Henderson Orders All Rents Rolled Back To March 1 Price Levels

WASHINGTON (AP)—James F. Byrnes moves into a White House office to take over direction of the nation's economic stability Monday after a weekend series of rapid fire moves designed to halt rises in two major cost-of-living items—food and rent.

Following up Saturday's order extending price ceilings to 90 per cent of all food products, Price Administrator Leon Henderson, who will help administer the general policies formulated by Byrnes and his economic stabilization board, Sunday night ordered all rents rolled back to their March 1 levels.

The food price freeze, a 60 day emergency order to be followed soon by permanent ceilings for the duration, is effective Monday. It enjoins all retailers, wholesalers, manufacturers and processors to charge no more than the highest price they charged between Sept. 28 and Oct. 2.

Only important foodstuffs excepted were fresh fish, most fresh fruits and vegetables, and peanuts, which probably will be treated with later on a seasonal basis.

Rent Order Monday
The rent order, a further carrying out of President Roosevelt's anti-inflation directives, was to be issued Monday.

All landlords who have raised rents in the last seven months will be asked to reduce them to the March 1 levels.

Phonograph Records Urgently Needed For AAF Radio Program

A number of phonograph records of popular songs of the past years are needed urgently by the public relations office of the AAF Bombardier School here for use in the regular Wednesday night radio program heard over the Texas State Network.

Residents of Midland who have any of the following records are asked to telephone Lieut. Reavis O'Neal at extension 310, AAF Bombardier School. A representative will call for the records and will return them after the broadcast.

The songs are: "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," "Smiles," "Judy," "Ma," "Margie," "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Shean," "Horses," "Yes, We Have No Bananas," "It Ain't Gonna Rain No More," "Barney Google," "Three o'Clock in the Morning," "California, Here I Come," "The Charleston," "Always," "Remember," "Blue Skies," "Valencia," "In a Little Spanish Town," "Baby Face," "Crazy Rhythm," "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," "Ol' Man River," "Singin' in the Rain," "Pagan Love Song," "Body and Soul," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Life Is Just a Bowl of Cherries," "You Can't Stop Me from Lovin' You," "You're the One I Care For," "Night and Day," "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime?" "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf," "Stormy Weather," "I've Told Every Little Star," "The Music Goes Round and Round," "You're the Top," "I Get a Kick Out of You," "A Tisket, a Tasket."

Other records from the same period as that of any of the above numbers will be welcomed, as well as the sheet music for any of these songs.

Registrations will get underway at 9:30 a. m., with a committee (Continued on page two)

Andrews Wildcat Shows Oil; Deep Test For Pecos

By FRANK GARDNER
Oil Editor

Logging of free oil by a wildcat in Andrews County and staking of a 7,500-foot Ordovician test in Northern Pecos County topped West Texas development as the week opened.

The Andrews prospect, Union Oil Company No. 1-C Mrs. A. C. Means, encountered a good showing of oil in saturated lime from 4,564-73 feet and is drilling ahead at 4,610 feet in lime, carrying one-eighth of a barrel of oil per hour. It is in the northwest central part of the county, three miles southeast of Shafter Lake and four and one-half miles southwest of the Means pool.

Atlantic Refining Company No. 1-A Texu, Southwest Central Andrews deep wildcat, still was in the Simpson, middle Ordovician, as it drilled to 10,065 feet in lime and shale. The firm's No. 1-C University, deep Permian test farther southeast, is drilling lime at 5,875 feet.

Latest well in the Embar pool of Southern Andrews to leave the Permian, Phillips Petroleum Company No. 21 University-Andrews is drilling at 7,970 feet in broken shale and lime, probably of Simpson age, Phillips No. 12 University-Andrews, which encountered sulphur water in the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, from 8,128-95 feet, total depth, was unable to get packer-seat at 7,970 feet when a test of Simpson sand was attempted. It has been plugged back to 7,770 feet and is standing while cement sets.

