Axis Expected To Abandon Sicily

Invaders Take 13 More Towns In Rapid Drive

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA—(AP)—The Allied command announced the capture of 13 more towns along the moon-shaped Sicilian front Friday and observers said the enemy might henceforth be compelled to fight a defensive rearguard action while withdrawing from the island.

More than 18,000 Axis prisoners had been drawn into the Allied bag in an invasion that was only in its seventh day.

Surging ahead toward Catania, half way up the east coast, in a drive to chop off Messina, possible evacuation port, the veterans of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery "made further progress against German troops who desperately contested every inch of the ground," said Friday's communique from Allied headquarters.

"Severe losses were inflicted upon the enemy" by the American Seventh Army of Lt. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., which "advanced several miles across difficult hill country and captured further important positions," the communique added.

Advance Satisfactory

Although the headquarters bulletin said the "speed of the advance is very satisfactory" it called attention to the limiting factor of Allied transport and supporting weapons at this stage of the operations.

The reorganized Hermann Goerring tank division of the Germans had suffered heavy losses in attempting to oppose the British push toward Catania, headquarters reports said, but the German 15th armored division was known to be in reserve.

However, observers expressed the opinion that the enemy, with only limited and doubtful forces at his disposal, had staked most of his resources in this effort to hold the Allies south of Catania and that his defenses were disintegrating.

They expressed confidence that with "an appreciable number of tanks" already in Sicily the Allies would be able to deal satisfactorily with any counterattack the enemy might mount.

Naples, Pummelled

In addition it was said Allied air-borne and sea-borne forces were likely to arrive, and strong naval forces continued to support the British right flank from the sea.

In their latest action, Allied warships again shelled Catania.

The taking of Vizzini put the British astride the central highway connecting the Axis eastern and western front. Vizzini is on the slopes of the Iblea Mountains and about 25 miles west of Augusta.

Nazi Divisions Reeling

Soviets Driving On Orel In Great Two-Pronged Attack

MOSCOW—(AP)—The Russians struck fresh blows at the Germans Friday from points 37 miles north and 25 miles east of Orel, sending elements of ten Nazi divisions reeling back and scattered in rain-soaked forests and fields.

Other Red divisions whittled down the minor German gains in the Belgorod bulge some 165 miles to the south and repulsed all fresh enemy attacks which continued at a furious pace, dispatches said.

German tank losses had reached the enormous toll of 3,052; 1,886 planes had been destroyed; and upwards of 54,000 men had been killed or captured in the 12 day battle of attrition, on the basis of official Russian estimates.

Three Towns Retaken

(The German communique persisted in calling the Russian offensive north and east of Orel "relief attacks" but said the drive was on a 90-mile front between Orel and Sukhinichi. The Berlin broadcast said 500 tanks and 49 planes were destroyed there Thursday. The Nazi command asserted that their army made additional gains north of Belgorod and encircled a strong Soviet group. Russian counter-attacks were said to have weakened.)

In a special communique Thursday night announcing the counter-offensive launched three days ago, the Russians said their swift thrusts north and east of Orel, 200 miles south of Moscow, had resulted in a 28-mile advance that recaptured 110 towns, left more than 12,000 Germans dead and destroyed 109 Nazi tanks, 294 planes and 47 guns besides capturing piles of supplies.

The special bulletin said the column attacking from the north of Orel had penetrated 28 miles into the German line to within 18 miles of the Orel-Bryansk railway and the other column driving from the east had pushed ahead 15 miles on an 18-mile front to within 28 miles of the city.

10 Divisions Routed

In the Belgorod area at the southern end of the active front, where the Nazis registered minor gains at the start of their offensive on July 5, the Russians said the Germans threw more men and tanks into the fighting in a renewed effort to crack the Red Army's (Continued on Page 2)

Brilliant Move Catches Enemy Forces Napping

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTH-WEST PACIFIC—(AP)—Outwitting the wily Japanese at his own jungle game of stealing up from behind, American and Australian fighters of Gen. Douglas MacArthur possessed the Mubo gateway to Salamaua Friday after wiping out 950 surprised defenders in a brilliant New Guinea maneuver.

The abrupt collapse of hill positions bestride which the Japanese for months barred the way along the jungle track leading to their Salamaua air base, 12 miles to the north, was announced in a communique which also recorded a spectacular air victory.

