President accepts defense bill Status of January pay raise remains cloudy

WASHINGTON (AFNS) — Military and civilian employees will get paid for the rest of this fiscal year now that the president has allowed the defense appropriations bill to become law.

Clinton agreed to the $243 billion bill just hours before a midnight deadline Nov. 30 to veto, sign or allow the measure to automatically become law. The president did the latter, which means the Department of Defense gets nearly $7 billion more than the administration requested.

Congress is still working on the defense authorization bill, which determines how the money will be spent, so

DOD officials could not say if military members will get their Jan. 1 pay raise on time.

The president said in a Nov. 30 White House statement that he accepted the appropriations bill in part to ensure that Congress provides funding for the troop deployment to Bosnia.

"The pressing demands of peace and of our military service men and women compel my approval of this measure," Clinton said.

However, the statement said that the president is concerned that the bill contains "excessive spending for projects that are not currently needed for our defense."

Clinton said he will forward to Congress "rescission legislation that would eliminate funding for those projects" and the president urged Congress "to act on it."

Several other provisions in the bill also concern the president, he said, including "certain reporting requirements that could materially interfere with or impede this country's ability to provide necessary support to another nation or international organization in connection with peacekeeping or humanitarian assistance activities otherwise authorized by law."

Another provision restricts service women and female family members of service personnel from obtaining privately funded abortions in overseas military facilities, except in cases where the mother's life is endangered or the pregnancy resulted from rape or incest.

"My administration is continuing discussions with the Congress on the remaining spending bills, in order to protect necessary priorities in education, the environment and law enforcement," Clinton said in the statement.

The administration and Congress have set a Dec. 15 deadline for resolving differences over the six remaining appropriations bills and for reaching a compromise on a seven-year plan to balance the federal budget.

Two earn selection to colonel

Two Reese officers were among the 650 Air Force lieutenant colonels selected for promotion by the calendar 1995 Central Colonel Board

Lt. Col. Donald Stiffler and Lt. Col. Kenneth Montague, 64th Operations Group, were named as colonel selectees Tuesday.

The entire list of selectees was scheduled to be posted on the Air Force Personnel Center World Wide Web homepage on Wednesday. The address is <http://www.afpc.af.mil> and then click on the colonel's rank.

The selection board convened at AFPC, Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, Oct. 10 to consider 5,061 officers.

Selection statistics in-the-promotion zone:

- 502 line officers selected from 1,198 considered for a 42 percent rate
- 16 judge advocates selected from 30 considered for a 53 percent rate
- 10 Medical Service Corps officers

President cites federal employees

WASHINGTON (AFNS) — President Clinton and Vice President Al Gore sent the following letter to federal employees in response to the recent government shutdown.

"We are proud of the people who work for the federal government. Any Fortune 100 company would be lucky to have such a work force. Your work makes all Americans more safe, free, and prosperous. We are glad you are all back on the job.

"We know it hasn't been easy for you, wondering when and if you would get your next pay check. And many of you had to bear the indignity of being called 'non-essential' — some by government critics, some even by your own supervisors.

Calling furloughed workers non-essential is deeply offensive and just plain wrong. The law forced us to furlough 800,000 workers whose jobs were not of an emergency nature. The law says nothing about 'essential.'

"No one could say that medical research is non-essential. Or helping Americans go to college. Or rehabilitating a million disabled Americans. Or supporting the widows and orphans of veterans. Or keeping our drinking water safe. Or recruiting new volunteers for the armed forces. Or any of the long list of essential government activities that had to be temporarily suspended. In the short term, they were not emergencies, so the law prohibited them. But they remain clearly essential.

"You all know that the law under which most of the government is operating expires Dec. 15, and the debate that led to the November shutdown is not over. We can't promise you that your jobs and your lives won't be interrupted again. Too much is at stake for America. If you are held hostage again, we know you would not want us to forfeit the nation's future as ransom.

