

U. S. FLIERS SMASH AT SICILY

Agencies Criticized

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Budget Bureau and the Social Security Board drew the fire of the House Appropriations Committee Monday in a bill carrying $1,127,362,499 for the Labor Department, the Federal Security Agency, the War Manpower Commission, and related independent offices for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The budget bureau was criticized for having withheld a part of the funds appropriated last year for printing and binding for the Office of Education.

McNutt Pay Raised

The funds, for use in the fiscal year beginning July 1, were $73,293,524 below appropriations for the agencies last year, and $76,668,611 under budget estimates. The biggest share, $672,842,380, including $3,000 to boost the salary of Paul V. McNutt to $15,000 in his dual capacity of Security Administrator and Manpower Commission chairman, went to the Federal Security Agency.

The committee ordered continuation at the present level of the government program of instruction in pre-natal and infant care, and provided for access to maternity funds by wives of service men in all seven lowest pay grades. Previously only wives of men in the four lowest grades received the help.

One of the biggest cuts was $20,390,000 below the $55,390,000 proposed by the budget bureau for the National Youth Administration, with a proviso that the NYA shall not pay compensation to industrial work trainees.

Postwar CCC Urged

The committee refused to request of the division of labor standards for $1,152,000 to set up a "working conditions service" to study absenteeism in industry.

A postwar revival of the civilian conservation corps was held out to congress as one means of finding work quickly for 8,000,000 youths and men, to cushion the economic shock of closing war plants and to conserve the nation's natural resources.

The appropriations committee made public testimony it received from James J. McEntee, director of the liquidated CCC, in which he said:

"We can find actual work for 6,000,000 men for four years; and that would be on the basis of about 30,000 camps. Or you can change that around, and you can find work for 1,000,000 men for 24 years."

Noise Alone Nearly Killed Pantellerians

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA — (P) — A British flier who surveyed results of the Allied bombardment of Pantelleria said Monday upon his return from the captured island that Italians told him "the noise alone nearly killed them."

The flier was RAF Sgt. H. E. Love of London. Love said the Italian garrison still had enough equipment to sustain resistance several months when it capitulated Friday.

War Bulletins

LONDON — (AP) — Reuters recorded a German broadcast Monday saying "American" planes attacked Flushing in the Netherlands Sunday morning. Flushing was one of the targets of RAF daylight raiders Sunday.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A bombing raid by Flying Fortresses and Liberator bombers on the Japanese at Kahili on Bougainville Island in the Solomons was reported by the Navy Monday. Results of the attack made the night of June 12 were not observed, the Navy said. There were no United States losses.

ANKARA — (AP) — Qualified Balkan observers said Monday that the appointment of Col. Gen. Ludwig Van Csata as Hungary's new war minister was "a German victory over Premier Nicolas Kallay and others in the government who oppose additional aid to the Axis." Csata replaced Col. Gen. William Nagy, who resigned last week as war minister.

Chinese Soldiers Continue Gains

By The Associated Press
American airmen, carrying out a series of furious bombing and strafing raids on the enemy's bases, and Chinese commandos, striking coordinated blows at his rear, have fashioned new successes along the Upper Yangtze front of the Chinese theater, Chungking dispatches reported Monday.

More than 100 bombs were dropped on the big Japanese airfield at Nanchang in Kiangsi Province, a supply link with the enemy's most advanced front in Central China. Gasoline dumps were set afire and runways were torn up as the American Mitchells and Warhawks swept over the field and escaped without loss to their bases. Nanchang is the most important Japanese air base between Shanghai and Hankow.

The Chinese commandos killed 400 Japanese in attacks on their bases behind the front lines in the Yochow area along the Middle Yangtze.

Midland Man Is Victor In Pickle Barrel Bombing

The proudest student bombardier in the Army Air Forces is Cadet James E. Rice, of the Midland Army Air Field, because today he is the best.

Cadet Rice, of Seattle, Wash., proved his skill with the bombsight Sunday at the second Flying Training Command All American Bombing Olympic at Roswell, N. M.; and he carried away with him a gold trophy and a certificate that announces him as "winner of the individual award" at the bombing olympic, where he completed with the top bombardiers from seven other bombardier schools.

Equally proud Monday were his teammates, who chalked up a victory for the Midland school in the team competition by topping the scores of teams from Roswell, Deming, Victorville, Albuquerque, Big Spring, Childress and San Angelo bombardier schools to take first place.

Award for the team competition, which will be held by the Midland school "until the next three weeks from Sunday, is a pickle barrel trophy, on which the names of the winning team will be engraved.

The two other members of the nation's top bombing trio are Cadet Clifford L. Coggins, of Agnos, Ark., and Cadet Harry D. Tingey, of Palo, Mo. The competition included dropping bombs from altitudes of one thousand, ten thousand indicated and twelve thousand feet above the ground. For his individual score, Cadet Rice set a new record for the olympic, and following the meet was presented his trophy by Col. John C. Horton, commanding officer of the Roswell Army Air Field.

Kenny Lauds Team

"Our bombardiers made a great showing, and they clearly demonstrated that the training they have received at the Midland Army Air Field has fitted them for the job of blasting any kind of a target, whether it's the thirty-foot 'shack' of a bombing olympic or an Axis factory of battleship in actual combat." Colonel John P. Kenny, commanding officer, declared as he congratulated the winning team members.

Colonel Kenny attended the meet Sunday, accompanied by Col. John D. Ryan, director of training; Major William Richards, director of ground school; Capt. Carl W. Allen, school secretary; and Lt. Robert Wistrand, public relations officer.

Crews & Mast In Andrews Shows For Shallow Pay

By Frank Gardner, Oil Editor
Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Crews & Mast, Northern Andrews County wildcat in section 8, block A-34, psl, three miles west of the north end of the Means pool, is showing for production at the 4,600-4,700-foot level. It originally was slated to drill to 8,500 feet for a test of the lower Permian, and possibly the pre-Permian.