Magnolia Petroleum Company has staked location for No. 1-29 H. J. Eaton as a 7,500-foot Ordovician wildcat test six miles southwest of (Continued on Page 2)

Urge Orderly Distribution Civilian Needs

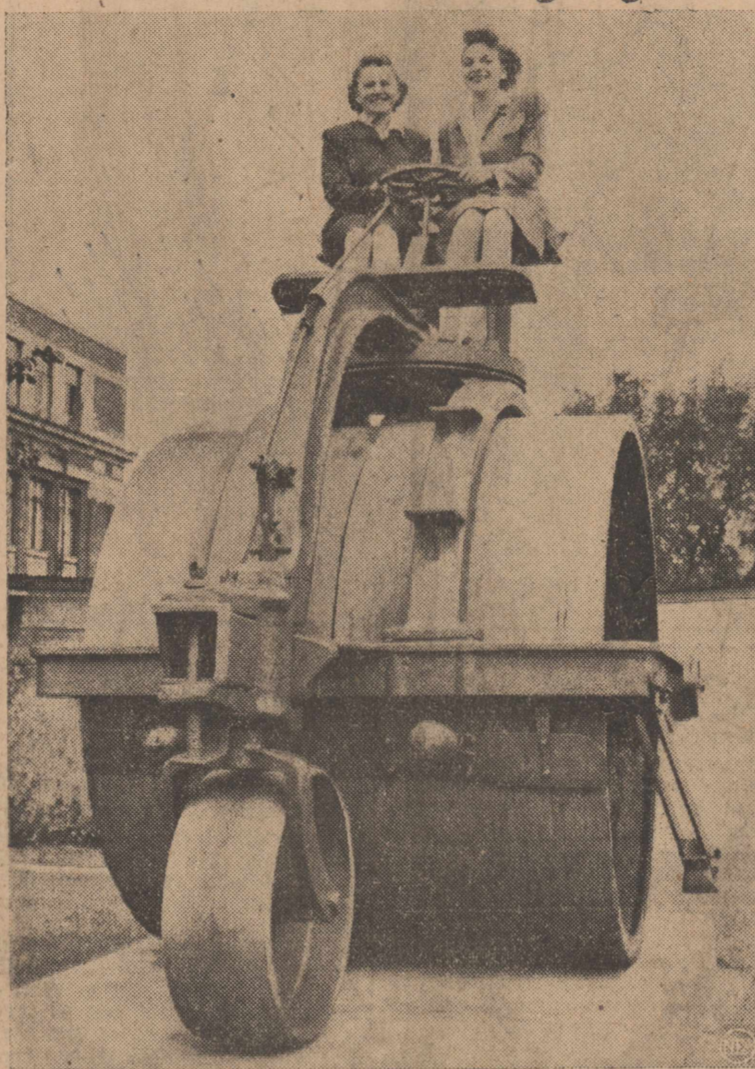

BOSTON (AP) — President Roosevelt said Monday that the government "will do everything that it can to see that the products available for civilian needs are allocated in an orderly and equitable fashion."

The Chief Executive said in a message read at the Boston conference on distribution—A National Forum of Distributors—that it is "essential that those whose obligation it is to provide the mechanics by means of which the products of our farms and factories reach the consumer seek in every way possible to expedite the free flow of goods."

Hull Sends Message
In another message to the conference, Secretary of State Cordell Hull said "business in general, in both production and distribution must put forth unprecedented energy, initiative, enterprise, ingenuity and capacity for adaptation if the nation's wartime requirements are to be met on a scale and with a speed that will insure complete victory."

"I know," he added, "that the participants of your conference are firmly resolved that neither personal gain nor personal comfort nor personal differences will be permitted to detract one iota from the supreme effort which the nation must make when its freedom and everything that free men hold most dear are gravely menaced by powerful, ruthless and unscrupulous foes."

Two Thousand Students Of Midland's Schools Collect Scrap Metal In Big Campaign Launched In City Monday

Midland's scrap scoopers hundreds of them, students in Midland schools were on the job full force for the war program Monday afternoon.

All were commissioned Junior Texas Rangers before they started their big scrap metal campaign. Stacks of metal were in front of many homes before the students started their drive at 1 p. m. School principals and teachers went to various parts of the city with the students to supervise the work and to see that every home, street and vacant lot is combed for scrap.

Superintendent George A. Heath, colonel in the drive, and Frank Monroe, high school principal and lieutenant colonel, were on the job to handle problems as they came up and to streamline the search for scrap as much as possible. At conclusion of the afternoon drive, each student will report his work to his teacher.

More than 2,000 students were searching for scrap. It will be piled on the vacant lot on Missouri Avenue across the street from The Reporter-Telegram. A mountain of scrap is the goal.

Army trucks will collect the piles of scrap which were stacked by students. These trucks are supplied by the Army Air Force Bombardier College at Midland.