"So, until this issue is settled the way we settle great issues in a democracy — through peaceful debate and compromise — you remain good people caught in what Churchill called 'the worst system of government devised by the wit of man, except for all the others.' And when it is settled, it is you federal workers who will once again carry out the will of the people, who will once again make it possible for America to be the winner. We salute you, and we thank you."

(Editor's note: While the Defense Appropriations Bill has become law, Congress and the president are still debating at least six appropri-tions bills. Those agencies are still operating under a continuing resolution that expires Dec. 15.)

President Clinton

Holiday debt

Heeding warning signs can prevent financial disaster

The problem is, some Air Force people have problems with money. These money problems are especially evident during the holidays when seasonal expenses strain personal finances.

To help remedy this, money management experts urge people to control holiday spending by keeping a budget and shop carefully to get the best price. Experts suggest borrowing only when the benefits of doing so are worth the cost for the credit card and loan payments that come "after" the holidays.

The Army and Air Force Exchange Service has developed a list of various "warning signs," along with recommendations, to assist people experiencing money and credit problems.

Financial warning signs include:

- Juggling payments (delaying one bill to pay another)
- Running out of money at the end of the month

□ Using cash advances for daily living

□ Having trouble building a savings account

□ Making minimum payments on revolving accounts

□ Dipping into savings to meet routine expenses

□ Having difficulty estimating how much you owe

□ Paying bills consistently late or not having a consistent income

AAFES financial experts say any one or a combination of these signs may mean there are serious credit and holiday spending problems.

At the top of the list of remedies for these problems is the common sense advice for people to contact their local family support center, relief society, credit union or bank.

AAFES financial experts say these organizations can help customers talk with creditors, stop borrowing and cut expenses, by educating them through the service's free financial counseling.

"The key to resolving or preventing credit problems is to notify creditors and seek financial counseling assistance as soon as possible," a financial expert said.

In addition, AAFES offers a free booklet about credit management for military people. "The booklet is designed to help military members and their families deal with money matters like handling money, balancing a budget, using credit cards or establishing and maintaining good credit," an official said.

A new updated and expanded version of this booklet is now available at all exchange service desks.

Also, AAFES customers who have questions about their Deferred Payment Plan accounts, or who are having difficulty making payments, should contact their local AAFES customer service representative.

AAFES officials say if people have problems in making their DPP payments, a flexible alternative voluntary repayment plan can be established.

Involuntary collection should always be the last resort, officials said.

Shoplifting can ruin holidays

Reese recently prosecuted several incidents of petty theft at the Reese Base Exchange. Some of these incidents were committed by individuals sponsored by active duty military or retirees. In case you don't know, these acts carry severe penalties for both the sponsor and the guest.

If your guest is detained for shoplifting your commander may take action against the sponsor. Commanders have several options available. They may revoke your exchange privileges for six months. Dependents or retirees may also be barred from the base, or part of it, for misconduct (except to receive medical care). Remember, you are responsible for a guest's actions just as much as they are.

Fifteen minutes a month can save a life

by Maj. Len Fischman
64th CES commander

Would you give up 15 minutes a month to save the lives of your family? If so, I ask that you spend part of those 15 minutes reading this article.

Within the last 30 days, two housing families suffered the effects of carbon monoxide. Excessive levels of this odorless gas can result in dizziness, loss of consciousness, and ultimately death. Luckily, neither of the two families suffered long-term consequences.

The first case was due to a malfunctioning thermostat that the occupant did not immediately call in to the civil engineers for repair. The decision to wait until morning nearly cost his family their lives.

The second case was due to a furnace filter that had not been cleaned for about six months.

These problems effect not only families in military housing, but those living in apartments, houses, and trailers as well. I know this is true because a family stationed with me at a previous base died of carbon monoxide poisoning in their off-base rental home.

Last week civil engineering personnel inspected over 330 of the 400 units and found 75 percent had dangerously dirty filters. An obstructed furnace filter will decrease air flow through the system and carbon monoxide will build up and enter the house through the heat exchange system. This is why it is imperative that you replace disposable cardboard framed furnace filters or clean the metal framed electrostatic filters at least once a month.