Over Rendova Island in the Central Solomons, 45 Japanese planes were shot down out of a formation of approximately 80 while on near-by New Georgia American jungle fighters edged still closer to the enemy's key air base of Munda. Jap Tactics Used

The selfsame tactics the Japanese employed with such bewildering success against the British on their advance down the Malay Peninsula upon Singapore—infiltration to the rear—proved their undoing at Mubo.

On June 30, while the right prong of the present Pacific offensive got underway against Munda, the left prong was established by American forces who braved the treacherous reefs to land at Nassau Bay on Northeast New Guinea, 12 miles down the coast from Salamaua.

A highly secretive operation began at that point. Stealthily these forces, some lugging heavy guns by hand over jungle paths, moved inland along the valley of the Bitou River toward Mubo's rear.

Hill Pulverized

After Americans and Australians conquered Southeastern New Guinea in mid-January by destroying a Japanese army of 15,000, Australians had moved through the jungle north more than 150 miles toward Salamaua. But they found the Japanese entrenched on observation Hill, Green Hill, the Pimple and other Mubo strongpoints.

From spring until the current offensive, it was a stalemate.

Friday's communique from General MacArthur, who now is in the field in New Guinea in personal charge of the campaign, disclosed that the Americans who moved inland from Nassau Bay joined the Australians July 10 at Bulgap Creek, cutting communications and isolating the Japanese on Observation and Green hills.

Observation Hill was overrun after 106 tons of bombs fell among its demoralized defenders in less than 45 minutes from Allied planes. From front and rear, other enemy defenses at Mubo were stormed.

Munda Is Menaced

"Our ground forces have now cleared the Mubo area of all organized enemy resistance and are pressing on Komiatum (five miles from Salamaua)," the communique said.

"Approximately 950 enemy troops were destroyed. Our losses were light."

People Told To Surrender Or Be Blasted Out Of Conflict

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill Friday gave Italy her choice—to surrender honorably, or be blasted out of the war.

In a virtual ultimatum, the Allied leaders said the time has come for the Italian people "to decide whether Italians shall die for Mussolini and Hitler—or live for Italy and civilization."

The statement added: "The skies over Italy are dominated by the vast air armadas of the United States and Great Britain," and "Italy's sea coasts are threatened by the greatest accumulation of British and Allied sea power ever concentrated in the Mediterranean."

In a joint statement issued simultaneously at the White House and in London the two United Nations leaders told the people of Italy that the sole hope of Italy's survival "lies in honorable capitulation to the overwhelming power of the military forces of the United Nations."

Must Suffer Consequences

"If you continue to tolerate the Fascist regime which serves the evil power of the Nazis, you must suffer the consequences of your own choice," the statement said.

With Allied forces sweeping across Sicily toward the Italian mainland, the President and British Prime Minister in their message broadcast to Italy from Algiers and other Allied points, said they could take no satisfaction in invading Italian soil and bringing the tragic devastation of war home to the Italian people.

They added that they were determined, however, to "destroy the false leaders and their doctrines which have brought Italy to her present position."

Propaganda Drive Starts

The release of the joint statement, which followed several informal invitations in recent months that Italy get out of the war, was the signal for a propaganda drive which included the dropping of thousands of leaflets on Italy by Allied bombers in addition to beaming the message to the people of Italy by radio.

Asserting that Germany's hopes for world conquest "have been blasted on all fronts," the joint statement declared the skies over Italy are dominated by vast Allied air armadas and Italy's coasts are threatened "by the greatest accumulation of British and Allied seapower ever concentrated in the Mediterranean."

They added: "Every moment that you resist the combined forces of the United Nations (Continued from Page 1)

Wendell Willkie To Be Candidate For Nomination

NEW YORK—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie will be a candidate for the 1944 Republican presidential nomination—if Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, enters the Illinois preferential primary next April.

The 1940 GOP nominee showed his hand Thursday, challenging McCormick to a campaign for the Illinois primary vote.

Willkie, in an interview, was asked: "Have you seen reports that Colonel McCormick may run in the Illinois primary for the Republican presidential nomination?"

"Yes," was his written reply, "I certainly hope it is true. For then I could really make the issue clear—the greatest issue of the day—American relations to the rest of the world and liberal internal domestic policies."

Asked if he would enter other preferential primaries, Willkie said that could be decided later. His present plan is to make a complete survey in January, then decide future moves.