Humble now is preparing to drill-test the well, with total depth 4,674 feet in lime. A previous drill-test, from 4,614-54 feet, open 37 minutes on a 5/8-inch bottom-hole choke, recovered 65 feet of fluid, the top 10 feet of which was drilling mud slightly cut with oil and gas, and the remainder drilling mud. Cores from 4,600 to 4,654 feet showed traces of oil staining and bleeding, with some fracturing and slight porosity. A core from 4,654 to 4,674 feet, present to total depth, returned nine feet of porous lime with a show of gas and a slight show of oil.

Fullerton Producer

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 3 Emily M. Jackson et al, new producer in the Fullerton deep Permian pool of Northwestern Andrews, rated a daily production of 1,668.48 barrels of 42.8-gravity oil, based on a 6-hour gauge through open 2-inch tubing. Gas-oil ratio is 521-1. The well topped pay at 6,740 feet, drilled to 7,221 feet in lime and was acidized with a total of 12 gallons.

Texas Oil Allowable Increase Reported

AUSTIN — (P) — The average daily allowable of Texas oil wells increased 2,436 barrels to 1,589,713 in the week ended June 12, the Railroad Commission reported.

The number of producing wells increased by 33 to 99,817.

Majority Of Fathers To Be In Uniform By End Of Year

WASHINGTON — (P) — The nation's draft-age fathers found little comfort Monday in disclosure by the House appropriations committee that the rate of Army inductions would be cut about 60 per cent after next December, with the bulk of 1944 inductees coming from the teen-age group.

The committee's information came from Paul V. McNutt, War Manpower Commission chairman, and Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, during hearings on the WMC supply bill reported to the House Monday.

It was to the effect that a majority of physically-fit fathers, regardless of their children, would be in uniform by the end of the year. Induction of this class is expected to start in August and run until the end of the year, when the armed forces will aggregate 10,900,000 men.

By the end of this month, McNutt told the committee, the cream of the nation's manpower will have been pretty well exhausted with the armed forces numbering 9,200,000 men. Between July 1 and December 31, inductions will continue, under present schedules, at the rate of an average of 300,000 monthly.

Married men not in uniform at the turn of the year, McNutt indicated, stand a fine chance of never getting into one, since inductions for the first six months of 1944 are expected to total 700,000, or an average of 117,000 monthly. "To represent necessary replacements for attrition and such increase in the net strength as may be approved."

Seattle Club Urges Husbands To Be Kind To Mothers-In-Law June 30 (Even If It Hurts)

SPOKANE, WASH. — (P) — When and if your mother-in-law slaps you down June 30 and with your wife's ming vase, don't be a cad. Grim, brother and kiss her June 30, reversed by womankind as mamma's last chance to get daughter a June husband, will be Mother-In-Law Day throughout the land.

The great gag-masters of the Spokane Athletic Round Table, who dropped a pre-war bombshell on Washington with "Bundles for Congress," came up with the idea Monday and notified all their approximately 2,500 members in the 48 United States to zip up their gruides June 30 and give mother-in-law a happy day.

"Take advantage of the low prices," the notification urged. "Take M-I-L out or take something to her. Our club will help with a big ball."

The club, which in all its famous practical joking has never dared give a mother-in-law a hotfoot, admitted there was a serious thought behind the project but added hastily there "is no pressure back of this idea."

"Thousands of mothers-in-law are home-front soldiers in this war, taking care of the children and the home while the men-folks are at the front and the mothers are in the war industry," said the committee in charge. "It would be a fine gesture to show a little friendship toward the person who has suffered for centuries as the victim of worn-out jokes."

Mass Meeting Of Retailers To Be Held Tuesday

With a number of important matters scheduled for discussion and action, a mass meeting of Midland retail merchants will be held in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbatter at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

Roads At Airport Ordered Closed

Parts of three roads near Midland Airport No. 2, north of the city, were ordered closed Monday by the Commissioners' Court after no protest was presented at the hearing set for 10 o'clock. Government engineers had requested that the action be taken.

Reports of county officials were heard and approved and other routine matters transacted at the meeting of the court.

Industries Need Workers

McNutt emphasized that the 700,000 figure for inductions during the first six months of next year was a figure used for the purpose of planning only and that "no commitments have been made for the armed forces beyond December 31, 1943."

In addition to the manpower needed for the armed services between now and July 1, 1944, he explained, munitions industries must have 1,300,000 additional workers. This figure, added to the 2,400,000 to be inducted by July 1 and allowing for the release of 2,500,000 from civilian industries, he added, leaves a net increase of 1,200,000. Farm labor requirements of 12,000,000 this July are expected to remain unchanged next year.

RAF Again Hits At Nazi Targets

By The Associated Press
While Sicilians watched from their headlands for the coming of the massed air fleets of the Northwest African forces which already had smashed into submission all the lesser islands of Italy's guardian ring, American Liberators dumped tons of bombs on airbases of the threatened Axis stronghold, Allied dispatches said Monday.

Escorted by Spitfire fighters from Malta, a strong force of the four-engined bombers raided Gerbini and Catania airbases at the eastern end of Sicily Sunday, blanketing the Gerbini base where about 25 planes were seen in the target area, and leaving smoke clouds mushrooming from the hangars at Catania from the explosions of about 250,000 pounds of bombs.

Reds Capture Four Villages

MOSCOW — (P) — The Red Army air force has begun its seventh week of fierce air battles which Russians say have cost the Germans 3,319 planes and Soviet scouting detachments reported offensive gains in the Orel "hinge" sector. Striking in that region south of Moscow, the Russian patrols captured four settlements, according to the Soviet midday communique.

A special communique indicated the ferocity and scope of the Russian air assaults on German communications and supplies which were launched in May. The Germans' June losses alone were 1,250 planes shot down, it said and put German air losses last week at 498 craft to Russian losses of 153.

The massive fleets of the Northwest African Air Forces which hammered into unconditional surrender three Italian islands in three days, held their fire for a day, but over the headlands of Sicily soared the huge-winged Liberators of the American Air Force from the desert for attacks on two airfields, Gerbini and Catania.

The British said they lost one bomber in Sunday night's attacks on the Reich, indicating that the raids were on a comparatively small scale. Two enemy supply ships were torpedoed off the Dutch coast in a side operation.