If you need a new disposable filter, contact housing maintenance. The electrostatic filter is a permanent type filter requiring monthly removal for cleaning. First vacuum the surface, then wash with warm water or use soap and hot water if smokers live in your house.

If you need assistance with cleaning or replacement of your filter, call housing maintenance at 885-3047 or 3601 and they will be glad to come out and show you proper maintenance procedures.

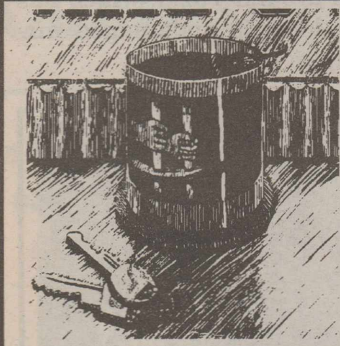

This is also a great time to test the safety alarms in your home. Check both the Carbon Monoxide and Smoke detectors by pressing and holding the test button on each for approximately 20 seconds until the alarm sounds. If the alarm does not go off, call housing maintenance immediately. Your health and safety are our top priorities.

Maj. Len Fischman holds a dirty air filter responsible for causing carbon monoxide poisoning.

TriCare update

by 1st Lt. Ward Hinger

Pharmacy benefits are still available to all Military Health Services System beneficiaries. If a beneficiary's prescription is filled at the 64th Medical Group there is no cost incurred.

The following information is a general overview explaining how each category of beneficiary must utilize their pharmacy benefit.

Active duty personnel will obtain all of their pharmaceutical needs from the 64th MDG. An exception would apply if they had been referred downtown by their primary care manager for urgent care or were seen for emergency care. If a prescription is written and filled under these circumstances, the 64 MDG will reimburse the active duty member for pharmaceutical costs incurred.

Family members of active duty who are enrolled in TriCare Prime, must make an appointment with their respective Primary Care Manager to obtain a prescription. Their prescription can be filled at the 64 MDG (at no cost) or for $5 per prescription, per thirty day supply, if they use the civilian pharmacy network set up by Foundation Health. A list of participating pharmacies is available at the TRICARE Service Center.

Retirees and their family members who are enrolled in TriCare Prime must make an appointment with their civilian PCM to obtain a prescription. Their prescription can be filled at the 64 MDG (at no cost) or for $9 per prescription per thirty day supply, if they use the civilian pharmacy network set up by Foundation Health.

CHAMPUS eligible beneficiaries who are not enrolled in TriCare Prime can get their prescription filled at the 64 MDG (at no cost) or use any pharmacy that accepts CHAMPUS. For a reduced cost share (15 percent for active duty family member and 20 percent for retiree/retiree family member) per prescription, per thirty day supply, they can use the civilian pharmacy network set up by Foundation Health.

MHSS beneficiaries who are Medicare eligible can get their prescriptions filled at the 64 MDG at no cost. Due to base closure, we anticipate that sometime in early calendar year 1996, Reese AFB will be deemed a Base Closure and Realignment (BRAC) base. At that time, those who are Medicare eligible and meet specific user criteria, will be able to enjoy BRAC Medicare Pharmacy benefits. BRAC Medicare Pharmacy benefits will allow eligible members access to the civilian pharmacy network and a mail order pharmacy program. More information will be available in the upcoming months at the 64 MDG pharmacy.

TriCare's start date was Nov. 1. Please pay close attention to the base paper (Roundup) and your personal mail for updates. For additional information or assistance, please stop by the TRICARE Service Center (Bldg 1300, Rm #942) or call 1-800-406 2832.

Air Force units prepare for deployment to Bosnia

WASHINGTON (AFNS) — As a U.S. Air Force C-130 dropped off equipment at Tuzla Wednesday, people at five stateside Air Force bases prepared for possible duty in Bosnia.

