German People Are Dissatisfied When Losses Are Revealed

By Edwin Shanke

LONDON-(AP)-The Allied blows in North Africa struck Nazi Germany at a time when it was entering the grimmest winter of the war.

From the standpoint of five determining factors of war-Military, Economic and Political Strength, tenacity of allies and morale-Germany is at a crossroads.

It is not a question of a "turnip winter" like that of 1917 which presaged the fall of Imperial Germany. Reichsmarshal Goering already has told the world the suppressed peoples will starve before Germany does.

But Germany has eaten through her reserves despite the strictest rationing. This year's overall harvest is reported to be only 80 per cent of normal, although the Germans now are tilling a million more acres than last year when the harvest was 15 per cent below aver-

TUNIS TO TOBRUK: ALLIES FIGHT AXIS FOR CONTROL OF AFRICA

This is the battlefield where the fate of Africa, and possibly the outcome of the war in Europe, may be decided. In the Bizerte-Tunis area, allied and axis forces prepare to clash for control of the bottleneck strait between Sicily and Tunisia. American forces may sweep over a miniature "Maginot Line" at Mareth, Tunisia, to hit axis forces in Libya from behind at Tripoli. Meanwhile Rommel's forces are headed toward that Tripolitanian port from the east as British chase them across the familiar Tobruk-Benghazi desert front.

Navy Smashes Jap Fleet In Southwest Pacific's Big Battle

By Roger D. Greene

A titanic smash at Japanese naval power was written into the record of American battle forces in the Southwest Pacific Tuesday, while far across the world United States and British troop columns moved toward a showdown fight with the Axis in Tunisia.

In Washington, Navy Secretary Knox said the United States had clearly won round two of the battle for the Solomon Islands, but cautioned that "there may

Canada Did It

When Canada first discovered the need to mushroom her revenues for war purposes, she did exactly what of Navy Knox said the United the United States is doing. Retaining all the old taxes, states clearly had won round two she expanded their base to bring in new taxpayers and simultaneously boosted the rates so as to hit everybody forgotten" that there may be harder.

This proving inadequate to pay for modern war, the Dominion, just as we are doing, cast about for new sources and revenue, and piled one tax upon others until nobody had any slightest idea where he was.

However, Canada did not stop there. Having created decisive one." a topheavy tax edifice, the Dominion put tax architects to work to correct the most obvious faults.

At its worst, in 1940 the Canadian structure of direct around Guadalcanal." taxes included a general income tax like ours; a defense tax collected at the source, like our new Victory Tax; provincial income taxes, corresponding to those of many of the greatest naval engagement of our states; and local income taxes in a few municipali- since the Battle of Juliand in the

THE EDGE OF DARKNESS

COPYRIGHT, 1842. BY WILLIAM WOODS

THE STORY: All Norway is preparing for revolt against Nazi rule. Dr. Martin Stensgard, mayor of Trollness, is discussing the news brought by Sverre Hammer, with Gunnar Brogge. His wife interrupts their conversation to tell him that Johann, his son, is returning to Trollness from Oslo. Stensgard is disturbed, because Johann has been accused of giving information to the Germans.

SOMETHING IN THE WIND

He started down the street on the run, past the square and down through a short alleyway behind the shoemaker's shop. When he got to the dock he found a large crowd milling about.

It seemed in an ugly mood. He stopped the first man he met to ask what had happened, and discovered that at a little before six that morning, when the first fishermen had gone down to the har-bor, they had found a guard of 16 soldiers with bayonets on their rifles, standing between them and the boats. # Michigan-Ohio Game Scheduled

COLUMBUS, O.—(P)—A football player who is a sensation without being sensational is Charles "Chuck" Csuri, Ohio State tackle and candidate for All-America

Paradoxical as it seems, it's Csuri's lack of sensational color that makes him what Coach Paul Brown describes as the greatest player, at his position, in the Western Conference, the nation's tough-est collegiate football circuit.

The 80,000 fans expected to jam Ohio Stadium Saturday for a bitterly fought Michigan-Ohio game could well affard to keep an eye on this handsome, six-foot, 200-pound lineman. He'll be rubbing his nose in the dirt . . . in the thick of the Brown said Csuri "carries out his assignments in such a simple, effective way that he makes the job look easy. Tackles under our system have a tough job and this Csuri's a great one.'

Game Birds Are More Plentiful; Far Less Hunters

By Harry Grayson
NEA Service Sports Editor
NEW YORK.—With foodstuffs dwindling and the cost of that which is obtainable soaring, wildfowl, upland game and large edi-ble quadrupeds will form an important addition to the national wartime larder this fall.

The hunter now goes afield to satisfy more than his atavistic implueses. In many cases he kills game for the same reason that the Indian did-for sustenance. And because a large section of the male population is in the service and many more too busy with war work to take time out for sports in the field, more and better targets are afforded to those who can get out. Wildfowl Hunters Short

The mad rush to obtain shot and shell has been country-wide since Oct. 1. Some are even buy-ing new guns to get what goes with them. Houses reserve 200 rounds for each new shotgun, 40 rounds for big caliber rifles and 300 rounds for .22s Hardest hit are wildfowl gunners by virtue of the fact that they expend more ammuntion than any other type hunter. Rarely does your duck or goose shooter get his daily bag limit without expending many times over in ammuntion the number of birds he takes.

Least hit is the big game hunter. He goes around with a belt full of cartridges like a frontiers-man and may not get a shot in a week's trip. At most two or three shots from his high-powered rifle is about all the average big game hunter gets particularly in those states in which the season' limi is one of the species he seeks.