What Bombing Can Do

Herr Goebbels is worried about the Germanic power of endurance. Instructing Nazi newspaper stooges in the lies they are to write, he conceded that the Huns can't take it. That is no news to the rest of us, who have seen other sadistic bullies cave in as soon as the going got tough.

It is, of course, the increasing weight of Allied air power that discourages Nazi Joe. A controlled press can keep many secrets, but can hardly persuade the residents of Essen, for instance, that Goering controls the air. Almost non-stop bombing is cracking the German shell.

Nevertheless, we should not read too much into this. It does not mean, unfortunately, that the Reich is about to collapse and capitulate. No realistic observer expects victory to come until infantry and tanks are, at the least, on their way overland to Berlin.

Bombing can win the war. How it can do this is most easily understood by going back to the last days of Cape Bon.

There some 250,000 crack German troops, as good as any fighting men in the world, were concentrated in a tiny area. They had only a short line to defend, across the neck of the cape, and the mountainous interior was ideal for defense. Yet they collapsed in a matter of hours.

Because no modern army, however capable, courageous and ably led, can fight without tanks, planes, guns, munitions. And we had cut off these quarter or a million men from the tools of their trade.

Bombing can win the war by doing the same thing on a greater scale and by a different process.

Some experts say that if we can devastate less than a score of key German cities as we have destroyed Essen, the war will be won.

Those cities are the sources of the most vital armaments and munitions. At the same time they are being devalitized, transportation and communication lines throughout Hitler's "fortress of Europe" will be broken up.

Then, when Anglo-American-French forces establish their bridgeheads and start for Berlin, the Axis defenders will find themselves as impotent to resist as were the defenders of Cape Bon.

Get Out The Washboard

Laundry owners foresee the time, very soon now, when housewives all over the country may have to do much of their laundering at home. Labor shortages, transportation difficulties and unprecedented demand are pressing the laundries beyond their abilities to serve.

The same situation is arising in connection with dry cleaning. In the South, particularly where summer is hardest on suits, it is becoming difficult to keep spic and span in wash suits.

Does Mother have a washboard tucked away some where? Has Father forgotten how to press a bedraggled suit?

Welcome To Argentina

It seems beyond question now that Argentina is coming in out of the cold, which will make the Western Hemisphere solid against the Axis and remove the last spot in which totalitarian agents can work openly.

This revolutionary upset unquestionably expresses the will of the Argentine masses, who all along have been pro-American. For that reason we shall welcome Argentina the more heartily to the ranks of democracy.

Congress Persists

Having waked up, Congress is proving quite remorseless in insisting upon its constitutional prerogatives as the nation's legislative agency.

First came repeal of that $25,000 salary limitation which the White House enacted against the express will of Congress. Now the solons have challenged the administration's plan to use subsidies to roll back the cost of living, in face of prior congressional disapproval.

The process is leading to a new type of legislation. Instead of telling the executive what he can do, which has been traditional American practice, the Congress now is driven into telling the White House what it cannot do.

It's The Turmoil That Matters

OPA Administrator Prentiss Brown is entirely correct in that he can spare the few dozen citizens who have resigned or may resign from his agency, since some 160,000 will remain.

But can he afford the discord, the turmoil, the uncertainty, the public distrust that this succession of upheavals is causing? We doubt it.

The Germans' defeat in North Africa is their worst since 1918. That is, thus far.

Betsy Beckham Bundy's Advice To The Lovelorn

—I was married when I was 18 years of age. I lived in a town of 10,000 population, and had never been away from my mother and father. I moved with my husband to a city of 250,000 population. There were many things I did not know. I was very unhappy after a short time. I began taking trips back home, and would stay a month at a time. My husband did not like my going home so often and remaining so long, so we began disagreeing, and finally separated. He told me I could get a divorce, so I did. I have never been married since our divorce. That was 18 years ago. He has never married either.

I can see where I was wrong, and probably he can see where he was wrong, but we were both too young and foolish to admit our faults to one another. Recently a mutual friend of mine has come and talked with me, and has tried to make us go back together.

If I am to believe him, I would be willing to forgive and forget. What do you think I am now 46 years of age and my husband is 47. Do you think it is too late for us to try to amend our foolish mistakes?

—Trubled. A—Sometimes when a girl and boy are young and inexperienced they make serious mistakes on account of tempers and bad dispositions. It was unfortunate that you had to go away from all your friends when you were first married.

I would say that if your husband feels that you and he can marry again and be happy, go right on and re-marry.

You have learned the sorrow of separation, and you might be very happy after all these years. However, I would advise that you not discuss the causes of separation. Do not enter into any conversation that would lead to the discussion of the past unhappiness.

You are older now and so is he, and I would let the past be buried and re-marry the man who was your chosen mate earlier in your life.

Sunset Motor Lines Extends Service With Direct Connection To Lubbock

Sunset Motor Lines, one of the major truck lines serving this area, has expanded its service through the leasing of the Lang Motor Freight concern which operated from Big Spring to Lubbock. The deal became effective June 1 and Sunset now operates through motor freight service from Houston, San Antonio and South Texas points to Lubbock through Big Spring and Lamesa.

Clarence M. Lang, former operator of the Lang Motor Freight, has become Lubbock manager for Sunset, and all personnel of the Lang concern is remaining with Sunset. R. B. Riddle, manager of the Midland office at 307 South Marienfield, said.

Under the new setup, Sunset in addition to operating north from Big Spring, has service west to El Paso, southwest to Crane, Mc-

Modern Cleaning Plant

Pictured above is the modern building of the Fashion Cleaners, 412 West Texas Avenue. The plant is equipped throughout with modern equipment and work is handled by skilled employees.

Winter Clothes Should Be Given Proper Cleaning

The wartime scarcity of fabrics and possible rationing of clothes makes every garment extremely valuable.

This is the reminder from the Fashion Cleaners, 412 West Texas Avenue, which is ready to help Midland Countians take care of their out-of-season clothes.