Midland County hopes to double its scrap record with the big campaign. Already more than 200 pounds of scrap per capita have been collected and Clint Dunagan, Midland County salvage chairman, hopes the total can be increased to 500 pounds per capita.

War industries must have scrap if America is to win the war for survival. Each citizen should contribute every available piece of scrap.

Stalin Calls Upon Allies To Fulfill Their Obligations

By Henry C. Cassidy
Copyright, 1942, By The Associated Press.
MOSCOW—Joseph Stalin has declared that aid to Soviet Russia "has so far been little effective" and called upon Russia's allies to fulfill their obligations full and on time.

In a statement Sunday, the Soviet Premier said specifically that Russia regards the establishment of a second front as a matter of first rate importance.

Stalin's statement was delivered in the form of a letter answering three questions submitted to him in writing by this correspondent Chief of the Moscow Bureau of the Associated Press, and represented the Soviet Premier's first public utterance on the second front issue in more than a year.

Text Of Letter
The text of the letter, typed on a plain sheet of white notepaper and signed in a bold hand, follows:

"Dear Mr. Cassidy:
"Owing to the pressure of work and my consequent inability to grant you an interview, I shall confine myself to a brief written answer to your questions.

Goering Says Winter Will Not Be Easy

BERN, Switzerland. (AP)—The German people had the warning of Reichsmarshal Goering Monday that the coming winter would not be "so easy" on the fighting fronts, but they were assured they would be fed no matter how hungry the rest of Europe became.

"If there is hunger," Goering said, "in no event will it be in Germany. From now on it must be the unshakable fact that the German workman and those working in Germany are supplied with food the best of all."

The No. 2 Nazi spoke in the Berlin Sportsplatz at the annual harvest Thanksgiving festival. It was a long and rambling speech, devoted largely to the food situation, the tricky weather and the home front with all the usual flourishes.

Revenue Bill Near Limit For Direct Taxes

By Jack Bell
WASHINGTON. (AP) — Back-staining taxation that will force a downward revision in the standard of living soon was forecast by Senator George (D-Ga.) Monday as the Senate prepared to receive a new revenue bill calculated to extract more than $26,000,000,000 yearly from citizens.

George, as Chairman of the Finance Committee, was charged with reporting to the Senate a measure containing rates he said were approaching the maximum that could be assessed against individuals and corporations without hampering war production.

Compulsory Savings
At the same time, he told reporters that taxation to enforce loans to the government to aid in financing the war must be enacted by Congress in the near future, adding:

"Every 1 per cent addition that is made to these proposed tax rates for compulsory savings or loans to the government is going to push the standard of living down that much. It can't be escaped. Our living standards will have to change when we go beyond the rates in this bill."

Maximum Direct Tax
As approved by the committee, the bill would provide for an aggregate rate of 24 per cent on the taxable income of individuals in the lowest brackets, graduated upward to the point where an 82 per cent surtax would be assessed against those with larger incomes. Some corporations would pay up to 90 per cent of their net taxable income.

"I think the rates in this bill, both on individual and corporation income, run very close to the maximum direct tax burden that the country can bear," George said. "The overall burden approaches the maximum the taxpayers can pay and maintain full production."

Five Places Open In Defense Class

Five seats are available in the Defense class meeting 3 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon at the high school vocational shops, Harlan Howell, director, said Monday.

Those who wish to register for the work in sheet metal must register not later than 6 p. m. Tuesday. After that, registration will be closed. Classes start Thursday.

Lieutenant O'Neal Addresses Students
Erving Midland High School students to collect every bit of scrap material possible in the big drive here, Lieutenant Reavis O'Neal, public relations officer at the AAF Bombardier School, told them they will be heirs to the victory.

The officer, in an address in the high school auditorium Monday afternoon told the students that although they were too young to fight with the armed forces, their work at home could aid in bringing victory. He said they would benefit from the freedom which the armed forces are determined to win.

Pour Constant Stream Of Men At Red Lines Defending Stalingrad

By Eddy Gilmore
MOSCOW (AP)—The Germans poured a constant stream of reserves into Stalingrad along "the road of death" Monday swelling their forces in the area to more than half a million, but they still had not achieved a break-through or material advance, Soviet dispatches reported.