McCormick has not commented on the request that he enter the primary, made July 1 by the Republican Nationalist Revival Committee, a recently organized group with an announced aim to help maintain the Republican party as the "nationalist party" in American politics.

Draft Of Fathers May Be Delayed Beyond October

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Most of the nation's fathers will still be in civilian clothes by October, perhaps much longer, say draft officials who are counting on single and childless married men, and the "teen-age group to meet the armed forces' requirements."

This continued immunity from Selective Service applies however only to those fathers living with and supporting children born before last September 15 and working at jobs outside the non-deferred list. About 6,500,000 have those qualifications.

Youths To Fill Quotas

This was the draft picture given reporters by Major Emmett Solomon of Selective Service's manpower division Thursday.

The 1,566,000 single and childless married men already classified as available for immediate induction will fill the quotas for July, August and September, although some will win reclassification on appeal and about 40 per cent will be rejected and sent to class 4-E.

Taxes Versus Inflation

The President's original statement of the way to beat inflation still remains the best summary ever made. It was presented April 27, 1942. It called for seven steps: (1) Heavy taxation to hold down personal and corporate profits; (2) price ceilings; (3) wage stabilization; (4) farm price stabilization; (5) War Bond sales; (6) rationing of scarce commodities; (7) discouragement of credit buying, encouragement of debt retirement and savings.

This discussion concerns itself with Numbers 1 and 5—taxation and War Bond sales. These are designed for the double-barreled purpose of financing the war and siphoning off excess money which, if used in the commodity market, would promote inflation.

The simple way of stating the problem is to say that, there being $45,000,000,000 too much money, all we need do is borrow and tax $45,000,000,000, which would leave just enough money to pay normal prices for the available goods.

Following this line, Congress would merely devise a combination of tax and compulsory savings policy which would take from each person his share of the excess $45,000,000,000. To an extent that is what tax plans thus far have had as a goal.

But there is where the real trouble begins. What is any man's fair share of the $45,000,000,000 that needs to be taken out of circulation?

If everybody had been employed when the war program began, and everybody's salary or wage (or income from dividends and interest) had risen by a standard percentage, a practicable if hard-boiled method could be found.

There were, however, millions out of work in 1939 who now are earning good wages. There were millions employed at subsistence levels who now are prosperous. There are many—millions, actually—who are earning not one penny more now than they were in 1939. Some receive less.

Thus the buying power of somewhere between 10 and 15 million Americans has skyrocketed; the buying power of perhaps as many more has increased greatly, but that of a third big group has dropped.

We can't, justly, tax the group which has actually lost in purchasing power as heavily as that which has profited enormously from war employment. So we veer toward an excess income tax, to take away profits that have arisen out of the war program.

That is what the Treasury is discussing now. —Buy War Bonds And Savings Stamps—

Subcontracting

It is of the big prime contractors that we hear when planes, ships, tanks, guns are under discussion. We praise the wonderful records they have made and are making, and are proud of the way the American economy has responded to war demands.

But behind these giant corporations, making possible their almost incredible feats, stand scores of thousands of relatively small, little publicized sub-contractors, from whose plants pour endless supplies of gadgets, doodlebugs and whatnots.

This is emphasized by a recent survey in which General Motors Corp., perhaps the greatest of the prime contractors, found that it was depending for material and parts upon 18,735 smaller concerns—its "partners in production."

Nations—every drop of blood that you can sacrifice—can save only one purpose; to give the Fascist and Nazi leaders a little more time to escape from the inevitable consequences of their own crimes."

The 600-word message concluded: "The time has now come for you, the Italian people, to consult your own self respect and your own interests and your own desire for a restoration of national dignity, security and peace. The time has come for you to decide whether Italians shall die for Mussolini and Hitler—or live for Italy and for civilization."

Asserting Mussolini had plunged the Italian people into a war which he thought "Hitler had already won," the President and prime minister said that at this moment the combined armed forces of the United States and Great Britain "are carrying the war deep into the territory of your country."

"This is the direct consequence," it continued, "of the shameful leadership to which you have been subjected by Mussolini and his Fascist regime."

Soldiers Are Betrayed—It added that the Fascist leaders sent Italian sons, ships and air forces to distant battlefields to aid Germany in her attempt to conquer England, Russia and the world, in spite of Italy's great vulnerability to attack by air and sea.