"The most essential part of care of clothing is proper cleaning," A. B. McCain, manager, says. "It is soiled clothing that is most liable to attack by moths."

If moths are put into cedar, they will not leave it, contrary to common opinion, but remain to riddle valuable fabrics. Many persons contaminate their cedar chests by putting soiled garments, blankets, comforts, etc.—and moths—into them.

That is why proper cleaning is so important. The Fashion Cleaners is ready to clean winter clothing and other materials. Because of wartime restrictions, plenty of time to do the job right is asked.

Many Holders Of B And C Cards Now Are Eligible To Purchase Grade One Tires

Holders of B and C cards now are eligible to purchase grade one tires if they drive more than 240 miles per month and their present tires can no longer be recapped. M. M. Fulton, owner of the Fulton Tire Company, points out. He invites those persons who are in need of tires to let the employees assist them in filling out application blanks.

Used passenger car and truck tires may now be purchased without certificates from the rationing board, he said. Persons needing tires may buy used ones direct from the dealers.

The Fulton Tire Company, located at 122 North Main Street, handles tires, tubes and batteries exclusively and is prepared to fill almost all needs in these lines. He also has a large stock of used tires and tubes for sale.

The Fulton company specializes in Goodyear tires, tubes and batteries, and carries a complete stock as it is possible to obtain. Goodyear's patented LifeGuard tubes are widely known and motorists who use them are highly satisfied with the service they give. Goodyear tires long have been leaders in the field. Persons who obtain rationing certificates for new tires and tubes are urged to see Goodyear first, and employees of the Fulton Tire Company will be glad to point out the better features of these tires and tubes.

Firestone Store Offers Free Book On Gardening To Citizens Of Area

In support of a "back-to-the-soil" movement instituted by thousands of Americans who are going to plant Victory Gardens to help solve our nation's food problem, the Farm Service Bureau of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. has published a pocket-size garden book which is free to those who ask for it at the local Firestone store at 624 West Wall.

The book, said Pierre Gomer, manager, is entitled "Helpful Information for Growing a Successful Victory Garden" and is based on latest scientific principles of vegetable growing and reflect the Firestone company's 27 years experience as sponsor of its employees' gardens, one of the largest industrial gardening projects in existence. Last year employees produced a total of $63,700 worth of vegetables.

Not only will Victory Gardeners find the free booklet very handy, but they may find their gardening needs satisfied at Firestone. From seed to working tools, the store has a practical assortment of things needed to help plant and grow a garden.

These include rakes (metal ones), shovels, spades, hoes, leaf rakes, trowels, clippers, dandelion spuds (good for weeding) and even a grass whip (instrument that may be welded effectively like a golf club). For the lawn there are mowers, sprinklers, etc., and lawn and garden either may be benefited by an assortment of plastic nozzles. Fertilizers are available.

Soldier Offers Good Absence Explanation

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The professor thought he had heard them all, but a soldier-student's explanation for absence from class was a new one even to Dr. Marlon E. Bunch, associate professor of psychology at Washington University.

He had just finished teaching an evening class which meets once a week when the soldier volunteered:

"I'd like to tell you why I wasn't here last week. I happened to be in Australia that night."

Dice were used by North American Indians as early as 1636.

SHOT

CHAPTER XI

CONNIE stood up. Her nervous fingers were tugging at the knot of the scarf around her shoulders. "I lost it one evening last week—taking a walk after dinner," she said jerkily.

"I couldn't bear to look at her face. I looked down and that was how I happened to see the sequin-weighted scarf slipping from her shoulders. She had unconsciously untied it. And then I stared. Slipping across one shoulder and white arm was an ugly purplish-red blouse."

Shaw couldn't see it, she was facing him. I must do something before he did.

But I needn't have worried. He had something urgent on his mind for the moment. His men had been searching the upstairs while he kept us occupied in the living room, and panning for gold dust they had found a nugget. Shaw drew a piece of paper from his pocket.

"Perhaps you can explain this, too, Mrs. Kraik. We found it in the wastebasket in your room." He held out the piece of paper for her to see.

Connie shrank back as if he had struck her.

He read the note aloud: "I'm hiding in the old play cave. Come this evening. I've got to see you. It's a matter of life and death. Derek."

It is marvelous in a split second how many thoughts can crowd into the human mind. I saw Connie wearing slacks and a coat to hide this hurt on her arm; Connie fainting over Derek's body; Connie insisting that I phone for Walter—that she simply had to have him; Connie wanting a lawyer; Connie searching my room (the room I occupied now, the mulberry room that had been hers until some time Wednesday afternoon), searching for a book, she had said, and coming out with that lost look upon her face.

"WAS it this note she had been looking for? This note that she had read and laid down somewhere, and that had only assumed tragic importance after Derek was murdered. And then, perhaps, she couldn't remember in her excitement where she had left it. But it didn't make sense—Connie did not know Derek."

I looked at the girl. She was swaying on her feet. She gave Shaw a despairing look. "I killed him—but I didn't mean to."

Walter jumped forward and pushed Connie back down on the divan. He wasn't very gentle about it and his face was awful.

"Connie, you don't know what you're saying. Keep quiet!"

She looked at him pathetically. "Oh, yes, I know, Walter." Her breath caught. "I can't go on trying to hide it. I've nearly died. I've got to tell this man—"

She turned back to Shaw. "I didn't mean to kill him. I only pushed him hard—to keep him from kissing me. We were standing about half way down the bank of the ravine, so that no one could see us from the house. It was pretty steep there, and when I shoved him we both lost our balance. I fell against a tree, that's when I hurt my shoulder, and he fell—down in the ravine. I saw him lying there on his back, but I didn't think he was hurt badly. I just turned and ran. That's when I lost my heel. He—he must have crawled back up the side of the ravine—before he died."

Shaw was staring at her. "When did this happen, Mrs. Kraik?"

"Wednesday evening—after dinner."

"That was the evening of the day you got his note—the day before you found his body?"

Connie nodded agreement.

"WHAT did Derek Grady want to see you about—what did he mean by that note?" Shaw pursued.

"He wanted money to get away on. He said he was in trouble with the police."