The mid-day Soviet communique said the Red army itself had improved its position northwest of the city but that the Nazis in a determined drive upon a Stalingrad factory settlement forced the defenders to withdraw somewhat during the night.

The government newspaper Pravda said the German command loosened the assault in this sector after bringing up two more infantry divisions and one tank division, increasing its strength to 35 divisions. After bettering their position northwest of the city, Russian troops were reported locked in battle with Germans clinging to a strongly fortified hill.

Red Airmen Raid Slovakia
The ferocity of the fighting within the city was indicated in the report that artillery and mortar fire wiped out a battalion of enemy infantry and destroyed 24 machine-gun posts and six gun and mortar batteries.

A furious German infantry attack was reported from the northwestern front, but the communique said it had been repulsed with heavy losses. Four hundred more Germans were killed in fighting for a populated place north of Voronezh, it added.

Busy Sunday For Wilkie In China's Wartime Capital

CHUNGKING. (AP)—Wendell Wilkie mingled for more than four hours Monday with students and faculty members at four Chungking governmental educational institutions, reiterating his message of "anti-imperialism" and receiving a spontaneous welcome that left him visibly affected.

Wilkie lunched with silver-haired Chen Li-Fu, minister of education, and then gave a luncheon himself in honor of Eric Gen. Clare L. Chennault, commander of the U. S. Army Air Forces in China. It was disclosed that arrangements had been made for Wilkie to visit the Chinese battlefield, but the time and place were not revealed.

Sunday he had a busy day, touring Chungking's war industries, meeting political leaders, including the Communist Chou En-Lai, and finally having a three and one-half hour heart-to-heart talk with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

Both Chiang and Wilkie refused to comment on the nature of their discussion.

LONDON (AP)—British and Allied submarines sank at least two Axis supply ships and probably a third in recent operations in the Mediterranean, the Admiralty announced Monday.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Allied quarters received reports Monday that territorial differences between Rumania and Hungary over Transylvania had reached such a state that Rumanian officials in Bucharest were expecting war with their neighboring Axis satellite.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy announced Monday that the submarine Grunion had been overdue in the Pacific for some time and must be presumed lost.

Power To Endure

In the end, this war is going to be won by the United Nations because Adolf Hitler failed to note and understand something that was appearing in the newspapers almost every day.

Great stress has been laid upon the efficiency with which the Nazi organization compiles and correlates current news from all over the world in order that Hitler may take advantage of every expedient.

Yet, like us lesser mortals, the fuhrer did not comprehend the significance of China's resistance to Japanese invasion. If he had, in all probability he never would have attacked Russia when he did.

Dr. K. C. Wu, mayor of Chungking, paid tribute, on the fifth anniversary of Nippon's invasion, to the Chinese people's capacity to suffer and to recuperate.

China has withstood the assault made by the militaristic well-armed Japanese because her people have demonstrated ability to keep working, keep fighting and keep smiling.

If Herr Hitler had pondered that fact, and given thought to Russian economic and social history and racial characteristics, he might not have repeated Japan's fundamental error.

The Nipponese, seeing China weak, defenseless, disunited, envisioned a three-month incident, at the end of which time they purposed to use China's vast resources in their preparation for the greater war against the Anglo-American peoples.

Hitler, supposing Russia to be weak, incompetent, relatively unprepared, thought to devote a single summer to conquering the Soviet.

But like the Chinese—and both Hitler and we might have known if we had permitted ourselves to realize—the Russians have an enormous power to endure.

The Japanese chased the Chinese from Canton to Peiping, and slaughtered them by the tens of thousands, and destroyed their property without let or hindrance. But wherever they turned, they found more Chinese fighting desperately.

The Germans pushed the Russians around as a strong man would a group of children. Huge areas of the Soviet lay in ruins. Still, wherever the Nazis turned, there were Russians, dying but taking Hitler's proud corps into neighboring graves.

China and Russia have done what France demonstrably could not do, what Britain and the United States probably could not have done.

They did not do it for us. They did it for themselves. But we get the benefit.

Buy War Bonds And Savings Stamps—Burmese Are Learning

The Burmese, like the Indo-Chinese, are learning now what is involved in co-operation with Japan's Asiatic program. The Burmese did not like the British. They provided a fifth column which contributed materially to the ease of the Jap conquest. Now they are suffering the consequences.

The Nipponese have proved themselves excellent fighters. But their national psychology in the end will help undo them. Already by their arrogance and cruelty they have largely destroyed the appeal of their slogan: Asia for the Asiatics. Their victims now realize that the Japs really meant: Asia for the Japanese.