The 1,400-man NATO enabling force that will lead the way for the Bosnia peacekeeping force, which includes about 700 Americans, started arriving in Sarajevo Tuesday.

The force will help set up and prepare the massive logistics and communications infrastructure needed to accommodate the 60,000-member peace implementation force, or IFOR, from 25 countries expected to deploy into Bosnia.

"There's only one real alternative to U.S. participation in IFOR, and that is a restart of the war and resumption of the killing and the atrocities," said Secretary of Defense William Perry at a Tuesday Pentagon press briefing.

"That's what we mean when we say to seize this opportunity requires a commitment of U.S. troops," he said.

In reinforcing that commitment, Perry said five Air Force and 22 Army units in the United States have been identified for possible deployment in support of the IFOR.

Air Force units are:

□ 9th Reconnaissance Wing, Beale Air Force Base,

Calif.

□ 823rd Civil Engineering Squadron (RED HORSE), Hurlburt Field, Fla.

□ 314th Operations Squadron, Little Rock AFB, Ark.

□ 23rd Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, Pope AFB, N.C.

□ 55th Wing, Offutt AFB, Neb.

The American peacekeeping force of 20,000 troops will start arriving in Bosnia after the Dayton peace agreement is signed in Paris Dec. 14. Troops will be posted at locations in and around Tuzla, which has the longest undamaged airstrip in the country.

Q TRICARE Questions & Answers A

Q What is TRICARE Prime?

A TRICARE Prime is one of the new options offered to CHAMPUS beneficiaries in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas. The TRICARE Prime program is modeled after the health care delivery system most commonly associated with a Health Maintenance Organization (HMO). Beneficiaries may enroll in TRICARE Prime to take advantage of the enhanced preventive benefits, lower out-of-pocket costs, and no claim filing requirements.

Q How Do CHAMPUS-Eligible Beneficiaries Enroll in TRICARE Prime?

A Eligible beneficiaries must obtain an enrollment packet and select a Primary Care Manager. There is no enrollment fee for active-duty family members. Retirees, retiree family members and survivors do have an annual enrollment fee which can be paid in quarterly installments. Beneficiaries simply mail in a completed enrollment application. Enrolled members will receive a TRICARE Prime identification card in the mail. Beneficiaries enroll for a 12 month enrollment period.

Roundup holiday issue deadline

The final issue of the Reese Roundup for 1995 will be published on Dec. 15. The deadline for submission of articles is Dec. 8. The next issue of the Roundup will be published on Jan. 5, 1996.

Wing commander talks on radio shows

Col. Randy Gelwix, 64th Flying Training Wing commander, will be the guest speaker on the Big Ed Show (KRFE-AM 580) Monday from 7:30 to 8:45 a.m. He will also be the guest on the Dixon Platt Morning Show (KKAM-AM 1340) Tuesday from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m.

DFAS cashier office changes hours

The Defense Accounting Cashier office will be closed for lunch due to reduction in cash payments effective Monday. The new hours of operation are from 7:30 to 11:15 a.m. and reopens from 12:45 to 4:15 p.m.

64th SPTG conducts cookie drive

The 64th Support Group is conducting the Cookies for Airmen drive. Donated cookies should be taken to the Reese Family Support Center or the 64th SPTG commander's office on Tuesday and Wednesday. The cookies will be distributed to more than 300 single airmen in the dormitories on Dec. 15. Military members living off base can pick up cookies after 3 p.m. on Dec. 15, or on Dec. 18, at the center. For additional information call Pam Appell, 885-3079.

Top 3 Association schedules meeting

The next Reese Top 3 Association meeting will be held Wednesday at 3 p.m. in Ruby's. Several programs will be discussed and we need you in the decision-making process. Also, bring your dues, $2 per month or $24 for the year. For more information call Master Sgt. Gary Moore at 6320.

Holiday safety briefings scheduled

The holiday safety briefings are scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. at the Simler Theater.

