker, Rollie Hemsley, Bill Werber, Zeke Bonura, Debs Garms, Bump Hadley, Monte Pearson and Ellsworth (Babe) Dahlgren.

Now Jimmie Fox, one of the greatest righthanded sluggers in major league history, has been sold to the Chicago Cubs by the Boston Red Sox only a couple of weeks after the Cubs had given up Dahlgren because their first base job was being adequately handled by Glen Russell and Phil Cavaretta.

Fox is the fourth prominent American Leaguer to be taken by a National League club this season and the other three have not as yet done anything to distinguish themselves in their new surroundings.

The Cincinnati Reds, who had great success with Werber after buying him from the Philadelphia Athletics, acquired catcher Rollie Hemsley and outfielder Gerald Walker during the winter with the expectation that this pair would restore the Reds to pennant contenders.

However, neither has been able to hold a regular job. At the end of last week Walker, who batted over .300 for several seasons in the American League, had a .190 average and Hemsley one of .129.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, for whom Dixie Walker became a bright star, obtained Rowe from Detroit last month and have used him both as a relief pitcher and as a pinch hitter with indifferent results.

Double X may turn the trend again in favor of the transplanted junior leaguers. He told this writer a few days ago, "I feel like I still could go out there and do a good job if I could play every day. But I can't get going when I'm in the lineup for two or three days and on the bench a couple.

"People have been saying I was through for seven years (since the Athletics traded him to the Red Sox) and one of the biggest kicks I have had in baseball was batting .349 at Boston in 1938."

The Fox deal filled in a lull in the major leagues while clubs were traveling for another round of inter-sectional play starting Tuesday with the American Leaguer's western clubs invading the east and the eastern clubs of the National League moving west.

Hale America Seeks Snead And Turnesa

CHICAGO (P) — Corporal Jim Turnesa and Sam Snead so thoroughly captured the fancy of golf followers in the PGA that the Hale America committee has asked the government for assurance they will be available for the war-time National Open.

The committee feels the appearance of Snead, the PGA champion, and Turnesa, the surprising shot-maker he beat for the title, would bolster proceeds, which go to Navy Relief and United Service Organizations.

Tom McMahon, president of the Chicago District Golf Association sponsoring the Hale America with the USA and PGA June 18-21, believes both men will compete.

"Fort Dix, N. J. officials virtually assured us Corporal Turnesa would be given leave," McMahon said Tuesday. "And the Navy seems willing to give Snead permission to play."

McMahon, president of the Chicago District Golf Association sponsoring the Hale America with the USA and PGA June 18-21, believes both men will compete.

Price Brookfield, All-American basketball player from West Texas State's "Tallest Team in the World," doesn't confine his athletic efficiency to basketball.

Brookfield, now pitching baseball for the Borger Gassers of the West Texas-New Mexico League, Sunday hurled the Gassers to a 22-5 victory over the Amarillo Golden Sox. He held Amarillo to seven hits—just two more than he got himself . . .

They play for keeps in all sports at West Texas State. They were high in the football campaign last season, defeated only twice in basketball, and turned out some ace boxers and baseball players.

Better Than Not At All Although our three race experts failed to pick the winner of the Suburban Handicap last Saturday, they had the right three horses—just in the wrong places which was better than not having any at all. Ace of the week's predicting was Frank Gardner, the Maryland handicapper. He said that Market Week would finish ahead of Attention and so it was. But all in all, the boys still have a nice average, having picked three winners in four tries and several second and third place nags.

Big Spring Loses Again I'll wager money, marbles, or chalk that Big Spring has had more trouble with its baseball clubs down through the years than any other town in Texas. They have had trouble in producing a winning club, have had clubs moved several times, attendance has been very poor, and Monday they lost again—not a game, the club manager.

George Miltstead manager of the Big Spring club announced his resignation Sunday, and said he had plans to play semi-pro ball with the Waco Dons. Baseball officials have not made any announcement concerning a new manager. So there's a jinks somewhere in your fair city, Big Spring, but my hat is off to you. You never give up when it comes to striving for a good baseball club—and that is more than I can say for some West Texas cities.