"You took him the money, and then he tried to make love to you? Is that it?"

Walter broke in violently. "This is nonsense. She didn't even know the man."

Connie drew away from Walter. Her voice was ashamed. "Yes, I knew him—but I didn't know that he was the Derek you knew. I met him a long time ago when he came to live with his father, who was a neighbor of ours. I went around with him a lot the summer before I went away to nurse's training school."

Something clicked in my mind. I knew now why the address on Wheatland avenue that the newspaper had given as Derek's home had been familiar. Of course, that was the same street where Connie had lived before she married Walter.

"Did you give him some money?" Shaw persisted.

"No," Connie said slowly. "I didn't have any here at the house. I told him to go away at once or we would call the police—and then—then..."

Shaw cut short her misery. "No need to go over that again, Mrs. Kraik. Just one more question. Who brought you the note from Derek Grady?"

"His grandmother," Connie said. Two spots of red began to burn in her white cheeks.

Shaw's face was pretty grim. Connie watched it like a bird fascinated by a snake.

"Do I have to go with you now?" Her voice was a whisper.

The deputy shook his head, and his next words brought me out of a bad dream. "No, you don't have to go with me. You didn't kill Derek Grady—if you're telling the truth. Your story explains the injury on the back of his head, but that wasn't what killed him. He was shot."

Forger Turns Talents Into Better Channels

HUNTSVILLE — (AP) — Muri Sloan of Kansas, who has landed in prison twice for illegally writing his name to checks, is being given a chance to develop his art into more legitimate channels at Huntsville prison.

A professional artist who, by his own admission, never seemed to get off on the right foot in the outside world, Sloan is brightening up the south walls of the east building dormitory at the prison with a series of mural paintings that have attracted attention.

Portrait of Governor
There's an almost life-size portrait of Governor Coke R. Stevenson, which Sloan painted from a small photograph snapped as the governor lighted his pipe.

There's a portrait of President Roosevelt, with his smile and his long cigaret holder tipped upward. And another of General Douglas MacArthur.

There's a bull moose, in a North Woods setting, sounding the mating call, and a desert scene, with adobe house, broken barbed wire fence, corral and cowboy engaged in breaking a bucking bronco.

War Boosts Bald Domes In London

DES MOINES — (AP) — Many men and women who have been under the strain of long working hours and nervous anxiety in London are losing their hair, Herbert Agar, special assistant to the United States Ambassador to England, asserted in a speech to the Chamber of Commerce.

"Once it starts there doesn't seem to be anything to do about it but just go on losing your hair until it is gone," he added.

Lieutenant Marries WAVE After Calldown

FORT WAYNE, IND. — (AP) — A romance that started with failure of a WAVE to seduce an Army officer and an ensuing reprimand, ended with the exchange of marriage vows Friday at Baer Field.

The principals were First Lieut. Irving Levy, former Chicago lawyer, and Harriet Mindich, formerly of New York and now with the WAVES in Cleveland.

Their romance started when both were on duty in Indianapolis. She failed to salute in passing Lieutenant Levy and he "called her" for it.

At Least Something Was Brilliant There

TUSCALOOSA, ALA. — (AP) — "I think we've got a hot wire in the ceiling," said an excited feminine voice calling the fire department.

"Wait a minute, it's out. No, there it is again."

Firemen rushed to the dormitory for girl vocational students near the University of Alabama campus and removed a large lightning bug from an empty socket.

The Feminine Touch

America's Card Authority

One of the winners of the recent Vanderbilt Tournament, Harold A. Fagin of New Haven, Conn., wrote me that he was going into the Army. He closed a hand with the comment that the fellow who held the East cards should go into the Army—maybe they would teach him not to tip his hand off to the enemy, as he did here with this double. After the double, Jack Merriam of New Haven, the declarer, was able to place all the missing high cards in the East hand.

On the opening lead Merriam played low from dummy. East put up the queen and declarer won with the ace of clubs. He led a small diamond, reasoning that East must

New Disease With High Death Rate Appears In U. S.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The appearance of a new and as yet unidentified disease, with a high mortality rate but apparently not widespread, was disclosed Monday by release of testimony before the House appropriation committee by U. S. Public Health Service physicians.

Dr. R. F. Dyer of the service, said discovery of the disease was a "rather astonishing sort of thing," but declared the causative agent had been isolated in animals and expressed confidence that "given a little time we will find out what it is."

The disease was first discovered near New Iberia, La., with 17 cases resulting in eight deaths. Most of the deaths occurred among nurses who cared for the original cases.

"Since then," said Dr. Dyer, "we have heard of some suspicious cases, one case occurring in an Army camp. This is apparently a newly discovered disease in the pneumonia group. A disease which will kill eight out of 117 people is a rather serious thing.

"Why it should start in an isolated community we do not know. We have a rather indefinite history of some muskrats in the neighborhood having died a little bit before the disease appeared in human beings. But this disease goes well in animals, and given a little time we will find out what it is."

Hannah Dempsey's Counter-Claim For Divorce Dismissed. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — (AP) — Hannah Williams Dempsey's counter claim for divorce from Jack Dempsey was dismissed by a supreme court referee Monday, leaving at issue only the former heavyweight champion's suit for divorce and his wife's counter claim for separation.

When Yvette Colbert, a witness called in support of the former musical comedy stage star, failed to respond to a subpoena, Mrs. Dempsey's attorney asked Referee J. Addison Young to delete the first cause of action in her counter claim—seeking a divorce.

Immediately Dempsey's attorney, Arthur F. Driscoll, moved for dismissal of the divorce counter claim and the motion was granted.

The suit brought by Dempsey, now a lieutenant commander in the Coast Guard, charged his wife with misconduct, naming Benny Woodall, former fight trainer, and Lew Jenkins, onetime lightweight champion, as co-respondents. Adultery is the only ground for divorce in New York State.

After the dismissal, Gerald Donovan, Mrs. Dempsey's attorney, rested the separation suit with the exception of one bit of proof he said would be presented later.

Demonstrations also have been given in San Angelo, Fort Worth, Dallas and El Paso.