When the time comes, returning United Nations armies may find as vigorous a fifth column working for them in Burma as that which originally aided the Japs.

Buy War Bonds And Savings Stamps—Extraordinary

Official word has arrived that two WPB divisions have been abolished and their functions transferred, which presumably is a matter of internal reorganization of little public interest.

But the personnel is not being retained. The jobs being gone, the workers are turned loose.

Probably there is some precedent in federal history, but we don't remember when it was.

The Allied air offensive from the West but Russian planes, on another sweep into Axisland from the East, were reported to have bombed Bratislava, capital of puppet Slovakia, Sunday night.

The Vichy radio reported the Bratislava attack and said also that German bombers were over Dover, Canterbury and other points of Southern England Sunday night. The British said, however, there was "nothing to report."

The land war in Africa was still in the doldrums, but there was offensive air action by the Allies over the Mediterranean.

Two large enemy supply ships exploded under direct hits from American heavy bombers which raided Axis shipping in Navarino Bay, off Pylor, Greece, by daylight Saturday. They shot down four of five German and Italian planes which

Folks Living In Glass Houses Might Try This Plastic Pane

THE daring young lady in the picture isn't so daring after all. Because the window pane through which she's smiling is protected by a home-applied shatterproof plastic coating.

In the event of an air raid, according to the manufacturers' claim, the coating would stand up against bomb concussion as well as it does against hammer blows.

The coating is applied with an ordinary paint brush, and is said to harden into a transparent plastic film within 24 hours. If the pane is broken, glass splinters adhere to the film as they do in automobile safety glass, except that here the film is on the outside.

There are two advantages to this bombing precaution, the manufacturers state: not only does it afford protection from flying glass, but it would keep a blacked-out window intact, preventing the escape of light which could be seen by enemy planes.

the Soviet estimates of the current situation?

"Answer: A very important place—one might say a place of first rate importance.

"Two: To what extent is Allied aid to the Soviet Union proving effective and what could be done to amplify and improve this aid?"

"Answer: As compared with the aid which the Soviet Union is giving to the Allies by drawing upon itself the main force of the German Fascist, the aid of the Allies to the Soviet Union has so far been little effective. In order to amplify and improve this aid, only one thing is required: That the Allies fulfill their obligations fully and on time.

"Three: 'What remains of the Soviet capacity for resistance?'"

"Answer: I think that the Soviet capacity for resisting the German brigands is in strength not less, if not greater, than the capacity of Fascist Germany or of any other aggressive power to secure for itself world domination.

Stockpiles like this are needed all over the country so that our Government can plan our armament program—and our mills and plants can deliver the fighting tools!

Get in on the drive that starts today. Get the unused metal out of your cellar, your attic, your garage, your place of business. Without this scrap the Nation's steel mills must shut down, for all new steel is 50% scrap, and the mills have not enough for even 30 days more.

And one more thing. Help to stop the story—spread by innocents and ill-wishers alike—that there is lots of scrap already on hand. They point to junk yards, auto graveyards, and salvage depots that have not been cleaned out, as proof that there is no shortage. Kill this talk before it kills our boys!

In spite of the terrible lack of scrap, here is why you may still find full junk yards and scrap depots—and why they must be kept that way!

1. All scrap must be sorted, stripped, and broken up by scrap dealers before it can be used. Their yards are full because they are busy—preparing your scrap for the mills as fast as they possibly can!
2. Auto graveyards strip autos, keep the usable parts and junk the rest—turning out 450,000 tons of scrap in a typical month. Each must scrap within 60 days as many cars as he buys—that is the law!
3. Scrap collections sometimes have to stay around because the dealers can't handle them all immediately. Even if they could, the mills could not store it all. The local salvage depot is a stockpile—where your scrap is available for instant use as soon as it's needed. And it will be needed!

Remember if these places become empty, the mills shut down—and we lose the war!

So get out your scrap and help your neighbors with theirs. It's the greatest single contribution you can make right now to win the war!

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By William E. McKenney
America's Card Authority

The squeeze is one of the most difficult plays for the average bridge player to learn. Several years ago I wrote a series of articles based on E. Hall Downes' book giving the "Tape!" formula, which I thought was the best outline of the squeeze play.