"This association," the United Nations leaders told the Italian people, "with the designs of Nazi Germany was unworthy of Italy's ancient traditions of freedom and culture—traditions to which the people of America and Great Britain owe so much."

They said Italian soldiers have fought courageously, but have been betrayed and abandoned by the Germans on the Russian front and on every African battlefield from El Alamein to Cape Bon.

Planes Of Small Carrier Attack Ten Nazi U-Boats

WASHINGTON—(AP)—In a series of anti-submarine battles in the North Atlantic, the planes of a single baby aircraft carrier recently successfully attacked ten German submarines, definitely destroying two and probably destroying eight others, and delivered two convoys safely across the Atlantic to American forces poised for actions against Hitler's Europe.

The story of the gallant little flat top, officially designated only as "Carrier-B," was told by the Navy Friday in a detailed account of how these auxiliary floating air fields are helping to clinch victory for the United Nations in the vital battle of the Atlantic.

Prisoners Captured—Altogether, the carrier's accomplishments included attacks on 11 submarines, with ten sunk or probably sunk, dispersing of two wolf packs which struck at two different times at war-laden cargo ships, the capture of 41 German prisoners and the safe delivery of the vital war goods. One submarine got away.

"All ships in the convoys protected by escort carrier 'B' reached their destinations undamaged," the Navy proudly announced. "It is believed that this record of defense and attack over a similar period of time has not been equaled by any other vessel in the history of anti-submarine warfare."

defenses but declared the attacks had been repulsed.

The Russians said their counter-offensive began at dawn with a heavy artillery barrage and that German defenses in the Orel sector had been broken at several points by 2 p. m.

Infantry, supported by tanks and planes, then surged into the breaches, routing 10 Nazi divisions in three days of savage fighting.

Area Heavily Fortified—In attacking the Orel sector, the Russians drove on one of the strongest-defended positions behind the German lines.

Pravda, the Communist party organ, pointed out that the Nazis have spent a year and a half fortifying the area, which was used as the springboard for their seemingly short-lived 1943 offensive.

The breakthrough at Orel was interpreted by some foreign military observers in Moscow as the end of Hitler's last all-out attempt to defeat Russia.

They said there was no question the Germans had hurled the most powerful weight of armor and men they could spare at the Russians in this summer's campaign.

The Business Women's Circle of the Presbyterian Church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Adams, 606 North Marjinfeld, with Miss Lillian Borquist and Mrs. John Porter as co-hostesses.

An enjoyable fellowship was experienced by those present in the first outdoor session of the summer. The Bible meditation entitled "Philip, the Faithful Worker" was presented by Miss Mary Kendrick. Mrs. Marie Coleman gave a graphic discussion in presenting the program topic, "My World Begins in the Home," using miniature models of church, school and hospital to illustrate the results of missionary workers.

During the social hour refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Maedelle Roberts, Mary Kendrick and Izetta Lee and Mesdames Hubert Hopper, J. Hollis Roberts, W. T. Graham, Knight, Harry Adams; Miss Hopkins, and Mrs. S. P. Parks, Mrs. J. H. Fine and hostesses Lillian Borquist and Mrs. John Porter.

Betsy Beckham Bundy's Advice To The Lovelorn

Q. I have a sweetheart who called me up and told me that he would not be able to be with me that evening because he had to do some studying, so I said it was quite all right. I got the car out immediately afterward however, and went driving around the city, and met him driving with another woman whom I did not know. He looked as if he could have dropped through the floor, so I have said nothing since. If he is trying to "put anything over," he will be unable to do so with me. I am not that silly. What do you think of this?

Decided.
A. I would just remain silent toward this man and if you never again hear of him it will be your good fortune. A man who pulls such tricks as this is unworthy of the thought and attention of any first class girl. Just keep your eyes open on this fellow and check carefully every word he says to you from now on.

I would not attempt to find out whom he might have been with, or why he did as he did. He had something come up that he thought inasmuch as you were so engrossed in him, that he could deceive you without much trouble. When he calls you again, be courteous, and when he comes out again, just tell him what you will stand for and what you will not stand for, and beyond everything give him to understand that you will not stand being "made of fool of."

Many women go through life with men of this calibre, and in order to stay married to them, lead lives in misery because of the deception and despicable character of their husband. It would be my suggestion to dispense with a man of this sort without further ado, but some people have different ideas on this matter.