OWC plans social and dinner

The Reese Officers' Wives Club will have a social and dinner Thursday. The social begins at 6:30 p.m. with dinner following at 7 p.m. The program will feature the Dancer's Studio of Lubbock performing excerpts from Christmas ballets. Make your reservation to attend by calling Mari Heyburn at 885-2460 or Kathy Hollyer at 885-1133 before 9 p.m. Monday.

Family support closes for training

The family support center and family services will close for staff training today from 2:15 to 4:15 p.m. In case of an emergency, call 3444.

Holiday tree lighting ceremony

The 64th Security Police Squadron will sponsor the annual Holiday Tree Lighting Ceremony Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. in front of the chapel.

Events for the ceremony will be a small parade through Reese Village featuring Santa Claus riding on a fire truck passing out candy canes and Christmas Carols sung by the children of the youth center.

The family support center will provide coffee, cocoa and cookies for your enjoyment following the

Santa's coming

For a small fee, santa will visit from Monday through Dec. 17 between 6 to 9 p.m. Visits will last approximately 10 minutes. Santa can give a small gift to the children and will be available for pictures. Proceeds will go to the 64th Operations Support Squadron booster fund and the Reese's Officer's Wives' Club Charitable Fund. For reservations call 2nd Lt. Tony Mena at 6303 or Capt. Joe Wolfer at 6345.

ceremony. Also, Santa will be available for photos with the children. The proceeds will be donated to the Toys for Tots campaign.

Thrift savings season opens

The federal employee Thrift Savings Plan open season runs through Jan. 31, 1996.

For information about the federal employee savings program call the Reese Civilian Personnel Office at 3974.

Chapel sponsors Giving Tree

Once again the Base Chapel is sponsoring a Giving Tree as a Christmas Project.

We have asked for the help of all First Sergeants to find out the needs of our people at Reese.

First Sergeants submitted the number of children selected from each squadron stating age, sex and a brief description of what the child wants (shoes, toy, clothing & etc.).

All gift requests will go up on a tree displayed in the Chapel Sanctuary. Individuals will be asked to select a "star" which represents an individual, take it home and wrap a gift.

The gift should be received by Dec. 17 to be placed under the tree. Point of contact for this project is Peggy Melloy, 885-1065 or 885-3237.

Communication workshop set

The Reese Family Support Center is sponsoring a communication workshop for parents and their teenagers.

"True Colors" is a fun, fast-paced workshop designed to help parents and teens understand their personality differences and get along better with one another by creating unity and valuing differences. "True Colors" is Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon at the center.

Call 3305 to reserve a place for you and your teen.

Career workshop scheduled

Active-duty members and spouses who are within 180 days of retirement or separation, or who have retired or separated since Oct. 1, 1990, may attend a free Civilian Career Options Workshop (ie. Transition Workshop), scheduled for 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Wednesday through Dec. 15 with Thursday afternoon and Friday morning being a mandatory part of the member's out processing.

This will be held at the Reese Family Support Center.

This workshop was especially developed for military members and their spouses separating or retiring from the military. Resumes, veterans benefits and more will be covered.

Reservations are required today and can be made by contacting the family support center at extension 3305.

Civilian positions available

The Reese Civilian Personnel Office is accepting applications for the following positions: Maintenance Worker -- WG-4749-08; Office Automation Clerk -- GS-0326-04; Automotive Worker -- WG-5823-08; Military Personnel Clerk -- GS-0204-04; Supply Clerk -- GS-2005-05. For eligibility and application information call the civilian personnel office at 3801.

Marines continue Toys for Tots drive

The annual Marine Corps Toys for Tots drive collects new toys for needy children in the Lubbock area. Toy drop boxes are located in the 64th MDG, the 64th MSS, the 64th SVS, the 64th CES and wing headquarters.