The word "Tape!" is coined as a reminder of the five essentials for any squeeze. To illustrate these

♠AJ4	♥K6
♦A1042	♣AQ10
♣K98	♠AKJ
♠QJ2	♥753

Dealer

essentials, consider the hand shown here. East plays a contract of seven no trump and South opens the king of spades.

Declarer can lay down six club tricks, three diamonds, two hearts and a spade, a total of 12. Where is he to get the thirteenth trick? One chance is that the queen-jack of hearts will drop doubleton, leaving the ten good. The only other possibility is a squeeze, which can develop without giving up the chance in hearts.

Dummy wins the first trick with the spade ace. Then he cashes the diamonds, followed by the clubs. On the fourth and fifth clubs he discards from dummy the four of spades and the deuce of hearts. On the last club South will be squeezed if he should happen to hold the queen and jack of hearts besides the queen of spades. If South keeps the spade king, then the jack is discarded and declarer continues with the king and ace of hearts. If the cards were right for the squeeze, or if the missing honors drop anyhow, the slam is made, and if both chances go wrong, the grand slam was simply impossible.

In the "Tape!" formula, T stands for "threat cards," which here are the jack of spades and ten of hearts. A stands for "assumption"—here the assumption that South holds the three vital missing honors. P stands for "projection," the process of stripping the hands down in such a way as to preserve the squeeze, if it exists. E stands for "entry," the master card which will give entry to the hand opposite that which wins the squeezing trick. Here, the vital entry is the heart ace. And L stands for "lead," the squeezing trick itself, which here is the sixth round of clubs.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas. (AP)—The old hickory stick associated with "reading and writin' and 'rithmetic" soon will take on a new meaning for Texas school children.

Rather than cringe from the use of the stick by some strict teacher, they will learn that hickory is one of many trees in the forest and that it has lots more important uses than bringing unruly tots into line.

The study of trees and forest conservation will be initiated in 100 Texas schools within the next few weeks when more than 30,000 children of all ages and classes start receiving instruction on the subject as part of their regular courses.

New Super-Duper Bugle For The Army

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Pressing the middle valve down, the War Department went round and found and the music that came out here Saturday blasted the sweet dreams of soldiers.

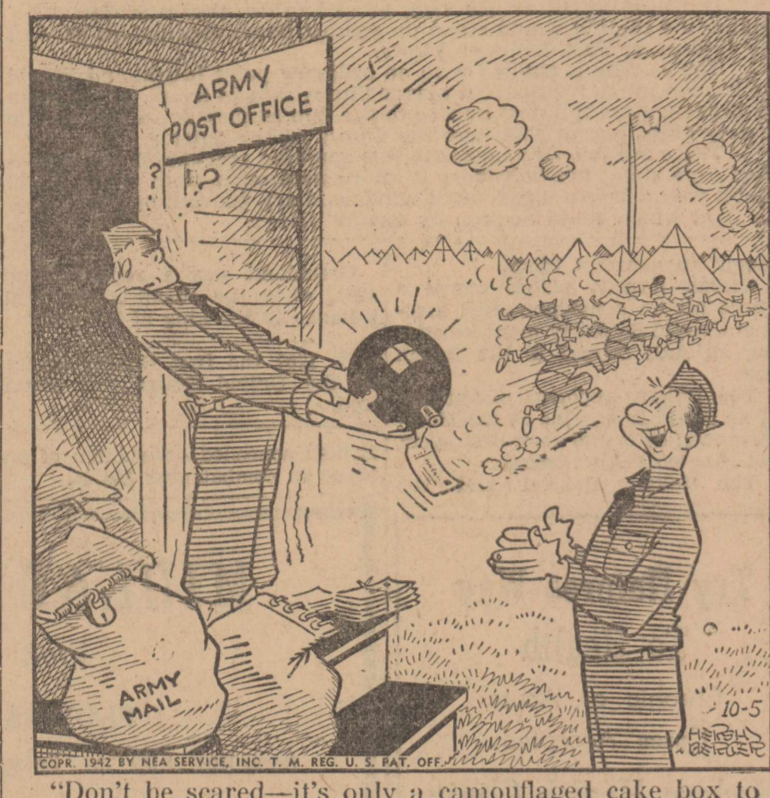

Officials blared out the news that a new plastic trumpet was being invented which would save 20 ounces of brass per instrument.