A man of this stripe will keep it up as long as he lives. "The leopard does not change his spots" and the woman who marries one of these "low types" will rue it the longest day that she lives, either secretly or openly.

My advice to you about this man is to watch him like the proverbial "hawk," and deal openly with him, and if he cannot be "a straight shooter" with you, quit him. There are plenty of men and possibly you could find another to be a much finer person than this one you are at present going with.

Q. I have a very close friend who knows and has friends in the city to which I recently moved. This friend gave me their names and asked me to be sure to call them and let them know that I was locating in their town, and so forth.

I called each of them, as he requested me to do, and they were solicitous about their friends, who are mutual friends of ours, but

Glamour In Swim And Sun Suit

By Rosellen Callahan
NEA Staff Writer

The sun-tanner above caught herself a minimum of bathing suit with a maximum of glamor in the two-piece of brief panties and bra. Red calico, sprinkled with tiny, multi-colored flowers forms the neatly shirred front with the rest of the suit of yellow two-way stretch material. This well-balanced lace also wears flower-sprinkled calico whose yellow elasticized midriff produces a smooth waistline.

They did not seem to be very cordial to me.

Will you please tell me just what you think of this episode?
A. You have done the proper thing by calling the friends of your relative or friend, and if they do not pay any attention to the matter, that just shows their poor breeding, and not yours. If after you have called them, and you are a friend of their friend, it would be as little as they could do to immediately call or take you driving, or do some little courtesy to show that they appreciate your having called them, and that you are a friend of their friend. It would be as little as they could do, at least to call on you and if they do not show you any courtesy, just forget them. People who cannot be courteous are not worthy of being given any attention anyway.

Q. Please advise concerning this matter of etiquette. In giving a dinner party I want to know if I should seat husbands and wives together, and sweethearts together, etc.
Ignorant.
A. A hostess never seats the husband and wife together. If there are single people and married people at your dinner party you seat John Doe with Miss Mugg, and Mrs. John Doe with Bachelor Smith, etc. Mix the crowd up as much as it can be mixed so that conversation will be lively and there will be no drag anywhere. Be sure that all your friends are congenial, so that the party will be a lively one and enjoyed by all.

MIND Your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. Is it always necessary to answer an invitation to a meal promptly?
2. Should you expect to use a neighbor's garden tools instead of getting some of your own?
3. Is it usually cheaper to order a meal from a table d'hote or an a la carte menu?
4. What is meant by a cover charge?
5. If you are eating alone in a restaurant is it all right to read a newspaper?

What would you do if—
You are a woman and your husband likes to read the morning paper at the breakfast table—
(a) Nag him into giving up the habit?
(b) Read part of the paper yourself?

- Answers
1. Yes.
 2. No. Not unless you make some arrangement whereby he uses other equipment of yours, or you pay for using his tools.
 3. Table d'hote.
 4. It is a charge made by some restaurants that is in addition to the price of the food.
 5. Yes. Better "What Would You Do" solution—(b).

ZAMAN KHAN
CHAPTER XIII

A MOMENT later, a man stepped out from behind a tree. He was tall and of extraordinary width of shoulders, ruddy-skinned, full-bearded, with a great, predatory hook of a nose and twinkling, humorous, steel-gray eyes. A blue-and-red-checkered turban, ornamented with a regimental insignia, was cocked at a devil-may-care angle on his bullet-shaped head, and he wore a tattered, stained British khaki uniform.

He reached out a strong hand and pulled Lincoln to safety. Again he laughed.

"I know a saheb," he exclaimed, "not always when I see one—for, indeed, you look like a Bedawin—but when I hear one. Splendid words you used!"

He interrupted himself.

"Words," he went on, frowning, "not altogether English, though." "I'm American," explained Lincoln.

"A glorious race, I understand, if not quite as glorious as the Afghans."

"Guess you're one of them?" smiled the other.

"I am that same, Zaman Khan is my name, and I am a sergeant of the Sixteenth Pathan Rissala in the service of the British Raj."

"And what," demanded Lincoln, "are you doing in this neck of the African woods?"

"There was much grand fighting—vaguely towards the north—and I and many of my comrades were wounded and captured by the little black-haired men who smell of garlic and the big yellow-haired men who smell of pig. And I did not like it in prison, in the land called the Sudan. No—I did not like it at all! So," calmly, "one night, having, with Allah's aid,

Once more Lincoln hesitated; and once more the other said: "What does it matter? Come with me!"