Falcons take on Red Raiders

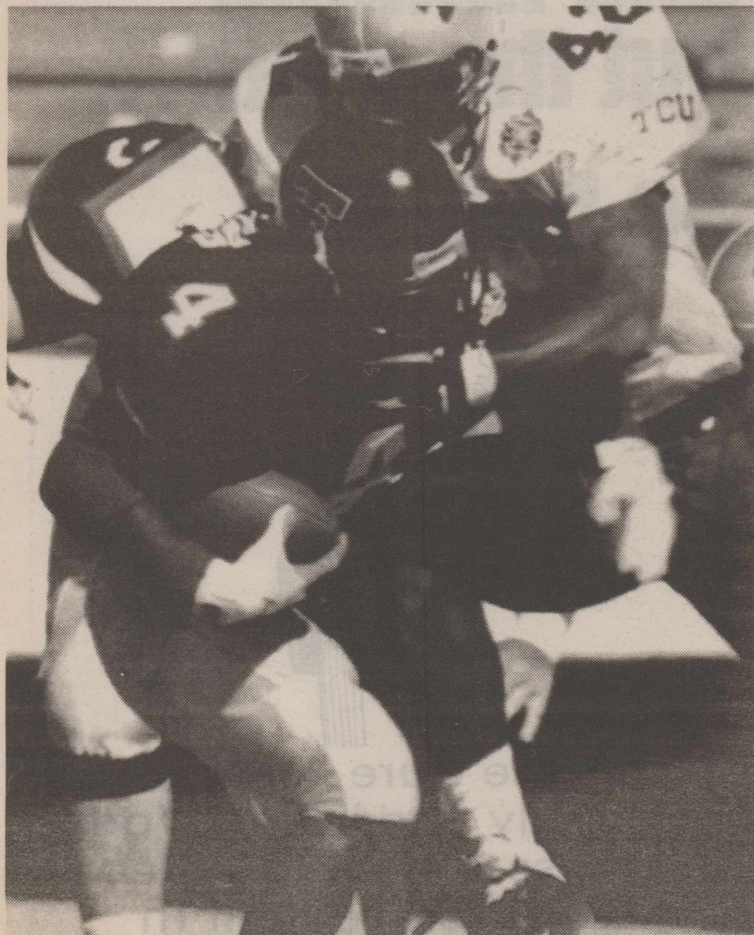

AF Academy faces Tech in Dec. 27 Copper Bowl

Two of the top running attacks in the nation will be showcased as the Air Force Academy Falcons take on the Texas Tech Red Raiders at the Weiser Lock Copper Bowl, Dec. 27 in Tucson, Ariz.

The Falcons average 332 yards per game rushing behind the wishbone magic of junior quarterback Beau Morgan. The Raiders are paced by sophomore tailback Byron Hanspard, the top rusher in the Southwest Conference with 1,425 yards.

Air Force earned its Copper Bowl berth by posting an 8-4 season, good enough for co-champion of the Western Athletic Conference. Tech, (8-3) tied with Texas A&M and Baylor for second in the last year of the SWC.

Morgan gives the Falcons their best wishbone quarterback since Dee Dowis was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 1989. The Carrollton, Texas prep star rushed for 1,285 yards and 19 TDs. He also threw for 1,165 yards and 12 TDs.

Texas Tech's star tailback Brian Hanspard is brought down after a long gain against Texas Christian University.

"He (Morgan) has exceptionally quick feet," said Raider head coach Spike Dykes. "When you put someone with his quickness and intelligence at the controls of the wishbone it is very tough on defenses."

Flanking Morgan are two excellent running backs — Jake Campbell and Danta Johnson. Together, they accounted for over 1,000 yards on the ground and averaged more than seven yards per carry. Like Hanspard, Campbell is a dual threat. He led the Falcons receiving corps with 25 receptions and five TDs.

The Falcons averaged 30 points and 432 yards per game.

On defense the Falcons run a variation of the 3-4, taking advantage of great speed at linebacker.