So instead of scrapping the bugle to save the brass—as the soldiers had hoped—the War Department promptly adopted this new super-duper-trooper-whooper for the Army tooters to toot.

Football Season Form Consistent In Upsets Galore

By Harold Classen
 NEW YORK. (AP)—As subtle as a dollar alarm clock is the impression that this football season will be one without form.

This view isn't caused by the early defeats already pasted to the records of Minnesota, Texas, Notre Dame, Louisiana State, Fordham and other annual contenders for recognition. Rather it's the variance in the play of a club from one week to the next.

Louisiana State pushed over Texas A&M on September's last Saturday but was a pushover for Rice in October's opener. Pittsburgh was a 50 to 7 victim of Minnesota one week but a 20 to 7 master of Southern Methodist the next. And the Gophers followed their lopsided win by losing to the Iowa Pre-Flight Cadets, 7 to 6.

The lack of consistency was predicted by numerous coaches as the distinguishing mark of the present campaign in a pre-season Associated Press poll. They attributed it to a lack of adequate reserves because of the war's manpower demands and the use of freshmen.

Upsets, however, generally add to a sport's attractiveness and the country's evelens are ready to provide another collection this coming weekend.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.,
 Wide World Sports Writer
 NEW YORK.—In the middle of the Yankees' big inning Sunday the wind finally unfurled a big banner that had been draped disconsolately around the flagpole. . . . It said: "New York Yankees, World Champions 1941." . . . There's your story of the series. . . . The Yanks still are good, but they're not the irresistible Yanks of a year ago, and the Cards are a livelier, more dangerous club than the Dodgers were last fall. . . . At that, if St. Louis doesn't win Monday we wouldn't be surprised to see the thing settled only when one club runs out of pitchers. . . . Those worries about getting back to St. Louis, if necessary, seems to have faded out. Somehow, the clubs found room for all hands on a train Sunday night.

Monday's Guest Star
 F. W. Thomas, London (Eng.) Star. "Properly to enjoy baseball, you need lungs of leather, a throat of brass and a vivid and vicious vocabulary."

Serious Stuff
 Maybe Mr. Thomas' apt observation (see above) explains why we didn't enjoy Sunday's game. . . . The largest crowd in World Series history was there and you couldn't tell from the noise which was the home team. . . . Red Rolfe did almost as much hollering as the fans in the first few innings. From the way he kept gabbing at the ump and his teammates, he must have been practicing for that Yale coaching job. . . . Did you know this year was the first time the Yanks have lost a series game in which they outbit the opposition since away back in 1923? . . . Joe DiMaggio has read "Victory Through Air Power" twice, but Charley Keller seems to be the only player who is applying it. There was plenty of air power when Keller hit that one into the stands Sunday.

Graphite is used for the manufacture of pencils, paints, grate polish and foundry facings.

BIBLE'S CENTER PUZZLE

These two centers are the main reason Coach D. X. Bible of Texas is never sure of his starting lineup until time for the kickoff. A year ago Bible ran short of centers, had to draft some men for the position. This year a couple of the draftees are so good he can't pick one from them. That's the case with Auby Gill of Sweetwater (left) and Jack Sackhe of Electra. They weigh about the same, scrap about the same. So far they've been alternating.

Cardinals Run Yanks Ragged With 9-6 Victory Over Demoralized Yanks

By Gayle Tallot
 NEW YORK. (AP)—The mighty Yankees looked beaten and demoralized and out of pitchers as they went into the fifth game of the 1942 World Series Monday against the St. Louis Cardinals, one of the most under-rated clubs ever to fight its way into the classic.

Defeated twice running in their home park by a team they had confidently expected to trounce, jittery and crippled with feuding with the umpires, the proud bombers looked ready for the kill. A vast majority of those who had witnessed the series expected the wild-running Cards to win again Monday and close out the championship, four games to one.

When they rallied twice in the closing innings to slug out a 9 to 6 victory in Sunday's tussle before a record series throng of 69,902 at Yankee Stadium, the daring young men from the West left little doubt in anyone's mind that they had what it took.