White House Gets Anti-Strike Bill. WASHINGTON — (AP) — Drastic anti-strike legislation was headed for the White House Monday as near normal operations were resumed in the nation's war-vital coal pits.

The bill, given final approval by the Senate Saturday night, forbids walkouts in government-operated industries and provides fines or imprisonment for persons guilty of instigating work stoppages in government-operated plants or mines.

Lewis Stays Silent. The measure, congressional proponents said was a direct blow at John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers.

Spokesmen for both the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations declared they would appeal directly to President Roosevelt to veto the bill. Mr. Roosevelt has ten days in which to sign the bill, veto it or allow it to become law without his signature.

Escaped Germans Being Sought In Central Oklahoma. OKLAHOMA CITY — (AP) — The search for two German prisoners of war who escaped from internment at Camp Hood, Tex., extended to Central Oklahoma Monday where two foot-wear hikers turned up at a farm house.

W. G. Banister, special agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said one of the two men asked for a drink of water and inquired the way to Oklahoma City.

The farmer who reported the incident to officers at nearby Pauls Valley, said one man was wearing blue denim trousers and a white shirt, the other blue denim trousers and shirt.

Ludwig Jung, one of the fugitives, speaks English. He is understood, while Harold Stallecker, the other, does not. The farmer said one of the men did all the talking.

Five other war prisoners who escaped have been retaken.

United Nations Join In Flag Day Program. By The Associated Press. Banners of all the United Nations were massed with the Stars and Stripes Monday in the first joint celebration of the heretofore strictly American observance of Flag Day.

President Roosevelt in his official proclamation setting June 14 aside for united tribute to the emblems of the 32 nations representing the "massed, angered forces of common humanity," called upon the United States to display the Allied flags side by side with their own.

In Washington, as elsewhere, the new "flag of the four freedoms" was flown publicly for the first time to represent all the United Nations. Chosen by popular poll, the flag consists of a white field emblazoned with four upright bars of red, representing the principles of the Atlantic Charter: freedom of speech, and religion, and freedom from want and fear.

Court Overrules Previous Decision On Flag Saluting

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Supreme Court overruled Monday a decision it delivered in 1940 and held that school children can not constitutionally be required to salute the American flag if they had religious scruples against such action.

Justice Jackson delivered the decision, involving a challenge by members of "Jehovah's Witnesses" of a flag-salute requirement by the West Virginia board of education.

Justices Roberts and Reed dissented.

"We think the action of the local authorities in compelling the flag salute and pledge," Jackson asserted, "transcends constitutional limitations on their power and invades the sphere of intellect and spirit which it is the purpose of the first amendment to our constitution to reserve from all official control."

No Dissent Reported. In its June 3, 1940, decision, the court sustained the constitutionality of a flag salute regulation by the Minersville (Pennsylvania) School District. It also was challenged by "Jehovah's Witnesses" who contended that saluting a flag constituted idolatry.

Chief Justice Stone was the lone dissenter at the time. But, since then, Justices Black, Douglas and Murphy, who had participated in the majority decision, expressed the view that the case had been "wrongly decided."

Justice Frankfurter who wrote the 1940 majority opinion, announced no dissent from Monday's action. Both Justices Rutledge and Jackson, who were not members of the court in 1940, joined in the majority opinion.

Venereal Disease Rate High Among Southern Negroes

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congress learned Monday that in the examination of 44 states, were given 21 through 35, for the armed services 47.7 out of each 1,000 were found to have syphilis, and that the prevalence among negroes in one southern state ran to 405.9 in each 1,000.

The figures, based on a study of the first 2,000,000 selectees examined in 44 states, were given to the House appropriations committee by the Public Health Service.

Dr. Thomas Parran, Surgeon General, said rejections ran to 46,000 in each 1,000,000 men on account of syphilis and 15,000 of each 1,000,000 due to gonorrhea infection.

If this nation held through the examination of 10,000,000 men, there would be over 610,000 rejections due to venereal diseases.

Dr. R. A. Vonderlehr, of the health service, gave the committee the figures on the rate of syphilis per 1,000 males, 21 to 35 years old, as follows:

White: New Mexico 54.2; Texas 53.4; Oklahoma 39.5.

Negro: Texas 343.2; New Mexico 304.8; Arizona 295.8; Oklahoma 254.5.

Pro Grid Clubs Will Carry On, Layden Declares

CHICAGO — (AP) — Pointing to the success of baseball as a pattern for the future, Elmer Layden, commissioner of the National Football League, said Monday he was confident that the nine club owners who last April pledged themselves to carry on would go ahead with their 1943 plans for a league meeting in Chicago Saturday and Sunday.

The main purpose of the special session will be to adopt schedules which had to be redrawn when Cleveland pulled out of the league. There will be no supplemental selection of collegians, he said, for most of those graduating between June and October were included in the player draft last spring.

"I think our members feel that now is the time to assert ourselves, to show that pro football is deserving of its high position in the sports world. Baseball surely had as many problems last year, if not more, than now confront us. I am sure the league will prove it can survive under trying conditions."

No Merger Seen
Discarding talk of mergers, such as the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Philadelphia Eagles, Layden declared:

"We won't have talent comparable to that of last year and we can't think in these times of great unbeatable teams, but there will be no lessening of competition. Games will be just as hard-fought and exciting as ever. Baseball and other sports have proved that competition is the big factor."

He added that club owners have always recognized the importance of competitive sports and have not been guided by the dollar sign.

"Many of them have lost money in normal seasons. Some of them never have realized any profit. But still they continue."

Pauline Betz Holds Favorites' Spot In Clay Courts Tourney
DETROIT — (AP) — All bets were on Pauline Betz of Los Angeles Monday in her bid for a third national championship as the 33rd annual clay courts tournament opened a seven-day stand at the Detroit Tennis Club.

Miss Betz, holder of the national grass courts and indoor titles, was matched in the first round with 16-year-old Joanne Dunn of Des Moines, Ia., and nobody expected the champion to have too much trouble. Inasmuch as other nationally ranked players are missing from the field of 21, it may be easy all the way for Miss Betz if she's on her game.