Junior Lee Guthrie, who went into the season as a second-team linebacker, led the Falcons with 100 tackles from the outside. Steve Fernandez, a 6-foot-1, 230 lb. inside linebacker was third on the team with 84 stops.

Outside linebacker Brian McCray tied for the team lead in sacks (6) with defensive tackle Camron Curry. An impact player for Air Force this year was Alex Pupish, a 6-foot-5 232 lb. former tight end who was moved to defense in the fall. Pupish responded with five sacks and five tackles for losses.

The secondary is led by the best tandem of deep backs in the WAC. Seniors LeRon Hudgins and Kelvin King were spectacular all year. Hudgins was second on the Falcons with 90 tackles, including a team-high 57 solo stops. King added 63 tackles and led the team with five interceptions.

Junior corner Mickey Dalton also had a strong year, breaking up a team-high eight pass attempts.

Overall, the defense struggled after the opening two wins, giving up at least 20 points per game in the last nine outings, including 43 to the University of Texas at El Paso and 44 to Notre Dame.

In his 12th season as head coach of the Falcons, Fisher DeBerry is 92-54-1. During this span he has won the Commander-in-Chief Trophy, presented to the academy with the best inerservice record, eight times. His teams have won the title outright six of the past seven seasons. Since 1989, the Falcons are 13-1 against Navy and Army.

"Fisher DeBerry is one of the truly great coaches in the country," said Dykes. "His teams are always fully prepared and — game in and game out — they execute as well as anyone."

Tech brings a young but balanced team to the Copper Bowl. Only seven seniors, five on defense, start for the Raiders. But, with the exception of the blowout in Austin, Tech has played perhaps its most consistent football in Dykes' nine seasons as head coach.

"These kids have had a great attitude all year long," said Dykes. "We really have been able to keep it on an even keel."

The offense revolves around Hanspard. The 6-foot, 190 lb. tailback set the school freshman rushing record in 1994 and broke the sophomore mark set by Pittsburgh's Bam Morris this year. His 1,425 rushing yards is the third best in Tech history.

Hanspard also leads the team in receiving with 474 yards on 35 receptions

Zebbie Lethridge's scrambling and passing ability will provide many headaches for the Falcon defense. Despite the loss of the team's top returning receiver Sheldon Bass in the fall, and a series of injuries to deep threats Stacy Mitchell and Tony Darden, Lethridge passed for 1,885 yards and 12 TDs. A major factor in the Raider's success was the fact Lethridge, just a sophomore, threw only nine interceptions all year.

All-American Zach Thomas

Darden and Mitchell will be 100 percent for the Copper Bowl which should help keep the safeties honest for Hanspard.

On defense, the Raiders have big play people at nearly every position. Heading the defense is two-time All-American Zach Thomas. The 6-foot, 232 lb. senior is a Butkas Award finalist and also a finalist for Defensive Player of the Year.

Thomas led Tech in tackles with 131, including 13 for loss. Thomas caused six fumbles and recovered four, intercepted two passes (including the game winner against Texas A&M), had three sacks and broke up seven pass attempts.

As good a Thomas is, he may not be the best player on the Raider defense. That honor may belong to Marcus Coleman, a spectacular rover back who has a knack for the big play. Coleman, who is equally adept at stopping the run and covering wide receivers, has 72 tackles and 10 pass break ups on the season. He has scored eight defensive touchdowns in his career, including five off of interceptions

Shawn Banks and Robert Johnson complete a linebacking corps that is only challenged by Illinois as the best in the nation. Banks, Coleman and Thomas all have excellent shots at playing in the National Football League.

Tickets for the Copper Bowl are available at Tech and at the Academy. Texas Tech tickets are sideline seats and are $32 each. Tickets may be purchased at the Ticket office on north side of Jones Stadium or by calling 742-3341.

Academy seats are in the endzone and corner of the endzone. The discounted tickets are $9 for endzone and $16 for corner of the endzone. To obtain Academy seats call the ticket office at 1-800-666-8723. The ticket office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. CST, Monday through Friday.