"Where are you going?"

"To the little town of Yebba. I have been there before—he grinned—"with horses. A profitable market there for horses, and no questions asked. And the wines there are honeyed. And the women... ah!" He blew a kiss into the air.

"Sounds attractive," admitted the American, with a laugh. "You do not dare, because of the sahebs' foolish laws in the matter of your small killing?"

"That's it."

"Have no fear. Yebba is an Arab settlement in the heart of the country. No sahebs are ever seen there. And if, by Shaitan's cursed deceiving, they should learn of your being there and come after you—why—the town is not far from the jungles the other side of Lake Tchad."

Lincoln looked up.

"Ever hear," he inquired, trying to sound casual, "of a place, somewhere in the jungle, called the Meeting of the Elephants?"

The Afghan roared with mirth. "Now I know," he cried, "that you are running away from the sahebs' laws. For the Meeting of the Elephants is deeply buried in the wilderness, and just the place where a man might hide for a day, a year, an eternity."

"You know the way?"

"No. But somebody will, in Yebba."

Yes—the American echoed in his mind—somebody would, in Yebba. He would be able to hire a guide there; was playing—he thought—in luck.

"I'll go with you," he said.

"Good! My camp," pointing, "is over there. I promise you a splendid mutton stew, charmingly flavored with wild herbs, and a drink or two of fermented liquor—although forbidden the True Believers by the Prophet Mohammed—may increase in my behalf on the Day of Judgment! And while we fill our bellies and pleasantly warm our gullets, we shall talk as it behooves men to talk. Of strife, a little. But, mostly, of woman!"

German Were Certain Of Victory In Egypt

SPOKANE, WASH. —(AP)— The Germans were so certain of a triumphant march into Alexandria that they had prepared special band uniforms for the occasion. Major Thomas T. Oshanduro, who recently returned from the Middle East, told the Lions Club at a luncheon here.

Now is the time to buy War Bonds and Stamps.

Excellent Insurance

KANSAS CITY —(P)— Having arguments over next year's rent? Well, the Kansas City Board of Trade, unsuccessful to date in efforts to renew its old lease terms on its quarters in a downtown building, took out insurance.

For $50,000, it bought another building, the one it had used from 1888 to 1925. Untalkative officers said the board made the purchase merely "to protect its position."

George A. Walker Receives Promotion

George A. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Walker of Midland, has been promoted to the grade of sergeant. He is assigned to the 24th Army Air Forces Band at Sheppard Field.

Heirs Get Surprise

REDWOOD CITY, CALIF. —(P)— The bank wrote Herman W. Schaberg, asking him to come and collect his $3,842 interest.

Schaberg, though, had died in 1934, and his widow never knelt about the deposit.

She died in 1940.

The bank's letter bestirred her six heirs to inquire—and they found themselves $18,000 richer.

General Davies Warns Against Over-Optimism

SAN MARCOS, Tex.—(AP)—There will not be any miraculous day on which the Germans and Japanese will conveniently revolt and surrender, Brigadier General Isaiah Davies, commanding general of the 34th Flying Training Wing, said Thursday.

Great Progress In Airpower
We have made great progress toward knocking out the enemy by airpower alone, he told the graduating airmen. "You men," he said, "will have greater opportunity to prove that airpower has altered the strategy of warfare and charted the course to peace."

Disruption of normal civilian home-life is only in its beginning, General Davies declared. He said that the easy years behind us are gone for some time and Selective Service figures indicate five out of six physically fit men will be in military service.

Last Section Of Big Inch Line To Be Welded In Pennsylvania Monday

CINCINNATI —(AP)— Big Inch is all but finished. Test runs of crude oil are being pumped through the eastern section of the $95,000,000 transcontinental pipeline from Norris City, Ill., and next Monday at Phoenixville, Pa., government dignitaries, including Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, will witness welding of the last section of the 1,341 miles of 24-inch pipe.

Monday is 15 days short of a year from the time the first section was laid. Officials of the Petroleum Administration for War and War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., said pumping started at Norris City Wednesday and oil is moving eastward 3 1/3 miles a day. Engineers are checking the run for leaks or other "bugs."

Big Inch, conceived to help meet the wartime oil crisis, now stretches from Longview, in the East Texas oil fields, to New York and Philadelphia refineries. At Phoenixville, the line splits, one branch going to Linden, N. J., the other to Philadelphia.