In the men's division, however, champion Seymour Greenberg of Chicago is seeded second behind Billy Talbert of Cincinnati, whom he beat in last year's semifinals at St. Louis, and there may be fireworks. Greenberg is to open, probably Tuesday, against Robert Kimball of Los Angeles, and Talbert starts with Kimbark Peterson of Detroit.

Host Pro Leads In Amateur Golf Meet
AMARILLO — (AP) — Gene Root, host pro, led all the way in Amarillo's open war bond golf tournament and came out winner Sunday with a 209 for 54 holes.

Todd Houck, Borgers Huber Country Club pro, was second with 211 and Pvt. Henry Casillo, former Baton Rouge pro, was third with 213.

Amarillo City Champion Jimmy Moore led the amateurs with a 217.

Sgt. Grover Austin, Pampa and Santa Maria, Calif., was among the leading amateurs with a 71-71-76 for 218, tying J. R. Brown of Amarillo for second place.

Once-Proud New York Giants Are Fast Slipping To Bottom

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Sports Writer
The New York Giants, once the proudest team in baseball, are brushing close to the bottom of the National League and rapidly becoming an object of scorn both for the fans and for rival clubs.

In two doubleheaders over the week-end the groggy Giants lost three out of four games to the bustling Philadelphia Phillies and dropped within half a game of last place.

Except for Carl Hubbell, they would be there now, too, for the Giants have dropped 11 of their last 13 decisions and Hubbell has accounted for the only two victories they have scored since May 30.

Hubbell, who used to be called Terry's meal ticket, still is the bread and butter man of the Giants. No longer the pitcher he used to be, he nevertheless shut out the Pittsburgh Pirates on one hit June 5 and Sunday held the Phillies to seven as New York won the first game of a doubleheader 6-2 before 14,993 paying customers, the smallest crowd of the day in the major leagues.

The Giants gave him plenty of help with 16 hits, three of them homers, but they quieted down in the nightcap which the Phillies won 6-3 with a four-run rally in the ninth. This outbreak was climaxed by Babe Dahlgren's double with the bases loaded.

Before getting his two-bagger, Dahlgren was hit by a pitch. The Giants argued he had stepped into the ball and should be out for leaving the batter's box, but Umpire Beans ruled he should bat again. This led to the game winning double and caused Manager Mel Ott to say later he would protest the game.

Beans Halve Pair
The Brooklyn Dodgers halved a doubleheader with the Boston Braves, but gained half a game on the first place St. Louis Cardinals when darkness kept the world champions from deciding their second game against Pittsburgh after the Pirates had won the first.

Nate Andrews beat the Dodgers 4-3 in the opener at Ebbets Field and Billy Herman decided the nightcap in Brooklyn's favor 3-2 with a two-run homer, his first of the year, in the eighth inning.

At St. Louis the Pirates scored seven runs in the first inning of their first game, in which they made 16 hits to win 10-3, but the second session went 12 innings to a 4-4 tie before darkness fell.

In the other National League affair Cincinnati split with Chicago. The Reds made 20 hits in the first game, rolling up a total of 48 safeties in their first three games against the Cubs, and winning 10-6. But Bill Lee stopped them on seven hits in the afterpiece which the Cubs won 4-1.

Yankees Streak Broken
The New York Yankees' five-game winning streak was snapped at Philadelphia as the Athletics swept a doubleheader 5-3 and 3-2. A squeeze bunt by Jojo White brought in the deciding runs in the first game and Jim Tysack, who had straggled to tie the score in the opener, batted in all three of the A's runs in the nightcap with a triple and a single.

This helped Washington shave a game off the Yankees' lead as the Senators split a pair at Boston. They took the first 16-5 with an 18-hit offensive, but were shut out by the four-hit hurling of Tex Hughson in the second session.

Detroit took charge of third place by beating the Chicago White Sox twice, 6-4 and 3-2. Tommy Bridges, allowing only nine hits and fanning nine, was responsible for the first victory and Dury York played a major role in the second, driving in two runs with a pair of doubles.

The Cleveland Indians saved themselves from a complete rout by the St. Louis Browns by winning the second game of their doubleheader after they had lost the first four contests of a five-game series. The Browns took Sunday's opener 3-1 with the Indians capturing the second 2-1 in ten innings.

Everything Happens To Norfolk Ball Club
NORFOLK, VA. — (AP) — Anything can happen now, and it would come as a big surprise in the Norfolk Naval Air Station baseball club.

The Airmen have already put in a bid for the "hard-luck" title of the nation's service baseball ranks. First, they lost one of their star pitchers, Ralph Hammer, Texas League ace, for a month because of the mumps.

Next, Ches Hadjuk, an outfielder who was hitting the ball at a 407 clip, was transferred. And the Flyers have lost 11 of their first 22 contests. Seven of the 11 losses were by one run, and two of these saw the opposition stage spectacular ninth-inning rallies to go out in front.

PIGEON DRAFT DUE
CHICAGO — (AP) — The winners among 1,000 pigeons which will compete in a 500-mile derby sponsored by the American Pigeon Racing Union Sunday are expected to be drafted by the government for military communication work.

Both Haegg, who established seven world records in Sweden last summer and now is in training at Eanover, N. H., and Rice winner of 65 consecutive races, have complained of their poor form with such ease and regularity in the past week that A. A. U. officials are positive neither could be winded in a mere 5,000 yards. That's three miles plus 188 yards in U. S. measure.

Haegg Holds Record
The badge-wearers point to the similarity between the present Rice-Haegg rivalry and the moans with which Glenn Cunningham, former mile ace from Kansas, preceded each of his victories.

Haegg is the world record holder at 5,000 meters, having been clocked in 13:58.2 at Goteburg, Sweden, last September. Rice won the A. A. U. crown at the same distance a year ago in 14:39.7 with his closest rival yards behind.

If the Haegg-Rice duel comes up as expected, they probably will be opposed by a field which will include Midshipman Fred Witt, formerly of Indiana but now at Columbia University; Jerry Thompson of Texas, national collegiate two-mile king and various district champions.