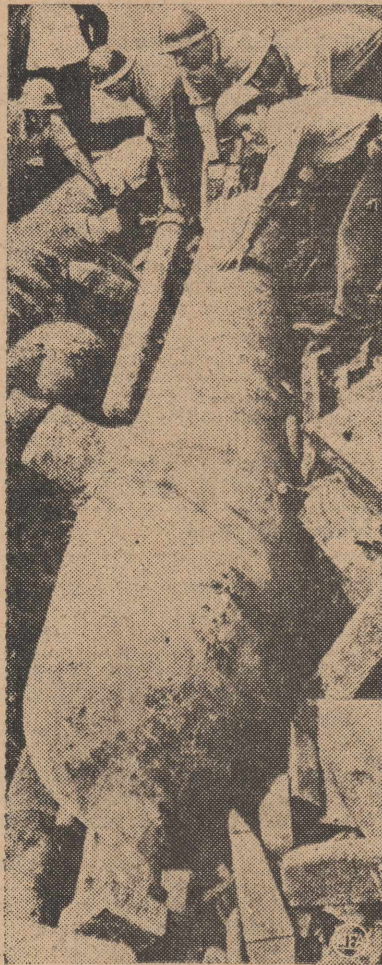

Cards Convince Experts
 The previous day they had done it with pitching, when their Lefty Ernie White blanked the old champions, 2 to 0—the first white-washing administered to a Yankee team in a World Series since 1928. Sunday the Cards said it with their bats, and for the second time in the series shook off a crushing home run by the Yankees' Charley Keller to break a resultant tie and come on to win.

The experts agreed that the Yankees were in semi-desperate straits for pitching when Manager Joe McCarthy was forced to call upon the 37-year-old Ruffing again Monday.

As for Manager Billy Southworth, he was in position to come back with Johnny Beazley, the strong-armed kid from Tennessee who brazened out threat after threat to subdue the Yanks in the second game.

Not since Pepper Martin, another wild-running Cardinal of another day, gave the Philadelphia Athletics multiple abrasions in 1931 has the baseball seen a set of hell-for-leather ball players like the present outfit from the banks of the Mississippi.

Old Scrapper

Shipyards workers in Brooklyn, N. Y., inspect one of three one-ton cannons, vintage 1812, found in an old vessel. Yes, they're going to war again.

Buying a Big Share in America

Their war bond pledge to President Roosevelt was $20,000,000—the government's investment in the California Shipbuilding Corporation's Terminal Island yards—and they passed it. Workers W. G. Jaster, Margaret Frisbee, E. E. Watson and H. C. Kelly display the mammoth check.

The formal opinion, outlining the reasons for holding constitutional a military commission appointed by the President to try the saboteurs, may be delivered at any time. It is generally expected to deal with presidential powers in war time.

Two other pending cases involve constitutionality of state attempts to fix minimum prices for milk sold by private companies in military camps in California and Pennsylvania. A ruling on this question would have widespread bearing.

Field Comments On AP Anti-Trust Suit
 PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (AP)—Marshall Field, publisher of the Chicago Sun, expressed belief Monday that the successful presentation of an anti-trust suit against the Associated Press would "prove to be one of the most important moves ever made toward real freedom of the press in American journalism."

The United States government recently filed a civil action against the newsgathering organization charging it was a monopoly. Members of the Associated Press previously had declined to grant a membership to the Chicago Sun.

Rice Owls Now Seem One Of Nation's Best

By Richard West
 Associated Press Staff
 LEAN, drawing Jess Neely—the Southern gentleman from Carolina now coaching the Rice Owls—is fast feathering the Owls' nest down in Houston.

This affable master of the ground attack right now has a football team that looks like the best in the Southwest Conference and possibly Texas' best bet for national recognition.

Neely came to Rice in 1940 from Clemson to succeed likeable Jimmy Kitts. He built slowly, taking his time in teaching an intricate running game that includes every known spinner, outback ad reverse. Saturday his flock was ready to fly.

A fast array of backs, led by Stoop Dickson and a passing sophomore, Ike Eikenberg, beat Louisiana State 27-14. The week before LSU had whipped Texas A&M, rated one of the nation's best, 16-7.

Monday Neely worked harder than ever to prepare for another Southeast Conference toughie—Tulane—in New Orleans Saturday.

Supreme Court Reconvenes For 1942-43 Term

WASHINGTON. (AP)—A wartime supreme court reassembles Monday to begin its new 1942-43 term which may produce decisions clarifying presidential powers during a military crisis.

Principal interest centered on the court's forthcoming opinion dealing with the petitions of seven Nazi saboteurs for writs of habeas corpus. The writs were denied after an extraordinary three-day session of the tribunal in July, and six of the Nazis were executed.