The 15,000 men who ditched plains and mountain, woods and cornfields, and laid and welded the pipe aren't quitting. They're staying on the job to finish the 20-inch gasoline line from Beaumont, Tex., paralleling big inch most of the way. Officials of WEP headquarters here predict the smaller line will be ready in December. The two lines are being built under appropriations totaling $170,000,000.

Joe Medwick Gets Bums' Rush As Branch Rickey Cleans Up

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Sports Writer

The bums rush is on in Brooklyn for fair and this time the heaven is about to go to Joseph Michael (Muscles) Medwick, the once celebrated outfielder whose usefulness to the Dodgers, like that of Louis Norman (Bobo) Newsum, apparently has come to an end.

When the ball club left New York Thursday night for a three-week trip away from the stormy scene of insurrection at Ebbets Field, Medwick was left at home.

Reason Is Clear

Although the maneuver was shrouded in mystery by club officials, no mirrors were needed to see behind the veil of Branch Rickey's house-cleaning.

Having moved to wipe out the rebellion against Manager Leo Durocher by trading Newsum to the St. Louis Browns for two antiquated pitchers, Fritz Ostermueller and Archie McKain, Rickey has 26 players on his roster, one over the limit, and was compelled to get rid of one man.

His choice of Medwick was connected only indirectly with the rebellion. Rickey had been trying to dispose of him ever since becoming president of the Dodgers last November.

Cubs Defeat Reds

The Dodgers, while idle, even gained half a game on the Cardinals, who were whipped 4-3 at Pittsburgh Thursday night as Matt Rice Van Robays, just returned from a minor league whirl at Toronto, collected a double and two singles to lead a 14-hit attack on Max Lanier.

The Chicago Cubs bunched five runs in the third and three in the eighth to crush the Cincinnati Reds 8-0 behind the four-hit hurling of Hiram Bithorn. Bill Nicholson hit his 12th home run with two on in the eighth. The spree interrupted the winning parade of Elmer Riddle, who had won nine of his last 10 games.

The Phillies pounded a 9-1 victory out of the New York Giants as Richard (Kewpie) Barrett pitched steady seven-hit ball. The only run against him was a homer by Buster Maynard.

Chisox Down Tigers

In the American League, Orval Grove attained his eighth triumph without defeat by pitching five-hit ball as the Chicago White Sox downed the Detroit Tigers 7-4.

Washington whipped the Boston Red Sox 4-3 with Bob Johnson driving in three runs, two of them on a homer. Each team made five hits, but the Red Sox bunched theirs for three runs in the second before Alex Carrasquel came in to pitch seven innings and get his tenth victory.

The St. Louis Browns stopped the Cleveland Indians 2-1 in the only game played in daylight. A home run by Vernon Stephens, his 13th, accounted for both Brownie runs and a round-tripper by Ken Keltner produced the Tribe's tally, although Steve Sundra pitched a four-hitter.

Betty Hicks To Give Up Golf For Duration

Flatbush Filbert Says:

Southwestern University Will Have Outstanding Roster Of Grid Players

GEORGETOWN—(AP)—If Southwestern University can't find enough intercollegiate competition to fill out a football schedule next fall it can put on some exhibition games with its own squad to remind you of gripping Southwest Conference battles of years when there was manpower to burn.

A preliminary athletic poll conducted by Physical Fitness Officer Lt. H. R. Giles of the Navy V-12 training unit discloses that besides more than thirty men who have had one or more years of intercollegiate football experience, there are about 75 with impressive high school records. However, since freshmen will not be permitted to participate during their first semester, their talents will, of course, remain hidden under a bushel for the present.

Many Players Available

While Commander M. A. Hefnerman of the Navy V-12 training unit has made it clear that trainees will not be required to engage in intercollegiate sports, they are free to do so if such participation does not interfere with their academic and military training.

Under these terms, football men who are eligible to compete under the Pirate colors this year include Bill Arnold of Texarkana who held down a guard position for the University of Arkansas Razorbacks. Southwest lettermen in the V-12 unit are Ed. McFarland of Lufkin, Nelson Webernick of Morgan, C. B. Scarborough of Dallas, Bob Campbell of Austin, J. P. Graves of Wichita Falls, Eldridge Adair of Beeville, C. R. Morris of Bastrop and Ed Stary of Yoakum. Morris Bratton of Cleburne is still in civilian clothes recuperating from an operation, but is expected to be in condition for the fall season.