Former Tiger Ball Player Now Playing In More Vital Game
Shortstop Cornelius J. Berry has postponed his journey toward the major leagues to play in the biggest world series in history.

Berry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen R. Berry of Kalamazoo, Mich., showed such baseball ability at Kalamazoo High School and Western University that the Detroit Tigers signed him up after one year of college.

He was farmed to the Winston-Salem, N. C. club of the Piedmont League where his performance at short earned him a place on the league's all-star team and a promotion to Beaumont of the Texas League. However, he decided Uncle Sam needed his services so he enlisted in the Army Air Forces and is now stationed at the bombardier school here.

He is on the physical department staff, with the grade of private first class. Since he is only 21 years old Berry expects to have a successful baseball career when he's through helping to win the slugfest against the Axis.

Babe Ruth set a world series record as a pitcher by hurling 29 consecutive scoreless innings.

Gunder Haegg To Race Greg Rice In A.A.U. Meet

NEW YORK — (AP) — Gunder Haegg's decision to try for the 5,000 meter title in the National A. A. U. track championships virtually sews up the first of his awaited duels with Greg Rice.

Rice hasn't formally entered, but is expected to do so shortly, despite the long and loud laments concerning his condition.

Both Haegg, who established seven world records in Sweden last summer and now is in training at Eanover, N. H., and Rice winner of 65 consecutive races, have complained of their poor form with such ease and regularity in the past week that A. A. Former Tiger Ball Player Now Playing In More Vital Game
Shortstop Cornelius J. Berry has postponed his journey toward the major leagues to play in the biggest world series in history.

Berry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen R. Berry of Kalamazoo, Mich., showed such baseball ability at Kalamazoo High School and Western University that the Detroit Tigers signed him up after one year of college.

He was farmed to the Winston-Salem, N. C. club of the Piedmont League where his performance at short earned him a place on the league's all-star team and a promotion to Beaumont of the Texas League. However, he decided Uncle Sam needed his services so he enlisted in the Army Air Forces and is now stationed at the bombardier school here.

He is on the physical department staff, with the grade of private first class. Since he is only 21 years old Berry expects to have a successful baseball career when he's through helping to win the slugfest against the Axis.

Babe Ruth set a world series record as a pitcher by hurling 29 consecutive scoreless innings.

Eastern Football Prospects Still In Dark With Many Schools Undecided

By Harold Claassen
NEW YORK — (AP) — You can't get a clear picture of the 1943 Eastern football situation unless you can work a slide rule numbered with multiple 4's and various naval ensignia such as V-12, plus a sparse combination of Army and Marine emblems.

Harvard has dropped the sport but Yale, a sister member of the big three, has arranged a 10-game split with multiple 4's and various naval ensignia such as V-12, plus a sparse combination of Army and Marine emblems.

German Spies Helped Japanese Plan Infamous Attack On Pearl Harbor

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Office of War Information reported Monday that German espionage agents helped the Japanese prepare their attack on Pearl Harbor and at least one of them was sentenced to death, but the sentence later was commuted.

The report said Bernard Julius Otto Kuehn, a Nazi agent, was tried before a military commission in Honolulu on charges of betraying the United States fleet in Pearl Harbor to the Japanese five days before the Dec. 7, 1941, attack. He was convicted on Feb. 21, 1942, and sentenced to be shot. On Oct. 26, 1942, the sentence was commuted to 50 years at hard labor. The basis for the commutation was not given.

Family Interned
Members of Kuehn's family have been interned for the duration, either in Hawaii or in this country. They include Mrs. Kuehn; her son, Eberhard Martin Kuehn, and a daughter by her previous marriage, Suse Kaete Ruth Kuehn.

The OWI report, based on information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said Kuehn went to Honolulu in 1935 for the ostensible purpose of studying Japanese, and in three years banked more than $70,000.

Picked up on Dec. 8, 1941, Kuehn and his wife at first denied they ever had any negotiations with the Japanese government, OWI said, adding:

"But increasing evidence from the FBI contradicted their assertions and on Dec. 30, 1941, Kuehn signed a statement admitting he had prepared the system of signals for the Japanese consul-general which the latter had dispatched to Tokyo in his message of Dec. 3."

Signals Are Used
The signals, OWI explained, were for use in reporting the movements of the American fleet at Pearl Harbor.

"One such signal was a light in a dormer window of a house in Kalamia," the report said. "Special agents of the FBI had no difficulty in locating the house with the dormer window. It was owned and occupied by Kuehn and his wife, Friedel, x x x"

"Inquiries had brought out the fact that the Kuehns also had a beach house at Lanikai. And another of the signals mentioned in the message in possession of the FBI was a light in the beach house at Lanikai."

Witnesses Suppression Is Declared Invalid
MELBOURNE — (AP) — Suppression of the Jehovah's witnesses, religious organization, under the national security subversive regulations was declared invalid Monday by Australia's highest court.

Columbia and Penn, however, didn't step out of the Ivy league when Harvard quit and created vacancies in both schedules. They simply agreed to a home and home series.

Production Of Goods For Civilians Not To Be Resumed This Year
WASHINGTON — (AP) — A high War Production Board official Monday declared it would be "hardly possible to think of restoring cut-off civilian goods to production until late next year."

The official, who preferred to remain anonymous, said it would be "fatal" to reduce military allocations of metal and other materials further than already has been done. Any substantially deeper cuts, he said, "could prolong the war by six months."

He acknowledged that pressure was strong for some resumption of civilian consumer goods, particularly from legislators who have been informed by retail and wholesale businessmen that they face shutdowns unless they can restock their shelves.

Estimates of military needs submitted by the armed services already have been "cut to bedrock," he said—cut so deeply, in fact, that complaints from the Army, Navy and Maritime Commission spurred WPB to seek $1,000,000 additional tons of steel production in July, August and September, as disclosed Saturday.

Columbia and Penn, however, didn't step out of the Ivy league when Harvard quit and created vacancies in both schedules. They simply agreed to a home and home series.