Sox Sell "The Foxx" It was cash over the counter that the Chicago Cubs paid to the Boston Red Sox for Jimmy Foxx Monday. No other players were involved—something unusual in a baseball trade or sale.

Although handicapped lately by sinus and several cracked ribs he suffered when hit by a line drive while pitching batting practice, Foxx is still regarded as one of baseball's modern stars . . . And the slant I get is that the Sox may feel the loss of Foxx greatly before the end of the season.

Streak Of White J. M. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White, Sr., 702 W. Storey in Midland, was a "streak of white" in leading the Kemper Military Institute at Booneville, Mo. to a number of track and field wins during the past season. J. M. was quite a flash while attending Midland High, and he has never slowed down. He was awarded a track letter at Kemper last week.

Softball Chatter A complete softball schedule for the league here has not been completed by officials, but games for the following week have been announced.

Tuesday night, the two soldier teams from Midland Army Flying School, namely the Bombers and the Mechanics via in the first game, and Safeway Grocery will meet Conner Brother's Piggly Wiggly team in the afterpiece.

Wednesday night will bring together the MAFS Mechanics and White's Auto team in the first game, and the MAFS Bombers and the First National Bank team in the second game.

NEW YORK — You've been hearing a lot about those football teams the Navy expects to have next fall—maybe because the Navy figures a little publicity won't hurt enlistments—but now it turns out there may be some right good Army teams, too . . . For instance, The Air Corps Technical School at Kessler Field, Miss., is lining up a ten-game schedule with such colleges as Miami, Alabama, Purdue, Texas A&G, Tulsa and Mississippi on the list.

Today's Guest Star Walter Lynch, Jacksonville (Fla.) Journal: "Can't you lend Joe Louis $117.00 to pay his income tax?"

Corp. Jim Turnesa, who almost won the PGA explains his silence thus: "I come from a big family and was the next to the youngest boy. So I just got in the habit of not talking." . . . Manager Dusty Rhodes of the Charleston Sally League club, livens up batting practice by having the public address system give out with swing music. "Wonder what he uses for the pitchers?"

Quote, Unquote Rip Russell (after making his outfield debut for the Cubs in an Army-Navy Benefit game): "We infielders always used to maintain that an outfielder should pay to get into a ball game. And dog-goned if we weren't right. The very first time I play in the outfield in the big leagues, I have to pay to get into the park."

Service Dept. Ensign Cleo John Dobson was captain of Hank Iba's first successful basketball team at Oklahoma A. and M. a few years back. The other day he received the distinguished flying cross for sinking a Jap submarine and performing other feats during the raids on the Marshall and Gilbert Islands. Recently "Dobby" wrote his parents: "Here's where my basketball under the comes in handy—You have to get into and act in one motion in game out here." . . . A fast-break attack helps, too . . . Ar. Lionel Levy, who has done several jobs for Mike Jacobs as pitcher the seating for 90,000 fans at heavy-weight fight, has been granted a captain's commission and sent to Norfolk to do construction work under Col. John Reed Kilpatrick, the Madison Square Garden boss. Art Rose the fight trainer, has just received a letter from his son Bill, a Canadian flyer, who reports bagging three German planes.

Houston, Sports, Fort Worth Take Texas Loop Tilts

By The Associated Press
Joff Cross tore in from third base as Dain Clay beat out a swinging bunt in the 13th inning to give Houston a 4-3 win over Dallas in their Texas League meeting Monday night.

Sal Glatto, third of the Rebels' hurlers to toil, had walked Hal Epps and the bases were full when Clay, whose night for the Buffs included three hits, laid a roller down the third base line.

Some super pitching by Floyd Spear gave Shreveport a 3-0 victory over Tulsa, although Marvin Kicker's two base hit in the first inning robbed the hurler of a no-hit game. Fort Worth, with a rally in the sixth, whipped San Antonio 3-2.

Oklahoma City and Beaumont had an off day.

A homer by Ed Kazak in the eighth inning gave Houston one of its runs.