Large Group From Baylor

From Baylor comes the largest aggregation from any campus led by Bubba Barnett, 1943 east-west star. Among his teammates are Bobbie Henderson, guard; James Erwin, end; Bill Dickson, end; R. L. Cooper, fullback; James Griffin, tackle; Bo Robinson, halfback; Gardner McCormick, tackle, and George Holton, end.

Trekking from the University of Texas to Georgetown to enter training were Linemen Zuehl Conly, Jack Sachse, Les Proctor and Harold Fischer supported by Ken Matthews, Jackie Field and Spot Collins, backs.

Bill Hearne, end of the T. C. U. Horned Frogs squad has also turned up here, while from Howard Payne come Bennie Williams, end, of Putnam, and Henry Mullins, tackle, of Riesel, Wiley Warren, husky guard of Austin College, hails from Mart.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton Jr.

NEW YORK—(AP)—A recent visitor to these precincts was Mrs. Violet Jean McClatchey, an attractive and very earnest young woman from Bartlesville, Okla., by way of South Orange, N. J., who stopped to put in a few good words for the common copper cent.

The reason Mrs. McClatchey thinks so highly of cents is that when 200,000 women bowlers start contributing them, they mount up to a good many pretty pennies, and as chairman of the war service committee of the Women's International Bowling Congress, Mrs. M. wants to keep the pennies, nickels and dimes pouring in. She also is interested in giving her favorite sport full credit for its war contributions.

Last year the W. I. B. C. bought a bomber plane for the air forces, and "adopted" its crew, thereby giving Capt. William Chum and Sgt. William Morehead something of an advantage over sailors who have only one girl in every port. "Miss W. I. B. C." already has been in action and recently returned to Akron, Ohio, for a checkup. The girls found they had some money left over, so they bought an ambulance which will be presented to the Army soon, probably at Columbus, O. They're not setting any quotas for their contributions during the coming pin season, but they expect to pay for "one or more" ambulance planes at $80,000 each.

Impressive as these figures look, what really stirs Mrs. McClatchey's enthusiasm is the fact that a large part of the money comes from pennies dropped in the "kitty" for misses, splits, etc., during bowling matches. One of her favorite novelties is putting a yellow pin in each pit—"They call it the Jap pin. Well named, don't you think?"—and collecting a cent for every time it is left standing on the first ball. "In a week's time you collect a good many dollars," she points out, especially since about 6,000 women's leagues operate each season.

Big Ten Teams Have Fair Grid Turnouts

CHICAGO—(AP)—Maj. John L. Griffith, Big Ten athletic commissioner, believes the number of men turning out for summer football practice in the conference is "very satisfactory," saying that some of the coaches previously had been fearful of the manpower situation.

"Minnesota had 60, Ohio State more than 50, Iowa has over 40, Wisconsin 70 and Northwestern at least 60," he said. "I asked one pessimistic college man if they wouldn't have as many candidates as when the game started at his school and he answered 'yes.' That reminded me that when football was started at Illinois only 12 boys reported, yet the school played a collegiate schedule."

Next Boy Scout Court Of Honor Is In August

Midland Boy Scouts have decided not to hold a Court of Honor during July as many of the Scouts are away on vacations, the Rev. Hubert Hopper, chairman of the court, said Thursday.

The next court will be held August 27, and arrangements are being made to make it one of the best sessions ever held here. The July court had been scheduled for July 23.

Occupy Is Favorite In Arlington Racing

CHICAGO—(AP)—John Marsch's Occupy, striving to follow in the footsteps of his big brother, Occupation, will be a dominating favorite Saturday in the Arlington Futurity at Washington Park—a race carrying a gross value of about $60,000.

A victory for the sensational two-year-old would be a big stride toward the 1943 juvenile championship, which, if accomplished, would mark the third straight year the honor of breeding the top-ranking juvenile has been kept in the Platt family.

Thomas Carr Platt, joint owner with Marsch of the broodmare, Miss Bunting, dam of Occupation and Occupy, has come from Kentucky to see Occupy perform in the futurity. Last year he rooted for Occupation, the leading juvenile money winner, across the wire first.

The elder Thomas Platt, whose farm adjoins that of his son, bred Alsab, the 1941 juvenile champion.
